C. Furnishing false guaranties that fur products or fur are not misbranded, falsely advertised or falsely invoiced under the provisions of the Fur Products Labeling Act, when there is reason to believe that the fur products or fur falsely guaranteed may be introduced into or sold, transported or distributed in commerce.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: March 7, 1957.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; sec. 8, 65 Stat. 179; 15 U. S. C. 45, 69f) [Cease and desist order, Robert Koslow trading as Koslow's, Fort Worth, Texas, Docket 6668, Mar. 6, 1957]

In the Matter of Robert Koslow, an Individual, Trading and Doing Business as Koslow's

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a furrier in Fort Worth, Tex., with violating the Fur Products Labeling Act by advertisements in newspapers which failed to disclose the names of animals producing the fur contained in certain products or that fur products were composed of artificially colored fur or of paws, tails, bellies, or waste fur, and which represented prices falsely as reduced; by means of labels which contained fictitious prices and misrepresented values or failed otherwise to set forth information in the form required; and by failing to invoice products as required by the act.

Following entry of an agreement containing a consent order, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which by order of March 6, 1957, became the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Robert Koslow, individually, and trading under the name of Koslow's or any other name, and respondent's representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction into commerce, or the sale, advertising, or offering for sale in commerce, or the transportation or distribution in commerce, of fur products, or in connection with the sale, advertising, offering for sale, transportation, or distribution of fur products which have been made in whole or in part of fur which has been shipped and received in commerce, as "commerce", "fur" and "fur product" are defined in the Fur Products Labeling Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

A. Falsely or deceptively advertising fur products through the use of any advertisement, representation, public announcement, or notice which is intended to aid, promote or assist, directly or indirectly, in the sale or offering for sale of fur products, and which:

1. Fails to disclose:

a. The name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur or furs contained in the fur products, as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as prescribed under the rules and regulations;

b. That fur products contain or are composed of bleached, dyed or otherwise artificially colored fur, when such is the fact;

c. That fur products contain or are composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails or flanks, when such is the fact;

2. Represents, directly or by implication, that the regular or usual price of any fur product is any amount which is in excess of the price at which the respondent has usually and customarily sold such products in the recent regular course of his business.

B. Making use of comparative prices or percentage savings claims unless such compared prices or claims are based upon the current market value of the fur product or upon a bona fide compared price at a designated time.

C. Making pricing claims or representations respecting the wholesale prices, manufacturers' cost, reduced prices, comparative prices, percentage savings, or value or quality of fur or fur products, unless there is maintained and preserved by respondent adequate records disclosing the facts upon which such claims or representations are based.

D. Misbranding fur products by:

1. Falsely or deceptively labeling or otherwise identifying any such product as to the name or names of the animal or animals that produced the fur from which such product was manufactured.

2. Failing to affix labels to fur products showing:

a. The name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur or furs contained in the fur product as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as prescribed under the rules and regulations;

b. That the fur product contains or is composed of bleached, dyed or otherwise artificially colored fur, when such is a fact;

c. That the fur product is composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails, or flanks, when such is a fact;

d. The name or other identification issued and registered by the Commission, of one or more persons who manufactured such fur product for introduction into commerce, introduced it into commerce, sold it in commerce, advertised or offered it for sale in commerce or transported or distributed it in commerce;

e. The name of the country of origin of any imported furs used in the fur product.

3. Setting forth on labels attached to fur products fictitious prices or any misrepresentation as to the value of such fur product, either directly or by implication.

4. Setting forth on labels attached to fur products non-required information mingled with required information.

E. Falsely or deceptively invoicing fur products by:

1. Failing to furnish invoices to purchasers of fur products showing:

a. The name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur or furs contained in the fur product, as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as prescribed under the rules and regulations;

b. That the fur product contains or is composed of bleached, dyed or otherwise artificially colored fur, when such is a fact;

c. That the fur product is composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails, or flanks, when such is a fact;

d. The name and address of the person issuing such invoice;

e. The name of the country of origin of any imported fur contained in a fur product.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: March 6, 1957.

By the Commission.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter I—Office of the Secretary of Defense

Subchapter C—Military Personnel

PART 56—MEDICAL CARE FOR DEPENDENTS OF MEMBERS OF THE UNIFORMED SERVICES

IDENTIFICATION OF DEPENDENTS

The following amendment to § 56.2–2 of this Part 56 has been authorized by the Secretary of Defense and the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, who has been delegated the authority for this program by the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare:

Section 56.2–2 (b) (4) has been revised to read as follows:

(4) Dependents listed. Each dependent, ten years or over, entitled to medical care, will be issued DD Form 1173. Certification of minor dependents, under ten years of age, for eligibility for medical care will be the responsibility of the dependent, accompanying parent, member or acting guardian.

Chapter V—Department of the Army

Subchapter G—Procurement

PART 591—PROCUREMENT BY FORMAL ADVERTISING

PART 592—PROCUREMENT BY NEGOTIATION

PART 593—COORDINATED PROCUREMENT

PART 595—FOREIGN PURCHASES

PART 596—CONTRACT CLAUSES

PART 601—LABOR

PART 606—SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Add new paragraph (j) to § 591.201, and revise §§ 591.250, 591.251, and 591.252, as follows:

§ 591.201 Preparation of forms. * * *

(j) Identification of specifications. Each invitation for Bids shall list for each item included therein the applicable specifications as authorized for procurement in § 590.305 (a) of this subchapter, or will contain a description as provided in § 590.305 (c) of this subchapter. Such reference to specifications shall include the title and symbols, with revision letters if any, and dates, including amendments if any, identified by numbers and dates.

§ 591.250 Distribution of Invitations for Bids and Requests for Proposals. In addition to the distribution of Invitations for Bids or Requests for Proposals to prospective bidders referred to in §§ 2.202–1 and 3.101 of this title; and §§ 591.202–1 and 592.101 (c) of this subchapter, additional distribution shall be made as follows:

(a) Procurement Information Center. One copy of every unclassified Request for Proposals which is subject to being published in the Department of Commerce publications "Synopsis of U. S. Government Proposed Procurement, Sales, and Contract Awards" (§§ 2.206–1 and 3.106–1 of this title) and one copy of every unclassified Invitation for Bids and one copy of every amendment to each such Request for Proposals or Invitation for Bids, shall be sent directly, on the date issued, to the Procurement Information Center, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Old Post Office Building, Washington 25, D. C. Letters of transmittal are not necessary.

(b) Small Business Specialist or Small Business Representative at Purchasing Office. One copy of each Invitation for Bids or Request for Proposals and amendments thereto, described in paragraph (a) of this section, will be supplied for display purposes (§ 2.202–2 of this title) to the Small Business Specialist or Small Business Representative at the purchasing office of issuance. Three copies of DA Form 1877, properly completed by the Contracting Officer or his authorized representative in accordance with instructions contained in § 606.713 (c) of this subchapter 1 will then be completed by the Small Business Specialist or Small Business Representative in accordance with the referenced instructions).

(c) Equal or identical bids. See § 591.406–4 (b) for distribution of copies of invitations for bids in connection with the procedure on the submission of information on equal or identical bids.

(d) Classified purchases. See AR 380–5 for instructions as to the distribution of classified documents. In such cases, instead of the action indicated in paragraph (a) of this section, a letter will be forwarded to the office named therein, in substance as follows:

This office has issued invitation for bids No. ----------, dated ----------, bids to be opened on ----------, under TOP SECRET, SECRET, OR CONFIDENTIAL Project No. ----------.

(e) Other internal distribution. Heads of Procuring Activities may direct such additional internal distribution of invitation for bids as may be considered necessary.

§ 591.251 Amendments to Invitations for Bids. (a) Amendment(s) to Invitation for Bids must be distributed to all recipients of the Invitation for Bids. Amendment(s) to Invitation for Bids shall provide that the bidder may acknowledge receipt of the amendment(s) by so stating in the bid or by separate letter or telegram to the issuing office prior to bid opening. When amendment(s) to the Invitation for Bids are issued, the date set for opening of bids shall be postponed when necessary to afford bidders sufficient time to receive, consider, and acknowledge receipt of the amendment(s). In the event an amendment involving a change in pricing is not acknowledged prior to the opening of the bids, the bid shall be considered as not responsive, and further inquiry as to receipt need not be made.

(b) Any information given to a prospective bidder on an Invitation for Bids shall be furnished promptly to all other prospective bidders as an amendment to the invitation if such information is necessary to bidders in submitting bids on the invitation, or if lack of such information would be prejudicial to uninformed bidders. No award shall be made on the invitation unless such amendment has been issued in sufficient time to permit all prospective bidders to consider such information in submitting or modifying their bids.

(c) Amendments, if issued, will refer to the number, date of issue, and opening date of the original invitation, will clearly indicate the nature of the changes made therein, and will be numbered serially as issued. For example, the first amendment would be "Amendment 1."

§ 591.252 Identification of items by broad category. The item or category of items being procured will be shown in proper, simple nomenclature in large bold type on the face of each Invitation for Bid and Request for Proposal issued.

2. Sections 592.106–1, 592.152, and all of Subpart D, Part 592, are revised to read as follows:

§ 592.106–1 Synopsis of proposed procurements. Synopses of proposed negotiated procurement will be prepared by purchasing offices located in the continental United States in accordance with the requirements of § 591.206 of this subchapter. Such synopsized Requests for Proposals shall be displayed in accordance with § 2.202–2 of this title.

§ 592.152 F. o. b. purchasing policy. This policy with respect to purchasing f. o. b. origin or destination is set forth in § 1.306 of this title and Subpart J, Part 606 of this subchapter.

SUBPART D—TYPES OF CONTRACTS

§ 592.401 Types of contracts. In accordance with the basic policy set for in § 3.401 of this title the fixed price type of contract generally shall be used for negotiated contracts; other methods of contracting may be used only when the requirements of Subpart D, Part 3 of this title and § 606.104 of this subchapter have been satisfied.

(a) Pricing considerations. (1) It is the policy of the Army to obtain the maximum use of funds, and to secure the largest possible quantities of materials of requisite quality which can be purchased with those funds. To that end, efforts will be directed toward close initial pricing and close pricing on redetermination, rather than to rely on recapture of excessive profit by statutory renegotiation.

(2) It is the policy of the Army to secure "close prices," which will be fair both to the Government and the Contractor and which will provide an incentive for efficient performance by establishing an adequate margin of profit and by eliminating allowances for contingencies to the greatest extent possible. The objective of this policy is to keep management alert in an effort to avoid increased costs which would reduce the estimated profit, and to reduce costs, if possible, in order to increase the opportunity for additional profit.

§ 592.403 Fixed-price-type contracts. Part 15 of this title (Contract Cost Principles), will not be used in negotiating prices under fixed-price contracts, except to the extent that Contracting Officers deem it advisable, as a working guide only.

§ 592.403–3 Fixed-price contract providing for the redetermination of price. Contracting Officers, before including a price redetermination clause in any contract, will determine that the Contractor's accounting system is adequate to provide sufficient and reliable information for price redetermination purposes. To the extent deemed appropriate by the Contracting Officer, the services of the Army Audit Agency will be utilized in establishing the adequacy and reliability of Contractor's accounting systems. A statement, by the Contracting Officer, to the effect that the Contractor's accounting system has been determined adequate for price redetermination purposes will be made a part of individual contract files.

(a) An appropriate price redetermination clause should be used in fixed-price contracts in those instances when:

(1) There are no data to indicate reasonableness of price, such as lack of effective competition or the absence of an independent Government estimate; or

(2) The estimate of the low offeror, or the only offeror, exceeds the independent Government estimate by an unreasonable amount; or

(3) It is necessary or desirable to eliminate charges for contingencies from the contract amount; or

(4) It is necessary or desirable to incorporate incentives to increase production efficiency and to reduce costs; or

(5) Other circumstances require protection of the interests of the Government by use of price redetermination clauses.

(b) The forms of price redetermination clauses set forth in subparagraphs (1) through (3) of this paragraph may be included in negotiated, fixed-price contracts in accordance with the provisions of §§ 3.401 and 3.403 of this title and §§ 592.401 and 592.403 without approval of higher authority, except for those approvals as may be required by the Head of a Procuring Activity. Forms of price redetermination clauses not included in subparagraphs (1) through (3) of this paragraph will not be used without the prior approval of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, ATTN: Chief, Contracts Branch.

(1) Form II–B price redetermination clause. The Form II–B price redetermination clause appears in § 596.150–5 (a) of this subchapter.

(i) Limitations. In addition to the provisions of § 3.403–3 of this title, the Form II–B price redetermination clause may be used only where deliveries cover a period of at least 9 months.

(ii) Rules for administration. In negotiating a price adjustment under the Form II–B, price redetermination clause, the Contracting Officer will adhere to the following rules, in addition to the audit requirements set forth in § 606.207 of this subchapter.

(a) The negotiations to redetermine prices should ordinarily take into account all changes in specifications which have been made up to the time of the negotiations.

(b) Negotiations to redetermine prices will be conducted upon substantially the same basis as the original negotiation of a price when like information on costs and estimates is available.

(c) The Contracting Officer should take into consideration the fact that increases in certain costs may be offset by decreases in others. The Contracting Officer also should recognize that increases in wages and in the prices of materials will not necessarily increase, immediately or proportionately, the cost of items to be delivered by the Contractor. For example, some of the labor on work in process at the time of a wage increase may have been performed while lower rates of wages were in effect. Again, materials included in work in process may have been bought by the Contractor before the effective date of a price increase. Similarly, the Contractor may have an inventory on hand, or materials on order, at prices which are not affected by the current increases. Also, there may be savings not attributable to the efficiency of the Contractor.

(d) The Contractor's estimate of future costs will be considered in the light of all available data, including shop, engineering, accounting and other relevant information, which will help to check the accuracy of the estimate. When any component or components of the estimate are in question, the Contracting Officer should inquire into the physical facts, e. g., the number of men actually engaged in a particular operation or process, the quantity of material actually used, etc. Expense and overhead allocation are based upon an estimated amount of expense spread over an anticipated volume to be produced. Check of the actual rate of expenditures and the actual volume being produced should be made so that the rates used may be founded on up-to-date forecasts. The aggregate of those charges included in the prices of contracts entered into within the current period should be considered in order to avoid excessive prices through over-absorption of such charges.

(e) In addition to consideration of the Contractor's cost experience under the contract and its estimates of future production costs, the Contracting Officer should make use of comparative prices, comparative costs and the trends of such prices and costs. If, since the making of the contract, prices have become competitive, particular weight shall be given to comparative prices, to the end that the effect of competitive forces may be fully realized for the benefit of the Government.

(f) The Contracting Officer should make such use and verification of the estimate and the supporting cost data submitted by the Contractor as he would make with respect to similar data upon the negotiation of a price under a new contract.

(g) The negotiations will be promptly instituted and concluded in strict accordance with the provisions of the clause. Every effort will be made to come to an agreement as to revised price or prices.

(h) Upon the conclusion of each negotiation for price revision, the revised price or prices will be evidenced by a supplemental agreement. The supplemental agreement should clearly indicate what costs, if any, of a nonrecurring nature have been recognized as having been paid for in prices for the preceding period or periods, so as to avoid the possibility of a second payment therefor in the event of termination at the option of the Government.

(i) Wherever a contract containing the Form II–B price redetermination clause is modified by change order or supplemental agreement, so as to affect the rate of deliveries or quantities of items called for, the Contracting Officer will take care to deal with and cover explicitly any modification in the operation of the price redetermination clause which he considers are made necessary by the modification of rates of deliveries or quantities.

(j) Proper administration of the Form II–B clause requires that the Contracting Officer make regular periodic reviews of the contract price to ascertain whether or not a demand should be served. No demand should be made by the Contracting Officer, and the Contractor should be discouraged from making such demand, unless a sound basis exists for believing that a redetermination of price is necessary to protect the interest of the Government or the Contractor. The need for such a demand may be indicated by factors such as the following:

(2) Movements or trends in such prices.

(3) Movements or trends in the prices asked by other Contractors for the same or similar items.

(5) Changes in market prices of materials or components.

(k) The first revised forward price under the Form II–B clause and prices negotiated pursuant to a demand under the clause should be based on projections extending over the remaining life of the contract and should not take into account possible increases in costs.

(2) Form III price redetermination clause. The Form III price redetermination clause appearing in § 596.150–5 (b) of this subchapter provides for retroactive pricing by mutual agreement. It is designed primarily for use in contracts of $100,000 or less for experimental or developmental items or services. This clause, however, should be used also in contracts for the procurement of any item or service, when it is not possible to determine reasonableness of price at the time of negotiation. By its terms the Contracting Officer is empowered, after completion or termination of the contract, to demand that the parties negotiate to reduce the entire contract price. The redetermination of price effected thereunder is wholly retroactive.

(i) Limitations. In addition to the provisions of § 3.403–3 (b) (5) of this title, the Form III price redetermination clause may be used only when:

(a) The amount of the negotiated contract is $100,000 or less.

(b) There are no data available to indicate reasonableness of price.

(c) Contractor's estimate is believed to contain contingencies. (It will not be assumed that a Contractor who agrees to inclusion of this price redetermination clause is assuming appreciable risk, unless it can be determined that the price offered by him does not include contingency provisions.)

(ii) Rules for administration. (a) If the production cost figures indicate that the price was high, the Contracting Officer will make the demand contemplated by the clause and will proceed promptly with and conclude the redetermination of the price in accordance with the clause.

(b) The Contracting Officer should make such use and verification of the cost data as he would make with respect to similar data upon the negotiation of a price under a new contract. The verification may include an examination and audit of the Contractor's books and records.

(c) The profit to be allowed under this contract upon redetermination of price shall be subject to negotiation.

(d) The redetermined price will be evidenced by a supplemental agreement making adequate provision to secure to the Government the benefit of the reduction.

(3) Form IV price redetermination clause. The Form IV price redetermination clause appearing in § 596.150–5 (c) of this subchapter provides for retroactive pricing with a limited upward revision. This clause, providing for upward or downward price revision, is authorized for use in negotiated contracts for supplies or services where the quantity being procured is moderate and the period of the contract does not cover an extended period of time. Under the clause a contract price is agreed upon (target price) which it is believed will tend to compel the Contractor to do as efficient a job as possible in the circumstances, and at the same time a maximum price is fixed as a ceiling (normally not to exceed 10 percent of target price) on any upward redetermination under the clause. The redetermination of price takes place after completion or termination of the contract and is wholly retroactive.

(i) Limitations.

(ii) Rules for administration:

(a) The time limitations prescribed in the clause will be strictly followed.

(b) The Contracting Officer should make such use and verification of the cost data submitted by the Contractor as he would make with respect to similar data upon the negotiation of a price under a new contract. The verification may include the examination and audit of the Contractor's books and records.

(c) The negotiations under the clause may result in a redetermined price which is the same as, or higher or lower than, the contract price but never is a redetermined price in excess of the maximum price.

(d) The redetermined price will be evidenced by a supplemental agreement making adequate provision to secure to the Government the benefit of any price reduction negotiated, or for payment to the Contractor of any price increase, as the case may be.

(c) Ceiling price provision. Upward revision to be established in Forms II–B and IV price redetermination clauses will be limited to 10 percent in all possible cases and in no event will exceed 25 percent without the prior approval of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Chief, Contracts Branch.

§ 592.403–4 Fixed-price incentive contract—(a) Description. Fixed-price incentive contract clauses are set forth in § 596.150–6 of this subchapter. The primary objective of the incentive provisions in fixed-price contracts is to bring about a lower price to the Government by stimulating efficiencies in the contractor's performance. This type contract does not offer as great incentive for cost reductions as the firm fixed-price type and shall not be used when circumstances permit the negotiation of a firm fixed-price contract. Incentive is provided by permitting the contractor's profit to increase as costs decrease and to decrease as costs increase in relation to a target cost established by negotiation. Terms used in this section relative to fixed-price incentive contracts are defined in the text of the clauses set forth in § 596.150–6 of this subchapter.

(b) Applicability. Incentive type contracts should be used only when a reasonable opportunity exists for the contractor to reduce his costs. For instance, if purchased raw materials and parts comprise a high percentage of total cost there may be little possibility of cost reduction, and any contractual incentive to reduce costs would be pointless.

(c) Limitations. In addition to the provisions of § 3.403–4 (c) of this title, incentive price revision clauses set forth in § 596.150–6 (a) and (b) of this subchapter may be used in negotiated fixed-price contracts under the circumstances outlined herein. The incentive contract shall not be used as a substitute for firm fixed-price contracting, but may be used to encourage efficiency and at the same time provide some degree of protection for both contracting parties where a firm fixed-price contract is not feasible. The objective is to permit reasonable pricing and still preserve enough flexibility in pricing so that, within agreed limits, a contractor's profit may vary in accordance with a negotiated formula. The use of an incentive price revision clause must be premised on the ability of the contractor to maintain accounting records in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practices, to the extent and in such detail as is necessary for establishment of costs applicable to the contract. Such clauses are appropriate for use primarily in those contracts which require quantity production over an extended period of time, but are not intended to preclude the use of other types of price redetermination provisions.

(d) Instructions—(1) General. (i) The items which are subject to incentive price revision should be indicated in the appropriate blanks of paragraph (b) (i) of the clauses. These items which are subject to pricing in accordance with the provisions of a document incorporated in the contract by reference, or which are priced in some manner other than that set forth in the clause, should be indicated in the appropriate blanks of paragraph (b) (ii). The items, if any, which are not subject to incentive price revision and which will be paid for on a fixed-price basis should be indicated in the appropriate blanks of paragraph (b) (iii).

(ii) Provisions may be made for separate formulas applicable to specified articles or services. In the clause entitled "Items, Priced, Pursuant to Established Repair Parts, Procurement Procedures," the prices of items, articles or services added by amendment or supplemental agreement shall ordinarily be target prices. Billing prices may, however, be negotiated when, in the opinion of the Contracting Officer, sufficient information is not available on which to negotiate reasonable target prices, in which event the amendment or supplemental agreement shall provide a definitive cutoff point or date during the course of deliveries under the contract for conversion of such billing prices to target prices. In either case, the target price when established shall indicate the target cost and target profit included therein, and the contract target cost shall be adjusted to reflect the cumulative effect thereof at the time of final price revision. In those instances where items, articles or services so added are priced on a fixed-price basis, they shall be paid accordingly, and the elements of cost and profit involved shall be excluded from the costs and profits considered in final price revision. Fixed-price items shall be added only when the costs thereof can be segregated from all other contract costs.

(iii) Prices established for contract changes shall be target prices; such prices shall indicate the target cost and target profit included therein. The contract target cost shall at the time of final price revision be adjusted to reflect the net effect of increases and decreases in target cost resulting from such changes.

(iv) The paragraphs of the clauses entitled "Adjustment of Billing Price" (§596.150–6 (a) and (b) of this subchapter) make possible the negotiation and adjustment of prices at which the articles delivered are being billed under invoices submitted by the contractor either upward or downward as production progresses under the contract. If it appears at any time that the final unit price or final contract price will be substantially less than the billing or target price, it will be desirable to adjust the billing price downward. In like manner, if it appears at any time that the final unit price or final contract price will be substantially greater than the billing price or target price, it will be desirable to increase the price at which articles are being billed. Any such change in billing price shall not affect either ceiling or target price.

(v) Fixed-price incentive contracts will be treated the same as contracts which provide for price redetermination for the purpose of determining audit requirements and of following procedures set forth in § 606.207 of this subchapter.

(2) Price revision clause with initially firm target data. (i) The clause set forth in § 596.150–6 (a) of this subchapter should be used where there is sufficient and pertinent cost and production experience to establish fair and reasonable target prices at the time the contract is negotiated, and there is reason to believe that the cost of production may be substantially reduced by providing an incentive to encourage efficiency. The prices originally negotiated and set forth in the contract will be target prices.

(ii) The incentive formula establishing the percentages for the target profit, the contractor's participating share in excess costs or in savings, and the maximum contract price for all items subject to price revision, in the case of those contracts where target costs are set at the outset of the contracts, shall be negotiated and made a part of the contract prior to its execution.

(3) Price revision clause with delayed firm target data. (i) The clause set forth in § 596.150–6 (b) of this subchapter should be used only where fair and reasonable target prices cannot be established at the time the contract is negotiated because of lack of sufficient and pertinent cost or production experience, but can be determined after production of a reasonable quantity. The prices originally negotiated and set forth in the contract will be billing prices. This clause provides for the submission of data upon which to base the negotiation of target prices after delivery or shop completion of a designated number of articles. The date for submission of the data must be early in the course of deliveries under the contract. In those cases where the Government has currently in production, with the same contractor, articles of a type similar to those subject to incentive price revision and the Government and the contractor do not have adequate cost or production experience upon which to negotiate target prices at the time the new contract is negotiated, the time for negotiation of target prices and submissions of the data will be premised on the delivery of a designated number of the articles to be delivered under the previous production contract. Pending establishment of a targe price, the Government's obligation to make payment, whether through progress payments, deliveries, termination, or otherwise, shall be limited to the amount set forth in subparagraph (c) of the clause, which amounts shall reflect the contractor's anticipated expenditures, its commitments to its subcontractors and vendors and such allowance for profit on delivered items as is permitted pursuant to the payment provisions of the contract during the period prior to establishment of the target price.

(ii) In those cases where, due to insufficient data, it is necessary to establish target costs during the course of the contract, the incentive formula establishing such percentages shall be negotiated and made a part of the contract at the time target costs are set.

(iii) Under the clause in § 596.150–6 (b) of this subchapter the target prices of any changes directed prior to the establishment of the contract target price may be established at the time of negotiation of the contract target price.

(4) Termination. In the event the entire contract is terminated, prices for completed items or services shall be subject to negotiation, and such prices, within the provisions of the contract, shall be revised as may be equitable under the circumstances. In the event of a partial termination such revision should include an adjustment of target costs, target profits, contract ceiling, and other contract provisions effected by the partial termination.

§ 592.403–50 Administration of fixed-price contracts—(a) Payments on incentive type and price-redetermination type contracts. (1) It is the policy of the Department of the Army in connection with incentive-type and price redetermination type contracts to assure payment of amounts fairly due for items delivered and accepted or services performed, to reduce the need for refunds by contractors, to facilitate timely adjustment of provisional billing prices, and prompt completion of final pricing.

(2) The clause prescribed in §§ 596.150–5 and 596.150–6 of this subchapter for incentive-type and price redetermination type contracts contain provision to accomplish the purpose of the policy stated above; therefore, all new contracts of the incentive-type and price redetermination type, all definitive contracts of the incentive or price redetermination type replacing or superseding letter contracts, all amendments providing an incentive or price redetermination clause in contracts not previously containing such a clause, and all amendments to contracts of the incentive or price redetermination type providing for new or additional procurement entered into on or after July 1, 1956 shall contain the applicable clause prescribed in Part 596 of this subchapter.

(3) (i) Contracting Officer will exercise every effort to bring about prompt redetermination of prices, or the setting of firm target prices when incentive type contracts are concerned, by vigilant and timely attention to the contract administration aspects of each contract. Nothing contained herein will diminish a Contracting Officer's responsibilities.

(ii) The separate price redetermination clauses set forth in § 596.150–5 of this subchapter impose upon contractors specific time limits within which to submit data for price redetermination purposes. These time limits do not exceed a maximum of 60 days after the redetermination point is reached. Heads of Procuring Activities will establish necessary administrative procedures and controls to insure that, following receipt of a contractor's price redetermination data, price redetermination actions are completed and necessary documents presented to contractors for execution within a period of time no greater than that prescribed for the Contractor to submit price redetermination data in accordance with the price redetermination provisions of the contract concerned. Contracting Officers will finalize price redetermination actions within not more than 120 calendar days after the redetermination point specified in the particular contract is reached. A statement of the specific reasons for any failure to complete a price redetermination action within the time limits prescribed above will be prepared and made a part of the individual contract file concerned. In addition, notification of such failure will be promptly made in each instance, through channels, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D. C., ATTN: Chief, Contracts Branch. This notification will identify the contract, contracting activity, and contractor concerned.

(iii) The contract clauses prescribed in § 596.150–5 of this subchapter for price redetermination-type contracts provide that agreement in writing between the Contractor and Contracting Officer upon revised billing prices which are lower than the contract prices, redetermination offer, or most recent quarterly cost statement, establishes such prices as final prices for payment limiting purposes if the Contractor also agrees to adjust past payments and subsequent billings to the agreed upon revised billing prices. It is therefore essential, if proposed revised billing prices appear fair and reasonable, that agreement on such prices be promptly concluded. This is especially important when the contract concerned contains a Form II–B Price Redetermination Clause (§ 596.150–5 (a) of this subchapter) since date of the agreement establishes a definite cutoff point for submission by contractors of quarterly cost statements. Although not specified in the clauses referred to above, contractors' quarterly cost statements should be submitted to the Contracting Officer administering the contract concerned. It is essential that Contracting Officers and Disbursing Officers maintain close liaison in order that payments will be made in accordance with the contract provisions. Unless the Contracting Officer has good cause to doubt or question the accuracy of the quarterly cost statements furnished by contractors, such statements will be relied upon and prompt payments under the contract will continue to be made pending any post-audit or post-review that may be necessary to protect the interests of the Government.

(iv) Contracting officers will systematically and periodically review all incentive-type and price redetermination type contracts for the purpose of obtaining voluntary interim price adjustments and prompt refunds as appropriate (paragraph (c) of this section). The making of voluntary refunds in anticipation of retroactive price reductions will be encouraged. No proposed voluntary refund will be refused or delayed, and all such refunds will be tendered and accepted without prejudice to final pricing. In connection with voluntary refunds, minimum refunds proposed by contractors in connection with final pricing proposals, and refunds incident to quarterly statements, contractors will not be required to furnish concurrent itemization of adjustments to be made on past billings, nor to furnish adjusted bills concurrently. Such adjustments as may be essential in connection with refunds will be accomplished by appropriate Government personnel, with such information as may be essential from contractors after refunds are made, and the making acceptance and deposits of refunds will not be delayed pending the making of any necessary accounting adjustments. When reductions in billing prices are proposed by contractors, they will be made effective immediately without prejudice to further adjustment, and billings voluntarily reduced by contractors will, if otherwise proper, be paid at the reduced amounts without awaiting contract amendments.

(v) For use in expediting and controlling price redeterminations and refunds, contracting officers will establish and maintain, as an integral part of individual contract files, a control list which will indicate the current status of the items listed below incident to all incentive-type and price redetermination type contracts. The control list will reflect, as a minimum for each contract of the type concerned (a) Contractor's name and location, (b) Contract number and amount, (c) Whether contract is of the incentive or price redetermination type (and form of price redetermination clause, as appropriate), (d) Whether contract provides for partial or progress payments and if so, basis on which progress payments are computed, (e) Whether contract contains a withholding provision and basis for withholding, (f) Actual date price redetermination point is reached, (g) Date acceptable price redetermination data is received from the Contractor, (h) Date revised billing prices agreed upon, (i) Dates on which audit, if applicable, is begun and completed, (j) Dates price redetermination negotiations begun and completed, (k) Dates of submission to, and execution by, contractor of amendment or supplemental agreement on revised prices, (l) Amount of Contractor indebtedness, if any, resulting from price redetermination and current status, (m) Date and amount of any voluntary refunds made by contractor. Heads of Procuring Activities will insure that the above information is maintained in a current status and readily available at all times.

(vi) Where the Contracting Officer has discretion to control payments through withholding provisions under an existing contract of the incentive or price redetermination type, which does not contain clauses prescribed in Part 596 of this subchapter, the contract (insofar as possible) shall be administered to the maximum extent permitted by such withholding provisions, so that on and after 1 July 1956 the total aggregate payments will be limited as though the contract contained the applicable clause prescribed in Part 596 of this subchapter. In the event Contracting Officers are unable to obtain from the Contractor necessary information to determine the amounts that would be permitted if the contract contained the applicable clause referred to above and cannot obtain agreement to limit payments accordingly, subsequent payments under the contract will be withheld to the maximum extent permitted in accordance with the withholding provision of the contract.

(vii) Section 1481 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and Section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 provide for certain tax credits in connection with contract price refunds (paragraph (c) of this section). The contract clauses prescribed in Part 596 of this subchapter do not alter the effect of those statutory provisions. Contracts shall be administered in such manner as to allow this statutory tax credit whenever applicable under the circumstances. Whenever there is a "gross excess" under those contract provisions, the amount of such tax credit shall be allowed in partial settlement of the gross excess determined without reference to such tax credit, and only the remainder of the excess after such tax credit allowance shall be subject to refund by the Contractor. Also, applicable previous tax credits shall be excluded in computing refunds previously made, and the amount of tax credits shall be deducted from the "gross excess" in computing the amount that may be added or restored to the unliquidated progress payment amount.

(viii) It is intended that payment at contract billing prices will be made before submission of the first required quarterly statement, and thereafter as adjusted during the intervals between quarterly statements.

(b) Administration of price redetermination clauses. The following policy will apply to the administration of all price redetermination clauses.

(1) In price revision negotiations, the objective of the Contracting Officer shall be to negotiate a fair and reasonable revised price in which due weight is given to all relevant factors, including those taken into account when the initial contract price was negotiated. By way of illustration, but not limitation, full consideration shall be given to such matters as the Contractor's general performance, efficiency, economy, and ingenuity displayed in meeting contract requirements, including the delivery schedules, quality of the product, the character and extent of the subcontracting, cost data including questioned costs and the allocability and reasonableness of costs, changes in market conditions, competitive aspects of the original negotiation, as well as the competitive prices for the same or similar items, extent of Contractor's technical, production and financial risk, and Government assistance in the form of facilities, equipment, or financing. All of the above factors shall be considered to the extent pertinent to the specific negotiation and no price revision negotiations shall be based solely on a single factor. The record of the negotiations should be in sufficient detail to reflect the most significant considerations controlling the establishment of the revised price.

(2) Compliance with the policy stated in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph requires that Contracting Officers rely on educated judgment and not on mechanical rules or mathematical formulas. Compliance further requires that pricing decisions shall not be made solely on the basis of a determination of cost and profit. It follows that the Contracting Officer need not negotiate agreements with Contractors as to the individual elements of cost.

(3) In order that the positions of the Government and the Contractor will not be prejudiced in price revision proceedings, such negotiations shall be conducted promptly.

(c) Revenue ruling (IRB 1953–7 price redeterminations. Section 1481, Internal Revenue Code, 1954 (formerly section 3806, I. R. C., 1939), Revenue Ruling 53 (C. B. 1953–1, 479), and Revenue Ruling 54083 (C. B. 1954–1, 288) pertain to payment of income taxes by contractors having fixed price contracts with provision for price redetermination. To minimize the effect of these provisions on the Department of the Army appropriations, Contracting Officers will, where feasible, execute a contract supplement, or obtain from the Contractor a credit memorandum or a definite commitment, preferably in writing, to reduce the contract price, prior to the date on which the Contractor files his completed income tax return. (Sections 6081 (a), Internal Revenue Code, 1954, authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate to grant contractors extensions of time, not to exceed six months, within which income tax returns are required to be filed).

§ 592.404 Cost-reimbursement type contract. Subject to the limitations of § 3.404 of this title, cost-reimbursement type contract may be used in procurements where fixed-price (with or without provision for adjustment of price) contracts are not suitable. Fees to be negotiated in this type of contract will be evaluated and negotiated on the basis of the extent and nature of the work to be supervised or the services to be performed by the Contractor, and not by the amount of the estimated cost of performing the contract. The standards for the determination and allowances of costs in connection with the performance of cost-reimbursement type contracts are set forth in Part 15 of this title.

§ 592.404–4 Cost-plus-incentive-fee contract—(a) Description. The Cost-plus-incentive-fee contract is a cost-reimbursement type contract with provision for a fee which is adjusted by formula in accordance with the relationship which total allowable costs bear to target costs. Under this type of contract, there is negotiated initially a target cost, a target fee, a minimum and maximum fee, and a fee adjustment formula. After performance of the contract, the final contract fee is determined in accordance with the formula. The formula provides, within limits, for increases in fee above target fee when total allowable costs are less than target costs, and decreases in fee below target fee when total allowable costs exceed target costs. The provision for increase or decrease in the fee is designed as an incentive to the Contractor to increase his efficiency of performance. Terms used relative to cost-plus-incentive-fee contracts are defined in the text of the clause set forth in § 596.203–50 of this subchapter.

(b) Applicability. (1) The cost-plus-incentive-fee contract should be used only after it has been determined that use of a cost-type contract is in the best interest of the Government and the use of the provision for incentive revision of fee may be expected to reduce the ultimate cost of the procurement.

(2) Consideration should be given to using the cost-plus-incentive-fee provision in production contracts involving reasonably long production runs, where, (i) the estimated costs of performance can be reasonably forecast, and (ii) the Contractor's cost accounting system is sufficiently reliable and accurate to identify the costs of performance. Care must be exercised in negotiating contract target costs. Inflated or excessively low target costs may enhance or impair the operation of the incentive fee provision of the contract, without relating to economy in performance.

(3) In addition to the requirement of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, Contracting Officers may give consideration to use of the cost-plus-incentive-fee type contract where:

(i) Production experience is limited, or

(ii) Developmental work will be required under the contract, or

(iii) The contract is to be performed in a Government-owned plant with the use of Government-owned facilities.

(c) Instructions—(1) General. New target costs will be mutually determined whenever a change order or supplemental agreement is made which increases or decreases the work required under the contract. Target costs agreed upon for work under change orders and supplemental agreements must be realistic. Negotiations for the establishment of target costs should be conducted in accordance with existing cost principles (Part 15 of this title).

(2) Fee Schedule. The measure of the increase and the decrease in the fee (in subparagraph (j) (2) of the cost-plus-incentive-fee clause) shall normally be the same. The contract schedule shall set forth target fees for each item and "maximum" and "minimum" incentive fees for each item which shall normally be equidistant from the respective target fees. In appropriate cases, the maximum and minimum incentive fees may be stated in terms of percentages of the target fees. Under some circumstances, it may be appropriate to use a sliding scale; for example, 0.01 cent for the first $100 of increased or decreased cost, 0.02 cent for the second $100, etc. Under such circumstances the Contractor's participation will be on an increasing scale for each increment, never on a decreasing scale. The wording of paragraph (j) (2) of the cost-plus-incentive-fee clause will be changed to reflect the sliding scale participation when used.

(3) Determination and findings. Where cost-plus-incentive-fee contracts are used, a Determination and Finding will be prepared in accordance with the provisions of Subpart C, Part 3 of this title and Subpart C of this part.

(4) Termination. In the event the contract is terminated, in whole or in part, the incentive fee under the cost-plus-incentive-fee contract shall be revised as may be equitable under the circumstances, and adjusted in the manner permitted or required by the contract. In the event of a partial termination such revision should include an adjustment of target cost, target fee, and other contract provisions with relation to the remaining portion which is affected by the partial termination.

(5) Limitation on fee. The target and the maximum fee shall be subject to the administrative limitations stated in § 3.404–3 (c) of this title.

§ 592.405–1 Time and materials contract—(a) Justification of Use. The official contract file will contain a statement, accomplished by the Contracting Officer, which will include information such as the following:

(1) Hourly rates, including overhead and profit, compared with:

(i) Previous Government contracts of this type.

(ii) Rates normally charged on commercial contracts of this type.

(iii) Existing contracts with other agencies.

(2) Complete justification of profit percentages in excess of 10 percent of direct labor and labor overhead.

(b) Reimbursement for material. All time and material type contracts will provide that material purchased, manufactured, or otherwise procured thereunder shall be reimbursed by the Government to the contractor at cost. For the purpose of this section, the term "at cost" will be construed to mean:

(1) Standard commercial parts. When the Contractor purchases the material furnished, the net cost (cost clear of anything extraneous, i. e., cash discounts, trade discounts, rebates, commissions, and any other allowances and credits available to the Contractor) to the contractor, regardless of date purchased, plus properly identified and supported freight or transportation charges, if any, paid by the Contractor. Other costs, such as material handling expense, which must be included as a part of overhead in the unit labor rate, are not allowable under this section.

(2) Fabricated special parts. When the Contractor manufactures the material furnished as a nonstandard item, the net cost, including direct labor expense, direct material expense (clear of all deductions, such as cash discounts, trade discounts, rebates, commissions, and any other allowances and credits available to the Contractor) to the Contractor, plus allocable freight or transportation charges, other direct charges, if any, and related overhead costs but no allowance for profit.

(3) Fabricated standard parts. (i) When the Contractor manufactures the parts furnished as a standard item, the net cost (after deducting all discounts, rebates, commissions, and all charges for the contractor's profit) will constitute the charge allowable at date of delivery to the Government; however, (ii) when all or some of the parts furnished appear on a current Federal Supply Schedule the contract will make reference to the applicable schedule(s) and the cost will not exceed the schedule price but will be the lesser price allowed under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

§ 592.405–3 Letter contract—(a) Approval requirement. Letter contracts, or any other type of preliminary contract, will not be used without prior approval of the Chief, Contracts Branch, Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, except that, subject to the limitation set forth in § 3.405–3 of this title and this section, Chiefs and acting chiefs of technical services are authorized to issue letter contracts in amounts representing not more than 50 percent of the total estimated amount of the definitive contract, provided, the estimated amount of the definitive contract does not exceed the approval authority of the particular technical service as authorized in §§ 606.204–3, 606.204–4 and 606.204–6 of this subchapter. Chief of technical services may redelegate this authority to the extent deemed necessary without authority of further redelegation. When the total estimated amount of the proposed definitive contract exceeds that which the procuring technical service is authorized to approve, or where it is desired to award a letter contract in an amount in excess of 50 percent of the total estimated amount of the proposed definitive contract, prior approval of the Chiefs, Contracts Branch, Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army is required.

(b) Conditions for use. In addition to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, the authority to issue letter contracts is contingent upon compliance with the following:

(1) That the definitive contracts will contain all required standard clauses, in addition to such standard optional clauses as are necessary to protect fully the interest of the Government, and that this provision will be made a condition of each letter contract.

(2) That all fixed-price contracts, when there is no information upon which to base reasonableness of price, will contain applicable standard price redetermination clauses with upward limitations thereunder held to a minimum, but in no event to exceed 25 percent, and that this provision shall be made a condition of each applicable letter contract.

(i) Irrespective of total estimated definitive contract amount, a definitive contract or letter contract providing for a price redetermination clause with upward revision exceeding 25 percent must have prior approval of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Chief, Contracts Branch.

(ii) Independent Government estimate, prepared prior to receiving estimate from the proposed Contractor, may be used to determine reasonableness of price.

(3) That the fixed-fee in a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee type of contract will not exceed the limitations set forth in § 3.404–3 (c) of this title, with further consideration given to the following:

(i) The absence of risk to the Contractor.

(ii) The estimated quantity of the following as compared with the total estimated definitive contract price: (a) Material, (b) subcontracting, (c) purchased parts, and (d) "Off-the-Shelf" items.

(iii) The size of the proposed contract.

(4) That the profit to be paid shall be consistent with the protection afforded to the contractor in the minimizing or removal of risk to him, with due consideration given to the estimated quantity of the following as compared to the total estimated contract price: (i) Material, (ii) subcontracting, (iii) purchased parts, and (iv) "Off-the-Shelf" items.

(5) That the duration of the letter contract will not exceed 180 days from the date of execution. Extensions which increase the duration beyond 180 days will not be made without prior approval of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Chief, Contracts Branch.

(c) Information to be furnished when requesting approval of letter contracts. Requests for authority to award letter contracts submitted to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Chief, Contracts Branch, must indicate that the use will be in accordance with the basic policies set forth in § 3.405–3 of this title, and will include the following:

(1) Statement as to the necessity and advantage to the Government of the use of the proposed letter contract.

(2) Name and address of proposed Contractor.

(3) Location where contract is to be performed.

(4) Brief description of supplies and quantities to be furnished or services to be rendered.

(5) Duration of letter contract in number of days from date of execution.

(6) Amount of letter contract.

(7) Total estimated definitive contract amount, including estimated cost of (i) facilities, (ii) special tooling equipment, etc., (iii) activation or reactivation, (iv) training of personnel, and (v) subcontracting.

(8) Estimated delivery schedule.

(9) Type of definitive contract proposed (fixed-price, cost-plus-a-fixed-fee, etc.).

(10) Statement as to whether the definitive contract will contain all required standard clauses in accordance with Subchapter A, Chapter I of this title, and this subchapter, other Department of the Army directives.

(11) List of all standard optional clauses which will be made a part of the definitive contract, including (i) Patent clauses, (ii) Copyright clause, (iii) Special Tooling clause, (iv) Government Property clause, (v) Facility agreement, and (vi) Price Redetermination clause (including form number and percentage of upward revision).

(12) Statement that the provisions of subparagraphs (10) and (11) of this paragraph will be made a condition of the subject letter contract.

(13) Statement that the minimization of risk, through inclusion of the price redetermination clause, will be given due consideration in determining the rate of profit to be allowed, with further attention given to the amount of each of the following as compared to the total estimated contract amount: (i) Material, (ii) subcontracting, (iii) purchased parts, and (iv) "Off-the-Shelf" items.

(14) Source of funds to be used in the proposed procurement, showing:

(i) Total allocated, and

(ii) Total obligated to date, exclusive of the proposed letter contract.

(15) Statement that research and development funds will not be used when the work to be covered is not for research and development.

(16) Statement that the definitive contract will be executed with a minimum of delay.

(17) Statement that the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Chief, Contracts Branch, will be notified through the Head of the respective Procuring Activity, without delay, as to the date of execution of the letter contract.

(18) Statement that request for approval of the definitive contract, if required, will be forwarded in time to reach the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Chief, Contracts Branch, no later than 15 days prior to the expiration of the letter contract.

(19) Statement that the letter contract will be reported on Individual Procurement Action Report (DD Form 350) in the amount of the letter contract; and that subsequent reports will be submitted, when and if changes are made in the amount of obligation of the letter contract, only in the amount of such change, whether plus or minus. Further, that when formal contract is executed, report will be made only in the amount of the definitive contract, less the cumulative obligation under the letter contract and any changes thereto. (See Subpart C, Part 606 of this subchapter.)

(d) Approval for modification of letter contracts. Letter contracts approved for issuance by the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, will not be extended or amended without prior approval of Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Chief, Contracts Branch. Requests for approval of extensions or increases will include the following:

(1) Name and address of Contractor.

(2) Description of work to be performed, showing quantity of items originally approved.

(i) If quantities have been increased subsequent to original approval, show such quantities, authority, and date.

(ii) If additional quantities are to be procured, show such quantities and new total.

(3) Date originally approved.

(4) Date letter contract was executed.

(5) Duration originally approved.

(i) If extensions in the duration have been made subsequent to original approval, show such extensions, authority, and dates.

(ii) If additional days are required, show number required and new total.

(6) Amount of letter contract originally approved.

(i) If increases have been made subsequent to original approval, show each increase, authority, and dates.

(ii) If additional increase is required, show amount and new total, and source of funds, including (a) total allocated, and (b) total obligated to date, exclusive of the proposed increase.

(7) Estimated definitive contract total originally approved.

(i) If increases have been made subsequent to original approval, show each increase, authority, and date.

(ii) If additional increase is required, show amount and new total.

(8) Complete justification for extension or increase requested, including reasons as to why definitive contract cannot be executed without such amendment.

NOTE: The requirements of this section shall not be construed to restrict Procuring Activities from approving definitive contracts, within the authority of § 606.204 of this subchapter, for which letter contracts were approved by the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Chief, Contracts Branch, prior to the delegation of such authority.

§ 592.405–51 Informal commitments. (a) An informal commitment is a verbal order or written communication by a Contracting Officer or his authorized agent, requesting a person or firm to furnish supplies or services to the Government or a defense Contractor.

(b) Informal commitments will be entered into under the circumstances only as authorized by § 606.409–1 (c) of this subchapter, and pursuant to instructions of the Head of a Procuring Activity issued under authority contained in this subchapter.

(c) Informal commitments will not be entered into for specific amounts. The basis of payment will be "fair compensation" as approved by the appropriate approving authority, depending upon the amount involved.

(d) Requests for formalization of informal commitments will be processed pursuant to § 606.409–2 of this subchapter, within 10 days after completion of performance thereof.

(e) No payment will be made or certified in connection with an informal commitment until formalization has been approved and accomplished.

§ 592.405–52 Cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost system of contracting—(a) General. Advise price and price to be negotiated subcontracts, as well as transactions evidenced by contracts or purchase orders issued after performance has been substantially completed, have attributes which, depending upon the particular factual situation, may violate the statutory prohibition against the cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost system of contracting.

(b) Policy. Contracting Officers will insure that the review of contractual instruments, including subcontracts requiring approval, are examined to ascertain whether they are cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost in nature and therefore legally objectionable.

(c) Procedure. (1) Such review will be accomplished as follows:

(i) Prime contracts, and subcontracts which require the approval of the Contracting Officer, will be reviewed prior to execution or approval; and

(ii) Subcontracts which do not require approval of the Contracting Officer will be reviewed at the time of audit or prior to final settlement and payment.

(2) The cognizant audit agencies will accomplish such audit as are requested by Contracting Officers for the purpose of securing data needed in connection with determining the reasonableness of contractors' and subcontractors' costs. Such action will not preclude audit personnel from commenting on the legal aspects of contracts or subcontracts when audit reports are submitted. However, questions arising concerning the legality or general legal sufficiency of contracts and subcontracts will be resolved by Contracting Officers concerned with the advice of qualified legal counsel. Accordingly, Contracting Officers' determinations will be used as a basis for the settlement or disposal of contracts or subcontracts to which this paragraph is applicable.

(3) Claims for costs incurred under any contract or subcontract, determined by the Contracting Officer under this procedure to be illegal, will be submitted through channels to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, ATTN: Chief, Contracts Branch.

(d) Legal assistance. The procedures of this section will not be construed as imposing any restriction on Contracting Officers in requesting any desired assistance, legal or otherwise, from higher echelons of authority.

(e) Exceptions. Contracting Officers will not use the procedures of this section in connection with processing contractors' claims for reimbursement arising from legally questionable subcontracts and purchase orders executed under cost reimbursement type facilities clauses in supply contracts executed between the dates of June 1, 1950 and March 1, 1953 and entered into as a result of the Korean emergency. Questions which arise in connection with the procedures set forth in this section should be directed to the Chief of the Technical Service concerned or, when appropriate, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, ATTN: Chief, Contracts Branch.

§ 593.000 Scope of part. This part sets forth basic policies, principles and instructions relating to the coordinated procurement of supplies and services.

§ 593.001 Interdepartmental procurement. Procurement of supplies and services from or through Government departments or agencies outside the Department of Defense will be governed by Part 594 of this subchapter and by sections of AR 715–180, administrative regulations pertaining to Department of Defense "Interagency" procurement assignments.

§ 593.002 Procurement agreements. Heads of Procuring Activities are authorized to make procurement agreements, procurement assignments and delegations of procurement responsibilities, with or to appropriate agencies of the Departments of the Navy and the Air Force, provided such agreements, assignments and delegations are not in conflict with Parts 4 and 5 of this title and this part and Part 594 of this subchapter, or with AR 715–180.

SUBPART A—DEFINITION OF TERMS

§ 593.101 Definitions. (§ 4.101 of this title and AR 715–180.)

SUBPART B—POLICIES AND GENERAL PRINCIPLES

§ 593.201 Application of procurement assignment. The scope and applicability of Department of Defense single procurement assignments are set forth in AR 715–180.

§ 593.202 Responsibilities under single procurement. The relationship of Department of Defense procurement assignments to Army assignments of logistical responsibilities, and the description and assignment of the responsibilities associated with each of the Department of Defense procurement assignment programs are set forth in AR 715–180.

§ 593.203–4 Emergency. Waivers of single procurement assignment procedures under the emergency provision of § 4.203–4 of this title will be limited to circumstances and conditions comparable to those described in § 3.202 of this title and § 592.202 of this subchapter.

§ 593.203–6 Local purchase as a normal means of supply. The provisions of § 4.203–6 of this title will not be invoked to permit local purchase of assigned items until the Procuring Department has been properly advised of the decision to use "local purchase" as the normal means for obtaining Army supply requirements.

§ 593.204 Items in short supply. Supplies and services shortages requiring coordination with other Departments will be reported, with complete information thereon, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, ATTN: Chief, Contracts Branch.

§ 593.206–50 Preparation of military interdepartmental purchase requests (MIPRs)—(a) Responsibility for preparation. DD Form 448 (Military Interdepartmental Purchase Request) will be initiated by the technical service having procurement assignment coordination responsibility for the supplies or services concerned. The chief of the technical service having such coordination responsibility may designate offices or installations to prepare and submit purchase requests to the purchasing departments (Department of the Navy or Department of the Air Force).

(b) Requisition of forms. DD Forms 448 and 448–1 may be requisitioned through normal publication supply channels as hectograph masters.

(c) Instructions for preparation. (1) Detailed instructions for preparation of DD Form 448 are explained under numbers below, which correspond to the numbers of item headings on the face of the Form.

Item 1. Request No.: The requiring technical service will assign a number to each request for identification and control purposes. The request number will consist of the following parts in sequence: The letter "R" indicating purchase request, the last two digits of the fiscal year, the serial number, the requesting technical service symbol as set forth in § 606.203–4 of this subchapter. Example: R–51–1–ORD: When necessary, each technical service may prescribe an additional letter, which will be separated from the technical service symbol by a dash to identify separate offices initiating this form within the technical service. For example, the Chief of Ordnance may assign the letter "N" to the New York Ordnance District, in which case the request number on the forms initiated by this Agency would be written as follows: R–51–1–ORD–N. Amendments to basic MIPR will be numbered in sequence starting with the number 1.

No. of pages: The total number of pages in each request. When more than one page to any request is necessary, each page will be numbered consecutively in the following sequence: MIPR DD Form 448–1 (First Sheet), MIPR—Continuation Sheet, DD Form 448–1 (for data on Items 11a through 11f), and any attached sheets giving supplementary information.

Item 3. Date: Date of request.

Item 4. Issued by: Name and address of office issuing the request. When possible, list the name and telephone number of person who may be contacted in the event that the purchasing department has questions about this request.

Item 5. Name and address of consignee to which supplies or equipment are to be shipped.

Item 6. To: Name and address of Bureau, Command, or Office of the purchasing department to which the request is being submitted.

Item 7. Distribution of contracts and related documents: Name and address of Office(s) to which copies of contracts and related documents are to be mailed. Also list number of copies desired (§ 593.212).

Item 8. Delivery schedule: Date(s) by which delivery of items is desired.

Item 9. Payment will be made by: Name and address of Disbursing Office which will pay invoices.

Item 10. Invoices will be mailed to: Name and address of Office(s) to which invoices will be mailed.

Item 11. Request for supplies: Enter an "X" in box preceding appropriate statement. If the purchasing department wishes to furnish the requirements from stock, it may request the approval of the requiring department to do so.

Item 11a. Item No: The number of the item in sequence as listed thereon.

Item 11b. Description: In addition to the descriptive information indicated for this column, the package size should be stated when there are options for items involved.

Item 11c. Quantity: The quantity of each item requested.

Item 11d. Unit: The unit measure, such as each lb., gallon, etc., for each item.

Item 11e. Estimated unit cost: The latest cost that is available from catalogs, bulletins, reports, copies of contracts, etc., will be used as the estimated cost.

Item 11f. Estimated total cost: The result of the quantity of the item requested (Column 11c) multiplied by the estimated cost (Column 11e). The sum of this column will be placed in the space for "Total" at bottom of column.

Item 12. Prepare for delivery in accordance with: The specifications, if any, such as JAN–P–658 (3), under which the items are to be preserved, packaged, and packed. If no printed specifications are applicable or if supplementary instructions are to be given, a phrase such as "See attached instructions" should be inserted in the blank space.

Item 13. Funds chargeable for procurement: Appropriation, allotment, project, and object numbers to be charged for procurement of supplies or services.

Item 14. Transportation allotment(s): Appropriations, allotment, project, and object numbers to be charged for transportation of supplies. This allotment will be used when the procurement allotment does not include transportation charges as in the case of a purchase of items f. o. b. origin.

Item 15. Typed name and grade of authorizing officer: The officer who authorizes the procurement of items listed hereon and certifies that the funds have been committed.

Item 16. Signature: Signature of authorizing officer. (If the authorizing officer is other than one having fiscal responsibility, the ordering department must have on file, as support to the certification, a written statement by such officer substantiating the fiscal portion of the certificate.)

(2) If any designated space on this form other than that provided for on Continuation Sheet is insufficient for the purpose of listing all necessary information, the information may be typed on a blank sheet of paper under the appropriate item heading and attached to the form for submission to the purchasing department. When this action is taken, a phrase will be inserted in the designated space on the form, such as "See attached instructions" or "See attached sheet", to indicate that additional information is contained in supplementary sheets. Also, if it is necessary to give instructions or other information, for which there is no designated space on the form, such information may be typed on a blank sheet and attached to the form.

§ 593.212 Execution and administration of contracts. When submitting MIPR's to the Department of the Navy, the Department of the Air Force, and to joint agencies under the single procurement program, Department of the Army requirements for contracts and other contractual instruments will be limited to seven copies.

4. Section 595.201–53 is added as follows:

§ 595.201–53 Letter agreement with Department of Defense Production (Canada). A letter agreement between the Department of Defense Production (Canada) and the Departments of the Army, Navy, and Air Force, dated July 27, 1956 sets forth policies and procedures applicable to contracts for supplies and services, placed by the Military Departments with the Canadian Commercial Corporation on and after October 1, 1956. The agreement follows:

JULY 27, 1956.

DEAR SIRS: The agreement between the Department of Defense Production (Canada) and the United States Departments of the Army, Navy, and Air Force (hereinafter referred to as the "Military Departments"), evidenced by the letter of February 18, 1952, from the Deputy Minister of Defense Production (Canada), the terms of which were accepted by the Military Departments at Washington on February 26, 1952 (which agreement was amended as of January 13, 1953, December 21, 1955, and June 21, 1956), laid down policies and provided procedures with respect to all contracts for supplies and services placed with the Canadian Commercial Corporation by the Military Departments, up to and including September 30, 1956.

Since experience in the administration of contracts placed by the Military Departments with the Canadian Commercial Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation") under the agreement indicates that it is desirable to revise certain policies and procedures set forth in said agreement with respect to all contracts entered into on or after October 1, 1956, it is therefore agreed, as follows:

1. This agreement applies to all contracts placed, on or after October 1, 1956, by any of the Military Departments with the Corporation. It shall remain in force from year to year until terminated by mutual consent; however, it can be terminated on the 31st day of December or the 30th day of June in any year by either party provided that six months notice of termination has been given in writing. In addition, this agreement provides for certain reciprocal arrangements facilitating procurement by each of the parties in the country of the other.

2. (a) The Corporation agrees that, if the aggregate profit realized by first-tier subcontractors under contracts covered by this agreement, excluding those subcontracts mentioned in subparagraph (b) below, exceeds 10% of the cost (as determined in accordance with Costing Memorandum DDP–31 of the Department of Defense Production (Canada)), the amount of such excess will be refunded by the Corporation to the Military Departments. For this purpose, the aggregate profit shall be computed by the Corporation on all first-tier subcontracts, excluding those mentioned in subparagraph (b) below, taken collectively and not individually. The Corporation shall, in computing such profit, conduct the audits called for in paragraph 5 and such other audits or verifications of costs as it may deem necessary, and shall render to the Military Departments its certificate as to such profit.

(b) Subcontracts placed by the Corporation as a result of formal competive bidding and subcontracts placed by the Corporation with Canadian Arsenals Limited or any other department or agency of the Canadian Government, shall not be included in computing the aggregate profit referred to in subparagraph (a) above.

(c) If, as a result of an audit made by direction of the Minister of Defense Production (Canada) under the powers conferred upon him by Section 21 of the Defense Production Act (Canada), it is disclosed that any individual subcontractor of any tier, including any subcontractor referred to in subparagraphs (a) and (b) above, has made a profit on a subcontract, under a contract covered by this agreement, in excess of an amount which the Minister considers to be fair and reasonable, the Minister shall take appropriate action to recover such excess, and the amount of any such recovery with respect to that subcontract shall be refunded to the Military Departments.

(d) Contracts for communication and transportation services, and the supply of power, water, gas, and other utilities shall be excepted from the provisions of subparagraphs (a) and (c) above, provided the rates or charges for such services or utilities are fixed by public regulatory bodies; and provided further the Military Departments are accorded any special rates that may be available to the Canadian Government with respect to such contracts.

(e) The Canadian Government, its Departments and Agencies, including but not limited to the Corporation and Canadian Arsenals Limited, a Crown Company wholly owned by the Canadian Government, shall not be entitled to any profit on any contract or contracts covered by this agreement. Any profits which may be realized shall be refunded to the Military Departments except as hereinafter provided:

Before refunding profits realized from the following sources:

(i) Net profits of the Canadian Government, its Departments and Agencies, as defined above, with respect to contracts and subcontracts covered by this agreement.

(ii) Excess profits referred to in paragraph (a) above, and the Corporation shall be entitled to deduct any losses it may sustain with respect to contracts covered by this agreement.

(iii) Renegotiation recoveries from subcontracts of any tier under contracts covered by this agreement, which recoveries the Military Departments would otherwise be entitled to receive in accordance with the provisions of subparagraphs (a) and (c) above;

(f) Interim adjustments and refunds under this paragraph 2 shall be made at such time or times as may be mutually agreed upon but at least once a year as of June 30th. Such interim adjustments shall apply only to completed contracts. The final adjustment and refund shall be made as soon as practicable after the expiration of this agreement.

(g) The profit and loss provisions of this paragraph 2 shall not apply to contracts awarded to the Corporation as the result of formal competitive bidding (initiated by Invitation for Bids).

3. All contracts placed by the Military Departments with the Corporation, except those placed as the result of formal competitive bidding, shall provide for prices or cost reimbursement, as the case may be, in terms of Canadian currency, and for payment to be made in such currency. Therefore, quotations and invoices shall be submitted by the Corporation to the Military Departments in terms of Canadian currency, and such cost data, vouchers, etc., as the contracts require shall also be submitted in terms of Canadian currency. All formal competitive bids shall be submitted by the Corporation in United States currency and contracts placed as a result of such formal competitive bidding shall not be subject to adjustment for losses or gains resulting from fluctuations in exchange rates.

4. The Military Departments and the Corporation shall avoid, to the extent consistent with the declared policies of the Military Departments and the Canadian Government, the making of any surcharges covering administration costs with respect to contracts placed with the Corporation by any of the Military Departments and contracts placed by the Military Departments in the United States for the Canadian Government.

5. To the extent that contracts placed with the Corporation by the Military Departments provide for the audit of costs and profits, such audit will be made without charge to the Military Departments by the Cost Inspection and Audit Division of the Treasury of Canada in accordance with Costing Memorandum Form DDP–31 of the Department of Defense Production, Canada.

6. The Canadian Government shall arrange for inspection personnel of the Department of National Defense (Canada) to act on behalf of the Military Departments with respect to contracts placed by the Military Departments with the Corporation and with respect to subcontracts placed in Canada by United States contractors which are performing contracts for the Military Departments, and for the use of inspection facilities of the Department of National Defence (Canada) for such purposes, such personnel and facilities to be provided without costs to the Military Departments. The Military Departments shall provide and make no charge for inspection services and inspection facilities in connection with contracts placed in the United States by the Military Departments for the Canadian Government. The Department of National Defence (Canada) or any Military Department may provide liaison with the other's inspection personnel in connection with the foregoing. It is understood that either the Department of National Defense (Canada) or any Military Department may in appropriate cases arrange for inspection by its own inspection organization in the other's country.

7. Because of the varying arrangements made by the Canadian Government and the Military Departments in furnishing Government-owned facilities (including buildings and machine tools) to contractors, it is recognized that the matter of inclusion in contract prices of charges, through amortization or otherwise, for use of such facilities will be determined in the negotiation of individual contracts. However, there shall be avoided, to the extent consistent with the policies of the Canadian Government and the Military Departments, any such charges for use of Government-furnished facilities.

8. (a) The Corporation agrees that the prices set out in fixed-price type contracts covered by this agreement will not include any taxes with respect to first-tier subcontracts; ncr shall such prices include customs duties to the extent refundable in accordance with Canadian law, paid upon the import of any materials, parts, or components incorporated or to be incorporated in the supplies, with respect to first-tier subcontracts.

(b) The Corporation agrees that under cost-reinbursement type contracts the Corporation shall, to the extent practicable with respect to first-tier subcontracts, exclude from its claims all taxes and to the extent refundable in accordance with Canadian law, customs duties, paid upon the import of any materials, parts, or components, incorporated or to be incorporated in the supplies and that any amounts included in such claims representing such taxes and duties shall be refunded or credited to the Military Departments.

(c) The Corporation agrees that to the extent that such taxes and duties can be reasonably and economically identified it will use its best endeavours to cause such taxes and duties to be excluded from all subcontracts below the first-tier and if found to be included to be recovered and credited to the Military Departments.

9. The Corporation recognizes that existing law of the United States prohibits the use of the cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost system of contracting.

10. Each contract covered by this agreement shall be deemed to include the provisions required by (i) Public Law 245, 82d Congress of the United States (65 Stat. 700; 41 U. S. C. 153 (c)) and (ii) Section 719 of Public Law 458, 83d Congress of the United States (68 Stat. 353) or similar provisions that may be required by subsequent legislation.

11. If the above correctly sets forth our mutual understanding, please indicate your acceptance by signing below.

Yours faithfully

5. Revise Subpart A, Part 596 to read as follows:

SUBPART A—CLAUSES FOR FIXED-PRICE SUPPLY CONTRACTS

§ 596.103 Required clauses. Except as provided in § 7.102 of this title, all of the clauses specified in §§ 7.103–1 through 7.103–23 of this title will be inserted in all fixed-price supply contracts, subject to the instructions contained in § 7.103 of this title and §§ 596.103 and 596.050 of this subchapter. The additional contract clauses contained in this section, but not contained in Subchapter A, Chapter I of this title, also will be inserted in all fixed-price supply contracts as specified in this subchapter.

§ 596.103–2 Changes and disposition of inventory resulting from changes—(a) Changes. (1) The "Changes" clause in § 7.103–2 of this title will be inserted in all fixed-price supply contracts. In accordance with the instructions of each Procuring Activity, the period of "30 days", within which any claim for adjustment must be asserted, may be varied. In special cases the "Changes" clause may be made applicable to changes in provisions other than those relating to drawings, designs, specifications, method of shipment or packing, and place of delivery, so long as such extended applicability of the "Changes" clause would not be inconsistent with the provisions of the clause in § 7.103–2 of this title.

(2) Additional quantities of supplies which were not initially contemplated in the contract will not be ordered under the "Changes" clause since such a practice might be used to defeat the requirements for competitive procurement.

(3) Accelerated deliveries will be provided for by a supplemental agreement modifying the contract rather than through the use of the "Changes" clause. Such supplemental agreement, however, should not be used to provide additional compensation to the Contractor for accelerated deliveries to meet the delivery schedules prescribed in the contract.

(4) The following "Changes" clause is authorized for use in negotiated contracts, in lieu of the "Changes" clause set forth in § 7.103–2 of this title, in those exceptional cases when the Head of a Procuring Activity believes its inclusion in the contract is considered necessary to retain maximum flexibility in making contract changes. It will not be used in contracts resulting from formal advertising or in contracts for the continuation of existing production lines in circumvention of the requirement for competition in new procurement. This alternate "Changes" clause provides, within specified limits, increases or decreases in the quantity and delivery rate of the supplies to be furnished. The flexibility provided by this clause is desirable in contracts for heavy military type items where unusual fluctuations in mobilization reserve production base considerations and other requirements have been or are expected to be encountered. This alternate "Changes" clause is particularly useful in lieu of partial termination in effecting stretch-out and cut-back programs.

Changes. The Contracting Officer may at any time, by written order, and without notice to the sureties make changes of any one or more of the following types: (a) changes in the directions as to shipment and packing of any supplies; (b) increases or decreases in the quantity of supplies to be furnished hereunder, the total increase or decrease not; however, to exceed ____ percent of the quantity of supplies deliverable hereunder; (c) changes in the drawings or specifications; (d) extensions of the delivery schedules hereunder reducing the rate of deliveries of the supplies called for by this contract; or (e) accelerations of the delivery schedules hereunder by an increase or increases in the rate of deliveries hereunder. Unless consented to in writing by the Contractor, no change orders hereunder of the type mentioned in clause (d) of the preceding sentence shall cause decreases in the deliveries hereunder, and no change orders of the type mentioned in clause (e) of such sentence shall cause increases in the deliveries called for hereunder, amounting respectively in the aggregate in any one month to more than ____ percent of the quantity of supplies, the delivery of which is called for in such month by the delivery schedule originally contained in this contract. If such changes cause an increase or decrease in the amount of work under this contract or in the cost of performance of this contract or in the time required for its performance an equitable adjustment shall be made, which adjustment may include in any instance an adjustment (i) in the purchase price, including (but not limited to) any adjustment in unit price fair in the light of any change in volume caused by such order, and (ii) in the delivery time or schedule, or (iii) in either the price or delivery schedule and the contract shall be modified in writing accordingly. Any claim for adjustment under this article must be asserted within 30 days from the date the change is ordered, provided, however that the Contracting Officer, if he determines that the facts justify such action, may receive, consider and adjust any such claims asserted at any time prior to the date of final settlement of the contract. If the parties fail to agree upon the adjustment to be made the dispute shall be determined as provided in Article ——— (Disputes) hereof. But, nothing provided in this Article shall excuse the contractor from proceeding with the contract as changed.

§ 596.103–8 Assignment of claims—(a) Setoff as against assignee. (1) In the cases where special circumstances make it advisable in the best interest of the Government, Heads of Procuring Activities may authorize deletion of the last sentence of paragraph (a) of the assignment of claims clause, set forth in § 7.103–8 of this title. In any event, the sentence will be deleted from contracts for transportation of persons or property.

(2) Reduction of or setoff from payments to be made to an assignee will be effected with respect to liabilities of the assignor to the Government arising out of matters in connection with the contract, or of amounts which may be collected or withheld from the assignor in accordance with, or for failure to comply with, the terms of the contract, except as stated in § 7.103–8 of this title. Examples of cases in which setoff will be may include (but are not limited to):

(i) Amounts due pursuant to price redetermination clauses.

(ii) Deduction of liquidated damages.

(iii) Excess costs and damages after termination for default.

(iv) Equitable adjustments and rejections under the changes, inspection and guaranty clauses.

(v) Damages resulting from fraud or criminal conduct.

(b) Refunds, etc., of Payments Received by Assignees. In any case in moneys due or to become due under any contract are or have been assigned pursuant to section 1 of the Assignment of Claims Act of 1940, as amended, no liability of any nature of the assignor to the United States or any department or agency thereof, whether arising from or independently of such contract, shall create or impose any liability on the part of the assignee to make restitution, refund, or repayment to the United States of any amount heretofore since July 1, 1950, or hereafter received under the assignment.

(c) Acknowledgment of notice of assignment. Contracting Officers will acknowledge notices of assignment filed by assignees. Where a notice of assignment of monies due under a definitive contract, which supersedes a letter contract, is received pursuant to the Assignment of Claims Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 1029), as amended, such notice should be acknowledged regardless of the fact that a notice of assignment of monies due under the letter contract had been previously acknowledged. The two notices of assignment should be considered as one and filed accordingly.

(d) Assignor's statement. Where direct payment is made to an assignee, the Contractor will furnish on each voucher, invoice, or other supporting paper, a statement to the effect that he recognizes the assignment, its validity, and the right of the assignee to receive payment.

(e) Information to be furnished to assignees. Contracting Officers will, upon request of the Contractor, furnish proposed assignees information regarding the status of the contract at the time of the assignment. In so doing, the Contracting Officer will advise the assignee that the information is so furnished only for confidential use in connection with the assignment.

§ 596.103–10 Federal, State, and local taxes. In effecting procurement outside the United States, its Territories and possessions, substitute the clause set forth in § 600.401 of this subchapter in lieu of the clause prescribed in § 11.401 of this title.

§ 596.103–11 Default—(a) Application. (1) If the Contractor (i) fails to make delivery of the supplies or to perform the services within the time specified in the contract, or (ii) fails to perform any provision of the contract other than the delivery schedules, or (iii) so fails to make progress as to endanger performance of his contract in accordance with the terms thereof, the Contractor may be said to be in default.

(2) Defaults may be excusable or nonexcusable. Defaults are excusable when they arise out of the causes set forth in clauses set forth in clause (b) of the Default article. (§ 7.103–11 of this title.)

(3) Paragraphs (b) through (i) of this section apply to contracts other than those under the Federal Supply Schedule. Paragraph (j) of this section applies to contracts under the Federal Supply Schedule.

(b) Termination of contracts by agreement. When default occurs in the performance of a contract, the contract may be terminated by supplemental agreement with the contractor, provided:

(1) The default is not excusable and the Contractor agrees to pay excess costs incurred in repurchase and damages resulting from delay.

(2) The default is determined by the Contracting Officer to be excusable and the Contractor is willing to execute a termination agreement without cost to the Government. (If the Contractor refuses to execute a termination agreement without cost to the Government, the Contracting Officer may terminate the contract under the clause entitled "Termination for the Convenience of the Government.")

(3) That where a performance bond has been filed, the surety thereon is a party to the supplemental agreement.

(c) Completion of contract after default. (1) In the event that default has occurred in a contract by reason of nonexcusable delay, which results in actual damage to the Government, and the Contracting Officer deems it to be in the best interest of the Government to permit the Contractor to complete performance of the contract, a supplemental agreement may be entered into providing for completion of performance notwithstanding such default, if the Contractor assumes liability for the actual damages. The surety, if any, should either be a party to the supplemental agreement or should execute and deliver to the Contracting Officer, simultaneously with the execution of a supplemental agreement with the contractor, a written consent extending the terms of any performance bond to cover such supplemental agreement. The agreement should distinctly state that the Government's rights to accrued damages are not thereby waived.

(2) If a performance bond has been filed in connection with the contract, or otherwise, and action outlined in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph is not deemed to be in the best interests of the Government, an agreement may be entered into with the surety, providing for completion of performance of the contract upon the same terms and conditions as the original contract, less actual damages resulting from delay, and further providing for payment directly to the surety. Such agreement should clearly state that all rights against the Contractor and the surety are reserved so far as the surety does not cure defaults of the Contractor. The Contractor will be furnished promptly with a findings of fact as indicated in paragraph (d) (2) of this section, adapting subdivision (iv) to the action taken.

(d) Termination pursuant to default article. (1) (i) Where the Contractor, and/or his surety elect not to complete performance of the contract after being afforded an opportunity to do so (see paragraph (c) of this section), or (ii) when the Contracting Officer deems it to be in the best interests of the Government to terminate the contract following default thereof, and the default consists of the failure on the part of the Contractor to make delivery of the supplies or to perform the services within the time specified in the contract or any extension thereof, the procedure set forth in subparagraphs (2) through (4) of this paragraph will be followed.

(2) The Contractor will be given notice in writing which will include the following:

(i) Reference to contract number, date, and portion of contract as to which his right to proceed is terminated.

(ii) That his right to proceed further with performance under the contract is thereby terminated.

(iii) A specific description of the acts or omissions consituting the default.

(iv) That the supplies, services or construction required by the contract will be procured in the open market against his account, and that he will be held liable for any excess costs.

(v) That the Government reserves all rights and remedies provided by law or under the contract, in addition to charging excess costs. (Where liquidated damages are provided for, substitute a reference thereto.)

(vi) That the notice constitutes a finding of fact pursuant to the Disputes article from which he has the right of appeal as specified therein.

(3) The same distribution will be made of the termination notice as was made of the contractual documents. In addition thereto, a copy will be furnished to the Disbursing Officer who will be advised to withhold further payments to the Contractor pending additional instructions.

(4) Notice of termination of a contract will be furnished to the Contractor within a reasonable time after the default occurs, or after efforts to arrange for compliance with the terms of the contract have resulted in failure. This requirement must be complied with in order to fulfill the Government's obligation to mitigate damages.

(5) If the default consists of the failure to perform any provision of the contract other than specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, or if the Contractor so fails to make progress as to endanger performance of the contract, a notice of termination will not be issued unless the Contracting Officer has previously notified the Contractor in writing of the specific default or failure, and has by the terms of such notice afforded the Contractor an opportunity to cure such default or failure within a period of time which shall be not less than 10 days from the date of receipt of such notice. The notice of termination in such cases will refer to the notice of default.

(e) Repurchase against Contractor's account. (1) In the event of termination of a contract for default, the Government is under a duty to mitigate damages.

(2) Accordingly, where the supplies or services are still required after termination, repurchase will be made against the Contractor's account either from other Contractors or Government facilities (i) as soon as possible after termination, (ii) of supplies or services similar to those called for in the contract, (iii) at as reasonable a price as practicable considering the quantity and quality required by the Government and the time within which the supplies or services are required; (iv) in construction contracts, the work will be let according to the same plans and specifications to such other responsible Contractor who offers the lowest price or it will be completed by Government plant and hired labor.

(f) Action by Contracting Officer. (1) If repurchase will not be effected, compute actual (or liquidated damages when clause contained in § 7.105–5 of this title is used), and make written demand upon the Contractor for the amount thereof.

(2) If repurchase is effected, compute excess costs and actual (or liquidated damages, when clause contained in § 7.105–5 of this title is used), and make written demand upon the Contractor for the total amount.

(3) Forward the report required by paragraph (g) of this section, together with any checks, money orders, or funds in any form received from the Contractor. No report is required where the contract is unnumbered and no repurchase, or actual or liquidated damages are involved.

(g) Report of termination of contract for default (Reports Control Symbol FIN–51). The Contracting Officer will submit to the Disbursing Officer in duplicate a letter report, subject: Report of Termination of Contract for Default (Reports Control Symbol FIN–51). The report will be submitted at such time as the data required by the report have been obtained. An exception is where excess costs and damages cannot be offset under open accounts, and the Contractor refuses or is unable to remit the amount due. In such cases, reports will be submitted within 30 days of the termination. Subsequent followup reports will be submitted where appropriate. The report will set forth the following information:

(1) Procuring Activity involved.

(2) Fiscal year of procurement involved.

(3) Original appropriation involved.

(4) With respect to terminated contract:

(i) Name and address of Contractor.

(ii) Contract or purchase order number.

(iii) Date of award or execution.

(iv) Contract item and specification.

(v) Contract quantity.

(vi) Unit price.

(vii) Quantity and/or time payment discount.

(viii) Total contract cost.

(ix) Status of payments and deliveries under contract, including voucher citations.

(x) Statement of amount withheld, if any.

(xi) Statement of actual or liquidated damages accrued, if any (other than excess costs on repurchase).

(xii) Description of default resulting in termination.

(5) Statement as to whether repurchase has been or will be effected. If applicable, a negative reply is desired, together with statement of reasons why repurchase has not been or will not be effected. If repurchase is effected subsequent to date of report, a followup report will be forwarded.

(6) If repurchase is effected, set forth information with respect to repurchase contract, adapting items in subparagraph (4) (i) through (ix) of this paragraph to such repurchase contract.

(7) State amount of excess cost.

(8) State total amount of excess cost and actual or liquidated damages.

(9) Whether efforts have been made to collect the amount set forth in subparagraph (8) of this paragraph. If collected, forward the check, money order, or funds to Disbursing Officer with report. If uncollectible, a statement to that effect.

(10) Attach one copy of the following:

(i) Terminated contract.

(ii) Repurchase contract, if any.

(11) Attach two copies of the following:

(i) Notice of termination.

(ii) Notice to cure default, if any (paragraph (d) (5) of this section).

(iii) Computation of liquidated or actual damages.

(iv) Correspondence from Contracting Officer to delinquent Contractor relative to the indebtedness.

(12) Attach original and one copy of correspondence from delinquent Contractor to Contracting Officer relative to indebtedness.

(13) Attach two copies of any other papers or documents deemed to be required as evidence for prosecution of claim or litigation against defaulting Contractor.

(h) Amount chargeable against defaulting Contractor. A purchase or purchases against the account of a defaulting Contractor must not exceed the quantity originally ordered, with consideration given, of course to the variation clause, if any, in the contract, and must be secured if practicable on the same unit basis, such as each, dozen, pound. This, however, does not preclude the Government from entering into one contract with the completing Contractor which includes additional needed supplies provided that the excess costs to be charged against the account of the defaulting Contractor are determined as provided in the preceding sentence of this paragraph. In any event, actual damages (or liquidated damages, if clause contained in § 7.105–5 of this title is used) resulting from delay, may be assessed in addition to excess costs.

(i) Action by Disbursing Officer. (1) Upon receipt of the Report of Termination of Contract for Default, the Disbursing Officer will proceed, when necessary, to effect collection of excess costs and actual or liquidated damages by deduction of the amount thereof from any funds payable to the defaulting Contractor.

(2) If the entire amount is collected by setoff, such action will be indicated by indorsement to the Report of Termination of Contract for Default, together with applicable voucher citations, and a statement of the name of the Disbursing Officer, and D. O. Symbol No. The Report and indorsement will be disposed of as follows:

(i) The original will be transmitted to the Chief of Finance, for forwarding to the General Accounting Office.

(ii) The duplicate copy will be filed in the Office of the Disbursing Officer.

(3) In the event that collection of excess cost and/or damages is effected by means of Contractor's check, money order, cash, or any means other than setoff against another account due to the Contractor, the Disbursing Officer will, in addition to taking action required by subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, submit together with the Report, the required number of copies of Standard Form 1044 (Schedule of Collections).

(4) If the Disbursing Officer finds it impracticable to collect the entire amount due, or if no repurchase, excess costs, or damages are involved, he will indicate his action and recommendation by indorsement to the Report of Termination of Contract for Default, and distribute the report and indorsement as follows:

(i) The original to the Chief of Finance, for forwarding to the General Accounting Office.

(ii) The duplicate copy will be filed in the office of the Disbursing Officer.

(iii) The Contracting Officer will be advised in writing of action taken and, where applicable, that the excess costs and/or damages could not be collected and that the matter has been reported to the Chief of Finance, for reference to the General Accounting Office.

(j) Action in connection with Federal Supply Schedule Contracts. (1) Action by Contracting Officer—(i) Ordering Office. Before declaring a Contractor in default, it is suggested that ordinarily ordering offices should notify the Contractor in writing that unless satisfactory performance occurs by a specified date, which should allow a reasonable time for performance, his right to proceed further under the delivery order will be considered terminated and he will be held liable for any excess costs resulting from purchasing the supplies or services elsewhere. This step would not be taken ordinarily when the default involves an attempted fraud on the United States, or when it obviously would be futile, as for example, when the Contractor has already declined to perform. Where excess costs are anticipated, the ordering office may likewise decide to withhold sufficient funds due the Contractor as offset security. Ordering offices will endeavor to minimize excess costs to be charged against the Contractor and to collect, by check or setoff, excess costs owed. Such collected funds are usually for deposit into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(ii) Federal Supply Service. Where ordering offices are notified by the Federal Supply Service that it has declared the Contractor in default, ordering offices will thereafter refuse to accept further performance by the Contractor or place further delivery orders with him. Ordering offices will thereafter purchase against the account of the Contractor from replacing Contractors designated by the Federal Supply Service or in such other manner as directed by the Federal Supply Service.

(2) Reports. Ordering offices will report to the Purchase Branch, Federal Supply Service, Washington 25, D. C., the details concerning all material instances of unsatisfactory performance by the Contractor, whether or not properly adjusted and settled. Ordering offices also will report, as may be directed by the Federal Supply Service, all purchases made against the account of a Contractor placed in default by the Federal Supply Service.

(k) Excusable delay. Where, following termination for default, it is subsequently determined that the Contractor's delay was excusable, the procedure outlined in paragraph (e) of the Default Clause (§ 7.103–11 of this title) will be followed.

(l) Applicability to oversea commands. (1) The default clause is applicable to oversea commands except where any of its provisions are inconsistent with or prohibited by local law, in which case the clause should be amended to conform to local law. For the purpose of this paragraph, local law is defined as the law of the foreign country or legal entity which is applicable to the execution and performance of contracts therein.

(2) The original of the Report of Termination of Contract for default, which is required by paragraph (i) of this section to be submitted to the Chief of Finance, will be submitted through the Finance Officer of the oversea command.

§ 596.103–12 Disputes—(a) General—(1) Contract Clause. The "Disputes" Clause contained in § 7.103–12 of this title will be inserted as specified, except for contracts entered into by major oversea commanders and to be performed outside the United States (48 States and the District of Columbia) (paragraph (c) of this section). The "Disputes" Clause may be modified to provide for an intermediate appeal to the Head of the Procuring Activity concerned.

(2) Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals. The charter and rules of the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals are set forth in § 30.1 of this title. References herein to "rules" are to the mentioned rules.

(3) Correspondence and communications. All official correspondence with the Board will be addressed to the "Army Contract Appeals Panel, Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals, Office of the Secretary of the Army, Washington 25, D. C." All official correspondence with the Chief Trial Attorney, will be addressed "Chief Trial Attorney, Office of The Judge Advocate General, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D. C." The Chief Trial Attorney and the attorneys assigned to his office are authorized to communicate directly by telephone or otherwise with any person or organization to secure any witnesses, documents or information considered necessary in connection with properly protecting the interests of and representing the Government in matters before the Board.

(4) Time of filing of appeal to be indorsed. When a notice of appeal has been received by the Contracting Officer or the Head of a Procuring Activity, as the case may be, there shall be indorsed thereon the date of receipt, and also, where apparent, the date of mailing or, if dispatched by appellant by other means, the date of such dispatch.

(b) Procedure for handling disputes—(1) Screening. (i) The Contracting Officer should screen disputes arising under contracts to insure that findings and decision appealable under the "Disputes" Clause are rendered only on disputes concerning questions of fact or disputes otherwise made subject to the "Disputes" procedure by specific contract provisions, such as a dispute as to an equitable adjustment under § 7.103–2 of this title and § 596.103–12, "Changes" Clause, or § 7.103–5 of this title, "Inspection" Clause, or a dispute resulting from failure to agree on a redetermined price under § 596.150–5, "Price Redetermination" Clause. For example, an appealable decision and findings should not be issued by the Contracting Officer: (a) Where a mistake in bid is alleged by the Contractor after award in that the procedure outlined in § 2.405–3 of this title and § 591.405 of this subchapter covers such cases, or (b) where § 7.104–16 of this title, "Gratuities" Clause, is to be invoked in that under such clause and § 30.4 of this title, findings of fact are made by duly designated representatives of the Secretary.

(ii) Whenever a Contracting Officer has doubt as to whether findings and a decision should be made pursuant to the "Disputes" Clause he should obtain the advice of legal counsel.

(2) Findings and decision—(i) Definitions—(a) Decision. The "Decision" means that document furnished by the Contracting Officer to the Contractor which sets forth the findings of fact and the conclusion of the Contracting Officer deciding the matter in dispute.

(b) Findings of fact. "Findings of Fact" means that portion of the decision of the Contracting Officer which recites his determination of the facts in dispute.

(c) Complaint. A "Complaint" is a written statement from the Contractor filed with the Board stating the reasons which entitle him to relief from the decision of the Contracting Officer. For the purposes of this procedure, a Complaint need not be formally labeled as a "Complaint," but may be submitted as part of, or simultaneously with, the Notice of Appeal, or in letter or memorandum form subsequent to the filing of the Notice of Appeal.

(ii) Whenever it becomes necessary to render a decision on a dispute the Contracting Officer will prepare and sign findings, a true copy of which with his written decision will be promptly furnished the Contractor. When the Contractor has a right of appeal under the contract and such right is directly to the Secretary, the Contracting Officer will conclude his decision with the following paragraph:

> If the decision hereinbefore set forth results in a dispute concerning a question of fact or a dispute otherwise made subject to the Disputes procedure by specific contract provisions, you are hereby notified that you may appeal from this decision to the Secretary of the Army in accordance with the provisions of Clause ____, "Disputes" of the above numbered contract. A notice of appeal must be in writing and should indicate that an appeal is thereby intended, and should identify the contract (by number) and the decision from which the appeal is taken. The original, together with two copies, should be filed with the undersigned Contracting Officer. If a Notice of Appeal is filed, it will be forwarded to the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals and the Recorder of that Board will docket the appeal and will forward to you a copy of the Rules of the Board. Under the Rules, the original and three copies of a complaint may be filed with the Contracting Officer at the time the Notice of Appeal is filed, or it may be filed with the Recorder of the Board after the Appeal has been docketed. The rules provide that a complaint should set forth a simple, concise, and direct statement of each claim and show wherein a Contractor contends that he is entitled to relief. The rules further provide that each claim shall be stated with as much particularity as is practical, that each claim should be separately identified, that documentary evidence in support of claims may be filed as exhibits to the complaint, that all documents filed as exhibits to the complaint shall be plainly listed and identified in the complaint, and that an original and three copies of the complaint shall be filed.

(iii) It is emphasized that, where a contract provides for a decision or a determination to be made by a Contracting Officer, he must give his personal and independent consideration to the making of each determination or decision, with the aid of such technical and legal advice as may be available to him.

(3) Appeals to Secretary from decisions of Contracting Officers—(i) Action by Contracting Officer. (a) Within 10 days after receipt of a Notice of Appeal or a Complaint from the Contractor, the Contracting Officer will forward the same to the Board through the Head of the Procuring Activity concerned.

(b) Within 30 days after the receipt of the Notice of Appeal, the Contracting Officer will forward to the Head of the Procuring Activity concerned a comprehensive report in narrative form concerning the dispute. The following will be included in or attached to the report:

(1) The Findings of Fact supporting the Decision and the Decision from which the appeal is taken;

(2) The complete contract including all amendments, supplemental agreements and change orders, and the pertinent plans and specifications. In case of a negotiated procurement, a copy of the request for proposal will be included;

(3) All correspondence and memoranda or transcripts of meetings or telephone conversations pertinent to the appeal;

(4) The names and addresses of all potential witnesses, including those of the Contractor, if known, having information concerning the facts in dispute. A statement signed by each Government witness reflecting the facts to which he will be able to testify (or a summary thereof if it is impossible to get the signed statement), and a statement as to the expected availability of each Government witness at the hearing;

(5) A discussion of the validity of the reasons submitted by the Contractor for setting aside the decision of the Contracting Officer;

(6) A memorandum by the legal adviser to the Contracting Officer setting forth an analysis of the legal issues involved in the dispute and comments upon the adequacy of the "Findings of Fact" and the legal sufficiency of the decision;

(7) Such additional information as the Contracting Officer may consider pertinent, including such items as interoffice memoranda, sample photographs, and inspection, audit and financial reports.

(c) If a "Complaint" is received by the Contracting Officer subsequent to transmittal of the original comprehensive report referred to in (b) of this subdivision, the Contracting Officer, within 20 days after receipt of such complaint, will forward to the Head of the Procuring Activity concerned a supplemental report of matters stated in the Complaint which were not previously covered in the comprehensive report. If the original report is sufficient to answer the matters alleged in the complaint, the Contracting Officer will forward the "Complaint" with a statement to this effect and need not forward a supplemental report.

(d) Copies of all correspondence and all other data and information pertinent to the dispute received by the Contracting Officer, after the comprehensive report has been submitted, will be forwarded to the Chief Trial Attorney.

(e) Where the complaint is filed with the Contracting Officer with the Notice of Appeal under Rule 3, the Contracting Officer will forward the Notice of Appeal and the original and three copies of the complaint to the Board through the Head of the Procuring Activity within 10 days. Within 20 days after receipt of the notice of appeal and complaint from the Contractor, the Contracting Officer will prepare and forward to the Chief Trial Attorney, through the Head of the Procuring Activity a single comprehensive report containing the items described in (a) and (b) of this subdivision, and substantiating the position taken by the Contracting Officer.

(f) In order that the Chief Trial Attorney may file an answer under Rule 6 within 60 days after service of the complaint, or in order that he may have jurisdiction for any request for extension of time, the above time limits must either be met or the Chief Trial Attorney must be notified of the reason for the delay and the estimated extent thereof.

(ii) Action by Head of a Procuring Activity. The Head of the Procuring Activity receiving an appeal to the Secretary from a decision of a Contracting Officer will:

(a) Forward the required copies of the Notice of Appeal and the complaint (if the complaint was furnished to the Contracting Officer with the Notice of Appeal) to the Board without delay.

(b) Carefully review the decision from which the appeal is taken to ascertain that all basic findings of fact are complete as to all issues bearing on the matter in dispute.

(c) Insure that the reports submitted by the Contracting Officer under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph are complete and ascertain that the evidence relied upon in support of the decision does support the Government's position.

(d) Refer to the Contracting Officer for supplemental findings cases in which the original findings of fact do not contain all of the basic findings required to support the decision or in which the findings of fact are not complete as to all issues bearing upon the matter in dispute.

(e) Return to the Contracting Officer for reconsideration, along with appropriate instructions, all cases wherein a timely appeal has been taken and it is clear from the evidence, contractual provisions and the applicable law, that the Contracting Officer's decision is erroneous or not supported by competent and available evidence.

(f) Notify the Chief Trial Attorney within 10 days after action has been taken by the Head of the Procuring Activity under (d) and (e) of this subdivision; this notification will indicate the nature thereof, and will include an estimate as to when the appeal will be either (1) withdrawn, or (2) ready for preparation of an answer.

(g) Where action is not taken under (d) and (e) of this subdivision, forward to the Chief Trial Attorney (within 10 days after receipt) each of the reports of the Contracting Officer referred to in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph together with the Head of the Procuring Activity's evaluation of the factual and legal issues involved as well as his conclusions and recommendations thereon. Where action is taken under (d) and (e) of this subdivision and the action does not dispose of the appeal, the Head of the Procuring Activity will take the same steps with regard to the reports of the Contracting Officer as are outlined in the foregoing sentence. The Head of the Procuring Activity will also furnish any additional evidence (documents, statements of witnesses, etc.) considered essential to enable the Trial Attorney to properly protect the interests of and represent the Government before the Board.

(h) Insure that assistance is rendered to the Chief Trial Attorney in obtaining additional evidence or in making other necessary preparations for presenting the Government's position to the Board. In order that the Chief Trial Attorney may file timely pleadings in accordance with the rules of the Board or that he may have justification for any request for extensions of time, it is imperative that Heads of Procuring Activities furnish information within the prescribed time limit, or that the reason for the delay and estimated extent thereof be furnished to the Chief Trial Attorney.

(4) Intermediate appeal to Heads of Procuring Activities. Where a clause providing for intermediate appeal to the Head of a Procuring Activity has been authorized, necessary instructions covering the processing of such appeals to the Head of the Procuring Activity may be issued: Provided, That appeal taken from decision of the Head of the Procuring Activity must be processed in accordance with the procedure prescribed in this paragraph.

(5) Appeals to Secretary from decisions of Heads of Procuring Activities. Within 15 days after receipt of a Notice of Appeal, the Head of a Procuring Activity will prepare and forward to the Chief Trial Attorney a complete report containing a statement of the factual and legal issue involved in the appeal and inclosing therewith the following: a copy of his decision; the advisory report, if there be one, of the contract settlement board in his office; a transcript of any testimony taken during the course of the proceedings; a duplicate original or a certified copy of the contract, including plans and specifications and all changes and supplemental agreements; the decision of the Contracting Officer; all papers and correspondence pertaining to the contract and pertinent to the consideration of the appeal; the name of each witness having knowledge that will support the Government's position; a statement signed by each witness reflecting facts to which he will be able to testify or a summary thereof if it is impossible to get the signed statement (a statement signed by individual witness may be omitted if the substance of expected testimony is set forth in the transcript of proceedings); a statement as to the expected availability at the hearing of each witness; and such other information as may be necessary to substantiate the position taken by the Head of the Procuring Activity with regard to the appeal. Additionally, the Chief Trial Attorney shall transmit to the Head of the Procuring Activity a copy of the complaint, and the Head of the Procuring Activity will furnish comments as to each allegation of fact in such complaint (treating them in the order set forth herein) and comments as to whether it is well founded and, if not, a recital of the evidence to refute the same. Further, he shall insure that all essential witnesses and documentary evidence will be available at the time of the hearing of the appeal.

(6) Appeals filed with the Secretary or the Board. In cases wherein an appeal is filed directly with the Office of the Secretary of the Army or the Armed Service Board of Contract Appeals, the Board, pursuant to its rules of procedure, will promptly furnish a copy thereof to the Procuring Activity concerned, through the Chief, Trial Attorney's office. Upon the receipt of such appeal the Procuring Activity will process the same as though it had been initially filed with the Activity.

(7) Appeals improperly filed. If any officer or agency of the Department other than the officer or agency designated in the contract, should receive a written appeal, the recipient will, after endorsing thereon the date of its receipt, immediately transmit the appeal to the Head of the Procuring Activity concerned:

(i) For appropriate action as provided in subparagraph (5) of this paragraph if the appeal is from the decision of the Head of a Procuring Activity, or

(ii) If the appeal is from the decision of a Contracting Officer, then for action as required by subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(8) Functions of the Office of the Chief Trial Attorney—(i) New facts or circumstances. Upon discovery of new facts or circumstances the Chief Trial Attorney is authorized, in appropriate cases, to return appeals to the Procuring Activity for reconsideration in the light of the additional facts or circumstances disclosed.

(ii) Agreements or stipulations. Pursuant to Rule 27, the Office of the Chief Trial Attorney may enter into an agreement, by stipulation or otherwise with appellant or his attorney on matters as to which there is no substantial controversy. Such agreements may be of two types:

(a) Agreements on matters not disposing of an appeal. An agreement on matters as to which there is no substantial controversy and which will not have the effect of disposing of an appeal may be entered into by the Chief Trial Attorney or by an individual Trial Attorney provided authority therefor shall have been granted in advance by the Chief Trial Attorney.

(b) Agreement on matters disposing of an appeal. Pursuant to Rule 27, the Board may suspend further processing of an appeal in order to permit reconsideration by the Contracting Officer whenever it appears that appellant and the Trial Attorney are in agreement as to the disposition of a controversy, subject to the provision that if the case is not actually disposed of by agreement it may be restored to the Board's calendar for hearing. In appropriate cases, such as those in which it is desirable to avoid time consuming delays incident to returning the appeal to the Contracting Officer, the Chief Trial Attorney (or an individual Trial Attorney acting with prior approval of the Chief Trial Attorney) may enter into an agreement with an appellant which will have the effect of disposing of an appeal after concurrence has been obtained from a representative of the Head of the Procuring Activity. Such agreement may then become the basis of a Board decision disposing of the appeal.

(c) Major oversea commands. (1) The following "Disputes" Clause will be inserted in all contracts entered into by major oversea commands and to be performed outside the United States (48 States and the District of Columbia) in lieu of the clause set forth in § 7.103–12 of this title.

DISPUTES

Except as otherwise provided in this contract, any dispute concerning a question of fact arising under this contract which is not disposed of by agreement shall be decided by the Contracting Officer, who shall reduce his decision to writing and mail or otherwise furnish a copy thereof to the Contractor. Within 30 days from the date of receipt of such copy, the Contractor may appeal by mailing or otherwise furnishing to the Contracting Officer a written appeal addressed to the Commanding General (----------[1]) and the decision of the Commanding General (----------[1]), or that of his duly authorized representative (other than the Contracting Officer under this contract) for the hearing of such appeals, upon personal approval by the Commanding General (----------[1]) or his designated deputy, shall, unless determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to have been fraudulent, arbitrary, capricious, or so grossly erroneous as necessarily to imply bad faith, or not supported by substantial evidence, be final and conclusive upon the parties hereto when the amount involved in the appeal is $50,000 or less; provided that, if no appeal is taken, within the said 30 days, the decision of the Contracting Officer shall be final and conclusive. When the amount involved is more than $50,000 the decision of the Commanding General (----------[1]) shall be subject to written appeal within 30 days after the receipt thereof by the Contractor to the Secretary of the Army and the decision of the Secretary or his duly authorized representative for the hearing of such appeals shall, unless determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to have been fraudulent, arbitrary, capricious, or so grossly erroneous as necessarily to imply bad faith, or not supported by substantial evidence, be final and conclusive; provided that, if no such further appeal is taken, within the said 30 days; the decision of the Commanding General (----------[1]) shall be final and conclusive. In connection with any appeal proceeding under this clause, the Contractor shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard and to offer evidence in support of its appeal. Pending final decision of a dispute hereunder, the Contractor shall proceed diligently with the performance of the contract and in accordance with Contracting Officer's decision.

(2) Each commanding general of a major oversea command will appoint within his command a Board to be known as "[name of command] Board of Contract Appeals." The Board will consist of three or more members who will be persons trained in the law, one of whom will be designated by the appointing authority as the President of the Board. There also will be appointed a Recorder of the Board who will perform such duties as the Board may prescribe. The Recorder of the Board also may be a member thereof.

(3) The Board, created pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, will be designated by the commanding general as his duly authorized representative to hear, consider, and decide, as fully as he might do, all appeals to him under contracts having such provisions. The Board's final decision, however, will be subject to his personal approval, or that of his deputy designated for such purpose. The Board will be granted all powers necessary and incident to the proper performance of its duties and, with the approval of the appointing authority, will adopt its own methods of procedure, rules, and regulations for its conduct and for the preparation and presentation of appeals and issuance of decisions.

(4) Each commanding general of a major oversea command will designate one or more trial attorneys, who will be qualified attorneys at law, for the preparation and presentation of the contentions of the Procuring Activity in relation to appeals filed with the Board.

§ 596.103–14 Buy American Act. In effecting procurement outside the United States, its Territories and possessions, this clause will be deleted.

§ 596.103–16 Eight-Hour Law of 1912. In effecting procurement outside the United States, its Territories and possessions, this clause will be deleted.

§ 596.103–17 Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act. In effecting procurement outside the United States, its Territories and possessions, this clause will be deleted.

§ 596.103–18 Nondiscrimination in employment. In effecting procurement outside the United States, its Territories and possessions, this clause will be deleted.

§ 596.104 Clauses to be used when applicable. The contract clauses set forth in § 7.104 of this title and in § 596.104–12A shall be used when applicable subject to the instructions contained in § 7.104 of this title and in § 596.104–12A and § 596.050.

§ 596.104–1 Davis-Bacon Act. In effecting procurement outside the United States, its Territories and possessions, this clause will be deleted.

§ 596.104–2 Copeland Act. In effecting procurement outside the United States, its Territories and possessions, this clause will be deleted.

§ 596.104–12A Military security requirements; research and development contracts. The following clause is approved for use in research and development contracts with educational or nonprofit institutions, as a deviation from Subchapter A, Chapter I of this title, pending inclusion in a future revision of Subchapter A, Chapter I of this title:

MILITARY SECURITY REQUIREMENTS—RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT CONTRACTS

(a) The provisions of this clause shall apply to the extent that this contract involves access to information classified "Confidential" including "Confidential—Modified Handling Authorized" or higher.

(b) The Government shall notify the Contractor of the security classification of this contract and the elements thereof, and of any subsequent revisions in such security classification, by the use of a Security Requirements Check List (DD Form 254) and Appendage to Security Rquirements Check List (DD Form 254–1).

(c) To the extent the Government has indicated as of the date of this contract, or thereafter indicates, security classification under this contract as provided in paragraph (b) above, the Contractor except as otherwise provided in this clause, shall safeguard all classified elements of this contract and shall provide and maintain a system of security controls within its own organization in accordance with the requirements of (i) the Department of Defense Industrial Security Manual for Safeguarding Classified Security Information as in effect on the date of this contract, which Manual is hereby incorporated by reference and made a part of this contract, and (ii) any amendments to said Manual required by the demands of national security as determined by the Government and made after the date of this contract, notice of which has been furnished to the Contractor by the Contracting Officer.

(d) Designated representatives of the Government responsible for inspection pertaining to industrial security shall have the right to inspect at reasonable intervals the procedures, methods, and facilities utilized by the Contractor in complying with the requirements of the terms and conditions of this clause. Should the Government, through its authorized representative, determine that the Contractor has not complied with such requirements, the Government shall inform the Contractor in writing of the proper actions to be taken in order to effect compliance with such requirements.

(e) In the event a change in security requirements, as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c), results (i) in a change in the security classification of this contract or any element thereof from a nonclassified status to a classified status or from a lower classification to a higher classification, or (ii) in more restrictive area controls than previously required, the Contractor shall exert every reasonable effort compatible with its established policies to continue the performance of work under the contract in compliance with such change in security classification or requirements. If, despite such reasonable efforts, the Contractor determines that the continuation of work under this contract is not practicable because of such change in security classification or requirements it shall so notify the Contracting Officer in writing.

(f) After receiving such written notification, the Contracting Officer shall explore the circumstances surrounding the proposed change in security classification or requirements and shall endeavor to work out a mutually satisfactory method whereby the Contractor can continue performance of the work under this contract.

(g) If, upon expiration of fifteen (15) days after receipt of the notification by the Contracting Officer of the Contractor's stated inability to proceed, (i) the application to this contract of such change in security classification or requirements has not been withdrawn or (ii) a mutually satisfactory method for continuing performance of work under this contract has not been agreed upon, the Contractor may request the Contracting Officer to terminate the contract in whole or in part. Thereupon, the Contracting Officer shall terminate the contract in whole or in part, as may be appropriate, and such termination shall be deemed a termination under the provisions of the clause of this contract entitled "Termination for the Convenience of the Government."

(h) The Contractor agrees to insert, in all subcontracts hereunder which involve access to classified security information, provisions which shall conform substantially to the language of this clause, including this paragraph (h) but excluding paragraphs (e), (f), and (g) of this clause.

(i) The Contractor also agrees that it shall determine that any subcontractor proposed by it for the furnishing of supplies and services which will involve access to classified security information in the Contractor's custody has been granted an appropriate facility security clearance which is still in effect, prior to being accorded access to such classified security information.

§ 596.104–13 Domestic food, clothing, cotton, spun silk yarn for cartridge cloth, or wool. In effecting procurements outside the United States, its Territories and possessions, for any article of food, clothing, cotton, spun silk yarn for cartridge cloth, or wool excepted from the prohibition of the annual appropriation acts, the clause set forth in § 7.104–13 of this title will be deleted.

§ 596.104–15 Examination of records. Contracts or purchase orders for public utility services are exempted from compliance with the requirements of § 7.104–15 of this title when such contracts are at rates not in excess of those established for uniform applicability to the general public, or at such rates plus reasonable connection charges incident to such services.

§ 596.104–50 Title II, First War Powers Act, 1941, as amended. All contracts and amendments to contracts made under the authority of the Title II, First War Powers Act, 1941, as amended, will contain the clauses and conform to the requirements prescribed in § 606.416 of this subchapter.

§ 596.105 Additional clauses. The clauses set forth in § 7.105 of this title will be inserted in fixed-price supply contracts in accordance with the instructions of each Procuring Activity where necessary or desirable to cover the subject matter contained in such clauses.

§ 596.105–5 Liquidated damages—(a) Contract provision. If a contract is to provide for liquidated damages, a provision will be inserted in accordance with § 7.105–5 of this title.

(b) Accrual. Where a contract provides for liquidated damages in the event of default, and a default occurs, liquidated damages accrue to the Government, in accordance with the terms of the contract.

(c) Mitigation. If there is a liquidated-damage provision in a contract for the purchase of ordinary supplies and default should occur, time should not be permitted to run indefinitely, the result of which would make the liquidated damages chargeable exceed the contract price of the supplies to be delivered. The law imposes the duty upon a party subjected to injury by the action of another to mitigate the damages which result from such wrongful action, and that must be as true where liquidated damages run as in the ordinary case of actual damages. Efforts must be made to procure supplies elsewhere if delivery is not forthcoming within a reasonable time after the default occurs. While the course to be followed must depend upon the facts in each case, the rule may be stated that damages to run must be conserved and, as promptly as possible, according to what may be the attitude of the Contractor respecting delivery, administrative action should be taken to procure the supplies elsewhere.

(d) Remission. Whenever any contract includes a provision for liquidated damages for delay, the Comptroller General on the recommendation of the Secretary is authorized and empowered to remit the whole or any part of such damages as in his discretion may be just and equitable. Recommendations submitted by a Contracting Officer to the Head of a Procuring Activity or to the Secretary will not be furnished the Contractor.

§ 596.106 Price escalation clauses (established prices). Price escalation clauses (as distinguished from price redetermination clauses) may be inserted in contracts entered into after formal advertising or negotiation in accordance with the instructions set forth in §§ 3.403–2 and 7.106 of this title and in §§ 591.201 (i) and 591.406 (b) of this subchapter.

§ 596.106–50 Price escalation (labor and material). (a) The escalation clause set forth in this paragraph is authorized for use in formally advertised or negotiated contracts for the procurement of supplies under conditions wherein it is desired to effect one or more possible price adjustments, during the life of the contract, solely upon the basis of rates of pay for certain specified types of labor and/or costs of certain specified types of materials. The clause is not to be used in those instances wherein it is desired to adjust contract prices upon the basis of changes in the original estimates of hours of labor or quantities of materials. The clause may be used in the procurement of items other than those of a standard commercial nature in those instances where adequate cost experience has been obtained on previous contracts and where the design of the supplies has been stabilized.

(b) Paragraph (b) of the clause provides that prices may be adjusted only if the change results in an increase or decrease of at least 3 percent of the aggregate contract price. Authority is granted to deviate from this percentage to provide for a lesser percentage if it is deemed that the value of the contract warrants the administration of price adjustments involving a smaller percentage change.

(c) The percentage increase to be specified in subparagraph (d) (3) of the clause shall not exceed fifteen percent.

(d) When it is planned to include this clause in contracts to be awarded as a result of formal advertising, the invitation for bids will clearly so state, and will further state that all bids will be evaluated after applying the maximum amount of escalation. §§ 591.201 (i) and 591.406 (b) of this subchapter.)

PRICE ESCALATION (LABOR AND MATERIALS)

(a) The Contractor represents and warrants that the prices set forth in this contract do not include any contingency allowance to cover the possibility of increased costs of performance resulting from increases in either (1) the Contractor's rates of pay for labor or (2) the prices which the Contractor is required to pay for materials, as set forth in detail in paragraph (b) hereunder. The Contractor further represents and warrants that the net price or prices paid or to be paid by the Government under this contract do not and shall not exceed those paid by any other purchaser or consignee for like quantities of the same or similar supplies.

(b) In the event that, at any time during the performance of this contract, the Contractor is required to pay rates of pay for the types of labor specified below, or is required to pay prices for the materials specified below, in excess of, or less than the following rates and/or prices upon which the contract unit price for is based:

Type of labor or material	Unit of measure

Rate of pay or price per unit

then in such event the contract unit price may be adjusted upward or downward in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c). Such adjustment shall apply to the units completed subsequent to the effective date of any such increase or decrease and shall be by an amount equivalent to the increase or decrease in cost per uncompleted unit occasioned by the increase or decrease in rates of pay for the labor or prices for material specified above. No adjustment shall be made, however, that does not result in an increase or decrease of at least three percent (3%) of the then aggregate contract price of the uncompleted units of the contract.

(c) Not later than twenty (20) days after the effective date of any increase or decrease as referred to in paragraph (b) hereof, the Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer of any such increase or decrease, and with such notification shall submit a supporting cost breakdown. Such cost breakdown will:

(1) Be prepared in accordance with recognized commercial accounting principles;

(2) Indicate changes in estimated labor and/or material costs resulting from any increase or decrease as referred to in paragraph (b) hereof; and

(3) Be signed by a responsible official of the Contractor. Upon the basis of such notification and cost breakdown, and such other data as may be available to the Contracting Officer or as shall be furnished to him upon request to the Contractor, a price adjustment to reflect the increase or decrease in costs as referred to in paragraph (b) hereof shall be determined by mutual agreement between the Contractor and the Contracting Officer, and shall be set forth in an amendment to this contract. In the event that the Contractor fails to give notice of any decrease as required herein, a downward adjustment shall be later effected with respect to the units completed subsequent to the effective date of any such decrease. The Contracting Officer or any person authorized by him may examine any or all of the Contractor's records and information available to the Contractor relating to rates paid for labor and prices paid for materials specified in paragraph (b) hereof.

(d) Price adjustments may be agreed upon at any time and from time to time during the performance of this contract in accordance with the provisions of this clause. In no event, however, shall any price adjustment be made:

(1) For any increase or decrease in costs other than those for the types of labor and materials specified in paragraph (b) hereof.

(2) For increased or decreased costs resulting from an increase or decrease as related to the original contract estimates in number of hours of labor or in amounts of materials.

(3) For increases or accumulated increases in unit prices in excess of ____ percent (____%) of the original contract unit price.

(4) For rates of pay for labor or prices for materials in excess of those established by the Economic Stabilization Agency or other authorized Government Agency.

(e) Pending a determination of any price adjustment under this clause the Contractor shall continue deliveries hereunder. Failure of the parties to agree upon a price adjustment pursuant to the provisions of this clause shall be deemed to be a dispute as to a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(e) In the use of the above escalation article, it is emphasized that considerable latitude is permitted and encouraged in the selection of types of labor and material and rates of pay or price per unit to be negotiated under paragraph (b) of the article. Wherever possible and practicable, costs selected for escalation should be reduced to a type of material price or rate of pay agreement that will require little if any audit review if a price adjustment is called for by either of the contracting parties. The following may be considered as examples of acceptable forms of pricing agreements.

(1) Materials. Escalation should be only on the raw material(s) which constitute a major portion of material costs. The market prices of many raw materials are published periodically in accepted trade journals or newspapers. Accordingly, an example material escalation in paragraph (b) of the article could be expressed as follows:

Type of material	Unit of measure	Price per unit
Steel, billets, Pittsburg	Ton	$59.00

Cost of steel in this contract represents 25 percent of the total of all costs.

The cost of "Steel, billets, Pittsburg" as carried in the "Wall Street Journal" shall be excepted as the basis of increases or decreases in the cost of this material for the purposes of escalation as provided for in paragraph (c), applicable to deliveries made under this contract after the effective date referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) Labor. Escalation may be based on particular categories or on average labor costs. Wherever practicable, manufacturing labor should be escalated on an average wage agreed upon as applicable to performance under the contract in question. This average wage must be based on the Contractor's agreement with labor, if such an agreement exists. As an example, labor escalation in paragraph (b) of the article could be expressed as follows:

Type of material	Unit of measure	Rate of pay per unit
Manufacturing labor	Man-hour	$1.75

Manufacturing labor costs represent ___ percent of the total of all costs in this contract. The stated rate of $1.75 per manufacturing labor, man-hour is a composite rate of manufacturing labor to be utilized in performance of this contract, based upon current union wage agreements of the Contractor. In the event of future increases or decreases in wage scales as the result of changes in such wage agreements for any reason, a new composite rate for manufacturing labor, computed on the same basis as that above, will be used for escalation purposes as provided for in paragraph (c) to the extent of 20 percent of total cost of this contract remaining after the effective date of any increase or decrease.

Escalation of overhead factors is against Department of the Army policy. In fully justified cases involving unusual circumstances, however, deviations will be considered by the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics. Submission of such cases on an individual basis will be made through channels to that office.

§ 596.150 Department of the Army clauses. The following clauses will be inserted in fixed-price supply contracts when applicable.

§ 596.150–1 Progress payments clause (§ 606.1205 of this subchapter).

PROGRESS PAYMENTS

Progress payments, which are hereby defined as payments made as work progresses under this contract upon the basis of (i) costs incurred, (ii) percentage of completion accomplished, or (iii) a particular stage of completion, may be made upon the following terms and conditions.

(a) The Contracting Officer may, from time to time, authorize progress payments to the Contractor upon property acquired or produced by it for the performance of this contract: Provided, that such progress payments shall not exceed 90 percent of the costs to the Contractor of direct labor and material and/or component parts purchased for that property upon which payment is made, which costs shall be determined from evidence submitted by the Contractor and which must be such as is satisfactory to the Contracting Officer: Provided further, that in no event shall the total of unliquidated progress payments (see (c) below) and of unliquidated advance payments if any, made under this contract, exceed 80 percent of the total contract price of supplies still to be delivered.

(b) Upon the making of any progress payment under this contract, title to all parts, materials, inventories, work in process and nondurable tools theretofore acquired or produced by the Contractor for the performance of this contract, and properly chargeable thereto under sound accounting practice, shall forthwith vest in the Government; and title to all like property thereafter acquired or produced by the Contractor for the performance of this contract and properly chargeable thereto as aforesaid shall vest in the Government forthwith upon said acquisition or production: Provided, that nothing herein shall deprive the Contractor of any further progress or final payments due or to become due hereunder; or relieve the Contractor or the Government of any of their respective rights or obligations under this contract.

(c) In making payment for the supplies furnished hereunder, there shall be deducted from the contract price therefor a proportionate amount of the progress payments theretofore made to the Contractor, under the authority herein contained.

(d) It is recognized that property (including, without limitation, completed supplies, spare parts, drawings, information, partially completed supplies, work in progress, materials, fabricated parts and other things called for herein) title to which is or may hereinafter become vested in the Government pursuant to this clause will from time to time be used by or put in the care, custody or possession of the Contractor in connection with the performance of this contract. The Contractor, either before or after receipt of notice of termination at the option of the Government, may acquire or dispose of property to which title is vested in the Government under this clause, upon terms approved by the Contracting Officer: Provided, that after receipt of notice of termination, any such property that is a part of termination inventory may be acquired or disposed of only in accordance with the provisions of the clause of this contract entitled Termination for Convenience of the Government and applicable laws and regulations. The agreed price (in case of acquisition by the Contractor) or the proceeds received by the Contractor (in case of any other disposition), shall, to the extent that such price and proceeds do not exceed the unliquidated balance of progress payments thereunder, be paid or credited to the Government as the Contracting Officer shall direct; and such unliquidated balance shall be reduced accordingly. Current production scrap may be sold by the Contractor without approval of the Contracting Officer but the proceeds will be applied as provided in this paragraph (d), provided that any such scrap which is a part of termination inventory may be sold only in accordance with the provisions of the Termination for Convenience of the Government of this contract and applicable laws and regulations. Upon liquidation of all progress payments hereunder or upon completion of deliveries called for by this contract, title to all property (or the proceeds thereof) which has not been delivered to and accepted by the Government under this contract or which has not been incorporated in supplies delivered to and accepted by the Government under this contract and to which title has vested in the Government under this clause shall vest in the Contractor.

(e) The clause of this contract captioned "Liability for Government-Furnished Property" and any other provision of this contract defining liability for Government-Furnished Property shall be inapplicable to property to which the Government shall have acquired title solely by virtue of the provisions of this clause. The provisions of this clause shall not relieve the Contractor from risk of loss or destruction of or damage to property to which title vests in the Government under the provisions hereof.

(f) If this contract (as heretofore or hereafter supplemented or amended) contains provisions for Advance Payments, and in addition if at the time any progress payment is to be made to the Contractor under the provisions of this progress payments clause any unliquidated balance of advance payments is outstanding, then notwithstanding any other provision of the Advance Payments Clause of this contract the net amount, after appropriate deduction for liquidation of the advance payment, of such progress payment shall be deposited in the special bank account or accounts maintained as required by the provisions of the Advance Payments Clause, and shall thereafter be withdrawn only pursuant to such provisions.

§ 596.150–2 Plant protection. In those cases where the Contracting Officer deems it necessary to retain some control as to the plant protective devices in a particular plant, the contract will contain one of the following clauses:

PLANT PROTECTION

The Contractor shall maintain in and about his plant adequate plant protective devices and shall employ such watchmen, guards and other personnel as the Contracting Officer may deem necessary to prevent espionage, sabotage, and other malicious destruction or damage.

PLANT PROTECTION

The Contractor shall maintain in and about his plant adequate plant protective devices and shall employ such watchmen, guards and other personnel as the Contracting Officer may deem necessary to prevent espionage, sabotage, and other malicious destruction or damage. If the Contracting Officer from time to time shall require the installation of plant protective devices, or the employment of watchmen, guards or other personnel, or both, in addition to those deemed necessary by him on the date the Contractor shall commence performance of this contract, the cost of any such devices installed or the pay of any such personnel employed, or both, at the written request and upon the written authorization of the Contracting Officer, shall be reimbursed to the Contractor upon submission of vouchers approved by the Contracting Officer, provided that no reimbursement of the cost of any such installation or pay of any such personnel, or both, shall be made in excess of the cost thereof, as estimated in advance and approved in writing by the Contracting Officer.[1]

PLANT PROTECTION (GOVERNMENT-OWNED CONTRACTOR OPERATED PLANTS)

(a) The Contractor shall at all times during the performance of the work under this Contract comply with all applicable Federal, State and local statutes, and with such rules and regulations as are furnished to the Contractor by the Contracting Officer, governing the manufacture, storage, loading, handling, or transporting of military explosives, pyrotechnic, and inert materials. The Contractor will maintain such additional safety precautions for its personnel, for facilities staffed and operated by it, and for work in process, as are customary in the industry or in the Contractor's private operations. All personnel having access to the plant, including Government personnel, shall comply with all instructions issued by the Contractor in furtherance of the safety precautions. The Contractor shall install and maintain in and about the plant such plant protective devices and shall employ such guards and other personnel as the Contracting Officer may approve, including such personnel and protective devices for the prevention of espionage, sabotage, and other malicious destruction or damage. The Contractor shall make available such information with respect thereto as the Contracting Officer may request. The use by the Contractor of such Government-owned safety or plant protective equipment as may be located at the plant site is authorized subject to approval by the contracting Officer.

(b) The Contractor agrees to furnish the authorized Security and Safety personnel of the Army Establishment with a survey of the existing internal security system and explosion-and-fire-prevention system in the portions of the plant staffed and operated by the Contractor. The Contractor agrees to make any changes necessary to cause the existing internal security system and explosion-and-fire-prevention system to comply with all applicable local, State, and Federal laws, rules and regulations, including such Department of the Army regulations or ---------- instructions as are furnished to the Contractor by the Contracting Officer, governing the manufacture, storage, loading, handling or transporting of military explosives, pyrotechnic, and inert materials.

(c) At any time during the term of this contract, the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative may require the Contractor to install and maintain in and about the plant additional protective devices, equipment and personnel. The Contractor shall submit promptly to the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative, for prior approval as to estimated cost, detailed inventories, including the estimated cost of each item of protective devices or equipment so required to be installed and of installing the same, and a detailed estimate of the cost of maintaining any such additional protective devices or equipment and personnel.

(d) Title to all plant protective devices and equipment added under paragraph (c) of this clause shall be in the Government. The Contractor, during the term of this contract or any extension thereof, shall maintain and keep in good condition and repair all such protective devices and equipment.

(e) The Contracting Officer and authorized Security and Safety personnel of the Army Establishment, at all times during the performance of this Contract or any extension thereof, shall have access to the portions of the plant staffed and operated by the Contractor in order to inspect, inventory, or remove any of said plant protective devices or equipment, and to inspect the premises with respect to compliance with all regulations and requirements concerning plant protection, safety, and security including any recommendations made by the appropriate Army Establishment personnel.

(Procuring Activity)

[1] If desired an additional proviso may be added, reading substantially as follows: Provided further that no reimbursement of the cost of any such installation or pay of any such personnel is being made to the Contractor by other means.

§ 596.150–3 Rental of gas cylinders. Every contract for the rental of gas cylinders will contain a clause similar to one of the following:

RENTAL OF GAS CYLINDERS (INDIVIDUAL BASIS)

Cylinders shall remain the property of the Contractor and will be loaned, without charge, to the Government for a period of 30 days after the date of shipment of cylinders from the Contractor's plant. Beginning with the first day after the expiration of the 30-day free loan period to and including the day the cylinders are released to the transportation company for return to the Contractor, there will be charged and the United States agrees to pay the Contractor a rental at the rate of $____ per cylinder per day for the use of cylinders not returned to the Contractor.

RENTAL OF GAS CYLINDERS (QUANTITY BASIS)

Cylinders shall remain the property of the Contractor and will be loaned, without charge, to the Government for a period of 30 days after the date of shipment of cylinders from the Contractor's plant. Beginning with the first day after the expiration of the 30-day free loan period to and including the day the cylinders are released to the transportation company for return to the Contractor, there will be charged and the United States agrees to pay the Contractor a rental at the rate of $____ per cylinder per day, computed on a quantity basis, as indicated below, for the use of cylinders not returned to the Contractor. This rental charge will be computed separately for oxygen and acetylene cylinders and for each point of delivery named in the contract. A credit of 30 cylinder days will accrue for each cylinder shipped. A debit of one cylinder day will accrue for each cylinder for each day held beginning with the day after date of shipment from Contractor's plant to and including the day the cylinder is released to the transportation company for return to the Contractor. At the end of the contract period, in the event the total number of debits exceeds the total number of credits, rental will be charged for the difference. If the total number of credits equals or exceeds the total number of debits, no charge will be made for the use of the cylinders.

All cylinders not returned to the Contractor on or before the expiration of a 90-day rental period or lost or damaged beyond repair while in the possession of the United States Government shall be paid for by the United States to the Contractor at a replacement value of $____ for each oxygen cylinder of 100 to 110 cubic feet capacity, $____ for each oxygen cylinder of 200 to 220 cubic feet capacity, $____ for each acetylene cylinder of 100 to 150 cubic feet capacity, and $____ for each acetylene cylinder of 250 to 300 cubic feet capacity.

Cylinders retained or lost and so paid for shall be considered the property of the United States. But if and when located they may, at the option of the Government, be returned to the Contractor, and, in such event, credit shall be allowed to the Government at the replacement value paid, less rental at the rate of $____ per day beginning at the expiration of the 30-day period as aforesaid to the date upon which cylinders are turned over to carrier for return to Contractor's plant.

§ 596.150–4 Liability for Government Property Furnished for Repair. Insert the clause set forth below in contracts for the repair of Government property, possession of which is turned over to the Contractor for that purpose. When minor repairs are obtained through small purchase procedure (fixed price) this clause will not be used (§ 602.1705–2 of this subchapter).

LIABILITY FOR GOVERNMENT PROPERTY

(a) The Contractor will be liable for any loss, destruction of or damage to the Government property to be repaired caused by the Contractor's failure to exercise such care and diligence as a reasonably prudent owner of similar property would exercise under similar circumstances.

(b) In addition to such insurance as is normally carried by the Contractor in the course of business the Contractor agrees to maintain such additional insurance (including self-insurance funds or reserves) covering loss or destruction of or damage to Government property, as may, from time to time, be required by the Contracting Officer.

(c) The Contractor shall not be liable for loss or destruction of or damage to the Government property furnished for repair (i) caused by any peril while the property is in transit off the Contractor's premises, or (ii) caused by any of the following perils while the property is on the Contractor's or subcontractor's premises, or on any other premises where such property may properly be located, or by removal therefrom because of any of the following perils:

(A) Fire; lightning; windstorm; cyclone, tornado, hail; explosion; riot, riot attending a strike, civil commotion; vandalism and malicious mischief; sabotage; aircraft or objects falling therefrom; vehicles running on land or tracks, excluding vehicles owned or operated by the Contractor or any agent or employee of the Contractor; smoke; sprinkler leakage; earthquake or volcanic eruption; flood, meaning thereby a rising of a body of water; hostile or warlike action, including action in hindering, combating, or defending against an actual, impending or expected attack by any government or sovereign power (de jure de facto), or by any authority using military, naval or air forces, or by an agent of any such government, power, authority, or forces; or

(B) Other peril, of a type not listed above, if such other peril is customarily covered by insurance (or by a reserve for self-insurance) in accordance with the normal practice of the Contractor, or the prevailing practice in the industry in which the Contractor is engaged with respect to similar property in the same general locality.

(d) The Contractor shall hold the Government harmless and shall indemnify the Government against claims for injury to person or damage to property of the Contractor or others arising from the Contractor's possession, or use of the Government property furnished for repair, or arising from the presence of said property on the premises or property of the Contractor.

§ 596.150–5 Price redetermination clauses. The following price redetermination clauses may be used in negotiated fixed-price contracts in accordance with the provisions of § 3.403–3 of this title and § 592.403–3 of this subchapter.

PRICE REDETERMINATION (FORM II–B)

(a) The prices stated herein may be increased or decreased in accordance with this clause. In no event shall the revised price exceed $____.

(b) Times for negotiations. (1) Upon completion of delivery of ____ percent of the (here specify the principal items to be furnished under the contract) to be furnished under this contract or upon expenditure of (here specify the percentage of the total contract amount), whichever shall occur last, the parties shall negotiate to revise the prices of all items theretofore and thereafter to be delivered. Within _____ (not to exceed 45) days after the completion of delivery or expenditure of funds referred to above, the Contractor shall furnish to the Contracting Officer the statements and data referred to in paragraph (c) of this clause. At any time and from time to time after the completion of delivery or expenditure of funds referred to above, subject to the limitations specified in this clause, either the Government or the Contractor may deliver to the other a written demand that the parties negotiate to adjust the prices under this contract. No demand shall be made prior to 90 days after completion of delivery or expenditure of funds referred to above, and thereafter neither party shall make a demand having an effective date within 90 days of the effective date of any prior demand. Each demand shall specify a date (identical with or subsequent to the date of the delivery of the demand) as of which the revised prices shall be effective as to the deliveries made thereon and thereafter. This date is hereinafter referred to as "the effective date of the price redetermination." For the purposes of the first negotiation contemplated by this paragraph, the date of execution of this contract shall be deemed to be the effective date of the price redetermination. Any demand under this clause, if made by the Contractor, shall state briefly the ground or grounds therefor and shall be accompanied by the statements and data referred to in paragraph (c) of this clause. If the demand is made by the Government, such statements and data will be furnished by the Contractor within _____ (not to exceed 45) days of the delivery of the demand. In addition to the demands stated above, the Contractor will furnish the Contracting Officer periodically (enter period), after the date of the first price redetermination hereunder, a statement of the experienced costs of production to date, to the extent that they are available at that time.

(2) In the event all remaining work under this contract, as it may from time to time be amended, shall be terminated pursuant to the clause of this contract entitled "Termination for Convenience of the Government," no demand shall then or thereafter be made and any demand the effective date of which is less than 30 days before the effective date of such termination shall be void and of no effect.

(c) Submission of data. (1) At the time or each of the times specified or provided for in paragraph (b) of this clause the Contractor shall submit (i) a new estimate and breakdown of the unit cost and the proposed prices of the items remaining under this contract after the effective date of the price redetermination, itemized so far as is practicable in the manner prescribed by DD Form 784; (ii) an explanation of the differences between the original (or last preceding) estimate and the new estimate; (iii) such relevant shop and engineering data, cost records, overhead absorption reports and accounting statements as may be of assistance in determining the accuracy and reliability of the new estimate; (iv) a statement of experienced costs of production hereunder to the extent that they are available at the times or times of the negotiation of the revision of prices hereunder; and (v) any other relevant data usually furnished in the case of negotiation of prices under a new contract. The Government may make such examination of the Contractor's accounts, records and books as the Contracting Officer may require and may make such audit thereof as the Contracting Officer may deem necessary.

(2) The Contractor further agrees to include in each of his subcontracts which is on a cost or cost-plus-a-fixed-fee or a price redetermination basis, a provision to the effect that the subcontractor agrees (i) to submit to the Contracting Officer such data, as may be required for price redetermination (ii) to permit the Contracting Officer to make or cause to be made such examination and audits of the books, records and accounts as the Contracting Officer may deem necessary, (iii) to include a like provision in each of his subcontracts which is on a cost or cost-plus-a-fixed-fee or a price redetermination basis.

(d) Negotiations. (1) Upon the filing of the statements and data required by paragraph (c) of this clause, the Contractor and the Contracting Officer will negotiate promptly in good faith to agree upon prices for items to be delivered on and after the effective date of the price redetermination. Negotiations for price redetermination under this clause shall be conducted on the same basis, employing the same types of data (including, without limitations, comparative prices, comparative costs, and trends thereof) as in the negotiation of prices under a new contract.

(2) After each negotiation the agreement reached will be evidenced by a supplemental agreement stating the redetermined prices to be effective with respect to deliveries on and after the effective date of the price redetermination (or such other later date as the parties may fix in such supplemental agreement).

(e) Disagreements. If within _____ (not to exceed 45) days after the date on which the statements and data are required pursuant to paragraph (b) of this clause to be filed (or such further period as may be fixed by written agreement) the Contracting Officer and the Contractor fail to agree to redetermined prices (which term, for the purpose of this clause, shall include direct costs, indirect costs and profit), the failure to agree shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes," and the prices so fixed shall remain in effect for the balance of the contract notwithstanding any other provision of this clause.

(f) Payments. Nothwithstanding any provision of this contract authorizing greater payment, adjustments and refunds shall be made if the total of all amounts billed and paid or payable under this contract for items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government (including amounts applied to liquidate progress payments), until final price revision has been made to the full extent permitted by this contract, shall exceed the sum of the following items as reported by the Contractor from time to time as hereinafter provided; (1) the total contract price of all items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have been established, and (2) the total amount of costs (estimated to the extent necessary) that have been reasonably incurred for and are properly allocable solely to items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have not been established, and (3) the total amount of interim profit used in establishing the initial contract price and allocable by direct proportion to items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have not been established. Within 45 days after the end of each quarter of the Contractor's fiscal year, beginning for the quarter in which a delivery is first made (or services are first performed for and accepted by the Government) under this contract, and as of the end of each quarter, the Contractor shall submit a statement setting forth the respective amounts of each of the three numbered items next above, together with the total amount of all billings for items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government (including amounts applied to liquidate progress payments) under this contract as of the end of each quarter. If on any quarterly statement these total billings exceed the sum of three numbered items above, this gross excess (less any applicable tax credit under Section 1481 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) shall, after deduction of the total refunds (cash or credit memoranda not including any tax credits under the Internal Revenue Code) theretofore made, be paid immediately by the Contractor to the Government or credited against existing unpaid billings covered by such statement; provided that if any portion of such gross excess (less all tax credits under the Internal Revenue Code) has been applied to the liquidation of progress payments, such amount may be added or restored to the unliquidated progress payment account, to the extent consistent with the progress payment clause of this contract, instead of making direct refund thereof. When, after submission by the contractor of cost data and price-redetermination offer, the contractor and the contracting officer (a) have agreed in writing upon revised billing prices in the light of the cost experience and anticipated future trend (and provided that such revised prices are not higher than the smallest of (i) the existing contract price, (ii) the contractor's price redetermination offer and (iii) a price based upon the most recent quarterly statement), and (b) the contractor agrees to promptly make the necessary adjustments to bring payments for past deliveries of items into alignment with the revised billing prices, and (c) so long as the contractor bills at the agreed revised billing prices (or lower prices thereafter negotiated as final prices preliminary to confirmation by formal contract supplement), the prices so agreed upon or negotiated shall be deemed to be final prices for the purpose of this paragraph until final prices are established by supplement. For any quarter in which only the numbered item (1), above, is applicable, the Contractor may furnish a written statement to that effect instead of the quarterly statement above required. It is mutually understood that where the Contractor fails to submit cost data required by paragraph (b) (1) of this clause within the time specified, payment of all invoices shall be suspended by the Contracting Officer until such time as the required statements and data are furnished by the Contractor.

(g) Termination provisions. For any of the purposes of the clause of this contract entitled "Termination for Convenience of the Government" (including, without limitation, the computation of "the total contract price" and "the contract price of work not terminated"), the contract price of delivered articles shall be deemed to be,

(1) For all items delivered prior to the effective date of the price redetermination, the contract price (giving effect to any prior revisions under this clause) applicable to each such item.

(2) For all items delivered on or after the effective date of the price redetermination.

(A) The contract price as revised in accordance with this clause if such revision shall have been agreed upon.

(B) If such revision shall not have been agreed upon, then such estimated prices as the Contractor and the Contracting Officer may agree upon as reasonable under all the circumstances and in the absence of such agreement such reasonable prices as may be determined in accordance with the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(h) Termination during the initial period. In the event that this contract is terminated pursuant to the clause of this contract entitled "Termination for Convenience of the Government," or the Contractor's right to deliver is terminated pursuant to the clause of this contract entitled "Default," so that the last delivery under the contract as terminated is made prior to the completion of the initial period as specified in paragraph (b) of this clause, the Contractor within _____ days after such last delivery shall furnish the data required by paragraph (c) of this clause and thereupon the parties shall negotiate in good faith to agree upon revised prices under this contract. The agreement reached shall be evidenced by a supplemental agreement to this contract stating the revised prices under the contract. Any disagreement as to the revised prices will be disposed of as a question of fact in accordance with the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

The following is authorized as an optional paragraph (e) in the Form II–B price redetermination clause:

(e) Disagreements. (1) If within _____ (not to exceed 45) days after the date on which the statements and data are required pursuant to paragraph (b) of this clause to be filed (or such further period as may be fixed by written agreement) the Contracting Officer and the Contractor fail to agree to redetermined prices (which term, for the purpose of this clause, shall include direct costs, indirect costs and profit), the Contractor, if he has substantially complied with the requirements of this clause as to the furnishing of statements and data, may give written notice to the Contracting Officer requiring the Government to pay the prices set forth in such notice from the time at which the price redetermination was to be effective under the provisions of this clause.

(2) If the Contracting Officer and the Contractor fail to agree, the Contracting Officer within 30 days after the delivery of the Contractor's notice may serve upon the Contractor a written election by which the Government agrees to pay to the Contractor fair and just compensation from the time at which such price redetermination was to be effective under the provisions of this clause. The written election shall specify the amount which the Contracting Officer deems to be fair and just compensation. If no written election is served upon the Contractor, the prices set forth in the Contractor's notice shall be incorporated in an appropriate supplemental agreement. If a written election is served upon the Contractor as above provided, the contract shall continue in effect as modified by such written election and the Contractor (a) shall be paid currently the amount specified by the Contracting Officer in such written election for all deliveries affected thereby and (b) may recover from the United States, by suit brought within six months after the delivery of such written election or after the completion of deliveries under this contract, whichever shall last occur, the amount, if any, by which such fair and just compensation exceeds the amount so specified.

(3) If the Contracting Officer and the Contractor fail to agree and no notice has been given by the Contractor as contemplated in paragraph (e) (1) of this clause, the Contractor shall be entitled to receive, from the time at which such price redetermination was to be effective under the provisions of this clause, fair and just compensation the amount which shall be determined as a question of fact pursuant to the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

PRICE REDETERMINATION (FORM III)

(a) Within sixty days after the completion or termination of this contract, the Contractor will submit to the Contracting Officer a detailed statement of the costs of performing this contract. Upon the written demand of the Contracting Officer, made at any time within thirty days after the submission of such statement, the Contractor will negotiate to reduce the contract price to an amount representing fair and reasonable compensation for the performance of the contract. In such negotiations the efficiency of the Contractor in production, buying and management will be given due weight.

(b) The Contractor will furnish to the Contracting Officer such other statements of actual costs of production and such other financial statements, at such times and in such form and detail, as the Contracting Officer may prescribe, and will permit such audits and examinations of its books, records and accounts as the Contracting Officer may request.

The Contractor further agrees to include in each of his subcontracts which is on a cost or cost-plus-a-fixed-fee or a price redetermination basis a provision to the effect that the subcontractor agrees (i) to submit to the Contracting Officer such cost data as may be required for price redetermination, (ii) to permit the Contracting Officer to make or cause to be made such examination and audits of the books, records and accounts as the Contracting Officer may deem necessary, and (iii) to include a like provision in each of his subcontracts which is on a cost or cost-plus-a-fixed-fee or a price redetermination basis.

(c) If within thirty (30) days after the making of such demand (or such further period as may be fixed by written agreement) the Contracting Officer and the Contractor fail to agree to a redetermined price (which term, for the purpose of this clause, shall include direct costs, indirect costs and profits), the failure to agree shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(d) The Government shall retain from amounts otherwise due the Contractor, or the Contractor shall repay to the Government if paid to him, any amount by which the contract price is found as a result of the application of this clause to exceed a fair and reasonable price, as the Contracting Officer may direct.

(e) Payments. Notwithstanding any provision of this contract authorizing greater payments, adjustments and refunds shall be made if the total of all amounts billed and paid or payable under this contract for items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government (including amounts applied to liquidate progress payments), until final price revision has been made to the full extent permitted by this contract, shall exceed the sum of the following items as reported by the Contractor from time to time as hereinafter provided; (1) the total contract price of all items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have been established, and (2) the total amount of costs (estimated to the extent necessary) that have been reasonably incurred for and are properly allocable solely to items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have not been established, and (3) the total amount of interim profit used in establishing the initial contract price and allocable by direct proportion to items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have not been established. Within 45 days after the end of each quarter of the Contractor's fiscal year, beginning for the quarter in which a delivery is first made (or services are first performed for and accepted by the Government) under this contract, and as of the end of each quarter, the Contractor shall submit a statement setting forth the respective amounts of each of the three numbered items next above, together with the total amount of all billings for items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government (including amounts applied to liquidate progress payments) under this contract as of the end of each quarter. If on any quarterly statement these total billings exceed the sum of the three numbered items above, this gross excess (less any applicable tax credit under Section 1481 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) shall, after deduction of the total refunds (cash or credit memoranda not including any tax credits under the Internal Revenue Code) theretofore made, be paid immediately by the Contractor to the Government or credited against existing unpaid billings covered by such statement; provided that if any portion of such gross excess (less all tax credits under the Internal Revenue Code) has been applied to the liquidation of progress payments, such amount may be added or restored to the unliquidated progress payment account, to the extent consistent with the progress payment clause of this contract, instead of making direct refund thereof. When, after submission by the contractor of cost data and price-redetermination offer, the contractor and the contracting officer (a) have agreed in writing upon revised billing prices in the light of the cost experience and anticipated future trend (and provided that such revised prices are not higher than the smallest of (i) the existing contract price, (ii) the contractor's price-redetermination officer and (iii) a price based upon the most recent quarterly statement, and (b) the contractor agrees to promptly make the necessary adjustments to bring payments for past deliveries of items into alignment with the revised billing prices, and (c) so long as the contractor bills at the agreed revised billing prices (or lower prices thereafter negotiated as final prices preliminary to confirmation by formal contract supplement), the prices so agreed upon or negotiated shall be deemed to be final prices for the purpose of this paragraph until final prices are established by supplement. For any quarter in which only the numbered items (1), above, is applicable, the Contractor may furnish a written statement to that effect instead of the quarterly statement above required.

PRICE REDETERMINATION (FORM IV)

(a) Because of the nature of the work called for by this contract and the great uncertainty as to the cost of performance hereunder, the parties agree that the contract price fixed in Clause ------ hereof may be increased or decreased in accordance with the provision of this clause.

(b) Within ------ [not exceeding 60] days after the completion or termination of this contract, the Contractor will file with the Contracting Officer a statement showing, in such form and detail as the Contracting Officer may prescribe, the Contractor's cost of producing the supplies or furnishing the services called for hereunder, together with such other information as may be pertinent in the negotiations for a redetermined price pursuant to this clause. Such statement of cost shall fairly reflect the normal operation of the Contractor's cost system. [First optional alternative to preceding sentence: The Contractor will establish and maintain records of the cost of performing this contract, as follows: * * *] [Second optional alternative: The Contractor will establish and maintain such records of the cost of performing this contract as the Contracting Officer may require in writing.] The Contracting Officer shall have the right at all reasonable times to make or cause to be made such examinations and audits of the Contractor's books, records and accounts as he may request.

The Contractor further agrees to include in each of his subcontracts which is in a cost or cost-plus-a-fixed-fee or a price redetermination basis a provision to the effect that the subcontractor agrees (i) to submit to the Contracting Officer such cost data as may be required for price redetermination, (ii) to permit the Contracting Officer to make or cause to be made such examination and audits of the books, records and accounts as the Contracting Officer may deem necessary, and (iii) to include a like provision in each of his subcontracts which is on a cost or cost-plus-a-fixed-fee or a price redetermination basis.

(c) Upon the filing of the statement and other pertinent information required by paragraph (b) of this clause, the Contractor and the Contracting Officer will promptly negotiate in good faith to agree upon a reasonable redetermined price for the entire contract which, upon the basis of such statement and other pertinent information, will constitute fair and just compensation to the Contractor for the performance of this contract. In determining the extent of any estimated allowance for profit to be taken into account in fixing such redetermined price, consideration will be given to the extent to which the Contractor has performed the contract with efficiency, economy, and ingenuity. In no event shall the redetermined price exceed the sum of $------. The redetermined price shall be evidenced by a supplemental agreement to this contract.

(d) If within ---------- [not exceeding 90] days after the completion or termination of this contract, the parties shall fail to agree upon a redetermined price (which term, for the purpose of this clause, shall include direct costs, indirect costs and profit) in accordance with the provisions of this clause, the failure to agree shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(e) In the event of a price increase the Government will pay or credit to the Contractor the amount by which the redetermined price shall exceed the contract price aforesaid. In the event of a decrease in price the Contractor will repay or credit the amount of such decrease to the Government in such manner as the Contracting Officer may direct.

(f) For any of the purposes of the clause of this contract entitled "Termination for Convenience of the Government" (including without limitation, computation of "the total contract price" and "the contract price of work not terminated"), the contract price shall be the redetermined contract price agreed upon under paragraph (c) of this clause or determined under paragraph (d) of this clause, as the case may be.

(g) Payments. Notwithstanding any provision of this contract authorizing greater payment, adjustments and refunds shall be made if the total of all amounts billed and paid or payable under this contract for items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government (including amounts applied to liquidate progress payments), until final price revision has been made to the full extent permitted by this contract, shall exceed the sum of the following items as reported by the Contractor from time to time as hereinafter provided; (1) the total contract price of all items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have been established, and (2) the total amount of costs (estimated to the extent necessary) that have been reasonably incurred for and are properly allocable solely to items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have not been established, and (3) the total amount of interim profit used in establishing the initial contract price and allocable by direct proportion to items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have not been established. Within 45 days after the end of each quarter of the Contractor's fiscal year, beginning for the quarter in which a delivery is first made (or services are first performed for and accepted by the Government) under this contract, and as of the end of each quarter, the Contractor shall submit a statement setting forth the respective amounts of each of the three numbered items next above, together with the total amount of all billings for items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government (including amounts applied to liquidate progress payments) under this contract as of the end of each quarter. If on any quarterly statement these total billings exceed the sum of the three numbered items above, this gross excess (less any applicable tax credit under Section 1481 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) shall, after deduction of the total refunds (cash or credit memoranda not including any tax credits under the Internal Revenue Code) theretofore made, be paid immediately by the Contractor to the Government or credited against existing unpaid billings covered by such statement; provided that if any portion of such gross excess (less all tax credits under the Internal Revenue Code) has been applied to the liquidation of progress payments, such amount may be added or restored to the unliquidated progress payment account, to the extent consistent with the progress payment clause of this contract, instead of making direct refund thereof. When, after submission by the contractor of cost data and price-redetermination offer, the contractor and the contracting officer (a) have agreed in writing upon revised billing prices in the light of the cost experience and anticipated future trend (and provided that such revised prices are not higher than the smallest of (i) the existing contract price, (ii) the Contractor's price-redetermination officer and (iii) a price based upon the most recent quarterly statement), and (b) the Contractor agrees to promptly make the necessary adjustments to bring payments for past deliveries of items into alignment with the revised billing prices, and (c) so long as the Contractor bills at the agreed revised billings prices (or lower prices thereafter negotiated as final prices preliminary to confirmation by formal contract supplement), the prices so agreed upon or negotiated shall be deemed to be final prices for the purpose of this paragraph until final prices are established by supplement. For any quarter in which only the numbered item (1), above, is applicable, the Contractor may furnish a written statement to that effect instead of the quarterly statement above required.

§ 596.150–6 Incentive price revision clauses. When in accordance with the provisions of § 3.403–4 of this title and § 592.403–4 of this subchapter, the fixed-price incentive contract is used, one of the following clauses, as appropriate, will be made a part of the contract.

PRICE REVISION

(a) Definitions. As used in this clause the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(i) The term "billing price" means the stated prices which the contractor may receive upon delivery of any articles or completion of services pending final price revision.

(ii) The term "target price" means any price deemed equitable at the time of negotiation that is subject to adjustment in accordance with the final price revision provisions of this clause.

(iii) The term "target cost" means that portion of any target price which, at the time of negotiation thereof, was deemed to be the estimated cost of the articles or services being procured under this contract.

(iv) The term "target profit" means that portion of any target price agreed upon as being a reasonable profit for furnishing any articles or services if such articles or services were produced for a cost equal to the target cost.

(v) The term "contract target price" means the sum of the target prices of articles and services being procured from time to time under this contract.

(vi) The term "contract target cost" means the sum of the target costs of articles and services being procured from time to time under this contract.

(vii) The term "contract target profit" means the sum of the target profits of articles and services being procured from time to time under this contract.

(viii) The term "adjusted total contract cost" means the final negotiated cost of all items under this contract which are subject to price revision.

(ix) The term "final contract price" means the adjusted total contract cost plus an allowance for profit, if any, determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of the contract.

(x) The term "contract ceiling" means the maximum amount of money (stated in dollar amounts and determined with respect to a definite percentage of the total contract target cost involved) which the Government is obligated to pay the contractor for those articles and services being procured under the terms of this contract, and under change orders and amendments thereto, the prices of which are subject to price revision in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

(b) General. (i) The price of items ---------- under this contract are both target and billing prices until revised in accordance with the provisions of this clause and include a total target profit of ------% of total target cost.

(ii) The prices of items ---------- shall, when established in accordance with paragraph (f) hereof, be both target and billing prices until revised in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

(iii) The prices of items ---------- are fixed prices and not subject to revision in accordance with any of the provisions of this clause.

(c) Submission of data. Within -------- days after the end of the month in which the Contractor has delivered the last unit referred to in those Items listed in paragraphs (b) (ii) above, the Contractor shall forward to the Contracting Officer, in such form as the Contracting Officer may require, (i) a statement of all costs incurred by the contractor in performing all work under the Items of this contract subject to price revision as of the date of said delivery, and (ii) an estimate of costs of such further performance, if any, as may be necessary to complete performance of all work and obligations under such Items. The contractor shall include as a separate entry in the statement of costs to be submitted hereunder, an amount to be agreed upon by the contractor and the Contracting Officer representing the difference between (i) the cost of materials, supplies, and subassemblies purchased for, but not allocated to, the performance of the contract by the contractor which may be reasonably expected to remain on hand or which are on hand as excess materials at the conclusion of the contract, and (ii) the value of such materials, supplies, and subassemblies at the conclusion of the contract.

(d) Accounting procedures. Contractor agrees to maintain books, records, documents, and other evidence pertaining to the costs and expenses of this contract to the extent and in such detail as will properly reflect the net costs, direct and indirect, of all labor, materials, equipment supplies, services, and other costs and expenditures of whatever nature necessary for the establishment of costs under the provisions of this contract, and further agrees to permit the Government to make, at reasonable times, such examination or audit thereof as the Contracting Officer may deem necessary. The contractor shall segregate the costs of any Item, change or service, the price of which is fixed and not subject to revision in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

(e) Certification. An officer or other authorized official of the contractor shall certify on each statement of costs forwarded to the Contracting Officer in accordance with the requirements of this clause, that the incurred costs are based upon the accounting records of the contractor, that such records have been kept in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practices normally followed by the contractor, that such incurred costs are correct to the best of his knowledge and belief and that the estimate of costs to complete is considered reasonable.

(f) Items priced pursuant to established repair parts procurement procedures.—(i) Item ----------, Repair Parts. The unit prices of repair parts shall be determined in accordance with ----------, which document is incorporated herein by reference. The aggregate target price for such repair parts shall thereupon be established by negotiation on the basis of information submitted in accordance with this paragraph. Repair parts unit target prices need not be revised until contract completion and final price revision. As prices are established pursuant to this paragraph, they shall be added to the contract by amendment which shall also indicate the target cost and target profit for such repair parts, the increase in the contract target cost, and the increase in the contract target profit. Failure to agree on any of the matters set forth in this paragraph (f) shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(ii) Item----------

(g) Final price revision. Upon submission of the information required by paragraph (c) above, the contractor and the Contracting Officer shall promptly establish a final contract price of the Items subject to revision in accordance with the provisions of this clause in the following manner:

(i) On the basis of the information required by paragraph (c) above, together with the results of such other investigation, as the Contracting Officer may deem appropriate, there shall be established by negotiation the adjusted total contract cost of those Items subject to the provisions of this clause. Failure to agree on any of the matters set forth in this subparagraph (i) shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(ii) The final contract price of such Items shall be established, adding to the adjusted total contract cost, as negotiated under subparagraph (i) above, an allowance for profit determined in accordance with the instructions set forth in subparagraph (iii) below, provided, however, that in no event shall the final contract price exceed ---- percent of the contract target cost.

(iii) The allowance for profit with respect to such Items shall be determined in accordance with the following schedule:

When the adjusted total contract cost is—	The allowance for profit is—
Equal to the contract target cost----	Contract target profit.
Greater than contract target cost---	Contract target profit less -- percent of the amount by which the adjusted total contract cost exceeds the contract target cost.
Less than the contract target cost---	Contract target profit plus -- percent of the amount by which the adjusted total contract cost is less than the contract target cost.

(h) Adjustment of payment. Notwithstanding any provision of this contract authorizing greater payment, adjustments and refunds shall be made if the total of all amounts billed and paid or payable under this contract for items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government (including amounts applied to liquidate progress payments) until final price revision has been made shall exceed the sum of the following items as reported by the Contractor from time to time as hereinafter provided: (i) the total contract price of all items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have been established, and (ii) the total amount of costs (estimated to the extent necessary) that have been reasonably incurred for and are properly allocable solely to items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have not been established, and (iii) the total amount of the established target profit allocable by direct proportion to items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have not been established—increased or decreased in accordance with the incentive profit formula of this contract when the amount of costs stated in item (ii), above, differs from the applicable target costs. Within 45 days after the end of each quarter of the Contractor's fiscal year, beginning for the quarter in which a delivery is first made (or services are first performed for and accepted by the Government) under this contract, and as of the end of each quarter, the Contractor shall submit a statement setting forth the respective amounts of each of the three numbered items next above, together with the total amount of all billings for items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government (including amounts applied to liquidate progress payments) under this contract as of end of each quarter. If on any quarterly statement these total billings exceed the sum of the three numbered items above, this gross excess less any applicable tax credit under Section 1481 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall, after deduction of the total refunds (cash or credit memoranda not including any tax credits under the Internal Revenue Code) theretofore made, be paid immediately by the Contractor to the Government or credited against existing unpaid billings covered by such statement; provided that is any portion of such gross excess (less all tax credits under the Internal Revenue Code) has been applied to the liquidation of progress payments, such amount may be added or restored to the unliquidated progress payment account, to the extent consistent with the progress payment clause of this contract, instead of making direct refund thereof.

(i) Termination. In the event this contract is terminated, in whole or in part, settlement shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the clause hereof entitled "Termination for the Convenience of the Government" or the provisions of the clause hereof entitled "Default" whichever is applicable, subject to the following:

(i) If this contract is terminated in its entirety at any time prior to agreement upon revised prices hereunder, the contractor and the Contracting Officer shall, if the termination settlement is to be negotiated on an inventory basis, negotiate to establish such prices for completed articles and services, the price of which was subject to revision hereunder, as may be equitable under the circumstances. Failure to agree shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of this clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(ii) If the contract is partially terminated the contractor and the Contracting Officer shall agree upon such revisions in the target price and in the contract target price as may be equitable under the circumstances. Failure to agree shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(j) Adjustments of billing price. If at any time it appears that the final unit prices will be substantially greater or less than the unit prices at which units under this contract are being billed, the Contracting Officer may adjust such unit billing prices. The establishment of adjusted prices for billing purposes only shall in no way limit or affect the price revision to be computed in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

(k) Subcontracts. The contractor agrees that no subcontract placed under this contract shall provide for payment on a cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost basis. The contractor further agrees that all subcontracts, other than those on a firm fixed-price basis, which as modified or amended exceed the total cost of $25,000, shall contain provisions (i) reserving to the Government the right to have the books and records of such subcontractor inspected and audited by a Government representative and (ii) requiring such subcontractors to reserve in their subcontracts a similar right for the Government to have a representative inspect and audit the books and records of lower tier subcontracts extending below a cost-reimbursement type, revision price incentive type subcontract in a chain unbroken by firm fixed-price subcontracts.

PRICE REVISION

(a) Definitions. As used in this clause the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(i) The term "billing price" means the stated prices which the contractor may receive upon delivery of any articles or completion of services pending final price revision.

(ii) The term "target price" means any price deemed equitable at the time of negotiation that is subject to adjustment in accordance with the final price revision provisions of this clause.

(iii) The term "target cost" means that portion of any target price which, at the time of negotiation thereof, was deemed to be the estimated cost of the articles or services being procured under this contract.

(iv) The term "target profit" means that portion of any target price agreed upon as being a reasonable profit for furnishing any articles or services if such articles or services were produced for a cost equal to the target cost.

(v) The term "contract target price" means the sum of the target prices of articles and services being procured from time to time under this contract.

(vi) The term "contract target cost" means the sum of the target costs of articles and services being procured from time to time under this contract.

(vii) The term "contract target profit" means the sum of the target profits of articles and services being procured from time to time under this contract.

(viii) The term "adjusted total contract cost" means the final negotiated cost of all Items under this contract which are subject to price revision.

(ix) The term "final contract price" means the adjusted total contract cost plus an allowance for profit, if any, determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of the contract.

(x) The term "contract ceiling" means the maximum amount of money (stated in dollar amounts and determined with respect to a definite percentage of the total contract target cost) which the Government is obligated to pay the contractor for those articles and services being procured from time to time under this contract, the prices of which are subject to price revision in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

(b) General. (i) The prices of Items ---------- under this contract are billing prices until revised in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

(ii) The prices of Items ---------- shall, when established in accordance with paragraph (i) hereof, be both target and billing prices until revised in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

(iii) The prices of Items ---------- are fixed prices and not subject to revision in accordance with any of the provisions of this clause.

(c) Pending establishments of the target price in accordance with paragraph (h) hereof, the Government shall in no event be obligated to make payment to the contractor in an amount in excess of $---- or such other amount as may be authorized in writing by the Contracting Officer.

(d) Submission of data for establishment of target price. Within ---------- days after the end of the month in which the ---------- unit of Items ---------- (to be manufactured hereunder) or (to be manufactured under Contract ----------) is (delivered) (shop completed), or at such other time as the Contracting Officer may direct, the contractor shall forward to the Contracting Officer (i) a statement of all costs incurred to the date of such (delivery) (shop completion) or such other time as directed by the Contracting Officer under this contract (and under the above Contract ----------), (ii) an estimate of costs to be incurred by the contractor to complete performance of all work and obligations under items subject to price revision, and (iii) data to support the accuracy and reliability of such estimate.

(e) Submission of data for final price revision. Within ---------- days after the end of the month in which the contractor has delivered the last unit referred to in those Items listed in paragraphs (b) (i) and (b) (ii) above, the contractor shall forward to the Contracting Officer in such form as the Contracting Officer may require (i) a statement of all costs incurred by the contractor in performing all work under the Items of this contract subject to price revision as of the date of said delivery, and (ii) an estimate of costs of such further performance, if any, as may be necessary to complete performance of all work and obligations under such Items. The contractor shall include as a separate entry in the statement of costs to be submitted hereunder, an amount to be agreed upon by the contractor and the Contracting Officer representing the difference between (i) the cost of materials, supplies, and subassemblies purchased for but not allocated to the performance of the contractor which may be reasonably expected to remain on hand or which are on hand as excess materials at the conclusion of the contract, and (ii) the value of such materials, supplies and subassemblies at the conclusion of the contract.

(f) Accounting procedures. Contractor agrees to maintain books, records, documents and other evidence pertaining to the costs and expenses of this contract to the extent and in such detail as will properly reflect the net costs direct and indirect, of all labor, materials, equipment, supplies, services and other costs and expenditures of whatever nature necessary for the establishment of costs under the provisions of this contract, and further agrees to permit the Government to make, at reasonable times, such examination or audit thereof as the Contracting Officer may deem necessary. The contractor shall segregate the costs of any Item, change or service, the price of which is fixed and not subject to revision in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

(g) Certification. An officer or other authorized official of the contractor, shall certify on each statement of costs forwarded to the Contracting Officer, in accordance with the requirements of this clause, that the incurred costs are based upon the accounting records of the contractor, that such records have been kept in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practices normally followed by the contractor, that such incurred costs are correct to the best of his knowledge and belief and that the estimate of costs to complete the contract is considered reasonable.

(h) Establishment of target price. Items enumerated in subparagraph (b) (i) above. Upon submission of the information required by paragraph (d) above and such other information as the Contracting Officer may require, the contractor and the Contracting Officer shall promptly negotiate the target costs and the target profit applicable to each of said Items. The total of such negotiated target costs and target profit shall constitute both the target prices and the revised billing prices of such Items and shall be evidenced by amendment to this contract. In addition to the foregoing, the parties shall, after agreeing upon the target price, negotiate the contract ceiling (see subparagraph (j) (ii) below) and the percentage or percentages (see subparagraph (j) (iii) below) of the adjusted total contract cost by which the contract target profit shall be increased or decreased in the event the adjusted total contract cost is less than or greater than the contract target cost. Such negotiated percentage or percentages shall be evidenced by amendment to this contract. Failure to agree on any of the matters set forth in this paragraph (h) shall be a dispute concerning a questioning of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(i) Items priced pursuant to established repair parts procurement procedures.

(i) Item ----------, Repair Parts. The unit prices of repair parts shall be determined in accordance with ----------, which document is incorporated herein by reference. If any Repair Parts List is received by the Contracting Officer from the contractor prior to establishment of the target prices of those Items set forth in subparagraph (b) (i) above, the aggregate billing prices for repair parts set forth therein shall be established by negotiation. In the event that the billing prices for such repair parts lists have been so established prior to the establishment of the target prices, the aggregate target prices for repair parts under such list or lists shall be established by negotiation at the same time and in the same manner as for those Items set forth in subparagraph (b) (i) above. If any Repair Parts List is received by the Contracting Officer from the contractor subsequent to the establishment of the target prices of those Items set forth in subparagraph (b) (i) above, the aggregate target prices for repair parts thereunder shall be similarly established by negotiation. Repair parts unit target prices need not be revised until contract completion and final price revision. The target prices established pursuant to this paragraph shall be added to the contract by amendment which shall also indicate the target cost and profit for such repair parts, the increase in the contracts target cost and the increase in the contract target profit.

(ii) Item ----------

(j) Final price revision. Upon submission of the information required by paragraph (e) above, the contractor and the Contracting Officer shall promptly establish a final contract price of the Items subject to revision in accordance with the provisions of this clause in the following manner:

(i) On the basis of the information required by paragraph (e) above, together with the results of such other investigation, as the Contracting Officer may deem appropriate, there shall be established by negotiation the adjusted total contract cost of those Items subject to the provisions of this clause. Failure to agree on any of the matters set forth in this paragraph (i) shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(ii) The final contract price of such Items shall be established by adding to the adjusted total contract cost, as negotiated under subparagraph (i) above, an allowance for profit determined in accordance with the instructions set forth in subparagraph (iii) below, provided, however, that in no event shall the final contract price exceed such percent of the contract target cost as has been negotiated pursuant to paragraph (h) hereof.

(iii) The allowance for profit with respect to such Items shall be determined in accordance with the following schedule:

When the adjusted total contract cost is—	The allowance for profit is—
Equal to the contract cost----------	Contract target profit.
Greater than the contract target cost_	Contract target profit less such percent of the amount by which the adjusted total contract cost exceed the contract target cost as has been negotiated pursuant to paragraph (h) hereof.
Less than the contract target cost---	Contract target profit plus such percent of the amount by which the adjusted total contract cost is less than the contract target cost as has been negotiated pursuant to paragraph (h) hereof.

(k) Adjustment of payments. Notwithstanding any provision of this contract authorizing greater payment, adjustments and refunds shall be made if the total of all amounts billed and paid or payable under this contract for items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government (including amounts applied to liquidate progress payments) until final price revision has been made shall exceed the sum of the following items as reported by the Contractor from time to time as hereinafter provided; (i) the total contract price of all items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have been established, and (ii) the total amount of costs (estimated to the extent necessary (that have been reasonably incurred for and are properly allocable solely to items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have not been established, and (iii) the total amount of the established target profit allocable by direct proportion to items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government for which final prices have not been established—increased or decreased in accordance with the incentive profit formula of this contract when the amount of costs stated in item (ii), above, differs from the applicable target costs. Within 45 days after the end of each quarter of the Contractor's fiscal year, beginning for the quarter in which a delivery is first made (or services are first performed for and accepted by the Government) under this contract, and as of the end of each quarter, the Contractor shall submit a statement setting forth the respective amounts of each of the three numbered items next above, together with the total amount of all billings for items delivered to (or services performed for) and accepted by the Government (including amounts applied to liquidate progress payments) under this contract as of end of each quarter. If on any quarterly statement these total billings exceed the sum of the three numbered items above, this gross excess less any applicable tax credit under Section 1481 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall, after deduction of the total refunds (cash or credit memoranda not including any tax credits under the Internal Revenue Code) theretofore made, be paid immediately by the Contractor to the Government or credited against exitsing unpaid billings covered by such statement; provided that if any portion of such excess (less all tax credits under the Internal Revenue Code) has been applied to the liquidation of progress payments, such amount may be added or restored to the unliquidated progress payment account, to the extent consistent with the progress payment clause of this contract, instead of making direct refund thereof.

(l) Termination. In the event this contract is terminated, in whole or in part, settlement shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the clause hereof entitled "Termination for the Convenience of the Government" or the provisions of the clause hereof entitled "Default" whichever is applicable, subject to the following:

(i) If this contract is terminated in its entirety at any time prior to agreement upon revised prices hereunder, the contractor and the Contracting Officer shall if termination settlement is to be negotiated on an inventory basis, negotiate to establish such prices for completed articles or services, the price of which was subject to revision hereunder, as may be equitable under the circumstances. Failure to agree shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(ii) If this contract is partially terminated the contractor and the Contracting Officer shall agree upon such revisions in the target prices and the contract target prices as may be equitable under the circumstances. Failure to agree shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

(m) Adjustment of billing price. If at any time it appears that the final unit prices will be substantially greater or less than the unit prices at which units under this contract are being billed, the Contracting Officer may adjust such unit billing prices. The establishment of adjusted prices for billing purposes only shall in no way limit or affect the price revision to be computed in accordance with the provisions of clause.

(n) Subcontracts. The contractor agrees that no subcontract placed under this contract shall provide for payment on cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost basis. The contractor further agrees that all subcontracts, other than those on a firm fixed-price basis, which as modified or amended exceed the total cost of $25,000, shall contain provisions (i) reserving to the Government the right to have the books and records of such subcontractor inspected and audited by a representative and (ii) requiring such subcontractors to reserve in their subcontracts a similar right for the Contracting Officer to have a Government representative inspect and audit the books and records of lower tier and subcontracts extending below a cost reimbursement type, redeterminable-price type or incentive type subcontract in a chain unbroken by firm fixed-price subcontracts.

§ 601.050 Applicability. It will be noted that the applicability of the various subparts, and in some cases, of the various paragraphs of a subpart of this part, vary materially. Guidance in labor matters in those geographical areas for which applicability is not prescribed herein will be in accordance with labor legislation of the country in which procurement is effected.

SUBPART A—BASIC LABOR POLICIES

§ 601.101 Labor relations—(a) Scope. All problems arising out of the labor relations of private contractors vitally affect procurement and are an essential part of procurement responsibility. In the event that the Head of a Procuring Activity requires assistance in the disposition of these problems, request therefor should be submitted to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D. C., Attn: Labor Advisor.

(b) Labor responsibility. (1) There will be no contacts with national offices of labor organizations or other organizations of the Government in connection with labor matters except after coordination with the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor. In case of emergency such coordination may be by telephone.

(2) The Head of the Procuring Activity concerned is authorized to communicate with local labor organizations and the local offices of Federal agencies in connection with labor matters of concern to a particular activity but no action which is not mutually acceptable to the Head of the Procuring Activity and the local organization will be taken without requisite coordination.

(3) Heads of Procuring Activities are authorized to communicate with local labor organizations, and the local offices of State and Federal agencies, for the purpose of removing necessary material from strikebound facilities in accordance with procedures prescribed in Subpart O, Part 601 of this subchapter.

(4) Where any labor dispute, work stoppage, or threatened work stoppage is, in the opinion of the Head of a Procuring Activity, of sufficient importance to procurement to warrant attention of higher authority, the Head of the Procuring Activity will submit in duplicate a report, "Important Labor Disputes or Work Stoppages (Actual or Threatened)," Reports Control Symbol CSGLD–861, by the most expeditious means available, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D. C. One copy will be marked for the attention of the Labor Advisor and the other for the attention of the Chief, Production Branch. Such report will include the following information to the extent pertinent:

(i) Name, address, and telephone number of manufacturer; name, address, telephone number, and title of company official contacted (if manufacturer is a subcontractor, include the name and location of the prime contractor(s)).

(ii) Items being produced (if a subcontract is involved, identify the prime contract items).

(iii) Name, address, telephone number, and national affiliation of union locals involved; names, addresses, and telephone numbers of local union officials and result of any contacts with same.

(iv) Effect on production of Army materiel.

(v) Detailed description of critical items (if any) which should be removed from plant or continued to be processed there with mutual consent of Contractor and union, if obtainable.

(vi) Date of commencement of the dispute and date of important incidents of the dispute such as notice of strike, strikes, lockouts, settlements, etc.

(vii) Statement of any action taken or contemplated to be taken by the manufacturer.

(viii) Contract number(s) and type(s) thereof (fixed-price, CPFF, etc.), including pricing provision.

(ix) The issues or probable issues involved.

(x) Estimated number of employees directly and indirectly involved; estimated number who may be involved ultimately, both directly and indirectly; total number of employees at the facility.

(xi) Identity of any cognizant State and/or Federal authority engaged in mediation and conciliation activities.

(xii) Adequacy of plant guards and local police for protection of Government property, indicating whether plant-guard personnel are members of a union and, if so, local number and name, national affiliation, and whether it is expected that they will go on strike.

(xiii) The quantity of services or military items involved, scheduled performance or delivery dates, and the relation of the production affected by the dispute to the total military procurement program with respect to those services or military items.

(xiv) Availability of end items, component parts, and/or materials.

(a) Stocks in hands of procurement activities or receiving agencies.

(b) Quantity of affected material on hand at construction or manufacturing site.

(c) The existence or nonexistence of alternate sources of items, parts, or materials, together with factors involved in utilizing these sources, including timing, price, quality and suitability of the product.

(xv) A statement of the degree and extent of importance to the Department of the Army of the delay occasioned by the work stoppage, including such factors as the effect upon research and development programs, defense stocks, critical construction, increased costs of procurement, and program delays.

(xvi) Additional pertinent information including, when applicable, the effect on care and maintenance of Government-furnished equipment or material.

When time considerations do not permit expeditious reporting of all the above information, whatever information is immediately available should be furnished in the initial report. However, in such circumstances the additional information required above will be submitted by the most expeditious means as soon as possible. Supplemental reports will be submitted as necessary to report important developments following the initial report including termination of the work stoppage in whole or in part or change in the effect which the work stoppage or threatened work stoppage has upon important Army procurement. In situation of urgency, initial and supplemental reports should be made by telephone, or other informal means, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, ATTN: Labor Advisor. In all such cases, the information informally submitted shall be confirmed in writing as soon as possible thereafter.

(5) Whenever labor representatives requests permission to enter Army installations, on which private contractor employees are engaged in contract work, to conduct union business during working hours, the commanding officer may admit such representatives, provided: (i) the presence and activities of the labor representative will not interfere with the progress of the contract work involved, and (ii) the entry of such representatives to the installation will not violate pertinent safety or security regulations. Commanding Officers shall take all necessary action to enforce the above policy and facilitate ready access to work sites within military installations. One method which has met with success in appropriate situations is the maintenance by commanding officers of a list of labor representatives, who have been cleared with regard to safety and security consideration and who may be admitted into respective installations to conduct union business. The determination as to who are appropriate labor representatives should be made by the commanding officer on recommendation of the Contracting Officer after consultation with local union officials. Business offices or desk space for labor organizations for solicitation of membership, collection of dues, or other business of the labor organization, not directly connected with the contract work, shall not be permitted on the installation, except for the routine functions of the working steward whose union duties are incidental to his assigned job. In the event that a commanding officer of an installation, or the Contracting Officer, or his representative denies entry to a labor representative for any reason, such officer shall notify, through channels, the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor. Such notification shall include the reasons for denial, including names, address of representative denied entry, and union affiliation, if known, of such representatives.

(c) Applicability. Section 12.101 of this title and this section are applicable only within the United States, its Territories, and possessions.

§ 601.102 Overtime, extra-pay shifts, and multishift work. (a) Delivery schedules established in connection with all procurement contracts, particularly those of a cost-reimbursement type, will be predicated upon the Contractor working normal workweeks and shifts without recourse to overtime, extra-pay shifts, or multishifts.

(b) Overtime, extra-pay shift, or multishift deviations may be authorized subject to the following conditions:

(1) The authority for approval of such overtime, extra-pay shift, or multishift deviations as may be required is hereby delegated, with power of redelegation, to Heads of Procuring Activities.

(2) Utilization of approvals for such overtime, extra-pay shift, or multishift deviation as may be given by the Head of a Procuring Activity, or his designated representative, will be confined to the meeting of essential deadlines necessary to the performance of the contract solely in the interests of the Government.

(3) In granting such approval, it will be the responsibility of the Head of the Procuring Activity and his designated representative to restrict such overtime, extra-pay shift, or multishift work to the minimum required for the accomplishment of the specific work for which the deviation was requested and for which the approval was given.

(c) Any case concerning overtime, extra-pay shifts, or multishifts which may arise and which does not fall within the foregoing authorization, including cases involving premium rates other than overtime or extra-pay shifts, will be referred to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Chief, Contracts Branch, for approval.

(d) This section and § 12.102 of this title are applicable worldwide.

§ 601.103 Federal and state labor requirements—(a) Application. This section is applicable to all Government Contractors within the continental United States, its Territories and possessions, including contractors operating Government-owned facilities, irrespective of whether such facilities are located on private or Government property.

(b) Definition. The term "State" as used in this section includes the District of Columbia, Territories, and all political subdivisions of States.

(c) Requests for relaxation of labor legislation. It is the policy of the Department of the Army that the State labor standards governing such matters as maximum daily and weekly hours of employment, meals and rest periods, night work, and other conditions of employment, as set forth in State labor laws, regulations, and administrative orders, be observed in the maximum extent possible. In furtherance of this policy, Procuring Activities will not initiate applications to State agencies or officials for suspension or relaxation of labor standards. In addition, Procuring Activities will not, formally or informally, support such applications by contractors or suppliers, unless approval of such action has been obtained under paragraph (d) of this section. Requests for approval will not be forwarded unless the following circumstances and conditions exist:

(1) The interested contractor or supplier has filed his application for relaxation of the laws, orders, or regulations involved with the appropriate State official charged with the enforcement of such labor standards in the State where the plant of the manufacturer involved is located; and

(2) The products or services involved are in short supply and unless the application is granted there will be a failure to meet production schedules for critically needed military items; and

(3) There are no alternative sources of supply for such products or services reasonably available to furnish the military items contracted for within the period of time delivery is required; and

(4) Available information indicates no practicable possibility of taking remedial action (such as recruiting, training, and more effective utilization of manpower) as an alternative to relaxation of applicable State labor standards; and

(5) The apparent supply of labor and, in particular, of critical skills is limited and it is not practicable to set up new production lines or to use additional facilities as an alternative to the relief requested; and

(6) The granting of the application will not result in an excessive increase in hours of work, an unreasonable curtailment of rest and lunch periods, and undesirable impairment of working conditions, or, otherwise, will not affect adversely the productivity of the facility involved.

(d) Requests for approval to support contractor's applications. Requests for authority to support an application on behalf of a contractor will be forwarded through the Head of a Procuring Activity to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor, and will contain the following information:

(1) The facilities and services involved and affected.

(2) Provision of provisions of law the relaxation of which is required.

(3) Criticalness or relative scarcity of the material.

(4) Circumstances necessitating the relaxation (for example, a shortage in the local supply of skilled labor).

(5) Remedial action being taken by the manufacturer (for example, training, recruiting, and more effective utilization of manpower).

(6) Efforts previously made to obtain the relaxation.

(7) The most limited relaxation of State labor standards necessary for completion of the specific work in conformity with military procurement schedules and programs.

(8) The approximate period of time required for the completion of the work.

(c) Furnishing information to State officials. Heads of Procuring Activities may, consistent with limitations of security, furnish information to the appropriate State official, upon his request, as to the fact that an application for relaxation of State labor standards filed with him relates to the execution of a contract with such agency in pursuance of a military procurement program. Such information should not extend to support of such application unless proper authorization under paragraph (d) of this section has been obtained.

SUBPART B—CONVICT LABOR

§ 601.202 Applicability. (a) The prohibition contained in Executive Order 325A does not apply to contracts entered into between the Government and State prisons for the purchase of manufactured items, subject to all of the following limitations:

(1) That such contracts are not prohibited by the law of the State in which the prison is located.

(2) That exemption from the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act be obtained, in accordance with procedures prescribed in § 601.651 of this subchapter, in cases of contracts exceeding $10,000.

(3) That no purchase from a State prison or other correctional institution will be made of items contrary to the provisions of § 5.301 of this title.

(4) That the contract is otherwise proper. The convict labor clause prescribed in §§ 7.104–17 and 12.203 of this title will be omitted from such contracts.

SUBPART C—EIGHT-HOUR LAW OF 1912 (OTHER THAN CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS)

§ 601.350 Administration and enforcement. In investigating allegations of violations of the Eight-Hour Law on other than construction contracts, the same procedures shall be followed and the same reports made as are set forth in §§ 601.404–7 and 601.404–8 for investigating allegations of Eight-Hour Law violations on construction contracts.

SUBPART D—LABOR STANDARDS IN CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS

§ 601.401 Statutes and regulations. To supplement Department of Labor Regulations, 29 CFR Part 5 (16 F. R. 4430, as amended), the Department of Labor has published an "Investigation and Enforcement Manual With Respect to Labor Standards Provisions Applicable to Contracts Covering Federally Financed and Assisted Construction." This Investigation and Enforcement Manual should be used as a guide in the enforcement of labor standards on construction contracts.

§ 601.404–1 In general. (a) All policy matters that will involve contract between a Head of a Procuring Activity and other Government agencies as authorized by this Part will be coordinated with the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor.

(b) It is the responsibility of Heads of Procuring Activities to establish administrative instructions in conformity with this subchapter and to assure that contracting officers require compliance with labor standards provisions of Federal statutes applicable to and incorporated in Department of the Army contracts. Timely application of administrative procedures after the award of the contract and in the early stages of construction will save time and money and tend to eliminate complaints and the need for extensive full-scale investigations. Heads of procuring activities will indoctrinate and train contracting officers and their respectives, and will review and appraise the procedures established for carrying out such instructions. The Comptroller General has established the principle that detection of labor law violations must be accomplished at the project level by the administering agency. It is important that contracting officers, contractors, and their subcontractors, be fully conversant with the labor standards provisions in their contracts. Where all parties concerned are aware of their responsibilities relating to these standards, little difficulty should be experienced in obtaining compliance administrative processes. Two methods of conveying pertinent information to contractors are discussed in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Preliminary—(1) Early conference. In order to insure that the Contractor fully understands the labor standards provisions in his contract, the Contracting Officer should arrange for a conference with Contractor and his subcontractors as soon as possible after award of the contract, to apprise them of their obligations under the contract. The following matter should be fully discussed.

(i) Obligations of the Contractor and subcontractors under the Eight-Hour Law, including the difference in overtime computation under that law and the Fair Labor Standards Act.

(ii) Requirements of the Copeland ("Anti-Kickback") Act and regulations.

(iii) Responsibilities under the Davis-Bacon Act and the Department of Labor Regulations, 29 CFR Part 5 including: (a) Apprenticeship registration requirement, (b) Limitations on use of apprentices, (c) Historical trade practices, (d) Area practice—Special explanation should be given contractors and subcontractors that should workmen be doing work which under area practice, is journeymen's work of a particular trade, the workman must be paid the journeyman's rate unless he is a regularly registered apprentice, (e) Payrolls and Affidavits—their requirement and the need for current addresses of all employees therein being kept up to date, (f) Subcontractors defined and responsibilities explained, (g) Additional classifications, (h) It is important that contractors and subcontractors are made aware of the requirements that complete work records concerning workmen's activities, be maintained. Contractors should be warned that failure to keep full records for workmen working in more than one classification may require the contractor to pay the rate of the highest paid classification for all work done. (i) Penalties and sanctions for violation of labor standards provisions.

(2) Labor relations letter. Where a Contractor and his subcontractors have recently, within the past 12 months, engaged in work covered by the labor standards provisions and conferred on the subject as prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, with the Contracting Officer, the requirement for a full discussion of labor standards matters may be waived for additional contracts during the current fiscal year. In lieu of the conference prescribed by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, a labor relations letter reviewing the Contractor's obligations, will be forwarded to the Contractor after award of the contract together with a request that copies of the letter be sent by him to each of his subcontractors. The Contractor also will be reminded of the discussions in the previous conference on the subject.

§ 601.404–2 Wage determinations. The Secretary of Labor requires a separate request for wage rates for each contract, except where the volume of work contemplated is sufficient to warrant an "installation" or "area" determination. These determinations may be used for a period not to exceed 90 days and will be applicable to all contracts awarded at the installation within that period. During the 90-day period the Secretary of Labor may review and modify any existing determination. Modifications expire on the expiration date of the original determination.

(a) Responsibility for obtaining determinations. The Corps of Engineers is responsible for obtaining from the Secretary of Labor and for furnishing to the Procuring Activity upon request, all determinations of prevailing wage rates under the Davis-Bacon Act required in connection with the awarding of construction contracts of the Army Establishment.

(b) Responsibility for requesting determinations. The Office responsible for the preparation of specifications or the negotiation of contracts for projects in excess of $2000 is responsible for requesting the appropriate predetermination of wage rates to be contained in the contract. When contract specifications are prepared, they should include a current wage determination. If the wage determination is not available when invitations for bid are issued, the specifications will contain a statement that wage rates will be supplied by addendum to the specifications. Contracting Officers will not open bids on projects subject to the provisions of the Davis-Bacon Act until the requested determination of wage rates has been incorporated in the specifications. No negotiated contract, either preliminary (letter contract) or definitive, will be executed until the applicable wage determinations have been obtained.

(c) Manner of requesting determinations. Requests for determinations of wage rates will be made as follows:

(1) Requests will be forwarded in duplicate on Department of Labor Form DB–11, to the District Engineer, Corps of Engineers, having jurisdiction over military construction in the area where work is to be performed. Copies of the form may be obtained by request to the District Engineer. The covering letter will include a statement covering the proposed dates for issuance of invitations and opening of bids.

(2) Form DB–11 will be prepared in full and signed by the Contracting Officer. Under "Department, Agency, or Bureau" insert only "Department of the Army." If the project is not located within a city or village, the distance and direction from the nearest city or village will be indicated.

(3) When heavy or highway construction wage rates are requested for work located in the States of Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Maine, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont, Wyoming, and other that may be added later, the following data shall be furnished as an attachment to the Form DB–11:

(i) Specify whether heavy or highway;

(ii) Whether the proposed work is an integral part of a building construction program;

(iii) Type of work (roads, air strips, taxiways, sidewalks, etc., or utilities, POL lines, storage, facilities, etc.):

(a) If roads, etc., specify if access or other, material used, length, limits [from (starting point) to (termination point)].

(b) If utilities, etc., state type, extent, materials used (cast iron, transite, concrete, and clay pipe, etc., and amounts of each to be used).

(iv) Whether inside or outside of the installation;

(v) Approximate cost;

(vi) Any additional information to distinguish between heavy, highway, and building construction.

(4) All submission must be prepared using a reverse carbon in order to obtain an impression on the back of the original.

(5) If the entire schedule of crafts is desired, insert a statement to that effect after "check crafts." If only a part of the classifications are needed, so indicate by placing an (X) on the check line prefixing the required classification.

(6) Should classification not listed on the Form DB–11 be required, list and forward them in duplicate as an attachment to the Form DB–11. The use of the reverse carbon is not required for the listing of additional classifications needed.

(7) All requests for area or installation type determinations must be indicated by specifying "contract or contracts" in the space for "Description of work" on the DB–11 Form.

(8) Requests for wage determinations must be received in the office of the appropriate District Engineer in sufficient time for that office to forward the request to reach the Department of Labor at least 30 days in advance of the date selected for advertising for bids.

(9) In the event emergency conditions arise before receipt of the determination, the work may be advertised with a notice in the invitation that the schedule of minimum wage rates to be paid under the contract will be published as an addendum to the specification. Under no circumstances may bids be opened until the wage rates have been furnished to all bidders.

(10) In case of extreme emergency, requests for wage determinations may be forwarded to the District Engineer, by telephone or telegraph, and immediate steps will be taken to obtain the necessary wage rates. Reasons for requesting special or priority action must be fully explained. Such requests must include the classification needed, cost of the work, a brief description thereof, and its location. They must be confirmed by submission of a DB–11.

§ 601.404–3 Additional classifications. When the Contracting Officer determines that it is necessary during the performance of a contract to establish a classification and wage rate for a class of workers not listed in the decision of the Secretary of Labor applicable to the contract, the Contracting Officer shall seek to establish such a classification and wage rate conformable to the Secretary of Labor's decision by agreement among the interested parties. The Contracting Officer in considering the necessity for an additional classification should satisfy himself that the class of workers concerned cannot be fitted into any of the classifications listed in the contract. Where the contractor seeks an additional classification for "helpers" of any class of workers, care should be exercised to observe area practice on use of "helpers" in the particular class of work. This is important because in most areas the practices do not permit the use of "helpers." The classification is sometimes used as a device to substitute for apprentices when a contractor does not participate in an apprenticeship program. Whenever the Contracting Officer determines that an additional classification is warranted, whether he succeeds in securing agreement among the parties and himself or not, he shall forward a report as hereinafter described, through channels, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor (except that reports concerning Corps of Engineers contracts shall be transmitted in accordance with procedures established by the Office of the Chief of Engineers). This report shall contain:

(a) Contract number, description, dollar amount, and date of prime contract involved.

(b) Copy of portion of the contract setting forth classifications and wage rates.

(c) Identification of Secretary of Labor's wage determination decision used with this contract.

(d) Description of job to be classified.

(e) A discussion, citing examples, of the area practice concerning the job to be classified.

(f) When, prior to the establishment of a new classification as herein outlined, any employee has been used on the contract in a classfication not established by the Secretary of Labor's decision, a copy of the payroll records of said employees showing the classification and wage rate used for said employee, and the hours worked (distinguishing regular time from overtime) in said classification and at said wage rate.

(g) Written and signed statements containing opinions of management and labor as to proper classification and wage rate. When the interested parties have agreed to a new classification, these opinions will be put in the form of an agreement by the interested parties to an additional classification. Such statements or agreement may be signed for the employees by an official of a union representing them, in which case the union and the official's connection with it should be identified; otherwise signatures of all the affected employees should be obtained.

(h) If an apprentice classification is proposed, a determination that the employees involved are employed in a bona fide apprenticeship program registered with a State Apprenticeship Council which is recognized by the Federal Committee on Apprenticeship, or if no such recognized Council exists in a state, in a program registered with the Bureau of Apprenticeship, including identification of the program.

(i) A statement of the area practice in the use of "helpers", including statements from union, nonunion and management, where it is proposed to establish a "helpers" classification.

(j) Where agreement cannot be reached, a request will be made for final determination by the Secretary of Labor. (In cases where agreement is reached, such request is not necessary.)

§ 601.404–6 Payrolls and affidavits. (a) The payrolls and affidavits required by § 12.404–6 (a) of this title shall be submitted to the Contracting Officer, or such other officer as may be designated for such purpose by the Head of the Procuring Activity. The Contracting Officer or other such officer shall examine and retain them as provided in § 12.404–6 (b) and (c) of this title.

(b) The affidavit shall be executed and sworn to by the Contractor or subcontractor or by an authorized officer or employeee of the Contractor or subcontractor who supervises the payment of wages, and shall be in the form set forth in § 16.803–1 (c) of this title.

(c) Upon a written finding by the Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of Labor may provide reasonable limitations, variations, tolerances, and exemptions from the requirements set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, subject to such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may specify. Requests for such finding, accompanied by all necessary supporting documents, will be submitted by the Head of the Procuring Activity concerned through the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor, to the Secretary of the Army for action and submission to the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Each weekly affidavit and copy of certified weekly payroll shall be delivered by the Contractor or subcontractor within 7 days after the regular payment date of the payroll period, to the Contracting Officer or such other officer as may be designated for such purpose by the Head of the Procuring Activity concerned. Each Contractor or subcontractor shall preserve his weekly payroll records for a period of 3 years from date of completion of the contract. The payroll records shall set out accurately and completely the name, occupation, and hourly wage rate of each employee, hours worked by him during the payroll period, the full weekly wages earned by him, any deductions made from such weekly wages, and the actual weekly wages paid to him. Such payroll records shall be made available at all times for inspection by the Contracting Officer or his authorized representative.

(1) Where required by Federal, State, or local statutes or ordinances to be made by the employer from the wages earned by the employee.

(2) Bona fide prepayment of wages without discount or interest.

(3) Deductions required by court process provided that the Contractor or subcontractor will not be permitted to make such a deduction in favor of the Contractor, subcontractor, or any affiliated person or where collusion or collaboration exists.

(f) Any deduction is also permissible which in fact meets the following standards and with respect to which the Contractor or subcontractor shall have made written application by registered mail to the Secretary of Labor, a copy of which application shall be sent to the contracting agency by the Contractor or subcontractor, setting forth all the pertinent facts indicating that such deductions will meet the following standards:

(a) That such deduction is not prohibited by other law.

(b) That such deduction is voluntarily consented to by the employee in writing and in advance of the period in which the work was done, and that consent to the deduction is not a condition either for the obtaining of or for the continuance of employment; or that such deduction is for the benefit of the employees or their labor organization through which they are represented and is provided for in a bona fide collective bargaining agreement.

(c) That from such deduction no payment is made to, nor profit or benefit is obtained directly or indirectly by the Contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person, and that no portion of the funds, whether in the form of a commission or otherwise, will be returned to the Contractor or subcontractor or to any affiliated person.

(d) That the convenience and interest of the employees are served thereby, and that such or similar deductions have been customary in this or comparable situations.

(ii) After application in good faith, the deduction may be made in accordance with the foregoing standards, provided, however, that if the Secretary of Labor, on his own motion, or on the application of any person or agency affected by the granting of the application, shall conclude at any time, after written notice to the applicant and an opportunity for him to present his views in support of the deduction, that the deduction has not met the foregoing standards, such deductions shall cease to be "permissible" 7 days after the applicant and the Federal agency concerned have been notified of the Secretary's decision.

(iii) Upon application to and prior written permission from the Secretary of Labor, and subject to the standards set forth in subdivisions (i) (a), (b) and (d) of this subparagraph, deductions may be made by a Contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person, for membership fees in group benefit or retirement associations; for board and lodging; or for other purposes where the Secretary of Labor concludes the deduction is required by compelling circumstances; provided, however, the Contractor, subcontractor, or any affiliated person does not make a profit or benefit directly or indirectly from the deduction. A copy of the Secretary's decision shall be sent to the applicant and the Federal agency concerned.

(iv) In accordance with and subject to the standards set forth in subdivisions (i) of this subparagraph, general permission is hereby granted to make payroll deductions for:

(a) The payment of the purchase price of United States Defense Stamps and Bonds and United States Tax Savings Notes.

(b) The repayment of loans to or the purchase of shares in credit unions organized and operated in accordance with District of Columbia, Federal, or State credit union statutes.

(c) Contributions to a Federal governmental or quasi-governmental agency.

(d) The payment of dues or premiums to unaffiliated insurance companies or associations for medical or hospitalization insurance where the employer is not required by Federal, State, or local laws to supply such insurance or benefits.

(v) In any case in which the employee does not have full and actual freedom of disposition of his wage payment, whether made in cash or by check, any restricted payment made to the employee is considered a deduction under the regulations in this part.

(vi) Nothing herein shall be construed to permit any deduction which the Contractor or subcontractor knew, or in the exercise of good faith should have known, did not meet the foregoing standards. In order to insure compliance with this section, the Secretary of Labor may notify the Contractor or subcontractor that the deduction will be permitted only if certain conditions with respect thereto are observed. The Contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person shall comply also with such general rules and regulations concerning the deductions as the Secretary of Labor shall make from time to time, notice of which shall have been given to the Contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person making the deduction and to the Federal Agency concerned either directly or through publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 601.404–7 Investigations—(a) Routine—(1) On-the-site investigations. During the course of performance of the contract the Contracting Officer shall cause regular routine investigations to be made in addition to the investigations prescribed by § 12.404–7 of this title.

(i) On-the-site investigations, in addition to checking posting requirements and the names of subcontractors working on the site, as of the day of investigation, should observe and inquire into the work that one or more individual workmen are doing, the amount of overtime they are working daily, and the classification under which they are working. Information obtained through these investigations should be checked against weekly payrolls of the Contractor and his subcontractors. The Contractor shall be notified by the Contracting Officer that these routine checks will be made by representatives of the Contracting Officer.

(ii) The following is a suggested interview questionnaire:

LABOR RELATIONS INTERVIEW FOR ON-THE-SITE INVESTIGATION

Contract No. _____
Contractor _____
Investigator _____
Date _____
Time _____
Employee's name _____
Address _____
What is your classification? _____
What is your rate of pay? _____
Are you acquainted with the minimum rates established by the Department of Labor for this contract? _____
Are you paid time and one half for all hours worked in excess of 8 hours in one day? _____
Are you paid your full wages each week without any deductions other than Social Security and Income Tax? _____
What is your regular shift? _____
Have you paid anyone to secure or retain your job? _____
Are you required to perform work outside of your classification? _____

(2) Payroll investigations. Weekly payrolls submitted by contractors or subcontractors shall be reviewed promptly by Contracting officers. Care should be taken to assure completion of checking prior to final payment. The following will be looked for:

(i) Classification of workers set forth in the payroll submitted should be those normally required for performance of the type of work being accomplished during the work week reported.

(ii) Classifications, rates, and overtime payments should conform with data discovered by on-the-site investigations.

(iii) Registration of apprentices in their respective steps should be carefully checked.

(iv) Arithmetic calculations should be checked.

(v) In the event violations other than minor clerical errors are found, the Contracting Officer should schedule a full scale investigation of the Contractor or subcontractor found to have violated the labor standards provisions. This investigation shall inquire into the matters set forth in paragraph (c) of this section and shall be reported and acted upon in conformity with §§ 601.404–8 through 601.404–11.

(b) Complaints. When a complaint comes through the Department of Labor, it generally will be sent through the Department of Labor Regional Attorney to the Commanding Officer of the post, camp, station, class II installation, or other command at which the Contracting Officer is stationed. If the complaint is sent elsewhere within the Department of the Army, it should be forwarded to the Commanding Officer, or such other officer as shall be designated by the Head of the Procuring Activity concerned. When a complaint received from a Department of Labor Regional Attorney is forwarded in this manner, the Regional Attorney shall be notified to whom it has been forwarded. From time to time the Department of Labor or its local representatives may call upon the Department of the Army representatives to participate in a joint investigation of a particular Army contractor. In such event the Department of the Army will participate, but will not reveal the recommendations of the Army.

(c) Full scale investigations. A full scale investigation of a violation of labor standards, as well as such other information as may be required by regulations established by the Head of the Procuring Activity concerned, will include the following, when applicable:

(1) All investigations. (i) Names and addresses of Contractor, of subcontractors involved, and of workers involved.

(ii) Number, date, dollar amount, and nature of contract involved and a copy of the portion of the contract showing classifications and wage rate predeterminations.

(iii) Copies of certified payroll records and affidavits as described in § 12.404–6 of this title.

(iv) Whether posters were displayed as required by § 12.404–2 (d) of this title.

(v) (a) Conclusions as to whether a violation has been committed, and (b) if it is concluded that a violation has been committed, findings as to whether the violation was caused by wilfulness, negligence, or other cause; what steps have been taken to cure the violation; and what sanctions, if any, are recommended.

(vi) The following is a suggested interview form which may be used by Investigating Officer, in connection with full scale investigations conducted pursuant to this paragraph;

(2) Where a Davis-Bacon Act violation is alleged. (i) All cases: (a) Kind of work performed by each worker involved, and (b) what classification of worker customarily performs such work on contracts in the area.

(ii) When a worker has been classified in a manner contrary to the area practice, (a) the number of hours worked in the wrong classification (distinguishing regular time and overtime hours), (b) the wage rate actually paid, (c) the wage rate required by the predetermination for the proper classification, (d) the amount paid the worker, (e) the amount he should have been paid if properly classified, and (f) the amount of restitution due.

(iii) Where the worker has been placed in a classification not listed in the wage determination, (a) the classification and wage rate used, (b) the nature of the work performed and conclusions reached as to the proper classification and its wage rate, (c) whether a reclassification has been made or a request made for supplemental determination of classification in accordance with § 601.404–3, and (d) total hours worked in the improper classification (distinguishing regular time from overtime).

(iv) When a worker has been properly classified but paid a rate below the predetermination for his classification, (a) hours worked at the incorrect rate (distinguishing regular time and overtime hours), (b) the wage rate actually paid, (c) the wage rate required by the classification, (d) the amount he should have been paid at the proper rate, (e) the amount he actually was paid, and (f) the amount of restitution due.

(v) When an apprentice is involved, (a) proof that the apprentice is registered under a bona fide apprenticeship program registered with a State Apprenticeship Council recognized by the Federal Committee on Apprenticeship, Department of Labor, or, if no such recognized Council exists in a State, under a program registered with the Bureau of Apprenticeship, Department of Labor, (b) if the apprentice is not so registered, the same information as is required for an incorrect classification (subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph); if the apprentice is so registered, the nature of the work being performed by the apprentice as compared with the area practice in the employment of apprentices, and the ratio of apprentices to journeymen on the job as compared with the permissible ratio of apprentices to journeymen, which may be found in the standards under which the registered apprenticeship program operates.

(3) Where an Eight-Hour-Law violation is alleged, for each worker. (i) A list of each workweek involved in the alleged violation, showing the number of hours worked each day of the workweek, and the hourly rate of pay therefor.

(ii) Total hours for which the worker was improperly compensated.

(iii) Rate actually paid for said hours.

(iv) Rate which should have been paid for said hours.

(v) Amount of restitution due.

(vi) Total number of 5-dollar penalties due the United States under § 12.403–1 (b) of this title and total amount of said penalties (§ 601.404–50).

(4) Where a Copeland Act Violation is alleged. (i) Nature of violation alleged.

(ii) Facts concerning the alleged violation, including: (a) The full weekly wages earned by each employee concerned, (b) the nature and amount of each deduction made from said weekly wages, (c) the actual weekly wages paid to the employee concerned, (d) any limitation, variation, tolerance, and/or exemption from the provisions of § 601.404–6 (b) permitted by the Secretary of Labor, and any conditions attached by the Secretary of Labor to said permission, and (e) any rulings by the Secretary of Labor as provided in § 601.404–6 (e).

§ 601.404–8 Reports of violations. Where the case investigated can be closed satisfactorily without formal correspondence with the Department of Labor, the Department of Justice, or the General Accounting Office (correspondence to ascertain whether an apprentice is properly registered shall not constitute formal correspondence for the purpose of this section) it may be closed by the Investigating Officer. Where, however, formal correspondence with the Department of Labor or Department of Justice is required (e. g., when the case was initiated by correspondence from the Department of Labor, or involves more than $200 restitution, or may warrant criminal prosecution, litigation, or placing the Contractor on the Comptroller General's list of ineligible persons or firms), the Investigating Officer should forward a clear, concise, factual report of his investigation (including the information, findings, and conclusions set forth in § 601.404–7 (c), and pertinent evidence sufficient to support such findings and conclusions), through channels, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, ATTN: Labor Advisor, together with the recommendation of the Head of the Procuring Activity with respect to the elements required of the Investigating Officer by § 601.404–7 (c) (1) (v) (except that reports of investigations on Corps of Engineers contracts not involving recommendations of criminal or civil action against the Contractor, or placing the Contractor on the Comptroller General's list of ineligible persons or firms, or facts supporting of any such recommendations, will be processed in accordance with the procedure established by the Office of the Chief of Engineers). Such findings and recommendations shall not be communicated by the Investigating Officer to the Regional Attorney, Department of Labor. In those instances where funds are transmitted on Standard Form 1093 to the General Accounting Office, no report to higher authority is required. Standard Form 1093 (Schedule of Deductions from Payments to Contractor) should contain a statement that the Contracting Officer or Investigating Officer has determined that this is not a proper case for placing on the Comptroller General's list of ineligible persons or firms.

§ 601.404–9 Suspensions and deductions of contract payments. (a) When he learns of a violation, the Contracting Officer shall withhold from payments due the Contractor an amount equal to the estimated restitution due the Contractor's employees. Such an amount shall continue to be withheld until (1) action as set forth in § 601.404–9 (b) is taken, (2) the Contractor voluntarily makes restitution of the full amount that is allegedly due his employees, or (3) the Contracting Officer is informed through channels that the Department of Labor has ruled that the funds withheld may be released to the Contractor. If the Contractor does not make voluntary restitution, the funds withheld for payment of moneys due employees under the Davis-Bacon Act shall be transferred to the General Accounting Office via the Disbursing Officer in accordance with Comptroller General's opinion A–34106, dated 28 February 1936. Sandard Form 1093 should be used for recording information concerning underpayments under the Davis-Bacon Act. Withheld funds representing underpayment of premium rates (Eight-Hour Law) will not be transferred to the General Accounting Office, but will be retained by the Disbursing Officer in his Deposit Funds Suspense Account for contracts written on Standard Form 23–A (General Provisions (Construction Contracts)).

(b) (1) When investigation reveals that restitution is due the Contractor's employees because of violation of the Davis-Bacon Act, the Contracting Officer will forward to the Disbursing Officer who normally makes disbursement to the Contractor, Standard Form 1093, indicating the purpose of same, and listing the name and address of each employee involved and the amount due him. Employees to whom restitution is due will be advised that, upon approval of the withholding by the Department of Labor, they will be paid on application to the General Accounting Office, which will hold funds withheld from the Contractor for restitution to workers in a special account for this purpose. Employee applications for payment may be forwarded with the forms required by § 12.404–9 of this title; such applications should include the employee's name, address, and classification; the name of the employer; and a statement identifying the contract involved. Withholding must be accomplished even though an employee cannot be located in order to complete restitution.

(2) When investigation reveals that restitution is due the Contractor's employees because of violation of the Eight-Hour Law, such funds as have been withheld under paragraph (a) of this section may not be paid over to the employees. Instead, when it is clear that the Contractor will not make restitution, the Contracting Officer will inform the Disbursing Officer who normally makes disbursement under the contract and the appropriate fiscal officer of this fact, specifying the amount of restitution owed to each employee, so that the funds withheld may be deobligated up to the total of such amounts.

(c) When notified of a violation, which would render the Contractor liable to the United States for penalties, the Contracting Officer should withhold from payments due the Contractor a sum sufficient to cover the estimated penalties due the United States should the allegation prove true. Such an amount should continue to be withheld until (1) action as set forth in § 601.404–9 (d) is taken, or (2) the Contractor voluntarily pays the full amount of the penalties allegedly due, or (3) the Contracting Officer is informed through channels that the Department of Labor has ruled that the funds may be released to the Contractor.

(d) When investigation discloses that penalties are due the United States, the Contracting Officer shall forward to the Disbursing Officer who normally makes disbursement to the Contractor a voucher indicating the amount due the Contractor, the amount to be paid to the United States as penalties, and sufficient information to make clear the purpose of the withholding. The voucher used should be separate from that used to withhold any restitution that may be due the Contractor's employees. The Contracting Officer should retain complete information concerning the penalties including justification therefor and method of calculation, to be furnished the Disbursing Officer if requested.

§ 601.404–10 Restitution. (a) When it appears that restitution may be due employees of a Contractor or subcontractor, the Contracting Officer and the Investigating Officer shall seek to have the Contractor or subcontractor make restitution voluntarily. Computation of back wages may be made by the Contracting Officer, or the Contractor may be requested to do so, subject to verification by the Contracting Officer. Upon completion of computations, a summary sheet listing names, addresses and the unpaid amounts payable to the employees involved should be prepared by the Contractor and a copy furnished the Contracting Officer. The Contracting Officer shall advise the Contractor of the procedure which will satisfy him conclusively that proper restitution has been made, particularly the witnessing of cash payments or the furnishing of canceled checks.

(b) When a Contractor wishes to make voluntary restitution but some worker or workers to whom such restitution is due cannot be located, the Contracting Officer shall collect the amount of restitution due and forward it to the Disbursing Officer for forwarding to the General Accounting Office, accompanied by a list of such workers, their last known addresses, and the amount due each one. Voluntary restitution cannot be considered completed as to workers who cannot be located until this procedure has been followed.

§ 601.404–11 Contract terminations. Whenever a contract is terminated for violation of labor standards provisions, a report containing the information set forth in § 12.404–11 of this title shall be forwarded by the Contracting Officer through channels to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor. This report shall be accompanied by a report of the investigations of the violations resulting in termination setting forth the information required by § 601.404–7 (c). If such investigation has not been completed, an interim report, setting forth as much of the information required by § 601.404–7 (c) as is currently available, shall accompany the report of termination, and the complete report shall be forwarded when available.

§ 601.404–12 Cooperation with the Department of Labor. In connection with the enforcement of labor standards, either the Contracting Officer or an officer conducting an investigation is free to call upon the Department of Labor Regional Attorney for informal opinions, advice, or assistance, except as otherwise set forth in this section. The addresses of the Regional Attorneys and their geographical jurisdictions are the same as those set forth for the Regional Offices in § 601.653. All contact with regional offices of the Department of Labor will be coordinated with the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor in accordance with § 601.101 (b) (1), except when otherwise provided by this part.

§ 601.404–50 Nonassessment of Eight-Hour Law penalty. The Department of Labor has announced that in appropriate cases where an employer acting in good faith has failed to pay the daily overtime compensation required by the Eight-Hour Law, and subsequently makes delayed payment of the extra amount due his employees, said employer will be considered in compliance with the Eight-Hour Law and will not be subject to the 5-dollar per day penalty for its violation. A case is appropriate for such nonassessment of the penalty when failure to pay at the regular pay period was inadvertent, but not when it was wilful, negligent, or without reasonable excuse. If the investigating officer believes nonassessment may be appropriate, he shall transmit through channels to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor (except that Corps of Engineers cases shall be processed in accordance with procedures established by the Chief of Engineers), the report called for by § 601.404–7 (c), plus a recommendation as to nonassessment of the penalty, and his reasons therefor, with special reference to whether the original nonpayment was inadvertent and not negligent.

§ 601.450 List of debarred, ineligible, and suspended bidders. The list of persons and firms found by the Comptroller General to have violated the requirements of statutes relating to labor standards is incorporated by the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Logistics) (Assistant Judge Advocate General) in the consolidated list issued in accordance with § 590.601–1 of this subchapter. The list is for the use and guidance of all interested agencies of the Army Establishment. Contracting Officers will comply with the prohibitions contained in the list of such persons and firms published by the Comptroller General, prior to incorporation of such information in the Department of the Army consolidated list.

§ 601.451 Construction Labor Standards Report (Reports Control Symbol CSGLD–845).—(a) Contracting Officers. Each Contracting Officer within the continental United States and the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii shall submit semi-annually to the Head of his Procuring Activity, on DA Form 1762–R a report on the enforcement of labor standards applicable to contracts in excess of $2,000 involving construction, alteration or repair of public buildings or public works. Contracting officers will complete only items 1 through 4 (c) of the DA Form 1762–R. The term "former contractors" means those contractors with whom the reporting office has had prior preconstruction conferences within the 12-month period preceding the date of the award of the contract. Contractors not within the above category are to be regarded as "new contractors." Reports will cover the 6-month periods ending June 30 and December 31 and will be dispatched by July 25 and January 25, respectively.

(b) Heads of Procuring Activities. The Head of each Procuring Activity will submit semi-anually to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor, a consolidation of the individual reports received pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section. The consolidated report will be submitted on DA Form 1762–R and will include completion of items 5 and 6. The reports will be dispatched by August 10 and February 10, respectively. Negative reports will be submitted when applicable.

(c) Reproduction of form. DA Form 1762–R will be locally reproduced on 8 by 10½-inch paper.

SUBPART F—WALSH-HEALEY PUBLIC CONTRACTS ACT

§ 601.602 Applicability. The publication "Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act Rulings and Interpretations No. 3" with amendments may be obtained from the Department of Labor Regional Offices listed in § 601.653.

§ 601.603 Responsibilities of Contracting Officers. (a) Contracting Officers are responsible for ascertaining that Contractors are "manufacturers" or "regular dealers" within the meaning of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act when it is applicable. When doubt exists as to whether a bidder is a "manufacturer" or "regular dealer" a request for determination by the Department of Labor may be made through the Head of the Procuring Activity. A determination by the Department of Labor that a bidder is a "manufacturer" or "regular dealer" is conclusive. Such qualification, however, does not relieve the Contracting Officer of the duty to determine the responsibility of the bidder (§ 601.307)

(b) When the Walsh-Healey Act is applicable Contracting Officers will be responsible for keeping the Contractor at the place of manufacture supplied with Department of Labor Forms PC 12 and PC 13. It is not required that new forms be forwarded upon award of each contract to a Contractor after he has received an initial supply. These forms may be requisitioned through normal publication supply channels.

§ 601.650 Exceptions not stated in the publications furnished Contracting Officers. Certain of the exceptions stated in the publications furnished Contracting Officers which contain no specific expiration date may have been rescinded by the Secretary of Labor since date of publication. In case of doubt inquiry may be directed to the appropriate Regional Director, Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, Department of Labor indicated in § 601.653 or to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor advisor.

§ 601.651 Procedure for obtaining exemptions with respect to stipulations required by the act. Section 6 of the act permits the Secretary of Labor to make exceptions to the requirement that the representations and stipulations of section 1 of the act be included in department proposals or contracts which are subject to the act.

(a) Requests for exceptions and review thereof. All requests of present or prospective Contractors for exceptions under section 6 of the act will be addressed to the Head of the Procuring Activity concerned. Such requests will be in writing, and will be transmitted through the appropriate Contracting Officer, and will set forth all pertinent information, including the nature of the requested exception, the need therefor, and any action already taken by the Contractor to avoid the necessity for the exception. The Contracting Officer will review each request received from a Contractor for:

(1) The urgency of the particular procurement.

(2) The relation of existing production schedules to Army Requirements.

(3) The relation of present and past deliveries to production schedules.

(4) The extent to which labor supply is a limiting factor in production and the reasons therefor.

(5) The steps, if any, which have been taken either by the Contractor or by any Government agency to resolve the labor supply problem.

(6) The extent to which factors inherent in the production processes involved necessitate the requested exception.

(7) The extent to which the productive capacity of the facility or facilities in question is being utilized for Army procurement; and

(8) Any other pertinent data.

(b) Consultation with Regional Directors, Department of Labor, and forwarding requests to Heads of Procuring Activities. (1) If the Contracting Officer believes that the requested exception is appropriate under the circumstances and necessary to meet the vital procurement schedules, he will:

(i) Inform the appropriate Regional Director of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Division, Department of Labor, of the request for exception and the necessity therefor (a list of such Regional Directors is given in § 601.53).

(ii) After joint consideration with such Regional Director, if still of the opinion that the requested exception is appropriate, transmit the request, together with (a) his written recommendation relative thereto, (b) a statement of all the information upon which the recommendation is based and (c) a recital of the steps taken in compliance with the procedures set forth in paragraph (a) and (b) of this section to the Head of the Procuring Activity concerned.

(2) This procedure of consulting with such Regional Directors will be complied with unless such compliance would result in undue delay. The Contracting Officer, in consulting with the appropriate Regional Director, will furnish the Director any pertinent information in his possession which the Director may require for rendering a report in connection with the need for the exception to the Administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions.

(c) Review and processing of requests by Head of Procuring Activity. If the Head of the Procuring Activity concurs in the recommendation of the Contracting Officer, after review of the request and consideration as to whether the need for an exception can be avoided by utilization of alternative facilities, he will forward the request to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor advisor, together with:

(1) A statement of all pertinent data.

(2) His recommendation.

(3) A draft of a letter setting forth the need for the exception, addressed to the Secretary of Labor and prepared for the signature of the Secretary of the Army.

(4) Accompanying draft of a Findings of Fact as required by section 6 of the act, prepared for the signature of the Secretary of the Army.

§ 601.652 List of debarred, ineligible, and suspended bidders. (a) The consolidated list issued by the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Logistics) (Assistant Judge Advocate General) in accordance with § 590.601 of this subchapter will include the following:

(1) Persons or firms found by the Secretary of Labor to have breached or violated contractual representations and stipulations required by the Walsh-Healey Act, published by the Comptroller General.

(2) Persons and firms which have been held ineligible to be awarded contracts subject to the Walsh-Healey Act, published by the Department of Labor.

(b) This information is published for the use and guidance of all interested agencies of the Department of the Army. Contracting officers will comply with the prohibitions contained in the list published by the Comptroller General relating to firms and individuals qualified for the reason stated in paragraph (a) (1) of this section, and the restrictions contained in the Department of Labor Circular Letters relating to firms and individuals disqualified for the reasons stated in (2) above, prior to incorporation of such information in the Department of the Army consolidated list.

SUBPART G—FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT OF 1938

§ 601.701 Basic statute. Section 6 (a) of the act requires every employer to pay to each of his employees "who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce" not less than $1.00 per hour. Section 7 (a) of the act prohibits every employer from employing any of his employees "who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce" for a workweek longer than 40 hours, unless such employee receives compensation for his employment in excess of such 40-hour workweek at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular rate at which he is employed. The act is applicable within the United States, its Territories and possessions. The United States Supreme Court has ruled that the act is applicable to the Bermuda defense area leased to this country in 1940. The provisions of sections 6 and 7 of the act, however, do not apply with respect to certain categories of employees enumerated in the act, nor under certain circumstances also enumerated in the act.

§ 601.702 Suits against Government contractors. Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors and subcontractors should be advised that immediately upon receipt of process in any legal action filed against them they must furnish a copy of all papers to the Contracting Officer. The Contracting Officer will make immediate report of the legal action direct to The Judge Advocate General, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 601.703 Ruling on applicability or interpretation. Location of offices of Regional Directors of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Division of the Department of Labor are set forth in § 601.653.

§ 601.751 Reimbursement of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors for payments in accordance with the act. (a) Any employee who violates the provisions of sections 6 and 7 of the act is liable to the employee or employees affected in the amount of their unpaid minimum wages or their unpaid overtime compensation, and may be liable in an additional equal amount as liquidated damages; and in the event the employee institutes suit therefor, the costs of the action and a reasonable attorney's fee as allowed by the court. Violations also may be restrained by injunction and may subject the employer to criminal penalties. In this connection, however, attention is invited to the Portal-to-Portal Act of 1947 (Act of May 14, 1947; 29 U. S. Code 251) which limits the liability of an employer under such circumstances.

§ 601.752 Investigations and inspections. (a) The act provides that each employee subject to the act must make and preserve certain records of the persons employed by him and of the wages, hours and other conditions and practices of employment maintained by him. The act also provides that the Administrator, or his designated representatives, may investigate and gather data regarding the wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of employment in any industry subject to the act, and may enter and inspect such places and such records, question such employees and investigate such facts, conditions, practices, or matters as he may deem necessary or appropriate to determine whether any person has violated any provision of the act, or which may aid in the enforcement of the act.

(b) With respect to cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors, to the extent consistent with security and other regulations governing admission to visitors to plants and projects, representatives of the Administrator should be accorded access to the facilities and records of Department of the Army contractors for the purpose of making investigations to determine applicability of and compliance with the act. Investigations will be conducted at such time and in such manner as to interrupt or interfere least with operations. They should be confined whenever possible to the inspection of records in the office of the Contractor. Inspections of the areas in the facility where construction or production is in progress will be held to a minimum. Necessary interviewing of employees should, whenever possible, be conducted outside work hours or at such other times as will interfere least with construction or production operations. The Administrator has stated that his investigators will advise cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors approximately 1 week before they plan to arrive at the project to make an investigation under the act.

SUBPART H—NONDISCRIMINATION IN EMPLOYMENT

§ 601.804 Special requirements or emergencies. Requests for authority to omit the nondiscrimination clause shall be transmitted in quadruplicate, through channels, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor. Requests shall be in a form suitable for transmission to the President's Committee on Government Contracts. Such requests shall set forth in detail the facts concerning the procurement in question, the need for an exemption, and the efforts made by the Contracting Officer and the Procuring Activity to effect the procurement without an exemption. Where appropriate, request should also set forth facts concerning general impact which would result from failure to secure contracts with the contractor concerning whom the request is made.

§ 601.806 Administration. Commanding general, ZI armies, Military District of Washington and the head of each technical service shall appoint a Labor Compliance Officer to supervise the nondiscrimination program. A Field Labor Compliance Officer will be appointed at each major field procurement office to handle all investigations of alleged violations of the nondiscrimination clause. In appointing such officers, Heads of Procuring Activities and procurement offices should normally utilize their existing labor relations personnel.

§ 601.806–1 Educational responsibilities. Contracting Officers are responsible for notifying prospective Contractors of the nondiscrimination program. This may be done by appropriate correspondence or giving such Contractors an edition of "How to Sell to the Department of Defense" which outlines the policy of the Government with respect to nondiscrimination in employment. In addition, Contracting Officers may explain the nondiscrimination program during discussions with Contractors or potential Contractors.

In accordance with Executive Order No. 10557, signed by the President on September 3, 1954, your contract with the Department of the Army contains a provision in which you agree not to discriminate against any employee, or applicant for employment, because of race, religion, color, or national origin. Further, you have agreed to insert this provision in appropriate subcontracts:

Your contract also requires you to display in conspicious places, available to employees and applicants for employment, posters, setting forth the provisions of the nondiscrimination clause.

I have inclosed copies of the poster which you have agreed to display. Upon request, I shall supply additional copies for subcontractors who are subject to this poster requirement.

If you have any questions concerning your obligations under the nondiscrimination clause or display of the posters, please do not hesitate to call on me.

§ 601.806–3 Compliance reviews—(a) Routine reviews:

(1) Contractor and subcontractor compliance. Inspection of contractor and subcontractor administration shall include reviews of compliance with the nondiscrimination clauses in their contracts. These reviews shall include:

(i) Verification that nondiscrimination posters are appropriately displayed;

(ii) Ascertainment that the nondiscrimination clause is included in all subcontracts not exempted by the clause;

(iii) Examination of employment application forms and referral forms from employment agencies to insure that they do not contain questions, the answers to which give rise to suspicion of discriminatory action; and

(iv) Examination of the Contractor's published policy against discrimination in employment by reason of race, color, creed to national origin; and assurance that such policy has been communicated to all echelons of management.

(2) Contracting Officers. Inspections of Contracting Officer activities should include review of actions of Contracting Officers and their representatives in educating contractors as to their non-discrimination responsibilities and in making inspections for compliance review actions set forth in § 601.806–3 (a) (1).

(3) Reporting. Any deficiencies found as a result of routine compliance reviews which, standing alone, do not indicate a violation, e. g., inadvertent failure to post the required nondiscrimination poster, should be corrected by the Contracting Officer. Report of review in such cases, including description of corrective action taken to effect compliance, will be submitted in quadruplicate, through channels, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor in form suitable for transmission through channels to the President's Committee on Government Contracts. Names of contractors involved need not be furnished. In the event that deficiencies found as a result of these routine compliance reviews suggest the existence of violations of the nondiscrimination clause, the report of review should be referred to the Labor Compliance Officer of the Procuring Activity (§ 601.806) for complete investigation in accordance with § 12.806–4 of this title. The review in these cases shall be considered the "complaint" referred to in § 12.806–4 of this title and § 601.806–6.

(b) Army or technical service Labor Compliance Officers may receive requests to conduct special reviews of Contractor performance. The primary purpose of these reviews will be to develop information concerning the progress being made under the nondiscrimination program. Reports of these special reviews will be transmitted, through channels, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor. Reviews may include the following:

(1) Examination of blank employment application and other personnel forms used by Contractor for discriminatory questions or materials.

(2) Visits to local employment offices of the United States Employment Service, to determine what requests the Contractor files with them and their experience as to Contractor hiring of members of minority groups.

(3) Check of Contractor compliance with the poster requirement and insertion of nondiscrimination clause in subcontracts.

(4) Discussion with the Contractor and/or his personnel officers to ascertain his participation and experiences under the nondiscrimination program. The discussions should include employment, training, promotion, grades of jobs open to members of known minority groups, any changes in policy, any changes planned by the Contractor, and Contractor suggestion for furtherance of the nondiscrimination program.

(5) Discussions with representatives of at least one local known minority group organization concerning degree of participation in the nondiscrimination program in the community, including participation of company being surveyed. Should any organization have a complaint it should be pointed out that the purpose of the survey is purely informational, and that any complaint should be submitted to the President's Committee on Government Contracts.

(6) If there is a State or local nondiscrimination authority, discussions with officials of such authority concerning the Contractor's participation in the nondiscrimination program.

§ 601.806–6 Processing of complaints. (a) Any complaint and all requests for investigations as a result of compliance reviews (§ 601.806–3 (a)) shall be referred to the appropriate army or technical service Labor Compliance Officer. If it appears that a complaint cannot be disposed of by education and where appropriate by mediation, conciliation, or persuasion, such Labor Compliance Officer will direct an investigation of the case. If there is doubt as to the agency with primary interest, the case will be transmitted through channels to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor.

(b) In investigating a complaint, Field Labor Compliance Officer will take the following actions where applicable:

(1) Inform all parties involved that he is acting on behalf of the Department of the Army in carrying out the President's nondiscrimination program.

(2) Throughout the investigation he should be alert to opportunities for settling the matter by conciliatory means. If it appears that the complaint can be disposed of by conciliation and mediation, the Field Compliance Officer may encourage the parties to meet and resolve their differences. If the case is thus adjusted a report, describing the understanding reached should be submitted in accordance with the procedures set forth in § 601.806–7. This report should include copies of any documents pertinent to the understanding reached (e. g., memorandum of agreement, exchange of letters).

(3) Check and report Contractor's compliance with the contract requirement that nondiscrimination posters be displayed. In the event of noncompliance the report should include the Contractor's reasons therefor and other pertinent facts.

(4) All cases which are not adjusted by conciliatory means should be investigated in such a manner as to develop all pertinent information available. The following is a check list of items which should be included in the Field Labor Compliance Officer's report of investigation where applicable. This list is not to be considered as limiting the report to the items enumerated.

(i) Statements of all parties, their representatives, and material witnesses, including complainant, any minority group organization representing him, and any representatives of the Contractor who dealt with the complainant.

(ii) Statement setting forth facts to show whether the alleged discrimination is "in connection with the performance of work under" a Government contract.

(iii) Statement of whether the Contractor has included the nondiscrimination provision in subcontracts where required.

(iv) Copies of summaries of Contractor's advertisements, forms, or records which furnish evidence of discrimination against the complainant or recent discriminatory practices or policies.

(v) Summary of any actions taken via labor-management grievance procedures concerning the case.

(vi) Review of State or municipal nondiscrimination authority's past experience with the Contractor on compliance.

(vii) Description of the system used by the employer with respect to hiring, upgrading, layoff, demotion, termination, transfer, pay or selection for training or apprenticeship; and statement whether the action taken with respect to complainant was in accordance with the system; and the reason for any divergence therefrom.

(viii) Factual statement of complainant's qualifications or lack thereof with respect to the position, pay training, or transfer sought, demotion, layoff, termination, or reduction in pay.

(ix) Verification that the Contractor had the vacancy sought by complainant.

(x) Statement of Contractor's treatment of others of the same minority group as complainant.

(xi) Recommendations for finding on whether the Contractor is in compliance.

(xii) Recommendations as to future action with respect to the Contractor.

(5) (i) In order to obtain the information set forth in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, or other pertinent information, it may be necessary to ascertain the race, religion, color, or national origin of various persons. Such inquiries should not be made where it appears that they may provoke resentment or embarrassment.

(ii) Field Labor Compliance Officers should, in the conduct of investigations and reviews, endeavor to avoid unnecessary interference with Contractor personnel of industrial relations.

(iii) If advice or guidance is needed concerning further steps to be taken in the investigation, a request for such advice or guidance, accompanied by an interim report of the facts developed, may be transmitted through channels to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor.

§ 601.806–7 Reporting channels. Reports will be prepared to reach the army or technical service Labor Compliance Officer in quintuplet. They should be suitable and proper for transmission to the President's Committee on Government Contracts. In cases of noncompliance with the provision of the nondiscrimination clause, the report will include all efforts made by the Field Labor Compliance Officer and the office of the Head of the Procuring Activity to effectuate compliance. The foregoing items shall be forwarded, along with a copy of the Field Labor Compliance Officer's report, through channels, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor.

§ 601.850 Contact with the President's Committee. There will be no contacts by Army personnel with the President's Committee on Government Contracts or its staff except after coordination with the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor. In case of emergency such coordination may be made by telephone.

SUBPART I—EMPLOYMENT RESTRICTIONS FOR SECURITY PURPOSES

§ 601.950 Administration. Administrative implementation of the policy governing the security clearance of private Contractor employees and industrial facilities is set forth in detail in AR 380–131.

SUBPART O—REMOVAL OF ITEMS FROM FACILITIES AFFECTED BY WORK STOPPAGES

§ 601.1501 Basic considerations. Policy and procedure governing the removal of items from facilities affected by work stoppages prescribe that principal reliance with respect to such removals be placed on cooperative arrangements and voluntary concurrence. In this connection, it is emphasized that the Department of Defense Policy Governing Participation in Industrial Labor Relations Matters Affecting Military Procurement, provides that agencies of the Department shall remain impartial in, and shall refrain from taking a position on the merits of, a labor dispute and shall not undertake the mediation of such a dispute. Removal of items by Procuring Activities will be in accordance with that expressed policy.

§ 601.1550 Determination of urgency. Before action leading to the removal of any item is initiated, assurance will be secured that the item in question is urgently needed. Among the factors to be considered in determining urgency are:

(a) Whether the product is in such short supply that unless it is removed there will be a failure to meet schedules for urgently needed military items.

(b) Whether there are alternative sources of supply of such products reasonably available to furnish the particular item within the time within which delivery is required.

§ 601.1551 Administrative procedure. Where urgency is clearly established, Procuring Activities may seek the removal of military items from facilities affected by a work stoppage in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) An attempt will be made to work out an arrangement with plant management and the local union involved for the removal of the required items by the shipping means normally used by the company.

(b) If the course prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section is not successful, an effort will be made to obtain the concurrence of both parties to the labor dispute for removal of the items by military vehicles and, if necessary, by military personnel.

(c) If the procedures prescribed in paragraph (a) and (b) of this section fail, and upon a determination by the Head of the Procuring Activity that additional efforts should be made to accomplish removal of the items in question, the Head of the Procuring Activity will submit the matter to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor, with appropriate recommendation and comment to insure effective and coordinated action. Such submission will include the following information:

(1) Name, address, and telephone number of company from which items are to be removed.

(2) Name, address, and telephone number of company official who may be contacted for purposes of effectuating removal.

(3) Identification, address, and telephone number of local union.

(4) Name, address, and telephone number of local union official who may be contacted for purposes of effectuating removal.

(5) Brief statement relating to the reasons for the necessity of removing the items in question.

(6) Description of items to be removed: nature of items, amount, approximate weight, purchase order number, and shop order number.

(7) Amount of work required preparatory to shipment of items.

(8) Mode of transportation by which items are to be removed.

(9) Destination of items.

(d) All action taken pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, will be reported, through channels, to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor.

§ 601.1552 Coordination. (a) Where two or more Procuring Activities are, or may become involved in the removal of urgent items from a facility affected by a work stoppage, efforts will be made by the Procuring Activities concerned to agree on a single Procuring Activity, where practicable, to effectuate removal arrangements.

(b) In situations affecting one or both of the other military departments, removal arrangements should be similarly coordinated, where practicable, by the Procuring Activities involved, with representatives of other military departments.

§ 601.1553 Avoidance of detrimental incidents. It is emphasized that the express policy of the Department of Defense with respect to the removal of items from facilities affected by work stoppages is to avoid the use of force or the appearance of force, and care will be taken to prevent the occurrence of incidents detrimental to harmonious relations with labor and management.

SUBPART P—PROCUREMENT OF STEVEDORING SERVICES DURING LABOR DISPUTES

§ 601.1650 Basic policy. It is the policy of the Department of the Army to procure stevedore services by contrast with commercial stevedoring firms except where military considerations make it evident that the best interests of the Government will be served by the employment of direct-hire Civil Service workers.

§ 601.1651 Procedure. Wherever stevedoring services are furnished by Contractors to any Army installation and the performance under the contract, although urgently required, is delayed through a labor dispute, the following will govern:

(a) Attempt will first be made to have management and labor voluntarily agree to exempt military supplies from the labor dispute by continuing the movement of such material.

(b) If a voluntary arrangement cannot be obtained and diversion of the vessel to another port is impracticable, then the command will consider contracting with reliable alternative sources of supply within the stevedoring industry.

(c) To the extent stevedoring services cannot be secured by the method of alternate Contractors described in paragraph (b) of this section, then Civil Service stevedors will be utilized to perform the work hitherto performed by contract stevedores.

(d) To the extent that methods prescribed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section are unsuccessful, then the command will utilize military personnel to handle the cargo which was being handled by contract stevedores prior to the labor dispute. To the maximum extent possible, the use of military personnel will be avoided and such personnel will be used only as a last resort.

§ 601.1652 Notifications. Where the exigency of a situation requires deviations from the policies outlined above, the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Department of the Army, Attn: Labor Advisor, will be notified through channels, of the actions taken including justifications therefor.

7. Section 606.110 is added, paragraph (d) is added to § 606.206–1, and paragraph (d) of § 606.206–3 is revised, as follows:

§ 606.110 Profit and fee considerations. (a) Profit or fee allowances will be determined separately under each contract, and "across-the-board" agreements with contractors as to rates of profit or fee will not be made. The determination of a fair and reasonable profit or fee is a matter of sound business judgment. There are no conclusive rules or formulas which would be suitable for uniform application; however, in arriving at a fair and reasonable profit or fee, the following factors should be considered:

(1) Type of contract.

(2) Performance risks.

(3) Record of efficiency in production.

(4) Character and extent of subcontracting.

(5) Reliability of contractor's cost estimates.

(6) Equipment, facilities, or financial assistance furnished by the Government.

(7) Invested capital.

(8) Possible present or future benefit to the contractor.

(9) Value added by the manufacturing processes.

(10) Contingency factors.

(b) Fee allowances will not exceed the limitations set forth in § 3.404–3 (c) of this title.

§ 606.206–1 Definitions. • • •

(d) Supply schedule. A supply schedule is a comprehensive summary of pertinent contractual information and ordering instructions relating to an open-end contract.

§ 606.206–3 Numbered contracts • • •

(d) An authenticated copy will be forwarded to the Disbursing Officer for his files, except that where an open-end contract is involved a supply schedule may be used in lieu of the authenticated copy of the contract.

8. Section 606.210, paragraphs (t) and (u) of § 606.705, and paragraph (c) of § 606.713 are added as follows:

§ 606.210 Information releases by Contractors. Prior to making an award of a contract for supplies or services, the Contracting Officer will insure that the prospective Contractor has a copy of, and is familiar with, The Contents of Department of Defense Directive 5230.3 (Reissue of DOD Dir. No. 700.05–3 dated 18 January 1952). The purpose of this Directive is to provide public information security guidance governing the public release of information by manufacturers holding Army, Navy or Air Force contracts. If a copy of DOD Directive 5230.3 is not available, copies of the following paragraphs, a through f, will be furnished the prospective Contractor:

V. RELEASABLE AND NON-RELEASABLE INFORMATION

a. Manufacturers who receive from the Departments of the Army, Navy, and Air Force awards of classified or unclassified contracts, letters of intent or supplemental agreements for production of military equipment or supplies or for increased production of materials now being produced may release to the public information of the following general nature concerning any individual contract without further specific clearance by Department of Defense:

(1) A statement that a contract (or letter of intent) has been received.

(2) Type of item in general terms (i. e., aircraft of standard types, tanks, trucks, ammunition, clothing, etc.) provided that the designation of the item or equipment itself is not classified.

(3) In the case of unclassified negotiated or formally advertised contracts, releases may include the name of the purchasing office, a brief description of the commodity or service, quantity, and dollar amount of the contract.

(4) A statement that workers in certain fields are required. Number of additional personnel needed by the plant may be announced.

(5) Subject to restriction listed in this guidance, a contractor may advertise for bids from prospective subcontractors for component parts or services in those cases where the subsequent contract itself will be unclassified.

(6) Information previously officially approved for release.

b. Contractors will not release to the public information of the following nature concerning such contracts, unless specifically approved and cleared by the Security Review Branch, Office of Public Information, Office of the Secretary of Defense, Washington 25, D. C.

(1) Production schedules, future planning on production schedules, or rates of delivery.

(2) Information on sources of supply, quantities and qualities of strategic or critical supplies and movements, assembly or storage of supplies or materiel.

(3) Information on sabotage attempts or plant security measures.

(4) Information on any research and/or development contracts.

(5) Information, including any photograph, sketch or plan concerning first models of weapons or equipment, outstanding production achievements, or performance of weapons or equipment.

(6) Information on material for shipment to allied governments under MDAP, NATO, etc.

(7) Movement of military aircraft. (This restriction is applicable to all cases, including those where actual movement order is unclassified. The action is to reduce unauthorized disclosure of aircraft deliveries, modification and conversion programs.)

(8) Movement of naval vessels, unless approved by the responsible commander.

(9) Classified information.

c. A subcontractor or branch plant involved in military production programs also may release information subject to paragraphs a and b above, provided he does not:

(1) Indicate he is the sole supplier.

(2) Indicate the percentage of the prime contractor's requirements he provides in terms of quantity or dollar value.

(3) Reveal rates of production or deliveries.

d. Manufacturers outside the continental United States may, after initial public release by the Secretary of Defense, release to the public information subject to the provisions of this guidance. For initial release the contracting agency should forward pertinent information regarding the contract, together with the manufacturer's proposed release, through the Departments of the Army, Navy, or Air Force, as the case may be, to the Secretary of Defense. The Office of Public Information will make the original release if appropriate.

e. In order that manufacturers holding classified contracts may make state of business reports to stockholders, stock exchange, etc., the total company-wide dollar value of backlog may be released provided:

(1) That only the Department of Defense total is used and not broken down by individual military service or item.

(2) That the release does not reveal the quantity or volume of individual orders.

(3) That the report is not made for periods of less than three months.

f. In case of doubt as to the releaseability of information, contractors, factories, subcontractors, etc., may contact the Security Review Branch for advice, or may refer to the contracting agency.

(t) The Small Business Specialist or the Small Business Representative of the purchasing office of issuance will review the entries in items 1 through 22 on DA Form 1877, received by him in accordance with § 591.250 (b) of this subchapter, to assure that Small Business has been afforded an equitable opportunity to compete for the procurement. In the event that the Small Business Specialists or the Small Business Representative at the purchasing office considers that an equitable opportunity to compete for the procurement has not been afforded Small Business, he will bring to the attention of the Commanding Officer of the purchasing office the points in question so that corrective action can be taken. The original DA Form 1877 will then be completed and signed by the Small Business Specialist or Small Business Representative at the purchasing office in accordance with the instructions contained in § 606.713 (c) (2) and forwarded to the Senior Small Business Specialist at the headquarters of the head of the appropriate procuring activity (§ 1.201–4 of this title). One copy will be retained as a reference by the Small Business Specialist or the Small Business Representative at the purchasing office for three months after the award of the contract or the completion of action on the Invitation for Bids or Request for Proposals. The second copy will be signed by the purchasing office's Small Business Specialist or Small Business Representative and returned to the Contracting Officer for retention in the permanent contract file.

(u) The Senior Small Business Specialist at the Headquarters of the Head of the appropriate activity (§ 1.201–4 of this title) will utilize the completed original of DA Form 1877 to analyze preaward activities, (1) to insure that small business has been afforded an equitable opportunity to compete for the procurement, and (2) for management and statistical purposes.

(c) Preparation and transmittal of "Data on Proposed Procurement Action" (DA Form 1877) Report Control Symbol CSGLD–866. (1) For each Invitation for Bids or Request for Proposals on a proposed unclassified procurement to be made in the continental United States, as described in § 591.250 (a) of this subchapter, which may result in awards of $5,000 or more, the Contracting Officer issuing the Invitation for Bids or Request for Proposals will prepare DA Form 1877 in triplicate. The signed DA Form 1877 in triplicate, will be forwarded together with a copy of the Invitation for Bid or Request for Proposal given to the Small Business Specialist or Small Business Representative of the purchasing office for display purposes (§ 2.202–2 of this title) on the date of issuance of the Invitation for Bids or Request for Proposals (§ 591.250 (b) of this subchapter).

(2) The Small Business Specialist or Small Business Representative will complete his portion of the DA Form 1877, sign and transmit the original copy of the form to the Senior Small Business Specialist of the Head of the Procuring Activity within two working days subsequent to distribution of applicable Invitation for Bids or Request for Proposals, one copy will be retained and the second copy returned to the permanent contract file. Letters of transmittal will not be used.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Subchapter B—Food and Food Products

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

TOLERANCE FOR RESIDUES OF MANEB IN OR ON APRICOTS

A petition was filed with the Food and Drug Administration requesting the establishment of a tolerance for residues of maneb (manganese ethylenebisdithiocarbamate) in or on apricots.

The Secretary of Agriculture has certified that this pesticide chemical is useful for the purposes for which a tolerance is being established.

After consideration of the data submitted in the petition and other relevant material which show that the tolerance established in this order will protect the public health, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (2)) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (21 CFR 120.7 (g)), the regulations for tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (21 CFR Part 120) are amended by inserting in § 120.110 (a) the word "apricots." As amended, this paragraph reads as follows:

(a) 7 parts per million in or on apples, apricots, beans, carrots (with or without tops) or carrot tops, celery, cranberries, cucumbers, eggplant, figs, grapes, melons, onions, peaches, peppers, spinach, summer squash, tomatoes, winter squash.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may, at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the effective date thereof, file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by this order, specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and reasonable grounds for the objections, and request a public hearing upon the objections. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

R. 1045), the regulations for tests and methods of assay and certification of antibiotic and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR 141c, 146c) are amended as indicated below:

1. In § 141c.224, the section headnote and paragraph (a) (1) (i) are changed to read as follows:

§ 141c.224 Tetracycline hydrochloride-nystatin capsules; tetracycline phosphate complex-nystatin capsules—(a) Capsules—(1) Potency—(i) Tetracycline hydrochloride content; tetracycline phosphate complex content. Proceed as directed in § 141c.204 (a) for tetracycline hydrochloride capsules and tetracycline phosphate complex capsules. Its potency is satisfactory if it contains the equivalent of not less than 85 percent of the number of milligrams of tetracycline hydrochloride that it is represented to contain.

2. Section 146c.224 is amended in the following respects:

a. The section headnote and introduction to the section are changed to read as follows:

§ 146c.224 Tetracycline hydrochloride-nystatin capsules; tetracycline phosphate complex-nystatin capsules. Tetracycline hydrochloride-nystatin capsules and tetracycline phosphate complex-nystatin capsules are capsules that conform to all the requirements and procedures prescribed by § 146c.204 for tetracycline hydrochloride capsules and tetracycline phosphate complex capsules, except that:

b. Paragraph (b) is changed to read as follows:

(b) In addition to the labeling prescribed for tetracycline hydrochloride capsules or tetracycline phosphate complex capsules, each package shall bear on its label or labeling the number of units of nystatin in each capsule of the batch. Its expiration date shall be the date that is 12 months after the month during which the batch was certified if it is tetracycline phosphate complex-nystatin capsules.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry and since it would be against public interest to delay providing for the amendments set forth above.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

Appendix—Public Land Orders

REVOKING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 5038 OF FEBRUARY 2, 1929, WHICH WITHDREW LANDS FOR CLASSIFICATION

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847; 43 U. S. C. 141) and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. Executive Order No. 5038 of February 2, 1929, which temporarily withdrew the following-described lands in California for classification and pending determination as to the advisability of including such lands in the Pinnacles National Monument, is hereby revoked:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN

T. 16 S., R. 7 E.,
Secs. 20 to 29, inclusive;
Sec. 33, W½E½ and W½;
Secs. 35 and 36.
T. 17 S., R. 7 E.,
Sec. 1, E½;
Sec. 2, E½NW¼;
Sec. 9, E½;
Sec. 11, E½;
Secs. 12 to 15, inclusive;
Secs. 22 to 24, inclusive.

The areas described aggregate 13,683.34 acres.

2. The following-described lands were added to the Pinnacles National Monument by Proclamations No. 1948 of April 13, 1931, No. 2050 of July 11, 1933, and No. 2528 of December 5, 1941:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN

T. 16 S., R. 7 E.,
Sec. 20, E½;
Secs. 21, 22, and 23;
Sec. 24, W½;
Sec. 25, W½;
Secs. 26, 27, and 28;
Sec. 29, E½;
Sec. 33, W½E½ and W½;
Sec. 35;
Sec. 36, W½.
T. 17 S., R. 7 E.,
Sec. 1, lot 2 and SW¼SE¼;
Sec. 2, lot 3 and SE¼NW¼;
Sec. 11, E½;
Sec. 12, SE¼SE¼, W½E½, and W½;
Sec. 13, SE¼SE¼, W½E½, and W½;
Secs. 14, 15, 22, and 23;
Sec. 24, W½.

The areas described aggregate 10,962.65 acres.

3. The following-described lands have been patented without a reservation of minerals to the United States:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN

T. 16 S., R. 7 E.,
Sec. 36, E½.
T. 17 S., R. 7 E.,
Sec. 1, lot 1, S½NE¼, E½SE¼, and NW¼SE¼;
Sec. 9, E½;
Sec. 12, E½NE¼ and NE¼SE¼;
Sec. 13, E½NE¼ and NE¼SE¼.

The areas described aggregate 1,120.69 acres.

4. The following lands are restored from withdrawal by this order:

T. 16 S., R. 7 E.,
Sec. 20, W½;
Sec. 24, E½;
Sec. 25, E½;
Sec. 29, W½.
T. 17 S., R. 7 E.,
Sec. 24, E½.

The areas described aggregate 1,600 acres.

5. The restored lands are located in west-central San Benito County, approximately 30 miles south of Hollister, California. They consist of steep, brush covered hills. The soil is generally a sandy clay derived from a granitic parent material. Vegetation consists of chamise, scrub oak and manzanita with scattered digger pine and live oak. The lands are too rough and mountainous for cultivation.

6. No application for the lands described in paragraph 4 of this order may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

7. Subject to valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the restored lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m., on April 19, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m., on June 19, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m., on June 19, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws and to location for metalliferous minerals. They will be open to location for non-metalliferous minerals under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m., on June 19, 1957.

8. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Sacramento, California.

HATFIELD CHILSON,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

[7 CFR Part 967]

[Docket No. AO-170-A10]

MILK IN SOUTH BEND-LA PORTE, IND., MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER AMENDING ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR 900), a public hearing was conducted at South Bend, Indiana, on August 14–15, 1956, pursuant to notice thereof issued on August 9, 1956 (21 F. R. 5970).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on February 6, 1957 (22 F. R. 844), filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision containing notice of the opportunity to file written exceptions thereto.

The material issues of record related to:

1. The classification and pricing of milk used in making cottage cheese. (Proposals 1 and 6.)

2. A revision of the transfer provisions. (Proposal 2).

3. A revision of the list of condenseries appearing in the basic formula. (Proposal No. 4).

4. Elimination of the butter-cheese portion of the basic formula. (Proposal No. 5).

5. The price level for Class I milk, including the supply-demand adjustment. (Proposal No. 7.)

6. Classification and pricing of butterfat used for making butter. (Proposals 11 and 12.)

7. Conforming changes (Proposal No. 13.)

In addition to the foregoing issues, certain other matters were referred to in Proposals 3, 8, 9 and 10 of the hearing notice. They were either abandoned or not specifically supported at the hearing. These proposals included a revision of the allocation provisions, the placing of a limitation on diversions of milk to nonregulated plants, and a new Class III classification and price. It is concluded that no further action with respect to these matters should be taken on the basis of this hearing.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues covered in this decision are based upon evidence in the record of the hearing:

1. A new classification and price for milk used to produce cottage cheese should be established.

Producers proposed to establish a separate classification and price for milk used to produce cottage cheese. They supported their proposal on the basis that a new classification and price are necessary to reflect the additional cost to producers of supplying milk of the quality required by the health departments of the marketing area for use in cottage cheese.

One unregulated plant operator testified at the hearing in opposition to the proposed price increase but on questioning stated the opinion that producers should receive more money for Grade A milk used in dairy products than for ungraded milk. This operator has a plant near South Bend in which ice cream, ice cream mix, and cottage cheese are manufactured. Approximately 25 percent of the cottage cheese production of his plant is sold in the Scuth Bend-LaPorte marketing area. It was stated that milk received from the reserve supplies of regulated handlers would provide the necessary Grade A milk for the cottage cheese that he sells in the marketing area. This operator at present receives no ungraded milk in his plant.

The South Bend-LaPorte marketing area is comprised of the cities of South Bend, LaPorte, Mishawaka, and Michigan City, Indiana. Recently, the cities of South Bend, LaPorte and Michigan City adopted similar milk ordinances to become effective January 1, 1957. Under these ordinances all cottage cheese sold within each of these cities must be produced from Grade A milk. Some cottage cheese which heretofore has been sold in the market has been made from dry curd produced from ungraded milk. This practice will be prohibited under the new ordinances.

Beginning January 1, 1957, cottage cheese disposed of in a large portion of the marketing area must be made from milk meeting the same inspection requirements as that for fluid disposition. Cottage cheese will provide a regular, year-round outlet for inspected milk (skim milk and butterfat) and under this circumstance should not be considered a distress outlet for Class I reserves. It is important and economically sound that milk for this use should contribute to the increased cost of obtaining the year-round supply of Grade A milk necessary for all purposes which require this type of supply. Producers should receive a price differential over manufacturing milk prices to compensate for the higher costs of producing Grade A milk. The expansion of producer receipts to supply all the milk needed for cottage cheese would reduce returns to producers unduly if the present classification and pricing provisions were retained in the order. Therefore, it is concluded that a new Class II milk classification should be established for producer milk used to produce cottage cheese. Present Class II milk other than milk for cottage cheese should be redesignated Class III milk without a change in the price formula. The testimony and findings concerning an appropriate price level for milk used for cottage cheese are discussed below.

Proponents proposed a price formula for skim milk used to produce cottage cheese as follows: the prevailing price per pound of spray process nonfat dry milk for human consumption (Chicago area manufacturing plants), minus 3.2 cents, multiplied by 8.5. The 3.2 cent deduction was revised from 2.0 cents at the hearing. They contended that the price of Grade A skim milk for cottage cheese should not be less than the cost of its equivalent in nonfat dry milk of Grade A quality which might be secured from alternative sources. Producers explained that the deduction of 3.2 cents represented an adjustment to the price of nonfat dry milk to offset the costs to handlers of such operations as receiving and cooling and field work expense; the loss on butterfat separated from milk used to produce cottage cheese; and hauling charges for reserve butterfat moved to manufacturing plants. The total handling costs, amounting to 28.6 cents per hundredweight, suggested by producers were represented as the average handling costs for fifteen plants operated by the producers' association in the Chicago milkshed. The deduction of 3.2 cents was suggested after allowance also for the differential in price per pound usually received for nonfat dry milk of Grade A quality. The factor "8.5" represents the suggested yield of nonfat dry milk from a hundred pounds of skim milk.

Producers suggested further at the hearing that butterfat used to cream cottage cheese be priced at the present order price for Class II butterfat.

The expression of the South Bend-La Porte Class II price in terms of a differential over the basic formula price will recognize an additional value for Grade A milk used for cottage cheese over the level of manufacturing prices and also will enable the price of skim milk to fluctuate with prices for manufacturing milk. Milk used to produce cottage cheese and that contained in fluid cream, among other products, is classified and priced as Class II milk under the Chicago order, on a price level above that for manufacturing uses such as butter, nonfat dry milk, cheese and evaporated milk. At the time (1951) the present system for determining skim milk and butterfat prices was adopted in the South Bend-La Porte market the minimum price for butterfat in Class I milk under the South Bend-La Porte order was fixed in reasonable alignment with the minimum price for butterfat in Class II milk under the Chicago order. At present the price of Class I butterfat is slightly less than the price of Chicago Class II butterfat. The annual average price in 1955 for Class I butterfat was approximately 8 cents per pound over the manufacturing level of prices. The price of butterfat in Class II milk (new) also should be similarly related to the price of Class II butterfat (cream) under the Chicago order since butterfat at this price is available to Chicago handlers with fluid milk plants serving the South Bend-La Porte marketing area. By using the Class I butterfat price to price Class II butterfat also the supply-demand adjustment will apply to the Class II butterfat price in the same manner as it applies to the Class I butterfat price. Therefore, it is concluded that the price of milk used to produce cottage cheese should be the basic formula price plus 70 cents for the months of August through February, and 45 cents for the months of March through July. Such Class II price differentials take into account the competitive influence originating in the Chicago market and also follow the seasonal pattern of pricing provided under the South Bend-La Porte order. After deducting the value of 3.5 pounds of butterfat in Class II milk at the proposed level, there would result a residual price for skim milk used in cottage cheese averaging, on the basis of 1955 data, approximately 32 cents above the price for skim milk for manufactured milk products included in the class to be redesignated as Class III milk. In view of the conclusion that a portion of the added value of milk for cottage cheese should be attributed to the butterfat, it is further concluded that the proposed formula adapts itself to the present over-all plan for skim milk and butterfat pricing more readily than the type of formula proposed by producers.

In their exceptions producer proponents object to the price formula for skim milk used to produce cottage cheese. Proponents indicate that the provision included in the recommended decision would result in an average price of $0.826 per hundredweight of skim milk as compared with their proposed average price of $1.04 per hundredweight. Review of proponent's calculation of the price resulting from the recommended provision discloses that the price of $0.826 is based on 96.5 pounds of skim milk used in cottage cheese while their price of $1.04 is based on the use of a full hundredweight of skim milk. Moreover, their price is computed from 1955 data and is compared with a contemplated price based on 1956 data. If a price based on 1955 data, the latest available in the record, is computed from the recommended provision, the price per hundredweight of skim milk is $0.944, a difference of only 10 cents per hundreweight from the proposal of producers. Proponents' formula, on the other hand, places the entire additional value (over that of manufacturing milk) of milk for cottage cheese on the skim milk component. Thus, proponents price of butterfat for cottage cheese use would have averaged $0.6908 in 1955, the same as butterfat for manufacturing purposes. It is concluded that, as in the neighboring Chicago market, some portion of the higher value of producer milk for cottage cheese is attributable to the butterfat since butterfat of Grade A quality is required for creaming cottage cheese and thus should be reflected in the producer price of butterfat so used. Under the formula provided the average price of butterfat for creaming cottage cheese in 1955 would have been $0.7766, or nearly 9 cents per pound higher than under the producers' formula.

2. The transfer provisions should be modified only in conformity with the revised plan for the classification of milk.

Producers proposed that the transfer provisions be modified so that producer milk transferred or diverted from a regulated plant and then transshipped by an unregulated plant to a second unregulated plant without being received at the first unregulated plant would be classified on the basis of the utilization of such milk at the second unregulated plant. In addition, the transferred or diverted milk would be required to be commingled with receipts of other milk or cream at the unregulated plant where actually received, or the handler would not be allowed to claim Class II product utilization.

The producers' proposal to amend the transfer provisions in this manner is based on the allegation that certain quantities of milk which have been transferred or diverted by handlers, and classified as Class II at an unregulated plant, were not actually received at such plant. Presumably such milk, in unknown quantities, was moved to a second unregulated plant where it was used or disposed of for bottling purposes.

At the present time, the order provides that milk transferred or diverted from a regulated plant to an unregulated plant may be classified Class II if the respective parties involved in the transfer or diversion mutually indicate that such milk was utilized in Class II. The order requires the market administrator to check the records of the unregulated plant in order to determine whether the milk moved to the unregulated plant was received at such plant and an amount of milk at least equivalent to such transfer was so utilized in the plant.

The main purpose of allowing a Class II classification on milk transferred or diverted from regulated to unregulated plants in this market has been to facilitate the movement of reserve milk to plants where manufacturing facilities are available. In this connection, it has been considered important that a certain degree of flexibility be maintained in the provisions governing the disposition of reserve milk. Stringent transfer provisions could enhance the difficulties of the small volume handlers in disposing of minor quantities of reserve milk. The testimony does not reveal specific instances of abuse of these provisions.

Moreover, the present order transfer provisions recognize the difficult administrative task of ascertaining the particular use of each hundred-weight of producer milk moved to an unregulated plant. There are administrative limitations involved in accounting for specific "lots" of transferred or diverted milk according to its actual, or physical, disposition at the unregulated plant. It does not appear that the problem complained of warrants the additional administrative difficulties involved in accounting for specific "lots" of milk.

For these reasons it is concluded that the proposed modification of the transfer provision should not be adopted.

3. The list of condenseries used in computing the basic formula price should be revised.

The list of condenseries, the pay-prices of which are used in connection with price formulas under the order, should include only those plants which are currently operating, and for which producer pay-prices are reported. The last revision of the list, in December 1953 (18 F. R. 8671), deleted the names of the Borden Company plants at Black Creek and Greenville, Wisconsin, and the Carnation Company at Jefferson, Wisconsin. Official notice is taken of the termination of operations at the Pet Milk Company Hudson, Michigan. In addition, the Carnation Company plants at Berlin and Chilton, Wisconsin, have terminated operations. The names of the following plants therefore should be deleted from the list appearing in § 967.50 (a): Carnation Company, Berlin, Wisconsin, Carnation Company, Chilton, Wisconsin, and Pet Milk Company, Hudson, Michigan. For convenience, the full list as revised is incorporated in the order amendments included in this decision.

4. The butter-cheese portion of the basic price formula should be deleted.

Producers proposed that the "condensery-code" price formula be deleted as a basic price formula. Handlers presented no opposition testimony to this proposal.

The basic price formula employs market prices for Chicago Grade A butter and Wisconsin State Brand Cheddar Cheese. In the present order, the basic formula price for any month is the highest price resulting from three formula prices, reflecting the values of milk used for condensing, for making butter and cheese, and for making butter and nonfat dry milk. The condensery-code price formula is one of the three. It reflects the value of milk used for butter and cheese.

This component of the basic price formula has not had significant effect in the South Bend order during the past several years. During the entire period January 1952 through June 1956, the butter-cheese component of the basic price formula was never sufficiently high in any month to be used as a basis of pricing Class I milk.

The necessity of appropriate alignment of South Bend milk prices with those established under the Chicago order is recognized. The record of this hearing contains ample evidence in this respect. The condensery-code price formula has already been deleted from the basic price formula of the Chicago order. In order to preserve further the alignment of prices under Orders No. 67 and 41, it is concluded that the condensery-code price formula should be deleted from Order No. 67.

5. No change should be made in the Class I price differential. Non-substantive changes in the language of the supply-demand adjuster should be adopted.

The major producers' cooperative supplying milk to regulated handlers proposed that the Class I milk price differential, which is added to the basic formula price, be changed to $1.30 for each month of the year. The Class I milk price differentials now provided in the order are $1.30 for the months of August through December, $1.10 for January and February, and 90 cents for the remaining months of the year. The annual monthly average of these differentials is $1.10.

The proposal to establish a Class I differential of $1.30 for each month was based on the following: (1) Production costs have increased, (2) the proposed price increase would not result in an undesirable price alignment with surrounding markets, (3) the base-excess plan eliminates the need for seasonal differentials, and (4) the price increase proposed is moderate and will not increase production.

The proposal was not supported on the basis of a need to increase the supply of milk for the market, but rather to increase returns to producers on the volume of milk currently being produced. The elimination of seasonal differentials was urged on the basis that the present base-excess plan is sufficient incentive for producers to establish a pattern of uniform milk production throughout the year.

Producers' proposal would have the effect of increasing the annual level of the Class I milk price. The present stated Class I differentials average $1.10 on an annual basis. This level of Class I price differentials (not including plus or minus supply-demand adjustments) has been provided for in Order No. 67 since November 1, 1952. Immediately prior to that date the annual average Class I differential was approximately 85 cents per hundredweight.

Between 1952 and 1955 Class I sales increased 33 percent, with the largest annual increase occurring in 1955. During this 4-year period receipts of producer milk increased 39 percent. This increase in total producer receipts is due to two important factors: (1) the 27 percent increase in production per farm, and (2) a 9 percent increase in producer numbers in this period.

During the first 6 months of 1956 production continued to increase, being up 18 percent over the corresponding months of the year before. Also, producer numbers increased 5 percent in the same period. Class I sales, during the first 6 months of 1956 increased 12 percent over the same period a year ago. The increase in producer receipts represents a somewhat greater volume of milk than the increase in Class I sales since the Class I sales total is less than total producer receipts. The fall and winter months are normally the months of relatively low milk production in the South Bend-LaPorte market. In the fall of 1955, the monthly percentages of producer milk utilized as Class I milk were as follows:

September	79.4	December	81.5

It is concluded from the above that market supplies have responded adequately to the price levels (as modified by the supply-demand adjuster in response to changing conditions) which have prevailed during recent years. Supplies of producer milk at the present time serve to fulfill Class I milk requirements. It is concluded that an increase in the annual level of the Class I price should not be adopted.

The amount of seasonal variation in Class I price differentials was reduced with the amendment of December 1, 1954, which also made effective a base-excess plan of distributing returns to producers. Official notice is taken of the decision of the Secretary issued November 24, 1954, which supported such amendment. It was found appropriate at that time to establish a seasonal pattern of fixed differentials which would align prices closer with the Class I prices paid by handlers in surrounding marketing areas. While it was generally acknowledged that the adoption of the base-excess plan diminishes the need for seasonal variation in the Class I price, it was further recognized by interested parties that it is necessary, under present conditions, to have some seasonal change in the differentials in order to keep the price in this market competitive throughout the year with prices in areas with adjoining or overlapping milksheds. Of these, Chicago is the most important.

It is significant, too, that a substantial proportion of the fluid milk distributed within the South Bend-LaPorte marketing area originates in plants regulated and priced by the Chicago order. Although there has been marked improvement in the seasonal variation of producer deliveries during the past several months, and it is possible that further improvement would result from the elimination of seasonal pricing in conjunction with the base plan, the Class I price must remain competitive with the Chicago price as well as with prices in other surrounding areas in which regulated handlers distribute considerable quantities of Class I milk. The current hearing did not develop information on which to conclude that there is less need to maintain the South Bend-LaPorte and Chicago Class I prices in close relationship than was the case at the time the present price schedule was adopted.

It is concluded that the present seasonal differences in Class I price differentials should be retained.

Producers proposed that the present language of the supply-demand provision be modified to state that the adjustment in price (increase or decrease) will in each instance be the same as that resulting from action of the supply-demand adjuster contained in the Chicago order. The proposal was supported primarily on the basis that any modification of the Chicago supply-demand provision automatically should have a corresponding result under the South Bend-LaPorte order without the necessity of a hearing. Handlers expressed no opposition to this proposal.

The language of the present South Bend-LaPorte supply-demand adjustment provision has been revised on several occasions in order that it might be kept the same as the comparable provisions of Order No. 41 for Chicago. The data currently used to compute the adjustment are Chicago supply-sales data, not those of the South Bend-LaPorte market. Since it has been indicated that prices in the two markets should be closely aligned, it would be appropriate to adopt the proposed language in the South Bend-LaPorte order. This would not change the substantive effect of the present supply-demand provision but would obviate the necessity of modifying language in the South Bend-LaPorte order whenever the Chicago supply-demand provision might be amended. Should it become desirable to provide different supply-demand adjusters in the respective markets, a separate hearing on this order could be proposed to consider such an action. It is concluded that the proposal concerning the language of the supply-demand adjustment provision should be adopted.

6. A separate classification and price for butterfat used in churning butter should not be adopted.

Handlers proposed that butterfat used in churning butter should have a separate classification, and be priced the same as 92-score butter on the Chicago market.

In supporting the proposal, handlers testified that in 1955, an average of 24,000 pounds of butterfat per month was used for churning operations, usually in unregulated plants. For the first six months of 1956, approximately 31,000 pounds of butterfat per month were used in this manner. Much of such butterfat was churned on a custom basis, presumably returned as butter to regulated handlers for sale to their customers. Handlers contended that they lose 5 to 10 cents per pound on such butterfat, i. e., the difference between the South Bend-LaPorte Class II butterfat price and their sale price to butter manufacturing plants.

The proposal is intended to relieve handlers of losses incurred by them in the disposition of butterfat for churning. They argued that producers should assume a portion of these losses since the handlers have had to accept more butterfat than actually needed in procuring a sufficient quantity of milk for fluid disposition. However, it was conceded by proponents that there is opportunity in the over-all operation of a fluid milk business to recover whatever losses are incurred whether in the cream department or elsewhere.

It was further argued that the adoption of the proposal would encourage producers to deliver milk of lower butterfat content, in closer conformance with the consumer demand for products of lower butterfat content.

Producers contended that cream for churning can be sold at the present Class II butterfat price and that to adopt the proposal would shift to producers the losses resulting from poor sales outlets.

At the present time, butterfat used for churning butter is classified in Class II and priced accordingly. The Class II price for butterfat is computed by adding 20 percent to the Chicago 92-score butter price and then multiplying by 1,000. This has resulted in annual average Class II butterfat prices per hundredweight in 1952, 1953, 1954 and 1955 of $87, $79, $72 and $69, respectively. During that period, the proposal would have resulted in annual average prices for butterfat used for butter of $72, $66, $60 and $57, representing a significant reduction from the present level.

A large portion of the reserve quantity of butterfat in the market is utilized in ice cream and ice cream mix, and not necessarily utilized for churning. Approximately 84 percent of the total Class II butterfat during the 18 months prior to the hearing was utilized in products yielding higher returns to handlers than butterfat for churning. Approximately 16 percent of the Class II butterfat during this period was disposed of for churning. The latter quantity is equivalent to less than one percent of the total butterfat in producer milk. Recognizing that reserves are necessary for a handler to conduct a fluid milk operation, the small quantity of butterfat which is disposed of for churning may not be considered burdensome. It is concluded that a separate classification and pricing for butterfat used for churning should not be adopted.

7. Other changes in the order involve the redesignation of paragraph references to conform with recommendations contained herein to amend the classification and pricing provisions of the order.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Ruling on exceptions. In arriving at the findings and conclusions and the regulatory provisions of this decision, each of the exceptions received was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that the findings and conclusions and the regulatory provisions of this decision are at variance with any of the exceptions, such exceptions are hereby overruled.

Marketing agreement and order, as amended. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area", and "Order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area", which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions.

Determination of representative period. The month of December 1956 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of the attached order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area is approved or favored by producers, as defined under the terms of the order as proposed hereby to be amended, and who, during such representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale within the aforesaid marketing area.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended by the attached order which will be published with this decision.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 15th day of March 1957.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

AUTHORITY: §§ 967.0 to 967.101 issued under sec. 5, 49 stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c.

§ 967.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that;

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 967.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 967.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or any other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 967.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal Agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions of the United States Department of Agriculture specified herein.

§ 967.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 967.6 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative association of producers which the Secretary determines, after application by the association:

(a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; and

(b) To have full authority in the sale of milk of its members and to be engaged in making collective sales or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 967.7 South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area. "South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area", hereinafter called the "marketing area" means all territory within the corporate limits of South Bend, Mishawaka, La Porte, and Michigan City, Indiana.

§ 967.8 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means a milk plant which is approved by the health authorities of any of the following municipalities: South Bend, Mishawaka, La Porte, or Michigan City, Indiana, for the processing and distribution of milk for consumption in fluid form and from which a route is operated wholly or partially within the marketing area.

§ 967.9 Producer. "Producer" means any person, except a producer-handler, who produces milk (other than milk exempt pursuant to § 967.60) which is received at an approved plant, provided such milk is eligible for consumption as milk in fluid form within the marketing area under the approval or certification of one or more of the health authorities referred to in § 967.8. This definition shall include any such person who is regularly classified as a producer but whose milk is caused to be temporarily diverted by a handler from an approved plant to a plant not an approved plant.

§ 967.11 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat received in any form, except in a nonfluid milk product disposed of in the same form as received, from sources other than a producer or a handler who receives milk subject to the pricing provisions of this part.

§ 967.12 Route. "Route" means a delivery (including a sale at a plant store) of any item named in § 967.41 (a) (1) to a wholesale or retail stop other than a milk processing or distributing plant.

§ 967.13 Handler. "Handler" means (a) a person who operates an approved plant or (b) a cooperative association with respect to milk (1) caused by it to be delivered from a producer's farm to an approved plant for the account of such association, or (2) customarily received as producer milk at an approved plant which is diverted by such association for its account to a plant not an approved plant.

§ 967.14 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who operates an approved plant and whose sole source of supply of skim milk and butterfat is from his own production or from his own production and from an approved plant.

§ 967.15 Base, base milk and excess milk.—(a) Base. "Base" means a quantity of milk expressed in pounds per day computed pursuant to § 967.63.

(b) Base milk. "Base milk" means a quantity of producer milk received by a handler during each of the months of April, May, June and July which is not in excess of such producer's base multiplied by the number of days such milk was produced.

(c) Excess milk. "Excess milk" means producer milk received by a handler during each of the months of April, May, June and July which is in excess of the base milk received from such producer.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 967.20 Designation. The agency for the administration hereof shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 967.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 967.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 30 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary a bond covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 967.85:

(1) The cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees,

(2) His own compensation, and

(3) All other expenses, except those incurred under § 967.86, necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Publicly announce, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who within 10 days after the day upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to §§ 967.30 to 967.31 or (2) payments pursuant to §§ 967.80 to 967.87;

(g) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(h) Verify all reports and payments of each handler by inspection of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization of the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends;

(i) Publicly announce by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the prices determined for each delivery period as follows:

(1) On or before the 7th day after the end of such delivery period, the minimum class prices for skim milk and butterfat pursuant to §§ 967.51 through 967.53;

(2) On or before the 14th day after the end of such delivery period, the uniform price computed pursuant to § 967.71 and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 967.81;

(j) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information; and

(k) On or before April 1 each year notify each producer of the amount of his base, and notify each handler of the amount of the base of each producer delivering milk to any of the handler's plants.

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 967.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 9th day after the end of each delivery period each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(a) The quantities of butterfat and of skim milk contained in all receipts within such delivery period of (1) producer milk, (2) skim milk and butterfat in any form from any other handler, (3) other source milk, and the source thereof, and (4) for the delivery periods of April through July, the total amount of base milk and the total amount of excess milk received from producers;

(b) The utilization of all receipts reported under paragraph (a) of this section; and

(c) Such other information with respect to all receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 967.31 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

(b) On or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall submit to the market administrator such handler's producer payroll for the preceding delivery period, which shall show (1) the total pounds of milk received from each producer and the average butterfat test of such milk, (2) the amount of payment to each producer and cooperative association, (3) the nature and amount of any deductions and charges involved in the payments referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, and (4) for the delivery periods of September through December, the number of days on which milk was received from each producer, and for the delivery periods of April through July, for each producer the number of days on which milk was received and the amount of base milk and excess milk.

§ 967.32 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or to his representative during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or to establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization, in whatever form, of all skim milk and butterfat received;

(b) The weights, samples, and tests for butterfat and for other content of all skim milk and butterfat handled;

(c) Payments to producers and cooperative associations; and

(d) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and each milk product on hand at the beginning and at the end of each delivery period.

§ 967.33 Retention of records. All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 967.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat, in any form, received within the delivery period by a handler, in producer milk, in other source milk and from another handler shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 967.41 to 967.46, inclusive.

§ 967.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 967.43 and 967.44, the skim milk and butterfat described in § 967.40 shall be classified by the market administrator on the basis of the following classes:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of (except as provided in paragraph (c) (1) of this section) in the form of milk, skim milk, flavored milk, flavored milk drink, and buttermilk; (2) disposed of as cream (sweet or sour) and as any fluid mixture of cream and milk (or skim milk) containing not less than 6 percent butterfat (but not including ice cream or other frozen dessert mixes disposed of to a commercial processor, or any mixture disposed of in containers or dispensers under pressure for the purpose of dispensing a whipped or aerated product); (3) disposed of in fluid or frozen form as concentrated milk, flavored milk, flavored milk drink not sterilized and not otherwise specified under paragraph (c) of this section, and as eggnog; (4) in shrinkage of receipts of producer milk computed pursuant to § 967.42 which is in excess of 2 percent of such receipts; and (5) not specifically accounted for as any item named in this paragraph or as Class II milk or Class III milk.

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat used to produce cottage cheese.

(c) Class III milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) disposed of in bulk in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, and cream to any manufacturer of candy, soup or bakery products and used in such products; (2) in condensed milk or skim milk (sweetened or unsweetened) disposed of to commercial food processors; (3) disposed of (or used to produce, in the case of ice cream and frozen desserts and mixes (liquid or powdered) for such products, and aerated cream products) as sweetened condensed milk in hermetically sealed cans, evaporated milk, ice cream, ice cream mix, other frozen desserts and mixes, storage cream, butter, cheese and nonfat dry milk; (4) dumped or disposed of for livestock feed as skim milk (including that in whole milk dumped), flavored milk, flavored milk drink and buttermilk; (5) disposed of as a milk product other than any of those specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2) and (3) in paragraph (b), and in paragraphs (c) (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this section; (6) contained in monthly inventory variations; (7) in actual shrinkage of receipts of producer milk computed pursuant to § 967.42 but not in excess of 2 percent of such receipts; and (8) in actual shrinkage of other source milk computed pursuant to § 967.42.

§ 967.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall determine the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk and in other source milk in the following manner:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, for each handler; and

(b) Prorate the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section between that in producer milk and in other source milk.

§ 967.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk, unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat proves to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat classified (except that transferred to a producer-handler) in one class shall be reclassified if used or reused by such handler or by another handler in another class.

§ 967.44 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of by a handler either by transfer or diversion shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted to another handler (except a producer-handler) in the form of any item named in § 967.41 (a) (1), (2), or (3) unless utilization in another class is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 9th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transaction occurred: Provided, That skim milk or butterfat so assigned to a particular class shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in such class in the plant of the transferee handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 967.46, and any excess of such skim milk or butterfat, respectively, shall be assigned to Class I milk;

(b) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted to a producer-handler in the form of any item named in § 967.41 (a) (1), (2) or (3);

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted to a plant not an approved plant in the form of any item named in § 967.41 (a) (1), (2) or (3) unless (1) the transferor handler claims use in another class on the basis of utilization in the unapproved plant in his report submitted to the market administrator pursuant to § 967.30 for the month within which such transaction occurred, (2) the receiver maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which are made available if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification, and (3) in such receiver's plant there actually had been used during such delivery period in the use indicated in such report, not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat derived by him from milk or cream: Provided, That if upon inspection of such receiver's records of such plant, there had not been used in such indicated use an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat so derived, the remaining pounds shall be classified as Class I milk.

§ 967.45 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the delivery period report submitted by each handler and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in each class for such handler.

§ 967.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. The pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, remaining in each class after the following computations shall be the pounds in each class allocated to producer milk;

(a) Subtract, respectively, from the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk which is disposed of as Class I milk in bottles on a route outside the marketing area: Provided, That the health authority having jurisdiction over the plant from which such distribution is made has granted approval for receiving and processing for fluid distribution both approved milk and other source milk in such plant, the handler maintains adequate accounts and records of, and practices complete segregation of, producer milk and other source milk used in his Class I milk operations, and that such other source milk is disposed of on a route on which no producer milk is disposed of as Class I milk;

(b) Subtract, respectively, from the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk (to the extent Class I milk is available) the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk which is (1) received in consumer packages as any item specified in § 967.41 (a) (1), (2) or (3) from a plant where milk is subject to the class price provisions of a Federal marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act for another fluid milk marketing area, and (2) disposed of without repackaging;

(c) Subtract, respectively, from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class (other than the pounds in inventory variations and plant shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat pursuant to § 967.41 (c) (7)) in series beginning with Class III milk, the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk excluding that subtracted pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section;

(d) Subtract, respectively, from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class the pounds of skim milk and butterfat received from other handlers and assigned to such class pursuant to § 967.44; and

(e) Subtract, respectively, from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class in series beginning with Class III milk, the pounds by which such pounds of skim milk and butterfat in all classes exceed, respectively, the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat received in milk from producers.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 967.50 Basic formula price. The basic formula price to be used in computing the prices of Class I milk and Class II milk for the delivery period shall be the higher of the prices computed by the market administrator for the delivery period immediately preceding pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section:

(a) Compute the arithmetical average of the basic (or field) prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid, or to be paid, for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the delivery period at the following plants or places for which prices are reported to the market administrator or to the Department by the companies listed below:

Present operator:	Location
Borden Co	Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Borden Co	New London, Wis.
Borden Co	Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co	Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Co	Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co	Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co	Belleville, Wis.
Pet Milk Co	Coopersville, Mich.
Pet Milk Co	New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co	Wayland, Mich.
White House Milk Co	Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co	West Bend, Wis.

(b) Compute a price per hundredweight by adding together the amounts resulting pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph;

(1) Multiply by 8.2 the weighted average of carlot prices per pound for spray process nonfat dry milk, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding delivery period through the 25th day of the current delivery period by the Department, and from the result thus obtained deduct 64.2 cents;

(2) Multiply by 4.24 the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade AA (93-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department during the delivery period: Provided, That if no price is reported for Grade AA (93-score) butter, the highest of the Grade A (92-score) butter prices for that day shall be used in lieu of the price for Grade AA (93-score) butter, and from the result thus obtained deduct 11 cents.

§ 967.51 Class I milk prices. The minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received and classified as Class I milk for each delivery period shall be computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Add to the basic formula price (3.5 percent milk) the following amount for the delivery period indicated: August, September, October, November and December $1.30; January and February, $1.10; all others $0.90: Provided, That such Class I price differential shall be increased or decreased, respectively, by the supply-demand adjustment computed under Part 941 of this chapter as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area.

(b) Add together the amount computed pursuant to § 967.50 (b) (2) and any amount per hundredweight by which (on a 3.5 percent butterfat basis) the effective basic formula price pursuant to § 967.50 is higher than the price computed pursuant to § 967.50 (b), divide such sum by 0.035, and then add thereto the following amount for the delivery period indicated: August, September, October, November and December, $13.75; all others $12.00: Provided, That such amount for the delivery period indicated shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the amount per hundredweight resulting from the proviso of paragraph (a) of this section divided by 0.035. The resulting amount shall be the price of butterfat in Class I milk.

(c) Subtract from the price computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section the amount computed in paragraph (b) of this section times 0.035, and divide the remainder by 0.965. The resulting amount shall be the price of skim milk in Class I milk.

§ 967.52 Class II milk prices. The minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received and classified as Class II milk for each delivery period shall be computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Add to the basic formula price (3.5 percent milk) the following amount for the delivery period indicated: August, September, October, November, December, January and February, $0.70; all others $0.45.

(b) The amount computed pursuant to § 967.51 (b) shall be the price of butterfat in Class II milk.

(c) Subtract from the price computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section the amount specified in paragraph (b) of this section times 0.035, and divide the remainder by 0.965. The resulting amount shall be the price of skim milk in Class II milk: Provided, That in no event shall the price of skim milk pursuant to this subparagraph be less than the price computed pursuant to § 967.53 (b).

§ 967.53 Class III milk prices. The minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received and classified as Class III milk for each delivery period shall be computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) The price of butterfat in Class III milk shall be the producer butterfat differential computed for such delivery period pursuant to § 967.81 times 1000.

(b) The price of skim milk in Class III milk shall be computed by subtracting the hundredweight price of butterfat computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section times 0.035, from the price determined pursuant to § 967.50 (a), and divide the remainder by 0.965.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 967.60 Exempt milk. Skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I on a route in the marketing area shall not be subject to the provisions of this part if (a) such milk is priced under another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act, and (b) the person making such disposition of milk in the marketing area is subject to regulation under such other marketing agreement or order: Provided, That the handler making such disposition of milk in the marketing area shall at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require, make reports to the market administrator which shall be subject to verification by the market administrator.

§ 967.61 Diverted milk. Producer milk diverted from a handler's plant to an approved plant or to a plant not an approved plant shall be deemed to have been received by the handler for whose account such milk was diverted.

§ 967.62 Producer-handlers. Sections 967.40 to 967.46, 967.50 to 967.53, 967.70 to 967.72, and 967.80 to 967.88 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 967.63 Computation of base. Subject to the conditions set forth in § 967.64, the market administrator shall compute for each of the months of April, May, June and July a base for each producer, as follows:

(a) Divide the total pounds of milk received by a handler from each producer during the months of September, October, November and December immediately preceding, by the number of days such milk was produced (not to be less than 90 days): Provided, That any producer for whom a base has been computed, may, upon written notice to the market administrator postmarked not later than February 15 preceding, relinquish his base and be allotted a base computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Any producer who has not established a base or who elects to relinquish his base pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section shall be assigned a base for each of the months of April, May, June and July computed as follows:

(1) From the total quantity of producer milk received by handlers during the same month of the previous year, subtract the total receipts from producers who did not establish bases or who had relinquished their bases.

(2) Determine the percentage that base milk was of the remaining pounds, and subtract 10.

(3) Multiply the resulting percentage by the total pounds of milk received by a handler from the producer during the applicable month and divide the result by the number of days such milk was produced.

§ 967.64 Base rules. Any base computed pursuant to § 967.63 (a) shall be subject to the following rules:

(a) A base shall be held in the name of the producer and may be transferred only at his option.

(b) The milk to which the transferred base shall apply must be produced on the same farm from which such base was earned, and the transferor must notify the market administrator in writing on or before the last day of the month that such base is to be transferred indicating the name of the transferee, the amount of base transferred, and the effective date of the transfer; and in the event of a producer's death his base may be so transferred upon written notice to the market administrator from any member of the producer's immediate family.

(c) If a producer operates more than one farm he must establish a base with respect to the milk from each farm, and in the event such producer chooses to relinquish the base earned for one farm he must do so for all farms.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 967.70 Computation of value of producer milk. The value of producer milk received during each delivery period by each handler shall be computed by the market administrator by multiplying the pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, allocated to producer milk in each class pursuant to § 967.46, by the applicable class prices, adding together the resulting amounts, and adding the amounts computed as follows: Multiply the pounds of skim milk and butterfat subtracted pursuant to § 967.46 (e) by the respective applicable class prices.

§ 967.71 Computation of uniform price. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute the "uniform price" per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from producers as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 967.70 for all handlers who made the reports pursuant to § 967.30 except those in default in payments required pursuant to § 967.83 for the preceding delivery period;

(b) Subtract, if the weighted average butterfat test of producer milk is greater than 3.5 percent, or add, if such butterfat test is less than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by: Multiplying the amount by which such weighted average butterfat test varies from 3.5 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 967.81, and multiply the resulting amount by the hundredweight of such milk;

(c) Add an amount representing the cash balance on hand in the producer-settlement fund less the amount of unpaid obligations to handlers pursuant to § 967.84 and 967.87;

(d) For the delivery periods of August through March compute the uniform price by dividing the result computed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section by the hundredweight of producer milk included in the computations pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, and subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents for the purpose of retaining a cash balance in the producer-settlement fund to provide against errors in reports and in payments by handlers.

(e) For each of the delivery periods of April through July the market administrator shall compute uniform prices per hundredweight for base milk and for excess milk, each of 3.5 percent butterfat content, received from producers, as follows:

(1) Compute the total value on a 3.5 percent butterfat basis of excess milk included in the computations pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section by multiplying the hundredweight of such excess milk not in excess of the total quantity of Class III milk included in these computations by the price for Class III milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, and multiplying the hundredweight of such excess milk in excess of such Class III milk in series by the price for Class II milk and Class I milk, respectively, of 3.5 percent butterfat content, and adding together the resulting amounts.

(2) Compute the uniform price for excess milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content by dividing the total value of excess milk obtained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph by the total hundredweight of such milk, and adjusting to the nearest cent;

(3) Multiply the hundredweight of excess milk included in the computations pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph by the uniform price for excess milk computed pursuant to said subparagraph (2);

(4) Subtract the value computed pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph from the value computed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section and divide the result by the total hundredweight of base milk included in these computations;

(5) Compute the uniform price for base milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content by subtracting not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the result computed pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph for the purpose of retaining a cash balance in the producer-settlement fund to provide against errors in reports and in payments by handlers.

§ 967.72 Notification to handlers. On or before the 14th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall mail to each handler at his last known address, a statement showing (a) the amount and values of his milk in each class and the totals thereof; (b) the applicable minimum class prices and uniform price; (c) the amount owed by him to or the amount due him from the producer-settlement fund, pursuant to § 967.83 or § 967.84; and (d) the amount to be paid by him pursuant to §§ 967.80, 967.85, 967.86, and 967.87.

PAYMENTS

(a) On or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period, to each producer, except producers for whom payment is made to a cooperative association pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, at not less than the uniform price for the delivery periods of August through March and the uniform prices for base milk and excess milk for the delivery periods of April through July calculated pursuant to § 967.71, and adjusted by the producer butterfat differential pursuant to § 967.81, for all milk received from such producer during such delivery period and less payment to such producer made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section: Provided, That if by such date such handler has not received full payment for such delivery period pursuant to § 967.84, he may reduce such payments uniformly per hundredweight for all producers by an amount not in excess of the per hundredweight reduction in payment from the market administrator: And provided further, That such handler shall make such balance of payment to those producers to whom it is due on or before the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following that on which such balance of payment is received from the market administrator.

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, to a cooperative association with respect to milk caused to be delivered from producers' farms to such handler by such association for its account during such delivery period, not less than the value of skim milk and butterfat in such milk computed at the minimum class prices, less payments to such association made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section. For the purpose of determining the classification of skim milk and butterfat in such milk, such skim milk and butterfat shall be ratably apportioned among the quantities of skim milk and butterfat in such handler's Class I milk, Class II milk and Class III milk allocated to producer milk pursuant to § 967.46.

(c) On or before the 4th day after the end of such delivery period each handler shall pay to each producer, or to a cooperative association authorized to collect payment, not less than the amount per hundredweight provided in the schedule set forth in this paragraph, for milk received from such producer or caused to be delivered to such handler by such cooperative association during the first 15 days of such delivery period: Provided, That in the event any producer or cooperative association discontinues shipping to such handler during any delivery period, such partial payments shall not be made and full payment for all milk received from such producer or cooperative association during such delivery period shall be made on or before the 18th day after the end of such delivery period pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section:

When the uniform price or base price for the preceding delivery period is—	The amount of the partial payment shall be—
Under $1.00	$0.00
$1.00 to $1.99	1.00
$2.00 to $2.99	2.00
$3.00 to $3.99	3.00
$4.00 to $4.99	4.00
$5.00 to $5.99	5.00
$6.00 to $6.99	6.00
$7.00 and over	7.00

§ 967.81 Producer butterfat differential. In making payments pursuant to § 967.80 (a) there shall be added to or subtracted from the uniform price, for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat content in such producer milk above or below 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the average of the daily wholesale prices per pound of 92-score butter at Chicago during the delivery period as reported by the Department, by 0.12 and rounding to the nearest tenth of a cent.

§ 967.82 Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit payments made by handlers pursuant to § 967.83 and payments related thereto pursuant to § 967.87 and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to § 967.84 and payments related thereto pursuant to § 967.87.

§ 967.83 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to the market administrator the amount by which the value of producer milk received by such handler during such delivery period pursuant to § 967.70 minus the amount to be paid to a cooperative association pursuant to § 967.80 (b) is greater than the amount to be paid producers pursuant to § 967.80 (a): Provided, That with respect to milk for which a cooperative association receives payment from a handler pursuant to § 967.80 (b), such cooperative association shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period, the amount by which the utilization value of such milk is greater than the value computed at the uniform price pursuant to § 967.71 adjusted by the producer butterfat differential pursuant to § 967.81.

§ 967.84 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler the amount by which the value of producer milk received by such handler during such delivery period pursuant to § 967.70 minus the amount to be paid to a cooperative association pursuant to § 967.80 (b) is less than the amount to be paid producers pursuant to § 967.80 (a), less any unpaid obligation of such handler to the market administrator pursuant to §§ 967.83, 967.85, 967.86 and 967.87: Provided, That with respect to milk for which a cooperative association receives payment from a handler pursuant to § 967.80 (b) the market administrator shall pay to such cooperative association, on or before the 17th day after the end of such delivery period, the amount by which the utilization value of such milk is less than the value computed at the uniform price pursuant to § 967.71 adjusted by the producer butterfat differential pursuant to § 967.81: And provided further, That if the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this section, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly per hundredweight such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available.

§ 967.85 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense incurred pursuant to § 967.22 (d) each handler shall pay the market administrator, on or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period, 4 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe with respect to skim milk and butterfat received within the delivery period, in producer milk (including such handler's own production) and in other source milk (excluding milk which is subject to administrative expense of another Federal order issued pursuant to the act).

§ 967.86 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers pursuant to § 967.80 (a) shall make a deduction of 4 cents per hundredweight of milk, or such lesser deduction as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, with respect to the following:

(1) All milk received from producers (except milk of such handler's own production) at a plant not operated by a cooperative association; and

(2) All milk received at a plant operated by a cooperative association from producers who are not members of such association. Such deductions shall be paid by the handler to the market administrator on or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator for verification of weights, samples and tests of milk received from such producers and in providing for market information to such producers, such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

(b) In the case of each producer (1) who is a member of, or who has given written authorization for the rendering of marketing services and the taking of deduction therefor, to a cooperative association, (2) whose milk is received at a plant not operated by such association, and (3) for whom the Secretary determines that such association is performing the services described in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall deduct, in lieu of the deduction specified under paragraph (a) of this section, from the payments made pursuant to § 967.80 (a) the amount per hundredweight on milk authorized by such producer and shall pay over, on or before the 16th day after the end of such delivery period, such deduction to the association entitled to receive it under this paragraph.

§ 967.87 Adjustments of accounts. (a) Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts discloses errors resulting in moneys due (1) the market administrator from such handler, (2) such handler from the market administrator, or (3) any producer or cooperative association from such handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any such amount due; and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payment set forth in the provision under which such error occurred following the 5th day after such notice.

(b) An unpaid obligation of a handler or of the market administrator shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one percent per month, such interest to accrue on the 1st day of the calendar month next following the due date of such obligation and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter until such obligation is paid.

§ 967.88 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money irrespective of when such obligation arose, except an obligation involved in an action instituted before August 1, 1949, under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or before a court.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this order, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION

§ 967.90 Effective time. The provisions of this part or of any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated.

§ 967.91 Suspension or termination. The Secretary shall, whenever he finds that this part or any provision thereof, obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, terminate or suspend the operation of this part or any such provision thereof.

§ 967.92 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 967.93 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so desired by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 967.100 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

[Docket No. AO-292]

SWEET CHERRIES GROWN IN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN WASHINGTON

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of sweet cherries (hereinafter referred to as "cherries") grown in designated counties in Washington, to be effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), hereinafter referred to as the "act." Interested parties may file written exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business of the fifteenth day after publication of this recommended decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The public hearing, on the record of which the proposed marketing agreement and order (hereinafter referred to collectively as the "order") were formulated, was held at Yakima, Washington, on January 14–16, 1957, pursuant to a notice thereof which was published December 19, 1956, in the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 10178). Such notice set forth a proposed marketing agreement and order which had been presented to the Department of Agriculture by the officers and directors of the Yakima Valley Cherry Institute and the Cherry Advisory Committee, Washington State Fruit Commission, with a petition for a hearing thereon.

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing are as follows:

(1) The existence of the right to exercise Federal jurisdiction in this instance;

(2) The need for the proposed regulatory program to effectuate the declared purposes of the act;

(3) The definition of the commodity and determination of the production area to be affected by the order;

(4) The identity of the persons and transactions to be regulated; and

(5) The specific terms and provisions of the order including:

(a) Definition of terms used therein which are necessary and incidental to attain the declared objectives of the act, and including all those set forth in the notice of hearing, among which are those applicable to the following additional terms and provisions;

(b) The establishment, maintenance, composition, powers, duties, and operation of a committee which shall be the administrative agency for assisting the Secretary in administration of the program;

(c) The incurring of expenses and the levying of assessments;

(d) Authority to establish cherry marketing research and development projects;

(e) The method for regulating shipments of cherries grown in the production area;

(f) The provision of exemptions and the establishment of special regulations for cherries handled in certain types of shipments or for certain specified purposes;

(g) The requirement for inspection and certification of cherries handled;

(h) The establishment of reporting requirements for handlers;

(i) The requirement of compliance with all provisions of the order and with regulations issued pursuant thereto; and

(j) Additional terms and conditions as set forth in §§ 1022.62 through 1022.71 and published in FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 10178) on December 19, 1956, which are common to marketing agreements and orders, and certain other terms and conditions as set forth in §§ 1022.72 through 1022.74, and also published in the said issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER, which are common to marketing agreements only.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the aforementioned material issues, all of which are based on the evidence adduced at the hearing and the record thereof, are as follows:

(1) The major part of the crop of cherries produced in the designated counties of Washington comprising the "production area" is shipped in fresh market channels. The bulk of such production moves into the markets of the Midwestern and Northeastern States. Normally, two-thirds to three-fourths of such cherries moves through the terminal auction markets. Among the more important volume markets are New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Pittsburgh, and Detroit. Smaller volumes, but nonetheless important, are marketed on the West Coast. Canada is the most important export market for Washington cherries.

Ten States, other than Washington, produce cherries in commercially significant volume. These States are Oregon, California, Montana, Idaho, Colorado, Utah, Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio. From the standpoint of fresh market sales, however, Washington and California are most important. During the 5-year periods ending 1944, 1949, and 1954 Washington originated 38.8, 38.2, and 30.5 percent, respectively, and California 33.6, 34.7, and 36.6 percent, respectively, of total fresh shipments. Most of the California production is shipped before cherries begin moving from Washington. Movement from Oregon, Idaho, Utah, and Colorado takes place during the Washington shipping season. However, it was testified that normally Washington cherries constitute 75 to 80 percent of the total supply in the large Northeastern auction market cities during the period when such cherries are being shipped.

Any handling of Washington cherries in fresh market channels exerts an influence on all other handling of such cherries in fresh form. Sellers of such cherries, as of other commodities, endeavor to transact their business so as to secure the highest possible return for the quantities of cherries they have for sale. In effecting these transactions, the seller continually surveys all accessible markets in order to take advantage of the best opportunities to market the fruit. Markets within the State of Washington provide opportunities to dispose of cherries in the same manner as markets within other States, or for export; and the sale of a quantity of Washington cherries in a market within the State of Washington exerts the same influence on all other sales of such cherries as a like quantity sold in a market within another State.

The principal intrastate markets for Washington cherries are located in the cities of Seattle, Tacoma, and Spokane outside the production area. These markets take approximately 4 to 7 percent of the cherries marketed fresh each season. If shipments of cherries to markets outside the State of Washington were regulated, while those within the State of Washington were unregulated, growers and handlers would attempt to market within the State all the lower quality cherries which could not be shipped under regulation. Because of such large quantity of low quality cherries sold in markets within the State, prices for cherries in such markets would be depressed below those prevailing in markets outside the State.

The existence of a lower price level for cherries marketed within the State of Washington would tend to depress the prices for cherries sold in interstate markets. Buyers generally have ready access to market information; and knowledge of lower prices in one market is used in bargaining for cherries to be shipped into other markets, including those outside the State of Washington. As a case in point, there are business concerns who control retail outlets in Seattle, and also in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and these concerns are well aware of the price situation in both markets. Furthermore, with large quantities of poor quality cherries available for sale in markets within the State of Washington, there would be little opportunity to sell in such markets cherries meeting the requirements of the regulations established. The larger quantity of cherries, which would be required to be sold in interstate markets under such circumstances, would also tend to lower the level of prices in the interstate markets.

Itinerant truckers move quantities of cherries mainly to intrastate markets. However, it is normal practice for such persons to sell cherries in the markets where prices are most favorable. It is more than probable that below-grade shipments destined for the Seattle-Tacoma area or to Spokane would be diverted to Portland, Oregon, or to other markets outside the State if prices were more favorable there than in markets within the State of Washington. In fact, it is a customary practice to ship fruit from the production area to Spokane and reship it from there to Idaho, Montana, or to Canada. Under these circumstances, it would be virtually impossible to effect compliance with regulations governing interstate shipments if shipments to markets within the State were unregulated.

Hence, it is concluded that the movement and sale of Washington cherries, whether to a market withih the State of Washington or outside thereof, affect prices of all cherries grown in the production area. Therefore, it is hereby found that all handling of such cherries grown in the production area are either in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce. However, the quantity of cherries handled for consumption within the production area is relatively inconsequential when compared with the total quantity handled; and because of the nearness to the source of supply, it would be administratively impracticable to regulate the handling of cherries for consumption within such area. With this one exception, and except as hereinafter otherwise provided, all handling of cherries grown in the production area should be subject to the authority of the act and of the order.

(2) The production of Washington cherries, though varying from year to year, ranged steadily upward during the 15-year period ending with the 1949 season. During the 5-year periods ending 1939, 1944, and 1949, average annual production was 15,560, 24,300, and 29,580 tons, respectively. In 1950 the trees were damaged by cold weather and the crop dropped to 16,500 tons, and for the 5-year period ending 1954, average annual production was 17,860 tons. By 1955 the orchards had recovered, and 23,500 tons were produced.

Reflecting the wartime demand for food, average equivalent packinghouse door prices per ton for Washington cherries for fresh market rose from $111.00 per ton in 1941 to $312.00 per ton in 1944. In 1945, 1946, 1947, and 1948, such prices were $269.00, $288.00, $339.00, and $258.00, respectively. In 1949 such price was $142.00 per ton. With the reduction of the crop during the 5-year period ending in 1954, prices increased; and prices during such period averaged $279.00 per ton. In 1955 with a near normal crop of 23,500 tons, equivalent packinghouse door returns to growers dropped to $199.00 per ton. The equivalent parity price, packinghouse door, for the 1955 season for Washington cherries was $292.00 per ton.

Prices for cherries generally are high at the beginning of the season, and producers and handlers are anxious to start shipping in order to take advantage of such prices. Under such circumstances, cherries in early shipments often have not been sufficiently mature to give consumers' satisfaction, and it is believed that consumers' dissatisfaction stemming from purchase and consumption of such cherries curtails demand for cherries throughout the remainder of the season. No State requirements have been established with respect to uniformity of grade, size, quality, or containers. Handlers who have made a conscientious effort to ship only good quality cherries in an effort to get a fair return often find that other handlers have shipped cherries of poor grades and smaller sizes and have so depressed the market that fair returns were impossible to obtain.

The harvesting and packing of cherries, as compared with most other tree fruit crops, are extremely expensive operations. It was testified at the hearing that the cost of picking and handling cherries to the packing plant was $80.00 to $100.00 per ton. The cost of packing cherries in the 15-pound double-row-faced pack, which is the dominant pack shipped to the terminal auction markets, was stated as $2.00 per container. (To pack cherries in this manner requires the placing, by hand, of two layers of cherries in symmetrical rows in the container while it is upside down, after which the remaining cherries are placed in at random, and the bottom nailed in place. When the container is opened the "face" is on top.) In addition to being a most expensive method of packing, this method creates a bottleneck in the packing plants, because it ties up the packing facilities, and slows down movement. Cherries must be moved rapidly after they are picked from the trees in order to have them reach the market while the stems are green and the fruit still has the attractive appearance necessary to create impulses to buy on the part of consumers. It was testified that the bottleneck created by the double row-faced pack had resulted in considerable deterioration of cherries stacked in field containers at the packing houses waiting to be packed for shipment. Such deteriorated cherries are generally considered unsuitable for packing in row-faced packs, and it has been a practice to ship such deteriorated cherries and other low quality cherries in loose packs. Such practice has established a poor reputation for loose packed cherries because buyers associate such packs with poor quality. This has been a severe handicap to the industry in its efforts to overcome cost problems which are aggravated by increased expense of packing materials, labor, transportation, and other marketing charges. Such costs are almost prohibitive to achievement of wide distribution of cherries. Industry efforts to shift to shipment of good quality cherries in the less expensive loose packs have been largely defeated due to lack of buyer acceptance stemming from the reputation for poor quality cherries in such packs. In order to promote the orderly marketing of cherries and to achieve the wide distribution needed to dispose of the crop at reasonable returns to growers, it is necessary to assure buyers of consistently uniform good quality cherries in all types of packs. The establishment of regulations such as are contemplated under the order would provide a method whereby such orderly marketing could be promoted, and, this would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Handlers, also have varied the dimensions of containers, presumably in order to gain a competitive advantage over others. Containers of a capacity of 12, 15, and 20 pounds have through useage become almost standard throughout the industry. However, there has developed a 10-pound container as a variation of the 12-pound, and an 18-pound as a variation of the 20-pound container. The use of containers which vary only slightly from each other creates unstable marketing conditions in that the difference in dimensions of such containers is such that a smaller container may be substituted for a larger one without customers being aware that it contains less fruit. Restrictions on the size, capacity, dimensions, and pack of containers used in the marketing of Washington cherries would enable buyers and handlers alike to know the exact quantity of cherries covered by prices quoted and thereby tend to increase trade confidence and stability in the marketing of the fruit.

Prices of Washington cherries and total returns to the growers of such fruit could be augmented by restricting shipments in fresh market channels to cherries of desirable maturity, grade, size, and quality and limiting the containers used in making such shipments. When supplies of cherries are heavy, fruit of inferior grades and qualities, or of undesirable maturity or size, may be sold only at discounts, and, since competition in the marketing of cherries is based to a considerable extent on price, such discount sales tend to depress prices for all cherries being marketed. Restrictions on the shipment of such discounted fruit would, therefore, tend to increase prices for good quality cherries. Moreover, shipments of cherries which are of inferior grade or quality, or of undesirable size or maturity, often do not sell at prices covering even the cash costs of harvesting and marketing. Restrictions on the shipment of such fruit would not only improve the grade, size, and quality of cherries marketed and promote buyer confidence in Washington cherries, but would also improve the average returns to growers by preventing losses incurred through shipment of undesirable fruit. Moreover, the shipment of very poor quality cherries, including culls, immature fruit, extremely small sizes, and deteriorated fruit is rarely ever in the interest of consumers or producers. Cherries of such poor quality are not a value to the consumer because of poor flavor and excessive waste. Shipment of such cherries results in consumer dissatisfaction and destruction of the reputation of quality for Washington cherries. Even when the season average price is above the parity level it is not in the public interest to ship such poor quality cherries.

Therefore, it is concluded that the establishment of the order, providing for the regulation of maturity, grade, size, and quality of shipments of Washington cherries, and for the establishment of uniform containers to be used for such shipments, is necessary to effectuate the declared purposes of the act. Also, the establishment and maintenance in effect of minimum standards of quality and maturity, when prices are above the parity level, will effectuate such orderly marketing of Washington cherries as will be in the public interest. The objective under such order is the tailoring of the supply of cherries available for sale in fresh market channels to the demand in such outlet so that the fruit thus made available to buyers will be packaged uniformly and be of desirable maturity, grade, size, and quality. Such limitations on shipments of Washington cherries should contribute to the establishment of more orderly marketing conditions for such fruit and tend to increase the demand therefor.

(3) The term "cherries" should be defined in the order to identify the commodity to be regulated thereunder. Such term, as used in the order, refers to all varieties of cherries, as hereinafter defined, classified botanically as Prunus avium. Cherries are readily distinguished from other fruits, and the term has a specific meaning to all producers and handlers of the commodity in the production area and to those who purchase and distribute in the receiving markets cherries grown in the production area.

The term "varieties" should be defined in the order, as hereinafter set forth, since it is proposed to provide authority in the order for issuance of separate regulations for different varieties. The principal varieties of cherries grown in the production area are Bing and Lambert. Each variety of cherries is a classification or subdivision of Prunus avium and possesses definitive characteristics which serve to distinguish it. Recognition of different varieties of cherries is common throughout the production area and the distributing trade, and there is little likelihood that one variety would be confused with another.

A definition of the term "production area" should be incorporated into the order as a means of delineating the area within which cherries must be grown for the handling thereof to be subject to regulation. Such term should embrace all of the territory within the boundaries of the Counties of Okanogan, Chelan, Douglas, Grant, Yakima, and Benton within the State of Washington. Such area includes the Wenatchee and Yakima valleys within which practically all of the commercial crop of Washington cherries is produced. The cherries produced for market within this area are of the same varieties and are marketed at approximately the same time and compete with each other in the markets. All the cherries shipped to market from the production area are prepared for market in packing facilities located within such area. There are no cherries produced outside the production area and brought into such area for preparation for market. To exclude any portion of the production area as defined would tend to defeat the purposes of the order, in that cherries from any such excluded portion which do not meet regulations applicable to regulated fruit could then be marketed free from regulations and thereby depress the prices of the regulated cherries grown in the remainder of such area. Moreover, cherries produced in such excluded portion would probably have to be brought into the regulated area for preparation for market and this would lead to confusion and difficulty in enforcing regulations. Hence, it is concluded that the production area as hereinafter defined is the smallest regional production area that is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act.

(4) The term "handler" should be defined as being synonymous with "shipper" and to identify the persons who handle cherries in the manner described and set forth in the definition of "handle," because such persons are to be subject to the order and regulations authorized thereunder. A handler should include any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit which handles cherries. Such persons are responsible, among other things, for the grade, size, quality, and maturity of the cherries they place, or cause to be placed, in the current of commerce between the production area and any point outside thereof whether by delivery to transportation agencies or to the consignees or purchasers of the fruit, or which are transported to market or sold; and such persons should therefore be considered as handlers. However, common or contract carriers of cherries they do not own should not be considered as handlers, even though they transport cherries, for the reason that these agencies transport cherries for a monetary consideration and do not have a proprietary interest in the commodity or any control over the grade, size, quality, or maturity thereof.

The definition of the term "handler" should apply to any person, including a producer, when such person performs any handling activities within the scope of the term "handle." It should include not only the first handler, but each succeeding handler who performs any such handling activities, so as to assure that all such handling of cherries will be in accordance with the order and regulations thereunder. With respect to handlers who conduct their businesses other than as individuals (e. g., firms that have sales managers or packinghouse managers), any handling activities engaged in by employees or officers of such handlers should be construed as handling caused by the principal company, as "handler." Hence, the term "handler" would cover the owner of a firm even though such person does not personally negotiate the sale or transport the cherries.

Such term should also include, in addition to the owner and officers, any other individual of a firm handling cherries who, in a supervisory capacity, is directly responsible for, and consequently causes, the sale or transportation of the commodity. Therefore, a handler would mean any person (except a common or contract carrier of cherries owned by another person) who handles cherries or causes cherries to be handled. In other words, the term "handler" should include not only persons who themselves sell or transport cherries, but also those persons who, although they do not themselves sell or transport cherries, nevertheless cause their sale or transportation. All persons coming within the meaning of such term should be responsible for complying with the obligations imposed by or pursuant to the order so as to assure that all cherries will be properly handled.

The term "handle" should be defined to identify those activities which it is necessary to regulate in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Such activities include all phases of selling and transporting which place or continue cherries in commerce from any point in the production area to any point outside thereof. Handling of cherries under the order would begin after the cherries have been removed from the tree and include each of the successive selling or transporting activities. The performance of any one or more of these activities, such as selling, consigning, delivering, or transporting, by any person either directly or through others, should constitute handling. In order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, each such person should be required to limit such handling of cherries to fruit which conforms to the applicable regulations established under the order.

It is common practice for growers to deliver their cherries to persons having facilities for packing and otherwise preparing the fruit for market. The grower, in such instance, properly relies on the person preparing the cherries for market to see that the fruit which is thereafter shipped meets all applicable requirements for marketing. Movement within the production area from the orchard to the place within the production area where the cherries will be prepared for market and activity in connection with such preparation should not be covered as handling subject to regulation. These actions, whenever they are performed, are, of necessity, preliminary to the handling, i. e., selling, consigning, delivering, and transporting of cherries. It would unnecessarily complicate the administration of the program to require persons engaged in the preparation of cherries for market to meet the requirements of regulations prior to such preparation. Therefore, such activities should not be included within the definition of handle.

Some cherries are sold at the orchard and at packinghouses to persons—itinerant truckers and others—who transport the cherries from such points to markets outside the production area. The selling or delivery of cherries to such persons, and the subsequent movement to points outside the production area, whether within or outside the State, are handling transactions. Any person who engages in any such transaction, whether a grower, packinghouse operator, trucker, or otherwise, should therefore be considered as a handler under the order by virtue of such transaction and subject to any rules and regulations pursuant thereto. Each such person should have the responsibility for assuring himself that the cherries he so handles meet all applicable regulations in effect at the time of handling and that the cherries have been inspected and certified as required under the order. Compliance with regulations which are authorized by the order can readily be determined by the person who is grading or preparing the cherries for market. The primary responsibility for determining that cherries in any shipment conform to applicable regulations should rest with the person who places, or causes to be placed, the cherries in the current of commerce between the production area and any point outside thereof. In most cases, such person will be the one who graded, or at least was responsible for grading or preparing such cherries for market. Of course, all subsequent handlers also should have the responsibility for seeing that any maturity, grade, size, quality, and any other regulations pertaining to such cherries are met at the time such persons handle the cherries. A very small quantity of cherries is handled for consumption within the production area. Such handling directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce, as hereinbefore noted. However, the quantity is so small, and the difficulty of enforcing regulations for cherries so marketed would be so great, that such handling of cherries should not be regulated. As all handling of cherries, except as indicated herein and except for the handling of cherries specifically exempted from regulation under the act or the order, directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce, it is concluded that the handling of all such cherries, with the exceptions hereinbefore noted, should be subject to the order and any regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(5) (a) Certain terms applying to specific individuals, agencies, legislation, concepts, or things are used throughout the order. These terms should be defined for the purpose of designating specifically their applicability and establishing appropriate limitations on their respective meanings wherever they are used.

The definition of "Secretary" should include not only the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, the official charged by law with the responsibility for programs of this nature, but also, in order to recognize the fact that it is physically impossible for him to perform personally all functions and duties imposed upon him by law, any other officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is, or who may hereafter be, authorized to act in his stead.

The definition of "act" provides the correct legal citations for the statute pursuant to which the proposed regulatory program is to be operative and avoids the need for referring to these citations.

The definition of "person" follows the definition of that term as set forth in the act, and will insure that it will have the same meaning as it has in the act.

The term "fiscal period" should be defined to set forth the period with respect to which financial records of the Washington Cherry Marketing Committee—the agency which will administer the program locally—are to be maintained. At the present time it is desirable to establish a 12-month period ending March 31 as a fiscal period. Such a period would fix the end of one fiscal period and the beginning of the next at a time of inactivity in the marketing of cherries. This would facilitate fixing the term of office of members and alternates to coincide with such period as it would allow sufficient time prior to the time shipments begin for the committee to organize and develop information necessary to its functioning during the ensuing year, and would still insure that a minimum of expense would be incurred during a fiscal period prior to the time assessment income is available to defray such expenses. However, it was testified that for reasons not now apparent it may be desirable at some future time to establish a fiscal period other than one ending March 31, and that authority should be included in the order to provide for such establishment subject to approval of the Secretary pursuant to recommendations of the committee. Therefore, it is concluded that such term should be defined as hereinafter set forth to provide this flexibility.

A definition of "committee" should be incorporated in the order to identify the administrative agency established under the provisions of the program. Such committee is authorized by the act, and the definition thereof, as hereinafter set forth, is merely to avoid the necessity of repeating its full name each time it is referred to.

Definitions of "grade" and "size" should be incorporated in the order to provide a basis for expressing grade and size limitations thereunder, and thus to enable persons affected thereby to ascertain the extent and application of grade and size limitations. "Grade" should be defined as any one or more of the established grades of cherries as defined and set forth in (1) "United States Standards for Sweet Cherries," issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, effective May 14, 1956, which standards were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 2371), or (2) Standards for cherries issued by the State of Washington, or (3) amendments to any grades set forth in either of such standards, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon. Such definition would provide the flexibility necessary to cope with the possible variations in cherries due to detrimental effects of weather or other possible hazards affecting the crop. The State of Washington has not as yet issued standards for cherries. The United States Standards for cherries have been recently revised, however, and should provide appropriate bases for describing grade limitations. The cherry industry is contemplating a request to the State of Washington to develop and issue standards for cherries.

Sizes of cherries are commonly referred to in the production area by row count, i. e., the number of cherries of a uniform size necessary to pack row-faced across a 10½-inch inside width container. Hence, the diameter of the cherries determines the number of rows that may be packed in such container. Cherry sizers, consisting of plastic or metal cards with holes marked to denote the different row sizes, are commonly used to ascertain the size of cherries, the diameter of a specific hole in the card being equivalent to the space occupied in a row in the container by a cherry of that particular row size. Since cherries are shipped other than row-faced in containers, and diameter is the main factor determining size, it is concluded that the term "size" should be defined in terms of diameter or such other specifications as may be recommended by the committee and approved by the Secretary.

The term "pack" is commonly used throughout the cherry trade and refers to a combination of factors relating to the grade, size, quality, and quantity of cherries in a particular type and size of container and to the arrangement of the cherries within that container. For example, "U. S. No. 1, 12-row, 15-pound double-faced pack" is considered by the cherry trade as a specific pack. "U. S. No. 1" describes the grade, "12-row," the size, and "15-pound double-faced," the container, quantity of cherries, and the arrangement of the cherries within the container. Under certain circumstances, it may be desirable to regulate shipments of cherries on the basis of particular grades or sizes, or both, that may be shipped in a specific container or containers and to specify the arrangement of the fruit within the container. Hence, it is concluded that "pack" should be defined as follows: "Pack" means the specific arrangement, size, weight, count, or grade of a quantity of cherries in a particular type and size of container.

The term "grower" should be synonymous with "producer" and should be defined to include any person who is engaged, within the production area, in the production of cherries for market and who has a proprietary interest therein. A definition of the term grower is necessary for such determinations as eligibility to vote for, and to serve as, a grower or alternate grower member on the Washington Cherry Marketing Committee and for other reasons. Each business unit (such as a corporation, partnership, or community property arrangement) engaged in the production of cherries for market should, when voting for nominees for membership on the committee, be entitled to only one vote. The term "grower" should, therefore, be defined as hereinafter set forth.

"District" should be defined as set forth in the order to provide a basis for the nomination and selection of committee members. The districts (i. e., the geographical divisions of the production area as established and as set forth in the order) represent the best basis which could be devised at this time for providing a fair, adequate, and equitable representation on the committee. The provision for redistricting is desirable because it allows the committee and the Secretary to consider, from time to time, whether the basis for representation on the committee should be improved.

"Export" should be defined in the order as any shipment of cherries beyond the boundaries of the continental United States. Shipments of cherries to points outside of the continental United States may be of different grades, sizes, or qualities than those shipped to domestic markets. This results from different market demands as between domestic and other markets. Therefore, the order should provide authority permitting different or special regulations, or even no regulations, when warranted, with respect to such shipments out of the United States.

The term "container" should be defined in the order to mean a box, bag, crate, lug, basket, carton, package, or any other type of receptacle used in the packaging, or handling of cherries. The definition of the term is needed to serve as a basis for differentiation among the various shipping receptacles, in which cherries are sold or move to market, for which different regulations could be applicable.

(b) It is desirable to establish an agency to administer the order locally under and pursuant to the act, as an aid to the Secretary in carrying out the declared policy of the act. The term "Washington Cherry Marketing Committee" is a proper identification of the agency and reflects the character thereof. It should be composed of 15 members, of whom 10 should represent growers and 5 should represent handlers. Alternate members should be provided to act in the place and stead of the members. Such a committee would be large enough to provide representation to all segments of the industry. The foregoing division of the members between growers and handlers would provide suitable grower representation and handler experience and information. A majority of the committee should consist of producers because the program is designed to benefit producers. The provision for handler members tends to give balance to the committee by providing the handler experience and marketing information necessary to the development of economically sound regulation of cherry shipments. Each handler member should be either a handler, an officer, or an employee of a handler, as handlers often are corporations and would be precluded from having representation on the committee unless officers and employees of handlers were authorized to serve as members of the committee. There are also growers in the production area which are corporations and their officers and employees should be similarly eligible for membership on the committee. Two handler members and four grower members should represent District 1. Three handler members and six grower members should represent District 2. Such representation recognizes to the extent practicable the relationship of the volume of production in the two districts. Provision to reapportion membership on the committee among districts should be provided so that, if it becomes apparent that through shifts in production, reestablishment of districts, or other reasons such representation is inappropriate, the Secretary may, upon recommendation of the committee, make such reapportionment as he finds necessary.

Each grower member of the committee and his alternate should be a producer, or an officer or employee of a corporate grower, of cherries in the district for which selected. Each handler member and his alternate should be a handler, or an officer or employee of a handler in the district for which selected. Persons with such qualifications should be intimately acquainted with the problems of producing or marketing cherries grown in such district and may be expected to present accurately the problems incident to the production or handling of cherries grown in that district.

The term of office of committee members and alternates under the proposed program should be for two years beginning on the first day of April and ending on March 31. This will establish an orderly procedure for changing the membership of the committee. The term of office should be for two years so that members and alternates will have adequate time to familiarize themselves with the operation of the program and thus be in a position to render the most effective service assisting the Secretary to carry out the declared policy of the act. The beginning of each term of office will occur during a period prior to the commencement of a marketing season and hence allow adequate time for the committee to organize and start operating.

Provision should be made in the order for staggered terms of office of committee members and alternates. Under this provision seven members of the committee in office on March 31 would be replaced one year and eight members the next year. The establishment of such staggered terms should provide for more efficient administration of the program, in that members and alternates constituting new committee membership should benefit from the guidance of experienced members who carry over. The experienced members will help insure continuity of the policies and procedures relating to the administration of the proposed order; and such continuity should contribute materially to the successful administration of the marketing program. To provide a basis for starting staggered terms of office, the terms of one-half of the initial grower members and alternates in each district and of one handler member and his alternate in each district should be from the time of appointment through the following March 31 and of the other eight committee members and alternates from the time of appointment through the second following March 31. Successor members and alternates should be appointed for 2-year terms as herein provided. Committee members and alternates should serve during the term of office for which selected, and until their successors are selected and have qualified to insure continuity of committee operations.

A procedure for the election by growers and handlers of nominees for membership on the committee should be prescribed in the order to assist the Secretary in his selection of members and alternate members of the committee. It is recognized that the Secretary is vested with authority under the act to select the committee members; and the nomination of prospective members and alternate members at meetings of growers and handlers in the respective districts is a practical method of providing the Secretary with the names of the persons which the industry desires to serve on the committee.

Nomination meetings for the purpose of electing nominees for members of the committee and their alternates should be held or caused to be held by the committee on or before March 1 of each year. Insofar as possible, the committee should schedule such nomination meetings at such times and places as will result in maximum grower and handler participation. By having such nomination meetings not later than March 1 each year, the committee will be in a position to prepare and submit nomination lists to the Secretary in time for the Secretary to select the members and alternate members of the new committee prior to the expiration of the terms of office of the existing committee members. The notice of hearing proposed that nomination meetings be held not later than March 15 of each year. However, it was testified that such nomination meetings should be held in sufficient time to assure that the names of nominees would be before the Secretary in time for him to make his selection of members and alternates prior to the beginning of the new term of office, beginning on April 1. Inasmuch as March 15 would allow approximately only 2 weeks for the committee to prepare and submit nomination lists and for the Secretary to review such nominations and make his selection, it is concluded that such nomination meetings should be held not later than March 1.

As the administrative committee will not be in a position to act until after the selection by the Secretary of its initial members, the order should provide a procedure for the selection of the initial members. The Secretary may appropriately select the initial grower and handler committee members and alternates from nominations which may be made by growers and handlers, respectively, or appropriate groups thereof, or from other eligible persons; and the order should so provide. In order that the initial membership of the committee may be selected as soon as possible after the approval of the program, it should be required that such nominations be submitted not later than the effective date thereof.

The order should provide that only growers who are present at the nomination meetings, or corporate growers who are represented at such meetings by duly authorized officers or employees, may participate in designating nominees for grower members and alternates; and only handlers present at nomination meetings or handlers represented at such meetings by duly authorized officers or employees may participate in the nomination of handler members and alternates. These restrictions are necessary in order to insure that the interests of each group are properly safeguarded and that the nominee truly reflects the views of the group which he is selected to represent.

Each grower and handler should have a similar and equitable voice in the election of nominees. Hence, if a person is qualified to vote either as a grower or a handler, he may select the group with which he wishes to participate. Such a person may not vote both as a grower and as a handler because this would enable him to participate in nominations to a greater degree than persons who are growers only or handlers only. Also, each grower and handler should be limited to one vote on behalf of himself, his partners, agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and representatives, in designating nominees for committee members and alternates regardless of the size of any such person's operation or the number of districts in which he produces or handles cherries. If a grower or handler could cast more than one vote by reason of operating in more than one district, such grower or handler would have an advantage in selecting nominees over growers or handlers operating in only one district. Also, if more than one vote was permitted, there is a possibility that large growers or handlers could dominate the elections by means of their partners, agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and representatives, and nominate growers and handlers not favored by a majority of growers or of handlers. An eligible grower's or handler's privilege of casting only one vote should be construed to mean that one vote may be case for each applicable position to be filled.

A grower who produces cherries in both districts should be permitted to select the district in which he will vote. He will thus be able to vote for nominees where he believes his best interest lies. Similarly, a handler, who handles cherries both in District 1 and District 2 of the production area, should be permitted to select either one of such districts in which to vote for nominees.

In order that there will be an administrative agency in existence at all times to administer the order, the Secretary should be authorized to select committee members and alternates without regard to nomination if, for any reason, nominations are not submitted to him in conformance with the procedure prescribed herein. Such selection should, of course, be on the basis of the representation provided in the order so that the composition of the committee will at all times continue as prescribed in the order.

Each person selected by the Secretary as a committee member or alternate should qualify by filing with the Secretary a written acceptance of his willingness and intention to serve in such capacity. This requirement is necessary so that the Secretary will know whether or not the position has been filled. Such acceptance should be filed promptly after the notification of appointment so that the composition of the committee will not be delayed unduly.

Provision should be made as set forth in the order for the filling of any vacancies on the committee, including selection by the Secretary without regard to nominations where such nominations are not made as prescribed, in order to provide for maintaining a full membership on the committee.

The committee should be given those specific powers which are set forth in section 8c (7) (C) of the act. Such powers are necessary to enable an administrative agency of this character to function.

The committee's duties, as set forth in the order, are necessary for the discharge of its responsibilities. These duties are generally similar to those specified for administrative agencies under other programs of this character. It is intended that any activities undertaken by the members of the committee will be confined to those which reasonably are necessary for the committee to carry out its responsibilities as prescribed in the program. It should be recognized that these specified duties are not necessarily all inclusive, in that it may develop that there are other duties which the committee may need to perform.

With respect to the provision set forth in § 1022.31 (m) providing for redistricting and reapportionment of membership on the committee, such provision is necessary to enable the committee and the Secretary to consider from time to time whether the basis for representation has changed or could be improved and how such improvement should be made. The division of the production area into the two districts set forth in the order is a logical one at the present time from the standpoint of production, and this is the division commonly made by growers, handlers, and State agencies. However, shifts or other changes which may take place in the future due to increased or decreased production cannot be foreseen. Additional land suitable for cherry production is being made available within the production area through irrigation. Decreased acreage may result from damage caused by weather hazards. Therefore it is desirable to provide flexibility of operation so that if it should be in the best interests of the administration of the order to change the boundaries of districts, change the number of districts, or reapportion the representation on the committee among districts, the committee may so recommend; and the Secretary may take such action.

At least 12 members of the committee, or alternates acting for members, should be present at any meeting in order for the committee to make any decisions; and all decisions of the committee should require a minimum of 9 concurring votes. These provisions will assure that the actions of the committee will be considered by a good representation of its membership and approved by a majority of the committee. The order should provide that in the event neither member nor his alternate is unable to attend a meeting, such member or the committee may designate any other alternate member from the same district and group who is not acting as a member to serve in such member's place and stead.

In addition to meetings held where the committee is assembled in one place, the committee should be authorized to hold simultaneous meetings of its members assembled at two or more designated places wherein provision has been made for communication between all such groups and loudspeaker receivers made available so that each member may participate in the discussion and other actions the same as if the committee were assembled in one place. This should encourage attendance at meetings and may possibly facilitate some savings in expense through reduced travel time and distance. Such meeting should be considered as an assembled meeting. The committee should be authorized to vote by telephone, telegraph, or other means of communication when a matter to be considered is so routine that it would be unreasonable to call an assembled meeting or when rapid action is necessary because of an emergency. Any votes cast in this fashion should be confirmed promptly in writing to provide a written record of the votes so cast. In case of an assembled meeting, however, all votes should be cast in person.

It is appropriate that the members and alternates of the committee may receive compensation for the time spent in attending committee meetings. The order authorizes a maximum of $10.00 per day for this purpose, since the time so spent is usually at financial sacrifice to their personal businesses. While the payment of an amount not to exceed $10.00 per day will not in most cases fully compensate for the time such members and alternates spend away from their personal businesses, there are producers and handlers in the production area who are willing to represent the industry by serving on the committee regardless of the personal sacrifice involved. The order also should provide for reimbursement of actual out-of-pocket reasonable expenses incurred on committee business, since it would be unfair to request the members and alternates to pay for such expenses incurred in the interest of all cherry growers and handlers in the production area.

In order for an alternate to adequately represent his district at any committee meeting in place of an absent member, it may be desirable that he should have attended previous meetings along with the member, so as to have a full understanding of all background discussions leading up to action that may be taken at the meeting. Also, an alternate may, in future years, be selected as a member on the committee; and to this extent, attendance at meetings by alternate members could be helpful. Although only committee members, and alternates acting as members, have authority to vote on actions taken by the committee, it is often important for the committee to obtain as wide a representation as practical of producer and handler attitudes toward a proposed regulation or other matter. Therefore, the order should provide that the committee, at its discretion may request the attendance of alternate members at any or all meetings, notwithstanding the expected or actual presence of the respective members, when a situation so warrants. The same compensation and reimbursement that are available to members should be made available also to alternate members when they are so requested and attend such meetings as alternates.

Provision should be made in the order whereby each committee will prepare an annual report prior to the end of each fiscal period. Such reports would provide committee members, the industry, and the Secretary with a record of the annual operations of the program and would provide a means for evaluation of the program and the need for any changes therein.

(c) The committee should be authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds are reasonable and likely to be incurred by it during each fiscal period for its maintenance and functioning and for such other purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions of the order, determine to be appropriate. The funds to cover the expenses of the committee should be obtained through the levying of assessments on handlers. The act specifically authorizes the Secretary to approve the incurring of such expenses by an administrative agency, such as the Washington Cherry Marketing Committee, and requires that each marketing program of this nature contain provisions requiring handlers to pay pro rata the necessary expenses. Moreover, in order to assure the continuance of the committee, the payment of assessments should be required even if particular provisions of the order are suspended or become inoperative.

Each handler should pay to the committee upon demand with respect to all cherries handled by him as the first handler thereof his pro rata share of such expenses which the Secretary finds are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the committee during each fiscal period. Each handler's share of such expenses should be equal to the ratio between the total quantity of cherries handled by him as the first handler thereof during the applicable fiscal period and the total quantity of cherries so handled by all handlers during the same fiscal period. In this way, payments by handlers of assessments would be proportionate to the respective quantities of cherries handled by each handler and assessments would be levied on the same cherries only once.

In order to provide funds for the administration of this program prior to the time assessment income becomes available during the fiscal period, the committee should be authorized to accept advance payments of assessments from handlers and also, when such action is deemed to be desirable, to borrow money for such purpose. The provision for the acceptance by the administrative agency of advance assessment payments is included in other marketing agreements and orders, and has been found to be a satisfactory and desirable method of providing funds to cover costs of operation prior to the time when assessment collections are being made in an appreciable amount. There was no objection offered at the hearing to indicate that any person was opposed to the proposal for the committee to borrow a limited sum of money each fiscal period. During years of normal growing conditions, revenue available to the committee from assessments would provide the means for the repayment of any such loan. In addition, as hereinafter set forth, provision should be made for increasing the rate of assessment in the event it should develop that due to some unforeseen circumstances the assessment income under the then prevailing rate is not sufficient to cover the expenses incurred.

The committee should be required to prepare a budget at the beginning of each fiscal period, and as often as may be necessary thereafter, showing estimates of income and expenditures necessary for the administration of the proposed order for such period. Each such budget should be presented to the Secretary with an analysis of its components and explanation thereof in the form of a report on such budget. It is desirable that the committee should recommend a rate of assessment to the Secretary which should be designed to bring in during each fiscal period sufficient income to cover authorized expenses incurred by the committee.

The rate of assessment should be established by the Secretary on the basis of the committee's recommendation, or other available information, so as to assure the imposition of such assessments as are consistent with the act. Such rate should be fixed on a fair and equitable unit basis, such as a container, ton, or other quantity measurement.

The Secretary should have the authority, at any time during a fiscal period, or thereafter, to increase the rate of assessment when necessary to obtain sufficient funds to cover any later finding by the Secretary relative to the expenses of the committee applicable to such period. Since the act requires that administrative expenses shall be paid by all handlers pro rata, it is necessary that any increased rate apply retroactively against all cherries handled during the particular fiscal period.

Handlers should be entitled to a proportionate refund of any excess assessments which remain at the end of a fiscal period. Such refund should be credited to each such handler against the operations of the following fiscal period so as to provide the committee with operating funds prior to the start of the ensuing shipping season; but, if a handler should demand payment of any such credit, the proportionate refund should be paid to him. However, good business practice requires that any such refund may be applied by the committee first to any outstanding obligations due the committee from any person who has paid in excess of his pro rata share of expenses.

The notice of hearing set forth a proposal to authorize the Secretary, upon recommendation of the committee, to establish a reserve fund from excess assessments remaining at the end of a fiscal period. Such fund would be carried over into following periods and used upon termination of the order to liquidate the affairs of the committee. However, it was testified at the hearing that in view of the weather hazards to which production of cherries is subject, as well as the fact that a large proportion of the committee's expenses in any fiscal period will be incurred prior to the time assessment income is available to cover such expense, that the authority for establishment and use of such a reserve fund should be broadened to cover expenses during deficit collection periods such as the pre-season shipping period and during periods of crop failure or near crop failure.

In most years shipment of cherries begins about the middle of June and is completed by the middle of August. The fiscal period starts on April 1, and, therefore, the committee must operate during April, May, and the first half of June with no current assessment income. The period just prior to the shipping season will be the period of greatest activity as the committee will be surveying the crop and marketing situation, holding meetings to develop a marketing policy and to develop recommendations for regulations. This means that in all probability one-third to one-half the committee's expenses will ordinarily be incurred before any current fiscal period income is collected.

An operating reserve is an important instrument for the continued effective operation of the order over a period of years. The production area is very susceptible to rain and hail storms just prior to and during the harvesting period, and to frost damage at the time of bloom and fruit set. Rain at harvest time causes cracking of the cherries and often reduces materially the volume of cherries suitable for shipment. Severe freezes during the winter often damage trees and reduce the crop in succeeding years. The assessment rates under the program are set at the beginning of the season for a crop of an estimated volume of shipments. Should crop failure or partial crop failure reduce the crop so that assessment income falls below expenses, it would be necessary for handlers in light of the reduced crop to cover the deficit. When consignee handlers have already made returns to growers, it would be very difficult for them to obtain from such growers the additional funds required to meet the increase in assessment that would be necessary. It also would constitute an extra burden on the industry to increase the assessment rate after disasters such as these have occurred.

Because of the hazards incident to the production of cherries, and the difficulties thus expected to be encountered in financing operations of the program during some years, it would be desirable to establish an operating reserve for use during any such year. Evidence presented at the hearing was to the effect that nearly all of the production of cherries is marketed year after year by the same handlers and that it would be equitable to all handlers, and far less burdensome to them, to contribute to the establishment of such an operating reserve during years of normal production rather than to be required to pay a high rate of assessment occasioned by a deficit during a year when the crop is materially reduced. The proposed reserve fund should be built up to the desirable amount as rapidly as possible, since a material reduction of the crop could occur at any time. Discretion should be used, however, so as not to impose excessively high assessments. It was indicated that it would be appropriate, and in keeping with the desires of the industry, to include in the annual budget a specific amount for the reserve fund as well as to use any other excess assessment funds available at the end of a fiscal period for this purpose. In order that such reserve funds not be accumulated beyond a reasonable amount, it was proposed that a limit of approximately one fiscal period's expense be provided. It was shown that such an amount should be sufficient to cover any foreseeable need, since some income from assessment may be expected during any year. After the reserve has been built up to that amount, excess assessment income should thereafter be returned to the handlers entitled to refunds in accordance with the provisions of the order. However, in keeping with the need for the reserve fund, whenever any portion of it is used, the full amount withdrawn should be returned to the reserve as soon as assessment income is available for this purpose.

The reserve fund should be used, with the approval of the Secretary, to cover costs of liquidation of the program in the event the order is terminated, as well as to cover necessary operational costs, such as for salaries and other necessary expenses, during any period when the order, or any of its provisions, should be suspended. It is possible, of course, that the program may be terminated at the end of a fiscal period, or during a year when the production of cherries is relatively light. In such circumstances, it would be burdensome to handlers to require payment of an assessment to cover the liquidation costs. All handlers receive benefits from the program's operation; and even if a handler ceases handling cherries before the full time of its operation has expired, it would be appropriate and equitable for such handler to share in the expense of liquidation. Should the order provisions be suspended, it is likely such suspension would occur during a period when cherry production has been seriously curtailed. It would seem reasonable and proper, therefore, to use the reserve funds to defray expense of liquidation or any necessary cost of operation during a period of suspension. It is anticipated, of course, that the committee will endeavor to minimize costs in this regard as far as reasonably practicable consistent with the efficient performance of its responsibilities.

Upon termination of the order, any funds in the reserve which are not used to defray the necessary expenses of liquidation should, to the extent practicable, be returned to the handlers from whom such funds were collected. It is apparent, from the evidence of record, that it may not be possible to make an exact distribution of any such funds. Should the order be terminated after many years of operation, and there have been several withdrawals and redeposits in the reserve, the precise equities of handlers may be difficult to ascertain and any requirement that there be a precise accounting of the remaining funds could involve such costs as to nearly equal the monies to be distributed. Therefore, it would be desirable and necessary to permit the unexpended reserve funds to be disposed of in any manner that the Secretary may determine to be appropriate in such circumstances. In view of the foregoing, it is, therefore, concluded that authority should be provided, as hereinafter set forth, to permit the establishment and use of a reserve fund in the manner heretofore described.

Funds received by the committee pursuant to the levying of assessments should be used solely for the purposes of the order. The committee should be required, as a matter of good business practice, to maintain books and records clearly reflecting the true, up-to-date operation of its affairs so that its administration could be subject to inspection at any time by the Secretary. The committee should provide the Secretary with periodic reports at appropriate times, such as at the end of each marketing season or at such other times as may be necessary, to enable him to maintain appropriate supervision and control over the committee's activities and operations. Each member and each alternate, as well as employees, agents, or other persons working for or on behalf of the committee, should be required to account for all receipts and disbursements, funds, property, and records for which they are responsible, should the Secretary at any time ask for such an accounting. Also, whenever any person ceases to be a member or alternate of the committee, he should similarly be required to account for all funds, property, and other committee assets for which he is responsible and to deliver such funds, property, and other assets to such successor as the Secretary may designate. Such person should also be required to execute assignments and such other instruments which may be appropriate to vest in the successor the right to all such funds and property and all claims vested in such person. This is a matter of good business practice.

(d) The order should provide, as hereinafter set forth, authority for the establishment of marketing research and development projects designed to assist, improve, or promote the marketing, distribution, and consumption of cherries.

Through the medium of research investigation, the committee should be able to assemble and evaluate data on growing, harvesting, shipping, marketing, and other factors with respect to cherries which would be of value in determining what regulations should be established, in accordance with the act and the order, for the benefit of the cherry industry in the production area. As the committee becomes more aware of the value and need for marketing research and development, other projects will undoubtedly be initiated, the need for which may not have been foreseen during the course of the hearing.

The committee should be empowered to engage in such projects (except advertising and sales and trade promotion projects which are not permitted by the act), to spend assessment funds for them, and to consult and cooperate with appropriate agencies with regard to their establishment. The committee may be limited by the lack of facilities and trained technicians in carrying out any such projects; and it should be authorized to enter into contracts for their development with qualified agencies such as State universities, and public and private agencies. Prior to engaging in any such activities, the committee should, of course, submit to the Secretary for his approval the plans for each project. Such plans should set forth the details, including the cost and the objectives to be accomplished, so as to insure, among other things, that the projects are within the purview of the act. The cost of any such project should be included in the budget for approval, and such cost should be defrayed by the use of assessment funds as authorized by the act.

(e) The declared policy of the act is to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for cherries, among other commodities, as will tend to establish parity prices therefor, and to establish and maintain such minimum standards for quality and maturity and such grading and inspection requirements as will be in the public interest. The regulation of cherry shipments by maturity, grade, size, or quality, or any combination thereof, as authorized in the order, provides a means of carrying out such policy.

In order to facilitate the operation of the program, the committee should each year, and prior to recommending regulation of cherry shipments, prepare and adopt a marketing policy for the ensuing marketing season. A report on such policy should be submitted to the Secretary and made available to growers and handlers of cherries. The policy so established would serve to inform the Secretary and persons in the industry, in advance of the marketing of the crop, of the committee's plans for regulation and the basis therefor. Handlers and growers could then plan their operations in accordance therewith. The policy also would be useful to the committee and the Secretary when specific regulatory actions are being considered, since it would provide basic information necessary to the evaluation of such regulation.

In preparing its marketing policy, the committee should give consideration to the supply and demand factors, hereinafter set forth in the order, affecting marketing conditions for cherries since consideration of such factors is essential to the development of an economically sound and practical marketing policy.

The committee should be permitted to revise its marketing policy so as to give appropriate recognition to the latest known conditions when changes in such conditions are sufficiently marked to warrant modification of such policy. Such action is necessary if the marketing policy is to appropriately reflect the probable regulatory proposals of the committee and be of maximum benefit to all persons concerned. A report of each revised marketing policy should be submitted to the Secretary and made available to growers and handlers, together with the data considered by the committee in making the revision.

The committee should, as the local administrative agency under the order, be authorized to recommend such maturity, grade, size, and quality regulations, as well as any other regulations and amendments thereto authorized by the order, as will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is the key to successful operation of the order that the committee should have such responsibility. The Secretary should look to the committee, as the agency reflecting the thinking of the industry, for its views and recommendations for promoting more orderly marketing conditions and increased growers' returns for cherries. The committee should, therefore, have authority to recommend such regulations as are authorized by the order whenever such regulations will, in the judgment of the committee, tend to promote more orderly marketing conditions and effectuate the declared policy of the act.

When conditions change so that the then current regulations do not appear to the committee to be carrying out the declared policy of the act, the committee should have the authority to recommend the amendment, modification, suspension, or termination of such regulations, as the situation warrants.

The order should authorize the Secretary, on the basis of committee recommendations or other available information, to issue various grade, size, quality, and other appropriate regulations which tend to improve growers' returns and to establish more orderly marketing conditions for cherries. The Secretary should not be precluded from using such information as he may have, and which may or may not be available to the committee for consideration, in issuing such regulations, or amendments or modifications thereof, as may be necessary to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Also, when he determines that any regulation does not tend to effectuate such policy, he should have authority to suspend or terminate the regulation, in accordance with the requirements of the act.

The maturity, grade, size, and quality of cherries which are shipped at any particular time have a direct effect on returns to growers. It is a fact that poorer grades, and less desirable sizes, of cherries marketed return lower prices than do better grades and sizes. A restriction, under the order, of the shipment of cherries of low grade should result in higher returns for the better grades marketed by eliminating the price depressing effect of poor quality cherries.

Handlers often have shipped in fresh fruit channels immature cherries and cherries of poor grade and quality and of undesirable size. Such cherries may be sold only at discounts, and the returns from such sales often do not cover the cash costs of harvesting and marketing. In addition, such sales have tended to depress the prices for the entire crop, for the particular year, below the level which otherwise would have existed if only cherries of suitable maturity, grade, size, and quality, considering the supply and demand conditions for such fruit, had been available in the markets.

The demand for particular grades, sizes, and qualities of cherries varies depending upon the volume of supplies available, the grade, size, and quality composition of such supplies, the availability of competing commodities, and other factors such as the trend and level of consumer income. The supply conditions for cherries are subject to substantial changes during a particular season as the result of weather conditions affecting the volume and quality of the crop.

The grade, size, and quality composition of the cherry crop and the volume of the available supply for the season as a whole and for any particular period during the season are important factors which must be considered in establishing regulations. There is generally a sufficient volume of cherries harvested in the production area so that the shipment of only the better grades, sizes, and qualities of cherries to fresh market could fill market demands. Proper maturity is an important factor determining consumer acceptance. Prices for cherries in the production area generally start each season at a high level. This is usually followed by a rapid decline. Haste to take advantage of high prices early in the season has frequently caused the shipment of immature, excessively small, and poor quality cherries which has resulted in dissatisfaction of consumers; and such consumer dissatisfaction has been reflected in reduced demand and lowered returns to growers. Therefore, the order should provide for the establishment by the Secretary of regulations by maturity, grade, size, quality, or combinations thereof, based upon limitations recommended by the committee or other available information; and such regulations should cover such period or periods as it is determined are warranted by the anticipated supply and demand conditions. In making its recommendations for such regulations, the committee should consider the heretofore enumerated supply and demand factors. The committee, because of the knowledge and experience of its members, will be well qualified to evaluate such factors and to develop economically sound and practical recommendations for regulations and to advise the Secretary with respect to the supply and demand conditions under which the cherry crop will be marketed.

Several different varieties of cherries are grown in the production area. Among these are Bing, Lambert, Royal Anne, Black Republican, Deacon, and Van. It was estimated that the Bing variety constitutes 60 percent of production and the Lambert 20 percent. Each variety has certain characteristics which serve to distinguish it from other varieties. The differences in characteristics, such as shape, size, color, and maturing characteristics, may make it undesirable to apply the same regulations to all varieties, in that under certain circumstances a given regulation may eliminate an excessive proportion of certain varieties from the market. Also, it was testified that differences in demand exist for certain varieties which may make it desirable to recognize such differences in the establishment of regulations. The order should, therefore, provide authority for the issuance of different regulations for different varieties.

The evidence in the record shows that the most practical basis for issuing regulations covering any portion of the production area, other than the entire production area, would be on a district basis. District 1, the Wenatchee area, and district 2, the Yakima area, are separated by a range of mountains; and the centers—i. e., the cities of Wenatchee and Yakima—of the two areas are about 125 miles apart. Cherries produced in each of the districts are prepared for market in the district where produced. Weather conditions vary between the two areas; and detrimental weather may adversely affect the cherry crop in one district, while the crop in the other district may not be so affected. Weather conditions at blossom time are a very important factor influencing the volume of fruit, size, and rate of maturity. Rain at harvest time can be disastrous. Because of these circumstances, and in order to provide equity among growers and handlers, authority should be provided in the order to permit establishment of different regulations in different districts of the production area. It was stated in the notice of hearing that authority should be included to regulate differently for any or all portions of the production area. The evidence presented, however, shows that such regulations, if established, would be almost impossible to enforce, since there is intermingling of cherries from all portions of a particular district in the packinghouses in that district. Barring weather disaster, it is expected that the same regulations will be made effective in all districts during any particular period. Since only those persons who have fruit affected by weather damage would have any of such fruit, a regulation could be issued providing increased weather damage tolerance for an entire district even though only portions of such district were affected. Hence, it is concluded that authority to regulate by districts would permit the establishment of such different regulations as are likely to be necessary with respect to cherries produced in different portions of the production area, and such regulations would be more practical from an enforcement standpoint.

It is important that the order provide authority for the committee to recommend and the Secretary to fix the size, weight, capacity, dimensions, or pack of the containers which may be used in the packaging or handling of cherries. Some of the containers used in the shipment of cherries are a 12-pound with inside dimensions 10½ x 3⅜ x 15½ inches, a 15-pound with inside dimensions 10½ x 3⅜ x 15½ inches, and a 20-pound with inside dimensions 11½ x 5 x 15⅞ inches. These containers have become almost standard through usage in the industry. However, cherries are marketed at times in containers of slightly smaller dimensions than the "almost standard" container which it closely resembles. For example, a 10-pound container which resembles the 12-pound container is sometimes used; and there is in use an 18-pound container which resembles the 20-pound container. The use of containers, the dimensions of which vary so slightly from each other that customers do not realize the apparent price advantage for a seemingly identical container merely reflects the smaller quantity of fruit, results in disorderly marketing conditions. Standardization of containers to those most suitable for the packing and handling of cherries, and prescribing the use of containers of sizes and capacities which can readily be distinguished from each other, would tend to establish more orderly marketing conditions and increase growers' returns.

The exercise of the authority to regulate containers, however, should not be used to close the door on experimenting with new containers or to prevent the commercial use of any new or superior containers which may be developed.

The order also should contain authority to regulate the packs of containers. This would assist the cherry industry in the production area in its merchandising efforts to provide the most acceptable packs to enhance trade reputation. The United States grades do not make any requirement with respect to uniformity of size within containers. Most of the cherries for distant shipment are packed row-faced in 15-pound lugs. It is expected that the cherries in the "fill" of the package are of the same sizes as those in the face. Hence, the number of rows imply the size of cherries, but in the absence of any minimum size or pack requirement there is no guarantee of uniformity of size or pack. Loose packs usually consist of cherries of random sizes which, in the absence of requirements as to uniformity of contents, are difficult to describe, cause confusion, and contribute to disorderly marketing conditions. It may be necessary to limit the shipment of cherries to export markets to grades, sizes, packs, or containers which are different from those permitted to be shipped to the domestic market. For example, Canada specifies the containers in which cherries must be packed to be admitted into that country. Moreover, the export market may at times accept cherries of sizes which it is not profitable to ship to domestic markets.

Under certain circumstances it may be desirable to regulate shipments of cherries differently for containers of different capacities on the basis of the particular grades and sizes which may be packed in such containers. Authority for such flexibility in regulations, included in the order, would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is not in the public interest to cease regulation when the season average price of cherries exceeds parity. The committee should be authorized to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, such minimum standards of quality and maturity, in terms of grades or sizes, or both; and such grading and inspection requirements, during any and all periods when the season average price for cherries may be above parity, as will effectuate such orderly marketing of cherries and will be in the public interest. Some cherries do not give consumer satisfaction regardless of the price level. Immature cherries, deteriorated cherries, and cherries of very small sizes are examples of the type of fruit that is wasteful and does not represent a value to the consumer and should not be shipped.

The shipment of insufficiently mature cherries or fruit lacking in the quality necessary to assure delivery in satisfactory condition would cause an adverse buyer reaction and would tend to demoralize the market for later shipments of such fruit. Such undesirable fruit has been marketed in the past and undoubtedly would again be marketed in the absence of regulation when the season average price is above parity. Hence, the discontinuance of regulations during season when the average price exceeds parity could adversely affect consumers and also result in dissipation of all benefits from the prior operation of the program.

Adverse growing conditions and weather factors may cause some fruit to develop abnormally, or so affect the quality that it would not be in the public interest to permit its shipment. The possible development depends on the conditions in the particular season. It is necessary, therefore, that the provisions of the order contain the flexibility needed to reflect such conditions. Hence, the specific minimum standards of quality and maturity that may be made applicable during a particular year should be established by the Secretary upon the basis of the recommendations of the committee, made after review of the existing conditions that year, or other available information.

(f) The order should provide for the exemption from its provisions of such handling of cherries which it is not necessary to regulate in order to effectuate the declared purposes of the act. Insofar as practicable, such exempted handling should be stated explicitly in the order so that handlers will have knowledge of such handling as is not subject to the provisions of the program.

Cherries which are handled for consumption by charitable institutions, for distribution by relief agencies, or for commercial processing into products have little influence on the level of prices for cherries sold in the domestic and export markets. Hence, cherries handled for such purpbses should be exempted from compliance with the regulations issued under the order.

In addition, provision should be made to authorize the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, to exempt the handling of cherries, in such specified small quantities, or types of shipments, or shipments made for such specified purposes as it is not necessary to regulate in order to effectuate the declared purposes of the act. Such authorization is necessary to enable the exemption of such handling as may be determined necessary to facilitate the conduct of research, and handling which is found not feasible administratively to regulate and which does not materially affect marketing conditions in commercial channels. It would be impractical to set forth these exemptions in detail in the order, because to do so would destroy the flexibility which is necessary to reflect conditions affecting the handling of cherries in the production area. Therefore, it should be discretionary with the committee, subject to the approval of the Secretary, whether small quantities or types of shipments, or shipments made for specified purposes, should be exempted from regulation, inspection, and assessments and the period during which such exemptions should be in effect.

The allowance of such exemptions may be found to result in avenues of escape from regulation which, if they are found to exist, should be closed. Hence, the committee should be authorized to prescribe, with the approval of the Secretary, such rules, regulations, and safeguards as are necessary to prevent cherries handled for any of the exempted purposes from entering into regulated channels of trade and thereby tend to defeat the objective of the program. For example, should it be found that a portion of the cherries moving to commercial processors was being diverted to fresh fruit markets, it may be necessary for the committee to establish procedures to govern the movement of fruit for processing even though such cherries do not have to comply with grade, size, quality, and other requirements. These procedures might include such requirements as filing applications for authorization to move cherries in exempted channels and certification by the receiver that such cherries would be used only for the purpose indicated, if it is found that such requirements are necessary to the effective enforcement of the program regulations.

(g) Provision should be made in the order requiring all cherries handled, during any period when handling limitations are effective, to be inspected by the Federal-State Inspection Service and certified as meeting the requirements of the applicable regulation. Inspection and certification of all cherries handled during periods of regulation are essential to the effective supervision of the regulations. Evidence of compliance with regulations issued under the program can be ascertained only through inspection and certification of all cherries handled during the effective period of such regulations. As the handler of cherries is the person responsible for compliance with such regulations, it is reasonable and necessary to require handlers to submit each lot of cherries handled for inspection and certification and to file a copy of the certificate of inspection with the committee. Handlers are familiar with the Federal-State Inspection Service and with the inspection and the certification of fruits in the production area, and the use of such inspection agency under this program is desired by the industry.

Responsibility for obtaining inspection and certification should fall on each person who handles cherries. In this way, not only will the handler who first ships or handles cherries be required to obtain inspection and certification thereof, but also no subsequent handler may handle cherries unless a properly issued inspection certificate, valid pursuant to the terms of the order and applicable regulations thereunder, applies to the shipment. Each handler must bear responsibility for determining that each of his shipments is so inspected and certified.

In instances where any lot of cherries previously inspected and certified is regraded, resorted, repackaged, or in any other way subjected to further preparation for market, such cherries should be required to be inspected following such preparation, and certified as meeting the requirements of the applicable regulations before such cherries are handled, since the identity of the lot is lost in such preparation and the validity of the prior inspection certificate and the information shown thereon destroyed.

(h) The committee should have the authority, with the approval of the Secretary, to require that handlers submit to the committee such reports and information as may be needed to perform such agency's functions under the order. Handlers have such necessary information in their possession, and the requirement that they furnish such information to the committee in the form of reports would not constitute an undue burden. Moreover, since handlers are the only persons subject to regulation under the program, they are the only persons who could be required to furnish such information. It is anticipated that most of the information needed by the committee in order to carry out its functions can be obtained from the required inspection certificates. However, it is difficult to anticipate every type of report or kind of information which the committee may find necessary in the conduct of its operations under the order. Therefore, the committee should have the authority to request, with approval of the Secretary, reports and information, as needed, of the type set forth in the order, and at such times and in such manner as may be necessary.

The Secretary should retain the right to approve, change, or rescind any requests by the committee for information in order to protect handlers from unreasonable requests for reports. Any reports and records submitted for committee use by handlers should remain under protective classification and be disclosed to none other than the Secretary and persons authorized by the Secretary. Under certain circumstances, the release of information with respect to cherry shipments may be helpful to the committee and the industry generally in planning for operations under the order during the marketing season. However, none of such reported information may be released other than on a composite basis, and no such release of information should disclose either the identity of handlers or their operations. This is necessary to prevent the disclosure of information which may affect detrimentally the trade or financial position, or the business operations of individual handlers.

Since it is possible that a question could arise with respect to compliance, handlers should be required to maintain for each fiscal period complete records on their receipts, handling, and dispositions of cherries. Such records should be retained for not less than two succeeding years.

(i) Except as provided in the order, no handler should be permitted to handle cherries, the handling of which is prohibited pursuant to the order; and no handler should be permitted to handle cherries except in conformity with the order. If the program is to operate effectively, compliance therewith is essential; and, hence, no handler should be permitted to evade any of its provisions. Any such evasion on the part of even one handler could be demoralizing to the handlers who are in compliance and would tend, thereby, to impair the effective operation of the program.

(j) The provisions of §§ 1022.62 through 1022.71, as hereinafter set forth, are similar to those which are included in other marketing agreements and orders now operating. The provisions of §§ 1022.72 through 1022.74, as hereinafter set forth, are also included in other marketing agreements now operating. All such provisions are incidental to and not inconsistent with the act and are necessary to effectuate the other provisions of the recommended marketing agreement and order and to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Testimony at the hearing supports the inclusion of each such provision.

Those provisions which are applicable to both the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order, identified by section number and heading, are as follows: § 1022.62 Right of the Secretary; § 1022.63 Effective time; § 1022.64 Termination; § 1022.65 Proceedings after termination; § 1022.66 Effect of termination or amendment; § 1022.67 Duration of immunities; § 1022.68 Agents; § 1022.69 Derogation; § 1022.70 Personal liability; and § 1022.71 Separability.

Those provisions which are applicable to the proposed marketing agreement only, identified by section number and heading are as follows: § 1022.72 Counterparts; § 1022.73 Additional parties; and § 1022.74 Order with marketing agreement.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. January 24, 1957, was set by the Presiding Officer at the hearing as the latest date by which briefs would have to be filed by interested parties with respect to facts presented in evidence at the hearing and the conclusions which should be drawn therefrom. No such brief was filed.

General findings. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The marketing agreement and order, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The said marketing agreement and order regulate the handling of cherries grown in the production area in same manner as, and are applicable only to persons in the respective classes of commercial and industrial activity specified in, a proposed marketing agreement and order upon which a hearing has been held;

(3) The said marketing agreement and order are limited in their application to the smallest regional production area which is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act, and the issuance of several orders applicable to subdivisions of the production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) The said marketing agreement and order prescribe, so far as practicable, such different terms applicable to different parts of the production area as are necessary to give due recognition to the difference in the production and marketing of cherries grown in the production area; and

(5) All handling of cherries grown in the production area as defined in said marketing agreement and order is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Recommended marketing agreement and order. The following marketing agreement and order [1] are recommended as the detailed means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out:

DEFINITIONS

§ 1022.1 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any officer or employee of the Department to whom authority has heretofore been delegated, or to whom authority may hereafter be delegated, to act in his stead.

§ 1022.2 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047).

§ 1022.3 Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 1022.4 Production area. "Production area" means all of the territory included within the Counties of Okanogan, Chelan, Douglas, Grant, Yakima, and Benton within the State of Washington.

§ 1022.6 Varieties. "Varieties" means and includes all classifications or subdivisions of Prunus avium.

§ 1022.7 Fiscal period. "Fiscal period" is synonymous with fiscal year and means the 12-month period ending on March 31 of each year or such other period that may be approved by the Secretary pursuant to recommendations by the committee.

§ 1022.8 Committee. "Committee" means the Washington Cherry Marketing Committee established pursuant to § 1022.20.

§ 1022.9 Grade. "Grade" means any one of the officially established grades of cherries as defined and set forth in:

(a) United States Standards for Sweet Cherries (§§ 51.2646 to 51.2657 of this title; 21 F. R. 2371) or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon;

(b) Standards for sweet cherries issued by the State of Washington or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon.

§ 1022.10 Size. "Size" means the greatest diameter, measured through the center of the cherry, at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end, or such other specification as may be established by the committee with the approval of the Secretary.

§ 1022.11 Grower. "Grower" is synonymous with producer and means any person who produces cherries for market and who has a proprietary interest therein.

§ 1022.12 Handler. "Handler" is synonymous with shipper and means any person (except a common or contract carrier transporting cherries owned by another person) who handles cherries.

§ 1022.13 Handle. "Handle" and "ship" are synonymous and mean to sell, consign, deliver, or transport cherries or cause the sale, consignment, delivery, or transportation of cherries or in any other way to place cherries, or cause cherries to be placed, in the current of the commerce from any point within the production area to any point outside thereof: Provided, That the term "handle" shall not include the transportation within the production area of cherries from the orchard where grown to a packing facility located within such area for preparation for market, or the delivery of such cherries to such packing facility for such preparation.

§ 1022.14 District. "District" means the applicable one of the following described subdivisions of the production area, or such other subdivisions as may be prescribed pursuant to § 1022.31 (m):

(a) "District 1" shall include the Counties of Chelan, Okanogan, Douglas, and Grant.

(b) "District 2" shall include the Counties of Yakima and Benton.

§ 1022.15 Export. "Export" means to ship cherries beyond the continental boundaries of the United States.

§ 1022.16 Pack. "Pack" means the specific arrangement, size, weight, count, or grade of a quantity of cherries in a particular type and size of container, or any combination thereof.

§ 1022.17 Container. "Container" means a box, bag, crate, lug, basket, carton, package, or any other type of receptacle used in the packaging or handling of cherries.

ADMINISTRATIVE BODY

§ 1022.20 Establishment and membership. There is hereby established a Washington Cherry Marketing Committee consisting of fifteen members, each of whom shall have an alternate who shall have the same qualifications as the member for whom he is an alternate. Ten of the members and their respective alternates shall be growers or officers or employees of corporate growers. Five of the members and their respective alternates shall be handlers, or officers or employees of handlers. The ten members of the committee who are growers or employees or officers of corporate growers are hereinafter referred to as "grower members" of the committee; and the five members of the committee who shall be handlers, or officers or employees of handlers, are hereinafter referred to as "handler members" of the committee. Four of the grower members and their respective alternates shall be producers of cherries in District 1, and six of the grower members and their respective alternates shall be producers of cherries in District 2. Two of the handler members and their respective alternates shall be handlers of cherries in District 1, and three of the handler members and their respective alternates shall be handlers of cherries in District 2.

§ 1022.21 Term of office. The term of office of each member and alternate member of the committee shall be for two years beginning April 1 and ending March 31: Provided, That the term of office of one-half the initial grower members and alternates from each district and one initial handler member from each district shall end March 31, 1958. Members and alternate members shall serve in such capacities for the portion of the term of office for which they are selected and have qualified and until their respective successors are selected and have qualified.

§ 1022.22 Nomination.—(a) Initial members. Nominations for each of the ten initial grower members and five initial handler members of the committee, together with nominations for the initial alternate members for each position, may be submitted to the Secretary by individual growers and handlers. Such nominations may be made by means of group meetings of the growers and handlers concerned in each district. Such nominations, if made, shall be filed with the Secretary no later than the effective date of this part. In the event nominations for initial members and alternate members of the committee are not filed pursuant to, and within the time specified, in this section, the Secretary may select such initial members and alternate members without regard to nominations, but selections shall be on the basis of the representation provided for in § 1022.20.

(b) Successor members. (1) The committee shall hold or cause to be held, not later than March 1 of each year, a meeting or meetings of growers and handlers in each district for the purpose of designating nominees for successor members and alternate members of the committee. At each such meeting a chairman and a secretary shall be selected by the growers and handlers eligible to participate therein. The chairman shall announce at the meeting the number of votes cast for each person nominated for member or alternate member and shall submit promptly to the committee a complete report concerning such meeting. The committee shall, in turn, promptly submit a copy of each such report to the Secretary.

(2) Only growers, including duly authorized officers or employees of corporate growers, who are present at such nomination meetings may participate in the nomination and election of nominees for grower members and their alternates. Each grower shall be entitled to cast only one vote for each nominee to be elected in the district in which he produces cherries. No grower shall participate in the election of nominees in more than one district in any one fiscal year. If a person is both a grower and a handler of cherries, such person may vote either as a grower or as a handler but not as both.

(3) Only handlers, including duly authorized officers or employees of handlers, who are present at such nomination meetings, may participate in the nomination and election of nominees for handler members and their alternates. Each handler shall be entitled to cast only one vote for each nominee to be elected in the district in which he handles cherries. No handler shall participate in the election of nominees in more than one district in any one fiscal year. If a person is both a grower and a handler of cherries, such person may vote either as a grower or as a handler but not as both.

[1] The provisions identified with an asterisk apply only to the proposed marketing agreement and not to the proposed order.

from other qualified persons, the Secretary shall select the ten grower members of the committee, the five handler members of the committee, and an alternate for each such member.

§ 1022.24 Failure to nominate. If nominations are not made within the time and in the manner prescribed in § 1022.22, the Secretary may, without regard to nominations, select the members and alternate members of the committee on the basis of the representation provided for in § 1022.20.

§ 1022.25 Acceptance. Any person selected by the Secretary as a member or as an alternate member of the committee shall qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary promptly after being notified of such selection.

§ 1022.26 Vacancies. To fill any vacancy occasioned by the failure of any person selected as a member or as an alternate member of the committee to qualify, or in the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any member or alternate member of the committee, a successor for the unexpired term of such member or alternate member of the committee shall be nominated and selected in the manned specified in §§ 1022.22 and 1022.23. If the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within a reasonable time after such vacancy occurs, the Secretary may fill such vacancy without regard to nominations, which selection shall be made on the basis of representation provided for in § 1022.20.

§ 1022.30 Powers. The committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions of this part in accordance with its terms;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the provisions of this part;

(c) To make and adopt rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this part; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this part.

§ 1022.31 Duties. The committee shall have, among others, the following duties:

(a) To select a chairman and such other officers as may be necessary, and to define the duties of such officers;

(b) To appoint such employees, agents, and representatives as it may deem necessary, and to determine the compensation and to define the duties of each;

(c) To submit to the Secretary as soon as practicable after the beginning of each fiscal period a budget for such fiscal period, including a report in explanation of the items appearing therein and a recommendation as to the rate of assessment for such period;

(d) To keep minutes, books, and records which will reflect all of the acts and transactions of the committee and which shall be subject to examination by the Secretary;

(e) To prepare periodic statements of the financial operations of the committee and to make copies of each such statement available to growers and handlers for examination at the office of the committee;

(f) To cause its books to be audited by a competent accountant at least once each fiscal year and at such time as the Secretary may request;

(g) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any grower or handler;

(h) To investigate and assemble data on the growing, handling, and marketing conditions with respect to cherries;

(i) To submit to the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(j) To notify producers and handlers of all meetings of the committee to consider recommendations for regulations;

(k) To give the Secretary the same notice of meetings of the committee as is given to its members;

(l) To investigate compliance with the provisions of this part;

(m) With the approval of the Secretary, to redefine the districts into which the production area is divided, and to reapportion the representation of any district on the committee: Provided, That any such changes shall reflect, insofar as practicable, shifts in cherry production within the districts and the production area.

§ 1022.32 Procedure. (a) Twelve members of the committee, including alternates acting for members, shall constitute a quorum; and any action of the committee shall require the concurring vote of at least nine members.

(b) The committee may provide for simultaneous meetings of groups of its members assembled at two or more designated places: Provided, That such meetings shall be subject to the establishment of communication between all such groups and the availability of loud speaker receivers for each group so that each member may participate in the discussions and other actions the same as if the committee were assembled in one place. Any such meeting shall be considered as an assembled meeting.

(c) The committee may vote by telegraph, telephone, or other means of communication, and any votes so cast shall be confirmed promptly in writing: Provided, That if an assembled meeting is held, all votes shall be cast in person.

§ 1022.33 Expenses and compensation. The members of the committee, and alternates when acting as members, shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties under this part and may also receive compensation, as determined by the committee, which shall not exceed $10 per day or portion thereof spent in performing such duties: Provided, That at its discretion the committee may request the attendance of one or more alternates at any or all meetings, notwithstanding the expected or actual presence of the respective members, and may pay expenses and compensation, as aforesaid.

§ 1022.34 Annual report. The committee shall, prior to the last day of each fiscal period, prepare and mail an annual report to the Secretary and make a copy available to each handler and grower who requests a copy of the report. This annual report shall contain at least: (a) A complete review of the regulatory operations during the fiscal period; (b) an appraisal of the effect of such regulatory operations upon the cherry industry; and (c) any recommendations for changes in the program.

EXPENSES AND ASSESSMENTS

§ 1022.40 Expenses. The committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the committee to enable it to exercise its powers and perform its duties in accordance with the provisions of this part during each fiscal period. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying of assessments as prescribed in § 1022.41.

§ 1022.41 Assessments. (a) Each person who first handles cherries shall, with respect to the cherries so handled by him, pay to the committee upon demand such person's pro rata share of the expenses which the Secretary finds will be incurred by the committee during each fiscal period. Each such person's share of such expenses shall be equal to the ratio between the total quantity of cherries handled by him as the first handler thereof during the applicable fiscal period and the total quantity of cherries so handled by all persons during the same fiscal period. The payment of assessments for the maintenance and functioning of the committee may be required under this part throughout the period it is in effect irrespective of whether particular provisions thereof are suspended or become inoperative.

(b) The Secretary shall fix the rate of assessment to be paid by each such person. At any time during or after the fiscal period, the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment in order to secure sufficient funds to cover any later finding by the Secretary relative to the expenses which may be incurred. Such increase shall be applied to all cherries handled during the applicable fiscal period. In order to provide funds for the administration of the provisions of this part during the first part of a fiscal period before sufficient operating income is available from assessments on the current year's shipments, the committee may accept the payment of assessments in advance, and may also borrow money for such purpose.

(1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, each person entitled to a proportionate refund of any excess assessment shall be credited with such refund against the operation of the following fiscal period unless such person demands repayment thereof, in which event it shall be paid to him: Provided, That any sum paid by a person in excess of his pro rata share of the expenses during any fiscal period may be applied by the committee at the end of such fiscal period to any outstanding obligations due the committee from such person.

(2) The Secretary, upon recommendation of the committee, may determine that it is appropriate for the maintenance and functioning of the committee that the funds remaining at the end of a fiscal period which are in excess of the expenses necessary for committee operations during such period may be carried over into following periods as a reserve. Such reserve may be established at an amount not to exceed approximately one fiscal period's operational expenses; and such reserve may be used to cover the necessary expenses of liquidation, in the event of termination of this part, and to cover the expenses incurred for the maintenance and functioning of the committee during any fiscal period when there is a crop failure, or during any period of suspension of any or all of the provisions of this part. Such reserve may also be used by the committee to finance its operations, during any fiscal period, prior to the time that assessment income is sufficient to cover such expenses; but any of the reserve funds so used shall be returned to the reserve as soon as assessment income is available for this purpose. Upon termination of this part, any funds not required to defray the necessary expenses of liquidation shall be disposed of in such manner as the Secretary may determine to be appropriate: Provided, That to the extent practical, such funds shall be returned pro rata to the persons from whom such funds were collected.

(b) All funds received by the committee pursuant to the provisions of this part shall be used solely for the purposes specified in this part and shall be accounted for in the manner provided in this part. The Secretary may at any time require the committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

(c) Upon the removal or expiration of the term of office of any member of the committee, such member shall account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property and funds in his possession to his successor in office, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor full title to all of the property, funds, and claims vested in such member pursuant to this part.

RESEARCH

§ 1022.45 Marketing research and development. The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish or provide for the establishment of marketing research and development projects designed to assist, improve, or promote the marketing, distribution, and consumption of cherries. The expense of such projects shall be paid from funds collected pursuant to § 1022.41.

REGULATIONS

§ 1022.50 Marketing policy. (a) Each season prior to making any recommendations pursuant to § 1022.51, the committee shall submit to the Secretary a report setting forth its marketing policy for the ensuing season. Such marketing policy report shall contain information relative to:

(1) The estimated total production of cherries within the production area;

(2) The expected general quality and size of cherries in the production area and in other areas;

(3) The expected demand conditions for cherries in different market outlets;

(4) The expected shipments of cherries produced in the production area and in areas outside the production area;

(5) Supplies of competing commodities;

(6) Trend and level of consumer income;

(7) Other factors having a bearing on the marketing of cherries; and

(8) The type of regulations expected to be recommended during the season.

(b) In the event it becomes advisable, because of changes in the supply and demand situation for cherries, to modify substantially such marketing policy, the committee shall submit to the Secretary a revised marketing policy report setting forth the information prescribed in this section. The committee shall publicly announce the contents of each marketing policy report, including each revised marketing policy report, and copies thereof shall be maintained in the office of the committee where they shall be available for examination by growers and handlers.

§ 1022.51 Recommendations for regulation. (a) Whenever the committee deems it advisable to regulate the handling of any variety or varieties of cherries in the manner provided in § 1022.52, it shall so recommend to the Secretary.

(b) In arriving at its recommendations for regulation pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, the committee shall give consideration to current information with respect to the factors affecting the supply and demand for cherries during the period or periods when it is proposed that such regulation should be made effective. With each such recommendation for regulation, the committee shall submit to the Secretary the data and information on which such recommendation is predicated and such other available information as the Secretary may request.

§ 1022.52 Issuance of regulations. (a) The Secretary shall regulate, in the manner specified in this section, the handling of cherries whenever he finds, from the recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, that such regulations will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Such regulations may:

(1) Limit, during any period or periods, the shipment of any particular grade, size, quality, maturity, or pack, or any combination thereof, of any variety or varieties of cherries grown in any district or districts of the production area;

(2) Limit the shipment of cherries by establishing, in terms of grades, sizes, or both, minimum standards of quality and maturity during any period when season average prices are expected to exceed the parity level;

(3) Fix the size, capacity, weight, dimensions, or pack of the container, or containers, which may be used in the packaging or handling of cherries.

(b) The committee shall be informed immediately of any such regulation issued by the Secretary, and the committee shall promptly give notice thereof to growers and handlers.

§ 1022.53 Modification, suspension, or termination of regulations. (a) In the event the committee at any time finds that, by reason of changed conditions, any regulations issued pursuant to § 1022.52 should be modified, suspended, or terminated, it shall so recommend to the Secretary.

(b) Whenever the Secretary finds, from the recommendations and information submitted by the committee or from other available information, that a regulation should be modified, suspended, or terminated with respect to any or all shipments of cherries in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall modify, suspend, or terminate such regulation. On the same basis and in like manner the Secretary may terminate any such modification or suspension. If the Secretary finds that a regulation obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall suspend or terminate such regulation. On the same basis and in like manner the Secretary may terminate any such modification or suspension.

§ 1022.54 Special purpose shipments. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, any person may, without regard to the provisions of §§ 1022.41, 1022.52, and 1022.55, and the regulations issued thereunder, handle cherries (1) for consumption by charitable institutions; (2) for distribution by relief agencies; or (3) for commercial processing into products.

(b) Upon the basis of recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, the Secretary may relieve from any or all requirements, under or established pursuant to § 1022.41, § 1022.52, or § 1022.55, the handling of cherries in such minimum quantities, or types of shipments, or for such specified purposes (including shipments to facilitate the conduct of marketing research and development projects established pursuant to § 1022.45), as the committee, with approval of the Secretary, may prescribe.

(c) The committee shall, with the approval of the Secretary, prescribe such rules, regulations, and safeguards as it may deem necessary to prevent cherries handled under the provisions of this section from entering the channels of trade for other than the specific purposes authorized by this section. Such rules, regulations, and safeguards may include the requirements that handlers shall file applications and receive approval from the committee for authorization to handle cherries pursuant to this section, and that such applications be accompanied by a certification by the intended purchaser or receiver that the cherries will not be used for any purpose not authorized by this section.

§ 1022.55 Inspection and certification. Whenever the handling of any variety of cherries is regulated pursuant to § 1022.52, each handler who handles cherries shall, prior thereto, cause such cherries to be inspected by the Federal-State Inspection Service and certified by it as meeting the applicable requirements of such regulation: Provided, That inspection and certification shall be required for cherries which previously have been so inspected and certified only if such cherries have been regraded, resorted, repackaged, or in any other way further prepared for market. Promptly after inspection and certification, each such handler shall submit, or cause to be submitted, to the committee a copy of the certificate of inspection issued with respect to such cherries.

REPORTS

§ 1022.60 Reports. (a) Upon request of the committee, made with the approval of the Secretary, each handler shall furnish to the committee, in such manner and at such time as it may prescribe, such reports and other information as may be necessary for the committee to perform its duties under this part. Such reports may include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following: (1) The quantities of each variety of cherries received by a handler; (2) the quantities disposed of by him, segregated as to the respective quantities subject to regulation and not subject to regulation; (3) the date of each such disposition and the identification of the carrier transporting such cherries, and (4) the destination of each shipment of such cherries.

(b) All such reports shall be held under appropriate protective classification and custody by the committee, or duly appointed employees thereof, so that the information contained therein which may adversely affect the competitive position of any handler in relation to other handlers will not be disclosed. Compilations of general reports from data submitted by handlers are authorized, subject to the prohibition of disclosure of individual handler's identities or operations.

(c) Each handler shall maintain for at least two succeeding years such records of the cherries received, and of cherries disposed of, by such handler as may be necessary to verify reports pursuant to this section.

§ 1022.61 Compliance. Except as provided in this part, no person shall handle cherries, the shipment of which has been prohibited by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of this part; and no person shall handle cherries except in conformity with the provisions of this part.

§ 1022.62 Right of the Secretary. The members of the committee (including successors and alternates), and any agents, employees, or representatives thereof, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every regulation, decision, determination, or other act of the committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time. Upon such disapproval, the disapproved action of the committee shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in accordance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

§ 1022.64 Termination. (a) The Secretary may at any time terminate the provisions of this part by giving at least one day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner in which he may determine.

(b) The Secretary shall terminate or suspend the operation of any and all of the provisions of this part whenever he finds that such provisions do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(c) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this part at the end of any fiscal period whenever he finds that continuance is not favored by the majority of producers who, during a representative period, determined by the Secretary, were engaged in the production area in the production of cherries for market: Provided, That such majority has produced for market during such period more than 50 percent of the volume of cherries produced for market in the production area; but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before March 31 of the then current fiscal period.

(d) The provisions of this part shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

§ 1022.65 Proceedings after termination. (a) Upon the termination of the provisions of this part, the committee shall, for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the committee, continue as trustees of all the funds and property then in its possession, or under its control, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination.

(b) The said trustees shall (1) continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; (2) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the committee and of the trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct; and (3) upon the request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person, full title and right to all of the funds, property, and claims vested in the committee or the trustees pursuant hereto.

(c) Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been transferred or delivered pursuant to this section shall be subject to the same obligation imposed upon the committee and upon the trustees.

§ 1022.66 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this subpart or of any regulation issued pursuant to this subpart, or the issuance of any amendment to either thereof, shall not (a) effect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision of this subpart or any regulation issued under this subpart, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of this subpart or of any regulation issued under this subpart, or (c) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person with respect to any such violation.

§ 1022.67 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue of this subpart shall cease upon the termination of this subpart, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this subpart.

§ 1022.68 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States, or name any agency or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 1022.69 Derogation. Nothing contained in the provisions of this part is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States (a) to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or (b) in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 1022.70 Personal liability. No member or alternate member of the committee and no employee or agent of the committee shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other act, either of commission, or omission, as such member, alternate, employee, or agent, except for acts of dishonesty, willful misconduct, or gross negligence.

§ 1022.71 Separability. If any provision of this part is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this part or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.

§ 1022.72 *Counterparts. This agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, and when one counterpart is signed by the Secretary, all such counterparts shall constitute, when taken together, one and the same instrument as if all signatures were contained in one original.

§ 1022.73 *Additional parties. After the effective date of this marketing agreement, any handler may become a party to such agreement if a counterpart is executed by him and delivered to the Secretary. This agreement shall take effect as to such new contracting party at the time such counterpart is delivered to the Secretary, and the benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by this agreement shall then be effective as to such new contracting party.

§ 1022.74 *Order with marketing agreement. Each signatory handler hereby requests the Secretary to issue, pursuant to the act, an order providing for the regulating of the handling of cherries in the same manner as is provided for in this agreement.

Dated: March 15, 1957.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[Ex Parte No. 203]

INSPECTION AND TESTING OF LOCOMOTIVES OTHER THAN STEAM

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of February, A. D. 1957.

The Association of American Railroads filed, on May 31, 1956, a petition for the institution of an investigation into the reasonableness and lawfulness otherwise of Rule 203 (49 CFR 91.203) of the Commission's Rules and Instructions for Inspection and Testing of Locomotives Other Than Steam and the current interpretation and application of said rule announced and followed by the Bureau of Locomotive Inspection. It further requests additional relief as more specifically set forth in the said petition.

Upon consideration of the petition:

It is ordered, That an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted into the reasonableness and lawfulness of Rule 203 of the said Rules and Instructions for Inspection and Testing of Locomotives Other Than Steam and its interpretation and application;

It is further ordered, That all common carriers by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act and the Association of American Railroads be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be served upon each of said respondents; and that notice of this proceeding be given to the general public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register;

It is further ordered, That this proceeding be assigned for hearing at such time and place as hereafter may be designated;

And it is further ordered, That the said petition except to the extent that an investigation is instituted as provided herein be, and it is hereby denied.

By the Commission, Division 3.

EMBROIDERY MACHINES

TARIFF CLASSIFICATION

MARCH 14, 1957.

The Bureau by letters addressed to the collector of customs at Los Angeles, California, has ruled that the Lintz & Eckhardt Model 101 and the Cornely & Cie Model B-5 machines are classifiable under the provision for embroidery machines with duty at the rate of 15 percent ad valorem, rather than under the provision for sewing machines, not especially provided for, in paragraph 372, Tariff Act of 1930, as modified, with duty at the rate of 10 percent ad valorem.

As these decisions result in the assessment of duty at a rate of duty higher than that which has heretofore been assessed under an established and uniform practice, they shall be applied only to such merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption after 90 days after the date of publication of an abstract of these decisions in the weekly Treasury Decisions.

The areas described total 9,379.94 acres of public lands.

The minerals in the above-described lands were wholly or partly reserved by the grantors or by prior grantors, and any person acquiring any of these lands must accept title subject to such reservations. Information as to any mineral rights reconveyed to the United States is of record in the Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, 357 New Custom House, Box 1018, Denver 1, Colorado.

There are approximately twenty-five individual tracts in the area described above. These tracts are relatively small and are widely scattered throughout central and western Colorado. The lands vary greatly in topography and vegetative type, ranging from rolling sagebrush covered to rough and mountainous with browse plants and small amounts of non-commercial timber. Steep slopes, shallow, rocky soils or inadequate precipitation render these lands unsuitable for cultivation. It is unlikely that any of the lands are adaptable for small tract purposes.

No application for these lands will be allowed under the homestead, desert land, small tract or any other non-mineral public land law, unless the lands have already been classified as valuable, or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

Subject to any existing valid rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands described above are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications, selections and offers will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the Act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284), as amended, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on April 17, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on July 17, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on July 17, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The land will be open to location under the United States mining laws, beginning 10:00 a. m., on July 17, 1957, providing locatable minerals have been reconveyed to the United States.

Persons claiming veteran's preference rights under paragraph a (2) above must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, 357 New Custom House, Box 1018, Denver 1, Colorado.

MAX CAPLAN,

The areas described total 2,344.85 acres of public lands.

The lands are widely scattered throughout Idaho and generally lie in the Snake River plain and in mountainous regions. Adverse topography and rocky soils render most of the land unsuited to agricultural development other than grazing by range livestock. Soils vary from sand and gravel to silt loam. Cover includes grass and sagebrush with some slightly timbered areas.

No application for these lands will be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small-tract, or any other nonmineral public land law, unless the lands have already been classified as valuable, or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

Any disposition of the lands described herein shall be subject to the stipulation that if and when the land is required, in whole or in part for power development purposes, any structures or improvements placed thereon which may be found to obstruct or interfere with such development, shall without cost, expense, or delay to the United States, its licensees or permittees, be removed or relocated insofar as may be necessary to eliminate interference with such power development.

Lands in the NW¼SW¼ of Section 2; Lot 3 and 4, the N½SE¼ and NE¼SW¼ of Section 3, all in T. 6 S., R. 6 E., Boise Meridian, Idaho, included in D. A. 452, are subject to prior right of the license for Federal Power Commission Project 2055–5 (C. J. Strike) and its successors to use those lands for the project purposes as provided by the license for the project.

The lands described shall be subject to application by the State of Idaho for a period of 90 days from the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER for right-of-way for public highways or as a source of material for construction and maintenance of such highways, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, as amended, and the special stipulations provided in the preceding paragraph.

Subject to any existing valid rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands described above are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the non-mineral public land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284, as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on April 17, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on July 17, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on July 17, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

All the lands with the exception of the NW¼SW¼, Section 2; Lot 3 and 4, the N½SE¼ and NE¼SW¼, Section 3, all in T. 6 S., R. 6 E., Boise Meridian, Idaho, have been opened to location and entry under the United States Mining Laws pursuant to the act of August 11, 1955 (69 Stat. 683; 30 U. S. C. 621), and to application and offers under the mineral leasing laws. The NW¼SW¼, Section 2; Lot 3 and 4, the N½SE¼ and NE¼SW¼, Section 3, all in T. 6 S., R. 6 E., Boise Meridian, Idaho, will be open to location under the United States Mining Laws, beginning 10:00 a. m., on July 17, 1957.

Persons claiming veteran's preference rights under paragraph a (2) above must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office,

Bureau of Land Management, P. O. Box 2237, Boise, Idaho.

[Order No. E-11135; Docket No. 8613]

BRANIFF AIRWAYS, INC., ET AL.

ORDER OF SUSPENSION AND INVESTIGATION

In the matter of interstate and overseas passenger fare increases filed by various carriers.

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of March 1957.

Tariff revisions have been filed on behalf of Braniff Airways, Inc., Capital Airlines, Inc., Delta Air Lines, Inc., Eastern Air Lines, Inc., Northwest Airlines, Inc., Trans World Airlines, Inc., and United Air Lines, Inc., proposing increases in substantially all local domestic passenger fares of approximately six percent. The proposals on behalf of Eastern and Capital include, in addition to the six percent increase, an increase of $1.00 per ticket, while the United proposal also includes a six percent increase in local and joint fares between the mainland and Hawaii. The proposals are filed for effectiveness April 1, 1957, and April 6, 1957.

The Board has carefully considered the tariff proposals and the justifications submitted by some of the carriers in support thereof, and the operating and financial results of the carriers over recent years, and on the basis thereof has concluded that pursuant to its powers under section 1002g of the act, it should suspend the proposed increases and investigate the reasonableness thereof.[1] At the termination of the investigation, the Board will be in a position to prescribe the lawful fares, whether the same, higher, or lower than the fares now in effect.

Although preliminary reported 1956 net operating income before interest expenses, capital gains and income taxes is somewhat lower for the majority of trunkline carriers than in 1955, the reported net profit after income taxes (before interest expense), which reflects capital gains, is substantially the same as in 1955. Generally, the reported declines in the net operating income are moderate, and do not indicate any emergency situation which would support permitting the proposed increases to become effective without an investigation and public hearing on the need thereof.

It should be noted that for the seven carriers who have so far filed for increased fares, a six percent increase, assuming no loss in traffic, would amount to approximately $47 million a year, based on 1956 passenger revenues. For the trunkline industry as a whole, a similar increase would involve a $67 million increase in fares. If the $1.00 per ticket additional increase proposed by Eastern and Capital were also added, the total increase for the trunkline industry as a whole could be as much as $95 million a year. In view of the favorable earnings of the trunklines since 1950, the apparent absence of any over-all emergency situation at this time, and the major impact of the present fare proposals, the claims advanced by the carriers of an urgent and immediate need for a fare increase are not sufficient in the opinion of the Board to justify permitting these increases to go into effect without a full investigation to establish that the claimed need in fact exists.

We are, however, impressed by the desirability, from the carriers' standpoint, of a prompt determination of their claim for increased fares. From the standpoint of the public, it is equally important that this investigation be completed promptly, and within the 180-day maximum period of suspension permitted by the act, so as to avoid any possibility of the public being charged higher fares which might prove to be unwarranted. For this reason, we believe that an expedited procedure should be adopted in this investigation to insure an expeditious determination therein. We shall, therefore, order the matter set down promptly for prehearing conference, fix an early date for the start of the hearing, and further provide that the Hearing Examiner shall take appropriate steps, consistent with the requirements of due process, to expedite the proceeding to the end that the Board may be in position to render its final decision prior to the expiration of the period during which the fares are subject to suspension.

In addition, in view of the public interest in having the propriety of the proposed increases determined before they become effective, the Board has given careful consideration to areas where it would be feasible to limit the scope of this investigation without prejudice to the carriers or the public. Upon such consideration, we have determined that the method of determining the earnings element is an issue which may be so limited in this proceeding. A fair return upon original cost, less book depreciation, of the property used and useful in the public service is a well-recognized standard for measuring the reasonableness of utility rates, and has been the general standard used in mail rate cases decided by the Board. Because of the relatively short life of the major assets used in this industry, an original cost less book depreciation rate base does not ordinarily differ markedly from other possible rate bases. Moreover, because the equipment accounts of this industry, since its inception, have been kept upon an original cost basis, original cost less book depreciation is particularly adapted to provide a readily ascertainable rate base with a minimum of delay. Original cost less book depreciation is, moreover, an accurate measure of the funds which have been invested in property used and useful in the public service, and, in our opinion, limiting the issues in this proceeding as to the earnings element in the fares to the single question of the rate of return to be allowed on an original cost less depreciation rate base would be equitable to the carriers, investors, and the public. We will accordingly so limit the issues in this proceeding.[2]

Another area where it appears feasible to limit the issues in this proceeding is in connection with the $1.00 per ticket increase proposed by certain carriers. This proposal involves both a change in the fare level and the fare structure. In the interest of expediting this case, we deem it important at this time to focus in this proceeding upon the fare level issue involved in this change. We are accordingly excluding any fare structure issues from consideration in this case, so that if the need for increased passenger revenues is demonstrated in this case the form of such increase as proposed by certain carriers—e. g., a flat increase per ticket—will not be open to question here. In this manner, the record will not be encumbered with evidence as to the merits of particular fare structure proposals and we will be able to concentrate our attention promptly on the basic issue—the overall revenue needs of the carriers.

Since presumably the carriers who proposed the increase have available to them the basic justification upon which they base their action, the prompt activation of this proceeding should impose no undue burden upon them, especially in the light of the preparatory work they have done in connection with similar issues in the General Passenger Fare Investigation, Docket No. 8008.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That:

1. An investigation be and hereby is instituted to determine whether the fares, rules, regulations and provisions described in Appendix A[3] hereto are, or will be, unjust and unreasonable, or otherwise unlawful, and if found to be unlawful to determine and prescribe the lawful rules, regulations, provisions and

a. As to fares in interstate air transportation, the lawful fares (or the maxima or minima, or the maxima and minima thereof), and

b. As to fares in overseas air transportation, the lawful maxima or minima, or maxima and minima thereof.

2. Pending such investigation, hearing and decision by the Board, the provisions described in Appendix A[3] hereto be and hereby are suspended insofar as applicable to interstate and overseas transportation and their use deferred to and including June 29, 1957, and no changes whatsoever be made therein during the period of suspension, except by order or special permission of the Board;

3. A prehearing conference in this proceeding be held before an examiner of the Board hereafter to be designated, in Room 5859, Department of Commerce Building, Washington, D. C. at 10:00 a. m., on the 21st day of March 1957, and hearing herein be commenced at 10:00 a. m., on the 4th day of April 1957;

4. The Hearing Examiner shall take appropriate steps, consistent with the requirements of due process, to expedite the proceedings to the end that the Board may be in a position to render its final decision herein prior to the expiration of the period during which the fares can be suspended;

5. The issues with respect to the earnings element to be included in determining just and reasonable rates shall be limited to the issue of the rate of return to be allowed upon a rate base equal to the original cost less book depreciation of the assets used and useful in the public service and fare structure issues, if any, in connection with the proposed one dollar per ticket increase shall be excluded from consideration in this proceeding; and

6. A copy of this order be filed with the aforesaid tariffs and a copy be served upon Braniff Airways, Inc., Capital Airlines, Inc., Delta Air Lines, Inc., Eastern Air Lines, Inc., Northwest Airlines, Inc., Trans World Airlines, Inc., United Air Lines, Inc., American Airlines, Inc., Continental Air Lines, Inc., National Airlines, Inc., Southwest Airways Company, Western Air Lines, Inc., Los Angeles Airways, Inc., and New York Airways, Inc., who are hereby made respondents in this proceeding.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.[4]

Secretary.

[1] Because of the lack of jurisdiction over the reasonableness of fares in foreign air transportation, proposed increases in fares to Canada are not included in this order.

[2] This limitation is, of course, without prejudice to the carriers' opportunity in the General Passenger Fare Investigation, Docket No. 8008, to seek consideration of other evidence with respect to the issues in that case. See Order No. E-11009, February 6, 1957.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-12193]

MAGNOLIA PETROLEUM CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGES IN RATES

MARCH 12, 1957.

On February 11 and 12, 1957, Magnolia Petroleum Company (Magnolia) submitted for filing proposed changes in its rate schedules presently in effect for sales subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed changes, which constitute increased rates and charges, are contained in the following designated filings:

Description; Purchaser; Rate Schedule Designation; and Effective Date

Notice of Change Undated; United Fuel Gas Company; Supplement No. 3 to Magnolia's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2; March 13, 1957.

Notice of Change Undated; United Fuel Gas Company; Supplement No. 4 to Magnolia's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1; March 14, 1957.[5]

In support of the proposed increased rate, Magnolia states that the contract was entered into in good faith as the result of arm's-length negotiations and that the long-term contract resulted with the installment price schedule therein. Magnolia also states that because of the competitive nature of the producing segment of the natural gas industry to deny the increased price, which was based upon the "supply and demand formula," would be confiscatory of the seller's property. Magnolia further states that the increasing costs of exploration, production, and processing of natural gas with depletion of reserves, requires additional revenue.

The increased rates and charges proposed in the aforesaid filings have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and charges and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4, 5, 15, and 16 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's

[5] The stated effective date is the first day after expiration of the required 30 days' notice, or the effective date proposed by Magnolia, if later.

general rules and regulations, a public hearing be held, upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and charges, and pending such hearing and decision thereon the above designated supplements be and the same hereby are suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 13, 1957, and August 14, 1957, respectively, and until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplements hereby suspended nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by sections 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

H. L. HUNT

NOTICE OF CONTINUANCE OF HEARING

MARCH 13, 1957.

Upon consideration of the motion filed March 8, 1957, by Counsel for H. L. Hunt for continuance of the hearing now scheduled for March 25, 1957, in the above-designated matters;

Notice is hereby given that the hearing in these matters is postponed to commence at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., April 23, 1957, in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C.

MAGNOLIA PETROLEUM CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGES IN RATES

MARCH 13, 1957.

Magnolia Petroleum Company (Magnolia) on February 28 and 13, 1957, tendered for filing proposed changes in its presently effective rate schedule for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed changes, which constitute increased rates and charges, are contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Letter of Agreement dated December 20, 1954; Notice of Change, undated.

Purchaser: Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 19 to Magnolia's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 16; Supplement No. 20 to Magnolia's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 16.

Effective date:[2] March 30, 1957; March 15, 1957.

In support of the proposed increased rate, Magnolia states that the contract was entered into in good faith as the result of arms length negotiations and that the long-term contract resulted with the installment price schedule therein. Magnolia also states that because of the competitive nature of the producing segment of the natural gas industry to deny the increased price, which was based upon the "supply and demand formula", would be confiscatory of the seller's property. Magnolia further states that the increasing costs of exploration, production, and processing of natural gas with depletion of reserves, requires additional revenue.

The increased rates and charges proposed have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed increased rates and charges, and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations thereunder (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of said proposed increased rates and charges; and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, the above-designated supplements be and are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 15, 1957, and until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by § § 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

[Docket No. G-12194]

MAGNOLIA PETROLEUM CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

MARCH 13, 1957.

Magnolia Petroleum Company (Magnolia), on February 12, 1957, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for a sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, undated.

Purchaser: Louisiana Nevada Transit Company.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 4 to Magnolia's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 40.

Effective date:[2] March 14, 1957.

In support of the proposed increase, Magnolia states that the increased rate is provided for by contract and negotiated at arm's-length, and that the costs of production, exploration and drilling justify the proposed increase.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed increased rate and charge, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations thereunder (18 CFR, Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of said proposed increased rate and charge; and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, the above-designated supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 14, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)).

SHELL OIL CO.

ORDER ACCEPTING RATE SCHEDULE FOR FILING AND PROVIDING FOR HEARING

MARCH 13, 1957.

On November 18, 1954, Shell Oil Company (Shell) tendered for filing as its June 7, 1954 rate schedule[1] its contract dated May 1, 1951, with Texas Gas Transmission Company (Texas Gas).

Such rate schedule shows an original rate for gas deliveries of 9.997 cents per Mcf (including 1.0¢ tax reimbursement); however, Shell in its accompanying billing statement showed without explanation a rate of 13.5 cents per Mcf (12.5¢ plus tax reimbursement) therefor. By letter of January 6, 1955, Shell was advised that, pending explanation, no action would be taken on the tender, denominated as Shell's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 153.

By filing of February 11, 1957, Shell has proposed a change of rate (the subject of a separate order issued in Docket No. G-12192 contemporaneously herewith), and has explained its claim for the 13.5 cents per Mcf rate as based on a "favored nation" provision of Rate Schedule No. 153, which Shell claims, and Texas Gas denies, to have been triggered in February, 1954. It further appears that the issue of Shell's rates and charges effective on June 7, 1954 (see Regulations Under the Natural Gas Act, § 154.92 (a)) is the subject of proposed litigation between the parties to the contract.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that the Commission accept for filing Shell's said Rate Schedule No. 153, tendered November 18, 1954, and that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the effective rate thereunder on June 7, 1954.

The Commission orders:

(A) Shell Oil Company's contract dated May 1, 1951, with Texas Gas Transmission Company is accepted for filing as Shell's Rate Schedule No. 153.

(B) Pursuant to the authority contained in the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4, 5, 15, and 16 thereof, and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing shall be held commencing on April 22, 1957 at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., for the purpose of determining and fixing the rate properly effective on June 7, 1954, for the sale of gas by Shell Oil Company under its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 153 to Texas Gas Transmission Company, and any other matters incident to such issue.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.

SHELL OIL CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

MARCH 13, 1957.

Shell Oil Company (Shell), on February 11, 1957, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for a sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change dated February 7, 1957.

Purchaser: Texas Gas Transmission Corporation.

Effective date:[1] March 13, 1957.

In support of the increase Shell states that it derives from a favored-nation provision in its contract with Texas Gas Transmission Company which was a major inducement to Shell's agreement to sell under a long term contract, that the proposed rate equals or is lower than other rates for sales of natural gas in the area, and that the increase is necessary to offset increases in its cost of production.

By order issued contemporaneously herewith in Docket No. G-12191, Shell's Rate Schedule No. 153 has been accepted for filing, and a hearing has been ordered on the matter of Shell's lawful rate existing on June 7, 1954 for the sale of gas in question.

The increased rate and charge now proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed increased rate and charge, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of said proposed increased rate and charge; and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, the above-designated supplement hereby is suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 13, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of, or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G-8921 etc.]

ARKANSAS FUEL OIL CORP. ET AL.

ORDER POSTPONING DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 12, 1957.

In the matters of Arkansas Fuel Oil Corporation, Docket Nos. G-8921, G-9386, G-9571, G-9800, G-10036, G-11289, and G-11290; Arkansas Fuel Oil Corporation (Operator), Docket Nos. G-11311 and G-11327; R. H. Goodrich, Docket Nos. G-8977 and G-9575; W. H. Cocke, Docket Nos. G-8978 and G-9570; C. N. Johnston, et al., Docket Nos. G-9136 and G-9569; John W. Mecom (doing business as Mecom Petroleums), Docket No. G-10357.

By order issued March 2, 1956, the Commission consolidated, fixed date of hearing to commence April 6, 1956, and specified procedure in certain suspension proceedings involving sales of natural gas in interstate commerce from the Duck Lake Field in St. Mary and St. Martin Parishes, Louisiana. Such consolidation included, among others, Arkansas Fuel Oil Corporation (Arkansas), Docket Nos. G-8921 and G-9571, and Humble Oil & Refining Company (Humble), Docket Nos. G-8925 and G-9574. By notice of the Secretary, dated March 7, 1956, the hearing scheduled in the March 2, 1956, order was postponed to a date to be fixed by further notice.

By notice of the Secretary, dated February 26, 1957, certain dockets, including the above-mentioned Humble dockets, were severed from the proceedings consolidated by the March 2, 1956 order, and the remaining dockets, which included Arkansas Docket Nos. G-8921 and G-9571, were consolidated with other Arkansas rate suspension dockets and with the other rate suspension proceedings identified in the caption hereof. Such consolidated dockets were scheduled for hearing on April 1, 1957.

On March 4, 1957, Arkansas filed a motion for a continuance of the April 1, 1957 hearing to December 2, 1957. As grounds in support of its motion, Arkansas asserts, inter alia, that the presentation of its case before the Commission was geared to a joint use of data with Humble, the dockets of which are no longer consolidated with those of Arkansas. The arrangements which Arkansas had consummated some time ago with Humble, whereby certain economic and other testimony and data would be prepared for joint rate-case use, have resulted in such project being underway, but not completed. Further, Arkansas alleges that it and the other Duck Lake

Field non-operators would be compelled to obtain from Humble, the operator, information with respect to cost considerations involved in the operations in this field, since these data are in the custody of Humble alone.

The Commission finds: Based on the above grounds advanced by Arkansas in support of its motion for continuance good cause has been shown for postponing the hearing in the instant consolidated proceedings to June 10, 1957.

The Commission orders: The hearing in these matters, now fixed to commence April 1, 1957, be and it is hereby postponed to June 10, 1957.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-3571]

WHEELING ELECTRIC CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF DECLARATION REGARDING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF SHORT-TERM NOTES

MARCH 14, 1957.

Notice is hereby given that Wheeling Electric Company ("Wheeling"), a public utility subsidiary of American Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, has filed with this Commission a declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and has designated sections 6 and 7 of the act and Rule U-50 (a) (2) thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to the declaration on file in the office of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Wheeling has orally established a line of credit with five banking institutions under which it proposes to borrow, from time to time prior to March 1, 1958, an aggregate amount not to exceed $3,000,000, to be outstanding at any one time, as follows:

Mellon National Bank & Trust Company, Pittsburgh, Pa.	$1,400,000
First National City Bank of New York, New York, N. Y.	400,000
Manufacturers Trust Company, New York, N. Y.	400,000
Guaranty Trust Company of New York, New York, N. Y.	400,000
Bankers Trust Company, New York, N. Y.	400,000
Total	3,000,000

Of the $3,000,000 proposed to be borrowed, it is stated that borrowings of $643,000 are exempt from the provisions of section 6 (a) of the act by the first sentence of section 6 (b) of the act. Accordingly, authority is being requested for borrowings in amounts not to exceed an aggregate of $2,357,000.

The proposed borrowings are to be evidenced by notes maturing not more than 270 days after the date of the borrowing, and the notes are to bear interest at the current prime credit rate effective on the date of the borrowing, which prime rate is presently 4 percent per annum. The notes are to be prepayable in whole or in part without premium. All bank loan notes outstanding at the time of the next permanent financing are to be paid from the proceeds of such financing.

The proceeds from the proposed borrowings are to be used to pay part of the costs of Wheeling's 1957 construction program, estimated at $3,600,000.

No finders' fees or commissions are to be paid and it is estimated that the expenses to be incurred by Wheeling will not exceed $100; no legal or other fees, commissions or expenses are to be paid, except that routine services will be performed by American Gas and Electric Service Corporation, the system's mutual service company, the cost of which services are estimated not to exceed $500.

It is represented that no State commission and no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than March 29, 1957, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on this matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the declaration which he proposes to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission orders a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date the declaration, as filed or as it may be amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 or take such other actions as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

GREAT SWEET GRASS OILS, LTD.

ORDER SUMMARILY SUSPENDING TRADING

MARCH 14, 1957.

In the matter of trading on the American Stock Exchange in the $1.00 par value Capital Stock of Great Sweet Grass Oils Limited, File No. 1-3827.

I. The $1.00 par value Capital Stock of Great Sweet Grass Oils Limited (hereinafter called "registrant") is listed and registered on the American Stock Exchange, a national securities exchange (hereinafter called "the exchange").

II. The Commission on October 19, 1956, issued its order and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (hereinafter called "the act"), and on October 24, 1956, issued its amended order and notice of hearing under the act to determine at a hearing to be held November 13, 1956, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months, or to withdraw, the registration of the Capital Stock of registrant on the exchange for failure to comply with section 13 of the act and the rules and regulations thereunder, in that the Commission had reason to believe that the reports filed by registrant on Form 8-K and Form 10-K were false and misleading in certain respects set forth in said orders. On October 31, 1956, the Commission issued its second amended order and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act restating the allegations in the original and amended orders and including allegations that the Commission had reason to believe that the registrant's current report on Form 8-K for the month of December, 1955, and amendments thereto, and that registrant's annual report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1955, and amendments thereto, were false and misleading in additional respects set forth in said order. On November 16, 1956, the Commission issued its third amended order and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act restating the allegations in the original and amended orders and including allegations that the Commission had reason to believe that the registrant's current report on Form 8-K for the month of August, 1955, was false and misleading in certain respects set forth in said order, and that the Form 8-K report for the month of December, 1955, and the Form 10-K report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1955 were false and misleading in additional respects set forth in said order. On March 4, 1957, the Commission issued its order summarily suspending trading pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the act in said securities on the exchange for the reasons set forth in said order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive and manipulative acts or practices from March 5, 1957, to March 14, 1957, inclusive.

III. On November 7, 1956, counsel representing registrant requested a postponement of the hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act in order to enable him to prepare for the hearing. Pursuant to this request, the Commission on November 7, 1956, issued its order postponing the date of said hearing to November 26, 1956. Said hearing has commenced but has not yet been concluded by Commission order or decision.

IV. The Commission has reason to believe that the false reports filed by registrant as alleged in the orders and notices of hearing referred to in paragraph II and the relationship between registrant and Kroy Oils Limited, also subject to an order issued concurrently herewith under section 19 (a) (4) of the act, and also subject to an order and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act, which hearing has been consolidated with the hearing referred to in paragraph III, are such as to cause widespread confusion and uncertainty in the market for registrant's shares. Under the circumstances recited in this order, the Commission is of the opinion that it would be impossible for the investing public to reach an informed judgment at this time as to the value of registrant's securities or for trading in such securities to be conducted in an orderly and equitable manner.

V. The Commission being of the opinion that the public interest requires the summary suspension of trading in such security on the exchange and that such action is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors; and

The Commission being of the opinion that such suspension is necessary in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices, with the result that it will be unlawful under section 15 (c) (2) of the act and the Commission's Rule X-15C2-2 thereunder for any broker or dealer to make use of the mails or of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, such security otherwise than on a national securities exchange.

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the act that trading in said securities on the American Stock Exchange be summarily suspended in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices for a period of ten days from March 15, 1957, to March 24, 1957, inclusive.

By the Commission.

KROY OILS, LTD.

ORDER SUMMARILY SUSPENDING TRADING

MARCH 14, 1957.

In the matter of trading on the American Stock Exchange in the 20¢ par value Capital Stock of Kroy Oils Limited, File No. 1-3679.

I. The 20¢ par value Capital Stock of Kroy Oils Limited, an Alberta corporation (hereinafter called "registrant"), is listed and registered on the American Stock Exchange, a national securities exchange (hereinafter called "the exchange").

II. The Commission on November 2, 1956, issued its order and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (hereinafter called "the act") to determine at a hearing to be held on November 20, 1956, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months, or to withdraw, the registration of the Capital Stock of registrant on the exchange for failure to comply with section 13 of the act and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder, in that the Commission has reason to believe that a current report for the month of May, 1956, on Form 8-K, filed by registrant with the Commission was false and misleading in certain respects set forth in said order. On March 4, 1957, the Commission issued its order summarily suspending trading of said securities on the exchange pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the act for the reasons set forth in said order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices for a period of ten days from March 5, 1957, to March 14, 1957, inclusive.

III. On November 7, 1956, counsel representing registrant requested a postponement of the hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act in order to enable him to prepare for the hearing. Pursuant to this request, the Commission on November 7, 1956, issued its order postponing the date of said hearing to November 26, 1956. Said hearing has commenced but has not yet been concluded by Commission order or decision.

IV. The Commission has reason to believe that the false report filed by registrant as alleged in the order and notice of hearing referred to in paragraph II and the relationship between registrant and Great Sweet Grass Oils Limited, also subject to an order issued concurrently herewith under section 19 (a) (4) of the act, and also subject to an order and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act, which hearing has been consolidated with the hearing referred to in paragraph III, are such as to cause widespread confusion and uncertainty in the market for registrant's shares. Under the circumstances recited in this order, the Commission is of the opinion that it would be impossible for the investing public to reach an informed judgment at this time as to the value of registrant's securities or for trading in such securities to be conducted in an orderly and equitable manner.

V. The Commission being of the opinion that the public interest requires the summary suspension of trading in such security on the exchange and that such action is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors; and

The Commission being of the opinion that such suspension is necessary in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices, with the result that it will be unlawful under section 15 (c) (2) of the act and the Commission's Rule X-15C2-2 thereunder for any broker or dealer to make use of the mails or of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, such security otherwise than on a national securities exchange.

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the act that trading in said securities on the American Stock Exchange be summarily suspended in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices for a period of ten days from March 15, 1957, to March 24, 1957, inclusive.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION

ALSIKE CLOVER SEED

INVESTIGATION INSTITUTED AND PUBLIC HEARING ORDERED

On March 14, 1957, the President requested the United States Tariff Commission to make an investigation for the purposes of paragraph 2 of Executive Order 10401 dated October 14, 1952 (17 F. R. 9125) to determine whether, and if so, to what extent, the modification of the trade-agreement concession on alsike clover seed by Presidential Proclamation No. 3100 of June 29, 1955 (20 F. R. 4699) will remain necessary after June 30, 1957, in order to prevent or remedy serious injury or the threat thereof to the domestic industry producing like or directly competitive products. The President requested further that the report of the Commission's findings be made to him not later than May 15, 1957.

The modification by the President of the trade-agreement concession on alsike clover seed provided for in paragraph 763 of the Tariff Act of 1930 was made under the "escape clause" procedure, after investigation and report to him by the Tariff Commission under section 7 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951 (Investigation No. 31). Under the original trade-agreement concession, a reduced duty of 2 cents per pound was applicable to imports of alsike clover seed. Under the concession as modified, a tariff-rate quota was established providing that during each of the 12-month periods beginning July 1, 1955, and July 1, 1956, the quantity of alsike clover seed which may be entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption, subject to the duty rate of 2 cents per pound shall be limited to 2,500,000 pounds, and that all such seed entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption in excess of that quantity during each of these periods shall be dutiable at the rate of 6 cents per pound.

In accordance with the request of the President, the Commission on March 14, 1957, instituted an investigation under paragraph 2 of Executive Order 10401 and ordered a hearing in connection with such investigation to be held on April 15, 1957, beginning at 10 a. m. in the Hearing Room of the Tariff Commission, Eighth and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C. Parties interested will be given opportunity to be present, to produce evidence, and to be heard at the hearing. Such parties desiring to appear and testify at the hearing should notify the Secretary of the Tariff Commission, in writing, at least three days in advance of the date of the hearing.

By order of the United States Tariff Commission this 14th day of March 1957.

DONN N. BENT,
Secretary.

TRADE AGREEMENT NEGOTIATIONS WITH GOVERNMENTS WHICH ARE CONTRACTING PARTIES TO THE GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE REGARDING COMPENSATION FOR ESCAPE CLAUSE ACTION

NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION AND HEARINGS

Public notice of investigation and hearings under section 3 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951, as amended, and section 332 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as follows: Investigation No. 6. List of articles for consideration in proposed trade agreement negotiations with the governments which are contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade regarding compensation for escape clause action.

1. The final date for filing requests to testify at Tariff Commission public hearings is April 17, 1957.

2. The final date for filing written statements with the Tariff Commission is April 17, 1957.

3. Tariff Commission public hearings will begin on April 24, 1957.

4. Public announcements relating to the proposed trade-agreement negotiations have also been issued by the Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements [1] and the Committee for Reciprocity Information,[2] and appear concurrently with this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements this day issued public notice of the intention of this Government to enter into trade-agreement negotiations with the governments which are contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade regarding compensation for escape clause action. On March 14, 1957, in accordance with section 3 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951, as amended, the President furnished to the United States Tariff Commission a list (hereinafter referred to as the "President's list") of articles imported into the United States to me considered in the proposed negotiations, and requested the Tariff Commission to make a "peril point" investigation and report with respect to each such article, as provided in said section 3 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951, as amended. A copy of the President's list is attached to the announcement of the Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements published in the FEDERAL REGISTER concurrently with this notice, and is annexed to this notice for convenience.[3]

A. Investigation instituted. Pursuant to section 3 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951, as amended, and under the authority of section 332 of the Tariff Act of 1930, the United States Tariff Commission has this day instituted an investigation with respect to the articles included in the President's list.

B. Purpose of investigation. The purpose of the investigation is to obtain the facts necessary to enable the Tariff Commission to formulate findings (known as "peril point" findings) for inclusion in a report to the President with respect to each article included in the President's list as to (1) the limit to which the modification of duties and other import restrictions, imposition of additional import restrictions, or specific continuance of existing customs or excise treatment may be extended in order to carry out the purpose of Section 350 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (Trade Agreements Act), without causing or threatening serious injury to the domestic industry producing like or directly competitive articles, and (2) if increases in duties or additional import restrictions are required to avoid serious injury to the domestic industry producing like or directly competitive articles, the minimum increases in duties or additional import restrictions required.

C. Written statements and public hearings. Parties interested will be given opportunity to present their views with respect to the subject matter of the investigation either by submission of written statements or by oral testimony at public hearings, or both. In order to permit, within the limited time and resources available, all interested parties to present information and views concerning the articles in the President's list in an orderly manner and with the least possible inconvenience to all concerned, the Commission has established the following procedure for submission of written statements and the conduct of hearings:

1. Written statements in lieu of appearance at hearings. Interested parties may present their information and views through the submission of written statements in lieu of appearances at the public hearings. Such statements must be under oath and will be given the same consideration as oral testimony presented at the hearings, and, except for information submitted and accepted in confidence, will be made available for inspection by interested parties. Twenty copies of written statements shall be submitted, only one of which need be sworn to. Such statements should be submitted as early as possible, but not later than April 17, 1957.

2. Scope of written statements and oral testimony. Written statements and oral testimony must relate to articles included in the President's list, and must be confined to matters relevant to the purpose of the investigation as stated in B, above. At the beginning of any written statement that is read at the hearings, or any oral testimony given at the hearings, the article and tariff paragraph number to which the testimony relates should be specifically identified.

3. Submission of information in confidence. Information pertinent to the subject matter of the investigation which interested parties desire to submit in confidence may be submitted with written statements or at the time testimony is given at the hearings, on separate sheets, each clearly marked "Submitted in confidence."

4. Appearance at public hearings. The following information and instructions should be carefully studied by all persons interested in appearing at the public hearings in this investigation.

a. Requests to appear at the public hearings must be filed in writing (by letter separate from any written statement or brief) with the Secretary of the Commission on or before April 17, 1957. Such requests must contain the following information:

(1) The tariff paragraph number and a description of the article or articles on which testimony will be presented.

(2) The name and organization of the witness or witnesses who will testify, and the name, address, telephone number, and organization of the person filing the request.

(3) A brief indication of the position to be taken concerning the customs treatment of the articles affected.

(4) A careful estimate of the time desired for presentation of oral testimony by all witnesses for whom the request is filed.

NOTE: The Commission reserves the right to limit the time assigned to witnesses. Witnesses may, of course, supplement their oral testimony with written statements of any desired length. Such supplemental statements must, however, be presented at the time the oral testimony is given.

b. The Secretary of the Commission should be promptly notified of any changes in the request for appearance as originally filed.

c. It is suggested that parties who have a common interest in one or more of the articles listed may wish to arrange for a consolidated presentation of their views.

5. Date and conduct of hearings. a. The public hearings in this investigation will commence at 10:00 o'clock a. m., e. s. t., on Wednesday, the 24th day of April 1957, in the Hearing Room of the Tariff Commission Building, 8th and E Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C. The hearings will be held each day from 10:00 a. m. to about 1:00 p. m., and are scheduled to be concluded not later than Thursday, April 25, 1957.

b. Parties who have properly entered their appearance by April 17, 1957, as indicated under paragraph C, 4, above, will be individually notified of the date on which they are scheduled to appear. Such notifications will be sent as soon as possible after the closing date for requests to appear (April 17, 1957).

c. Questioning of witnesses will be limited to members of the Commission.

6. Related hearings before the Committee for Reciprocity Information. Published concurrently with this notice is an announcement by the Committee for Reciprocity Information regarding public hearings to be held by that Committee on the articles included in the President's list, and on other matters, to begin on April 24, 1957. Arrangements will be made to permit persons desiring to appear at both Tariff Commission and Committee for Reciprocity Information hearings to do so without conflict in scheduling, and, where possible, to present their testimony at both hearings on the same day. Oral testimony and written statements of interested parties received by the Tariff Commission in connection with this investigation will be made available by the Tariff Commission to the Committee for Reciprocity Information. Accordingly, as stated in the Committee for Reciprocity Information notice, appearance before the Committee for Reciprocity Information for the purpose of submitting the same information, although permissible, will not be necessary.

E. Communications to be addressed to Secretary. All communications regarding the Tariff Commission investigation, including requests for appearance at the Tariff Commission hearings, should be addressed to the Secretary, United States Tariff Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

By direction of the United States Tariff Commission.

[SEAL] DONN N. BENT,
Secretary.

INTERDEPARTMENTAL COMMITTEE ON TRADE AGREEMENTS

TRADE AGREEMENT NEGOTIATIONS WITH GOVERNMENTS WHICH ARE CONTRACTING PARTIES TO THE GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE REGARDING COMPENSATION FOR ESCAPE CLAUSE ACTION

Pursuant to section 4 of the Trade Agreements Act, approved June 12, 1934, as amended (48 Stat. 945, ch. 474; 65 Stat. 73, ch. 141) and to paragraph 4 of Executive Order 10082 of October 5, 1949 (3 CFR, 1949 Supp., p. 126), and in view of certain "escape olause" action with respect to toweling of flax, hemp, or ramie taken by the President on June 25, 1956 (Proclamation 3143, 3 CFR, 1956 Supp., p. 33) under the authority of section 350 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (48 Stat. 943, ch. 474) and Section 7 (c) of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951 (65 Stat. 74, ch. 141), notice is hereby given by the Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements of intention to enter into trade agreement negotiations under Article XIX of the General Agreement regarding compensation to contracting parties to the Agreement that have a substantial interest as exporters for such escape clause action. Since the purpose of the negotiations is the granting of compensatory concessions by the United States, it is not anticipated that they will result in any concessions by other countries for the benefit of United States exports. The results of these negotiations would be embodied in Schedule XX to the General Agreement.

There is annexed hereto a list of articles imported into the United States to be considered for posisble modification of duties and other import restrictions, or specific continuance of existing customs or excise treatment in the negotiations of which notice is given above.

The articles proposed for consideration in the negotiations are identified in the annexed list by specifying the numbers of the paragraphs in tariff schedules of Title I of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, in which they are provided for together with the language used in such tariff paragraphs to provide for such articles, except that where necessary the statutory language has been modified by the omission of words or the addition of new language in order to narrow the scope of the original language.

No article will be considered in the negotiations for possible modification of duties or other import restrictions, imposition of additional import restrictions, or specific continuance of existing customs or excise treatment unless it is included, specifically or by reference, in the annexed list or unless it is subsequently included in a supplementary public list. Only duties on the articles listed imposed under the paragraphs of the Tariff Act of 1930 specified with regard to such articles will be considered for a possible decrease, but additional or separate ordinary duties or import taxes on such articles imposed under any other provisions of law may be bound against increase as an assurance that the concession under the listed paragraph will not be nullified. In the event that an article which as of March 1, 1957 was regarded as classifiable under a description included in the list is excluded therefrom by judicial decision or otherwise prior to the conclusion of the trade agreement negotiations, the list will nevertheless be considered as including such article.

Pursuant to section 4 of the Trade Agreements Act, as amended, and paragraph 5 of Executive Order 10082 of October 5, 1949, information and views as to any aspect of the proposals announced in this notice may be submitted to the Committee for Reciprocity Information in accordance with the announcement of this date issued by that Committee.[1] Any matters appropriate to be considered in connection with the negotiations proposed above may be presented.

Public hearings in connection with "peril point" investigation of the United States Tariff Commission in connection with the articles included in the annexed list pursuant to Section 3 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951, as amended, are the subject of an announcement of this date issued by that Commission.[2]

By direction of the Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements this 18th day of March 1957.

CARL D. CORSE,
Chairman,
Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements.

COMMITTEE FOR RECIPROCITY INFORMATION

TRADE AGREEMENT NEGOTIATIONS WITH GOVERNMENTS WHICH ARE CONTRACTING PARTIES TO THE GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE REGARDING COMPENSATION FOR ESCAPE CLAUSE ACTION

SUBMISSION OF INFORMATION TO COMMITTEE FOR RECIPROCITY INFORMATION

Closing date for applications to appear at hearing April 17, 1957.

Closing date for submission of briefs April 17, 1957.

Public hearings open April 24, 1957.

The Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements has issued on this day [1] a notice of intention to participate in trade agreement negotiations under Article XIX of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade regarding compensation to contracting parties to the Agreement that have a substantial interest as exporters for the escape clause action with respect to toweling of flax, hemp, or ramie taken by the President on June 25, 1956. Annexed to the notice of the Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements is a list of articles imported into the United States to be considered for possible concessions in the negotiations. Since the purpose of the negotiations is the granting of compensatory concessions by the United States, it is not anticipated that they will result in any concessions by other countries for the benefit of United States exports.

The Committee for Reciprocity Information hereby gives notice that all applications for oral presentation of views in regard to the proposed renegotiations shall be submitted to the Committee for Reciprocity Information not later than April 17, 1957. The application must indicate the product or products on which the individual or groups desire to be heard and an estimate of the time required for oral presentation. Written statements shall be submitted not later than April 17, 1957. Such communications shall be addressed to "Committee for Reciprocity Information, Tariff Commission Building, Washington 25, D. C." Fifteen copies of written statesments, either typed, printed, or duplicated shall be submitted, of which one copy shall be sworn to.

Written statements submitted to the Committee, except information and business data proffered in confidence, shall be open to inspection by interested persons. Information and business data proffered in confidence shall be submitted on separate pages clearly marked "For Official Use Only of Committee for Reciprocity Information."

Public hearings will be held before the Committee for Reciprocity Information, at which oral statements will be heard, beginning at 2:00 p. m. on April 24, 1957, in the hearing room in the Tariff Commission Building, Eighth and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C. Witnesses who make application to be heard will be advised regarding the time and place of their individual appearances. Appearances at hearings before the Committee may be made only by or on behalf of those persons who have filed written statements and who have within the time prescribed made written application for oral presentation of views. Statements made at the public hearings shall be under oath.

Persons may present their views regarding any matter appropriate to be considered in connection with the proposed negotiations, although as indicated above, it is not anticipated that they will result in any concessions by other countries for the benefit of United States exports. Copies of the list attached to the notice of intention to negotiate may be obtained from the Committee for Reciprocity Information at the address designated above and may be inspected at the field offices of the Department of Commerce.

The United States Tariff Commission has today [2] announced public hearings on the import items appearing in the list annexed to the notice of intention to negotiate to run concurrently with the hearings of the Committee for Reciprocity Information. Oral testimony and written information submitted to the Tariff Commission will be made available to and will be considered by the Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements. Consequently, those whose interests relate only to import products included in the foregoing list, and who appear before the Tariff Commission, need not, but may if they wish, appear also before the Committee for Reciprocity Information.

By direction of the Committee for Reciprocity Information this 18th day of March 1957.

EDWARD YARDLEY,
Secretary, Committee for Reciprocity Information.

(b) Plants of the species and varieties listed in paragraph (a) of this section may be moved interstate in compliance with the regulations in this subpart.

(c) Under the regulations in this subpart, seeds and fruit of the species and varieties listed in paragraph (a) of this section, if produced in any of the States of Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming, may be moved between such States only under permit or, wherever produced, may be moved from the States named to points outside thereof, and between States other than those named, without restriction. Under the regulations, seeds and fruit of the species and varieties listed in paragraph (a) of this section generally are prohibited movement into the States named.

(Sec. 9, 37 Stat. 318; 7 U. S. C. 162. Interprets or applies sec. 8, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161)

These instructions shall become effective on March 21, 1957, when they shall supersede P. P. C. 557, second revision, effective July 3, 1956 (7 CFR, Supp., 301.38–5a).

The purpose of this amendment is to add to the list of rust-resistant species and horticultural varieties of barberry, mahoberberis, and mahonia plants the following three additional species and varieties: Berberis manipurana, Berberis thunbergi atropurpurea erecta, and Berberis wokingensis. The designation of such rust-resistant species and varieties in effect constitutes a relaxation of the restrictions of the regulations and depends upon facts within the knowledge of the Plant Pest Control Division. It has been determined that there is no unwarranted pest risk involved in the permitted movement of such species and varieties. The determination having been made that these species and varieties are rust-resistant, authorization for their movement in accordance with the regulations should be accomplished promptly. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure concerning these instructions are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest, and since the instructions relieve restrictions, they may be made effective less than thirty days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 18th day of March 1957.

[SEAL] E. D. BURGESS,
Director,
Plant Pest Control Division.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 989—RAISINS PRODUCED FROM RAISIN VARIETY GRAPES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS AND PROVIDING FOR LIQUIDATION OF RESERVE AND SURPLUS POOLS

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act," and of Marketing Agreement No. 109 and Marketing Order No. 89, as amended (20 F. R. 6435; 21 F. R. 8182), regulating the handling of raisins produced from raisin variety grapes grown in California, hereinafter referred to as "Order No. 89," effective pursuant to the provisions of said act, an order (22 F. R. 863) was issued on February 7, 1957, modifying the volume regulation established for the 1956–57 crop year by the implementing order (§ 989.211; 21 F. R. 8142) issued on October 18, 1956. The implementing order designated the percentages of each varietal type of standard raisins acquired by handlers during the crop year beginning September 1, 1956 and ending August 31, 1957, which should be free tonnage, reserve tonnage, and surplus tonnage, respectively. A free tonnage percentage of 100, a reserve tonnage percentage of zero and a surplus tonnage percentage of zero were designated for each varietal type of raisins, other than for the natural (sun-dried) Thompson Seedless varietal type. For such varietal type, these percentages were fixed at 73, 10 and 17, respectively.

A finding was made and set forth in the modification order that the application of the then existing volume regulation to raisins acquired by handlers on and after February 12, 1957, would not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act and that such percentages should be modified with respect thereto. This finding was predicated on the fact that it appeared not only would the estimated season average grower return for all 1956 crop raisins exceed the estimated season average parity price for all raisins, but also the estimated season average grower return for raisins of the natural (sun-dried) Thompson Seedless varietal type would exceed the equivalent parity price for such raisins. In addition, the situation was such that the prices of raisins in export outlets to which surplus raisins had been allocated, were then equivalent to those prevailing for free tonnage raisins in Western Hemisphere outlets and hence were attracting free tonnage.

Accordingly, it was provided in the aforesaid modification order that for any raisins of any and all varietal types (including the natural (sun-dried) Thompson Seedless varietal type) which are acquired on and after February 12, 1957, such percentages shall be: Free tonnage percentage, 100 percent; reserve tonnage percentage, zero percent; and surplus tonnage percentage, zero percent. It was stated in the modification order that appropriate action would be taken promptly as required with respect to reserve and surplus pool tonnage raisins then being held for the account of the Raisin Administrative Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "committee") which were set aside in connection with acquisitions of raisins of the natural (sun-dried) Thompson Seedless varietal type by handlers prior to the effective time of the modification.

Based upon the recommendation of the committee and other available information, it is hereby found and determined that certain of the provisions of Order No. 89 and of certain of the provisions of the implementing orders, including the administrative rules and procedures, as hereinafter stated, will not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act for the period beginning with the date of the publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. d. s. t., September 1, 1957, and that they should be suspended for such period; also, that the additional procedures, as hereinafter set forth, should be established for disposing of the existing unsold reserve tonnage and surplus tonnage raisins set aside in connection with acquisitions of raisins by handlers prior to February 12, 1957.

It is therefore ordered, That the provisions of paragraph (e) of § 989.66, the last sentence of paragraph (a) of § 989.67, paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of § 989.67, and § 989.68 of Order No. 89 (20 F. R. 6435; 21 F. R. 8182), paragraph (a) of § 989.167 and § 989.168 (other than the first sentence) of the Administrative Rules and Procedures (21 F. R. 4800; 5033), and implementing regulation § 989.266 (21 F. R. 7789) be, and they hereby are, suspended for the period beginning on the date of the publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER and continuing to 12:01 a. m., P. d. s. t., September 1, 1957.

It is further ordered, That the Raisin Administrative Committee, the administrative agency for the operation of Order No. 89, shall dispose of the unsold reserve and surplus pool tonnages required to be set aside for its account by handlers in connection with their acquisitions of raisins prior to February 12, 1957, and make final liquidations of such pools, in conformity with the following provisions:

(a) Reserve tonnage—(1) Offer. On the day this document is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (or if such day should be Saturday, on the following Monday) the committee shall offer all of such reserve tonnage raisins to handlers at $199.10 per ton. Each handler shall be allowed 10 calendar days in which to purchase his share of the offer, which share shall be determined as the same proportion of the offer that the reserve tonnage held by him is of the reserve tonnage held by all handlers.

(2) Reoffers. Any unpurchased tonnage shall be reoffered, for a period of five business days, beginning on the second business day after the close of the original offer. Handlers eligible to purchase from the first reoffer shall be those who purchased 100 percent of their respective shares of the original offer, and they shall be permitted to purchase equal shares of the tonnage reoffered. If there should be any unpurchased tonnage remaining after such reoffer, the committee shall continue with reoffers on the same basis as is prescribed for the original reoffer until the total reserve tonnage has been purchased. In the case of each reoffer subsequent to the original reoffer, handlers eligible to purchase therefrom shall be those who purchased all of their respective shares of all previous reoffers, as well as of the original offer.

(b) Surplus tonnage—(1) Special offer. (i) Simultaneously with its offer of reserve tonnage as provided for in paragraph (a) hereof, the committee shall offer 5,000 tons of the surplus tonnage raisins to handlers for disposition in any marketing channel the same as free tonnage raisins. Such offer shall be made at the same price ($199.10 per ton) as for the reserve tonnage offer: Provided, That the committee shall include in such offer an agreement to rebate $10.00 per ton of said purchase price of $199.10 per ton to any handler submitting proof of sale and exportation to any country outside of the Western Hemisphere ("Western Hemisphere" as used herein, means Greenland and the area east of the International Date Line and west of 30 degrees W. Longitude) subsequent to the date of the offer and prior to September 1, 1957: And provided further, That eligibility for such rebate shall be limited to a quantity of raisins of the natural (sun-dried) Thompson Seedless varietal type, not in excess of the tonnage equivalent of the particular handler's purchase from the 5,000 tons. Proof of such sale and exportation shall be submitted to the committee within 20 calendar days after the date of exportation. Each handler shall be allowed 30 calendar days in which to purchase his share of such offer, which share shall be the same percentage of the 5,000 tons as his acquirements of surplus tonnage raisins for the period beginning September 1, 1956, and ending February 11, 1957, are of the total acquirements of surplus tonnage raisins by all handlers during that period.

(ii) On the second business day after the close of the aforementioned 5,000-ton offer of surplus tonnage raisins, the committee shall reoffer any unpurchased tonnage of such offer, for a period of five business days. Only handlers who purchased all of their shares of the offer shall be eligible to participate in the reoffer. Their respective shares of such reoffer shall be the same percentage of the reoffered quantity as their respective purchases of the 5,000-ton offer were of the total quantity of the offer purchased by all handlers eligible to participate in the reoffer. If any tonnage should remain after the initial reoffer, subsequent reoffers on the same basis shall be made as necessary until all of the 5,000-ton offer has been purchased. In the case of each reoffer subsequent to the original reoffer, handlers eligible to purchase therefrom shall be those who purchased all of their respective shares of all previous reoffers as well as of the offer, and the share of each shall be the same percentage of the reoffered quantity as his purchases from the offer and prior reoffers thereof are of the total purchases from the offer and prior reoffers by all handlers eligible to participate in the then current reoffer.

(2) Offer of remainder of surplus tonnage. (i) On the second business day after the close of the initial offer of 5,000 tons of surplus tonnage raisins, the committee shall offer to handlers, for disposition in any marketing channel the same as free tonnage raisins, the remainder of the surplus pool tonnage raisins (i. e., the tonnage set aside by handlers in connection with their surplus tonnage acquisitions prior to February 12, 1957, and unsold on that date, less 5,000 tons) at the same price ($199.10 per ton) as for the preceding offers of reserve and surplus tonnage raisins under this document. Each handler shall be allowed 10 calendar days in which to purchase his share of such offer, which share shall be determined as the same percentage of the offer that the unsold surplus tonnage raisins (exclusive of any of the quantity representing his share of the 5,000-ton offer) held by him at the time of the offer is of the unsold surplus tonnage raisins (exclusive of any of the 5,000-ton offer) held by all handlers at such time.

(ii) Any unpurchased tonnage remaining after the close of the initial offer shall be reoffered, for a period of five business days, beginning on the second business day after the close of such initial offer. Handlers eligible to purchase from the first reoffer shall be those who purchased 100 percent of their respective shares of the initial offer, and each such handler shall be permitted to purchase from such reoffered quantity in proportion to his share of the offer. If there should be any unpurchased tonnage remaining after such reoffer, the committee shall reoffer promptly such remaining quantity to all handlers, regardless of whether they purchased under the initial offer or the first reoffer, on the basis of the order in which written applications to purchase are received by it and there shall be no limit, up to the quantity available for sale, which a handler may purchase.

(c) General. (1) Whenever a handler's share of surplus tonnage raisins pursuant to this document is less than or exceeds his holdings of the particular pool tonnage being offered or reoffered by an amount smaller than one ton, the committee may adjust the handler's share or allocation so as to avoid the cost of physical transfer of raisins.

(2) The committee shall pay the cost of any necessary transfers of reserve or surplus tonnage raisins, other than those where a handler releases his share to another handler, to the purchasing handler at prevailing haulage rates for the type of transportation and the distance or area involved. Each such cost shall be considered as a part of the operational expenses of the particular pool (i. e., reserve or surplus) to which it relates.

(3) The income from the sale of reserve tonnage subsequent to the effective date of this document shall be combined with the income, if any, from the sale of reserve tonnage prior to such date, and the income from surplus tonnage shall be similarly combined. Likewise, the expenses incurred by the committee in connection with reserve and surplus tonnage subsequent to, and prior to, the effective date of this document shall be combined in the same way. The net proceeds from the disposition of reserve and surplus tonnage raisins shall be distributed by the committee to the respective producers, or their successors in interest thereto, as provided in § 989.66 (g) of Order No. 89.

The actions taken herein shall not be deemed to have any of the following effects with respect to any acts or transactions under this part which took place prior to the effective time of this document: (a) Affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which arose in connection with any provision of Order No. 89, or any implementing order or regulation issued thereunder; (b) release or extinguish any violation of Order No. 89 or any implementing order or regulation issued thereunder; or (c) affect or impair any right or remedies of the United States of America, the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, the Raisin Administrative Committee, or any other person with respect to any such right, duty, obligation, or liability under this part.

Notice of proposed rule making, public procedure thereon, and postponement of the effective time of this document later than the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (see section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) are impracticable, unnecessary and contrary to the public interest. It has now been determined that the estimated season average price for raisins for the 1956–57 crop year will exceed parity, and the provisions of this part which would prevent the pooled raisins now held for the account of the committee from being made available to handlers for disposition in free tonnage outlets must be suspended. Time does not permit such suspension action, and the prescribing of provisions necessary for the orderly liquidation of the reserve and surplus pools, as herein provided, to be preceded by the aforementioned rule making actions. The demand and supply situation is such that it is urgent that the present pool tonnage be made available immediately to meet market demands. This action does not impose new restrictions on handlers. Notice was given in the order (22 F. R. 863) issued on February 7, 1957, modifying the free, reserve, and surplus percentages that action such as that provided in this document, would be taken promptly. In these circumstances, handlers should need no advance notice of this action.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: March 15, 1957, to become effective as of the date of the publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

YARDS DEPARTMENT STORE AND MARK PEARLMAN

Subpart—Advertising falsely or misleadingly: § 13.73 Formal regulatory and statutory requirements: Fur Products Labeling Act; § 13.155 Prices: Comparative; Fictitious Marking; usual as reduced, special, etc. Subpart—Neglecting, unfairly or deceptively, to make material disclosure: § 13.1845 Composition: Fur Products Labeling Act; § 13.1852 Formal regulatory and statutory requirements: Fur Products Labeling Act.

(Sec. 6 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; Sec. 8, 65 Stat. 179; 15 U. S. C. 45, 69f) [Cease and desist order, Yards Department Store et al., Trenton, N. J., Docket 6662, Mar. 5, 1957]

In the Matter of Yards Department Store, a Corporation, and Mark Pearlman, Individually and as Manager of the Fur Department of Said Corporation

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a department store in Trenton, N. J., and the manager of its fur department with violating the Fur Products Labeling Act by advertisements in newspapers, etc., which failed to disclose the names of animals producing the fur in certain fur products, which priced products fictitiously and represented regular prices as reduced therefrom, and which used comparative prices not based on current market values; and by failing to maintain adequate records on which such representations were based.

Following entry of an agreement containing a consent order, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on March 5, 1957, the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents Yards Department Store, a corporation, and its officers, and Mark Perlman, individually and as Manager of the Fur Department of said corporation, and their representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction into commerce, or the sale, advertising, or offering for sale in commerce, or the transportation or distribution in commerce, of any fur product, or in connection with the sale, advertising, offering for sale, transportation, or distribution of any fur product which is made in whole or in part of fur which has been shipped and received in commerce, as "commerce," "fur" and "fur product" are defined in the Fur Products Labeling Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Falsely or deceptively advertising fur products through the use of any advertisement, representation, public announcement, or notice which is intended to aid, promote or assist, directly or indirectly, in the sale or offering for sale of fur products, and which:

1. Fails to disclose the name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur or furs contained in the fur products as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as prescribed under the rules and regulations.

2. Represents directly or by implication that the regular or usual price of any fur product is any amount which is in excess of the price at which the respondents have usually and customarily sold such products in the recent regular course of their business.

3. Makes use of comparative prices or percentage savings claims unless such compared prices or claims are based upon the current market value of the fur product or upon a bona fide compared price at a designated time.

4. Makes price claims and representations of the type referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 above, unless there is maintained by respondents full and adequate records disclosing the facts upon which such claims or representations are based.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: March 5, 1957.

By the Commission.

MONTAMOWER CO. ET AL.

Subpart—Advertising falsely or misleadingly: § 13.140 Old, reclaimed, or reused as new. Subpart—Neglecting, unfairly or deceptively, to make material disclosure: § 13.1880 Old, used, reclaimed, or reused as unused or new.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, The MontaMower Company et al., Traverse City, Mich., Docket 6667, Mar. 7, 1957]

In the Matter of The Montamower Company, a Corporation; Hubert H. Montague, Gerald T. Montague and Velma Montague Individually and as Officers of Said Corporation; and Herbert B. Montague, Trading as MontaMower Distributing Company

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging the corporate manufacturer and the distributor in Traverse City, Mich., of a grass-cutting device designated "MontaMower" with representing that lawn mowers which were used or reconditioned or which contained secondhand parts were new or unused, among other things.

A consent order disposing of the issues as to the distributor respondent was entered February 14, 1957, 22 F. R. 1329.

Following entry of an agreement for a consent order signed by said manufacturer, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on March 7 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent The MontaMower Company, a corporation, and its officers; respondents Hubert H. Montague, Gerald T. Montague and Velma Montague, individually and as officers of respondent The MontaMower Company; and respondents' agents, employees or representatives, directly or through any corporate or other device, in or in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution in commerce (as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act) of lawn mowers now designated as MontaMower or any other lawn mower or grass-cutting device, by the same or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing, directly or by implication, that used or reconditioned lawn mowers, or mowers made in whole or in part of used, second-hand or reconditioned parts of materials, are new or unused, or are made of new or unused parts or materials.

2. Advertising, offering for sale or selling any lawn mowers which have been used, or which contain parts or materials which have been used, without disclosing to the purchaser or potential purchaser, by a clear and conspicuous statement in advertising and sales promotion matter and on the product and the container in which it is shipped and delivered, that the product is used or not new, or that it contains parts or materials which have been used or which are not new.

By "Decision of the Commission", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent The MontaMower Company, a corporation, and respondents Hubert H. Montague, Gerald T. Montague and Velma Montague, individually and as officers of respondent The MontaMower Company, shall within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: March 7, 1957.

FLUORSPAR REGULATION: ACID GRADE FLUORSPAR PURCHASE PROGRAM; SPECIFICATIONS AND PRICE

Pursuant to the authority provided by delegation of authority dated July 31, 1956, from the Secretary of the Interior to the Administrator of General Services (21 F. R. 5872) General Services Administration regulation entitled "Fluorspar Regulation: Acid Grade Fluorspar Purchase Program" is amended by changing § 99.404, from the beginning of said section through paragraph (a) thereof, to read as follows:

§ 99.404 Specifications and price. (a) Fluorspar to be purchased under this program shall meet one of the following specifications:

(1) Hydrofluoric Acid Grade or Cryolite Grade—the chemical and physical requirements set forth in National Stockpile Specification P–69a dated February 13, 1952, copies of which may be obtained by writing to the Commissioner, Defense Materials Service, General Services Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

(2) Cryolite Grade (alternative specification)—the physical requirements of said National Stockpile Specification P–69a and the following chemical requirements:

	Percent by weight (dry basis)
Calcium Fluoride (CaF_2) (minimum)	97.00
Silica (SiO_2) (maximum)	1.10
Sulphur (S) (as sulphide and/or free sulphur) (maximum)	0.10

Fluorspar containing less than 97 percent calcium fluoride by weight (dry basis) is not acceptable under this alternative specification for cryolite grade fluorspar.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (1), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (1)), the following notice is issued:

A petition has been filed by The Dow Chemical Company, Midland, Michigan, proposing the establishment of tolerances for residues of sodium 2,2-dichloropropionate, as 2,2-dichloropropionic acid, as follows: 3 parts per million in or on pineapple and grapes; 10 parts per million in or on potatoes.

The analytical methods proposed in the petition for determining residues of sodium 2,2-dichloropropionate as 2,2-dichloropropionic acid are modifications of the methods described in the Notice of Filing of Petition for Establishment of Tolerance for Residues of Sodium 2,2-dichloropropionate which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 29, 1956, page 9329.

TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

NOTICE OF FILING OF PETITION FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF TOLERANCES FOR RESIDUES OF O,O-DIETHYL O-(2-ISOPROPYL-4-METHYL-6-PYRIMIDINYL)-PHOSPHOROTHIOATE

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (1), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (1)), the following notice is issued:

A petition has been filed by Geigy Agricultural Chemicals, P. O. Box 430, Yonkers, New York, proposing the establishment of a tolerance of 1 part per million for residues of O,O-diethyl O-(2-isopropyl-4-methyl-6-pyrimidinyl)-phosphorothioate in or on the following raw agricultural commodities: Apples, cherries, pears.

The analytical methods proposed in the petition for determining residues of O,O-diethyl O-(2-isopropyl-4-methyl-6-pyrimidinyl)-phosphorothioate are as follows:

1. The method published in Zeitschrift fur Analytische Chemie (Munich), Volume 147, pages 173–183 (1955).

2. A method whereby O,O-diethyl O-(2-isopropyl-4-methyl-6-pyrimidinyl)-phosphorothioate is extracted from the crop with petroleum ether, soluble phosphates are removed with water, the remaining O,O-diethyl O-(2-isopropyl-4-methyl-6-pyrimidinyl)-phosphorothioate is hydrolyzed, and phosphorus is determined by the molybdenum blue reaction, reported in The Biochemical Journal (London), Volume 32, pages 295–298 (1938).

3. A cholinesterase inhibition procedure described in:

a. H. O. Fallscheer and J. W. Cook, Journal of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists, Volume 39, page 691 (1956).

b. J. W. Cook, Ibid., Volume 37, page 561 (1954).

NOTICE OF FILING OF PETITION FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF TOLERANCE FOR RESIDUES OF SODIUM O-PHENYLPHENATE IN OR ON PINEAPPLE

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (1), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (1)), the following notice is issued:

A petition has been filed by The Dow Chemical Company, Midland, Michigan, proposing the establishment of a tolerance of 10 parts per million for residues of sodium o-phenylphenate, determined as orthophenylphenol, in or on pineapple.

The analytical method proposed in the petition for determining residues of orthophenylphenol is as follows: An acidified sample of pineapple is steam distilled. The distillate is allowed to react with 4-aminoantipyrine in the presence of alkaline ferricyanide to form a purplish-red antipyrine dye which is measured colorimetrically.

LABEL STATEMENTS CONCERNING DIETARY PROPERTIES OF FOOD PURPORTING TO BE OR REPRESENTED FOR SPECIAL DIETARY USES

NOTICE EXTENDING TIME IN WHICH TO FILE VIEWS AND COMMENTS ON PROPOSAL TO AMEND LABEL STATEMENT REGULATIONS CONCERNING NIACIN AND RIBOFLAVIN

Requests have been received for a 30-day extension of time in which to file views and comments on the proposal to amend the regulations concerning label statements with respect to niacin and riboflavin which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 16, 1957 (22 F. R. 986). The requests set forth reasonable grounds for such extension.

In exercise of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 403 (j), 701, 52 Stat. 1048, 1055, as amended; 21 U. S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

EXEMPTION OF SMALL HOLDING COMPANY SYSTEMS; PROPOSED RESCISSION

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), particularly sections 3 (a), 3 (d) and 20 (a) thereof, and deeming such action appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors or consumers, has under consideration a proposal by its Division of Corporate Regulation to rescind § 250.9 of the general rules and regulations under the act.

Rule U-9 purports to exempt from all the provisions of the act and rules thereunder (except as to certain acquisitions of securities of any public utility or holding company or of any utility assets) any holding company system if the net book value of its utility assets does not exceed $1,000,000 or did not exceed $1,000,000 at December 31, 1946, or if its gross utility revenues (excluding intercompany sales) for the preceding calendar year did not exceed $350,000.

The Division has advised the Commission that its reexamination of Rule U-9 and of the Commission's experience with it indicates that the rule is no longer necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. Among the reasons which have been advanced for the rescission of the rule are (1) the doubtful authority under the act for a rule which purports to exempt holding companies as such solely because of small size; and (2) the inclusion in Rule U-9 of the provision purporting to grant an exemption to any holding company system whose net book value of utility assets did not exceed $1,000,000 at December 31, 1946. The effect of the December 31, 1946 cut-off date is that a holding company system whose net book value of utility assets did not exceed $1,000,000 at December 31, 1946, or a holding company system which was not even in existence on that date, can claim exemption from the act pursuant to Rule U-9, however large such system may be at the present time.

All interested persons are invited to submit data, views and comments on this proposal in writing to the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. on or before April 30, 1957. In its consideration of the proposal, the Commission will welcome and consider any suggestions looking toward the promulgation of a new rule which would, because of the small size of the holding company systems involved, afford an exemption pursuant to section 3 (d) of the act to any specified class or classes of persons from the obligations, duties or liabilities imposed upon them as subsidiaries of holding companies. Except where it is requested that such a communication not be disclosed, it will be available for public inspection. All correspondence in connection with this proposal should refer to the above file number.

By the Commission.

NOTICES

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

[Classification Order 113]

ALASKA

SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION

By virtue of the authority contained in the act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. 682a) as amended and pursuant to Delegation of Authority contained in Section 2.9 Order No. 541 of April 21, 1954, Bureau of Land Management, it is ordered as follows:

1. Subject to valid existing rights, the public lands hereinafter described, which are situated in the Anchorage, Alaska Land District, are hereby classified as chiefly valuable for recreation site purposes, as hereinafter indicated, for lease and sale under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, supra:

PALMER AREA—WOLVERINE LAKE UNIT

For Lease and Sale

For recreation sites:

U. S. Survey 3527 (Pending Survey), those portions designated as Tracts 1–7, 9–26 as shown on preliminary map on file in the Cadastral Engineering Office.

25 tracts aggregating approximately 120.6 acres.

2. The classification of the above-described lands segregates them from all appropriations, including locations under the mining laws, except as to applications under the Small Tract Act and applications under the mineral leasing laws.

3. Wolverine Lake is located approximately 53 miles northeast of Anchorage and approximately 7½ miles northeast of Palmer. The lake is reached from the Glenn Highway by turning off on the Lazy Mountain Road and proceeding northeasterly. The last 4 miles of the road consists of a privately built and unmaintained dirt road. This section of the road is passable only under the most favorable weather conditions.

The area is not presently served with any form of electrical energy and none is contemplated in the near future. The area surrounding the lake on which the tracts are located is covered by a mature stand of birch and cottonwood trees. The lands are generally well drained and are suitable for small tract cabin sites.

4. The individual tracts vary in size from 2.0 to 5.9 acres. A preliminary map showing the location of each tract can be seen in the Cadastral Engineering Office, Bureau of Land Management, Hanver Building, Anchorage, Alaska. Brochures which describe the area and contain sketch maps of the proposed platting of the small tracts can be obtained free of charge from the Manager, Anchorage Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska. The appraised values of the tracts vary from $100 to $200 per lot as shown below. The price of the tracts will be their appraised value or the cost of survey, whichever is higher. It is estimated that survey cost will approximate $200 per tract.

As shown below on the Appraisal Schedule, some of the tracts are subject to a right-of-way easement for road and public utility purposes. These consist of a 50 foot strip on the side of the tract as designated. Leases and subsequent patents, if issued, will note the existence of this easement.

5. Leases will be issued for a term of two years and will contain an option to purchase in accordance with 43 CFR 257.13 (Circular 1899). Lessees who comply with the general terms and conditions of their leases will be permitted to purchase their tracts at the prices listed above, or the cost of survey whichever is higher, at any time during the term of their leases providing that they have either (a) constructed the improvements specified in paragraph 6 or (b) filed a copy of an agreement in accordance with 43 CFR 257.13 (d). Leases will not be renewable unless failure to construct the required improvements is justified under the circumstances and nonrenewal would work an extreme hardship on the lessee.

6. To maintain their rights under their leases, lessees will be required to either (a) construct substantial improvements on their lands or (b) file a copy of an agreement with their neighbors binding them to construct substantial improvements on their lands. Such improvements must conform with health, sanitation, and construction requirements of local ordinances and must, in addition, meet at least the following minimum standards. The house must be of sound construction suitable for occasional residence, be on a permanent foundation, contain at least 120 square feet of floor space (outside measure), and contain a minimum of one door and one window. The house must be built in a workmanlike manner out of attractive materials properly finished. Adequate disposal and sanitary facilities must be installed.

7. Beginning at 10:00 a. m. on March 27, 1957 the lands will be open for filing of drawing-entry cards (Form 4–775) only by persons entitled to veterans' preference. In brief, persons entitled to such preference are (a) honorably discharged veterans who served in the armed forces of the United States for a period of at least 90 days after September 15, 1940, (b) surviving spouse or minor orphan children of such veterans through a legally authorized representative, and (c) with the consent of the veteran, the spouse of living veterans. The 90-day requirement does not apply to veterans who were discharged on account of wounds or disability incurred in the line of duty or the surviving spouse or minor children of veterans killed in the line of duty. Drawing-entry cards (Form 4–775) are available upon request from the Manager, Anchorage Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska.

Drawing-entry cards will be accepted if filled out in compliance with the instructions on the form and submitted to the above-named official prior to 10:00 a. m. on April 17, 1957. A drawing will be held on that date to select the successful entrants who will be sent copies of the lease form, Form 4–776, with instructions as to their execution and return and as to payment of fees and rentals. All entrants will be notified of the results of the drawing.

For a period of 91 days or until the close of business on July 16, 1957, any tracts remaining unappropriated will be subject to filing in the order received by qualified veteran applicants. Such filings will be executed upon the lease form, Form 4–776.

During the 21 day period extending between 10:00 a. m. on June 26, 1957 and July 17, 1957, drawing-entry cards will be accepted from the general public on any unappropriated parcels of the subject land, however, during this 21 day period veteran priority rights still prevail. A drawing will be held at 10:00 a. m. on July 17, 1957 to select successful entrants, after which the unappropriated portions of the subject land will be open to application under this classification in order of filing. All entrants will be notified of the results of the drawing and successful entrants will be sent copies of the lease forms with instructions as to their execution. Persons claiming veterans' preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge.

The filing of the lease form, Form 4–776, must be accompanied by a filing fee of $10.00 plus the advance rental specified above. The advance rental for residence sites is determined as being a sum which amounts to 1/20 of the appraised value of the land for each of two years under lease, however, the minimum rental will be $10.00 per tract per year. The advance rental for any unexpired full lease year, if any, subsequent to the filing of the application to purchase, will be subtracted from the sale price of the land as shown above. Failure to transmit the filing fee and the advance rental with the application will render the application invalid. Advance rentals will be returned to unsuccessful applicants. All filing fees will be retained by the United States.

8. All valid applications filed prior to February 4, 1935 will be granted the preference right provided for by 43 CFR 257.5 (a).

OREGON

RESTORATION ORDER UNDER FEDERAL POWER ACT

MARCH 12, 1957.

Pursuant to Determination No. DA-433 Oregon, of the Federal Power Commission and in accordance with Order No. 541, section 2.5, of the Director, Bureau of Land Management, approved April 21, 1954 (19 F. R. 2473), as amended, it is ordered as follows:

1. The lands hereinafter described, so far as they are withdrawn and reserved for power purposes in Power Site Reserve No. 94 created December 30, 1909, and made permanent by Executive Order of July 2, 1910, are hereby restored to disposition under applicable public land laws subject to the provisions of Section 24 of the Federal Power Act of June 20, 1920 (41 Stat. 1075; 16 U. S. C. 818), as amended.

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN, OREGON

T. 6 S., R. 3 E.,
Sec. 18: E½NW¼.
T. 7 S., R. 3 E.,
Sec. 6: Lots 1, 3 SE¼NE¼, SE¼NW¼, E½SW¼, SE¼.

2. The lands described in paragraph 1 shall be subject to application by the State of Oregon for a period of 90 days from the date of publication or the order in the FEDERAL REGISTER for right of way for public highways or as a source of material for construction and maintenance of such highways, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, as amended, and the special stipulation provided in paragraph 1.

3. (a) The lands described as E½ NW¼ Sec. 18, T. 6 S., R. 3 E., and W½SE¼, SE¼SE¼ Sec. 6, T. 7 S., R. 3 E., W. M. have been classified for recreational purposes pursuant to the act of June 14, 1926 (44 Stat. 741), as amended by the act of June 4, 1954 (68 Stat. 173; 43 U. S. C. 869), under authority of section 7, of the act of June 28, 1934, as amended. This classification segregates the land from all appropriations including locations under the mining laws.

(b) The lands released from withdrawal by this order and classified for recreational purposes shall not become subject to the initiation of any rights or to any disposition under any other public land laws until it is so provided by an order of classification to be issued by an authorized officer opening the lands to application under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, or other appropriate public land laws, with a ninety-one day preference right period for filing such applications by veterans of World War II and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 497; 43 U. S. C. 279–284), as amended.

4. The lands described as Lots 1, 3, SE¼NE¼, SE¼NW¼, E½SW¼, NE¼ SE¼ Sec. 6, T. 7 S., R. 3 E., W. M., containing 279.75 acres, lie adjacent to both sides of the Molalla River approximately 7 to 11 miles southeast of Molalla, Oregon. They are rough and mountainous, with a shallow clay loam freely mixed with rock. The vegetative cover consists of mostly second growth Douglas fir, hemlock and western red cedar trees with value for the present stand of timber and timber reproduction.

5. No application will be allowed under the Homestead, Desert Land, Small Tract, or other nonmineral public land laws unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified. Any disposition of the land shall be subject to the provisions and conditions of paragraph 1.

6. Subject to any existing valid rights and the requirements of applicable laws, the lands described in paragraph 4 are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

(a) Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of the order. Such applications, selections, and offers will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; USC 279–284) as amended, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on April 18, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference rights filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on July 18, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on July 18, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

(b) The lands have been open to entry and location under the United States Mining Laws, pursuant to the act of August 11, 1955 (69 Stat. 683; 30 U. S. C. 621) and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws.

7. Persons claiming veteran's preference rights under paragraph 6 (a) (2) above must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based on settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this order can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

8. Inquiry concerning the above lands should be addressed to Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, 1001 N. E. Lloyd Blvd., P. O. Box 3861, Portland 8, Oreg.

RUSSELL E. GETTY,
Acting State Supervisor.

Fiscal Service, Bureau of the Public Debt

3½ PERCENT TREASURY NOTES OF SERIES A–1960

ADDITIONAL ISSUE

MARCH 18, 1957.

I. Offering of notes. 1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for notes of the United States, designated 3½ percent Treasury Notes of Series A–1960. The amount of the offering under this circular is $750,000,000, or thereabouts. In addition to the amount offered for public subscription, up to $100,000,000 of these notes may be allotted to Government Investment Accounts. The books will be open only on March 18 for the receipt of subscriptions for this issue.

II. Description of notes. 1. The notes now offered will be an addition to and will form a part of the 3½ percent Treasury Notes of Series A–1960 issued pursuant to Department Circular No. 984, dated February 4, 1957, and will be freely interchangeable therewith, are identical in all respects therewith, and are described in the following quotation from Department Circular No. 984:

1. The notes will be dated February 15, 1957, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 3½ percent per annum, payable on a semiannual basis on November 15, 1957, and thereafter on May 15 and November 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable. They will mature May 15, 1960, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the notes is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The notes are subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The notes will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

4. Bearer notes with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, $1,000,000, $100,000,000 and $500,000,000. The notes will not be issued in registered form.

5. The notes will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States notes.

III. Subscription and allotment. 1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, Washington. Commercial banks, which for this purpose are defined as banks accepting demand deposits, may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Others than commercial banks will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Subscriptions from commercial banks for their own account will be received without deposit, but will be restricted in each case to an amount not exceeding the combined capital, surplus and undivided profits, of the subscribing bank. Subscriptions from all others must be accompanied by payment of 3 percent of the amount of notes applied for, not subject to withdrawal until after allotment. Following allotment, any portion of the 3 percent payment in excess of 3 percent of the amount of notes allotted may be released upon the request of the subscribers.

2. Commercial banks in submitting subscriptions will be required to certify that they have no beneficial interest in any of the subscriptions they enter for the account of their customers, and that their customers have no beneficial interest in the banks' subscriptions for their own account.

3. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject or reduce any subscription, and to allot less than the amount of notes applied for; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon payment.

IV. Payment. 1. Payment at par and accrued interest from February 15, 1957, to March 28, 1957 ($3.96409 per $1,000) for notes allotted hereunder must be made or completed on or before March 28, 1957, or on later allotment. In every case where payment is not so completed, the payment with application up to 3 percent of the amount of notes allotted shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for notes allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits when so notified by the Federal Reserve Bank of its District.

V. General provisions. 1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective Districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for notes allotted, to make delivery of notes on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive notes.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

[SEAL] G. M. HUMPHREY,
Secretary of the Treasury.

3⅜ PERCENT TREASURY CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS OF SERIES A–1958

ADDITIONAL ISSUE

MARCH 18, 1957.

I. Offering of certificates. 1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for certificates of indebtedness of the United States, designated 3⅜ percent Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of Series A–1958. The amount of the offering under this circular is $2,250,000,000, or thereabouts. The books will be open only on March 18 for the receipt of subscriptions for this issue.

II. Description of certificates. 1. The certificates now offered will be an addition to and will form a part of the 3⅜ percent Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of Series A–1958 issued pursuant to Department Circular No. 983, dated February 4, 1957, will be freely interchangeable therewith, are identical in all respects therewith, and are described in the following quotation from Department Circular No. 983:

1. The certificates will be dated February 15, 1957, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 3⅜ percent per annum, payable on a semiannual basis on August 15, 1957, and February 14, 1958. They will mature February 14, 1958, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the certificates is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The certificates are subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The certificates will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

4. Bearer certificates with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, $1,000,000 $100,000,000 and $500,000,000. The certificates will not be issued in registered form.

5. The certificates will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States certificates.

III. Subscription and allotment. 1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, Washington. Commercial banks, which for this purpose are defined as banks accepting demand deposits, may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Others than commercial banks will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Subscriptions from commercial banks for their own account will be received without deposit, but will be restricted in each case to an amount not exceeding the combined capital, surplus and undivided profits, of the subscribing bank. Subscriptions from all others must be accompanied by payment of 3 percent of the amount of certificates applied for, not subject to withdrawal until after allotment. Following allotment, any portion of the 3 percent payment in excess of 3 percent of the amount of certificates allotted may be released upon the request of the subscribers.

2. Commercial banks in submitting subscriptions will be required to certify that they have no beneficial interest in any of the subscriptions they enter for the account of their customers, and that their customers have no beneficial interest in the banks' subscriptions for their own account.

3. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject or reduce any subscription, and to allot less than the amount of certificates applied for; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. Payment. 1. Payment at par and accrued interest from February 15, 1957, to March 28, 1957 ($3.82251 per $1,000) for certificates allotted hereunder must be made or completed on or before March 28, 1957, or on later allotment. In every case where payment is not so completed, the payment with application up to 3 percent of the amount of certificates allotted shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for certificates allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits when so notified by the Federal Reserve Bank of its District.

V. General provisions. 1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective Districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for certificates allotted, to make delivery of certificates on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive certificates.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

[SEAL] G. M. HUMPHREY,
Secretary of the Treasury.

VIDEO INDEPENDENT THEATRES, INC., AND KSOO-TV, INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Video Independent Theatres, Inc., Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Docket No. 11946, File No. BPCT-2188; KSOO-TV, Inc., Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Docket No. 11947, File No. BPCT-2195; for construction permits for new television stations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 13th day of March 1957;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications, each requesting a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 13 in Sioux Falls, South Dakota; and

It appearing, that the above-captioned applications are mutually exclusive, in that operation by more than one of the applicants would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing, that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-named applicants were advised by letter of the fact that their applications were mutually exclusive, of the necessity for a hearing and of all objections to their applications, and were given an opportunity to reply; and

It further appearing, that upon due consideration of the above-captioned applications and the replies to the aforementioned letters, the Commission finds that KSOO TV, Inc., is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to construct, own and operate a television broadcast station and that Video Independent Theatres, Inc., is legally, financially and technically qualified to construct, own and operate a television broadcast station and is otherwise qualified except as to Issue "1" below;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-captioned applications of Video Independent Theatres, Inc., and KSOO TV, Inc., are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

(1) To determine whether the antenna system and site proposed by Video Independent Theatres, Inc., would constitute a hazard to air navigation.

(2) To determine on a comparative basis which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in the light of the record made with respect to the significant difference between the applications as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants having a bearing on its ability to own and operate the proposed television stations.

(b) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-captioned applications.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-captioned proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon a sufficient allegation of facts in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicants will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

It is further ordered, That to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, Video Independent Theatres, Inc., and KSOO TV, Inc., pursuant to § 1.387 of the Commimssion's rules, in person or by attorney, shall within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

Released: March 18, 1957.

DENVER T. BRANNEN AND MEL WHEELER

In re applications of Denver T. Brannen, Panama City, Florida, Docket No. 11948, File No. BP-10562; Mel Wheeler, Panama City Beach, Florida, Docket No. 11949, File No. BP-10885; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of March 1957;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications of Denver T. Brannen and Mel Wheeler, each for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1290 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, daytime only, at Panama City and Panama City Beach, Florida, respectively; and the petition of Denver T. Brannen filed January 16, 1957, requesting, inter alia, that the application of Mel Wheeler "be dismissed without prejudice, so that the Commission may forthwith grant petitioner's application for 1290 kilocycles at Panama City, thus minimizing the damage already inflicted" by the filing of two other applications which conflicted with Denver T. Brannen's application but have since been dismissed;

It appearing, that each of the applicants is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified, except as may appear from the issues specified below, to operate his proposed station but that the operation of both stations as proposed would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing, that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicants were advised by letter dated January 18, 1957, of the aforementioned interference and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of either application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing, that a timely reply to the Commission's letter was filed by each of the subject applications; and

It further appearing, that the reason advanced by Denver T. Brannen in support of his request that the application of Mel Wheeler be dismissed is insufficient; and that under the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the decision in the case of Ashbacker Radio Corp. v. Federal Communications Commission, 326 U. S. 327, Mel Wheeler is entitled to a hearing in a comparative proceeding on his application; and

It further appearing, that the Commission, after consideration of the above, is of the opinion that a hearing is necessary;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the proposed operations, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the provisions of section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, are applicable as between Panama City and Panama City Beach; and, if so, which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

3. To determine, in the event that under Issue 2 it is decided that section 307 (b) is inapplicable in this case, the significant differences between the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants to own and operate the proposed stations.

(b) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed stations.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-named applications.

4. To determine in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if either of the applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the petition of Denver T. Brannen, insofar as it requests the dismissal of the application of Mel Wheeler, is hereby denied; and that insofar as the petition of Denver T. Brannen is addressed to matters relating to applications which have been dismissed, it is hereby dismissed;

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, Denver T. Brannen and Mel Wheeler, pursuant to § 1.387 of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall within 20 days of the mailing of this Order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this Order.

VALLEY BROADCASTING CO. ET AL.

In re applications of William John Hyland, III and Dawkins Espy, d/b as Valley Broadcasting Co., Bakersfield, California, Docket No. 11950, File No. BP-10695; Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc., Palmdale, California, Docket No. 11951, File No. BP-10720; Rod O'Harra and A. J. Krisik, d/b as O. K. Broadcasting Co., Bakersfield, California, Docket No. 11952, File No. BP-10843; construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of March 1957;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications for construction permits for new standard broadcast stations by William John Hyland, III, and Dawkins Espy, d/b as Valley Broadcasting Co., File No. BP-10695, and Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc., File No. BP-10720, to operate on 1340 kilocycles with a power of 250 watts, unlimited time, at Bakersfield and Palmdale, California, respectively; and by Rod O'Harra and A. J. Krisik, d/b as O. K. Broadcasting Co., File No. BP-10843, to operate on 1350 kilocycles with a power of 1 kilowatt, daytime only, at Bakersfield, California; and

It appearing, that, except as may be indicated by the issues specified below, the applicants herein are legally and technically qualified, O. K. Broadcasting Co. and Valley Broadcasting Co. are financially qualified, and O. K. Broadcasting Co. is otherwise qualified, to construct and operate said stations; but that the proposals of Valley Broadcasting Co. and O. K. Broadcasting Co. involve mutually destructive interference; that the proposals of Valley Broadcasting Co. and Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc. involve mutual interference; that the proposal of Valley Broadcasting Co. involves mutual interference with Stations KMAK, KIST, and KATY (each on 1340 kc, 250 w, U), Fresno, Santa Barbara, and San Luis Obispo, California, respectively, and the interference received from these stations may affect more than 10 percent of the population in the normally protected primary service area of the proposal by Valley Broadcasting Co. in contravention of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; that the proposal of Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc. would involve objectionable interference with Stations KFAC (1330 kc, 5 kw, DA-N, U), Los Angeles, California, and KIST, and the interference received from Station KFAC may affect more than 10 percent of the population in the normally protected primary service area of the proposal by Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc. in contravention of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; that insufficient data have been submitted to determine whether Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc. is financially qualified and whether its proposal would provide adequate coverage of the business and industrial areas of the city sought to be served; that insufficient data have been submitted by Valley Broadcasting Co. to determine whether its proposed transmitter site is satisfactory; that the programing proposed by Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc. and Valley Broadcasting Co. may not be in the public interest because of the large number of commercial announcements to be broadcast per week; that the proposals of Valley Broadcasting Co. and Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc. are contingent upon Station KAVL, Lancaster, California, changing frequency from 1340 to 610 kilocycles, an authorization for which is outstanding, and that in the event of a grant of either of the proposals by Valley Broadcasting Co. or Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc. the construction permit should contain a condition that no authorization for program tests will be given until Station KAVL has commenced operation on 610 kilocycles; and that in the event of a grant of the application of Valley Broadcasting Co. the construction permit should include a condition requiring proof, before the authorization of program tests, that radiation has been reduced to 75 mv/m as proposed in the application; and

It further appearing, that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applicants were advised by letter dated January 18, 1957 of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of any of the applications would serve the public interest; and

It further appearing, that a timely reply was filed by each of the applicants; and

It further appearing, that Valley Broadcasting Co. and Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc., in their replies, requested an extension of time in which to further reply to the Commission's said letter, but that we are of the opinion that it is expeditious to forthwith designate the applications for hearing, as the applications may be amended after designation for hearing on good cause shown in accordance with § 1.365 (a) of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing, that, after consideration of said replies, we are of the opinion that a hearing is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the instant proposals, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the proposal by Valley Broadcasting Co. would involve interference with Stations KMAK, KIST, and KATY, Fresno, Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo, California, respectively, or any other existing station and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations; and whether the interference received from these stations would affect more than 10 percent of the population in the normally protected primary service area of the proposal by Valley Broadcasting Co. in contravention of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules, and, if so, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of this rule.

3. To determine whether the proposal by Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc. would involve interference with Stations KFAC and KIST, Los Angeles and Santa Barbara, California, respectively, or any other existing standard broadcast station, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations; and whether the interference received from Station KFAC would affect more than 10 percent of the population in the normally protected primary service area of the proposal by Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc., and, if so, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of this rule, § 3.28 (c).

4. To determine whether Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc. is financially qualified to construct and operate its proposed station.

5. To determine whether the programming proposed by Valley Broadcasting Co. and Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc. would be in the public interest.

6. To determine whether the proposal by Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc. would provide adequate coverage of the city sought to be served in accordance with § 3.188 (b) of the Commission's rules.

7. To determine whether the transmitter site proposed by Valley Broadcasting Co. would be satisfactory in accordance with § 3.188 of the Commission's rules.

8. To determine, in light of section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, whether a grant of the Palmdale, California proposal or one of the Bakersfield, California proposals herein would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

9. To determine, in the event that Bakersfield, California is considered to have the greater need for a new radio facility under issue 8 above, which of the applications of Valley Broadcasting Co. and O. K. Broadcasting Co. for operation in Bakersfield would better serve the public interest in light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues and record made with respect to the significant differences between the two applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of said two applicants to own and operate its proposed station.

(b) The proposal of each of said two applicants with respect to management and operation of its proposed station.

(c) The programming service proposed in the application of each of said two applicants.

10. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if any, of the applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That McMahan Broadcasting Co.; KATY, Sweetheart of San Luis Obispo, Inc.; Los Angeles Broadcasting Co.; and Radio KIST, Inc.; licensees of Stations KMAK, KATY, KFAC and KIST, respectively, are made parties to the proceeding; and

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants and parties respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.387 of the Commission's rules, in person or by an attorney, shall within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order; and

It is further ordered, That, in the event of a grant of the application of Valley Broadcasting Co. or Southwest Broadcasting Company, Inc., the construction permit shall contain a condition that no authorization for program tests will be given until Station KAVL, Lancaster, California, has commenced operation on 610 kilocycles; and

It is further ordered, That, in the event of a grant of the application of Valley Broadcasting Co., the construction permit shall contain a condition requiring proof, before the authorization of program tests, that radiation has been reduced to 75 mv/m as proposed in the application.

Released: March 18, 1957.

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO.

ORDER INSTITUTING HEARING AND INVESTIGATION

In the matter of The Western Union Telegraph Company, Docket No. 11953; complaint and petition for new and revised divisions of charges for the landline handling of international message telegraph traffic.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of March 1957;

The Commission, having under consideration:

(a) A "Complaint and Petition" filed on November 5, 1956, by The Western Union Telegraph Company (Western Union) wherein it is alleged that the currently effective divisions of charges applicable to the landline handling by Western Union within the continental United States of point-to-point message telegraph traffic between the continental United States and foreign and overseas points (international traffic) are unjust, unreasonable, inequitable and not in the public interest; and wherein it is requested that the Commission, pursuant to sections 201 (a) and 222 (c) (3) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (act), prescribe new and revised divisions of charges for such landline handling as proposed in the "Complaint and Petition";

(b) The Commission's letter, dated November 8, 1956, affording interested telegraph carriers an opportunity to file comments regarding the above-described "Complaint and Petition"; the comments filed between December 7 and December 10, 1956, pursuant to such letter by American Cable and Radio Corporation, on behalf of its operating companies, All America Cables and Radio, Inc., Commercial Cable Company and Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company; Canadian Pacific Railway Company; Globe Wireless, Ltd.; Press Wireless, Inc.; R. C. A. Communications, Inc.; Tropical Radio Telegraph Company; United States-Liberia Radio Corporation; and the International Communications Department of The Western Union Telegraph Company; and Western Union's reply to such comments filed on December 26, 1956;

(c) Earnings reports of the United States telegraph carriers handling international traffic (international carriers) and of Western Union, as filed with this Commission;

(d) A "Motion" filed on February 7, 1957, by Western Union requesting that, in the order designating for hearing the matters contained in the above-described "Complaint and Petition", the Commission direct the presiding officer to certify the record to the Commission for Final Decision without preparing either a Recommended or Initial Decision;

(e) A "Response" to the above-described "Motion" filed by RCA Communications, Inc. on February 12, 1957, opposing Western Union's request that the record be certified for final Decision;

It appearing, that the "Complaint and Petition" of Western Union complies with applicable procedural requirements of the Act and the Commission's rules;

It further appearing, that RCA Communications, Inc., in its aforementioned comments, has not set forth adequate reasons in support of its request for dismissal of the "Complaint and Petition" as failing "to present a prima facie case";

It further appearing, that certain of the above-named international carriers have requested that, if the Commission should prescribe increased divisions of charges for the landline handling by Western Union within the continental United States of international traffic, it should authorize concurrently increases in charges to the public for international message telegraph service in amounts sufficient to compensate the international carriers for any decrease in revenue attributable to such increased divisions of charges;

It further appearing, that Western Union, in its "Motion" for certification of the record herein to the Commission for Final Decision, has not shown that due and timely execution of the Commission's functions imperatively and unavoidably require the omission of a Recommended or Initial Decision herein;

It is ordered, That the request of RCA Communications, Inc., for dismissal of the above-described "Complaint and Petition" is denied;

It is further ordered, That pursuant to sections 201, 202, 205, 222, and 403 of the act, the Commission shall enter upon a hearing and investigation concerning the lawfulness of the charges for domestic telegraph service and international traffic; of the classifications, practices and regulations affecting such charges; and of the divisions of charges applicable to the landline handling of international traffic by Western Union within the continental United States;

It is further ordered, That the following carriers are made parties respondent in this proceeding: All America Cables and Radio, Inc.; Cable and Wireless (West Indies), Ltd.; Canadian National Telegraphs; Canadian Pacific Railway Company; Commercial Cable Company; The French Telegraph Cable Company; Globe Wireless Ltd.; Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company; Press Wireless, Inc.; RCA Communications, Inc.; South Puerto Rico Sugar Company; Tropical Radio Telegraph Company; United States-Liberia Radio Corporation; and The Western Union Telegraph Company (the International Communications Department of Western Union shall be considered a separate entity, as provided in section 222 (e) (4) of the act, for the purposes of this proceeding);

It is further ordered, That without in any way limiting the scope of the investigation as above ordered, it shall include inquiry into the following specific matters:

(a) The lawfulness of the current divisions of charges between Western Union and the other respondent carriers for the landline handling by Western Union within the continental United States of international traffic;

(b) What changes, if any, the Commission should prescribe or authorize in the aforementioned divisions of charges, and in this connection,

(i) Whether divisions of charges should be established on the basis of uniform per word charges applicable to the handling of international traffic within the United States, or whether separate zones within the United States should be established with different charges applicable to handling traffic between such zones and the point of entry or exit of such traffic to or from the continental United States,

(ii) Whether minimum message charges should be established for the landline handling of international traffic on bases different from those currently in effect, and

(iii) The effect of any changes in the divisions of charges on the earnings of Western Union and of the other respondent carriers;

(c) Whether Western Union requires additional revenue in the amount sought in its "Complaint and Petition" in order to satisfy its reasonable requirements for revenue from all of its domestic telegraph operations in the continental United States and, if not, whether decreases should be made in the charges for domestic telegraph service in an amount sufficient to offset, in whole or in part, any increases which may be prescribed or authorized in the divisions of charges to Western Union for the landline handling of international traffic;

(d) Whether the charges, classifications, practices, and regulations of the parties respondent subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission for, and in connection with, handling international traffic are, or will be, lawful under the act, and if not, what changes should be made therein in view of their respective reasonable requirements for revenue for handling international traffic, and in this connection,

(i) Whether it is necessary or appropriate under the act that charges for handling international traffic should be authorized or prescribed on the basis of the revenue requirements of the respondent carrier, or carriers, having the highest level of net earnings from such services or on some other basis, and if so, on what basis, and

(ii) Whether it is necessary or appropriate under the act that the three operating companies of the American Cable and Radio Corporation be considered as separate operating entities or whether they should be treated as a single unit for rate making purposes;

(e) Whether any Treaty or Executive Agreement to which the United States is a party imposes any limitation on the authority of this Commission under section 201 or 222 of the act to prescribe or authorize charges or divisions of charges for the landline handling by Western Union within the continental United States of international traffic, or upon the authority of this Commission to prescribe or authorize charges, practices, classifications or regulations for, and in connection with, international traffic;

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served upon each respondent carrier;

It is further ordered, That Western Union's "Motion" for certification of the record to the Commission for Final Decision is denied without prejudice to the renewal of such "Motion" at the close of the hearing herein;

It is further ordered, That this matter is designated for hearing at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, and that the Presiding Officer shall certify the record to the Commission without preparing either a Recommended or Initial Decision.

[Docket Nos. 11954, 11955; FCC 57-243]

AMERICAN TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH CO. AND RCA COMMUNICATIONS, INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In the matter of the applications of American Telephone and Telegraph Company, Docket No. 11954, File No. 25-C3-R-57; for renewal of license for its Dixon, California, International Fixed Public radiotelephone station, insofar as it request renewal authority to communicate with Honolulu, T. H. and to use the frequencies 5077.5, 5110, 7315, 7610, 7977.5, 9170, 10790, 13400, 14600, 15580, 18340, and 19220 Kc. and RCA Communications, Inc., Docket No. 11955, File No. 886-C3-P-57; for a construction permit for a new point-to-point radiotelephone station in the International Fixed Public Service at Bolinas, California, to communicate with Hawaii, using the frequencies 5077.5, 5110, 7315, 7610, 7977.5, 9170, 10790, 13400, 14600, 15580, 18340, and 19220 Kc previously licensed to American Telephone and Telegraph Company, and 5185, 7730, 9490, 13720, and 18880 Kc, presently licensed to RCA Communications, Inc.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of March 1957;

The Commission, having under consideration:

(a) The above-entitled application filed by American Telephone and Telegraph Company (AT&T) on September 14, 1956, for renewal of license for its Dixon, California, International Fixed Public radiotelephone station;

(b) The above-entitled mutually exclusive application filed by RCA Communications, Inc. (RCAC) on October 30, 1956, for a construction permit for a new point-to-point radiotelephone station in the International Fixed Public Service at Bolinas, California, to communicate with Hawaii, requesting, among other things, the 12 above referred to frequencies licensed to AT&T at Dixon, California, at the time of such application.

(c) A letter dated November 20, 1956, from the Commission to AT&T, relative to its application for renewal of license authority for its Dixon, California, station, setting forth, among other things, that such application was granted except insofar as it requests renewal of authority to communicate with Honolulu, T. H., and to use the above-referred to 12 frequencies requested by RCAC.

(d) A letter dated December 3, 1956, from AT&T to the Commission urging the renewal of its above application and opposing a grant of the foregoing RCAC application.

(e) Letters dated January 25, 1957, from the Commission to AT&T and RCAC, respectively, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, as to the reasons why such applications cannot be granted without hearing.

(f) Letters dated February 19 and February 20, 1957, from AT&T and RCAC, respectively, in reply to the foregoing letters from the Commission dated January 25, 1957.

It appearing, That, both of the above-entitled applications request authorization between the same points of communication and in certain instances use of the same frequencies, and that RCAC requests that it be authorized to operate the radiotelephone station in the San Francisco area, in lieu of AT&T, for communication with Hawaii; and

It further appearing, That, the Commission, upon examination of the above-described applications of AT&T and RCAC for authority to communicate with Hawaii, and upon consideration of all of the foregoing, is unable to determine that public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by the granting of the application of AT&T or of RCAC;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to the provisions of section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C. at a time to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

(1) The present and expected volume of telephone traffic (including originating, terminating and transiting traffic) and the revenues therefrom between the continental United States and the areas in Hawaii being served, or to be served, including:

(a) The present and expected volume of radiotelephone traffic; and

(b) The expected volume of cable telephone traffic.

(2) The nature, capacity, speed, efficiency, reliability, transmission qualities, scheduled hours of operation and adequacy of the existing and proposed telephone facilities between the continental United States and Hawaii if the application of AT&T is granted.

(3) The nature, capacity, speed, efficiency, reliability, transmission qualities, scheduled hours of operation and adequacy of the proposed radiotelephone facilities between the United States and Hawaii if the RCAC application is granted.

(4) The nature of the service rendered, or to be rendered, by each of the applicants over the circuits involved in the above applications, including the classes of service offered or to be offered, the areas served, or to be served thereby, the charges made, or to be made, for each class of service, and the divisions of such charges.

(5) The nature of any contracts, agreements, arrangements, understandings, and routing practices already agreed upon, or proposed to be made, between each of the applicants and any other carrier, agency, organization, person, or operating administration, in connection with the operation of the circuits involved in the above applications.

(6) Competition in communication service (including radiotelegraph, radiotelephone, and airmail) between the continental United States and the areas in Hawaii being served, or to be served.

(7) Whether there is a need for competition in telephone service between cable and radio between the continental United States and Hawaii.

(8) Whether the public interest, convenience and necessity would better be served by authorizing operation of the radiotelephone service by an entity other than one which will provide the cable telephone services.

(9) The past, present and future use that has been made, and is expected to be made, of the frequencies requested by the applications at issue.

(10) The effects that a grant of the RCAC application and a denial of the AT&T application would have upon the communications services presently being furnished by AT&T and by RCAC to points other than Hawaii, including:

(a) The effect upon AT&T's operating costs in connection with the furnishing of radiotelephone service to such other points;

(b) The effect upon AT&T's telephone services to such other points which may be caused by the loss of the 12 frequencies licensed to AT&T at the time the RCAC application was filed and requested by RCAC; and

(c) The effect on the services of RCAC to such other points which may be caused by the assignment to RCAC of the 12 requested frequencies which were licensed to AT&T at the time the RCAC application was filed.

(11) The effect that a grant of the AT&T application and a denial of the RCAC application would have upon the communication services presently being furnished by RCAC and AT&T to points other than Hawaii, including:

(a) The effect upon RCAC's operating costs in connection with the furnishing of services to such other points by RCAC;

(b) The effect upon RCAC's services to such other points which may be caused by not having available the 12 frequencies licensed to AT&T at the time the RCAC application was filed, and requested by RCAC; and

(c) The effect on the services of AT&T to such other points which may be caused by the licensing to AT&T of the 12 frequencies requested by RCAC.

(12) The extent to which any or all of the above 12 frequencies would be required by RCAC for the rendition of the proposed service.

(13) The promotion of the most efficient and economical use of frequencies and facilities in connection with the furnishing of radiotelephone service between the continental United States and Hawaii.

(14) The extent to which the RCAC radiotelephone facilities would be used if its application is granted and the terms and conditions under which such use would be made.

(15) The extent to which the AT&T radiotelephone facilities would be used after cable service with Hawaii is established, if its application is granted.

(16) The estimated costs of AT&T in connection with the furnishing of radiotelephone service with Hawaii after cable telephone service is established, if its application is granted.

(17) The estimated costs of RCAC in connection with the furnishing of the proposed radiotelephone service with Hawaii, if its application is granted.

(18) Whether the effect of a grant of the application of AT&T would be contrary to the provisions of section 314 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, relative to the unlawful creation of monopoly in any line of commerce.

(19) The determination, in the light of the evidence adduced on the foregoing issues, whether the public interest, convenience and necessity would better be served by the grant of the application of RCAC or of AT&T.

It is further ordered, That the Chief, Common Carrier Bureau is made a party to the consolidated proceeding herein.

Released: March 18, 1957.

AMERICAN TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH CO.

ORDER INSTITUTING HEARING AND INVESTIGATION

In the matter of American Telephone and Telegraph Company, Docket No. 11956; charges, classifications, regulations and practices for and in connection with channels for off-the-air pickup and relay of television program material.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on March 13, 1957;

The Commission having under consideration certain tariff schedules filed by American Telephone and Telegraph Company (AT&T) under its Transmittal No. 5377 establishing new and revised rates and regulations applicable to channels for off-the-air pickup and relay of television program material, such tariff schedules being designated as follows:

Tariff FCC No. 223

a petition filed by Collier Electric Company on March 5, 1957, requesting that the Commission suspend the above-mentioned revised tariff schedules and that it initiate a hearing and investigation into the lawfulness thereof; a letter from the Commission to AT&T dated February 26, 1957 concerning the above-mentioned tariff schedules; and AT&T's reply thereto dated March 6, 1957; and

It appearing, that the Commission is unable to determine from the aforementioned tariff and the information supplied by AT&T in connection therewith whether the charges, regulations, classifications, and practices set forth therein are or will be lawful under the provisions of sections 201 and 202 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It further appearing, that under the proposed tariff schedules, the charges for channels offered therein are based upon the engineering design of the facilities involved in any given case, including the types of equipment, the location of the pickup points and the number and location of the intermediate relay points; that AT&T reserves the right to determine all such engineering factors in every case; that, until such determinations are made by AT&T in any given case, the effective charge for the channel involved cannot be ascertained from the tariff; and that, therefore, questions are presented as to the lawfulness of said tariff under the provisions of sections 201, 202 and 203 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 61.55 of the Commission's rules and regulations;

It further appearing, that, on the basis of information furnished by AT&T, the proposed tariff schedules will result in savings to AT&T's present users of off-the-air channels, and that the public interest will not be adversely affected if the schedules are allowed to become effective on the date specified therein;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to the provisions of sections 201, 202, 203, 205 and 403 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, an investigation is hereby instituted, into the lawfulness of the charges, classifications, regulations and practices contained in the above-mentioned tariff schedules;

It is further ordered, That without in any way limiting the scope of the investigation it shall include consideration of the following:

1. Whether any of the charges, classifications, regulations, and practices contained in the above-mentioned tariff schedules are or will be unjust and unreasonable within the meaning of section 201 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

2. Whether the above-mentioned tariff schedules will subject any person or class of persons to unjust or unreasonable discrimination, or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any person, class of persons or locality, or subject any person, class or persons or locality to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage within the meaning of section 202 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

3. Whether such tariff schedules comply with the requirements of section 203 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 61.55 of the Commission's rules and regulations;

4. Whether the Commission should prescribe just and reasonable charges, classifications, regulations, and practices or the maximum or minimum or maximum and minimum charges to be hereafter followed with respect to the service governed by the aforementioned tariff schedules, and, if so, what charges, classifications, regulations and practices should be prescribed.

It is further ordered, That a hearing be held in this proceeding at the Commission's offices in Washington, D. C. at a time to be hereafter specified; and that the examiner hereafter to be designated to preside at such hearing shall certify the record to the Commission for decision without preparing either an Initial Decision or Recommended Decision;

It is further ordered, That the petition of Collier Electric Company is granted to the extent indicated herein and in all other respects is denied;

It is further ordered, That American Telephone and Telegraph Company is hereby made a party respondent in the proceedings herein, and Collier Electric Company is hereby granted leave to intervene upon filing notice of its intention to participate in these proceedings within twenty days from the date of issuance of this order.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-12202]

F. A. CALLERY, INC.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

MARCH 14, 1957.

F. A. Callery, Inc. (Callery) on February 13, 1957, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate, is contained in the following designated filing, which is proposed to become effective on the date shown:

Description: Notice of change dated February 12, 1957.
Purchaser: Texas Gas Transmission Corporation.
Proposed effective date:[1] March 16, 1957.

Callery's proposed rate change is based on a favored-nations clause in its contract with Texas Gas Transmission Corporation in the Lewisburg Field, Acadia Parish, Louisiana, which, by its terms, has become operative by the rates for initial service to Texas Gas in South Bell City Field, one such rate being that under Gulf Refining Company FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 24.

In support of the increase, Callery cites the contractual provisions to the effect that if at any time Texas Gas enters into a contract for the delivery of similar gas within 50 miles of Callery's delivery point at a higher price than paid Callery, Texas Gas shall notify Callery and it shall receive the increased price.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge, and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 16, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[1] The stated effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days notice, or the effective date proposed by Callery, if later.

F. A. CALLERY, INC., AGENT

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

MARCH 14, 1957.

F. A. Callery, Inc., Agent (Callery) on February 18, 1957, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate, is contained in the following designated filing, which is proposed to become effective on the date shown:

Description: Notice of change dated February 12, 1957.
Purchaser: Texas Gas Transmission Corporation.
Proposed effective date:[1] March 21, 1957.

Callery's proposed rate change is based on a favored-nations clause in its contract with Texas Gas Transmission Corporation in the Bayou Mallet Field, Acadia Parish, Louisiana, which, by its terms, has become operative by the rates for initial service to Texas Gas in South Bell City Field, one such rate being that under Gulf Refining Company FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 24.

In support of the increase, Callery cites the contractual provisions to the effect that if at any time Texas Gas enters into a contract for the delivery of similar gas within 50 miles of Callery's delivery point at a higher price than paid Callery, Texas Gas shall notify Callery and he shall receive the increased price.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge, and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 21, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

[Docket No. G-12209]

MAGNOLIA PETROLEUM CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

MARCH 14, 1957.

Magnolia Petroleum Company (Magnolia) on February 13, 1957, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sales subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of change, undated.
Purchaser: Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 5 to Magnolia's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 42.
Effective date: [1] March 15, 1957.

Supplement No. 5 to Magnolia's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 42 includes a proposed reduction in rate effective February 13, 1957, to reflect the decrease in Texas gas occupation tax, as well as a proposed increase in rates for gas sold.

In support of the proposed increased rate, Magnolia states that the contract was entered into in good faith as a result of arm's length negotiations and that the long-term contract resulted with the installment price schedule therein. Magnolia also states that because of the competitive nature of the producing segment of the natural gas industry to deny the increased price, which was based upon the "supply and demand formula", would be confiscatory of the seller's property. Magnolia further states that the increasing costs of exploration, production, and processing of natural gas with depletion of reserves, requires additional revenue.

The increased rate and charge proposed in the aforesaid filing has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement, only insofar as the designated supplement pertains to an increase in rates for gas sold, be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of said proposed change in rates and charges; and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, the above-designated supplement, only insofar as it pertains to proposed increase in rates for gas sold, be and the same hereby is suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 15, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

[Docket No. G-12210]

MAGNOLIA PETROLEUM CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGES IN RATES

MARCH 14, 1957.

Magnolia Petroleum Company (Magnolia) on February 13, 1957, tendered for filing proposed changes in its presently effective rate schedule for sales subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed changes, which constitute increased rates and charges, are contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of change, undated.
Purchaser: Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 5 to Magnolia's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 43.
Effective date: March 15, 1957.[1]

Supplement No. 5 to Magnolia's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 43 includes an increase and reductions in rates which reflect the increase in the Texas gas occupation tax, as well as proposed increases in rates for gas sold.

In support of the proposed increased rates, Magnolia states that the contract was entered into in good faith as the result of arm's length negotiations and that the long-term contract resulted with the installment price schedule therein. Magnolia also states that because of the competitive nature of the producing segment of the natural gas industry to deny the increased prices, which were based upon the "supply and demand formula" would be confiscatory of the seller's property. Magnolia further states that the increasing costs of exploration, production, and processing of natural gas with depletion of reserves, requires additional revenue.

The increased rates and charges proposed in the aforesaid filing have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement, only insofar as the designated supplement pertains to an increase in rates for gas sold, be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of said proposed change in rates and charges; and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, the above-designated supplement, only insofar as it pertains to proposed increase in rates for gas sold, be and the same hereby is suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 15, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

[Docket No. E-6733]

NORTHERN STATES POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

MARCH 14, 1957.

Take notice that on March 7, 1957, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission pursuant to section 203 of the Federal Power Act by Northern States Power Company (hereinafter referred to as "NSP"), seeking an order authorizing it to acquire all properties, rights and assets of Saint Anthony Falls Water Power Company (hereinafter referred to as "Saint Anthony") and Minneapolis Mill Company (hereinafter referred to as "Minneapolis Mill"), both wholly owned subsidiaries of NSP. NSP is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Minnesota and doing business in the States of North Dakota, South Dakota and Minnesota, with its principal business office at Minneapolis, Minnesota. Saint Anthony and Minneapolis Mill are companies organized under the laws of the State of Minnesota and doing business in said State with their principal business offices also at Minneapolis, Minnesota. NSP proposes to acquire all of the respective properties of its wholly owned subsidiaries Saint Anthony and Minneapolis Mill in consideration of NSP paying, extinguishing or assuming all of the respective debts and liabilities of Saint Anthony and Minneapolis Mill and surrendering to Saint Anthony and Minneapolis Mill, respectively, all shares of their outstanding capital stock. The facilities to be acquired by NSP include as to Saint Anthony its Hennepin Island Hydro Plant of 12,400 kw rated capacity and the left bank (or easterly) portion of the Upper Dam and main apron and the Lower Dam and appurtenant facilities, and as to Minneapolis Mill the right bank (or westerly) portion of the Upper Dam and main apron and appurtenant facilities, all of which are located at St. Anthony Falls on the Mississippi River in the City of Minneapolis and, except for the Lower Dam, are included in the project works licensed by the Federal Power Commission as Project No. 2056. NSP will acquire all of said facilities and will not change their use after acquisition. As soon as practicable after conveying and assigning their respective properties to NSP, Saint Anthony and Minneapolis Mill will dissolve. As a part of the transaction Saint Anthony and Minneapolis Mill have filed application for approval of the transfer of license for Project No. 2056 to NSP.

Any person desiring to be heard or make any protest with reference to said application should on or before the 3d day of April 1957, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C. a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file and available for public inspection.

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE CO. OF AMERICA

ORDER DISMISSING APPLICATION FOR REHEARING

MARCH 14, 1957.

Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Natural), on February 14, 1957, filed an application for rehearing of the order of the Commission issued January 15, 1957, herein affirming the December 4, 1956, ruling of the presiding examiner rejecting certain proffered evidence. The proffered evidence was offered by Natural as purported "rebuttal" to the testimony of a witness for the City of Chicago, one of the interveners herein, and to "meet the test" of the decision in City of Detroit v. Federal Power Commission, 230 F. 2d 810.

This is a rate proceeding arising under section 4 (e) of the Natural Gas Act, which was instituted on September 1, 1954, when Natural filed a rate increase. The increase was suspended by order issued September 30, 1954. Hearings have been held herein intermittently since November 1954, and were concluded on January 23, 1957. The proceeding now is in the briefing stage, Natural having filed its main brief on March 4, 1957. Other briefs are to be filed on April 15 and May 6, 1957. Thus, the proceeding is not final and it is still pending before the presiding examiner for initial decision.

The order complained of then is merely a preliminary and interlocutory order at one stage of the administrative process, and is not an order of a definitive character dealing with the merits of the proceeding before the Commission, nor is it the product of hearing upon evidence and supported by findings appropriate to and dispositive of this rate proceeding.

The Commission finds: The order complained of is but a preliminary and interlocutory order and the application for rehearing thereof should be dismissed.

The Commission orders: The application for rehearing filed on February 14, 1957, by Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America herein be and the same is hereby dismissed.

By the Commission.[1]

[Docket Nos. G-10527, G-10528]

NOLLEM OIL AND GAS CORP. AND WAVERLY OIL WORKS CO., AGENT

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 14, 1957.

In the matters of Nollem Oil and Gas Corporation, Docket No. G-10527; Waverly Oil Works Company, Agent, Docket No. G-10528.

Take notice that Nollem Oil and Gas Corporation (Nollem), as Agent and Operator filed an application on June 6, 1956, in Docket No. G-10527, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, for permission and approval to abandon the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce to Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company (Cumberland) for resale, which sale was previously authorized by the Commission in its order issued December 12, 1955, in Docket No. G-6921.

Concurrently therewith, Waverly Oil Works Company (Waverly), as Agent and Operator filed an application in Docket No. G-10528, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing it to continue the operation and service proposed to be abandoned by Nollem as described above.

The Commission's order issued December 12, 1955, in Docket No. G-6921 authorized Nollem to sell natural gas, from certain leases located in the Roaring Creek and Middle Fork Districts, Randolph County, West Virginia, to Cumberland for transportation in interstate commerce for resale.

The applications herein which are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection state that the operations described above are financed by a group of individuals for whom Nollem acted as agent; that Nollem was relieved of its duties on December 31, 1955, and that Waverly succeeded Nollem as manager in the operation of said property and as operator of the leases involved.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 24, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 9, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

plication with Harry I. Morgan, and Morgan & Norton, a partnership, hereinafter referred to collectively as Applicants, on August 29, 1956, as supplemented October 22, 1956, seeking approval and authorization pursuant to sections 7 (b) and 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act to abandon and render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully described in the joint application herein, and now on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The joint application herein requests that:

(1) Morgan & Norton be permitted to abandon service to United Gas Pipe Line Company (United) from certain leases in the Maxie and Pistol Ridge Fields in Forrest, Lamar and Pearl River Counties, Mississippi, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the act, which service was authorized June 22, 1955, in Docket No. G–5930; and

(2) Norton Oil Company and Harry I. Morgan be authorized to continue the service to United, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the act, proposed to be abandoned by Morgan & Norton.

The application states that, by instrument dated August 15, 1956, as amended October 16, 1956, Morgan & Norton conveyed (effective October 1, 1956) certain of its partnership assets, including the producing properties from which the sales authorized in Docket No. G–5930 are made, to the partners in proportion to their interests in said partnership, namely, Harry I. Morgan, 50 percent; Richard W. Norton, Jr., 25 percent; and Mrs. Annie Norton, 25 percent.

Richard W. Norton, Jr., and Mrs. Annie Norton, in turn, by instrument of assignment dated August 15, 1956, as amended October 17, 1956, conveyed (effective October 1, 1956) their interests in the properties acquired from Morgan & Norton to Norton Oil Company, Inc., (a corporation wholly owned by the two parties).

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by section 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 24, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may by filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 9, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

JONES OIL AND GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARINGS

MARCH 14, 1957.

Take notice that Jones Oil and Gas Company (Applicant), a partnership, with its principal place of business at Harrisville, West Virginia, filed an application on August 31, 1956, in Docket No. G–11007, for approval and authority to abandon service, as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully described in the application.

Pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, Applicant seeks permission and approval to abandon the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce to Manufacturers Light and Heat Company (Manufacturers) for resale, from Applicant's S. A. Smith Lease located in the Murphy District, Ritchie County, West Virginia, which sale was previously authorized by the Commission in Docket No. G–4967.

On September 4, 1956, Applicant filed an application in Docket No. G–11008, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, for authority to render the above described service to Hope Natural Gas Company (Hope) in lieu of Manufacturers.

Applicant in Docket No. G–11007 states that the line pressure of Manufacturers' system is too high to permit an adequate flow of gas from the Smith Lease, while Hope's line pressure is much lower, thus enabling Applicant to produce gas in a greater volume and for a longer time and increase the total amount of gas recoverable. Applicant recites, furthermore, that its line from the lease to Manufacturers' transmission system involves a river crossing which has been costly to maintain, whereas in making the sale to Hope, Applicant will maintain a much shorter line from the lease to the point of sale and will eliminate any river crossing. In support of its abandonment application, Applicant has submitted a letter dated August 21, 1956, from Manufacturers wherein Manufacturers agrees to the cancellation of the contract covering the subject service.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 24, 1957 at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, that the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 9, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

GEORGE H. COATES ET AL.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 14, 1957.

In the matter of George H. Coates and Hugh Kirkpatrick, and Sunray Mid-Continent Oil Company; Docket No. G–11076.

Take notice that George H. Coates and Hugh Kirkpatrick (Coates and Kirkpatrick), and Sunray Mid-Continent Oil Company (Sunray), with their principal place of business in San Antonio, Texas, Mission, Texas, and Tulsa, Oklahoma, respectively, filed a joint application of September 13, 1956, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for permission and authority to abandon and render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

By the joint application herein, Coates and Kirkpatrick seek permission and approval pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, to abandon the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce to Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Tennessee) for resale from the W. A. Anderson Lease located in the Willow Creek Field, Refugio County, Texas, which sale was authorized by the Commission in Docket No. G–8822.

Jointly therewith, Sunray seeks authorization pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act to continue the service to Tennessee proposed to be abandoned by Coates and Kirkpatrick.

The parties state that Sunray, by purchase and assignment, has now succeeded Coates and Kirkpatrick in ownership of the above-mentioned W. A. Anderson Lease dedicated to the gas sales contract covering the sale of gas authorized in Docket No. G–8822.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 24, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 9, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in ommission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket No. G–12196]

ATLANTIC SEABOARD CORP.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED REVISED FPC GAS TARIFF AND REVISED TARIFF SHEETS AND PROVIDING HEARING

MARCH 14, 1957.

On February 13, 1957, Atlantic Seaboard Corporation (Atlantic) tendered for filing Seventh Revised Volume No. 1 of its FPC Gas Tariff and also Rate Schedule X–10, consisting of Third Revised Sheet Nos. 50 through 53, Fourth Revised Sheet No. 54, Second Revised Sheet No. 55 and Original Sheet Nos. 55-a through 55-r of its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 2. According to Atlantic's estimates such rate filings, would increase charges to jurisdictional customers in the amount of $4,148,418 annually, based upon sales in the twelve-months period ended October 31, 1956. The proposed filings, in addition to increasing charges, purport to modify the Btu basis for the respective rate schedules from 1150 to 1000 Btu, and also purport to modify the presently effective tariffs with respect to zone differentials and for the purposes of clarification and uniformity with the FPC Gas Tariffs of affiliated companies in the Columbia Gas System.

In support of its proposed increased rates and application for waiver of the 30-day notice requirements Atlantic states that its supplier, United Fuel Gas Company (United Fuel), on February 13, 1957, filed increased rates which would increase Atlantic's cost of gas purchased, based upon the volumes purchased during twelve months ended October 31, 1956, by approximately $3,950,000. Atlantic's increased rate filings are based upon the fact that its supplier, United Fuel, filed increased rates effective February 14, 1957, which, in turn, are based upon the filing of increased rates and charges by its supplier, Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Tennessee) to become effective on that date. However, the latter company's filings have been suspended until July 14, 1957, in Docket No. G–11,980 by order issued February 13, 1957. In view of the fact that the principal justification for Atlantic's rate filings is based upon Tennessee's suspended rate filings, to that extent there is no support for Atlantic's request for increased rates as of February 14, 1957 and its filings should, therefore, be suspended.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, a public hearing be held at a date to be designated by notice from the Secretary of the Commission, in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services contained in Atlantic's FPC Gas Tariff and contracts related thereto, as proposed to be amended by the aforementioned tendered rate filings, as set forth in paragraph (B) hereto.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, Atlantic's proposed FPC Gas Tariff, Seventh Revised Volume No. 1 and its Third Revised Sheets Nos. 50 through 53, Fourth Revised Sheet No. 54, Second Revised No. 55 and Original Sheet Nos. 55-a through 55-r of its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 2, are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until July 14, 1957, and until such further time as they may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested State Commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

[Docket No. G–12195]

UNITED FUEL GAS CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED REVISED TARIFF AND PROVIDING FOR HEARING

MARCH 14, 1957.

United Fuel Gas Company (United Fuel), on February 13, 1957, tendered for filing Fifth Revised Volume No. 1 to its FPC Gas Tariff, proposing, among other things, an increase in rates and charges of $10,965,605, or 10.0 percent, a year more than the rates currently in effect. United Fuel requests an effective date of February 14, 1957, or, if suspension is ordered, to limit the period of suspension to coincide with the terminal date—July 14, 1957—of the suspension of a rate increase filed by its supplier, Tennessee Gas Transmission Corporation (Tennessee Gas), in Docket No. G–11980.

The proposed increase in rates and charges is principally based upon a rate increase application recently filed by Tennessee Gas, which was suspended by an order issued February 13, 1957, in Docket No. G–11980. United Fuel also claims return at a rate of 6¾ percent on a rate base computed on a year-end utility investment in plant, increased depreciation expenses, increased wages and salaries, increased rates for gas purchased locally and in Louisiana, and increased costs of transportation to be paid to Gulf Interstate Gas Company.

Comments have been received from a large number of the distribution companies and regulatory commissions affected, most of them requesting suspension and making various criticisms of the proposed increase in rates.

Since the proposed rate increase by Tennessee Gas has been suspended and has not been shown to be justified, United Fuel's reliance on the proposed increase by Tennessee Gas is subject to the same infirmity. Additionally, United Fuel has not fully supported other aspects of its proposed rate increase, including, but not limited to, rate of return, plant investment, depreciation expense, wages and salaries, purchased gas costs and transportation expense.

The increased rates and charges provided for in the revised Gas Tariff tendered by United Fuel on February 13, 1957, have not been shown to be justified and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the proposed changes in rates, charges, classifications, or services, and that the above-designated revised Gas Tariff be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations thereunder (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the law-

fulness of said proposed changes in rates, charges, classifications, or services, and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, United Fuel's Fifth Revised Volume No. 1 to its FPC Gas Tariff be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until July 14, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the revised volume hereby suspended, nor the Gas Tariff sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

[Docket No. G-12197]

MANUFACTURERS LIGHT AND HEAT CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGES IN RATES

MARCH 14, 1957.

On February 13, 1957, The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, (Manufacturers) submitted for filing its FPC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1, which supersedes its FPC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1. The tariff changes proposed by Manufacturers involve an estimated annual increase in rates and charges approximating $1,789,000 or 7.3 percent, based upon operations for the year ended October 31, 1956, as adjusted, above the rates contained in its FPC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1.

In support of such proposed increased rates, Manufacturers states that Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Tennessee) has filed for increased rates effective February 14, 1957, and as Tennessee is a direct supplier of Manufacturers and is a major supplier of United Fuel Gas Company (United Fuel) and Hope Natural Gas Company (Hope), from whom Manufacturers buys gas, and United Fuel, which is the sole supplier of Atlantic Seaboard Corporation (Atlantic), from whom Manufacturers also buys gas, Tennessee's increase has the effect of directly and indirectly increasing Manufacturers' costs of purchased gas. The rate increase filed for by Tennessee was suspended until July 14, 1957 by order of the Commission issued February 13, 1957 in Docket No. G-11980. Manufacturers also claims increased operating expenses and 6¾ percent rate of return (instead of 6¼ percent agreed upon in the settlement of Docket No. G-2453 approved by order issued November 3, 1956) on a rate base which includes year end plant balances.

The increased rates and charges proposed in the foregoing filing tendered by Manufacturers have not been shown to be justified and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the changes proposed in the above-designated revised tariff and that said tariff be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations [18 CFR, Chapter I], a public hearing be held, upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary, concerning the lawfulness of said proposed changes in rates, charges, classifications, or services; and, pending such hearing and decision thereon Manufacturers' FPC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1, is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until July 14, 1957, and until such further time as it may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by § § 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

[Docket No. G-12198]

HOME GAS CO.

MARCH 14, 1957.

Home Gas Company (Home) on February 13, 1957, tendered for filing its FPC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, superseding its FPC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, proposing increases in rates and charges aggregating approximately $672,687, or 6.5 percent, based on sales of natural gas for the 12-month period ending October 31, 1956.

On February 13, 1957, five interconnected pipeline companies of the Columbia Gas System, Inc., filed revised FPC Gas Tariffs proposing increases in their wholesale rates; namely, Home, The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company (Manufacturers), United Fuel Gas Company (United Fuel), Atlantic Seaboard Corporation (Atlantic Seaboard), and Kentucky Gas Transmission Corporation (Kentucky Gas). The proposed rate increase of United Fuel is based primarily upon a rate increase application recently filed by Tennessee Gas Transmission Company which was suspended until July 14, 1957, by order issued February 13, 1957, in Docket No. G-11980. The changes proposed by Atlantic Seaboard and Kentucky Gas are based on the above increase of United Fuel, and the change of Manufacturers is based on the above rate increases of Tennessee Gas and United Fuel as well as a rate increase tendered by Hope Natural Gas Company which resulted from the Tennessee Gas increase; and the change filed by Home is based on the above increase applied for by Manufacturers.

In support of its proposed increase Home submitted cost data for the year ended October 31, 1956, with adjustments. The adjustments include among other things, (1) increase in cost of purchased gas, (2) increased taxes, (3) increased depreciation expenses, and (4) increased wages and salaries. Home also claims a rate of return of 6¾ percent and associated income taxes.

Home also proposes and requests that its tendered filing be allowed to become effective as of February 14, 1957, or such other date coincident with the date on which Manufacturers' proposed increased rates and charges are permitted to become effective.

The increased rates and charges proposed by Manufacturers are being suspended concurrently herewith to July 14, 1957, in Docket No. G-12197. The extent to which such claimed increased costs of Home will be incurred cannot, therefore, be fully ascertained until such time as the reasonableness of the increase in its suppliers' rates is determined.

The increased rates and charges provided in said proposed tariff of Home have not been shown to be justified and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services contained in Home's FPC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, as proposed to be amended by its FPC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, and that said proposed revised tariff and the rates contained therein be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter provided.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Commission by sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's regulations under the Natural Gas Act, including rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held, at a time and date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary of this Commission, concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services contained in Home's FPC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, as proposed to be amended by its FPC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, Home's proposed FPC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, hereby is suspended and its use deferred until July 14, 1957, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, and until such further time thereafter as it may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

[Docket No. G-12199]

KENTUCKY GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

MARCH 14, 1957.

Kentucky Gas Transmission Corporation (Kentucky) a subsidiary of Columbia Gas System, Inc., on February 13, 1957 submitted for filing First Revised Volume No. 1 of its FPC Gas Tariff, superseding Original Volume No. 1 which revision proposes certain changes in its tariff provisions and increases in its rates and charges aggregating approximately $2,380,151 or 8.3 percent per annum based upon sales made by its predecessor and affiliate Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company (Central) for the year ending October 31, 1956. Kentucky, effective January 1, 1957 and pursuant to proper authority acquired Central's storage and transmission facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed increases are in addition to the increased rates subject to refund under Docket Nos. G-2450 and G-5476. Such rates have been reduced by settlement of the proceedings approved by the Commission by order issued March 11, 1957.

Kentucky states that the proposed increases in its rates are primarily due to the proposed rate increases reflected in the revised tariff submitted for filing contemporaneously herewith in Docket No. G-12195 by its principal supplier, United Fuel Gas Company (United), which latter increases in turn are stated to be required primarily to offset the proposed increased costs of gas to United advanced by its main supplier, Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Tennessee) in a filing tendered on January 14, 1957 and suspended until July 14, 1957 by order issued February 13, 1957, in Docket No. G-11980. Kentucky also claims 6¾ percent rate of return on a rate base inclusive of year-end plant balances, and increased operating expenses, depreciation expense and taxes.

Kentucky requests waiver of the notice requirements provided under § 154.51 of the Commission's rules and proposes that its tendered filing become effective on February 14, 1957, or such other date coincident with the date on which United's proposed rate increase is permitted to become effective.

By order issued March 1957 in Docket No. G-12195, the Commission has ordered a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the increased rates proposed by United, and pending such hearing and decision thereon, has suspended and deferred the use of United's proposed increased rates until July 14, 1957, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, and until such further time thereafter that such proposed increased rates may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act. Kentucky's proposed increases are almost entirely dependent upon and can be supported only by relying upon the effectiveness of the rate increase of its supplier, and should therefore be suspended pending determination of said effectiveness.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services contained in Kentucky's FPC Gas Tariff First Revised Volume No. 1 and that said proposed revised tariff be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter provided.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Commission by sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's regulations under the Natural Gas Act, including rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held, at a time and date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary of this Commission, concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services, contained in Kentucky's FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon Kentucky's proposed FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1 hereby is suspended, and its use deferred until July 14, 1957 unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, and until such further time thereafter as it may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.[1]

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-3554]

WEST PENN ELECTRIC CO. AND POTOMAC EDISON CO.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER AUTHORIZING SUBSIDIARY TO ISSUE AND SELL ADDITIONAL COMMON STOCK TO HOLDING COMPANY, AUTHORIZING HOLDING COMPANY TO ACQUIRE SUCH ADDITIONAL COMMON STOCK AND TO PLEDGE SAME UNDER ITS TRUST INDENTURE, AND RELEASING JURISDICTION OVER FEES

MARCH 15, 1957.

On January 25, 1957 The West Penn Electric Company ("Electric"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary The Potomac Edison Company ("Potomac") filed a joint application-declaration and amendments thereto pursuant to sections 6, 7, 10, 12 (c), and 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rules U-42, U-44, and U-50 thereunder seeking approval of (1) the issue and sale of 528,000 additional shares of common stock by Electric pursuant to an underwritten rights offering; (2) a charter amendment by Potomac increasing its authorized common stock from 800,000 to 1,500,000 shares without par value; (3) the issue and sale by Potomac of 100,000 additional shares of its common stock to Electric for $2,000,000 cash; and (4) the pledge by Electric of the additional shares of Potomac's common stock under the Trust Indenture securing its 3½ percent Sinking Fund Collateral Trust Bonds as required therein. Notice of the filing of said application-declaration was issued on January 30, 1957 (Holding Company Act Release No. 13375).

On February 18, 1957 the Commission issued an order herein authorizing transactions (1) and (2) aforesaid, and reserving jurisdiction with respect to transactions (3) and (4) and also with respect to certain fees (Holding Company Act Release No. 13387).

Potomac has now amended its charter as hereinbefore authorized, and orders have been issued by the Public Service Commission of Maryland and by the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing Potomac to issue and sell not exceeding 100,000 additional shares of its common stock for $2,000,000 cash as proposed, and to apply the proceeds in partial reimbursement of capital expenditures heretofore made.

The fees and expenses to be incurred by Potomac herein are estimated at $3,350. The aggregate fees and expenses of Electric (excluding compensation to be paid to the underwriters) are estimated at approximately $125,000, including the following fees as to which jurisdiction was heretofore reserved: City Bank Farmers Trust Company (New York), subscription agent, $42,000; same bank, transfer agent, $11,782.50; Guaranty Trust Company of New York, registrar, $2,400; Price Waterhouse & Co., accountants, $16,348; Sullivan and Cromwell, counsel, $10,000. The fee of Cravath, Swaine & Moore, independent counsel for the underwriters, is stated at $6,000. On the basis of statements filed on behalf of the several fee claimants, the amounts requested do not appear to be unreasonable.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said application-declaration, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission, and the Commission finding, with respect to the proposed issue and sale of common stock by Potomac to Electric, with respect to the proposed pledge of such stock by Electric under its Trust Indenture as aforesaid, and with respect to the fees to be incurred by said companies in connection with the several transactions involved herein, that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied; and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the application-declaration as amended should be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith with respect to said transactions and matters as to which jurisdiction was heretofore reserved:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration as amended be, and hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith with respect to the proposed issuance and sale of 100,000 additional shares of common stock by Potomac at $20 per share, the acquisition of said additional shares by Electric, and its pledge thereof pursuant to the terms of its Trust Indenture aforesaid, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and hereby is, released with respect to all fees.

By the Commission.

MISSISSIPPI POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF DECLARATION REGARDING PROPOSAL TO ISSUE AND SELL FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

MARCH 15, 1957.

Notice is hereby given that Mississippi Power Company ("Mississippi"), a public utility subsidiary company of The Southern Company, a registered holding company, has filed with this Commission a declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), and has designated sections 6 (a) and 7 of the act, and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to the declaration which is on file in the office of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Mississippi proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 promulgated under the act, $6,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, -- percent, Series due in 1987. The interest rate (which shall be a multiple of ⅛ of 1 percent), and the price, exclusive of accrued interest, to be paid to Mississippi for the bonds (which shall be not less than 100 percent nor more than 102¾ percent of the principal amount) will be determined by competitive bidding. The bonds will be issued under and secured by the company's outstanding Indenture, dated September 1, 1941, as heretofore supplemented, and as to be further supplemented by a Supplemental Indenture to be dated April 1, 1957.

The proceeds from the sale of the bonds are to be applied toward the construction or acquisition of permanent improvements, extensions and additions to Mississippi's utility plant which are estimated to aggregate $10,800,000 during 1957.

The declaration states that the issuance and sale of the bonds are not subject to the jurisdiction of any State Commission or of any Federal commission, other than this Commission.

The fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred by Mississippi in connection with the proposed transactions are to be supplied by amendment.

Notice is further given that any interested person may not later than April 1, 1957, request in writing that a hearing be held in respect of such matters, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission orders a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date the declaration, as filed or as it may be hereafter amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

EQUITY CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION REQUESTING ORDER PERMITTING TRANSACTIONS AMONG AFFILIATES

MARCH 15, 1957.

Notice is hereby given that the Equity Corporation ("Equity"), a registered, closed-end, non-diversified investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, on behalf of itself and of William E. Betts, L. Scott Cass, William J. Kaiser, Wilfrid M. Kearns, Charles R. Ogsburg and James Trainor, ("Affiliated Friden Stockholders") all affiliated persons of an affiliated person of Equity, has filed an application under section 17 (b) of the act for an order exempting from the provisions of section 17 (a) of the act an agreement which places restrictions upon the disposition of shares of stock of Friden Calculating Machine Co., Inc. ("Friden"), held by Equity and such other stockholders.

The application recites that Equity and the Affiliated Friden stockholders own an aggregate of 220,134.5 shares (22.2 percent), of which Equity owns 161,207 shares, of common stock of Friden. On January 16, 1957 all of said persons entered into an agreement, subject to the approval of the Commission, which provides in substance:

1. That if any party other than Equity shall desire to dispose of his Friden Common Stock (except within his family group), Equity shall have a 15-day option to purchase the same at the proposed sale price or, if it is proposed to donate stock, then at its fair market value; provided, however, that if the proposed sale price is higher then the fair market value, then the option period will be extended to 45 days, and the option will not become effective unless within the option period Equity shall have obtained an Order from the Commission exempting the proposed transaction from the provisions of section 17 (a) of the act;

2. That on the death of any stockholder, Equity shall have an option to purchase all of the Friden Common Stock owned by such stockholder and not bequeathed to members of his family group, at its fair market value; and

3. That Equity will not dispose of any of its Friden Common Stock unless an offer is made to the other parties to sell the same proportion of their Friden Common Stock upon the same terms and conditions.

The Agreement provides that the "fair market value" of the Friden Common Stock on any date shall be either (a) the lowest closing price of the stock on that date on any national securities exchange upon which the stock was traded on that date or, (b) if the stock was not traded on any national securities exchange on that date, the lowest closing price of the stock on any national securities exchange on the last previous date upon which the stock was so traded.

Section 17 (a) of the act makes it unlawful, subject to certain exceptions not relevant here, for an affiliate of an affiliated person of a registered investment company to sell to or purchase from such registered company, or any company controlled by such registered company, any security or other property. Under section 17 (b) of the act, however, the Commission upon application shall grant an exemption from the provisions of section 17 (a) of the act if it finds that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid or received, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of anyone concerned, and that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of each registered investment company concerned, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the act, and with the general purposes of the act.

It is stated that the terms of the proposed transaction are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned and that they are consistent with the policy of Equity as stated in its registration statement and reports filed under the act.

For a more detailed statement of the matters of face and law asserted, all persons are referred to the application which is on file in the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than March 28, 1957 at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

NORTHWEST OIL AND REFINING CORP.

ORDER VACATING ORDER OF SUSPENSION

MARCH 14, 1957.

Northwest Oil and Refining Corporation ("Northwest"), a Delaware corporation, 120 North 30th Street, Billings, Montana, filed with the Commission on December 26, 1956, a notification and subsequently filed an amendment thereto, relating to an offering of 150,000 shares of its common stock, par value $1.00, at $2.00 per share, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

The Commission on January 25, 1957, ordered, pursuant to Rule 261 of the general rules and regulations under said act, that the exemption sought by Northwest under Regulation A be temporarily suspended on the grounds stated in said order.

Northwest, subsequent to the Commission action suspending the exemption, submitted a request that said order be vacated and in support thereof has furnished information to the Commission satisfying it that no offering has been made and that the deficiencies as stated in the said order were only the result of a failure to give due care to the conditional requirements of the exemption upon which it had undertaken to rely.

It appearing to the Commission that a hearing is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and that the basis for said temporary order for suspension, as aforesaid, no longer exists;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261 (b) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933 that said temporary order for suspension be, and it hereby is, vacated.

By the Commission.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION

[List No. 20-7]

PHONOGRAPH PICKUP CARTRIDGES, ELEMENTS, AND NEEDLES

PUBLIC NOTICE OF COMPLAINTS RECEIVED

MARCH 15, 1957.

The United States Tariff Commission hereby gives notice of the receipt, on February 25, 1957, of two complaints under section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U. S. C. 1337) filed by Brush Electronics Company (a division of Clevite Corporation) of Cleveland, Ohio, and The Astatic Corporation of Conneaut, Ohio, respectively, alleging unfair methods of competition and unfair acts in the importation and sale of certain foreign phonograph pickup cartridges, elements, and needles.

In accordance with the provisions of § 203.3 of the rules of practice and procedure of the Commission (19 CFR 203.3) the Commission has initiated a preliminary inquiry into the allegations of these complaints to determine (a) whether the institution of an investigation under section 337, above, is warranted, and (b) whether the issuance of a temporary order of exclusion from entry under section 337 (f) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U. S. C. 1337 (f)) is warranted.

A copy of the complaints (not including confidential information) is available for public inspection at the offices of the United States Tariff Commission located at Eighth and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C., and also in the New York Office of the Tariff Commission, located in Room 437 of the Customs House.

Persons desiring to submit information either in favor of or in opposition to the institution of an investigation may do so by submitting their views in writing to the Secretary, United States Tariff Commission, Washington 25, D. C., within 60 days. Fifteen copies of any such submission are required.

By order of the Commission.

In the Matter of Parliament Appliances, Inc., a Corporation Trading as Parliament Food Plan, and O. G. Fishbain, M. S. Gottesman, and E. M. Levin, Individually and as Officers of Respondent Corporation

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a corporation engaged in Chicago in the sale of electrical appliances with falsely advertising its home freezers and freezer food purchasing plan in newspapers, by radio and television, and otherwise, by representing that sale of the freezers was incidental to its wholesale food business, that it had a food plant, bought food by the carload for resale at wholesale prices to participants in the food purchase plan who could thus effect large savings, and that the freezer was given free at the end of a two-year participation period, among other things.

Following entry of an agreement containing consent order, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on March 5 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents, Parliament Appliances, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, and O. G. Fishbain, individually and as an officer of respondent corporation, and respondents' representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of food freezers and in the solicitation of subscribers to their food purchase plan in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing directly or indirectly:

(a) That respondents buy food for resale to participants in their freezer food purchasing plan;

(b) That respondents buy food in carload quantities;

(c) That respondents are wholesale food dealers;

(d) That respondents have a food plant;

(e) That respondents will place a freezer in a participant's home and supply the necessary food for such participant for 24 months at a total cost to the participant of $12.46 per week or any other amount that is not in accordance with the facts;

(f) That participation in respondents' freezer food purchasing plan enables a participant to eliminate the retail grocer and purchase food at wholesale prices;

(g) That participation in their freezer food purchasing plan will enable a participant to effect a net saving from 25 percent to 50 percent in their food cost or any saving or percentage saving that is not in accordance with the facts;

(h) That the carrying charges on a participant's deferred payments is 6 per-

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

BOURJOIS, INC.

Subpart—Discriminating in price under section 2, Clayton Act, as amended—Payment for services or facilities for processing or sale under 2 (d): § 13.824 Advertising expenses: § 13.825 Allowances for services or facilities.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 2, 38 Stat. 730, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 13) [Cease and desist order, Bourjois, Inc., New York, N. Y., Docket 6635, Mar. 5, 1957]

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a manufacturer in New York City of cosmetics, perfumes, and other beauty preparations with violating section 2 (d) of the Clayton Act as amended by making payments for cooperative advertising, demonstrator services, and push money to competing customers in amounts which were not proportionally equal by any test, and requiring some customer recipients to comply with certain terms and to furnish certain reciprocal services or payments while not requiring others to do so, or requiring them to do so in a less burdensome manner or in smaller amounts.

Following entry of an agreement containing consent order, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on March 5 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent, Bourjois, Inc., a corporation, its officers, employees, agents and representatives, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the sale or offering for sale, of cosmetics, beauty aids and toilet preparations in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Clayton Act as amended, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Paying, or contracting to pay, to, or for the benefit of, any customer of respondent, anything of value as compensation or in consideration for advertising, display, demonstrator, promotional or other services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the handling, processing, sale, or offering for sale of respondent's products, unless such payment or consideration is made available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the resale of such products.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Bourjois, Inc., a corporation, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: March 5, 1957.

Subchapter B—Trade Practice Conference Rules

[File No. 21-455]

PART 37—ENGRAVED STATIONERY AND ALLIED PRODUCTS INDUSTRY OF THE NEW YORK CITY TRADE AREA

PROMULGATION OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES

Due proceedings having been held under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, as amended (Federal Trade Commission Act), and other provisions of law administered by the Commission:

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules as hereinafter set forth, together with the industry committee provision which follows said rules, which have been approved by the Commission in this proceeding, be promulgated as of March 22, 1957.

Statement by the Commission. Trade practice rules for the Engraved Stationery and Allied Products Industry of the New York City Trade Area,[1] as hereinafter set forth, are promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission under the trade practice conference procedure.

The industry for which these rules are established is composed of persons, firms, corporations, and organizations located in the mentioned trade area who are engaged in the sale, offering for sale, or distribution of (a) letterheads, envelopes, business and social identification cards and programs, wedding invitations and announcements, engagement announcements, greeting cards, bank notes, stock certificates, and similar products, having letters, words, numbers, or designs thereon which are the result of the application of an engraving process,[2] or are directly or indirectly represented as being the result of such process; or (b) of plates or dies which are suitable, or are directly or indirectly represented as being suitable, for use in an engraving process.

According to available information, the aggregate annual sales of the products of this segment of the engraving industry approximate $10,000,000.

Primary objectives of the rules are the maintenance of free and fair competition, and the elimination and prevention of unfair methods of competition, unfair acts or practices, and other trade abuses. The rules are to be applied to such end and to the exclusion of any acts or practices which suppress competition or otherwise restrain trade.

Proceedings for the establishment of trade practice rules were instituted pursuant to an application of the Engraved Stationery Board of Trade. A general industry conference was held under Commission auspices in New York City. Thereafter, two separate drafts of proposed rules were published by the Commission and made available to all industry members whereby they were afforded opportunity to present their views, including such pertinent information, suggestions, amendments, or objections as they desired to offer and to be heard in the premises. Pursuant to such notices public hearings were held in New York City on March 5, 1954, and June 1, 1956, and all matters there presented, or otherwise received in the proceeding, were duly considered.

Thereafter, and upon full consideration of the entire matter, final action was taken by the Commission whereby it approved the Group I rules and the industry committee provision as hereinafter provided.

Such rules become operative thirty (30) days from the date of promulgation.

The rules. These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote the maintenance of fair competitive conditions in the interest of protecting industry, trade, and the public. It is to this end, and to the exclusion of any act or practice which fixes or controls prices through combination or agreement, or which unreasonably restrains trade or suppresses competition, or otherwise unlawfully injures, destroys, or prevents competition, that the rules are to be applied.

General statement. The unfair trade practices embraced in the rules herein are considered to be unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, or other illegal practices, prohibited under laws administered by the Federal Trade Commission, and appropriate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use, by any person, partnership, corporation, or other organization subject to its jurisdiction, of such unlawful practices in commerce.

AUTHORITY: §§ 37.1 to 37.201 issued under sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45.

§ 37.1 Misuse of the terms "engraved," "engraving," "hand engraved," "hand engraving," etc. (a) (1) In the sale, offering for sale, or distribution of letterheads, envelopes, business and social identification cards and programs, wedding invitations and announcements, engagement announcements, greeting cards, bank notes, stock certficates, and similar products, which have letters, markings, or designs thereon, it is an unfair trade practice to use the word "engraved," "engraving," or any word or term of similar import, as descriptive of such products or of the letters, markings, or designs thereon, unless such letters, markings, or designs are the result of the application of an engraving process as such process is defined in subparagraph (2) of this section; or to use the words "hand engraved," "hand engraving," or any word or term of similar import, as descriptive of such products or of the letters, markings, or designs thereon, unless such letters, markings, or designs are the result of the application of an engraving process, as such process is defined in subparagraph (2) of this section, in which the plates or dies used have been incised or etched wholly by hand.

(2) Definition of engraving process: The engraving process to which reference is made in this section is a process by which letters, markings, or designs are produced upon stationery and allied products through the use under pressure of a plate or die of steel, or a hard copper alloy or other hard metal or material suitable for the purpose, in which there has been incised or etched mirror images of such letters, markings, or designs sufficient to force the portion of the stationery or allied products to be inscribed into the inked incisions in the plate or die and the ink in such incisions to adhere thereto in relief to the general surface thereof. Thermotyping, raised printing, embossing, or any process in which printer's type is used, is not an engraving process within the meaning of this definition.

(b) In the sale, offering for sale, or distribution of plates or dies, it is an unfair trade practice to use or cause to be used the word "engraved," "engraving," or any word or term of similar import as descriptive thereof, unless such plates or dies are suitable for use in an engraving process as such process is defined in paragraph (a) (2) of this section; or to use the words "hand engraved," "hand engraving," or any word or term of similar import, as descriptive of any plate or die unless (1) such plate or die is suitable for use in an engraving process as such process is defined in paragraph (a) (2) of this section, and (2) the letters, markings, or designs therein have been incised or etched by hand. [Rule 1]

§ 37.2 Misrepresentation and deception (general). It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of industry products, to use, or cause or promote the use of, any trade promotional literature, advertising matter, mark, brand, label, trade name, picture, design or device, designation, or other type of oral or written representation, however disseminated or published, or to fail to disclose any material fact, when such representation or failure to disclose has the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public with respect to the type, grade, quality, quantity, weight, size, material, finish, composition, construction, manufacture, layout, design, or sketch of industry products, or in any other material respect.

NOTE: As used in this section, the terms "layout," "design," and "sketch" have the following meanings:

Layout. The basic plan or original conception of the respective form, indicated by rough lines to show relative positions and sizes of the component units of copy.

Design. The proper and artistic balancing and combination of lettering styles and sizes with or without illustrations, trade-marks, or other insignia, commensurate with harmony and good taste.

Sketch. The representation of its original idea for creation, revision, or improvement of any form of wording or line or dot on paper or paper products, reproduced either roughly or finished by hand-drawing with pencil, pen, or crayon, or the photostat or photograph of same.

§ 37.3 Misrepresentation as to character of business. It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member, in the course of or in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of industry products, to represent, directly or indirectly, through advertising, personal solicitation, or otherwise, that he is a manufacturer of industry products, or that he owns or controls a workshop making such products, when such is not the fact, or in any other manner to misrepresent the character, extent, or type of his business. [Rule 3]

§ 37.4 Deceptive pricing. It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member, in the course of or in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of industry products: (a) To represent, in advertising or otherwise, that the price of any industry product has been reduced from what is in fact a fictitious price; or to offer any such industry product for sale at a purported reduction in price when such purported reduction is in fact fictitious; or,

(b) Directly or indirectly, to use or to supply to dealers, or to aid or assist in the use of, price tags, labels, or similar devices which are false or fictitious, or which such member has reason to believe are intended to be used or will be used by dealers or salesmen for the purpose of misleading or deceiving the purchasing or consuming public in regard to price, or in any other material respect; or

(c) To represent that the price of any industry product is a "wholesale" price or a "factory" price, when such is not a fact; or to use any other price representation which is misleading or deceptive. [Rule 4]

§ 37.5 Deceptive invoicing. Withholding from or inserting in invoices any statement or information by reason of which omission or insertion a false, inaccurate, or incomplete record is made which has the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public in any material respect, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 5]

§ 37.6 Deceptive use and imitation of trade or corporate names, trade-marks, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of industry products, to use any trade name, corporate name, trade-mark, brand, label, or other trade designation, which has the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers as to the character, name, nature, or origin of any product of the industry, or which is false or misleading in any material respect. [Rule 6]

§ 37.7 Exclusive deals. It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member to contract to sell or sell any industry product, or fix a price charged therefor, or discount from, or rebate upon, such price, on the condition, agreement, or understanding that the purchaser thereof shall not use or deal in the products of a competitor or competitors of such industry member, where the effect of such sale or contract for sale, or of such condition, agreement, or understanding, may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce. [Rule 7]

§ 37.8 Guarantees, warranties, etc. In the sale, offering for sale, or distribution of industry products, it is an unfair trade practice for any industry member—

(a) To represent, directly or by implication, that any industry product is guaranteed or warranted unless the nature and extent of the guarantee or warranty, and the manner in which the guarantor or warrantor will perform thereunder, are clearly and conspicuously disclosed; or

(b) To use, or cause to be used, any guarantee or warranty which does not clearly and conspicuously disclose the terms, conditions, and limitations of such guarantee or warranty and the obligations of the guarantor or warrantor thereunder; and

(c) To represent or imply that an industry product is guaranteed or warranted, or to use any guarantee or warranty covering an industry product, when the guarantor or warrantor fails or refuses to observe his obligations thereunder. [Rule 8]

§ 37.9 Prohibited sales below cost. (a) The practice of selling products of the industry at a price less than the cost thereof to the seller, with the purpose or intent, and where the effect is, or where there is a reasonable probability that the effect will be, to substantially injure, suppress, or strifle competition or tend to create a monopoly, is an unfair trade practice.

(b) This section is not to be construed as prohibiting all sales below cost, but only such selling below the seller's cost as is resorted to and pursued with the wrongful intent or purpose referred to and where the effect is, or where there is reasonable probability that the effect will be, to substantially injure, suppress, or stifle competition or to create a monopoly. Among the situations in which the requisite purpose or intent would ordinarily be lacking are cases in which such sales were: (1) Of seasonable goods near the conclusion of the season; (2) of perishable goods in respect to which deterioration is imminent; (3) of obsolescent goods; (4) made under judicial process; or (5) made in bona fide discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(c) As used in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the term "cost" means the respective seller's cost and not an average cost in the industry whether such average cost be determined by an industry cost survey or some other method. It consists of the total outlay or expenditure by the seller in the acquisition, production, and distribution of the products involved, and comprises all elements of cost such as labor, material, depreciation, taxes (except taxes on net income and such other taxes as are not properly applicable to cost), and general overhead expenses, incurred by the seller in the acquisition, manufacture, processing, preparation for marketing, sale, and delivery of the products. Not to be included are dividends or interest on borrowed or invested capital, or nonoperating losses, such as fire losses and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets. Operating cost should not be reduced by items of nonoperating income, such as income from investments, and gain on the sale of capital assets.

§ 37.10 Use of the word "free." It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of industry products, to use the word "free," or any other word or words of similar import, in advertisements or in other offers to the public, as descriptive of an article of merchandise, or service, which is not an unconditional gift, under the following circumstances:

(a) When all the conditions, obligations, or other prerequisites to the receipt and retention of the "free" article of merchandise or service offered are not clearly and conspicuously set forth at the outset so as to leave no resonable probability that the terms of the offer will be misunderstood; and, regardless of such disclosure:

(b) When, with respect to any article of merchandise required to be purchased in order to obtain the "free" article or service, the offerer (1) increases the ordinary and usual price of such article of merchandise, or (2) reduces its quality, or (3) reduces the quantity or size thereof.

NOTE: The disclosure required by paragraph (a) of this section shall appear in close conjunction with the word "free" (or other word or words of similar import) wherever such word first appears in each advertisement or offer. A disclosure in the form of a footnote, to which reference is made by use of an asterisk or other symbol place next to the word "free," will not be regarded as compliance.

§ 37.11 Use of lottery schemes, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member to sell, or distribute, or promote the sale and distribution of, industry products by means or through the use of games of chance or lottery schemes. [Rule 11]

§ 37.12 Defamation of competitors or false disparagement of their products. It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member—

(a) To defame competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations; or

(b) To falsely disparage competitors' products as to grade, quality, method of manufacture, and distribution, or in any other respect; or

(c) To falsely disparage the business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies, services, or conditions of employment, of competitors. [Rule 12]

§ 37.13 Commercial bribery. It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member, directly or indirectly, to give, or offer to give, or permit or cause to be given, money or anything of value to agents, employees, or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees, or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to purchase or contract to purchase products manufactured, processed, or sold by such industry member or the maker of such gift or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing in the products of competitors or from dealing or contracting to deal with competitors, or to effect any other advantage in favor of the industry member making such gift or offer with respect to the sale of industry products to such employers or principals. [Rule 13]

§ 37.14 Prohibited forms of trade restraints (unlawful price fixing, etc.) [3] It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member, either directly or indirectly, to engage in any planned common course of action, or to enter into or take part in any understanding, agreement, combination, or conspiracy, with one or more members of the industry, or with any other person or persons, to fix or maintain the price of any goods or otherwise unlawfully to restrain trade; or to use any form of threat, intimidation, or coercion to induce any member of the industry or other person or persons to engage in any such planned common course of action, or to become a party to any such understanding, agreement, combination, or conspiracy. [Rule 14]

§ 37.15 Prohibited discrimination [4]— (a) Prohibited discriminatory prices, rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, etc., which effect unlawful price discrimination. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential, where such rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential, effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality, where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce, and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce, or to injure, destroy, or prevent

[3] The inhibitions of this section are subject to Public Law 542, approved July 14, 1952, 66 Stat. 632 (the McGuire Act) which provides that with respect to a commodity which bears, or the label or container of which bears, the trade-mark, brand, or name of the producer or distributor of such commodity and which is in free and open competition with commodities of the same general class produced or distributed by others, a seller of such a commodity may enter into a contract or agreement with a buyer thereof which establishes a minimum or stipulated price at which such commodity may be resold by such buyer when such contract or agreement is lawful as applied to intrastate transactions under the laws of the State, Territory, or territorial jurisdiction in which the resale is to be made or to which the commodity is to be transported for such resale, and when such contract or agreement is not between manufacturers, or between wholesalers, or between brokers, or between factors, or between retailers, or between persons, firms, or corporations in competition with each other.

[4] As used in § 37.15, the term "commerce" means "trade or commerce among the several States and with foreign nations, or between the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States and any State, Territory, or foreign nation, or between any insular possessions or other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or between any such possession or place and any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or any foreign nation, or within the District of Columbia or any Territory or any insular possession or other place under the jurisdiction of the United States."

competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination, or with customers of either of them: Provided, however:

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, and are not purchased by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit, as supplies for their own use;

(2) That nothing contained in this paragraph shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods of quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

NOTE: Cost justification under the above proviso depends upon net savings in cost based on all facts relevant to the transactions under the terms of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. For example, if a seller regularly grants a discount based upon the purchase of a specified quantity by a single order for a single delivery, and this discount is justified by cost differences, it does not follow that the same discount can be cost justified if granted to a purchaser of the same quantity by multiple orders or for multiple deliveries.

(3) That nothing contained in this section shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing contained in this paragraph shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or the marketability of the goods concerned, such as but not limited to obsolescence of seasonal goods, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned;

(5) That nothing contained in this section shall prevent the meeting in good faith of an equally low price of a competitor, or the services or facilities furnished by a competitor. (See paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section.)

NOTE: In complaint proceedings, justification of price differentials under subparagraphs (2), (4) and (5) of this paragraph is a matter of affirmative defense to be established by the person or concern charged with price discrimination.

The following are examples of price differential practices to be considered as subject to the prohibitions of this paragraph when involving goods of like grade and quality which are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, and which are not purchased by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit, as supplies for their own use; and when—

(1) The commerce requirements specified in this paragraph are present; and

(2) The price differential has a reasonable probability of substantially lessening competition or tending to create a monopoly in any line of commerce, or of injuring, destroying, or preventing competition with the industry member or with the customer receiving the benefit of the price differential, or with customers of either of them; and

(3) The price differential is not justified by cost savings (see subparagraph (2) of this paragraph); and

(4) The price differential is not made in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or the marketability of the goods concerned (see subparagraph (4) of this paragraph); and

(5) The lower price was not made to meet in good faith an equally low price of a competitor (see subparagraph (5) of this paragraph).

Example No. 1. At the end of a given period an industry member grants a discount to a customer equivalent to a fixed percentage of the total of the customer's purchases during such period and fails to grant such discount to other customers under like conditions.

Example No. 2. An industry member sells goods to one or more of his customers at a higher price than he charges other customers for like merchandise. It is immaterial whether or not such discrimination is accomplished by misrepresentation as to the grade and quality of the products sold.

(b) Prohibited brokerage and commissions. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(c) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(d) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all competing purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

(e) Inducing or receiving an illegal discrimination in price. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by paragraphs (a) to (d) of this section.

NOTE: Paragraph (e) of this section is a re-statement of section 2 (f) of the Clayton Act as amended. In a complaint proceeding under this section, in order to make out a prima facie violation, the Commission must show that the favored buyer induced or received the lower price knowing, or knowing facts from which he should have known, that such price was violative of section 2 (a) of said act and not justified under subparagraphs (2), (4) or (5) of paragraph (a) of this section. When, in any such proceeding, the issue is limited to the question of whether the price differential involved made only due allowance for differences in cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which the goods were sold and delivered, the Commission may establish a prima facie case in a number of ways, including:

(1) By showing that the buyer paying the lower price knew that the methods by, and quantities in, which the goods were sold and delivered to him by the seller were the same as in the case of the competing buyer or buyers paying the higher price or prices; or

(2) By showing, when there is a difference in the methods or quantities in which the goods were sold and delivered by the seller to the buyer than in the case of the competing buyer or buyers paying the higher price or prices, that the buyer paying the lower price or prices knew the nature and extent of such differences and knew or should have known that they could not have resulted in sufficient cost savings of the kind and character specified as to justify the price differential.

§ 37.16 Aiding or abetting use of unfair trade practices. It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member to aid, abet, coerce, or induce another, directly or indirectly, to use or promote the use of any unfair trade practice specified in the foregoing sections. [Rule 16]

§ 37.201 Industry committee. The provisions of § 16.1 of this subchapter shall be applicable to an industry committee established under this part.

PART 26—GRAIN STANDARDS

OFFICIAL GRAIN STANDARDS OF THE UNITED STATES FOR WHEAT

Correction

In Federal Register Document 57-1883, published at page 1665 of the issue for Friday, March 15, 1957, the following change is made in the tables in paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of § 26.103: In the second line of the statements regarding sample grade, "16.0 percent" should read "15.5 percent".

Chapter VIII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Sugar), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter H—Determination of Wage Rates

[Sugar Determination 861.10]

PART 861—SUGAR BEETS; CALIFORNIA, SOUTHWESTERN ARIZONA, SOUTHERN OREGON AND WESTERN NEVADA

WAGE RATES; 1957 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (c) (1) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (herein referred to as "act"), after investigation, and consideration of the evidence obtained at the public hearing held in Berkeley, California, on December 12, 1956, the following determination is hereby issued.

§ 861.10 Fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in California, southwestern Arizona, southern Oregon and western Nevada in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of the 1957 crop of sugar beets—(a) Requirements. A producer of sugar beets in California, southwestern Arizona, southern Oregon, and western Nevada shall be deemed to have complied with the wage provisions of the act if all persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of the 1957 crop shall have been paid in accordance with the following:

(1) Wage rates. All such persons shall have been paid in full for all such work and shall have been paid wages in cash therefor at rates as agreed upon between the producer and the worker, but after the beginning of work on the 1957 crop of sugar beets or the date of publication of this section in the FEDERAL REGISTER, whichever is later, not less than the following:

(i) When employed on a time basis. (a) For thinning, hoeing, or weeding: 75 cents per hour.

(b) For pulling, topping, loading, or gleaning: 80 cents per hour.

(c) For the operations specified above performed by workers certified by the local County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office to be handicapped because of age or physical or mental deficiency, or by workers between 14 and 16 years of age, the above rates may be reduced by not more than one-third. Maximum employment is 8 hours per day for workers between 14 and 16 years of age, without deduction from Sugar Act payments to the producer.

(d) For operating mechanical equipment, irrigating and all other operations in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets for which a rate is not specified in this section, the rate shall be as agreed upon between the producer and worker.

(ii) When employed on a piecework basis. For work performed on a piecework basis the rate shall be as agreed upon between the producer and the worker: Provided, That for the operations of thinning, hoeing, weeding, pulling, topping, loading, or gleaning sugar beets, the average hourly rate of earnings paid to each worker for each operation shall be not less than the applicable hourly rate specified under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph when computed on the basis of the total time employed on the farm for that operation.

(2) Compensable working time. For work performed under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, compensable working time includes all time which the worker spends in the performance of his duties except time taken out for meals during the work day. Compensable working time commences at the time the worker is required to start work in the field and ends upon completion of work in the field. However, if the producer requires the operator of mechanical equipment, driver of animals or any other class of worker to report to a place other than the field, such as an assembly point, stable, tractor shed, etc., located on the farm, the time spent in transit from such place to the field and from the field to such place is compensable working time. Any time spent in performing work directly related to the principal work performed by the worker such as servicing equipment, is compensable working time. Time of the worker while being transported from a central recruiting point or labor camp to the farm is not compensable working time.

(b) Applicability. The requirements of this section are applicable to all persons employed on the farm, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets grown on the farm for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar: Provided, That such requirements shall not apply to any person engaged in such work with respect to sugar beets grown on acreage in excess of the proportionate share for the farm, which are marketed (or processed) for the production of sugar or liquid sugar for livestock feed or for the production of livestock feed, if the producer furnishes to the appropriate Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee acceptable and adequate proof which satisfies the Committee that the work performed was related solely to such sugar beets.

(c) Workers not covered. The requirements of this section are not applicable to workers performing services which are indirectly connected with the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets, including but not limited to electricians, mechanics, welders, and other maintenance workers and repairmen.

(d) Proof of compliance. The producer shall, upon request, furnish to the appropriate Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee acceptable and adequate proof which satisfies the Committee that all workers have been paid in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(e) Subterfuge. The producer shall not reduce the wage rates to workers below those determined in this section through any subterfuge or device whatsoever.

(f) Claim for unpaid wages. Any person who believes he has not been paid in accordance with this section may file a wage claim with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Office against the producer on whose farm the work was performed. Detailed instructions and wage claim forms are available at the County Office. Such claim must be filed within two years from the date the work with respect to which the claim is made was performed. Upon receipt of a wage claim the County Office shall thereupon notify the producer against whom the claim is made concerning the representation made by the worker. The County ASC Committee shall arrange for such investigation as it deems necessary and the producer and worker shall be notified in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If either party is not satisfied with the recommended settlement, an appeal may be made to the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office of the State in which is located the farm where the work was performed. The address of the State Office will be furnished by the local County Office. Upon receipt of the appeal the State Committee shall likewise consider the facts and notify the producer and worker in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If the recommendation of the State Committee is not acceptable, either party may file an appeal with the Director of the Sugar Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All such appeals shall be filed within 15 days after receipt of the recommended settlement from the respective committee, otherwise such recommended settlement will be applied in making payments under the act. If a claim is appealed to the Director of the Sugar Division, his decision shall be binding on all parties insofar as payment under the act are concerned.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

(a) General. The foregoing determination establishes fair and reasonable wage rates to be paid for work performed by persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of the 1957 crop of sugar beets in California, southwestern Arizona, southern Oregon and western Nevada as one of the conditions with which producers must comply to be eligible for payments under the act.

(b) Requirements of the act and standards employed. Section 301 (c) (1) of the act requires that all persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets with respect to which an application for payment is made shall have been paid in full for all such work, and shall have been paid wages therefor at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing; and in making such determinations the Secretary shall take into consideration the standards therefor formerly established by him under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended (i. e., cost of living, prices of sugar and by-products, income from sugar beets, and cost of production), and the differences in conditions among various producing areas.

(c) 1957 wage determination. This determination differs from that effective for the 1956 crop in that (1) hourly wages specified for workers employed on a time basis are increased 5 cents per hour; (2) the minimum guarantee of earnings of workers employed at agreed upon piecework rates is related to the time worked on the farm in each operation; (3) compensable working time is defined; (4) producers are required to furnish upon request to the County Committee proof that workers have been paid in accordance with the wage provisions of this determination; (5) the wage requirements of this determination are inapplicable to persons engaged in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets grown on acreage in excess of the proportionate share for the farm, which are marketed (or processed) for the production of sugar or liquid sugar for livestock feed or for the production of livestock feed; (6) it formalizes previous administrative interpretations that workers performing services indirectly connected with the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets are not covered by the wage provisions; and (7) the perquisite provision is eliminated.

At the public hearing held at Berkeley, California on December 12, 1956 interested persons were afforded the opportunity to present testimony relating to fair and reasonable wages for workers employed in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of the 1957 crop of sugar beets.

A representative of the California Beet Growers Association recommended that the provisions of the 1957 wage determination be the same as those in effect for the 1956 crop, except that the farm be designated as the unit of work for calculating the average hourly earnings of workers employed on a piecework basis; and that the average hourly earnings of the group of workers employed on piecework be the measure of compliance rather than the earnings of each individual worker. The witness also stated he did not believe that elimination of the perquisite clause would result in any change in the practice of furnishing perquisites to workers. The witness objected to the incorporation in the determination of a provision which would require producers to keep records to establish compliance with the wage provisions, but indicated that if such requirements were established the Department approve as prima facie evidence of compliance a form of receipt furnished by his Association which had been used by some producers in prior years.

Consideration has been given to the recommendations made at the hearing, to the standards customarily considered in wage determinations, to information obtained by investigation, and to other pertinent factors. Data obtained by field cost study for recent crops covering the returns, costs, and profits of sugar beet production have been recast in terms of conditions likely to prevail for the 1957 crop. Analysis of all factors indicates that the wage rates of this determination are within the producer's ability to pay.

Evidence submitted at the public hearing and data obtained by investigation indicate that hourly wage rates for thinning and hoeing sugar beets range from 80 cents to $1.00 per hour, except in the Imperial Valley, where the rate is 70 cents per hour. For harvesting work the hourly wage rates range from 80 cents to $1.50 per hour, except in the Imperial Valley where the rate is 75 cents per hour. Piecework rates for thinning range from $10.00 to $18.00 per acre. Earnings of workers employed on piecework average about 90 cents per hour. About 50 percent of the thinning work is performed on a piecework basis and 50 percent on the hourly basis, except in the Imperial Valley where most thinning is performed on the hourly basis. Practically all hoeing and weeding work in California is performed on the hourly basis. About 95 percent of the crop is harvested mechanically. Most of the workers employed in the thinning and hoeing of sugar beets in California are Mexican nationals brought into the State under contracts for limited periods.

The recommendation that the farm be designated as the basis for determining the minimum hourly earnings of workers employed on piecework has been adopted. Prior determinations have related the minimum hourly guarantee of earnings of workers employed on piecework to each separate unit of work for which a piecework rate was agreed upon. This provision resulted in misunderstandings of the definition of a unit of work and made difficult the checking of records for compliance purposes. An examination of the problem from the viewpoint of protection of the hourly guarantee of earnings for workers employed on piecework and the need for more satisfactory records to establish compliance, indicates that both purposes will be equitably served if the basis for determining hourly earnings is related to the time the worker is employed on the farm for each operation. The minimum hourly guarantee of earnings will be calculated with respect to each worker for each operation performed on the entire farm.

The recommendation that the hourly guarantee of earnings of workers employed on piecework be related to the group of workers rather than the individual worker has not been adopted. The language of the act which specifies that all workers employed on the farm must be paid in full and at rates not less than those determined to be fair and reasonable is interpreted to mean that each individual worker must be paid in accordance with the determination.

This determination provides that the producer shall furnish the County Committee upon request adequate proof of compliance with the wage requirements. Such proof may be in the form of payroll records, receipts, or other evidence clearly demonstrating that workers have been properly paid. These records should show with respect to each worker employed, depending upon the method of payment (i. e., time basis or piecework basis), (1) hours worked; (2) acres worked or tons handled; (3) rate per hour or piecework rate; (4) total amount paid; and (5) average hourly earnings. A receipt form signed by a worker may be accepted as prima facie evidence of compliance but, in such instances, the County Committee may also require the producer to furnish payroll records.

The provision relating to compensable working time, i. e., the hours of work or related activity for which the worker must be paid, is included in this determination so that all parties may have full knowledge of these requirements. It is believed that the specifications established conform to practices which are generally prevalent in the regions covered by this determination.

The wage requirements of this determination are not applicable to sugar beets grown in excess of the proportionate share for the farm, if it is established to the satisfaction of the County Committee that such sugar beets are marketed (or processed) for the production of sugar or liquid sugar for livestock feed or for the production of livestock feed. Recently, section 301 (b) of the Sugar Act of 1948 was amended to permit producers to market (or process) sugar beets in excess of the proportionate share for the farm for the production of sugar or liquid sugar for livestock feed or for the production of livestock feed. However, sugar produced from sugar beets in excess of the proportionate share for the farm is not eligible for payments under the act. Prior to this amendment, the wage requirements were applicable to all sugar beets grown on the farm and marketed (or processed) for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar in order to qualify for such payment.

The provision excluding workers not directly connected with the production, cultivation, or harvesting operations, incorporates into the determination administrative interpretations heretofore applicable to wage determinations.

Determinations since 1938 have required producers to furnish workers with customary perquisites such as housing, garden and pasture plots, and medical services, in addition to specified minimum wages. When the perquisite clause was first included in the determination some producers furnished no perquisites while others furnished one or more items. The effect of this provision during a period of great change in producer-worker relations, living conditions and worker requirements was to discourage the furnishing of any new perquisites by old producers or the furnishing of any perquisites by new producers because once furnished this provision required that they be continued. The result was inequities as among producers as well as among workers. Witnesses representing producers have indicated at public hearings that if the perquisite clause were eliminated from the determination producers would continue to furnish perquisites required under current conditions. The average value of perquisites as determined by surveys in recent years and recast in terms of their probable value in 1957 amounts to about 3 cents per hour for the regions covered by this determination.

After consideration of all the factors, the wage rates and other provisions of this determination are deemed to be fair and reasonable.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing wage determination will effectuate the wage provisions of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended.

[Sugar Determination 862.9]

PART 862—SUGAR BEETS; REGIONS OTHER THAN STATE OF CALIFORNIA, SOUTHWESTERN ARIZONA, SOUTHERN OREGON, AND WESTERN NEVADA

WAGE RATES; 1957 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (c) (1) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended, (herein referred to as "act"), after investigation, and consideration of the evidence obtained at the public hearing held in several cities in the sugar beet area during January, 1957, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 862.9 Fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of the 1957 crop of sugar beets in regions other than the State of California, southwestern Arizona, southern Oregon, and western Nevada—(a) Requirements. A producer of sugar beets in regions other than the state of California, southwestern Arizona, southern Oregon, and western Nevada shall be deemed to have complied with the wage provision of the act if all persons employed on the farm, in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of the 1957 crop shall have been paid in accordance with the following:

(1) Wage rates. All such persons shall have been paid in full for all such work and shall have been paid wages in cash therefor at rates as agreed upon between the producer and the worker but, after the beginning of work on the 1957 crop of sugar beets or the date of publication of this section in the FEDERAL REGISTER, whichever is later, not less than the following:

(i) When employed on a time basis. (a) For thinning, hoeing, or weeding: 70 cents per hour.

(b) For pulling, topping, or loading: 75 cents per hour.

(c) For operations specified above performed by workers between 14 and 16 years of age the above rates may be reduced by not more than one-third. Maximum employment is 8 hours per day for such workers without deduction from Sugar Act payments to the producer.

(ii) When employed on a piecework basis for thinning, hoeing, or weeding.

Second and each subsequent hoeing or weeding	3.50	3.50	4.00	4.00	4.50	5.50	4.50	6.00

[1] The above rate is applicable on fields which have been completely machine thinned; where the worker is not required to finger thin; and when the operation is performed at the time first hoeing customarily is performed.
[2] The basic piecework rate for hoe and finger thinning fields planted with natural whole seed shall be $2.00 per acre more than the rates specified above.

Combined operations. A written agreement between the producer and the worker is required in instances where a combined rate for "summer work" is agreed upon. In such case, the rate for "summer work", regardless of the number of hoeings or weedings required, shall be the sum of the applicable thinning, hoeing, and weeding rates specified above. In the absence of a written agreement, the rate for each operation performed by the worker shall be the applicable rate specified above.

Wide row planting. The above thinning, hoeing, or weeding rates may be reduced by not more than the indicated percentages for the following row spacings: 28 inches or more but less than 31 inches, 20 percent; 31 inches or more but less than 34 inches, 25 percent; 34 inches or more, 30 percent.

Cross cultivation. Where cross cultivation is performed prior to hoeing or weeding, the specified first hoeing rate, other than first hoeing following complete machine thinning, may be reduced by not more than $1.00 per acre, and the specified subsequent hoeing or weeding rate may be reduced by not more than 50 cents per acre.

Operations not specified or defined. For any hand labor operation of thinning, hoeing, or weeding following a machine operation which is not specified or defined above, the piecework rate shall be that agreed upon between the producer and worker: Provided, That the average hourly rate of earnings paid to each worker for each operation shall be not less than 70 cents per hour when computed on the basis of the total time employed on the farm for that operation.

(iii) When employed on a piecework basis for harvesting. The piecework rates for hand pulling, topping, and loading shall be those agreed upon between the producer and the worker: Provided, That the average hourly rate of earnings paid to each worker for each operation shall be not less than 75 cents per hour when computed on the basis of the total time employed on the farm for that operation.

(iv) When employed on a time or piecework basis for other operations. For operating mechanical equipment, irrigating, and all other operations in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets for which a rate is not specified herein, the rate shall be as agreed upon between the producer and worker.

(2) Compensable working time. For work performed under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, compensable working time includes all time which the worker spends in the performance of his duties except time taken out for meals during the work day. Compensable working time commences at the time the worker is required to start work in the field and ends upon completion of work in the field. However, if the producer requires the operator of mechanical equipment, driver of animals or any other class of worker to report to a place other than the field, such as an assembly point, stable, tractor shed, etc., located on the farm, the time spent in transit from such place to the field and from the field to such place is compensable working time. Any time spent in performing work directly related to the principal work performed by the worker such as servicing equipment, is compensable working time. Time of the worker while being transported from a central recruiting point or labor camp to the farm is not compensable working time.

(b) Applicability. The requirements of this section are applicable to all persons employed on the farm, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets grown on the farm for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar: Provided, That such requirements shall not apply to any person engaged in such work with respect to sugar beets grown on acreage in excess of the proportionate share for the farm, which are marketed (or processed) for the production of sugar or liquid sugar for livestock feed or for the production of livestock feed, if the producer furnishes to the appropriate County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee acceptable and adequate proof which satisfies the Committee that the work performed was related solely to such sugar beets.

(c) Workers not covered. The requirements of this section are not applicable to workers performing services which are indirectly connected with the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets, including, but not limited to mechanics, welders, and other maintenance workers and repairmen.

(d) Proof of compliance. The producer shall furnish upon request to the appropriate Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee acceptable and adequate proof which satisfies the Committee that all workers have been paid in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(e) Subterfuge. The producer shall not reduce the wage rates to workers below those determined herein through any subterfuge or device whatsoever.

(f) Claim for unpaid wages. Any person who believes he has not been paid in accordance with this section may file a wage claim with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Office against the producer on whose farm the work was performed. Detailed instructions and wage claim forms are available at the County Office. Such claim must be filed within two years from the date the work with respect to which the claim is made was performed. Upon receipt of a wage claim the County Office shall thereupon notify the producer against whom the claim is made concerning the representation made by the worker. The County ASC Committee shall arrange for such investigation as it deems necessary and the producer and worker shall be notified in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If either party is not satisfied with the recommended settlement, an appeal may be made to the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office of the State in which is located the farm where the work was performed. The address of the State Office will be furnished by the local County Office. Upon receipt of the appeal the State Committee shall likewise consider the facts and notify the producer and worker in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If the recommendation of the State Committee is not acceptable, either party may file an appeal with the Director of the Sugar Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All such appeals shall be filed within 15 days after receipt of the recommended settlement of the respective committee, otherwise such recommended settlement will be applied in making payments under the act. If a claim is appealed to the Director of the Sugar Division, his decision shall be binding on all parties insofar as payments under the act are concerned.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATION

(a) General. The foregoing determination provides fair and reasonable wage rates to be paid for work performed by persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation or harvesting of the 1957 crop of sugar beets in regions other than the State of California, southwestern Arizona, southern Oregon, and western Nevada as one of the conditions with which producers must comply to be eligible for payments under the act.

(b) Requirements of the act and standards employed. Section 301 (c) (1) of the act requires that all persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets with respect to which an application for payment is made, shall have been paid in full for all such work, and shall have been paid wages therefor at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing; and in making such determination the Secretary shall take into consideration the standards therefor formerly established by him under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended (i. e., cost of living, prices of sugar and by-products, income from sugar beets and cost of production); and the differences in conditions among various sugar-producing areas.

(c) 1957 wage determination. The 1957 wage determination differs from the 1956 wage determination in the following respects: (1) Hourly wage rates specified for workers employed on a time basis are increased 5 cents per hour; (2) the piecework rates for hoe and finger thinning regularly cultivated fields are increased $1.00 per acre in all wage districts; (3) piecework rates for first hoeing following hoe and finger thinning are increased 50 cents per acre in all wage districts; (4) piecework rates for second hoeing or weeding are increased 50 cents per acre in Wage Districts I and V; (5) the minimum guarantee of earnings of workers employed at agreed upon piecework rates is related to the time worked on the farm in each operation; (6) compensable working time is defined; (7) producers are required to furnish to the County Committee upon request proof that workers have been paid in accordance with wage provisions of this determination; (8) the wage requirements of this determination are inapplicable to persons engaged in the production, cultivation or harvesting of sugar beets grown on acreage in excess of the proportionate share for the farm which are marketed (or processed) for the production of liquid sugar for livestock feed, or for the production of livestock feed; (9) it formalizes previous administrative interpretations that workers performing services indirectly connected with the production, cultivation or harvesting of sugar beets are not covered by the wage provisions; and (10) the perquisite provision is eliminated.

A public hearing was held in Detroit, Michigan; Fargo, North Dakota; Billings, Montana; Salt Lake City, Utah; and Greeley, Colorado, during the period January 2 through January 11, 1957, at which interested persons were afforded the opportunity to present testimony with respect to fair and reasonable wage rates for work performed by fieldworkers on the 1957 crop of sugar beets. Producer representatives in each region recommended that the wage rates of the 1956 determination be continued in the 1957 determination. These witnesses further stated that elimination of the perquisite provision from the determination would not alter the practices of furnishing housing and other items to workers and that most producers maintained adequate records to establish compliance with the requirements of wage determinations. Representatives of workers did not offer testimony at the hearing in any region.

At Detroit, Michigan, representatives of producers pointed out that workers were paid wage rates higher than those established in the 1956 wage determination and stated that only a small percentage of the crop was mechanically thinned. At Fargo, North Dakota, producer representatives testified that because of improved cultural practices the earnings of workers had increased substantially during the past few years, even though piecework rates had not increased during the same period. Witnesses stated that mechanical thinning was practiced extensively and that in some localities workers were paid higher wage rates than those specified in the determination. At Billings, Montana, producer representatives stated that, generally, workers were not paid rates in excess of those specified in the determination and that mechanical thinning was practiced extensively in some districts. One witness pointed out the need for a revision of the piecework rates in his district to make them more comparable with the piecework rates for an adjacent district, since the work requirements in both districts were similar. At Salt Lake City, Utah, representatives of producers testified that in some districts workers were paid wages in excess of those in the determination and that a large percentage of the acreage was mechanically thinned. In other districts workers were paid the determination rates and only a small percentage of the acreage was mechanically thinned. One witness recommended that piecework rates for hand harvesting be restored in the determination to be used as a guide for the rates to be charged for mechanical harvesting. At Greeley, Colorado, producer representatives pointed out that the earnings of workers were higher than in prior years due to improvements in cultural practices performed by producers and that this fact should be given consideration in establishing piecework rates. Witnesses stated that workers in some districts were paid rates higher than those specified in the wage determination and a large percentage of the acreage was mechanically thinned.

Consideration has been given to the recommendations made at the public hearing, to the standards customarily considered in wage determinations, to information obtained by investigation and to other pertinent factors. Data obtained by field cost study for a recent crop covering the returns, costs and profits of sugar beet production have been recast in terms of conditions likely to prevail for the 1957 crop. Analysis of all factors indicates that the wage rates of this determination are within the producer's ability to pay.

Data obtained by field survey of the man-hour requirements to thin and hoe sugar beets indicate that the earnings of workers for certain hand labor operations, usually those following regular cultivation are disproportionately lower than the earnings for other hand labor operations. The rate increases provided in this determination tend to correct the disparity in earnings of workers as among the several operations. Inasmuch as in many instances producers paid in excess of the determination rates in 1956 for those operations in which rate adjustments are made, the cost impact of the rate increases is expected to be relatively nominal. Most thinning and hoeing work is performed on a piecework basis although in some regions such work is performed on an hourly basis. Where hourly rates are paid, producers report that the rates range from 70 cents to $1.00 per hour.

This determination provides that the minimum hourly guarantee of earnings for workers employed at agreed upon piecework rates will be calculated with respect to each worker for each operation performed on the entire farm. This provision will avoid any misunderstandings which may have existed under prior determinations which specified that the workers' earnings were to be calculated with respect to each separate unit of work for which a piecework rate was agreed upon.

The provision relating to compensable working time, i. e., the hours of work or related activity for which the worker must be paid, is included in this determination so that all parties may have full knowledge of these requirements. It is believed that the specifications established conform to practices which are generally prevalent in the regions covered by this determination.

This determination provides that the producer shall furnish the County Committee upon request, adequate proof of compliance with the wage requirements. Such proof may be in the form of payroll records, receipts, or other evidence clearly demonstrating that workers have been properly paid. These records should show with respect to each worker employed, depending upon the method of payment, (i. e., time basis or piecework basis) (1) hours worked; (2) acres worked or tons handled; (3) rate per hour or piecework rate; (4) total amount paid; and (5) average hourly earnings. A receipt form signed by a worker may be accepted as prima facie evidence of compliance but, in such instances, the County Committee may also require the producer to furnish payroll records.

The wage requirements of this determination are not applicable to sugar beets grown in excess of the proportionate share for the farm, if it is established to the satisfaction of the County Committee that such sugar beets are marketed (or processed) for the production of sugar or liquid sugar for livestock feed or for the production of livestock feed. Recently, section 301 (b) of the Sugar Act of 1948 was amended to permit producers to market (or process) sugar beets in excess of the proportionate share for the farm for the production of sugar or liquid sugar for livestock feed or for the production of livestock feed. However, sugar produced from sugar beets in excess of the proportionate share for the farm is not eligible for payments under the act. Prior to this amendment, the wage requirements were applicable to all sugar beets grown on the farm and marketed (or processed) for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar in order to qualify for such payment.

The provision excluding workers not directly connected with the production, cultivation, or harvesting operations, incorporates into the determination administrative interpretations heretofore applicable to wage determinations.

Determinations since 1938 have required producers to furnish workers with customary perquisites such as housing, garden and pasture plots, and medical services, in addition to specified minimum wages. When the perquisite clause was first included in the determination some producers furnished no perquisites while others furnished one or more items. The effect of this provision during a period of great change in producer-worker relations, living conditions and worker requirements, was to discourage the furnishing of any new perquisites by old producers or the furnishing of any perquisites by new producers because once furnished this provision required that they be continued. The result was inequities as among producers as well as among workers. Witnesses representing producers have indicated at public hearings that if the perquisite clause were eliminated from the determination producers would continue to furnish perquisites required under current conditions. The average value of perquisites as determined by surveys in recent years and recast in terms of their probable value in 1957 amounts to about 5 cents per hour for the regions covered by this determination.

After consideration of all the factors, the wage rates and other provisions in this determination are deemed to be fair and reasonable.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing wage determination will effectuate the wage provisions of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended.

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

PART 146—GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR THE CERTIFICATION OF ANTIBIOTIC AND ANTIBIOTIC-CONTAINING DRUGS

PART 146a—CERTIFICATION OF PENICILLIN AND PENICILLIN-CONTAINING DRUGS

PART 146c—CERTIFICATION OF CHLORTETRACYCLINE (OR TETRACYCLINE) AND CHLORTETRACYCLINE- (OR TETRACYCLINE-) CONTAINING DRUGS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Under the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463, as amended; sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 357, 371) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (20 F. R. 1996), the regulations for the certification of antibiotic and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR Parts 146, 146a, 146c; 21 F. R. 2465, 5411) are amended as indicated below:

1. In § 146.26 Animal feed containing penicillin • • •, paragraph (b) is amended by changing subparagraphs (24) and (25) to read as set forth below and by adding thereto subparagraphs (27) and (28), as follows:

(24) It is intended for use in the maintenance of weight gains of swine in the presence of atrophic rhinitis or as an aid in reducing the incidence of cervical abscesses in swine; its labeling bears adequate directions and warnings for such use; and it contains not less than 50 grams of chlortetracycline per ton of feed.

(25) It is intended for use as an aid in the reduction of bacterial diarrhea in beef cattle or as an aid in the prevention or treatment of bacterial pneumonia and shipping fever (hemorrhagic septicemia) or as an aid in reduction of losses due to respiratory infection (infectious rhinotracheitis-shipping fever complex) or as an aid in the prevention or treatment of foot rot in cattle or as an aid in the prevention of anaplasmosis in cattle; its labeling bears adequate directions and warnings for such uses; and it contains the following quantities of chlortetracycline, by weight of feed, for the conditions indicated:

(i) For the prevention of anaplasmosis: 0.5 milligram per pound of body weight per day.

(ii) For the prevention or treatment of foot rot in cattle: 0.1 milligram per pound of body weight per day.

(iii) As an aid in the reduction of bacterial diarrhea in beef cattle: 0.1 milligram per pound of body weight per day.

(iv) As an aid in the prevention or treatment of bacterial pneumonia and shipping fever (hemorrhagic septicemia) or as an aid in reduction of losses due to respiratory infection (infectious rhinotracheitis-shipping fever complex) in cattle: 350 milligrams per head per day, except that if it is intended for use for more than 30 days it may contain chlortetracycline, in a quantity by weight of feed to provide 70 milligrams per head per day.

(27) It is intended for use as an aid in maintaining or increasing egg production, hatchability, and livability of chicks, and improving feed efficiency as related to egg production; its labeling bears adequate directions and warnings for such use; and it contains not less than 50 grams of chlortetracycline per ton of feed, except that if it is intended for use in the presence of disease outbreaks it shall contain not less than 100 grams of chlortetracycline per ton of feed.

(28) It is intended for use solely as an aid in the prevention or control of outbreaks of histomoniasis ("blackhead") in poultry flocks, and it contains carbasone in a quantity, by weight of feed, of not less than 0.05 percent and not more than 0.1 percent (except that if it is intended for prevention of histomoniasis in turkey flocks it contains not less than 0.0375 percent) and there has been submitted to the Commissioner, in triplicate, adequate information of the kind described in § 146.7 to establish the safety and efficacy of the article and to guarantee its identity, strength, quality, and purity. The exemption shall expire at the beginning of any act changing the composition of such drug, or the methods used in and the facilities and controls used for its manufacturing, processing, and packaging, or in its labeling, unless the person who obtained the exemption has submitted to the Commissioner, in triplicate, amended information that describes such proposed changes, and such amendment has been accepted by the Commissioner.

2. In § 146a.40 Penicillin bougies * * *, paragraph (c) Labeling is amended by changing the words "18 months" in subparagraph (1) (iii) to read "24 months".

3. In § 146c.217 Chlortetracycline calcium syrup * * *, paragraph (c) Labeling is amended by changing the words "18 months" in subparagraph (1) (v) to read "18 months or 24 months".

4. In § 146c.224 Tetracycline hydrochloride-nystatin capsules, paragraph (a) is amended by changing the number "7.5" to read "6.5".

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry, since it relaxes existing requirements, and since it would be against public interest to delay providing for the amendments set forth above.

I further find that animal feeds containing antibiotic drugs and the other drugs specifically mentioned in amendment 1 of this order need not comply with sections 502 (l) and 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act in order to ensure their safety and efficacy, provided they comply in all other respects with the requirements of the regulations.

Effective date. This order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter V—Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor

PART 779—RETAIL OR SERVICE ESTABLISHMENT AND RELATED EXEMPTIONS

APPLICATION OF EXEMPTION TO COAL DEALERS

After investigation of the sales practices of the coal industry to determine which types of sales the industry recognizes as retail within the meaning of section 13 (a) (2) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, notice was published in the November 21, 1956 issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 9070) that the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, proposed to amend Part 779 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, to reflect the recognition of the industry on this question.

The notice contained the text of the proposed amendment in its entirety and interested persons were provided a period of thirty days in which to submit their views, arguments or data pertaining thereto.

One objection to the proposed amendment has been received which, however, presented no evidence on the question of which sales of coal are recognized as retail in the industry. This objection is overruled.

After consideration of all relevant matter presented, I conclude that the amendment should be adopted as proposed.

Accordingly, pursuant to authority under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 201 et seq.) and General Order No. 45-A (15 F. R. 3290), Part 779 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, is hereby editorially revised and amended by the addition of § 779.35 as follows:

Immediately subsequent to the conclusion of § 779.34 add the following:

COAL DEALERS

§ 779.35 Application of the 13 (a) (2) exemption to coal dealers. (a) It is the purpose of this section to show generally how the principles governing the application of the 13 (a) (2) exemption apply to coal dealers' establishments.

(b) In applying the tests of the 13 (a) (2) exemption, all sales of coal to the consumer from a dealer's yard storage, where bulk is broken, are recognized as retail except sales which fall within any category listed in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) The following sales are not recognized as retail, whether or not made from dealer's yard storage:

(1) Sales where the delivery is made by railroad car or cargo vessel.

(2) Sales in a carload quantity or more for continuous delivery by truck from a dock, mine or public railroad facility.

(3) Sales of coal at a wholesale price. A wholesale price is a price comparable to or lower than the establishment's price in sales described in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph or in sales to dealers (but not peddlers) for resale. If the establishment makes no such sales, the wholesale price is the price comparable to or lower than the price prevailing in the immediate area in sales described in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph or in sales to dealers (but not peddlers) for resale.

(4) Sales of coal for use in the production of a specific product to be sold in which coal is an essential ingredient or the principal raw material, such as sales of coal for the production of coke, coal gas, coal tar, or electricity.

(d) If 50 percent or more of the establishment's annual dollar volume of sales of goods and services is made within the State in which the establishment is located and if 75 percent or more of the annual dollar volume of sales of the establishment consists of sales which are not for resale and are recognized as retail, the exemption under section 13 (a) (2) will apply to all employees employed by the establishment. Sales for resale include sales of coal to other dealers, to peddlers and sales of coal for use in the production of a specific product to be sold, in which coal is an essential ingredient or the principal raw material, such as sales of coal for the production of coke, coal gas, coal tar or electricity, as distinguished from sales of coal for use in the general manufacturing or industrial process such as the use in laundries, bakeries, nurseries, canneries, etc., or for space heating.

This amendment shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at Washington, D. C. this 18th day of March 1957.

NEWELL BROWN,
Administrator.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter V—Department of the Army

Subchapter B—Claims and Accounts

PART 536—CLAIMS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES

CLAIMS UNDER FEDERAL TORT CLAIMS ACT

Section 536.29 is revised to read as follows:

§ 536.29 Claims arising from negligence of military personnel or civilian employees under the Federal Tort Claims Act, as codified.—(a) Statutory authority. The statutory authority for this section is contained in Title 28, United States Code, sections 2671–2680, commonly referred to as the Federal Tort Claims Act, and hereinafter referred to as "the act."

(b) Definitions. See § 536.1.

(c) Scope. This section prescribes the substantive basis for the administrative settlement of tort claims against the United States not in excess of $1,000 based on death, personal injury, or damage to or loss of property, except those arising in foreign countries. This section does not limit or abridge the authority of the Secretary of the Army to settle any claim for personal injury or death, or for damage to or loss of property, not caused by negligent or wrongful act or omission or otherwise not cognizable under the cited statutory authority and this section.

(d) Claims payable. (1) Unless otherwise prescribed, claims not in excess of $1,000 for death, personal injury, or damage to or loss of property, real or personal, are payable under this section when caused:

(i) By negligent or wrongful acts or omissions.

(ii) Of military personnel or civilian employees while acting within the scope of their employment.

(iii) Under circumstances in which the United States, if a private person, would be liable, to the claimants in accordance with the law of the place where the act or omission occurred.

(2) Claims for death or injury of military personnel or civilian employees not incident to their service may be payable under this section.

(3) The law of the place where the act or omission occurred pertaining to contributory or comparative negligence and to joint tort-feasors will be applied in the determination of liability.

(e) Claims not payable. This section does not apply to a claim which:

(1) Is based upon an act or omission of military personnel or a civilian employee, exercising due care, in the execution of a statute or regulation, whether or not such statute or regulation be valid, or in the exercise or performance of, or failure to exercise or perform, a discretionary function or duty, whether or not the discretion be abused.

(2) Arises out of the loss, miscarriage, or negligent transmission of letters or postal matter.

(3) Arises in respect of the assessment or collection of any tax or custom duty, or the detention of any goods or merchandise by an officer of customs or excise or any other law-enforcement officer.

(4) Is within the act of March 9, 1920 (41 Stat. 525; 46 U. S. C. 741–752), the act of March 3, 1925 (43 Stat. 1112; 46 U. S. C. 781–790), or the act of June 19, 1948 (62 Stat. 496; 46 U. S. C. 740), relating to claims or suits in admiralty against the United States.

(5) Arises out of an act or omission of any employee of the Government in administering the provisions of the Trading With the Enemy Act (40 Stat. 411; 50 U. S. C. App. 1–31), as amended.

(6) Is for damages caused by the imposition or establishment of a quarantine by the United States.

(7) Arises out of assault, battery, false imprisonment, false arrest, malicious prosecution, abuse of process, libel, slander, misrepresentation, deceit, or interference with contract rights.

(8) Arises out of combat activities of the military forces during time of war.

(9) Is for damages caused by the fiscal operations of the Department of the Treasury or by the regulations of the monetary system.

(10) Arises in a foreign country.

(11) Arises from the activities of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

(12) Arises from the activities of the Panama Canal Company.

(13) Is for the personal injury or death of military personnel or civilian employees incurred incident to service.

(f) Claims under other laws and regulations. This section does not apply to any claim which may be settled under:

(1) Sections 536.12–536.23, 536.25, 536.26, 536.27, and 536.45.

(2) Regulations in Part 577 of this chapter providing for medical care at Government expense.

(3) The act of September 7, 1916 (39 Stat. 742; 5 U. S. C. 751), as amended (Employee Compensation).

(g) Subrogation. (1) A claim not exceeding $1,000 for death, injury, damage, or loss wholly covered by insurance or otherwise subject by operation of law to full subrogation, will be settled only with the insurer or other subrogee. A claim for a loss partially covered by insurance, or otherwise subject to partial subrogation, may be settled either jointly, if the claim was so filed, or with the parties individually as their respective interests appear, or with the insured or other subrogor if he has not made claim against, nor received payment from the insurer or subrogee. When the settlement is joint, one check for the amount approved, payable to both the subrogor and the subrogee, will be sent to the subrogee.

(2) Every claimant will, in his claim or in an attached statement make detailed disclosure concerning his insurance coverage indicating:

(i) The insurer's name and address.

(ii) The kind and amount of insurance.

(iii) The insurance policy number or numbers.

(iv) Whether a claim has been presented to the insurer, and if so, the amount of such claim.

(v) Whether the insurer has paid the claim, or is expected to pay it.

Each claimant to whose interest another has become otherwise subrogated will furnish similar information as to the subrogee and the basis of his rights.

(3) Each insurer or other subrogee will substantiate his claim by appropriate documentary evidence that payment of the amount claimed, or a larger amount, has been assumed for, or made to or on behalf of, the insured or subrogor.

(4) The interests of the insured or other subrogor and the insurer or subrogee represent merely separable interests in a single claim which may not be considered under this section if the aggregate exceeds $1,000 (paragraph (k) (4) of this section).

(h) When claim must be presented. (1) A claim may be settled under this section only if presented in writing within 2 years after it has accrued.

(2) If a claim for $1,000 or less is presented, a suit may, under the act, be filed in a district court within 2 years after the claim accrues, or 6 months after notice of the final disposition of the claim is mailed to the claimant or the claim is withdrawn by the claimant, whichever is later. Presentation of a claim for more than $1,000 within 2 years after it accrues will not extend the time within which a suit may be filed nor permit administrative consideration of the claim, if reduced to $1,000 or less more than 2 years after it accrues.

(i) Settlement agreement. The claimant must submit a written acceptance in full satisfaction and final settlement for the amount approved for:

(1) Personal injury or wrongful death, even though equal to the amount claimed.

(2) Property damage or loss, if less than the amount claimed.

(3) Property damage or loss equal to the amount claimed when personal injury or death resulted from the same incident, even though no claim has been filed for either.

(j) Attorneys' fees. The approving authority may, but only on written request made prior to the award by the claimant or his attorney, determine and allow as part of the award, reasonable attorneys' fees. If the award is $500 or more, the fees shall not exceed 10 per centum of the award. The fees shall be paid to the attorney representing the claimant out of, but not in addition to, the amount of the award.

(k) Settlement of claims.—(1) Authority. Authority to settle claims under this section, subject to the appeal to the Secretary of the Army:

(i) Has been delegated to the Chief, Claims Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General, and all other officers of The Judge Advocate General's Corps assigned to that Division, subject to such limitations as the Chief may prescribe.

(ii) May be delegated by the Secretary of the Army to any commander or staff judge advocate within the United States, its territories, possessions and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico within such monetary limits as may be prescribed.

(2) Effect of action. The action of the approving authority in approving or disapproving a claim, in whole or in part, will be final and conclusive for all administrative purposes unless the claimant appeals to the Secretary of the Army within the time prescribed in § 536.7 or such longer time as the Secretary may for good cause permit.

(3) Acceptance of award. The acceptance by the claimant of any award shall constitute complete release of any claim against the United States and against the military personnel or civilian employee whose act or omission gave rise to the claim.

(4) Claims in excess of $1,000. The Department of the Army does not have legal authority to consider administratively claims in excess of $1,000 which are otherwise cognizable under the act. The claimant's remedy in such cases is by suit in the United States District Court. When a claim in excess of $1,000 is received, the original claim will be retained by the receiving command and the copies of the claim with the papers submitted by the claimant will be returned promptly to him by letter advising that the Department of the Army cannot settle administratively any claim in excess of $1,000 under the Federal Tort Claims Act, as codified and amended (28 United States Code).

TITLE 36—PARKS, FORESTS, AND MEMORIALS

Chapter I—National Park Service, Department of the Interior

PART 20—SPECIAL REGULATIONS

SHENANDOAH NATIONAL PARK

1. Paragraph (a) Fishing of § 20.15 Shenandoah National Park is amended to read as follows:

§ 20.15 Shenandoah National Park—(a) Fishing—(1) Applicability of regulations. The regulations in this section shall govern fishing on those portions of all streams lying wholly within the Park, including those portions of the Conway River, the Rapidan River, and the North and South Forks of Moormans River. Along those portions of the streams which follow the boundary line of the Park, the State of Virginia laws and regulations governing fishing shall apply.

(2) Waters. All waters in the Park are open to trout fishing only.

(3) Season. The opening date of the trout fishing season shall conform with that of the State of Virginia and shall close on the same date as the State, or October 15, whichever date is earlier.

(4) Size limit. Trout under nine (9) inches in length shall not be retained. All undersized fish shall be immediately and carefully returned to the water.

(5) Limit of catch. The limit of catch per day, or possession by each person fishing, shall not exceed eight (8) fish.

(6) Bait. Only artificial lures such as artificial flies, spinners, or bugs shall be used. Fishing with multiple hooks (double, treble, or gang) is prohibited.

(7) State licenses. No special Park license is required, but persons fishing within the Park must first procure an appropriate fishing license issued by the State of Virginia.

(8) Emergency closing of waters. During any period of emergency, or to prevent over-use by fishermen of waters open to fishing in Shenandoah National Park, the Superintendent, in his discretion, may close to fishing all or any part of such open waters for such periods of time as may be necessary: Provided, The notice thereof shall be given by the posting of appropriate signs, notices, and markers.

(Sec. 3, 39 Stat. 535, as amended; 16 U. S. C. 3)

Issued this twenty-eighth day of February 1957.

GUY D. EDWARDS,
Superintendent,
Shenandoah National Park.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans Administration

PART 4—DEPENDENTS AND BENEFICIARIES CLAIMS

RENOUNCEMENT

Immediately after § 4.422, a new § 4.422a is added as follows:

§ 4.422a Renouncement. (a) Any person entitled to dependency and indemnity compensation may renounce his right to this benefit. The renouncement shall be in writing over the person's signature. Upon receipt of such renouncement in the Veterans Administration, payment of dependency and indemnity compensation shall be discontinued as of the date of last payment. The renouncement shall not preclude the person from filing a new application for dependency and indemnity compensation at a future date. Payment of dependency and indemnity compensation shall not be made for any period prior to the date of filing of the new application. (Sec. 209 (a), Pub. Law 881, 84th Cong.).

(b) The renouncement of dependency and indemnity compensation by one beneficiary shall not serve to increase the rate payable to any other beneficiary in the same class.

(c) The renouncement of dependency and indemnity compensation by a widow shall not serve to vest title to this benefit in children under the age of 18 years or to increase the rate payable to a child or children over the age of 18 years.

(Sec. 5, 43 Stat. 608, as amended, sec. 2, 46 Stat. 1016, sec. 7, 48 Stat. 9; 38 U. S. C. 11a, 426, 707. Interpret or apply sec. 209, Pub. Law 881, 84th Cong.)

This regulation is effective March 22, 1957.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter II—Bureau of Reclamation, Department of the Interior

PART 404—WATER APPLICATION, COLUMBIA BASIN PROJECT, WASHINGTON

On page 1102 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 26, 1957, there was published a notice of proposed rule making to determine eligibility of owners or contract purchasers of a farm unit on the Columbia Basin Project to receive water during the 1957 irrigation season. Interested persons were given 15 days within which to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed regulations. No comments or suggestions were submitted within the 15-day period. The proposed regulations are hereby adopted without change and are set forth below.

HATFIELD CHILSON,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

MARCH 15, 1957.

§ 404.1 Determination of eligibility. The owner, or contract purchaser if there is one, of a farm unit on the Columbia Basin Project shall furnish the Project Manager of the Bureau of Reclamation as early as practicable an application for water executed by him before two witnesses. The form will be supplied by the Project Manager. The application shall state, unless the applicant is the owner of more than one farm unit eligible for water under the exceptions in subsections 2 (b) (iii) and 2 (b) (iv) of the Columbia Basin Project Act and he has so indicated in writing on the back thereof, that the farm unit is the only farm unit on the project that the applicant owns or is purchasing either in his own name or in the name of another for which water is available. Such statement shall be a condition precedent to a determination by the Project Manager of the eligibility of the farm unit to receive water during the 1957 irrigation season under the provisions of the Columbia Basin Project Act and the recordable contracts.

U. S. STANDARDS FOR PERSIAN (TAHITI) LIMES [1]

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision of United States Standards for Persian (Tahiti) Limes (7 CFR 51.1000 to 51.1014; 18 F. R. 7106) pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087 et seq., as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.).

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same with the Chief, Fresh Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 51.1000 to 51.1016 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1624.

GRADES

§ 51.1000 U. S. No. 1. "U. S. No. 1" consists of Persian Limes which are firm, fairly well formed, or fairly smooth texture, which are free from decay, stylar end breakdown or other internal discoloration, broken skins which are not healed, bruises (except those incident to proper handling and packing), hard or dry skins, and free from damage caused by freezing, dryness or mushy condition, sprayburn, exanthema (ammoniation), scars, thorn scratches, scale, sunburn, scab, blanching, yellow color, discoloration, buckskin, dirt or other foreign material, disease, insects or mechanical or other means.

(a) Each fruit in this grade shall have not less than an aggregate area of three-fourths of the surface of the fruit which shows good green color characteristics of the Persian lime: Provided, That lots of limes which fail to meet the U. S. No. 1 grade requirements only because of blanching shall be designated as "U. S. No. 1, Mixed Color": And provided further, That lots of limes which fail to meet the U. S. No. 1 or U. S. No. 1 Mixed Color grade requirements only because of turning yellow or yellow color, caused by the ripening process, shall be designated as "U. S. No. 1, Turning".

(b) The fruit shall have a juice content of not less than 42 percent, by volume.

(c) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruit in any lot may fail to meet the color requirements. In addition, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruit in any lot may be below the remaining requirements of this grade, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for decay, stylar end breakdown, broken skins which are not healed, or defects causing serious damage, including not more than one-half of 1 percent for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination.

§ 51.1001 U. S. Combination. A lot of limes may be designated "U. S. Combination" when not less than 75 percent, by count, of the limes in each container meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade and the remainder U. S. No. 2 grade.

(a) In this grade the U. S. No. 1 limes shall meet the color requirements of the U. S. No. 1 grade and the U. S. No. 2 limes shall meet the color requirements of the U. S. No. 2 grade: Provided, That lots of limes which fail to meet the U. S. Combination grade requirements only because of blanching shall be designated as "U. S. Combination, Mixed Color": And provided further, That lots of limes which fail to meet the U. S. Combination or U. S. Combination Mixed Color grade requirements only because of turning yellow or yellow color, caused by the ripening process, shall be designated as "U. S. Combination, Turning".

(b) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruit in any lot may fail to meet the color requirements. In addition, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruit in any lot may be below the remaining requirements of the lower grade in the combination, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for limes affected by decay, stylar end breakdown and broken skins which are not healed, including not more than one-half of 1 percent for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination.

(c) No part of the above tolerances shall be allowed to reduce for the lot as a whole, the 75 percent of U. S. No. 1 limes required in the U. S. Combination grade, but individual containers may have not less than 65 percent of the higher grade.

§ 51.1002 U. S. No. 2. "U. S. No. 2" consists of Persian limes which are fairly firm, which are not badly deformed, and not of excessively rough texture, which are free from decay, stylar and breakdown or other internal discoloration, broken skins which are not healed, bruises (except those incident to proper handling and packing), and hard or dry skins, and free from serious damage caused by freezing, dryness or mushy condition, spray-burn, exanthema (ammoniation), scars, thorn scratches, scale, sunburn, scab, blanching, yellow color, discoloration, buckskin, dirt or other foreign material, disease, insects or mechanical or other means.

(b) The fruit shall have a juice content of not less than 42 percent, by volume.

(c) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruit in any lot may fail to meet the color requirements. In addition, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruit in any lot may be below the remaining requirements of this grade, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for decay, stylar end breakdown, and broken skins which are not healed, including not more than one-half of 1 percent for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination.

UNCLASSIFIED

§ 51.1003 Unclassified. "Unclassified" consists of Persian limes which have not been classified in accordance with any of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no grade has been applied to the lot.

[1] Packing of the product in conformity with the requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

APPLICATION OF TOLERANCES

§ 51.1004 Application of tolerances. (a) The contents of individual packages in the lot, based on sample inspection, are subject to the following limitations: Provided, That the averages for the entire lot are within the tolerances specified for the grade:

(1) For packages which contain more than 3 pounds and a tolerance of 10 percent or more is provided, individual packages in any lot shall have not more than one and one-half times the tolerance specified. For packages which contain more than 3 pounds and a tolerance of less than 10 percent is provided, individual packages in any lot shall have not more than double the tolerance specified, except that at least one decayed fruit may be permitted in any package; and,

(2) For packages which contain 3 pounds or less, individual packages in any lot are not restricted as to the percentage of defects: Provided, That not more than 10 percent of the packages may have more than one decayed fruit.

STANDARD PACK

§ 51.1005 Standard pack. (a) Fruit shall be fairly uniform in size, and when place packed in crates or cartons, the fruit shall be arranged according to the approved and recognized methods.

(b) All packages shall be well filled but the contents shall not show excessive or unnecessary bruising because of overfilled packages.

(c) "Fairly uniform in size" means that not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruit in any container may vary more than four-sixteenths of an inch in diameter.

(d) In order to allow for variations, other than sizing, incident to proper packing, not more than 5 percent of the packages in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of standard pack.

DEFINITIONS

§ 51.1006 Firm. "Firm" means that the fruit is not soft or flabby.

§ 51.1007 Fairly well formed. "Fairly well formed" means that the fruit shows normal characteristic shape for the Persian variety and is not materially flattened on one side.

§ 51.1008 Fairly smooth texture. "Fairly smooth texture" means that the fruit is comparatively free from lumpiness and that pebbling is not abnormally coarse. Coarse pebbling is not objectionable as it is indicative of good keeping quality and is characteristic of the fruit, especially that from young trees.

§ 51.1010 Damage. "Damage" means any defect which materially affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as damage:

(a) Dryness or mushy condition which extends into all segments more than one-eighth of an inch at the stem end, or more than the equivalent of this amount, by volume, when occurring in other portions of the fruit;

(b) Sprayburn which changes the color to such an extent that the appearance of the fruit is materially affected, or which causes scarring that in the aggregate exceeds the area of a circle one-fourth inch in diameter;

(c) Exanthema (ammoniation) which materially detracts from the appearance of the fruit, or which occurs as small, thinly scattered spots over more than 10 percent of the fruit surface, or as solid scarring (not cracked) or depressions which in the aggregate exceed the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter;

(d) Scars which are dark, rough, or deep and in the aggregate exceed the area of a circle one-fourth inch in diameter, or scars which are fairly light in color, slightly rough, or of slight depth and in the aggregate exceed the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter, or scars which are light colored, fairly smooth, with no depth and aggregate more than 10 percent of the fruit surface;

(e) Thorn scratches when the injury is not well healed, or when dark colored, rough or deep and in the aggregate exceeds the area of a circle one-fourth inch in diameter, or when light colored, fairly smooth and concentrated and in the aggregate exceeds the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter, or light colored and scattered thorn injury which detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the aggregate area one-half inch permitted for light colored concentrated injury;

(f) Scale when the appearance of the fruit is affected to a greater extent than that of a line which has 10 medium to large California red or purple scale attached;

(g) Sunburn which causes appreciable flattening of the fruit, drying of the skin, material change in the color of the skin, appreciable drying of the flesh underneath the affected area, or which affects more than 5 percent of the fruit surface;

(h) Scab which materially affects the shape or texture;

(i) Blanching when more than 25 percent, in the aggregate, of the fruit surface shows a whitish to yellowish green area or areas because of shading, resting on the surface of the ground, or contact with other fruit on the tree. Such areas are not to be confused with limes which are turning yellow due to the ripening process;

(j) Yellow color when plainly visible and caused by the ripening process;

(k) Discoloration caused by rust mite, melanose or other means, when fairly smooth and more than 10 percent of the fruit surface is affected, or when slightly rough and in the aggregate exceeds the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter; and,

(l) Buckskin when more unsightly than the maximum discoloration allowed, or the fruit texture is materially affected.

§ 51.1012 Fairly firm. "Fairly firm" means that the fruit is not soft or excessively flabby.

§ 51.1014 Excessively rough texture. "Excessively rough texture" means that the skin is badly ridged or very decidedly lumpy.

§ 51.1015 Serious damage. "Serious damage" means any defect which seriously affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as serious damage:

(a) Dryness or mushy condition which extends into all segments more than one-fourth of an inch at the stem end, or more than the equivalent of this amount, by volume, when occurring in other portions of the fruit;

(b) Sprayburn which changes the color to such an extent that the appearance of the fruit is seriously injured or which causes scarring that in the aggregate exceeds the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter;

(c) Exanthema (ammoniation) which occurs as small spots over more than 25 percent of the fruit surface, or as solid scarring (not cracked) or depressions which aggregate more than 10 percent of the fruit surface;

(d) Scars which are dark, rough, or deep and aggregate more than 5 percent of the fruit surface, or scars which are fairly light in color, slightly rough, or of slight depth and aggregate more than 10 percent of the fruit surface, or scars which are light colored, fairly smooth, with no depth and aggregate more than 25 percent of the fruit surface;

(e) Thorn scratches when the injury is not well healed, or when dark colored, rough or deep and aggregates more than 5 percent of the fruit surface, or when light colored, fairly smooth and concentrated and aggregates more than 10 percent of the fruit surface, or light colored and scattered thorn injury which detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the 10 percent light colored concentrated injury;

(f) Scale when the appearance of the fruit is affected to a greater extent than that of a lime which has a blotch the the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter;

(g) Sunburn which causes decided flattening of the fruit, marked drying or dark discoloration of the skin, material drying of the flesh underneath the affected area, or which affects more than 10 percent of the fruit surface;

(h) Scab which seriously affects shape or texture;

(i) Blanching when more than 50 percent, in the aggregate, of the fruit surface shows a whitish to yellowish green area or areas because of shading, resting on the surface of the ground, or contact with other fruit on the tree. Such areas are not to be confused with limes which are turning yellow due to the ripening process;

(j) Yellow color when plainly visible and caused by the ripening process;

(k) Discoloration caused by rust mite, Melanose, or other means, when fairly smooth and more than 50 percent of the fruit surface is affected, or when slightly rough and more than 25 percent of the fruit surface is affected; and,

(l) Buckskin when more unsightly than the maximum discoloration allowed or the fruit texture is seriously affected.

§ 51.1016 Diameter. "Diameter" means the greatest dimension measured at right angles to a line from stem to blossom end of the fruit.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[No. 32076]

ARIZONA

INTRASTATE FREIGHT RATES AND CHARGES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of March A. D. 1957.

It appearing, that a petition dated November 23, 1956, has been filed on behalf of The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company and Southern Pacific Company; common carriers by railroad operating to, from, and between points in Arizona in intrastate and interstate commerce, averring that in Ex Parte No. 168, Increased Freight Rates, 1948, 272 I. C. C. 695; 276 I. C. C. 9; Ex Parte No. 175, Increased Freight Rates, 1951, 281 I. C. C. 557; 284 I. C. C. 589; 298 I. C. C. 395; and Ex Parte No. 196, Increased Freight Rates 1956, 298 I. C. C. 279, the Commission authorized carriers subject to the Interstate Commerce Act parties thereto to make certain increases in their freight rates and charges for interstate application throughout the United States; and that increases under such authorizations have been made;

It further appearing, that the petitioners allege that the Arizona Corporation Commission has refused to authorize or permit them to apply to the transportation of any property moving intrastate by railroad in Arizona increases in freight rates and charges thereon corresponding to those approved for interstate application in Ex Parte No. 196 and also has refused to authorize or permit the petitioners to apply to the transportation of the following commodities moving intrastate by railroad in Arizona increases in freight rates and charges thereon corresponding to those approved for interstate application in Ex Parte Nos. 168 and 175:

Ores and concentrates.
Manganese ore.
Livestock.
Lime rock.
High explosives.
Cottonseed meal.
Cottonseed cake.

It further appearing, that the petitioners allege that such refusals cause and result in undue and unreasonable advantage, preference, and prejudice as between persons and localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate commerce, on the other hand, and in undue, unreasonable, and unjust discrimination against interstate commerce in violation of section 13 of the Interstate Commerce Act;

It further appearing, that there have been brought in issue by the said petition rates and charges made or imposed by authority of the State of Arizona;

And it further appearing, that the Arizona Corporation Commission on January 9, 1957, filed a reply to said petition:

It is ordered, That in response to the said petition, an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted, and that a hearing be held therein for the purpose of receiving evidence from the respondents hereinafter designated and any other interested persons to determine whether the rates and charges of the common carriers by railroad, or any of them, operating in the State of Arizona, for the intrastate transportation of property made or imposed by authority of the State of Arizona, cause or will cause, by reason of the failure of such rates and charges to include increases corresponding to those permitted by this Commission for interstate traffic in said Ex Parte Nos. 168, 175 and 196, supra, any undue or unreasonable advantage, preference, or prejudice as between persons or localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate or foreign commerce, on the other hand, or any undue, unreasonable, or unjust discrimination against interstate or foreign commerce, and to determine what rates and charges, if any, or what maximum or minimum, or maximum and minimum rates and charges shall be prescribed to remove the unlawful advantage, preference, prejudice, or discrimination, if any, that may be found to exist;

It is further ordered, That all common carriers by railroad operating within the State of Arizona which are subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be served upon each of the said respondents; and that the State of Arizona be notified of the proceeding by sending copies of this order and of said petition by registered mail to the Governor of the said State and to the Arizona Corporation Commission at Phoenix, Ariz.;

It is further ordered, That notice of this proceeding be given to the public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C.; for public inspection, and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the FEDERAL REGISTER, Washington, D. C.;

And it is further ordered, That this proceeding be, and the same is hereby, assigned for hearing on April 1, 1957, at 9:30 o'clock a. m., U. S. Standard Time, at the offices of the Arizona Corporation Commission, Phoenix, Arizona, before Examiner William J. Sweeney, Jr.

By the Commission, Division 2.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. G–10327, G–10453]

AGSCO MINERALS CORP. AND WYRICK & HUGHES

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 15, 1957.

In the matters of Agsco Minerals Corporation, Docket No. G–10327; Wyrick & Hughes, Docket No. G–10453.

Take Notice that Wyrick & Hughes having their principal place of business at Refugio, Texas, filed an application on May 21, 1956, in Docket No. G–10453, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, for permission and approval to abandon the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce to United Gas Pipe Line Company (United) for resale, which sale was previously authorized by the Commission in its order issued December 14, 1954 in Docket No. G–3034.

On April 30, 1956, Agsco Minerals Corporation (Agsco) with its principal place of business in Refugio, Texas, filed an application in Docket No. G–10327, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, authorizing Agsco to continue the service proposed to be abandoned by Wyrick & Hughes as described above.

The Commission by its order issued December 14, 1954, in Docket No. G–3034 authorized Wyrick & Hughes to sell to United, at the outlet of a gasoline absorption plant near Refugio, Texas, natural gas produced in the Old Refugio Field, Refugio County, Texas, and processed in said plant.

The respective applications herein state that by an instrument of assignment dated February 1, 1956, Wyrick & Hughes assigned to Agsco, among other things, the aforementioned gasoline plant and all gas purchase, gas sales and gas processing contracts relating thereto.

The applications herein are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 29, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 5, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

KLEIN AND VAUGHN, AND CUBAN AMERICAN OIL CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 15, 1957.

Take notice that Klein and Vaughn, and Cuban American Oil Company (Cuban), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Dallas, Texas, filed a joint application on September 27, 1956, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for permission and approval to abandon and render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully described in the joint application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

By the joint application herein Klein and Vaughn seek permission and approval pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, to abandon the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce to United Gas Pipe Line Company (United) for resale, from production from the Maggie Patton unit in the Libson Field, Claiborne Parish, Louisiana, which sale was previously authorized by the Commission in Docket No. G–6566.

Cuban seeks authority pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act to continue to render the service to United proposed herein to be abandoned by Klein and Vaughn.

The application states that by instrument dated September 28, 1955, effective as of November 1, 1955, Klein and Vaughn assigned their interests in gas produced from the Maggie Patton unit to Cuban.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subect to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 29, 1957 at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. MOUNTAIN GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 15, 1957.

Take notice that Mountain Gas Company (Applicant), a partnership, whose address is 410 Avery Street, Parkersburg, West Virginia, filed on October 1, 1956, an application for permission to abondon service, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to terminate service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant was authorized on July 13, 1955 in Docket No. G–5639 to continue the sale of natural gas to Hope Natural Gas Company for transportation in interstate commerce for resale from production from the E. E. Hess, et ux., lease in the Mole Hill Field, Clay District, Ritchie County, and Centerville District, Tyler County, West Virginia.

Applicant states that the volume of gas available for delivery as heretofore authorized has declined to a point where it is no longer economically feasible to continue service and has submitted copies of its agreement with Hope Natural Gas Company, providing for cancellation of the contract covering the subject sale.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on April 29, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. [Docket No. G–11181]

E. A. COURTNEY AND GAS GATHERING CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 15, 1957.

Take notice that E. A. Courtney and Gas Gathering Corporation, each having its principal place of business in Hammond, Louisiana, filed a joint application on October 1, 1956, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for permission and approval to abandon and render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully described in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

By the joint application herein, E. A. Courtney seeks permission and approval pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, to abandon the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce to Transcontinental Gas Pipeline Corporation (Transco) for resale, from production in the Happytown Field, St. Martin Parish, Louisiana, including the operation of any facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission necessary therefor, which sale and operation were previously authorized by the Commission in Docket No. G–4719. The subject gas is being purchased by E. A. Courtney from The Texas Company, R. R. Frankel, and Shell Oil Company in said field and transported by him through 10 miles of transmission line to a point of delivery to Transco.

By the joint application Gas Gathering Corporation seeks authority, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, to continue the operation of the facilities and to render the service to Transco proposed herein to be abandoned by E. A. Courtney.

The application states that if the joint application referred to herein is granted, the said E. A. Courtney will assign to Gas Gathering Corporation all contracts for the purchase of gas and the gas sales contract providing for the sale of natural gas to Transco referred to in the joint application. There will also be assigned to Gas Gathering Corporation all other assets now being used in connection with the operation of facilities, including rights of way, pipe lines, meters, gauges, etc.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 29, 1957 at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after non-contested heading, dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 5, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

NULL AND MOORHEAD GAS CO. AND BRADLEY GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 15, 1957.

In the matters of Null and Moorhead Gas Company, Docket No. G–70790; Bradley Gas Company, Docket Nos. G–10791, and G–10796.

Take notice that Null and Moorhead Gas Company (Null and Moorhead), with its principal place of business at Clarksburg, West Virginia, filed on July 23, 1956 an application in Docket No. G–10790, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, for permission and approval to abandon the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully described in the application in Docket No. G–10790.

Null and Moorhead seeks to abandon: (1) Service to Hope Natural Gas Company from production in Wetzel and Monongalia Counties, West Virginia, which service was previously authorized by the Commission in Docket No. G–5583.

(2) Service to Carnegie Natural Gas Company from production from the Mitchell Lease located in the Center District, Gilmer County, West Virginia which service was previously authorized by the Commission in Docket No. G–2942.

Simultaneously therewith, Bradley Gas Company (Bradley) with its principal place of business in Clarksburg, West Virginia, filed applications pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing it to continue the services and operations proposed to be abandoned by Null and Moorhead, as described herein, and as more fully described in the applications in Docket Nos. G–10791 and G–10796.

Null and Moorhead in Docket No. G–10790 state that by instruments dated February 22, 1956, Null and Moorhead sold and assigned its leases and properties in Wetzel, Monohgalia, and Gilmer Counties, West Virginia to Bradley.

The applications herein are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 23, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. [Docket No. G–10981 etc.]

PROGRESS PETROLEUM COMPANY OF TEXAS ET AL.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 15, 1957.

In the matters of: Progress Petroleum Company of Texas, and Midhurst Oil Corporation, Docket Nos. G–10981 and G–10982; Progress Petroleum, Inc., and Midhurst Oil Corporation, Docket No. G–10983.

Take notice that Progress Petroleum Company of Texas (Progress of Texas), Progress Petroleum, Inc. (Progress, Inc.), and Midhurst Oil Corporation (Midhurst), with their respective principal places of business in Houston, Texas, filed joint applications on August 27, 1956, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for approval and authorization to abandon and continue the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce, as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully described in the respective applications herein, now on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The respective parties herein seek approval and authorization as follows:

(1) Progress of Texas, in Docket No. G–10981, to abandon service to Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Tennessee) from the Hutchins South Field, Wharton County, Texas, which service was authorized on December 12, 1955, in Docket No. G–4223.

(2) Progress of Texas, in Docket No. G–10982, to abandon service to El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) from the Jack Herbert Field, Upton County, Texas, which service was authorized on May 31, 1955, in Docket No. G–4601.

(3) Progress, Inc., in Docket No. G–10983, to abandon service to Tennessee from the Magnet-Withers Field, Wharton County, Texas, which service was authorized on February 2, 1956, in Docket No. G–9200.

(4) Midhurst, in Docket Nos. G–10981 through G–10983, to continue the subject services to Tennessee and El Paso proposed to be abandoned by Progress of Texas and Progress, Inc.

The respective applications state that on July 1, 1956, Midhurst acquired the interests of Progress of Texas and Progress, Inc., in the subject properties, and succeeded to the gas sales contracts involved herein.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 23, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 5, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

SOHIO PETROLEUM CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 15, 1957.

Take notice that Sohio Petroleum Company (Applicant), an Ohio corporation with principal place of business in Cleveland, Ohio, filed an application on November 9, 1956, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application on file with the Commission, and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to sell natural gas in interstate commerce to Coastal Transmission Corporation for resale, which gas Applicant proposes to produce from approximately 749 acres located in the Grosse Tete Field, West Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana. Proposed deliveries will be made at a point to be agreed upon at a daily contract volume of 1,000 Mcf per 8,000,000 Mcf of reserves.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Tuesday, April 17, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 1, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket G-9440, G-9753]

J. A. KIMMEY ET AL.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 15, 1957.

In the matters of J. A. Kimmey and Burdette Graham, Docket No. G–9440; William Negley, d. b. a. Paisano Trading Company, Ltd., Docket No. G–9753.

Take notice that J. A. Kimmey and Burdette Graham (Kimmey and Graham), joint owners, with their principal place of business in Corpus Christi, Texas, filed a joint application on October 6, 1955, in Docket No. G–9440 for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing them to continue the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce from production from the Muil Lease located in the Captain Lucy Field, Jim Wells County, Texas, to Trunkline Gas Company for resale, all as more fully described in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

One December 7, 1955, William Negley d/b/a Paisano Trading Company, Ltd. (Paisano), whose principal place of business is in San Antonio, Texas, filed an application in Docket No. G–9753, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, for permission and approval to abandon the sale of natural gas for which Kimmey and Graham seek authorization to continue in Docket No. G–9440.

The parties herein state that the subject Muil Lease was acquired by Burdette Graham from Paisano by instrument executed April 14, 1955. Graham then assigned one-half interest in said lease to J. A. Kimmey by instrument dated May 12, 1955, all of which are on file with the Commission.

Paisano was granted a certificate of public convenience and necessity to sell gas produced from the Muil and Goldapp leases to Trunkline in Docket No. G–2552. Kimmey and Graham in Docket No. G–9440 seeks authorization for the continued operation of service heretofore rendered by Paisano from the Muil Lease only.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 23, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 5, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

BURCH SPEARS, INC., AND BURCH SPEARS

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 15, 1957.

Take notice that Burch Spears, Inc., and Burch Spears (Individually), hereinafter referred to collectively as "Applicants", whose address is 1401 E. Park Street, Victoria, Texas, filed on March 26, 1956 a joint application, purusant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for permission and approval to abandon service and for a certificate of public convenience and necessity to sell natural gas for transportation in interstate commerce for resale, as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the joint application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicants seek to abandon and render service as indicated below:

(1) Burch Spears to abandon service to Trunkline Gas Company (Trunkline) from leases in the Medio Creek Field, Bee County, Texas. Such service was authorized by the Commission's order issued August 19, 1955 in Docket No. G–8973.

(2) Burch Spears, Inc., to continue the service to Trunkline, proposed to be abandoned by Burch Spears as described in (1) above.

The joint application states that by assignments dated March 20, 1956, Burch Spears, Inc., acquired certain leases, production and field lines in the Medio Field, Bee County, Texas, from Burch Spears and is to succeed to the latter's interest in the contract with Trunkline dated May 12, 1955.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 29, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matter involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) and (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 5, 1957. [Docket No. G-12204]

F. L. & J. L. RANDEL

MARCH 15, 1957.

F. L. & J. L. Randel (Randel), on February 19, 1957, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of change dated February 16, 1957.

Purchaser: United Fuel Company.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 1 to Randel's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1.

Effective date: [1] March 22, 1957.

In support of the two proposed periodic rate increases, Randel cites pertinent price provisions of its rate schedule and requests incorporation by reference of the support previously submitted by The Atlantic Refining Company in connection with proposed increases under its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 115, Docket Nos. G–9443 and G–11247.

The increased rates and charges so proposed have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge, and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 22, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

SOHIO PETROLEUM CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGES IN RATES

MARCH 15, 1957.

Sohio Petroleum Company (Sohio), on February 15, 1957, tendered for filing proposed changes in its rate schedules

[1] The stated effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days notice, or the effective date proposed by Randel, if later.

[2] Commissioner Digby dissenting.

presently in effect for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed changes, which constitute increased rates and charges, are contained in the following designated filings, which are proposed to become effective on the date shown:

Description: Notice of change, undated.
Purchaser: Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 2 to Sohio's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 32, Supplement No. 2 to Sohio's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 33.
Proposed effective date: [1] March 21, 1957.

In support of the increases, Sohio states that a contract would not have been signed for a long term (20 years) without a periodic rate increase provision; the effect is the same as if an average price had been agreed upon over the life of the contract; periodic increases are justified on a continuing basis because of increasing operating and maintenance costs due to workover of wells and replacement of worn out equipment; the buyer was able to purchase reserves at a low initial price when its fixed costs were highest; an interest has been lost on income deferred because of extending the sale over a long term rather than selling for a shorter term.

The increased rates and charges so proposed have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed changes, and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and charges, and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplements be and they are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 21, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

KERR-McGEE OIL INDUSTRIES, INC.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

MARCH 15, 1957.

Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc., (Kerr-McGee), on February 18, 1957, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate, is contained in the following designated filing, which is proposed to become effective on the date shown:

Description: Notice of change dated February 15, 1957.
Purchaser: Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 2 to Kerr-McGee's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 46.
Proposed effective date: [3] March 21, 1957.

In support of the increase, Kerr-McGee states that a contract would not have been signed for a long term (20 years) without a periodic rate increase provision; the effect is the same as if an average price had been agreed upon over the life of the contract; periodic increases are justified on a continuing basis because of increasing operating and maintenance costs due to workover of wells and replacement of worn out equipment; the buyer was able to purchase reserves at a low initial price when its fixed costs were highest; and interest has been lost on income deferred because of extending the sale over a long term rather than selling for a shorter term.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in Sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge, and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 21, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

TEXAS CO. ET AL.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

MARCH 15, 1957.

The Texas Company (Operator), et al. (Texas), on February 19, 1957, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate, is contained in the following designated filing, which is proposed to become effective on the date shown:

Description: Notice of change, undated.
Purchaser: Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 7 to Texas' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 133.
Proposed effective date: [4] March 21, 1957.

In support of the increase, Texas states that a contract would not have been signed for a long term (20 years) without a periodic rate increase provision; the effect is the same as if an average price had been agreed upon over the life of the contract; periodic increases are justified on a continuing basis because of increasing operating and maintenance costs due to workover of wells and replacement of worn out equipment; the buyer was able to purchase reserves at a low initial price when its fixed costs were highest; and interest has been lost on income deferred because of extending the sale over a long term rather than selling for a shorter term.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 21, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

CARTER OIL CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

MARCH 15, 1957.

The Carter Oil Company (Carter), on February 18, 1957, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate, is contained in the following designated filing, which is proposed to become effective on the date shown:

Description: Notice of Change dated February 14, 1957.
Purchaser: Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 5 to Carter's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 35.
Proposed effective date: [2] March 21, 1957.

[2] The stated effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days notice, or the effective date proposed by Carter, if later.

In support of the increase, Carter states that a contract would not have been signed for a long term (20 years) without a periodic rate increase provision; the effect is the same as if an average price had been agreed upon over the life of the contract; periodic increases are justified on a continuing basis because of increasing operating and maintenance costs due to workover of wells and replacement of worn out equipment; the buyer was able to purchase reserves at a low initial price when its fixed costs were highest; and interest has been lost on income deferred because of extending the sale over a long term rather than selling for a shorter term.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge, and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 21, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

[Docket Nos. G-7693, G-10653]

ORVILLE EBERLY

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 15, 1957.

Take notice that Orville Eberly, Agent, (Applicant), whose address is 208 Union Trust Building, Uniontown, Pennsylvania, filed an application on December 2, 1954, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, authorizing the sale of natural gas from the O'Donnell #1 Well in the Mt. Lake Park Field, Garrett County, Maryland, to Cumberland & Allegheny Gas Company for transportation in interstate commerce for resale as more fully described in the application in Docket No. G-7693.

On June 25, 1956, Applicant filed an amendment to the application in Docket No. G-7693 pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, for permission and approval to abandon the sale for which it seeks authorization in the original Docket No. G-7693 above.

Applicant, on June 25, 1956, in Docket No. G-10653, filed an application, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Act for permission and approval to abandon the sale of natural gas from the Baker No. 1 Well in the Mt. Lake Park Field, Garrett County, Maryland, to Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company which sale was previously authorized in Docket No. G-7763 by the Commission's order issued May 4, 1956 in the consolidated Docket Nos. G-7624, et al., proceeding.

Applicant states that the O'Donnell No. 1 Well, the only well located on the acreage covered by the application in Docket No. G-7693 and the Baker No. 1 Well covered by the application in Docket No. G-10653 have ceased production and that there is no possibility that production can be restored.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 29, 1957, as 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 5, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request thereof is made.

[Docket No. G-10133 etc.]

PRODUCING PROPERTIES, INC., ET AL.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 15, 1957.

In the matters of Producing Properties, Inc., Docket No. G-10133; Witco Chemical Company, Docket No. G-10134; Witco Chemical Company, Docket No. G-10135; Witco Oil and Gas Company, Docket No. G-10136.

Take notice that there have been filed on March 21, 1956, applications for certificates of public convenience and necessity and for permission to abandon service pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the applications which are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

In its application in Docket No. G-10136, Witco Oil and Gas Company (Witco Oil) seeks to abandon service to Colorado Interstate Gas Company previously authorized by the Commission's order in Docket No. G-2554.

Witco Chemical Company (Witco Chemical), with its principal place of business in Amarillo, Texas, by its application in Docket No. G-10134 seeks authority to continue the identical service proposed to be abandoned by Witco Oil in Docket No. G-10136 as described above.

By its application in Docket No. G-10135, Witco Chemical seeks to abandon the services for which it seeks authorization in Docket No. G-10134.

Producing Properties, Inc., with its principal place of business in Dallas, Texas, in its application in Docket No. G-10133, seeks authority to continue the identical services proposed to be abandoned by Witco Chemical in Docket No. G-10135 as described above.

Witco Oil was authorized at Docket No. G-2554 by order issued October 1, 1954, as amended December 21, 1954, to sell natural gas from the West Panhandle Field, Hutchinson County, Texas, to Colorado Interstate, pursuant to contract dated May 11, 1954 between Colorado Interstate and Witco Chemical (predecessor to Witco Oil).

In Docket No. G-10136, Witco Oil states that effective February 1, 1956 all of the properties and facilities of Witco Oil were transferred and assigned to its parent company, Witco Chemical. In Docket No. G-10135 Witco Chemical states that it has sold all of the producing properties, dedicated to performance of the aforementioned contract with Colorado Interstate to Producing Properties by assignment. Said assignment is dated March 12, 1956, effective March 1, 1956. No change of rates or services are proposed by virtue of the above assignment.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 23, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 5, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 1-1751]

VAN DE KAMP'S HOLLAND DUTCH BAKERS, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

MARCH 18, 1957.

In the matter of Van de Kamp's Holland Dutch Bakers, Inc., Common Stock, File No. 1-1751.

Pacific Coast Stock Exchange has made application, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, to strike the above named security from listing and registration thereon.

The reasons alleged in the application for striking this security from listing and registration include the following:

As the result of a tender by General Baking Company to stockholders of Van de Kamp's, General Baking Company has acquired 166,556 shares and there remain outstanding only 2,500 shares in the hands of 16 stockholders. The transfer books of the company were closed on March 9, for a period of 20 days pending a meeting of stockholders on March 28, to consider a plan of merger with General Baking Company.

The stock was suspended from dealing on this Exchange at the close of business on March 8.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before April 3, 1957, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application and other information contained in the official file of the Commission pertaining to the matter.

By the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Federal Maritime Board

SEAS SHIPPING CO. AND MOORE-McCORMACK LINES, INC.

NOTICE OF AGREEMENT FILED FOR APPROVAL

Notice is hereby given that the following described agreement has been filed with the Board for approval pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916, (39 Stat. 733, 46 U. S. C. 814):

Agreement No. 8209, between Seas Shipping Company, Inc., and Moore-McCormack Lines, Inc., covers an arrangement whereby, in consideration of the purchase of the vessels of Seas by Moore-McCormack, subject to approval by the Federal Maritime Board and Maritime Administrator, and subject to the closing of such sale and purchase, Seas agrees that it will not for a period of ten (10) years after the date of the delivery of the last of the vessels, own, operate or act as agent(s) for any foreign or American flag vessels, except tankers, operating on Trade Route 15A (between U. S. Atlantic ports and ports in South and East Africa), or on Trade Route 1 (between U. S. Atlantic ports and ports on the East Coast of South America), or Trade Route 6 (between U. S. North Atlantic ports and Scandinavia and Baltic ports) or Trade Route 24 (between U. S. Pacific Coast ports and ports on the East Coast of South America).

Interested parties may inspect this agreement and obtain copies thereof at the Regulation Office, Federal Maritime Board, Washington, D. C., and may submit, within 20 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, written statements with reference to the agreement and their position as to approval, disapproval, or modification, together with request for hearing should such hearing be desired.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

Dated: March 19, 1957.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Navel Orange Reg. 111]

PART 914—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 914.411 Navel Orange Regulation 111—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 14, as amended (7 CFR Part 914; 21 F. R. 4707), regulating the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective September 22, 1953, under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Navel Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on March 21, 1957, after giving due notice thereof to consider supply and market conditions for navel oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such navel oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.786 Lemon Regulation 679—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 20 F. R. 8451; 21 F. R. 4393), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on March 20, 1957; such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., March 24, 1957, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., March 31, 1957, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 6,510 cartons;
(ii) District 2: 239,940 cartons;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

[Lime Order 3, Amdt. 6]

PART 1001—LIMES GROWN IN FLORIDA

QUALITY AND SIZE REGULATION

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 101 (7 CFR Part 1001) regulating the handling of limes grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Florida Lime Administrative Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of limes, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; and this regulation relieves restriction on the handling of limes.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the provisions in subparagraph (2) (ii) of paragraph (b) of § 1001.303 (Lime Order 3, as amended; 21 F. R. 5033, 5821, 6159, 7021, 9741; 22 F. R. 1171) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(ii) Any container of limes grown in the State of Florida, except the area west of the Suwannee River, of the group known as large fruited or Persian limes (including Tahiti, Bearss, and similar varieties) unless the limes in such container grade at least U. S. No. 2 Mixed Color, and are of a size not smaller than 1⅝ inches in diameter: Provided, That not to exceed 5 percent, by count, of the limes in any container may be smaller than 1⅝ inches in diameter; or Effective time. The provisions of this amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 1, 1957.

In the Matter of Barnet Epstein and Hyman Schustal, Doing Business as Fit-Rite Mail Order House, Best Mail Order House, and Peoples Mail Order House

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging two individuals engaged in New York City in the mail order sale at retail of children's and women's dresses and other wearing apparel, including used garments, with representing falsely in advertising in magazines and other periodicals that the used apparel they sold was new, and with substituting a substantially lesser number of garments for the "12", "10", and "5" specified—and entry of an agreement containing consent order.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on March 9 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Barnet Epstein and Hyman Schustal, as individuals or as co-partners trading and doing business as Fit-Rite Mail Order House, Best Mail Order House or Peoples Mail Order House, or under any other trade name, and respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in the offering for sale, sale or distribution of used children's dresses, used women's dresses, or used wearing apparel of any other kind, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the words "brand-new" or "new" or other words of similar import or meaning to describe said used wearing apparel or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that said used wearing apparel is new or unused;

2. Advertising, offering for sale or selling said wearing apparel without clearly revealing that it is used merchandise;

3. Substituting, without the prior consent of the purchaser, wearing apparel which differs in grade, quality, quantity, condition or otherwise from that advertised or offered for sale or ordered by the purchaser.

By "Decision of the Commission," etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Barnet Epstein and Hyman Schustal, doing business as Fit-Rite Mail Order House, Best Mail Order House, and Peoples Mail Order House, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: March 8, 1957.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter VI—Business and Defense Services Administration, Department of Commerce

M-108—ARGON

This order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this order, consultation with industry representatives has been rendered impracticable due to the need for immediate action and because the order affects many different industries.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 10 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended, sec. 1, Pub. Law 632, 84th Cong., 70 Stat. 408; 50 U. S. C. App. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, as amended, sec. 705, 64 Stat. 816, as amended, sec. 1, Pub. Law 632, 84th Cong., 70 Stat. 408; 50 U. S. C. App. 2071, 2155. E. O. 10480, 18 F. R. 4939; 3 CFR, 1953 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order applies to producers of refined argon. It establishes a ceiling limitation for required acceptance of rated orders. Its purpose is to provide equitable distribution of rated orders among producers and to make available a portion of refined argon for nondefense uses.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this order:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States Government or of any other government.

(b) "BDSA" means the Business and Defense Services Administration of the United States Department of Commerce.

(c) "Refined argon" means argon of 99.9 percent purity or higher.

(d) "Producer" means any person who manufacturers refined argon.

(e) "Scheduled production" means refined argon manufactured by a producer, including refined argon purchased by him for resale.

SEC. 3. Applicability of BDSA Reg. 2. The provisions of BDSA Reg. 2 (formerly NPA Reg. 2) are superseded to the extent that they are inconsistent with the provisions of this order. In all other respects the provisions of BDSA Reg. 2 shall remain in full force and effect.

SEC. 4. Limitations on required acceptance of rated orders for argon during March 1957. (a) Unless otherwise directed by BDSA, no producer of refined argon shall be required to accept rated orders calling for delivery during the period of March 25 through March 31, 1957, of an aggregate quantity of refined argon which exceeds 85 percent of his scheduled production of refined argon for that period: Provided, however, That no DX rated order for refined argon shall be rejected for the reason that its acceptance would result in exceeding the specified percentage.

(b) To the extent that rated orders for refined argon already accepted by a producer exceed 85 percent of his scheduled production of refined argon for the period March 25 through March 31, 1957, he may defer delivery of such excess orders or portions thereof to the immediately succeeding calendar month: Provided, however, That he shall not defer delivery of any DX rated orders for refined argon. DO rated orders for refined argon so deferred to the succeeding calendar month shall take precedence over other DO rated orders for refined argon calling for delivery during that calendar month. Such deferred DO rated orders may be included by the producer within the percentage specified in paragraph (a) of this section for the calendar month in which shipment will be made.

SEC. 5. Limitations on required acceptance of rated orders for argon beginning with April 1957. (a) Unless otherwise directed by BDSA, no producer of refined argon shall be required to accept rated orders calling for delivery during any calendar month, commencing with the month of April 1957, of an aggregate quantity of refined argon which exceeds 85 percent of his scheduled production of refined argon for that calendar month: Provided, however, That no DX rated order for refined argon shall be rejected for the reason that its acceptance would result in exceeding the specified percentage.

(b) To the extent that rated orders for refined argon already accepted by a producer exceed 85 percent of his scheduled production of refined argon for any calendar month, commencing with the month of April 1957, he may defer delivery of such excess orders or portions thereof to the immediately succeeding calendar month: Provided, however, That he shall not defer delivery of any DX rated orders for refined argon. DO rated orders for refined argon so deferred to a succeeding calendar month shall take precedence over other DO rated orders for refined argon calling for delivery during the current calendar month involved. Such deferred DO rated orders may be included by the producer within the percentage specified in paragraph (a) of this section for the calendar month in which shipment will be made.

SEC. 6. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order shall make, and preserve for at least 3 years thereafter, accurate and complete records thereof. Such records shall include all rated orders and directives received by such person pertaining to argon, copies of all rated orders for argon placed by such person, and records of all purchases, receipts, inventories, production, use, sales and deliveries of argon. Records shall be maintained in sufficient detail to permit the determination, after audit, whether each transaction complies with the provisions of this order. This order does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily used, provided the records specifically required herein are maintained. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals by those persons who, at the time such microfilm or other photographic copies are made, maintain such copies of records in the regular and usual course of business.

(b) All records required by this order to be maintained by any person shall be made available for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of BDSA at the usual place of business of such person.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports to BDSA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139f).

SEC. 7. Requests for adjustment or exception. Any person subject to any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. The filing of a request for adjustment or exception shall not relieve any person of his obligation to comply with any such provision. In examining requests for adjustment or exception claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, by letter in triplicate, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

SEC. 8. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the Business and Defense Services Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: BDSA Order M-108.

SEC. 9. False statements. The furnishing of false information or the concealment of any material fact in the course of operation under this order constitutes a violation of this order.

SEC. 10. Violations. Violation of any provision of this order may subject any person committing or participating in such violation to administrative action to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials, or using materials or facilities, under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priority and allocation assistance. In addition to such administrative action, an injunction and order may be obtained prohibiting any such violation and enforcing compliance with the provisions hereof. Any person who without authority wilfully places an order, irrespective of the form thereof, purporting to be or intended as an order placed under the provisions of this order, or who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who wilfully furnishes false information or conceals any material fact in the course of operation under this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both.

This order shall take effect March 21, 1957.

BUSINESS AND DEFENSE SERVICES ADMINISTRATION,
H. B. MCCOY,
Administrator.

TITLE 35—PANAMA CANAL

Chapter I—Canal Zone Regulations

[Canal Zone Order 46]

PART 24—SANITATION, HEALTH, AND QUARANTINE

EXEMPTION FROM LICENSURE

By virtue of the authority vested in the President of the United States by section 372 of title 2 of the Canal Zone Code, approved June 19, 1934, and delegated to me by Executive Order No. 9746 of July 1, 1946, as amended by Executive Order No.10595 of February 7, 1955, § 24.33 of Subpart A of Part 24 of Title 35, Code of Federal Regulations, as adopted and amended by Canal Zone Order 39 of February 26, 1955, 20 F. R. 1392, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 24.33 Exemption from licensure. The provisions of §§ 24.1 to 24.35 forbidding the practice of the healing art without a license shall not apply to commissoned medical officers of the United States Armed Forces or of the United States Public Health Service, or to medical officers, interns, and residents-in-training in any other branch of the Federal Government whatsoever, in the discharge of their official duties.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

[Docket No. AO-222-A8]

MILK IN THE OZARKS MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Springfield, Missouri, on September 24 and 25, 1956, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued on September 5, 1956 (21 F. R. 6830).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Acting Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on March 1, 1957, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of filing such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 6, 1957 (22 F. R. 1397).

The material issues of record related to:

1. Reduction in extent of the marketing area;

2. Modification of the distribution of pooled returns to producers supplying pool plants located in Arkansas by raising the location adjustment and providing a separate utilization adjustment;

3. Limitation on the privilege of diverting milk to nonpool plants;

4. Providing for diversion of bulk milk to other handlers;

5. Modification of the pool plant standards;

6. Redefinition of producer-handler;

7. Prorating shrinkage on transfers of milk in bulk;

8. Revision of the classification of inventory changes;

9. Modification of the class II price; and

10. Administrative changes, involving:

(a) Interest charges on payments due the producer-settlement fund and set-off between accounts.

(b) Clarification of the definition of "other source milk";

(c) Clarification of the classification of reconstituted products,

(d) Class II transfers, and

(e) Reinstatement of the permanent Class I price provisions for the months of April, May, and June.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions are based on the evidence received at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. Marketing area. A handler whose plant is located at Harrison, Arkansas, in Boone County, proposed that that county be deleted from the marketing area.

It is apparent, however, that the procurement and distribution of milk in Boone County has become increasingly competitive since this county was included in the marketing area in August 1954. The increased competition includes additional sales by handlers regulated under the Ozarks and Central Arkansas marketing areas, the purchase of supplemental bulk milk by this handler from other handlers regulated under the Ozarks order, and competition in the procurement of milk both from other Ozarks handlers and from handlers regulated under the Central Arkansas order. It is concluded that Boone County should not be deleted from the marketing area.

2. Distribution of pooled proceeds to Arkansas producers. The Ozarks Milk Producers Association, a newly formed cooperative representing the majority of Grade A producers delivering to handlers located in the northwest Arkansas counties of the marketing area made several proposals relating to the handling of milk in these four Arkansas counties. At the hearing the Association abandoned its support of the application of these proposals to Boone and Marion Counties and limited its testimony to the two remaining Arkansas counties of Benton and Washington. Since there was no additional testimony by any other interested parties concerning the original proposals as made by the Association, this decision relative to the proposals of the Association shall apply only to Benton and Washington Counties.

One proposal made by the Association would increase the Class I differential for handlers located in Benton and Washington Counties from 15 to 25 cents per hundredweight.

The present 15-cent Class I differential was originally provided to reflect the transportation costs of moving milk from Springfield to Arkansas markets. Approximately one-third of the total Class I sales in the Arkansas section of the marketing area is supplied by regulated handlers located in Springfield. It was contended that the differential is no longer sufficient to offset the transportation cost of so moving milk thus placing Springfield handlers at a competitive disadvantage in the Arkansas section of the marketing area. In adjusting this differential, however, care must be exercised to prevent its being set at too high a level, thus placing Arkansas handlers at a disadvantage.

According to the Dairyland Transport Company's schedule of rates which was submitted in evidence, the cost of transporting bulk milk from Springfield to Fayetteville (the major city in Northwest Arkansas) is 22 cents per hundredweight plus 3 percent Federal tax. However, this hauling rate reflects only the transportation cost of spot shipments of bulk milk. It does not adequately reflect the actual cost of hauling packaged milk on a regularly scheduled basis when the hauling equipment is owned and the activities of the driver controlled by the shipping handler. The cost of hauling milk in this instance would probably be less than the 22 cents as contained in the rate schedule particularly if the handler controlling the hauling facilities considered only the variable cost factors such as fuel and labor and did not associate any of the fixed cost factors such as management to the operation.

By far the greater share of milk moved by Springfield handlers to Arkansas is in packaged form. There was no evidence submitted by proponents of the increased Class I differential to indicate that the 25-cent differential would better serve to reflect the transportation cost of packaged milk. To increase the location differential without substantial evidence that such an increase is warranted would place Arkansas handlers at a competitive disadvantage relative to order handlers located in Springfield, Missouri. It is, therefore, concluded that the present differential should be maintained.

The Arkansas producers also proposed that payments to those producers supplying the plants located in Benton and Washington Counties, Arkansas, be computed on the utilization of milk by these handlers instead of being computed at the marketwide utilization of milk.

The Ozarks order provides for the marketwide pooling of payments by handlers and the payment of a uniform blend price to producers. The usual alternative is to provide for individual-handler pooling, under which the producers supplying milk to each individual handler receive a blend price based on that particular handler's utilization of milk. An important element in deciding whether to adopt marketwide or individual-handler pooling in any market is the degree to which handlers have become specialized in caring for the daily and seasonal reserve of milk. Such specialization has occurred to a major extent in the Ozarks area where a cooperative association of producers manufactures a large volume of the reserve milk and where some handlers receive only such quantities as are needed for bottling purposes. In such circumstances a marketwide pool serves to equalize returns between those producers delivering to high-utilization plants and those delivering to plants which care for the reserve milk. There was no proposal or testimony at the hearing relative to changing from marketwide to individual-handler pooling in the Ozarks market.

In two major respects the marketing of milk in Benton and Washington Counties remains closely interrelated with the marketing of milk in the Missouri portions of the area. Slightly over one-third of the total Class I sales in these counties are made by handlers whose plants are located outside of these counties, the bulk of them by handlers located at Springfield, Missouri. Also, the handlers located in the two Arkansas Counties specialized in bottling to the extent of depending upon other Ozarks handlers for supplementary supplies in the months of lowest production. These facts support the inclusion of Benton and Washington Counties in the Ozarks marketing area. A proposal by one of the Arkansas handlers to delete these counties from the marketing area was not supported at the hearing. The specialization of the Benton and Washington County plants also supports the continuance of marketwide pooling.

The Arkansas producers' request for a utilization differential was based principally on the competition of other markets for locally produced milk. The competitive markets include Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Dallas, Texas. However, this same competition and that from additional markets is active in the Ozarks market as a whole. The Producers Creamery Company operates a supply plant for the Dallas market at Monette and supply plants for the St. Louis market at Lebanon and Cabool and has a substantial number of members who ship directly to Kansas City plants. The Monette plant is also currently receiving milk from approximately 148 shippers located in Northwest Arkansas who are not members of Producers Creamery Company. These competitive markets have not so far jeopardized the adequacy of the supply of milk for the Ozarks market as a whole, nor is there any noticeable downward trend in the supply-sales relationship at the plants located in Penton and Washington Counties.

It is concluded that sales proceeds throughout the entire Ozarks marketing area should continue to be pooled on a marketwide basis.

3. Diversion of milk to nonpool plants. The order presently imposes no limits on the time or extent to which producer milk may be diverted to a nonpool plant for the account of any handler (including a cooperative association).

It was proposed by a cooperative association which operates a supply plant that the diversion privilege be limited during the low production months of September through January to not more than 10 days in any of these calendar months. They pointed out that the diversion privilege is primarily intended to promote efficiency in the marketing of milk not needed at the pool plants for bottling purposes. It is frequently possible for excess milk to be hauled directly from the farms to a nonpool plant for manufacturing instead of being physically received at the pool plant and then transferred to a manufacturing plant. Most commonly, these movements occur during the months of flush production. However, diversions may occasionally be necessary during the months of low production to accommodate excess milk during holiday periods or on weekends.

Representatives of bargaining associations which do not operate plant facilities pointed out that they have a special problem in this regard. They wish to be in a position to market their members' milk even during times of temporarily reduced demand. Such associations may need to market their members' milk by diversion to nonpool plants even during the five months of lowest production in the event of nonacceptance by the handler, labor disputes involving the hauling, processing or delivery of milk, or unseasonably high rates of milk production due to abnormal weather or other causes.

It is concluded that the diversion privilege should be limited to 10 days in any of the months of September through January. The 10-day period is sufficiently long to accommodate the types of movement to nonpool plants cited by certain cooperative associations. On the other hand, it will accomplish a desirable limitation of the privilege. The 10 days refers to 10 days' production of milk; bulk tank milk is commonly picked up from farms only on an every-other-day schedule and 10 days' production is included in five deliveries. If more than 10 days' milk is diverted, the dairy farmer would lose his status as a producer during the entire delivery month.

4. Diversion to other handlers. One proposal considered at the hearing was designed to accommodate efficiencies resulting from the system of collecting milk from farms in bulk tank trucks.

One cooperative association owns and operates insulated tank trucks in which the milk of producers who have bulk cooling tanks on the farm is picked up and transported to the distributing plants of handlers. Recently there has been a very rapid expansion in the number of bulk cooling tanks being installed on the farms and in the number of tank trucks acquired by the cooperative to transport such milk. It is extremely likely that the trend in this direction will continue at a very rapid rate. Other cooperative associations may also become involved in this type of operation.

The transportation of milk from farm to market in insulated tank trucks owned or operated by or under contract to the cooperative association has created a problem with respect to the determination of the responsibility to the individual producers. When milk comes to the market in cans, the milk of the individual producers is dumped, weighed, and a sample taken for butterfat testing by an employee of the plant where the milk is utilized. The operator of the plant is fixed with the responsibility for paying the individual producer for the pounds of milk received at the determined butterfat test.

When milk moves to market in a tank truck, the weight of the milk is checked and a sample for butterfat testing is taken at the farm. The milk of several producers is intermingled in the tank truck. When the tank trucks are owned or operated by or under contract to the cooperative association, the weight of each producer's milk is checked by, and a sample of the milk for butterfat testing is taken by, a person who is an employee of or directly responsible to the cooperative association. The handler who receives the milk of several producers intermingled in the tank has no way of knowing the weight or the butterfat test of the milk of the individual producers whose deliveries made up the load, except as such information may be reported to him by the association. In some instances, particularly in the case of supplemental loads, the handler may not even know the identity of the producers whose milk he receives.

Under these circumstances, it is not proper to make the plant operator responsible for the payment to a producer for a given quantity of milk at a particular test when he has no means of verifying such weights and tests. Rather any cooperative association which qualifies as such under § 921.5 of the order should be made the handler for such milk and should be required to account to the pool for it. The cooperative association would be required to charge the class prices to the plant operator for such milk. The cooperative association in turn would be required to make the monthly reports with respect to such milk and to settle with the producer-settlement fund for it.

With respect to milk received from producers' farms in cans or in tank trucks owned or operated by the distributing plant, the operator of such plant would continue to be the handler for such milk and would be required to account to the market administrator for it. For such milk the handler would make payment to the producer or the cooperative association at the applicable uniform prices.

5. Modification of the pool plant standards. It was proposed that the pool plant definitions be amended. The present order provides that an approved plant may be a pool plant if it disposes of at least five percent of producer receipts during the month as Class I in the marketing area; and that a supply plant may be a pool plant if it ships any milk to an approved plant which is a pool plant, and, during specified months has made its milk available to other handlers for Class I disposition.

It was testified that tighter requirements would remove the possibility of plants not normally associated with the Ozarks market from becoming pool plants via token shipments in the case of supply plants or a relatively small sales volume within the area in the case of approved plants.

It is concluded that the present definitions do not adequately define the plants which constitute the regular and dependable supply of fluid milk for the Ozarks market. Only those plants which are operated in such a fashion as to be regular suppliers and distributors should be subject to regulation and entitled to participate in the marketwide pool.

The pool plant definitions should be redrawn to specify in more detail the standards which determine a regular, dependable supply. The standards should recognize the functional differences between the two major types of plants which serve the market. The approved plants from which milk is distributed directly on routes in the marketing area differ substantially in their operations from supply plants which assemble milk and ship it in bulk to approved plants.

An association of producers proposed that higher shipping requirements be required of supply plants new to the market than those required of plants presently associated with the market. However, the standards should, so far as possible, measure a plant's current service to the market rather than past association with it. The standards for new and old plants should be as nearly comparable as possible. The only appropriate variation in the shipping requirements is that they be moderately higher in the flush production months of April, May, and June than in other months of the year.

It is concluded, therefore, that a supply plant may be pooled if it ships 25 percent of its producer receipts during any of the months of April, May, or June, and 20 percent during any other month to an approved plant: Provided, That if such plant ships as much as 20 percent of its producer receipts to approved plants during each of the months of September, October, November, and December it shall be a pool plant through the following August.

The 20 percent represents a comparatively small degree of association with the market. The slightly higher, 25 percent, requirement for plants qualifying in April, May, or June reflects the fact that milk supplies at plants primarily associated with other markets in the region are also at a peak in these months. These plants should not be encouraged to join the Ozarks market on a purely temporary basis for the purpose of participating in the equalization account.

A new supply plant desiring to become a permanent part of the Ozarks market would, of course, be most likely to start shipments during the normally short period, and would maintain its status as a pool plant through the following August if it shipped as much as 20 percent of producer receipts to the market during each of the months of September, October, November and December. However, a new supply plant may come on the market in any of the relatively long supply months by shipping the stated percentages to distributing plants.

Producers proposed that the order language which requires a supply plant to inform the market administrator that producer milk is available for Class I distribution in order to assure pool status in all months of the year should be incorporated in the new supply plant provisions. It appears that these offers may have helped to identify a supply plant with the Ozarks market under the present order which enables a supply plant to become a pool plant as a result of shipping "any" milk to the market. However, the new minimum shipping requirements as contained in this decision will serve more specifically to identify a supply plant and hence the offers need not be continued.

The recommended changes in the standards under which supply plants can qualify as pool plants require consideration of corresponding changes in those applying to distributing plants, defined in the order as "approved" plants. Such plants should also demonstrate a significant association with the market and plants which operate primarily as supply plants should not be permitted to qualify by the distribution of a minor sales volume. These objectives can be accomplished by requiring that approved plants must have not less than fifteen percent of producer receipts disposed of as Class I milk within the marketing area in order to qualify as pool plants. There is no evidence that any approved plant under the present order will experience difficulty meeting the new fifteen percent requirement.

6. Producer-handler. Under the terms of the present order, a producer-handler is exempt from the pricing and payment provisions. He does not pay the administrative assessment, nor is his own production included in the marketwide utilization pool.

The simplest form of producer-handler, as described at the hearing, is a person who sells only the milk produced on his own farm. Other operations may be carried on by producer-handlers, and the orders should be made more specific with regard to the types of activities which can be followed without terminating a person's status as a producer-handler.

The proponents were particularly concerned that a producer-handler not be allowed to utilize other source milk for Class I purposes. Conceivably, a producer-handler could rely primarily on other source milk, including reconstituted solids, and thereby avoid the pricing and payment provisions of the marketing order. This should not be permitted. It was pointed out at the hearing, however, that a producer-handler should be permitted to purchase Class II products from unregulated sources for distribution on his routes. This permission should be extended to the purchase of other source milk, as well as products, for manufacturing uses.

The producer-handler definition should, therefore, be amended to provide that milk be received from no other dairy farm than the farm(s) of the producer-handler, that he distribute milk in the marketing area, and that he may purchase supplemental milk from Class I use only from regulated handlers.

7. Shrinkage. The order presently in effect allows the originally receiving handler a maximum of 2 percent shrinkage prorated between producer receipts and other source receipts. It does not allow any shrinkage to the handler who may receive milk by transfer from the handler who originally received the milk.

A cooperative association proposed that the order be amended to recognize that milk incurs relatively little shrinkage in its receipt and relatively much more in its processing, bottling, and distribution. Testimony indicated that receiving plants experience approximately one-half percent shrinkage on that milk received and transferred to another plant for processing and bottling.

It is concluded that the order should be amended to recognize that the greatest amount of shrinkage occurs in the processing and bottling phase of milk distribution. One-half of one percent shrinkage should be allowed on that milk which is received at one plant and transferred to another plant for bottling and distribution. The bottling plant will be allowed up to one and one-half percent shrinkage on that milk received in bulk from another plant.

The same association also proposed that 2 percent of milk received in form other than milk, skim milk, or cream and disposed of in some form other than milk, skim milk, or cream be included as allowable shrinkage. This would allow shrinkage on the reprocessing or conversion of manufactured products. However there was no evidence in the record as to actual loss experience on such operations. It is concluded, therefore, that this aspect of the proposal should be denied.

8. Classification of inventory. The present order provides that inventory variation of milk, skim milk, cream, or any Class I product be considered a Class II utilization. It was proposed that such inventories on hand at the end of the month be classified as Class II, subject to reclassification if utilized in Class I the following month. This proposal should be adopted.

It is essential that some system of classification and allocation be applied to milk in inventory so as to determine the obligation of handlers for producer milk received during the month, but not yet utilized. The order should provide that producer milk from the previous month's closing inventory, which was classified as Class II, have prior claim over other source milk on the Class I utilization for the current month. This can be accomplished in the accounting procedure by considering the opening inventory as a receipt. Under the allocation provisions, the opening inventory would be subtracted from Class II skim milk and butterfat after the subtraction of receipts from other sources. A reclassification charge should be made at the difference between the Class II price in the previous month and the Class I price in the current month if opening inventory is allocated to Class I and there was an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat in producer milk classified in Class II milk the previous month after allocating other source milk and shrinkage. Handled in this manner, milk from inventory will be priced to handlers identically with milk derived from current receipts of producer milk during the month.

9. Class II price. An operating cooperative association proposed to reduce the butter-powder formula component of the Class II price 6 cents for the flush production months of March through July. At the hearing the proponent expanded his original proposal and requested that the formula be reduced 6 cents during all months. A bargaining cooperative supported the proposal as contained in the notice of hearing but opposed the lowering of the Class II price during the low production period of August through February.

In determining the level of a Class II price, two rough measures set the upper and lower limits of such price. The price should not be so low as to encourage handlers to add Grade A production for manufacturing use. On the other extreme, the price should not be so high as to discourage handlers from processing the normal reserve supply of the market.

Exhibits introduced at the hearing indicate that there has been a steady increase in the volume of Class II milk since the promulgation of the order. Thus it is obvious that the Class II price is not so high as to discourage handlers from accepting the normal surplus of the market. However, the bargaining association testified that in the past it sometimes had difficulty obtaining the order Class II price in flush production months but had not experienced such difficulty in the shorter production months.

In the Ozarks marketing area average daily production in the flush month of this year was approximately 166 percent of the average daily production in the previous short month. Production in the flush month of 1955 was about 161 percent of production in the previous short month. Producers supplying the St. Louis market, however, in the flush months of the same years produced approximately 145 and 150 percent of production in the previous short production month.

The greater flush of milk which must be manufactured in the Ozarks area supports the request that the Ozarks Class II price be reduced to the St. Louis level, at least during the heavier production months. The close alignment between the Ozarks and the St. Louis Class II prices in these months is necessitated by the close proximity of St. Louis supply plants which compete directly with Ozarks handlers for the supplies of milk and in the marketing of manufactured dairy products.

During the shorter production months, however, when the St. Louis market has very little surplus the competitive value of the Ozarks surplus is increased. The testimony of the bargaining cooperative supports this conclusion.

It is therefore concluded that the butter-powder component of the Class II price should be reduced by 6 cents to the same level as is provided in the St. Louis order for the flush months of March through July but should remain at the same level as now contained in the order for the period of August through February.

10. Administrative provisions—(a) Interest and set-off. The proposal to add one-half of one percent of any amount due the producer settlement fund for each month or any portion thereof that such payment is overdue should be allowed. This interest rate is not a penalty but represents a fair price for the use of producers' money. Charging interest will avoid giving a handler any incentive to retain money temporarily for use in his business after the date on which it is due the fund.

A cooperative association proposed that the market administrator be allowed to deduct from payments due handlers out of the producer-settlement fund, any amounts such handler may owe the market administrator as on adjustment of accounts for marketing services or for expense of administration.

There had been instances during the past year when handlers had received payment from the producer-settlement fund while having balances due the market administrator for marketing services or administration expense. To the extent that a handler is successful in such practices, the market administrator is denied payment for services performed. It is not the intent of the order to guarantee payment to a handler from an account trusted by the administrator when such handler is overdue in his payments to the administrator. It is therefore concluded that the order should be amended to prevent the occurrence of this inequity in the future.

(b) Other source milk. The definition of other source milk should be clarified to require accounting for receipts of Class II products only if they are used in a handler's plant to produce another product rather than on the basis of whether or not such receipts are in fluid form. The entire definition should also be rephrased to conform to that in the St. Louis order, since the two orders involve some of the same handlers. No changes in the cost of milk to handlers are involved in these modifications.

(c) Reconstituted fluid milk products. The order should provide more specifically for computing all the nonfat solids in Class I items on the basis of skim milk equivalent. This can be accomplished by specifying that the skim milk equivalent of reconstituted fluid milk products be defined as Class I utilization. One type of "reconstituted product" is made by adding condensed skim milk or nonfat dry milk to such Class I items as fluid skim milk, buttermilk, and chocolate drinks. Since such products compete directly with producer milk, the skim milk equivalent should be classified as Class I and has been so considered by the market administrator. Reconstitution of solids in the manufacture of Class II products, such as ice cream, can also affect the quantity of milk in Class I through the allocation process, and solids so used should also be converted to the skim milk equivalent.

(d) Class II transfers. Producers proposed that the transfer provisions should be amended to allow under certain conditions Class II transfer or diversion of bulk milk to a nonpool plant located not more than 100 miles from the marketing area. The present order classifies bulk milk so moved to a nonpool plant located more than 50 miles from the area as Class I.

Producers testified that with the advent of bulk milk, it is sometimes more economical to divert producer milk during flush production periods to manufacturing plants which are outside the 50 mile zone but which are nearer to producers' farms than are plants within the fifty-mile zone. Also, finding number 9 of this decision indicates the severe competition between Ozarks and St. Louis order producers for the disposal of surplus milk. Therefore, it is concluded that this proposal should be allowed.

(e) Class I price. Effective April 1, 1956, the Class I price was related to the St. Louis Class I price for the months of April, May, and June, instead of being based on a differential over the basic formula price. The phrasing of the amendment inadvertently deleted all reference to Class I prices for these months in the years following 1956. The Class I price provisions for the months of April, May, and June which were in effect prior to April 1, 1956, should be reinstated.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Rulings. Within the period reserved for filing exceptions to the recommended decision, exceptions were submitted on behalf of interested parties. These exceptions have been fully considered and to the extent to which the findings and conclusions of this decision are at variance with the exceptions, such exceptions are hereby overruled.

Determination of representative period. The month of January 1957, is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of the order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Ozarks marketing area, in the manner set forth in the attached amending order, is approved or favored by producers, as defined in the order, as amended, and as proposed hereby to be further amended, who, during such representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area as defined in the order, as amended, and as proposed hereby to be further amended.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Ozarks Marketing Area", and "Order Amending the Order, as amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Ozarks Marketing Area", which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended by the attached order which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of March 1957.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

Order[1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Ozarks Marketing Area

§ 921.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held at Springfield, Missouri, on September 24 and 25, 1956, upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Ozarks marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Ozarks marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended as set forth below:

1. Amend § 921.7 by deleting the words following the semicolon in (b) "which milk is delivered from the farm to a pool plant or diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant for the account of a handler" and substituting therefor the following: "which milk is (1) delivered from the farm to a pool plant, or (2) diverted during any of the months of February through August, or to the extent of not more than 10 days' production during any of the months of September through January, by a handler from a pool plant to a nonpool plant for the account of a handler."

2. Revise § 921.8 to read as follows:

§ 921.8 Handler. "Handler" means:

(a) Any person in his capacity as the operator of an approved plant or a pool plant;

(b) A cooperative association, with respect to the milk of its member producers which is delivered to the pool plant of another handler in a tank truck owned or operated by or under contract to such cooperative association for the account of such cooperative association (such milk shall be considered as having been received by such cooperative association at the plant to which it is delivered); or

(c) Any cooperative association with respect to the milk from any producer member of such association which is diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant by such cooperative association for its account.

3. Amend § 921.11 to read as follows:

§ 921.11 Pool plant. "Pool plant" means:

(a) An approved plant from which not less than 15 percent of its receipts of producer milk during the month is disposed of as Class I milk in the marketing area to wholesale or retail outlets (including sales through vendors or plant stores);

(b) A supply plant from which a quantity of milk equal to at least 25 percent of its supply of milk from producers and from other pool plants is shipped to an approved plant during any of the months of April, May, or June, or 20 percent in any other month: Provided, That if such plant shall ship 20 percent or more of such supply to an approved plant during each of the months of September, October, November and December, such plant shall be designated as a pool plant during each of the subsequent months through the following August, unless such plant requests nonpool designation by means of written application to the market administrator; or

(c) Any supply plant which ships any milk to an approved plant which is a pool plant in any month during the period from the effective date hereof through August 31, 1957: Provided, That such supply plant shall not be a pool plant for the months of April, May, June, or July, unless such plant makes its milk available to other handlers for distribution as Class I milk in the marketing area. Such milk shall be considered to have been made available if the operator of such plant files with the market administrator on or before the first day of each of the preceding months of August through March a statement offering milk for sale and specifying terms and conditions of sale, including the price or handling charge above the Class I price; such offer to be posted in the market administrator's office.

4. Amend § 921.14 to read as follows:

§ 921.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in: (a) receipts during the month in the form of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 921.41 (a), except (1) such products approved by the appropriate health authority for distribution as Class I milk in the marketing area which are received from pool plants, or (2) producer milk; and (b) products designated as Class II milk pursuant to § 921.41 (b) (1) from any source (including those from a plant's own production) which are reprocessed or converted to another product in the plant during the month.

5. Amend § 921.15 to read as follows:

§ 921.15 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means a person who operates both a dairy farm(s) and a milk processing or bottling plant at which each of the following conditions is met during the month:

(a) Milk is received from the dairy farm(s) of such person but from no other dairy farm;

(b) Fluid milk products are disposed of on routes or through a plant store to retail or wholesale outlets in the marketing area; and

(c) The butterfat or skim milk disposed of in the form of a product designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 921.41 (a) does not exceed the butterfat or skim milk, respectively, received in the form of milk from the dairy farm(s) of such person and in the form of a product designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 921.41 (a) from pool plants of other handlers.

6. Amend § 921.41 (b) to read as follows:

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat:

(1) used to produce any product other than those specified as Class I in paragraph (a) of this section;

(2) in inventory of products designated as Class I milk in § 921.41 (a) on hand at the end of the month;

(3) in shrinkage allocated to receipts of producer milk but not in excess of 2 percent of receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, directly from producers (except producer milk diverted in producer cans to a nonpool plant pursuant to § 921.7) and pursuant to § 921.8 (b) from cooperative associations, plus 1.5 percent of receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, transferred in bulk tanks from pool plants of other handlers, less 1.5 percent of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, disposed of in bulk tank lots to the pool plants of other handlers; and

(4) in shrinkage allocated to receipts of other source milk.

7. Amend § 921.42 (b) to read as follows:

(b) Prorate the resulting amounts between (1) the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in the net quantity of milk from producers, from cooperative associations pursuant to § 921.8 (b), and in bulk tanks from pool plants of other handlers, and (2) the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk.

8. Amend § 921.45 to read as follows:

§ 921.45 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and other obvious errors the reports submitted by each handler and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed, the pounds of skim milk used or disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all the water originally associated with such solids.

9. Amend § 921.44 (d) by deleting "50" and substituting therefor "100".

10. Amend § 921.46 (a) by renumbering subparagraphs "(5)", "(6)" and "(7)" as "(6)", "(7)" and "(8)", respectively, and adding a new subparagraph (5) as follows:

(5) Subtract from pounds of skim milk remaining in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of products designated as Class I milk in § 921.41 (a) on hand at the beginning of the month: Provided, That if the pounds of milk in such inventory shall exceed the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II, the balance shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk remaining in Class I.

11. Amend § 921.51 (a) to read as follows:

(a) Class I milk. For each of the months of July through March the Class I price shall be the Class I price announced for such month under Order No. 3, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis marketing area, minus 27 cents, and for the months of April, May and June the price for Class I milk shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month plus 63 cents: Provided, That 15 cents shall be added to the price for Class I milk at pool plants located in Benton and Washington Counties, Arkansas.

12. Amend § 921.51 (b) (3) to read as follows:

(b) Class II milk. * * *

(3) From the sum of the result arrived at under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph subtract 81 cents.

13. Amend § 921.70 by deleting paragraph (c) and adding new paragraphs (c) and (d) as follows:

(c) Add an amount computed by multiplying the difference between the Class II price for the preceding month and the Class I price for the current month by the hundredweight of producer milk classified as Class II milk (other than as shrinkage) during the preceding month or the hundredweight of milk subtracted from Class I milk pursuant to § 921.46 (a) (5) and the corresponding step of § 921.46 (b), whichever is less; and

(d) Add the amounts computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 921.46 (a) (8) and (b) by the applicable class prices.

14. Amend § 921.80 (a) (2) by deleting the words "pursuant to § 921.89" and substituting therefor the words "pursuant to § 921.87".

15. Amend § 921.84 to read as follows:

§ 921.84 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the twelfth day after the end of each month, each handler shall pay to the market administrator the amount by which the value of the milk received by such handler, as determined pursuant to § 921.70, is greater than the amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of such handler's milk by the uniform price adjusted by the producer butterfat and location differentials: Provided, That to this amount shall be added one-half of one percent of any amount due the market administrator pursuant to this section for each month or any portion thereof that such payment is overdue. Such payment shall be considered to be overdue on the 15th day after the end of the month to which the obligation applies.

16. Amend § 921.85 by changing the last period to a colon and adding the following proviso: "And provided further, That the market administrator may deduct from payments due handlers pursuant to this section any unpaid balance due the market administrator from such handler pursuant to §§ 921.84, 921.86, 921.87 (a) and 921.88."

[Docket No. AO-279]

MILK IN PLATTE VALLEY, NEBRASKA, MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, 900), a public hearing was held at Grand Island, Nebraska, on April 10–13, 1956, pursuant to notice thereof issued on March 7, 1956, (21 F. R. 1538), upon a proposed marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of milk in the Platte Valley, Nebraska, marketing area.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on January 24, 1957, (22 F. R. 569), filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision, containing notice of opportunity to file written exceptions thereto.

The material issues of record related to:

(1) Whether the handling of milk in the Platte Valley, Nebraska, marketing area is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce in milk or milk products;

(2) Whether the issuance of an order regulating the handling of milk in the Platte Valley, Nebraska, marketing area will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and

(3) The appropriate terms and conditions to be included in an order with respect to:

(a) Marketing area,
(b) Milk to be priced,
(c) Classification of milk,
(d) Transfers of milk between plants,
(e) Allocation,
(f) Class prices,
(g) Payments to producers, and
(h) Administrative provisions.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based upon evidence in the record.

1. Character of commerce. The handling of milk produced for the Platte Valley, Nebraska, marketing area is in the current of interstate commerce or directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in milk and its products.

There is interstate commerce in the procurement of milk for this market. One plant from which milk is regularly sold in the marketing area is physically located in Kansas and the majority of its Grade A shippers are also located in that State. Another handler, whose plant is located in the city of Holdrege, Nebraska, has some Grade A producers located in Kansas. Also, this market has regularly depended upon bulk supplemental milk in the fall months when local production is seasonally low. Such supplies are commonly obtained from plants located in Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. These sources were drawn upon in each of the months of July through December 1954 and August through November 1955. Supplemental milk is also obtained from plants regulated under the Federal milk marketing order for the Omaha-Lincoln-Council Bluffs (Nebraska-Iowa) marketing area. Some of this other Federal order milk is obtained in bulk form during the same months cited above but other portions are regularly obtained in bottled form throughout the year.

There is also direct interstate commerce in the distribution of milk. One handler distributes regularly into Colorado points from a plant located at North Platte, Nebraska. Another distributes regularly into Kansas points from a plant at Holdrege. A subdealer who does no pasteurizing or bottling of Grade A milk, purchases bottled Grade A milk at wholesale from two plants located in the marketing area and distributes it to various points in Kansas.

The production and distribution of milk for fluid purposes in the Platte Valley market is also closely related to the production and sale of milk for manufacturing purposes. It is generally recognized that the manufactured dairy products are sufficiently storable and transportable to be produced and sold on a national market. The producers of Grade A milk for the Platte Valley market are intermingled with the producers of manufacturing grade milk and the prices paid to producers for Grade A milk are established at a sufficient premium over manufacturing prices to encourage producers to undertake the additional expenses involved in Grade A production. Furthermore, the excess milk over and above fluid requirements for the North Platte market is either converted into manufactured products in the handlers' plants or is transferred to specialized manufacturing plants. In either case, substantial portions of the resulting products are sold in interstate commerce and all of them are in direct competition with manufactured dairy products moving in interstate commerce.

It will be noted that there is interstate commerce in three major respects; procurement of milk for the market, distribution by handlers, and in close relationships with the national markets for manufactured dairy products.

2. Need for regulation. Marketing conditions in the Platte Valley area are such that the issuance of a marketing order, such as that set forth herein, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act with respect to milk produced for the Platte Valley fluid milk market.

Stability of marketing conditions and reasonable certainty of an adequate supply of pure and wholesome milk can be assured for this marketing area only when all milk handlers in the area have reasonably equal costs of milk according to use and only when farmers supplying the market receive substantially the same prices per hundredweight for milk of equal quality.

These conditions do not now exist. A cooperative association of producers supplies nearly all the milk used by dealers whose plants are located in Grand Island and Hastings. The association sells milk on a class use basis whereby each of the distributors pays the same price for milk used in each of four specified classes. The association pools the sales returns, and each producer is paid the uniform price, subject only to variations in butterfat content and in seasonality of production.

A diversity of purchase plans is in effect at other plants in the area. Both of the handlers operating plants at North Platte pay producers under base and excess plans. One of them assigned his producers fixed bases which remained unchanged regardless of subsequent production changes. The other handler operated a base plan under which individual producers established new bases each fall. However, the proportion of milk paid for at the base price was adjusted to the handler's Class I volume. Moreover, a discounted Class I price was paid by this handler for milk sold in an area outside of North Platte and a discounted Class II price for such portion of the excess milk as could not be accommodated in the handler's plant and had to be separated for sale as cream.

A handler whose plant is located in Kearney paid producers a single price for Grade A milk in each month of 1954 and 1955. In January 1956, he began to pay a separate price, based solely on butterfat values, for milk utilized for manufacturing purposes. A handler at Holdrege had utilized a base-excess plan for a few years, but was paying a blend price for the several months just prior to the hearing.

These variations in price plans and in net prices paid to producers reflect different raw material costs to the various dealers who are selling milk in the marketing area. A condition of unequal costs among the dealers may cause them to attempt to economize by reducing prices to producers. This in turn would tend to stimulate successive price reductions by competitors. This development is contrary to the interests of producers and over a period of time may jeopardize an adequate supply of milk. Alternatively, some handlers may attempt to achieve equality by reducing the quantity of their purchases of milk in order to obtain the highest possible proportion of the higher valued uses of milk. This reaction, however, may result in intermittent shortages of supply for the market.

If producers receive widely varying prices for their milk, they tend to shift around among milk dealers and to shift in and out of the market. Such shifts may become sufficiently frequent as to jeopardize a dependable supply of pure and wholesome milk.

A marketing agreement and order program is needed to establish and maintain orderly marketing conditions throughout the marketing area. The thorough auditing of the utilization of all milk received by handlers, the checking of butterfat tests and weights of all producer milk, and the publication of complete supply and use data for the market will aid in this objective by assuring producers that they will receive a proper accounting for their milk and by providing full information on market developments.

3. Terms and conditions—(a) Marketing area. The Platte Valley marketing area should include all of the territory within the corporate limits of the six cities of Grand Island, Hastings, Holdrege, Kearney, Lexington, and North Platte and should also include the Naval Ammunition Depot, Hastings, all in the State of Nebraska.

These six cities are served by nine handlers, one of whom operates two fluid milk processing and bottling plants. Four of the ten plants are located in Grand Island, two each in Hastings and North Platte, and one each in Kearney and Holdrege. These handlers are in close competition with each other throughout the marketing area. Two of the handlers cover all six cities, one of them serving the area from two plants. Three other handlers distribute milk in four of the six cities and the remaining four handlers serve only one city each. The Naval Depot purchases milk under contracts which are let on a competitive bid basis.

The six cities all require that milk distributed for fluid purposes meet Grade A standards. In each city, sanitary regulations are patterned on the U. S. Public Health Service standards for Grade A milk and are substantially uniform. The Naval Depot sets its own standards but, in practice, plants which have qualified for Grade A distribution in the named cities have been acceptable to the military authorities. It is clear, therefore, that milk produced under conditions which make it acceptable for fluid use are substantially uniform throughout the defined marketing area. It follows that a single structure of prices to handlers based on utilization and a uniform blend price to producers will be appropriate.

Producers proposed that the entire area of Hall County, which includes the city of Grand Island, and of Adams County, which includes the city of Hastings, be included in the marketing area. However, there are no Grade A ordinances in effect in the counties outside of the two principal cities. Accordingly, milk sold for fluid purposes in the county areas would not necessarily be of the same quality as that sold in the designated cities, and the same prices would not be appropriate.

(b) Milk to be priced. The type of regulation provided by a milk order is essentially a matter of establishing minimum prices to be paid to dairy farmers who produce milk for the market. The scope of such regulation may be made specific by providing appropriate definitions of the terms "producer," "handler," and "pool plant."

The primary factor in determining which dairy farmers are producers for the market is the plant to which they deliver their milk. Marketing conditions described in the record indicate that the most practical method of order regulation would be to establish minimum prices to all farmers delivering milk to plants from which milk is regularly distributed in the marketing area.

Handlers selling milk in the proposed Platte Valley marketing area receive their milk from dairy farmers at the plants where it is packaged for fluid distribution. Virtually all the plant operators who distribute any milk in the area have the preponderant part of their distribution in the defined marketing area. However, the record does contain mention of a plant operator who appears to have only a marginal portion of his total sales in the defined area. The order should, therefore, stipulate a level of within-the-area operations for determining whether this plant or others which may currently or subsequently distribute milk in the marketing area are to be fully regulated.

It was proposed by producers that plants from which a volume of Class I milk equal to the lesser of (1) 5 percent of total receipts or (2) an average of 600 pounds per day was distributed in the marketing area should be pool plants. The 600-pound limit was included as an alternative because of the possibility that 5 percent of the receipts of some large plant would be so large a quantity in relation to sales of other handlers as to constitute a major influence in the market and thereby require complete regulation. It is concluded that the quantity limitation is the appropriate measure of whether a plant is sufficiently identified with the market to be fully subject to the pricing, payment, and pooling provisions of the order. The limit of 600 pounds per day is designed to represent a normal-sized retail route or small to medium combination retail and wholesale route. Such volume is not considered a significant factor in this market and it is, therefore, not necessary that such a handler be subject to the entire reporting and payment provisions of the order.

Accordingly, "pool plant" should be defined as a plant at which milk received from dairy farmers is packaged for distribution as Class I milk and from which milk is distributed as Class I milk on a route(s) wholly or partially within the marketing area, except plants exempted because they have distribution of less than 600 pounds on such routes.

The term "route" is used in the definition of pool plant to cover a number of types of distributing operations in which handlers may engage in the proposed marketing area. "Route" should be defined as a sale or delivery (including a sale from a plant or a store) of Class I milk to a wholesale or retail stop(s). Such definition would include as route distribution a sale to or through a vendor.

The term "producer" should be defined to mean any person, other than a producer-handler, who produces milk which has the approval of the health authorities of any community in the marketing area or the approval of the authorities at the Naval Ammunition Depot for consumption as fluid milk in such community and is received at a pool plant. The definition should include a producer whose milk is temporarily diverted to a nonpool plant by a handler for his account. Such a provision will serve to maintain the status of producer for a dairy farmer whose milk temporarily is not needed by the handler and would facilitate interplant movements of milk for the purpose of adjusting to short-term variations in supply and requirements. In order that milk which is diverted would continue to be included in the regular pool computations, it would be treated as if it were received at a pool plant.

There are sanitation requirements applied by local governments within the area with respect to approval of the farms from which milk for fluid consumption may be supplied, and accordingly, such a qualification has been included as a part of the producer definition. Such approval may be indirect. For example, one of the health authorities in the marketing area may approve distribution from a distant plant on the basis of the health inspection to which the distant plant is subject. In such event, the dairy farmers supplying such distant plant would qualify as producers under the Platte Valley order. The order provisions would be uneconomic if they had the result that dairy farmers who have met the health standards for the market shared the returns on fluid sales with farmers who have not met such qualifications.

"Handler" should be defined as any person (1) in his capacity as the operator of any pool plant, (2) in his capacity as the operator of any nonpool plant where milk is processed and packaged for distribution on a route(s) in the marketing area, and (3) any cooperative association with respect to the milk of any producer which such cooperative association causes to be diverted from producers' farms to a nonpool plant for the account of such cooperative association.

The handler is the person who receives milk from producers and who is responsible for reporting receipts and utilization of milk and payment therefor, with certain exceptions noted below. A cooperative association which markets the milk of its producer members may for short periods of time need to divert producers' milk from pool plants to nonpool plants. If the association is defined as a handler for such milk, even though it has no plant, the producers whose milk is so diverted will continue to receive the uniform price under the order and their milk will be available for fluid use when needed in the fall months or at other times.

The term "producer-handler" would apply to a person who produces milk and operates a plant from which a route(s) is operated wholly or partly in the marketing area, but receives no milk from producers. The order is not intended to establish minimum prices for such operators, but they should be required to make reports to the market administrator. Such reports are necessary to make a determination as to whether the operator is a producer-handler and will also facilitate accounting with respect to transfers of milk from other handlers.

A further exemption from the minimum price regulation is the handler whose plant is a "nonpool plant" because his distribution in the area averages less than 600 pounds per day. Such handlers should also be required to report for reasons similar to those for producer handlers.

"Fluid milk product" is specifically defined in the order because of frequent reference to this group of items. The fluid milk products are those which constitute Class I use, including milk, skim milk, buttermilk, milk drinks (plain or flavored), cream, and cream mixtures for fluid use.

A definition of "other source" milk is included to distinguish it from the regular milk supply which is priced under the order. There are three potential categories of "other source" milk which may be distributed in the marketing area for Class I purposes without subjecting the originating plants to the pricing and pooling provisions of the order. One of these is represented by distributing plants from which an average of 600 pounds or less per day is sold in the marketing area. Another potential category of "other source" milk is that which pool plants may obtain as supplemental milk, either bulk or in bottled form from unregulated plants at times when their supplies of producer milk are not sufficient to cover their Class I utilization. The third category is represented by receipts of supplemental milk at Platte Valley pool plants from plants which are subject to regulation under other Federal orders.

As previously explained, all distributing plants which sell a significant volume of milk for Class I purposes in the marketing area are defined as pool plants and are, therefore, completely subject to the pricing and pooling provisions of the Platte Valley order. Any plant distributing less than 600 pounds per day in the area would probably have its primary distribution in some other market. It would not be equitable to subject such a plant to complete regulation since its competitors in the other market would not be regulated. Further, since its activities in Platte Valley are so limited, it is not considered necessary to require anything more than such reports and verification as will enable the market administrator to determine precisely the quantity sold in the marketing area.

On the other hand, quantities of supplemental milk received at pool plants can be quite substantial. The Platte Valley market is commonly short of producer milk in the late summer and early fall months of lowest production. This shortage has usually been met by purchasing milk in bulk tank lots from plants in Minnesota, Wisconsin, or other distant points. Under the allocation procedures described in subsequent paragraphs such milk, whether from plants subject to other Federal orders or from totally unregulated plants, is assigned first to the Platte Valley handlers' Class II utilization. This gives local producer milk the priority on Class I use in the market. (An exception, also explained later, is that packaged milk received from plants subject to other Federal orders is assigned to the same Class under the Platte Valley order as in the order of origin.)

No special pricing appears to be necessary for these supplemental supplies. Such milk is commonly higher priced than the prices which have been paid to local producers and also in excess of the price levels provided in the attached order. This supplemental milk has been called upon only when supplies of producer milk were insufficient and, therefore, have not tended to displace producer milk. To the extent these practices continue, the allocation of producer milk to the highest utilization in the Platte Valley plants will continue to be a fully effective means of preventing displacement of producer milk by "other source" milk. If a significant displacement of producer milk by other source supplies occurs under the order, corrective measures can be considered by amendment action.

(c) Classification of milk. The proposed order should provide for two classes of milk. Class I should include all skim milk and butterfat disposed of as milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk drinks, cream and any mixture in fluid form of cream and milk or skim milk. These are the products which are required uniformly by the local health regulations to be made of Grade A milk. Class II should include all skim milk and butterfat used to produce manufactured dairy products which normally are not required to be produced from Grade A milk.

Class II, in addition to including manufactured dairy products, should include actual shrinkage on producer milk in an amount not in excess of 2 percent of receipts from producers and actual shrinkage on other source milk. Unaccounted for milk in excess of a reasonable allowance for plant loss should be Class I in order to require full accounting by handlers for their receipts. Two percent is considered a reasonable maximum allowance for this purpose and the evidence indicates that an efficiently operated fluid milk plant should be able to keep its shrinkage within this allowance. No limit should be placed on shrinkage of other source milk. Such milk is deducted from the lowest use class under the allocation provisions and to classify any of it as Class I would result in reimbursing producers for shrinkage incurred on milk they did not produce. Since it is not feasible to segregate shrinkage of producer milk from that of other source milk in the same plant, total shrinkage is prorated on the basis of the volume of receipts.

Class II should also include the use of skim milk and butterfat for livestock feed to the extent that verifiable records of such utilization are maintained by handlers.

It will be noted that the uses of milk to be included as Class I are specifically enumerated. Collectively, they are defined as "fluid milk products". All other products, including any new items which may be developed, are automatically in Class II.

Handlers have inventories of milk and milk products at the beginning and end of each month which enter into the accounting for current receipts and utilization. Inventory is intended to include stocks on hand of bulk milk, skim milk, and cream and bottled milk and other fluid milk products designated as Class I milk. Manufactured products (Class II) on hand are not included in the inventory account because the milk used to produce such products will already have been accounted for as Class II milk. As previously indicated, handlers will need to keep stock records of such products but they will not be included in inventory for the purpose of accounting for current receipts.

It is concluded that ending inventory should be accounted for as Class II milk. If fluid milk products in inventory are accounted for as Class II milk at the end of a month, it will be necessary to provide a method to deal with the producer milk inventory which is used in the current month for Class I purposes but which the handler accounted for to producers as Class II milk at the end of the previous month. In plants which engage primarily in a fluid milk business, it is quite possible that a decrease in inventory in any given month may exceed their total utilization of milk in Class II. Handlers, at times, also use other source milk in their operations. Producer milk from inventory should have prior claim on Class I sales over current receipts of other source milk. This can be accomplished by considering the ending inventory in one month as a receipt in the following month and subtracting such receipt (under the allocation procedure) in series starting with Class II milk following the subtraction of other source milk. To the extent that opening inventory is allocated to Class I milk and there was an equivalent amount of producer milk classified in Class II milk in the previous month

(after the allocation of other source milk) a reclassification charge should be made at the difference between the Class I price in the current month and the Class II price in the preceding month. This will promote equality in the cost of milk among handlers and returns to producers, irrespective as to whether or not such producer milk is from the previous month's ending inventory or is a current receipt.

In order to provide for the complete and accurate reporting, verification, and auditing of all receipts and uses of milk which are essential to the continued application of class prices, it must be the responsibility of the handler who receives the milk from producers to account for his entire receipts and to prove to the market administrator his claim that such receipts should not be classified as Class I. The handler who first receives the milk from producers is in the best position to satisfy this primary need of a class price plan. Such a handler must be held responsible for reporting the proper utilization of such milk. He must therefore maintain records to establish unquestionable proof of the utilization of the milk he receives.

(d) Transfers of milk between plants. Classification of butterfat and skim milk used in the production of Class II items should be considered to have been established when the product is made. Classification of Class I milk should be established when the butterfat or skim milk is disposed of. However, since some Class I items may be disposed of to other milk plants for processing, separate classification procedure should be prescribed for transfers to other plants.

Milk, skim milk, cream or other fluid milk products transferred by a handler to the fluid milk plant of another handler, except that of a producer-handler, should be classified as Class I milk unless both handlers indicate in their reports to the market administrator that they desire such milk to be classified as Class II milk. However, sufficient Class II utilization must be available at the transferee plant for such assignment after prior allocation of shrinkage and other source milk, as described below. On the other hand, if the transferring handler had other source milk during the month, the assignment of products transferred to another plant to the Class I utilization of such plant should be limited so that other source milk in the transferring handler's plant will not be allocated to Class I milk while at the same time producer milk is allocated to Class II milk in the transferee handler's plant.

Milk or skim milk transferred in bulk to a nonfluid milk plant located more than 300 miles distant is presumed to be used for Class I purposes. The costs involved in transporting milk or skim milk in fluid form such a distance are so large that it would not be economically feasible to move the milk for Class II disposition. Also there are adequate facilities for the manufacture of excess milk into Class II products within a radius of 300 miles. The automatic classification as Class I of milk or skim milk moved more than 300 miles will reduce the administrative expense which would otherwise be involved in having the market administrator verify actual utilization in nonfluid milk plants located at extreme distances from the market.

Cream presents a somewhat different problem since its value is so much greater in relation to its bulk that it may be transported long distances for manufacture. Accordingly, it is provided that cream may be Class II, even if moved to a nonfluid milk plant located more than 300 miles distant from a fluid milk plant if it is clearly labelled as manufacturing grade cream and if prior notice of the intended shipment is furnished to the market administrator.

The more common form of transfer to a nonfluid milk plant by Platte Valley handlers is the movement of excess milk to nearby manufacturing plants. There may, of course, be sales to such plants for fluid purposes. It is provided that transfers of milk, skim milk, or cream from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant located less than 300 miles distant be Class I unless Class II use is affirmatively established. Evidence of Class II use consists of a certification by the fluid milk plant operator that the transfer was intended for Class II use, and verification by the market administrator of the records made available by the nonfluid milk plant operator showing that at least an equivalent quantity of milk was utilized for manufacturing purposes.

(e) Allocation. In view of the fact that the order class prices apply only to producer milk, it is necessary; if a fluid milk plant has butterfat or skim milk other than that received in producer milk, to determine the quantities of milk in each class to be assigned to current receipts from producers. The milk of producers who are regularly engaged in supplying the market should be assigned the Class I utilization first. This is necessary to insure the stability of the classified pricing program of the order. If the order permitted handlers to obtain other source milk whenever it was advantageous to do so for Class I use while producer milk in the plant was utilized in Class II, the order would not be effective in carrying out the purposes of the act. Also, the market would be deprived of a dependable supply of milk. The system of assigning utilization of milk to receipts from different sources which will carry out this objective is set forth in § 1013.46 of the order.

An exception to the general rule of assigning other source milk first to the lowest class of utilization should be made with respect to packaged milk received from a plant regulated under another Federal order. One of the Platte Valley handlers testified that his plant located in the marketing area was not equipped to bottle half-gallons in paper containers. These packages could be obtained more cheaply from this handler's plant at Lincoln, Nebraska. The milk so packaged is fully subject to the classification and pricing provisions of the Omaha-Lincoln-Council Bluffs order. Moreover, the daily and seasonal reserves of milk associated with such milk are carried by the Omaha-Lincoln-Council Bluffs producers rather than by the Platte Valley producers. It is concluded, therefore, that fluid milk products in packaged form which are classified and priced under another Federal order should be assigned to the same utilization under the Platte Valley order.

Under this allocation procedure, the skim milk and butterfat, respectively, remaining in each class is assigned to producer milk by making the following deductions from the gross utilization of each handler starting with Class II milk, except as otherwise noted;

(1) Class II shrinkage of producer milk.

(2) Other source milk, in bulk form, from plants not regulated under another Federal order.

(3) Other source milk, in bulk form, from plants regulated under another Federal order.

(4) Receipts of packaged milk from plants regulated under other Federal orders, according to the classification established under such other order.

(5) Beginning inventory.

(6) Receipts from other handlers (according to classification).

(7) Overage.

Since uniform prices paid producers by each handler are to be calculated monthly, the assignment of utilization described above should be carried out with respect to all milk received during each month. To apply a shorter accounting period would place an accounting and reporting burden upon handlers and increase the cost of administering the order.

(f) Class prices. The attached order provides for two classes of milk. Class I includes mainly that milk which is used for fluid purposes and Class II includes the remaining milk, which must be used principally for the manufacture of dairy products.

In the recommended decision independent pricing formulas were developed. They were designed to correspond closely to the class prices under the Omaha-Lincoln-Council Bluffs order (hereinafter referred to as the Omaha order), at the Platte Valley zone, but to utilize the list of Wisconsin and Michigan condenseries and the form of butter-powder formula commonly used in Federal orders other than Omaha.

Exceptions filed by interested parties emphasize the fact that the Omaha and Platte Valley markets are so closely interrelated that class prices should be directly related instead of only approximately equal. It is concluded that this policy should be followed.

Basic formula price. In order to maintain an adequate and stable supply of milk for the market it is necessary that the price of milk for fluid use be closely related to the prices of milk used for manufacturing purposes. Keeping the Class I prices in line with manufacturing prices recognizes the fact that the most common source of replacement and additional Grade A shippers for fluid milk markets in this region of the United States is the conversion of manufacturing shippers. It also recognizes the fact that Class I prices in the adjacent Federal order markets are based on manufacturing values. The Class I price in the Omaha market is kept in relationship to manufacturing values by using a pricing formula which sets the Class I price at a differential over a basic formula price which reflects manufacturing values.

The Omaha basic formula price is the higher of (1) the average of prices paid to dairy farmers at condenseries located in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, and Iowa, or (2) a butter-powder formula price. The prices paid by the condenseries are representative of the value of milk in a major manufacturing use and are reported promptly enough for use in establishing a Class I price.

A butter-powder formula is included in the Omaha order and in most Federal orders as an alternative basic formula price. It reflects the value of milk in a major manufacturing use, namely the manufacture of butter and nonfat dry milk. There are times when the butter-powder plants compete more strongly for supplies than the condenseries; such competition affects fluid markets and should be reflected in the fluid milk price.

Class I price. The Class I price differential over the basic formula price should be fixed at a level which will reflect the additional costs involved in producing and transporting to market a year-round supply of milk of Grade A quality. Producers will thereby be provided with financial incentive to produce milk of Grade A quality as compared with the costs of producing milk of manufacturing grade.

The level of Class I prices provided by the Omaha order affords the most direct guide to the establishment of appropriate levels of Class I prices for the Platte Valley market. The Class I differential provided for Omaha is $1.40 per hundredweight in all months of the year. This differential has been in effect since September 1, 1952, and has been an appropriate price for that market. The western boundary of the procurement area or milkshed for the Omaha market adjoins the eastern boundary of the procurement area for the Platte Valley market and the production conditions in the two areas are closely similar. Direct competition between the distributors in the two markets is not extensive. However, this is partly attributable to the fact that the largest dealers in the two markets operate plants in each and can thereby avoid the inefficiencies represented by overlapping of sales territories. One of the Platte Valley dealers obtains milk in two-quart paper containers from his plant located in Lincoln in order to avoid the expense of installing bottling equipment in his Grand Island plant for a comparatively small volume of business.

The Omaha order provides for location adjustments to producers on milk delivered by them at plants located more than 45 miles from the marketing area in the amount of 10 cents per hundredweight. The same rate of location adjustment applies on milk delivered to the marketing area for Class I purposes from plants located more than 45 miles distant. The same 10-cent adjustment is reflected in the Class I differential proposed by producers for the Platte Valley market and should be adopted. The Platte Valley Class I price will, therefore, be equal to the Omaha Class I price for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, less 10 cents per hundredweight.

There is no seasonal variation in the Class I differential. A take-out and pay-back plan, described in more detail subsequently, is relied upon as the means of encouraging producers to deliver a seasonally uniform supply.

Class II price. The Platte Valley Class II price should be equal to the Omaha Class II price for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content. To serve its proper function, the Class II price should be at such a level that handlers will accept and market whatever quantities of milk in excess of Class I needs as may arise from time to time. The price, however, should not be so low that handlers will be encouraged to procure milk supplies solely for the purpose of converting them into Class II products.

All products included in Class II milk may be made from unapproved milk. Approved milk which may be used in such products by regulated handlers should be priced at a level which is competitive with the cost of milk or milk ingredients that they may need for Class II products processed in conjunction with their fluid milk business.

The Class II price under the Omaha order and that contained in the recommended decision are nearly identical; in 1955 the Omaha Class II price for 3.5 percent milk ranged from $2.85 in May to $2.95 in September and averaged $2.91. The recommended prices ranged from $2.87 to $2.94 in the same months, and averaged $2.90.

A handler who operates a plant at North Platte, Nebraska, proposed a substantially lower Class II price during the flush months of the year. He testified that during such months it is difficult to find manufacturing outlets for whole milk at points near enough to involve reasonable transportation charges. In such circumstances, it is sometimes more feasible to separate the whole milk, sell the cream to more distant plants, and dispose of skim milk by giving it away for livestock feed or letting it run down the sewer. The handlers, therefore, proposed that the price for Class II milk during such months reflects only the butterfat value of the milk. However, it appears that the circumstances which led to this form of disposition by this handler were occasioned, at least in major part, by a realignment of sales territories between the handler's North Platte, and Grand Island plants. There has since been time for a corresponding readjustment in the procurement of milk at the two plants and it seems unlikely that the necessity for such disposition will recur. Also, the higher Class II butterfat differential provided herein, and described in the following paragraphs, will reduce the value of skim milk. It is concluded, therefore, that the level of Class II prices provided herein will be appropriate.

Butterfat differentials. The attached order provides that butterfat and skim milk be accounted for separately for classification purposes. It also provides that Class and blend prices should be established for milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat, the same basic test as is used in all other Federal orders in this general region except Omaha. It will, therefore, be necessary to adjust Class I and Class II prices in accordance with the average test of the milk in each Class by a butterfat differential which will reflect differences in the value of the milk due to variations in butterfat content.

The Class I butterfat differential for each one-tenth of one percent that the average test of Class I use varies from the basic test should be determined by adding 2.1 cents to the Class II differential. The Class II differential, in turn, should be established at 0.120 times the price of 92-score butter at Chicago.

This Class II differential is somewhat higher than the one proposed by producers. At current support prices for butter and nonfat dry milk, their proposed differential would be 0.111 times the price of 92-score butter. According to the evidence of record the Platte Valley market is commonly more nearly short of butterfat than of skim milk. During the flush season, disposal of skim milk is a more serious problem than disposal of butterfat. Raising the Class II butterfat differential will increase the value attributed to butterfat and will correspondingly reduce the value attributed to Class II skim milk, thus recognizing the higher value of butterfat in relation to solids-not-fat.

Producers proposed that the Class I butterfat differential be 2.6 cents higher than the Class II differential. This reflects the conclusion, commonly accepted in the West North Central States, that 70 percent of the Class I price differential of $1.30 should be attributed to butterfat and 30 percent to skim milk. The proposed 2.6 cents per one-tenth of one percent variation in butterfat content is the proportionate value, when the 3.5 pounds of butterfat are valued at 70 percent of $1.30. The proposed 2.6 cents has been reduced to 2.1 cents in recognition of the fact that the Class II butterfat differential has been increased. The resulting Class I differential will be at virtually the same level as the Class I differential proposed by the producers.

The butterfat differential to producers for milk containing more or less than 3.5 percent butterfat should correspond to the weighted average values of the butterfat and skim milk in producer milk utilized by handlers in Class I and Class II. This follows the same principle as the payment of a uniform price to all producers. Each producer shares equally in the total value of the handlers' Class I and Class II utilization, at the basic test of 3.5 percent butterfat. It is equally appropriate that each should receive the average utilization value of the butterfat and skim milk components for milk testing above or below 3.5 percent.

Location adjustments. Location adjustments should apply to all Class I milk distributed by handlers whose plants are located more than 80 miles from the nearer of the City Halls at Grand Island and at North Platte, Nebraska. The rate of adjustment should be 12 cents per hundredweight for plants located more than 80 but not more than 90 miles distant, plus 1.5 cents per 10 miles or fraction thereof for distances in excess of 90 miles. Distances would be measured by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator.

At the time of the hearing, milk was distributed in the marketing area from a plant located more than 80 miles distant. The quantity so distributed was not sufficient to qualify this plant as a pool plant. However, if this plant or any other begins to sell significant volumes of Class I milk in the area, it should have location credit. This credit should be sufficient to defray transportation costs, since the order is designed to place all handlers on an equal cost basis at the marketing area. Evidence in the record shows that the rate of 1.5 cents per 10 miles appropriately reflects the costs of transporting milk in tank trucks. No separate data were available on the comparative costs of transporting packaged milk. No location adjustment is allowed a distance of less than 80 miles from Grand Island or North Platte since some points within the marketing area are nearly 80 miles from these cities.

Location adjustments to producers should be at the same rates as to handlers but should apply to all of the milk delivered by producers to any plant at which the location adjustments apply.

(g) Payments for milk. The attached order provides for a marketwide pool under which all producers supplying the market would receive the same price for their milk regardless of its utilization by the handler who received it. This type of pool contemplates the uniform distribution among all producers in the market of the proceeds of the Class I and reserve supplies of milk.

The largest cooperative association in the area already pools the returns due its members from all the handlers to whom they ship, and pays all members on a uniform basis. This same uniformity of payment should be extended to all producers whose milk is priced under the order.

The marketwide pool will also contribute to the flexibility of milk marketing in the Platte Valley area in two important respects. One is that supplemental supplies can be freely distributed among handlers without affecting the prices paid to producers at each plant. The second is that temporary or seasonal surpluses can be moved between plants, either by transfer of the milk or of the shippers without affecting the prices paid to producers at the individual plants.

A seasonal incentive plan of the same type as is contained in the Omaha-Lincoln-Council Bluffs order was proposed by producers and should be adopted. Both the procurement and sales interrelationships between the two markets make it highly desirable to utilize the same type of seasonal incentive. With similar plans, producers can more readily respond to long-run changes in supply and demand conditions in the two markets without being disturbed by seasonal differences in price plans. Also, distributors in the two markets will be on comparable competitive footings at all seasons. Under the "take out and pay back" plan the Class I differential remains the same in all months of the year. However, during the flush production months of April, May, and June, an amount equal to 8 percent of the Class I price multiplied by the total production is deducted from payments to producers and held until the shortage months of September, October, and November. One third of the escrow fund is added to the pool in each of these months. The effect is to encourage producers to maximize their production during the months when supplies are lowest in relation to Class I sales and to minimize production during the months of greatest excess.

The order provides that producers be paid once a month and specifies that in the case of qualified cooperative associations the handler shall make payment to the association instead of to the individual members, if the cooperative association has such authority from members and is desirous of exercising such privilege.

Since all producers are to receive the same price for milk (except for butterfat and location differentials), and since the amount which the order requires a particular handler to pay for his milk may be more or less than the amount he is required to pay to producers or cooperative associations, some method of balancing these amounts is necessary. A producer-settlement fund should be established for this purpose. All handlers who are required to pay more for their milk on the basis of their utilization than they are required to pay to producers or cooperative associations should pay the difference into the producer-settlement fund; all handlers who are required to pay more to producers or cooperative associations than they are required to pay for their milk on the basis of utilization should receive the difference from the producer-settlement fund. Amounts paid into and out of the producer-settlement fund for this purpose will be equal, except for minor differences that may result from rounding off uniform prices. In order to permit this rounding off of prices, to allow for unavoidable delays in receiving payments from handlers, and to permit payments to be made to any handler which audit by the market administrator reveals is due such handler from the producer-settlement fund, a reserve should be held in the producer-settlement fund at all times. The amount of the reserve contemplated in the order should be sufficient for these purposes. This reserve would be adjusted each month.

If at any time the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to cover payments due to all handlers from the producer-settlement fund, payments to such handlers should be reduced uniformly per hundredweight of milk. The handlers may then reduce payments to producers by an equivalent amount per hundredweight. Amounts remaining due such handlers from the producer-settlement fund should be paid as soon as the balance in the fund is sufficient, and handlers should then complete payments to producers. In order to reduce the possibility of this occurring, milk received by any handler who has not made payments required of him into the producer-settlement fund during the previous month should be eliminated in the computation of the uniform price in the current subsequent month.

(h) Administrative provisions. The remaining provisions of the order are of a general administrative nature, are incidental to the other provisions of the order, and are necessary for the proper and efficient administration of the order. They provide for the selection of a market administrator, define his powers and duties, provide for an administrative assessment, prescribe the information to be reported by handlers and set forth the rules to be followed in making the computations required by the order. They also prescribe the length of time that records must be retained and provide a plan for the liquidation of the order in the event of its suspension or termination. They are similar to like provisions of other orders, and except as set forth below require no comment.

Expenses of administration. As his share of the expenses of administering this order each handler should pay not in excess of 4 cents per hundredweight with respect to all producer milk received, all other source milk received at a pool plant which was classified as Class I milk, and Class I milk distributed in the marketing area from a nonpool plant. The market administrator must verify receipts and utilization of all such milk; therefore all such milk should be subject to the expenses of administration. Experience in other markets indicates that 4 cents per hundredweight with respect to all such milk should yield sufficient money to cover expenses of administration. If payment of expenses of administration at the rate of 4 cents per hundredweight yields more money than is needed, provision is made for the Secretary to prescribe a lesser rate of payment from time to time.

Records and reports. Reports are required from handlers on receipts and utilization so that the market administrator may make the computations necessary to the marketwide pooling operation and the uniform price to producers. Handlers would also be required to submit payroll reports which would show the details of milk receipts from each producer, the value of the milk received from the producer, deductions therefrom, and net amount paid to the producer.

The order should provide limitations on the period of time handlers shall retain books and records which are required to be made available to the market administrator, and on the period of time in which obligations under the order shall terminate. The provision made in this regard is identical in principle with the general amendment made to all orders in operation on July 30, 1947, effective February 22, 1949, and the Secretary's decision of January 26, 1949 (14 F. R. 444) covering the retention of records and limitation of claims is equally applicable in this situation and is adopted as a part of the decision.

Time schedule. Dates must be prescribed for announcing prices, filing reports and making payments. The following time schedule should allow all interested persons adequate time to perform each function. (These time limits apply to the indicated day of the month following the month for which computations are being made.)

Day of the Month and Function
5th—Announcement of class prices by market administrator.
7th—Submission of monthly report of receipts and utilization by handlers.
9th—Announcement of uniform price and names of handlers who received producer milk and notification to handlers of the value of their producer milk by market administrator.
10th—Payment by handlers of amounts due to producer-settlement fund and for expenses of administration.
12th—Payments by handlers to producers and cooperative associations and by market administrator out of producer-settlement fund.

Milk subject to other Federal orders. A handler who operates a plant at which minimum prices to dairy farmers are established under another order issued pursuant to the act, but nevertheless supplies milk for distribution in the Platte Valley marketing area should be exempt from the provisions of this order, except for reporting his volume of Class I sales in the marketing area. It would be impracticable to attempt to regulate a handler under two separate orders with respect to the same milk. The applicable order should be determined by the volume of Class I sales.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

(c) The proposed order will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(d) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the proposed order are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products.

(e) It is hereby found that the necessary expenses of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler regulated by the proposed order as his pro rata share of such expense, 4 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all milk received during such delivery period from producers, other source milk received at a pool plant and classified as Class I, and Class I milk sold in the marketing area from nonpool plants.

Rulings on exceptions. In arriving at the findings and conclusions, and the regulatory provisions of this decision, each of the exceptions received was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that the findings and conclusions, and regulatory provisions of this decision, are at variance with any of the exceptions, such exceptions are hereby overruled.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Platte Valley, Nebraska, Marketing Area," and "Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Platte Valley, Nebraska, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order which will be published with this decision.

Referendum order; determination of representative period; and designation of referendum agent. It is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among producers to determine whether the issuance of the attached order regulating the handling of milk in the Platte Valley, Nebraska, marketing area, is approved or favored by the producers, as defined under the terms of the proposed order, and who, during the representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale within the aforesaid marketing area.

The month of January 1957 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the conduct of such referendum.

A. T. Radigan is hereby designated agent of the Secretary to conduct such referendum in accordance with the procedure for the conduct of referenda to determine producer approval of milk marketing orders as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 10, 1950 (15 F. R. 5177), such referendum to be completed on or before the 25th day from the date this decision is issued.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of March, 1957.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1013.0 through 1013.95 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c.

§ 1013.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, 900), a public hearing was held upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Platte Valley, Nebraska, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in this order, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 4 cents per hundredweight or such amount not to exceed 4 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all receipts of producer milk, including such handler's own production, other source milk at a pool plant which is classified as Class I milk, and Class I disposed of during the month from nonpool plants on routes in the marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk the Platte Valley, Nebraska, marketing area shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the following terms and conditions:

§ 1013.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.).

§ 1013.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 1013.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or any other Federal agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this part.

§ 1013.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association or any other business unit.

§ 1013.5 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association which the Secretary determines, after application of the association:

(a) Is qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act";

(b) Has full authority in the sale of milk of its members and is engaged in making collective sales of or marketing milk or its products for its members; and

(c) Has its entire activities under the control of its members.

§ 1013.6 Platte Valley, Nebraska marketing area. "Platte Valley, Nebraska, marketing area" hereinafter called the "marketing area" means all the territory within the corporate limits of the cities of Grand Island, Hastings, Holdrege, Kearney, Lexington and North Platte, and the Naval Ammunition Depot, Hastings, all in the state of Nebraska.

§ 1013.10 Route. "Route" means any delivery (including delivery by a vendor or sale from a plant store) of a fluid milk product to retail or wholesale outlets (except pool plants) located in the marketing area.

§ 1013.12 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means only that skim milk or butterfat contained in milk (a) received at a pool plant directly from producers, or (b) diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant in accordance with the conditions set forth in § 1013.7.

§ 1013.13 Fluid milk product. "Fluid milk product" means milk, skim milk, buttermilk, milk drinks (plain or flavored), cream (except frozen or aerated cream) and any mixture in fluid form of cream and milk or skim milk (except ice cream, eggnog ice cream mixes, and sterilized products in hermetically sealed containers).

§ 1013.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in:

(a) Receipts during the month in the form of fluid milk products, except (1) such products approved by the appropriate health authority for distribution as Class I milk in the marketing area received from pool plants, or (2) producer milk; and

(b) Products designated as Class II milk pursuant to § 1013.41 (b) (1) from any source (including those from a plant's own production), which are reprocessed or converted to another product in the plant during the month.

§ 1013.15 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means a person who operates, as his own personal enterprises, both a dairy farm and a milk processing or bottling plant at which plant each of the following conditions is met during the month:

(a) Milk is received from the dairy farm of such person but from no other dairy farm;

(b) Fluid milk products are disposed of on routes to retail or wholesale outlets in the marketing area; and

(c) The butterfat or skim milk disposed of in fluid milk products does not exceed the butterfat or skim milk, respectively, received in the form of milk from the dairy farm of such person and from pool plants of other handlers in the form of fluid milk products.

§ 1013.16 Chicago butter price. "Chicago butter price" means the simple average as computed by the market administrator of the dairy wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any range as one price) per pound of 92-score bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported during the month by the Department.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 1013.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this order shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 1013.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 1013.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 30 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of the funds provided by § 1013.88 the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, his own compensation, and all other expenses necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this order, and, upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Publicly announce, at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made reports pursuant to §§ 1013.30 and 1013.31 or payments pursuant to §§ 1013.80, 1013.84, 1013.86, 1013.87 and 1013.88;

(g) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(h) Prepare and disseminate publicly such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information;

(i) Verify all reports and payments by each handler by audit, if necessary, of such handler's records and the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends; and

(j) Publicly announce and notify each handler in writing on or before: (1) The 5th day of each month the Class I milk price pursuant to § 1013.50 and the Class I butterfat differential pursuant to § 1013.52 (a), both for the current month; and the Class II milk price pursuant to § 1013.51 and the Class II butterfat differential pursuant to § 1013.52 (b) both for the preceding month, and (2) the 9th day after the end of each month, the uniform price pursuant to § 1013.71, and the butterfat differentials to be paid pursuant to § 1013.81.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

§ 1013.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 7th day after the end of each month each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator for each of his plants for such month as follows:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of producer milk;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in fluid milk products received from other handlers;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in other source milk;

(d) Inventories of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning and end of the month; and

(e) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section.

§ 1013.31 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

(b) Each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator;

(1) On or before the 20th day after the end of the month for each of his pool plants, his producer payroll for such month which shall show for each producer: (i) His name and address, (ii) the total pounds of milk received from such producer, (iii) the number of days on which milk was received from such producer, if less than a full calendar month, (iv) the average butterfat content of such milk, and (v) the net amount of such handler's payment together with the price paid and the amount and nature of any deductions; and

(2) Such other information with respect to the utilization of butterfat and skim milk as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 1013.32 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipt and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat handled in any form;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all fluid milk products handled;

(c) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all fluid milk products on hand at the beginning and end of each month; and

(d) Payments to producers, including any deductions authorized by producers, and disbursement of money so deducted.

§ 1013.33 Retention of records. All books and records required under this order to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of 3 years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such 3-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such records, or of specific books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 1013.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. The skim milk and butterfat at pool plants which is required to be reported pursuant to § 1013.30 shall be classified each month by the market administrator, pursuant to the provisions of §§ 1013.41 through 1013.46.

§ 1013.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 1013.43, 1013.44 and 1013.46, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including concentrated and reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of fluid milk products except those classified pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) of this section, or (2) not specifically accounted for as Class II utilization;

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) used to produce any products other than fluid milk products, (2) contained in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the end of the month, (3) accounted for as livestock feed, (4) in shrinkage allocated to receipts of producer milk pursuant to § 1013.42 (except milk diverted to a nonpool plant pursuant to § 1013.7) but not in excess of 2 percent of such receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, and (5) in shrinkage of other source milk.

§ 1013.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall allocate shrinkage over a handler's receipts as follows:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat for each handler; and

(b) Prorate the resulting amounts between the receipts of skim milk and butterfat contained in producer milk and in other source milk.

§ 1013.43 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of from a pool plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of fluid milk products to a pool plant of another handler, except a producer-handler, unless utilization as Class II milk is claimed by both handlers in the reports submitted by them to the market administrator pursuant to § 1013.30: Provided, That the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II milk shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class II milk in the plant of the transferee-handler after the subtraction of other source milk and beginning inventory of fluid milk products pursuant to § 1013.46, and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be assigned to Class I milk: And provided further, That if either or both handlers have received other source milk, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred shall be classified at both plants so as to allocate the greatest possible Class I milk utilization to the producer milk of both handlers;

(b) As Class I milk if transferred to a producer-handler in the form of fluid milk products;

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in bulk form as milk, skim milk, or cream to a nonpool plant located in the marketing area or not more than 300 miles by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator from the transferor plant unless:

(1) The handler claims Class II in his report submitted to the market administrator pursuant to § 1013.30.

(2) The buyer maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which are made available, if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification; and

(3) Not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was actually used as Class II milk in such buyer's plant; and

(d) As Class I milk if transferred in bulk form as milk, skim milk, or cream to a nonpool plant located more than 300 miles by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator from the transferor plant, except that cream so transferred may be classified as Class II if notice is given to the market administrator at least 24 hours prior to shipment, each container is labelled by the transferor as "ungraded cream for manufacturing only", and such shipment is so invoiced.

§ 1013.44 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) In establishing the classification of skim milk and butterfat as required in § 1013.41 the burden rests upon the handler who receives such skim milk or butterfat from producers to prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should not be classified as Class I milk; and

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 1013.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the reports of receipts and utilization submitted by each handler and shall compute the pounds of butterfat and skim milk in each class for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk used or disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all of the water originally associated with such solids.

§ 1013.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 1013.45, the market administrator shall determine the classification of producer milk for each handler as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk assigned to producer milk pursuant to § 1013.41 (b) (3);

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each Class, in series beginning with the lowest priced utilization, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk other than that received from a plant at which the handling of milk is fully subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class, in series beginning with the lowest priced utilization, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk received in a form other than that specified in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph from a plant at which the handling of milk is fully subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing order issued pursuant to the act;

(4) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk in each class the pounds of skim milk contained in fluid milk products received in packaged form which were classified and priced under another marketing order issued pursuant to the act and disposed of in the same form as received;

(5) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class, in series beginning with the lowest priced utilization, the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning of the month;

(6) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk received from other handlers in the form of fluid milk products, according to its classification as determined pursuant to § 1013.43 (a);

(7) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(8) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk contained in producer milk, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be known as "overage".

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section; and

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of the Class I and Class II milk allocated to producer milk.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 1013.50 Class I price. Subject to the provisions of §§ 1013.52 and 1013.53, the price per hundredweight of milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content which is classified as Class I shall be 10 cents less than the Class I price for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content as determined pursuant to § 935.51 (a) of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Omaha-Lincoln-Council Bluffs marketing area (Order No. 35, Part 935 of this chapter).

§ 1013.52 Butterfat differentials to handlers. If the weighted average butterfat content of the milk received from producers classified, respectively, in Class I milk or Class II milk for a handler is more or less than 3.5 percent, there shall be added to, or subtracted from, the respective class price computed pursuant to §§ 1013.50 and 1013.51 for each one-tenth of 1 percent that such weighted average butterfat content is above or below 3.5 percent, a butterfat differential computed as follows:

(a) Class I Milk. Add 2.1 cents to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section for the preceding month; and

(b) Class II milk. Multiply the Chicago butter price for the current month by 0.120 and round to the nearest one-tenth cent.

§ 1013.53 Location adjustments to handlers. For milk which is received from producers at a pool plant located more than 80 miles by shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the City Hall in either Grand Island or North Platte, Nebraska, whichever is closer, and which is classified as Class I milk the prices computed pursuant to § 1013.50 shall be reduced by 12 cents if such plant is located more than 80 miles, but not more than 90 miles from such city hall and by an additional 1.5 cents for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 90 miles.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 1013.60 Producer-handlers. Sections 1013.40 through 1013.46, 1013.50 through 1013.54, 1013.70, 1013.71, 1013.72, and 1013.80 through 1013.93, shall not apply to a producer handler.

§ 1013.62 Other source milk in Class I. In the case of pool plants which are permitted by the applicable health authorities to receive and process non-Grade A milk, non-Grade A skim milk and butterfat in other source milk shall be allocated to Class I up to the extent of verifiable actual disposition of non-Grade A skim milk and butterfat as Class I milk outside the marketing area in localities where Grade A milk is not required for Class I use.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICES

§ 1013.70 Computation of value of milk. The value of milk received during each month by each handler at his pool plant(s) from producers shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class prices specified in §§ 1013.50 and 1013.51, as adjusted pursuant to §§ 1013.52 and 1013.53, and adding any amounts computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) If the handler had overage of either skim milk or butterfat, an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of overage by the applicable class prices; and

(b) An amount obtained by multiplying the difference between the Class II price for the preceding month and the Class I price for the current month by (1) the hundredweight of producer milk classified in Class II, less shrinkage, in the preceding month, or (2) the hundredweight of milk subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 1013.46 (a) (5) and the corresponding step of § 1013.46 (b), whichever is less.

§ 1013.71 Computation of uniform price. For each month the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight of milk received from producers as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 1013.70 for all handlers who filed the reports prescribed by § 1013.30 and who made the payments pursuant to §§ 1013.80 and 1013.84 for the preceding month.

(b) Subtract for each of the months of April, May and June, an amount equal to 8 percent of the Class I price multiplied by the total quantity of producer milk;

(c) Add during each of the months of September, October and November one-third of the total amount subtracted pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section;

(d) Add an amount equal to the total deductions made pursuant to § 1013.82;

(e) Subtract if the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is more than 3.5 percent or add, if such butterfat content is less than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 3.5 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 1013.81 and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk included in these computations;

(f) Add an amount equal to not less than one-half of the unobligated balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(g) Divide the resulting sum by the total hundredweight of milk included in these computations; and

(h) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight. The result shall be known as the "uniform price" for milk received from producers.

§ 1013.72 Notification of handlers. On or before the 9th day of each month the market administrator shall notify each handler of:

(a) The quantity and value of his milk in each class computed pursuant to §§ 1013.46 and 1013.70 and the totals of such quantities and values;

(b) The uniform price computed pursuant to § 1013.71;

(c) The amount, if any, due such handler from the producer-settlement fund;

(d) The total amounts to be paid by such handler pursuant to §§ 1013.80 and 1013.84; and

(e) The amount to be paid by such handler pursuant to § 1013.88.

PAYMENTS

§ 1013.80 Time and method of payment. On or before the 12th day after the end of each month, each handler shall make payment for milk received from producers or cooperative associations as follows:

(a) To each producer for milk, for which payment is not made to a cooperative association pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, at not less than the uniform price computed in accordance with § 1013.71, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 1013.81, the location adjustment computed pursuant to § 1013.82, and to any proper deductions authorized by the producer: Provided, That if by such date such handler has not received full payment for such delivery period pursuant to § 1013.85, he may reduce such payments uniformly per hundredweight for all producers by an amount not in excess of the per hundredweight reduction in payment from the market administrator; however, the handler shall make such balance of payment to those producers to whom it is due on or before the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following that on which such balance of payment is received from the market administrator.

(b) To a cooperative association for milk which it caused to be delivered to such handler from producers, if such cooperative association is authorized to collect such payment for its member producers and wishes to exercise such authority, an amount equal to not less than the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers.

§ 1013.81 Butterfat differential to producers. In making payments pursuant to § 1013.80 the uniform prices shall be adjusted for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat content in the milk of each producer above or below 3.5 percent, as the case may be, by a butterfat differential equal to the average of the butterfat differentials determined pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 1013.52, weighted by the pounds of butterfat in producer milk in each class, the result being rounded to the nearest tenth of a cent.

§ 1013.83 Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to §§ 1013.84 and 1013.86 and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to §§ 1013.85 and 1013.86: Provided, That the market administrator shall offset any payment due any handler against payments due from such handler.

§ 1013.84 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 10th day after the end of each month each handler who operates a pool plant shall pay to the market administrator for payment to producers through the producer-settlement fund the amount, if any, by which the total value computed for him pursuant to § 1013.70 for such month is greater than the sum required to be paid by such handler pursuant to § 1013.80.

§ 1013.85 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 12th day after the end of each month, the market administrator shall pay to each handler, for payment to producers, the amount, if any, by which the sum required to be paid by such handler pursuant to § 1013.80 is more than the total value computed for him pursuant to § 1013.70: Provided, That if the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make payments to all handlers pursuant to this section, the market administrator shall reduce such payments by a uniform amount per hundredweight of milk and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds become available.

§ 1013.86 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses errors in payments to or from the producer-settlement fund pursuant to §§ 1013.84 and 1013.85, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amounts and such handler shall, within 5 days of such billing, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler, the market administrator shall, within 5 days, make such payment to such handler.

§ 1013.87 Adjustment of errors in payments to producers. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payments by a handler to any producer or cooperative association, discloses payment of less than is required by § 1013.80 the handler shall make up such payment to the producer or cooperative association not later than the time of making payments next following such disclosure.

§ 1013.88 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration hereof, each handler shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of the month for such month 4 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all (a) receipts of producer milk including such handler's own production, (b) other source milk at a pool plant which is classified as Class I milk, and (c) Class I disposed of during the month from nonpool plants on routes in the marketing area.

§ 1013.89 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the names of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representative all books and records required by this order to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives;

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed; and

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or setoff by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler within the applicable period of time, files pursuant to section (1) (a) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

§ 1013.90 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendment to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 1013.91.

§ 1013.91 Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this part, or any provision of this part, whenever he finds this part, or any provision of this part, obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall terminate in any event whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 1013.92 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations under this part, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 1013.93 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 1013.94 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 1013.95 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR Part 230]

DEFINITION FOR PURPOSES OF SECTION 5 OF THE ACT OF "SALE," "OFFER TO SELL," AND "OFFER FOR SALE"

NOTICE OF DEFERRAL OF ACTION

The Securities and Exchange Commission today announced that it does not presently contemplate adopting the revision of § 230.133 (Rule 133) in the form announced in Release No. 3698, pending further study of the problem. This announcement is made so as to remove any uncertainty that may exist as to contemplated Commission action with respect to presently proposed or pending mergers, consolidations, reclassifications of securities and transfers of assets.

Notice of a proposed revision was issued on October 2, 1956 (Securities Act Release No. 3698), and a public hearing was held on January 17, 1957 (Securities Act Release No. 3728). Under the proposal the terms "offer," "offer to sell" and "offer for sale" would include the solicitation of the vote and consent of stockholders of the corporation in favor of mergers, consolidations, reclassifications of securities and transfers of assets between corporations.

The Commission intends to continue actively its study of Rule 133. Such study will encompass possible revision so as to provide for more adequate disclosure to public stockholders who are required to approve exchanges of securities in transactions contemplated by the rule, as well as misuse of the rule in connection with illegal distributions to the investing public of securities acquired through the medium of such transactions. The Commission believes that in mergers, consolidations, transfers of assets and reclassifications of securities of the type which substantially affect the right of security holders, such security holders are entitled to equivalent protection as that afforded by the registration provisions of the Securities Act of 1933. The Commission further intends to consider the possibility of submission to Congress of recommendations for legislation to deal more specifically with the problems presented by mergers, consolidations and similar transactions.

Pending completion of further study and consideration of means of achieving greater investor protection, the Commission will treat on a case-by-case basis those mergers, consolidations, reclassifications of securities and transfers of assets which appear to exceed the limited area which was intended to be covered under Rule 133.

Any further modification of Rule 133 by the Commission will be undertaken only after ample opportunity for further public comment thereon.

The Commission is inviting the members of the Bar and other interested groups to furnish their further views on the problems posed by Rule 133.

By the Commision.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

Correction

In Federal Register Document 56–10503, published at page 10418 of the issue for December 28, 1956, section 1113.637 should read as follows:

1113.637 Reorganization and Dividend Branch. The Reorganization and Dividend Branch issues rulings with respect to the determination of the taxable status of exchanges and distributions in connection with corporate reorganizations. The Branch also makes determinations with respect to the taxable status of ordinary, liquidating, and stock dividends. If determinations are made in taxability of dividend cases which affect taxpayers in more than one district it is the responsibility of the Branch to arrange for the furnishing of the advice to such districts.

CHIEF DISBURSING OFFICER

DELEGATION OF FUNCTION OF ISSUING CERTAIN CHECKS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Treasury by Reorganization Plan No. 26 of 1950 and consistent with the provisions of Executive Order No. 6166, dated June 10, 1933, as amended, there is hereby transferred to the Chief Disbursing Officer the function of issuing checks in payment of interest on public debt obligations of the United States. Such checks shall be issued over the title of the Secretary of the Treasury by the Chief Disbursing Officer or such Regional Disbursing Officer or Officers as he may designate.

Such personnel, equipment and records as are determined by the Commissioner of the Public Debt and the Chief Disbursing Officer to be necessary to perform the foregoing function shall be made available by the Bureau of the Public Debt to the Chief Disbursing Officer.

Funds heretofore or hereafter appropriated to the Bureau of the Public Debt covering this function shall, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, be transferred to the appropriation of the Division of Disbursement.

This order shall be effective May 1, 1957: Provided, That its operation may be postponed in whole or in part by the Fiscal Assistant Secretary until not later than September 1, 1957.

Dated: March 19, 1957.

Bureau of Land Management

COLORADO

ORDER PROVIDING FOR OPENING OF PUBLIC LANDS

MARCH 15, 1957.

Pursuant to authority delegated to me by Order No. 541, Sec. 2.5 of the Director, Bureau of Land Management, approved April 21, 1954 (19 F. R. 2473), the following described lands, reconveyed to the United States in exchanges of land made under the provisions of section 8 of the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), as amended, are hereby restored to disposition under the applicable public land laws as hereinafter indicated:

NEW MEXICO PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 45 N., R. 13 W.,
Sec. 27, Part of the NE¼NE¼ described as follows:
Beginning at a point on the south right-of-way line of State Highway No. 145 whence the north quarter corner of said section 27 bears N. 0° 40' W., 30 feet and S. 89° 52' W., 2323.5 feet; thence N. 89° 52' E., 100 feet along the south right-of-way line of State Highway 145; thence S. 0° 40' E., 300 feet; thence S. 89° 52' W., 100 feet; thence N. 0° 40' W., 300 feet to the point of beginning, containing 0.688 acres, more or less, with frontage of 100 feet on State Highway 145, 300 feet on Hazel Street and 100 feet on Naturita Street.

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 7 N., R. 91 W.,
Sec. 35, The south one acre in a tract of land in the SE¼SE¼ described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the north right-of-way line of U. S. Highway No. 40, which is west 24 feet and north 140 feet from the southeast corner of Sec. 35, in T. 7 N., R. 91 W., of the 6th P. M., thence west along the north right-of-way line of said Highway No. 40, a distance of 131 feet; thence north 332.52 feet; thence east 131 feet; thence south 332.52 feet; more or less to the point of beginning, containing one acre.

The areas described total 1.688 acres of public lands.

This revocation is made in furtherance of land exchanges under section 8 of the act of June 28, 1934, as amended by section 3 of the act of June 26, 1936 (48 Stat. 1272; 49 Stat. 1976; 43 U. S. C. 315g) by which the reconveyed lands will benefit a Federal Land Program. This restoration is, therefore, not subject to the provisions contained in the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284), as amended, granting preference rights to veterans of World War II and others.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, P. O. Box 1018, Denver 1, Colorado.

MAX CAPLAN,
State Supervisor.

Notice for Filing Objections to Order Withdrawing Public Lands for the Minidoka Project, Idaho

JANUARY 25, 1957.

Notice is hereby given that for a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause to object to the terms of the above order withdrawing certain public lands in the State of Idaho, for use in connection with the proposed development of the Burns Creek Reservoir site, Minidoka Project, may present their objections to the Secretary of the Interior. Such objections should be in writing, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, and should be filed in duplicate in the Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

In case any objection is filed and the nature of the opposition is such as to warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced, where opponents to the order may state their views and where the proponents of the order can explain its purpose, intent, and extent. Should any objection be filed, notice of the determination by the Secretary as to whether the order should be rescinded, modified or let stand will be given to all interested parties of record and the general public.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-12229]

MAGNOLIA PETROLEUM CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

MARCH 19, 1957.

Magnolia Petroleum Company (Magnolia) on February 19, 1957, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for a sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of change, undated.
Purchaser: Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 7 to Magnolia's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 63.
Effective date: [1] March 21, 1957.

In support of the proposed increased rate, Magnolia states that the contract was entered into in good faith as the result of arms length negotiations and that the long-term contract resulted with the installment price schedule therein. Magnolia also states that because of the competitive nature of the producing segment of the natural gas industry to deny the increased price, which was based upon the "supply and demand formula", would be confiscatory of the seller's property. Magnolia further states that the increasing costs of exploration, production, and processing of natural gas with depletion of reserves, requires additional revenue.

[1] The stated effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days notice, or the effective date proposed by Magnolia, if later.

The increased rate and charge proposed in the aforesaid filing has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules and regulations (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of said proposed change in rates and charges; and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, the above-designated supplement be and the same hereby is suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 21, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner presented by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of, or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.[1]

[Docket No. G-12231]

R. H. GOODRICH

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

MARCH 19, 1957.

R. H. Goodrich (Goodrich), on February 21, 1957, tendered for filing a proposed change in the presently effective rate schedule for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of change, dated February 18, 1957.
Purchaser: United Gas Pipe Line Company.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 3 to Goodrich's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1.
Effective Date: [1] March 24, 1957.

In support of the increase, Goodrich cites the contract pricing arrangement and states that the contract resulted from good faith arm's length bargaining under competitive conditions for an average rate of 22.36 cents per Mcf to be delivered over the 18-year term, but the average rate was broken down into increments at specified intervals and is consequently not a rate increase in any real sense. Goodrich also states that his proposed 21.4-cent rate is reasonable as evidenced by higher initial rates paid in the area under other recently negotiated long term contracts which he cites.

The proposed increased rate and charge designated above has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge, and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 24, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

MARCH, 19, 1957.

Public notice is hereby given that B. Timaeus of Pistol River, Oregon, has filed application under the Federal Power Act (16 U. S. C. 791a–825r) for minor part license for constructed Project No. 1929 located on Little Boulder Creek in Jackson County, Oregon, affecting lands of the United States. The project consists of a rubble masonary dam about 9 feet high with a crest length of about 120 feet; an eight inch pipeline about 2,662 feet long; a frame powerhouse containing a 36-inch Pelton water wheel having a capacity of 386 horsepower connected to a generator with nameplate capacity of 187 kilowatts; an underground transmission line paralleling the pipe line and a 97-foot tailrace from the powerhouse to a discharge point into a small unnamed creek.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure of the Commission (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The last day upon which protests or petitions may be filed is April

NEW ULM CORP. AND TEXAS GAS CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 18, 1957.

In the matters of New Ulm Corporation, Docket Nos. G-3033 and G-9526; Texas Gas Corporation, Docket No. G-9527.

Take notice that New Ulm Corporation, a Texas corporation with its principal place of business in Houston, Texas, filed on September 24, 1954, an application in Docket No. G-3033, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, for authority to continue the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce to Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Tennessee) for resale from production in the New Ulm Field Area, Austin County, Texas, all as more fully described in the application.

On October 21, 1955, New Ulm Corporation filed an application in Docket No. G-9526, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, for permission and approval to abandon the service to Tennessee described in the application in Docket No. G-3033.

Texas Gas Corporation, a Texas corporation with its principal place of business in Houston, Texas, filed on October 21, 1955, an application in Docket No. G-9527, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, authorizing the sale of natural gas to Tennessee, proposed to be abandoned by New Ulm Corporation in its application in Docket No. G-9526.

The applications in Docket Nos. G-9526 and G-9527 state that New Ulm Corporation's assets and properties will be sold to Texas Gas Corporation effective November 1, 1955, and said corporation will continue the sale of natural gas to Tennessee pursuant to the existing gas sales contract between New Ulm Corporation and Tennessee.

The respective applications herein are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 30, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 10, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket No. G-4005 etc.]

C. P. BURTON AND BURTON-PRICE INDUSTRIES, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 18, 1957.

In the matters of C. P. Burton, Docket Nos. G-4005, G-4006;[1] Burton-Price Industries, Inc., Operator;[2] Docket No. G-9709.

Take notice that Burton-Price Industries, Inc., (Burton-Price), Operator, a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Dallas, Texas filed on November 28, 1955, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, authorizing Burton-Price to render service as hereinafter described subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application in Docket No. G-9709.

Burton-Price seeks authority to sell natural gas in interstate commerce to Lone Star Gas Company for resale, from five leases designated as Roberts, Damron, Pavlu No. 1, Pavlu "A" and Woods leases, all located in the East Brady Field, Garvin County, Oklahoma.

C. P. Burton, Operator, filed applications in Docket Nos. G-4005 and G-4006 seeking authorization pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act to continue the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce to Lone Star Gas Company for resale from productions from the Roberts and Damron leases, respectively.

Price-Burton Industries, Inc., executed a contract with Lone Star Gas Company covering the Roberts and Damron leases as well as the other three leases heretofore identified from which it seeks authorization to sell natural gas in Docket No. G-9709 and therefore proposes to supersede the contracts covered by the applications in Docket Nos. G-4005 and G-4006 as such contracts relate to service from the Roberts and Damron leases. It appears that Price-Burton Industries, Inc., and C. P. Burton are owners of working interest in the two leases and merely a change in designation of operator is involved.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 30, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 10, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket Nos. G-8992, G-10116]

STATES OIL CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 18, 1957.

By order issued January 4, 1956, in Docket No. G-8992, States Oil Company et al. were granted certificate authorization to render service to United Gas Pipe Line Company (United) from approximately 288 acres in S 31, T 18 N., R 15 W, in the Greenwood-Waskom Field, Caddo Parish, Louisiana, under contract dated September 23, 1953, as amended April 11, 1955. The original application in Docket No. G-8992 also covered the proposed service from approximately 30 acres in S 6, T 17 N, R 15 W (S. L. Herold Unit No. 1). The order issuing certificate stated that such certificate shall be limited to the sale of natural gas produced from S 31, T 18 N, R 15 W, Caddo Parish, Louisiana. No Commission action was taken with respect to granting authorization to render service from the Section 6 acreage.

Section 31, for which authorization was granted in Docket No. G-8992, represented new acreage. However, the gas from section 6 at the time of filing the certificate application in Docket No. G-8992 was being sold to Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company (Arkansas Louisiana) by Plymouth Oil Company, Operator, pursuant to Plymouth's contract with Arkansas Louisiana to which States Oil Company was not a party.

On March 19, 1956, States Oil Company et al. filed an application in Docket No. G-10116 to abandon service to Arkansas Louisiana from section 6 heretofore mentioned. On October 26, 1956, Arkansas Louisiana filed a statement indicating that it does not oppose the proposed abandonment.

States Oil Company et al. in Docket No. G-10116 has requested permission to abandon service to Arkansas Louisiana, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the act, as hereinbefore described, and to initiate service to United in Docket No. G-8992, from the aforementioned section 6, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the act, all as more fully represented in its filings which are on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

The gas which is the subject in this proceeding will be transported in interstate commerce for resale.

These related matters should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 19, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 8, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

[Docket No. G-8771 etc.]

CITY OF CLINTON, KY., ET AL.

ORDER DENYING APPLICATION FOR RECONSIDERATION AND FIXING DATE FOR HEARING

MARCH 18, 1957.

In the matters of City of Clinton, Kentucky, Docket No. G-8771; City of La Center, Kentucky, Docket No. G-8888; City of Bardwell, Kentucky, Docket No. G-8939; City of Wickliffe, Kentucky, Docket No. G-8962.

In its order issued January 31, 1957, under section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, the Commission, while ordering Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company and Trunkline Gas Company to serve certain other customers, did not grant the applications of the Cities of Clinton, La Center, Bardwell and Wickliffe, Kentucky, for service from Trunkline, pointing out that these cities had not demonstrated the physical adequacy and economic feasibility of their systems because inherent in the computations presented by them was the use of the too-high design-day temperature of 28.8° Fahrenheit. The Commission, however, reopened the record for the purpose of permitting the four cities to present further evidence in support of the economic and financial feasibility of their respective projects.

On February 21, 1957, the cities filed their "Petition for Reconsideration or Rehearing" in which they allege that on the basis of facts already in the record with additional quantities of gas their redesigned projects will be able to meet their third-year system peaks at a design-day temperature of 20° Fahrenheit and will have sufficient revenues to cover their debt service. Therefore, they request that the Commission reconsider its findings and issue the requested allocation order on the basis of the present record. On December 12, 1956, each of the cities had submitted as a supplement to its application, in response to the presiding examiner's decision issued November 23, 1956, an additional engineering study intended to show the ability of its project to meet a demand based on a design-day temperature of 15° Fahrenheit.

The difficulty with the request of the cities for an allocation of gas on the present record is that they have not clearly defined the projects which they propose to meet a design-day temperature of less than 28.8° Fahrenheit so that the Commission has no definite proposal before it on which to act. Even in their Petition for Reconsideration or Rehearing the cities are not explicit with respect to their proposals. They indicate that they have redesigned the facilities to meet criteria adopted by the Commission (see our orders in Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company et al., docket Nos. G-1705 et al., on May 18, 1956, 15 F. P. C. 1421 and June 30, 1956, 15 F. P. C. 46, 70), but they also indicate that the redesigned systems may not be the ones they will build. Therefore, in view of the ambiguous history of these proposals, we are unable to grant an allocation of gas to these applicants on the present record. What is necessary are definite proposals as to the projects to be built and a record in support thereof.

Furthermore, Trunkline has taken an active part in the previous proceedings and has opposed the applications of these cities. Presumably Trunkline will be interested in any new proposals put forward particularly if they require additional quantities of gas and so should have opportunity for cross-examination and for the presentation of evidence. Accordingly we shall set a hearing at which the cities can make definite proposals for service by Trunkline and present evidence in support thereof as contemplated by our order of January 31, 1957.

The Commission further finds: The petition filed February 21, 1957, by the Cities of Clinton, La Center, Bardwell and Wickliffe, Kentucky, and the present record in the above-entitled proceeding do not provide a sufficient basis for reconsidering or modifying the order issued January 31, 1957.

The Commission orders:

(A) The aforesaid petition filed February 21, 1957, with respect to the Commission's order issued January 31, 1957, by the Cities of Clinton, La Center, Bardwell and Wickliffe, Kentucky, is hereby denied insofar as it requests reconsideration on the basis of the present record.

(B) A further public hearing shall be held May 28, 1957, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., at which the Cities of Clinton, La Center, Bardwell, and Wickliffe, Kentucky, shall have opportunity to present proposals for the supply of natural gas to them by Trunkline and to present further evidence in support of the economic and financial feasibility of their respective projects.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G-12230]

E. L. GREEN, JR.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

MARCH 15, 1957.

E. L. Green, Jr., (Green), on February 12, 1957,[1] tendered for filing a proposed change in the presently effective rate schedule for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing, which is proposed to become effective on the date shown:

Description: Notice of change, dated February 7, 1957.
Purchaser: Phillips Petroleum Company.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 2 to Green's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1.
Effective date: [2] March 16, 1957.

In support of the rate increase, Green states that the proposed increase results from the contractual provisions arrived at by arm's length bargaining.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge, and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 16, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate Schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

PRODUCTION FACILITIES FOR MILITARY AND ATOMIC ENERGY PROCUREMENT

1. Expansion Goal No. 224, Production Facilities for Military and Atomic Energy Procurement is revised to apply to facilities which will produce items that are to be procured for support of Department of Defense and Atomic Energy Commission programs.

2. In all cases, the certification of applications under this goal will be limited to those facilities expansions determined to be necessary to support the Department of Defense or the Atomic Energy Commission programs essential to the national defense, such as military production, research and development or service programs, for which there is not sufficient capacity to meet current or currently foreseeable requirements. Certifications will be further limited to apply only to those end items, and special components or special materials pertaining thereto, for which there is no current or currently foreseeable general industrial use. Applications will not be certified under this goal where general commercial and industrial shortages, either current, currently foreseeable or anticipated, are predominant and defense requirements constitute only a minor part of such shortages.

3. In all cases, certification under Expansion Goal No. 224 will be considered only upon a recommendation for approval from the Department of Defense or the Atomic Energy Commission, within the above limitations, and concurrence by the appropriate delegate agency.

[File No. 24D-2029]

WHITE SAGE URANIUM CORP.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

MARCH 18, 1957.

I. White Sage Uranium Corporation, a Utah corporation, 547 East 21st South Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, filed with the Commission on February 13, 1956 a notification on Form 1-A and offering circular, relating to an offering of 15,000,000 shares of 1 cent par value common stock at 1 cent per share for an aggregate of $150,000, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable grounds to believe:

A. That the terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in the following respects:

1. The outside front cover page of the prospectus does not contain the tabulation required by Rule 219 (c) (4); and

2. The financial statements appearing in the offering circular:

a. Do not comply with the requirements of Rule 219 (c) (6) (A) and

b. Do not contain the information required by Rule 219 (c) (6) (B).

B. That the notification and offering circular contain untrue statements of material facts and omit to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, in the following respects:

1. Failure to state that the company's authorization to sell shares in Utah had been suspended by the Utah State Securities Commission;

2. Inclusion of contradictory statements in the notification and offering circular, respectively, concerning the consideration for issuance of the shares outstanding; and

3. Inclusion of maps in the offering circular reflecting ownership of 80 mining claims in excess of those claimed elsewhere in the offering circular to be owned by the company.

C. That use of said offering circular in connection with the offering of the company's securities would operate as a fraud and deceit upon the purchasers of said securities.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place of said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

NEW ORLEANS PUBLIC SERVICE INC.

ORDER APPROVING ISSUE AND SALE AT COMPETITIVE BIDDING OF PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

MARCH 19, 1957.

New Orleans Public Service Inc. ("Company"), a public-utility subsidiary of Middle South Utilities, Inc., a registered holding company, has filed an application and amendments thereto pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-50 thereunder with respect to the following proposed transaction:

The Company proposes to issue and sell at competitive bidding, pursuant to Rule U-50, $6,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds __ percent Series due April 1, 1987. Public invitations for bids will be issued on or about March 21, 1957. Each bid shall specify the coupon rate (which shall be a multiple of ⅛ of 1 percent) to be borne by the Bonds, and the price (exclusive of accrued interest) to be paid to the Company for the Bonds, which price shall be not less than the principal amount of the Bonds and not more than 102¾ percent thereof.

The Bonds will be issued under the Company's Mortgage and Deed of Trust dated as of July 1, 1944, to the Chase Manhattan Bank and Arthur F. Henning, successor Trustees, as heretofore supplemented and as it will be supplemented by a Fourth Supplemental Indenture to be dated April 1, 1957.

The issuance of the Bonds has been authorized by the City of New Orleans, the regulatory agency of the State in which the Company is organized and doing business.

The net proceeds to be received by the Company from the sale of the Bonds will be applied toward financing its construction program, and, if circumstances warrant, toward partial payment, prior to maturity, of its outstanding nine-month 4 percent bank notes due October 2, 1957.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said application (Holding Company Act Release No. 13404) and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the application as amended be granted, effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application as amended be, and hereby is, granted, effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rules U-24 and U-50.

KANSAS

INTRASTATE FREIGHT RATES AND CHARGES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of March A. D. 1957.

It appearing, that upon petition, dated October 26, 1956, filed by The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company and other common carriers by railroad operating to, from, and between points in the State of Kansas, averring that the State Corporation Commission of Kansas has refused to authorize or permit said petitioners to apply to the transportation of certain commodities and traffic moving intrastate by railroad in Kansas, increases in freight rates and charges corresponding to those approved in Ex Parte No. 196, Increased Freight Rates, 1956, 298 I. C. C. 279, the Commission, by Division 2, entered an order on December 6, 1956, instituting an investigation thereon under section 13 of the Interstate Commerce Act:

It further appearing, that a petition has been filed dated January 16, 1957, stating that petitioners failed to state in their petition of October 26, 1956, that the Kansas Commission in its order of December 14, 1955, in Docket No. 41290-R, had removed the Ex Parte No. 175 increases from intrastate rates on cement and that as a result, such rates also violate the Interstate Commerce Act in the same manner as the other actions of that Commission described in the said petition; and requesting the Commission to amend its order of December 6, 1956, to include such intrastate line-haul rates on cement:

It is ordered, That said petition dated January 16, 1957, be, and it is hereby, granted;

It is further ordered, That the order of the Commission dated December 6, 1956, be, and it is hereby, amended so as to include rates on cement moving intrastate in the State of Kansas which fail also to include increases on cement in interstate commerce authorized by this Commission in Ex Parte No. 175, Increased Freight Rates, 1951, 280 I. C. C. 179, 281 I. C. C. 557, 284 I. C. C. 589 and 289 I. C. C. 395;

And it is further ordered, That notice of this amendment be given to the public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, Washington, D. C.

By the Commission, Division 2.

CHROMIC ACID; BALTIMORE, MD. TO DETROIT, MICH.

RATES AND CHARGES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Board of Suspension, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of March A. D. 1957.

There being under consideration the matter of rates and charges, and the rules, regulations and practices affecting such rates and charges, applicable on interstate or foreign commerce of chromic acid, minimum 25,000 pounds, from Baltimore, Md. to Detroit, Mich., as set forth in:

The Eastern Central Motor Carriers Association, Inc., Agent: On original page 331-A to MF-I. C. C. No. A-114, in Item Number 1325, the rate of 98 cents;

It appearing, that upon consideration of the tariff schedules and protests thereto, there is reason to institute an investigation to determine whether they result in rates and charges, rules or regulations and practices that are unjust and unreasonable in violation of the Interstate Commerce Act; and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted into and concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices contained in said schedules, with a view to making such findings and orders in the premises as the facts and circumstances shall warrant.

It is further ordered, That the investigation in this proceeding shall not be confined to the matters and issues hereinbefore stated as the reason for instituting this investigation, but shall include all matters and issues with respect to the lawfulness of the said rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices under the Interstate Commerce Act.

It is further ordered, That the carriers parties to the said schedules be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be forthwith served upon the said respondents; and that a notice of this proceeding be given to the public by posting a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

And it is further ordered, That this matter be assigned for hearing at a time and place to be hereafter fixed.

By the Commission, Board of Suspension.

MARKET AGENCIES AT FORT WORTH STOCK YARDS

NOTICE OF PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF RATE ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), an order was issued on April 22, 1955 (14 A. D. 274), continuing in effect to and including April 30, 1957, the order of April 25, 1952 (11 A. D. 360), as corrected by the order of May 1, 1952 (11 A. D. 434), which authorized respondents, Market Agencies at the Fort Worth Stock Yards, Forth Worth, Texas, to assess the current temporary schedule of rates and charges as set out in respondents' Joint Tariff No. 11.

By documents filed with the Hearing Clerk on February 25 and March 12, 1957, respondents requested authority to put into effect certain modifications in the rates and charges set forth in Article II and Article III of Joint Tariff No. 11. The modified rates and charges petitioned for in Article II are set forth below.

ARTICLE II

SCHEDULE FOR SELLING OR FOR BUYING ON ORDER

	Proposed rate per head
Bulls: 1 head or more	$1.85
Calves:
Consignments of 1 head and 1 head only	.85
Consignments of more than 1 head:
First 15 head in each consignment	.70
Each head over 15 in each consignment	.60
Cattle:
Consignments of 1 head and 1 head only	1.45
Consignments of more than 1 head:
First 15 head in each consignment	1.30
Each head over 15 in each consignment	1.15
Hogs:
Consignments of 1 head and 1 head only	.60
Consignments of more than 1 head:
First 25 head in each consignment	.50
Each head over 25 in each consignment	.40
Sheep:
Consignments of 1 head and 1 head only	.50
Consignments of more than 1 head:
First 10 head in each 250 head in each consignment	.35
Next 50 head in each 250 head in each consignment	.25
Next 60 head in each 250 head in each consignment	.20
Next 130 head in each 250 head in each consignment	.12

The modification petitioned for in Article III of Joint Tariff No. 11 would change the second paragraph of the Article to read:

Purchase Order, when it is necessary to purchase from more than three market agencies and/or dealers a charge of 50 cents shall be made for each market agency and/or dealer over three from which Purchase Order is made $0.50

The modifications, if authorized, will produce additional revenue for the respondents and increase the cost of marketing livestock. It appears, therefore, that this public notice of the filing of the petition and its contents should be given in order that all interested persons may have an opportunity to indicate a desire to be heard in the matter.

All interested persons who desire to be heard in the matter shall notify the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of March 1957.

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas and Acreage Allotments), Department of Agriculture

PART 729—PEANUTS

DETERMINATION WITH RESPECT TO SUPPLY OF VALENCIA TYPE PEANUTS FOR 1957–58 MARKETING YEAR

The purpose of this proclamation is to establish that the supply of Valencia type peanuts for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1957, will be insufficient to meet the estimated demand for cleaning and shelling purposes, to establish the extent of increase in State allotments for States producing peanuts of such type required to meet such demand, and to apportion such increase to such States. These determinations are made pursuant to section 358 (c) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1358 (c)), which reads in part as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the Secretary of Agriculture determines, on the basis of the average yield per acre of peanuts by types during the preceding five years, adjusted for trends in yields and abnormal conditions of production affecting yields in such five years, that the supply of any type or types of peanuts for any marketing year, beginning with the 1951–52 marketing year, will be insufficient to meet the estimated demand for cleaning and shelling purposes at prices at which the Commodity Credit Corporation may sell for such purposes peanuts owned or controlled by it, the State allotments for those States producing such type or types of peanuts shall be increased to the extent determined by the Secretary to be required to meet such demand but the allotment for any State may not be increased under this provision above the 1947 harvested acreage of peanuts for such State. The total increase so determined shall be apportioned among such States for distribution among farms producing peanuts of such type or types on the basis of the average acreage of peanuts of such type or types in the three years immediately preceding the year for which the allotments are being determined. The additional acreage so required shall be in addition to the national acreage allotment, the production from such acreage shall be in addition to the national marketing quota, and the increase in acreage alloted under this provision shall not be considered in establishing future State, county, or farm acreage allotments.

Section 729.804 of this proclamation defines each of the four commonly known basic types of peanuts—Runner, Spanish, Valencia, and Virginia—by describing the outstanding physical characteristics of each type and the areas of the United States in which each is most commonly grown. The definition of Virginia type peanuts includes a requirement that each lot or load of peanuts having Virginia type characteristics must contain a minimum percentage of large, so-called "Fancy", size peanuts, otherwise such lot or load will be considered Runner type peanuts.

Section 729.805 establishes that the supply of Valencia type peanuts for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1957, will be insufficient to meet the estimated demand for cleaning and shelling purposes at prices at which Commodity Credit Corporation may sell for such purposes peanuts owned or controlled by it. Section 729.805 also establishes the total increase in State allotments required to meet the prescribed demand for Valencia type peanuts.

Section 729.806 apportions the increase determined under § 729.805 to States producing Valencia type peanuts. Such increase is prorated to such States on the basis of the average acreage of Valencia type (excluding acreage in excess of farm allotments) grown in each State in the three years 1954–56, but the allotment for no State is increased above the 1947 harvested acreage of peanuts for the State. For the purpose of this proclamation "farm allotments" mean the allotments established for the farms prior to any increase from released acreage or from the additional acreage allotted to farms under section 358 (c), (2) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. The 1954–56 average acreage used for the purposes of the aforementioned apportionment was determined by the State and county committees, in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator, on the basis of data reported by the farm operators and county office records of peanut acreages and production. The same data will be used as the basis for apportioning the State acreage to farms in accordance with the provisions of § 729.827 of the marketing quota regulations for the 1957 and subsequent crops of peanuts, (21 F. R. 9370).

Section 729.807 specifies that the increase in acreage allotted to States under § 729.806 shall not be considered in establishing future State, county, or farm acreage allotments.

Public notice of the proposed determination with respect to the supply of Valencia type peanuts for the 1957–58 marketing year was given (22 F. R. 988) in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). The proclamation is made after due consideration of recommendations submitted in response to such notice. Peanut farmers are now making plans for the production of peanuts in 1957. In order that the State and county Agricultural Conservation and Stabilization committees may establish farm acreage allotments including the apportionment of the additional acreage provided herein for Valencia type peanuts, and issue allotment notices to farm operators at the earliest possible date, it is essential that this proclamation be made effective as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that notice and public procedure thereon and compliance with the 30-day effective date provision of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and the regulations and additional acreage allotments contained herein shall be effective upon filing of the document with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Sec.
729.804 Definition of type of peanuts.
729.805 Designation of type for which increase is needed and determination of total increase.
729.806 Apportionment of increase to States.
729.807 No credit for future allotments.
729.808 Definitions and miscellaneous provisions.

AUTHORITY: §§ 729.804 to 729.808 issued under sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 375. Interpret or apply sec. 358, 55 Stat. 89, as amended, 65 Stat. 29; 7 U. S. C. 1358.

§ 729.804 Definition of types of peanuts. For the 1957 crop of peanuts, the generally known types of peanuts are defined as follows:

(a) Runner type peanuts means peanuts commonly known as African Runner, Alabama Runner, Georgia Runner, Carolina Runner, Wilmington Runner, Dixie Runner or Runner, produced principally in the Southeastern peanut-producing area of the United States and identified by the following characteristics: Typically two-seeded pods which are practically cylindrical, medium sized, stem end round and the other pointed with a slight keel, having shells fairly thick and strong, with shallow veining and corrugation; and seeds crowded in pod with adjacent ends sharply shouldered. Runner type peanuts will also include lots or loads of peanuts having Virginia type characteristics but not meeting size requirements specified in paragraph (d) of this section for Virginia type peanuts.

(b) Spanish type peanuts means peanuts commonly known as White Spanish, Small Spanish, Medium-Small Spanish, or Spanish; produced principally in the Southeastern and Southwestern peanut-producing areas of the United States and identified by the following general characteristics: Typically two-seeded pods, which are small, with both ends rounded, the end opposite the stem having an inconspicuous point or keel, and the waist slender; shells very thin, with veining and corrugation but not deep; and seeds globular to oval and practically smooth.

(c) Valencia type peanuts means peanuts commonly known as New Mexico Valencia, Tennessee Valencia, Tennessee White, Tennessee Red, or Valencia, produced principally in Tennessee and New Mexico, and identified by the following general characteristics: Typically three- or four- and sometimes five-seeded pods which are long and slender, with the end opposite the stem having a definite point or keel with conspicuous veining and corrugation; and seeds globular to oval.

(d) Virginia type peanuts means peanuts commonly known as Virginia Runner, Virginia Bunch, North Carolina Runner, North Carolina Bunch, Jumbo, or Virginia, produced principally in North Carolina, Virginia, northeastern South Carolina, and Tennessee, and identified by the following general characteristics: Typically two-seeded pods which are of an average size larger than any other type; pods are roughly cylindrical, with veining and corrugation deep; and seeds cylindrical with pointed ends; length two or three times diameter, and practically smooth. Any lot or load of peanuts of the 1954 crop which contained less than 25 percent "Fancy" size (peanuts riding a $3\frac{1}{64}$" x 3" slotted screen) will be considered Runner type peanuts. Any lot or load of peanuts of the 1955 or 1956 crop which contained less than 30 percent "Fancy" size (peanuts riding a $3\frac{1}{64}$" x 3" slotted screen) will be considered Runner type peanuts.

§ 729.805 Designation of type for which increase is needed and determination of total increase. The State acreage allotments for peanuts of the 1957 crop for States which produced Valencia type peanuts during any one or more of the years 1954, 1955, and 1956 shall be increased by a total of 1,441 acres. This increase is determined to be the additional acreage required to meet the demand for Valencia type peanuts for cleaning and shelling purposes at prices at which the Commodity Credit Corporation may sell for such purposes peanuts owned or controlled by it.

§ 729.806 Apportionment of increase to States. The acreages established in § 729.805, less reserves of one-fourth of one percent of such acreage which shall be used for adjusting increases in State allotments determined on the basis of incomplete or inaccurate data are hereby apportioned to States on the basis of the average acreage (excluding acreage in excess of farm allotments) of Valencia type peanuts in each State in 1954, 1955 and 1956:

State	1947 harvested acreage of peanuts	1954–56 average acreage Valencia type peanuts	Increase in State allotment for Valencia type peanuts	Previous State allotment	Revised State allotment
Alabama	463,000	305	86	218,429.9	218,515.9

Reserve					3.0
United States total	3,380,000	5,082	1,441	1,610,000.0	1,611,441.0

The above increase does not result in increasing the State allotment for any State above the 1947 harvested acreage of peanuts for such State.

§ 729.807 No credit for future allotments. The increase in acreage allotted to States and farms pursuant to § 729.806 shall not be considered in establishing future State, county, or farm acreage allotments.

§ 729.808 Definitions and miscellaneous provisions. The applicable definitions and provisions in §§ 729.810 to 729.865 of the marketing quota regulations for the 1957 and subsequent crops of peanuts (21 F. R. 9370) shall apply to §§ 729.804 to 729.808.

Issued at Washington, D. C. this 21st day of March 1957. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] TRUE D. MORSE,
Acting Secretary.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Lemon Reg. 678, Amdt. 1]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. 1. Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 21 F. R. 4393), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of § 953.785 (Lemon Regulation 678, 22 F. R. 1713) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(ii) District 2: 239,940 cartons.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: March 21, 1957.

Acting Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Subchapter B—Food and Food Products

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

TOLERANCES FOR RESIDUES OF HYDROGEN CYANIDE

A petition was filed with the Food and Drug Administration requesting the establishment of a tolerance of 100 parts per million for residues of hydrogen cyanide in or on spices and extension of the tolerance of 25 parts per million to certain additional grains. The petitioner subsequently amended the petition to request tolerances of 250 parts per million for residues of hydrogen cyanide in or on certain specified whole spices and to provide for a holding period of 7 days following such fumigation.

The Secretary of Agriculture has certified that this pesticide chemical is useful for the purposes for which tolerances are being established.

After consideration of the data submitted in the petition and other relevant material which show that the tolerances established in this order will protect the public health, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (2)) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (21 CFR 120.7 (g)), the regulations for tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (21 CFR 1956 Supp., 120.130) are amended by changing § 120.130 to read as follows:

§ 120.130 Tolerances for residues of hydrogen cyanide. Tolerances for residues of hydrogen cyanide from postharvest fumigation are established as follows:

(a) 250 parts per million in or on the following spices: Allspice, anise, basil, bay, black pepper, caraway, cassia, celery seed, chili, cinnamon, cloves, coriander, cumin, dill, ginger, mace, marjoram, nutmeg, oregano, paprika, poppy, red pepper, rosemary, sage, savory, thyme, turmeric, white pepper.

(b) 25 parts per million in or on almonds, barley, beans (dried), buckwheat, cashews, cocoa beans, corn, oats, peanuts, peas (dried), pecans, popcorn, rice, rye, sesame, sorghum, walnuts, wheat.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may, at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the effective date thereof, file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330, Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by this order, specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and reasonable grounds for the objections, and request a public hearing upon the objections. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 371. Interprets or applies sec. 408, 68 Stat. 511; 21 U. S. C. 346a)

Dated: March 19, 1957.

[SEAL] GEO. P. LARRICK,
Commissioner of Food and Drugs.

Subtitle A—Office of the Administrator, Housing and Home Finance Agency

PART 3—SLUM CLEARANCE AND URBAN RENEWAL

SUBPART B—RELOCATION PAYMENTS UNDER SECTION 106(F) OF THE HOUSING ACT OF 1949, AS AMENDED

The rules and regulations governing the making of relocation payments under section 106 (f) of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended, 42 U. S. C. 1456, to individuals, families, and business concerns displaced by an urban renewal project, prescribed on behalf of the Housing and Home Finance Administrator by the Acting Urban Renewal Commissioner, as of October 8, 1956, published at 21 F. R. 9991, December 15, 1956, are hereby amended as follows:

1. Paragraph (f) Unpaid rent of § 3.104 is hereby deleted; and

2. The parenthesized phrase "(available from HHFA)" appearing in the first sentence of paragraph (a) of § 3.105 is hereby deleted.

(Sec. 502, 62 Stat. 1283, as amended, sec. 106, 63 Stat. 417, as amended, sec. 305, 70 Stat. 1100; 12 U. S. C. 1701c, 42 U. S. C. 1456)

Issued as of the 26th day of March 1957.

R. L. STEINER,
Acting Urban Renewal Commissioner.

PROCEDURE ALTERATIONS

The standard instrument approach procedure alterations appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 609 is amended as follows:

1. The low frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.6 are amended to read in part:

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Subtitle A—Office of the Secretary of the Interior

PART 5—MAKING PICTURES, TELEVISION PRODUCTIONS OR SOUND TRACKS ON CERTAIN AREAS UNDER THE JURISDICTION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Part 5 (formerly "Filming of Motion Pictures"), of Subtitle A, Title 43, is revised in its entirely to read as follows:

Sec.
5.1 Areas administered by United States Fish and Wildlife Service or National Park Service.
5.2 Areas administered by the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

AUTHORITY: §§ 5.1 and 5.2 issued under R. S. 161, 463, sec. 3, 39 Stat. 535, sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1224; 5 U. S. C. 22, 25 U. S. C. 2, 16 U. S. C. 3, 715 i.

§ 5.1 Areas administered by United States Fish and Wildlife Service or National Park Service—(a) Permit required. No picture may be filmed, and no television production or sound track made on any area administered by the United States Fish and Wildlife Service or the National Park Service, of the Department of the Interior, by any person other than amateur or bona fide newsreel and news television photographers and soundmen, unless written permission has been obtained from the Service having jurisdiction over the area. Applications for permission should be submitted to the local official having administrative responsibility for the area involved.

(b) Fees; bonds. (1) No fees will be charged for the making of motion pictures, television productions or sound tracks on areas administered by the United States Fish and Wildlife Service or the National Park Service. The regular general admission and other fees currently in effect in any area under the jurisdiction of the National Park Service are not affected by this paragraph.

(2) A bond shall be furnished, or deposit made in cash or by certified check, in an amount to be set by the official in charge of the area to insure full compliance with all of the conditions prescribed in paragraph (d) (3) of this section.

(c) Approval of application. Permission to make a motion picture, television production or sound track on areas administered by the United States Fish and Wildlife Service or the National Park Service will be granted by the head of the Service or his authorized representative in his discretion and on acceptance by the applicant of the conditions set forth in paragraph (d) (3) of this section.

(d) Form of application. The following form is prescribed for an application for permission to make a motion picture, television production, or sound track on areas administered by the United States Fish and Wildlife Service or the National Park Service:

T. 46 N., R. 17 W.,
Sec. 16, NW¼;
Sec. 17, NE¼, E½NW¼, NW¼NW¼, and N½SE¼.

The areas described aggregate approximately 2,400 acres.

6. The public lands released from withdrawal, aggregating approximately 95,136 acres, are located in Montrose and San Miguel Counties, in Western Colorado. The major portion of the lands lies between the Dolores and San Miguel Rivers. The lands are west, northwest, and southwest of Nucla and Naturita, Colorado. The soils are shallow and rocky with inadequate precipitation which, in the absence of water for irrigation, of which there is no known source, makes the lands unsuitable for crop production. Vegetative cover is variable over the area, with pinon and juniper on the steep, rocky areas which comprise portions of the area, and sagebrush on the remaining open areas. All evidence indicates that the restored lands are not suitable for development under the homestead or desert land laws.

7. The Commission has conducted no operations on the lands in Public Land Order No. 1092 to determine their mineral potential. Exploration on the remaining lands was done under its direction, and under direction of the Geological Survey on its behalf. Initial exploration was in the nature of a preliminary appraisal by wide-spaced investigational drilling, and resulted in a determination of unfavorability for important uranium deposits. The results of the preliminary drilling, while not conclusive, were not deemed sufficient to justify more extensive exploration. Over large areas no physical exploration at all was done, due to the negative aspect of the preliminary appraisal.

8. No application for the lands described in paragraph 3 of this order may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other non-mineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

9. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands described in paragraph 3 of this order are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 30 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on April 20, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference-right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on July 20, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on July 20, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The vacant public lands described in paragraph 3, and the reserved minerals in the patented lands described in paragraph 4, excepting minerals reserved under the act of July 17, 1914 (38 Stat. 509; 30 U. S. C. 122), will be open to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on July 20, 1957. The S½NW¼ sec. 26, T. 45 N., R. 17 W., will at the same time be so open, subject to the provisions of the act of August 11, 1955 (69 Stat. 683; 30 U. S. C. 621–625). Mining locations made prior to that time are invalid. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws except those in Public Land Order No. 1092, which will be open to such applications and offers on July 20, 1957.

10. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid setlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Denver, Colorado.

HATFIELD CHILSON,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

[CGFR 57-13]

SMALL PASSENGER VESSELS (NOT MORE THAN 65 FEET IN LENGTH)

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

The Merchant Marine Council held a Public Hearing on October 16, 1956, in Washington, D. C., on Proposed Rules and Regulations for Small Passenger Vessels (Not More Than 65 Feet in Length). The notice of proposed rule making and announcement of the public hearing was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of September 6, 1956 (21 F. R. 6713–6715). The Agenda containing the specific proposals considered at this public hearing was further identified as CG–249 and dated October 16, 1956. The revised proposed regulations consist primarily of a new Subchapter T, entitled "Small Passenger Vessels (Not More Than 65 Feet in Length)," in 46 CFR Chapter I (Shipping).

As a result of the oral and written comments received at the Public Hearing held October 16, 1956, or submitted informally by interested parties for consideration, many of the proposed regulations were reconsidered and many suggested changes were adopted. Most of the comments received were based on the effect of the proposed regulations being applied to existing vessels since it was not readily apparent to what extent the proposed regulations would be made applicable to existing vessels.

A pamphlet entitled "Proposed Rules and Regulations for Small Passenger Vessels," Revised Draft, dated March 15, 1957, contains the proposed regulations as revised. These proposed regulations are intended primarily for new vessels constructed after the regulations become effective. An Appendix A to this pamphlet contains a proposed Navigation and Vessel Inspection Circular which sets forth in detail the proposed application of these regulations to existing vessels. It is the intent of the proposed regulations not to condemn an existing vessel because it does not measure up to the exact details of the regulations, but rather to correct all unsafe conditions.

The "Revised Draft" is being forwarded to all those who commented on the original version of the "Proposed Rules and Regulations for Small Passenger Vessels," CG-249, dated October 16, 1956, as well as to all those who have evidenced an interest therein. Copies will be furnished to those interested so long as they are available and requests should be addressed to the Commandant (CMC), United States Coast Guard, Washington 25, D. C. After the extra copies available for distribution are exhausted, copies will be available for reading purposes only in Room 4104, Coast Guard Headquarters, or at the offices of the various Coast Guard District Commanders.

Written and oral comments on the "Revised Draft" of proposed regulations for small passenger vessels and the appendix attached thereto are invited. It is requested that all comments be given to the nearest Coast Guard District Commander as soon as possible, but no later than April 15, 1957. Each District Commander will consolidate the comments he receives and forward them to the Commandant (CMC), United States Coast Guard, Washington 25, D. C., with his recommendations. On the basis of the consolidated comments received from the District Commanders, the proposed regulations will be further revised as may be appropriate and published as soon as possible thereafter in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed regulations will give force and effect to Public Law 519, 84th Congress, approved May 10, 1956 (70 Stat. 151–154, 46 U. S. C. 390). The Secretary of the Treasury by Treasury Department Order No. 167–20, dated June 18, 1956 (21 F. R. 4894), delegated his functions under this law to the Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard. In order to minimize the changes necessary in the regulations in 46 CFR Chapter I, as well as to have all requirements for small passenger vessels in one group, it was decided to have the length of the vessel as a determining factor, regardless of manner of propulsion. The proposed new Subchapter T, entitled "Small Passenger Vessels (Not More Than 65 Feet in Length)," will consist of new Parts 175 to 186, inclusive, in Chapter I of 46 CFR. A general description of the proposed requirements is in the notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated September 6, 1956 (21 F. R. 6713–6715). The titles of the parts are generally explanatory of the regulations proposed and read as follows:

Part	Title
175	General Provisions.
176	Inspection and Certification.
177	Construction and Arrangement.
178	Watertight Subdivision.
179	Stability.
180	Lifesaving Equipment.
181	Fire Protection Equipment.
182	Machinery Installation.
183	Electrical Installation.
184	Vessel Control and Miscellaneous Systems and Equipment.
185	Operations.
186	Manning and Licensing.

For vessels over 65 feet in length and carrying more than six passengers, it is proposed to apply to such vessels the applicable regulations in 46 CFR Parts 70 to 78, inclusive (Subchapter H—Passenger Vessels), as well as certain requirements in 46 CFR Parts 50 to 61, inclusive (Subchapter F—Marine Engineering), and 46 CFR Parts 110 to 113, inclusive (Subchapter J—Electrical Engineering). If the vessel is 150 gross tons or over, certain load line requirements in 46 CFR Parts 43 to 46, inclusive (Subchapter E—Load Lines), may be applicable. To show the proper application of all the regulations in 46 CFR Chapter I to the various types of vessels inspected, the text and/or tables in 46 CFR 2.01, 24.05–1, 30.01–5, 70.05–1, 90.05–1, and 110.05–1 will be appropriately revised.

The authority for the proposed regulations in 46 CFR Parts 175 to 186, inclusive, is the Act of May 10, 1956 (70 Stat. 151–154; 46 U. S. C. 390). The authority for the necessary amendments to 46 CFR Parts 2, 24, 30, 70, 90, and 110 is R. S. 4405, as amended, 4417a, as amended, and 4462, as amended (46 U. S. C. 375, 391a, 416).

Dated: March 20, 1957.

[SEAL] A. C. RICHMOND,
Vice Admiral, U. S. Coast Guard, Commandant.

TECHNICAL STANDARD ORDERS FOR AIRCRAFT MATERIALS, PARTS, PROCESSES, AND APPLIANCES; POSITION LIGHT FLASHERS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Section 514.28 defines minimum performance standards for position light flashers which will be used on civil aircraft of the United States engaged in air carrier operations. This regulation is being amended to make the flashing cycle correspond to the provisions of Part 4b of Chapter I of this title.

All interested persons who desire to submit comments and suggestions for consideration by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics in connection with the proposed rules should send them to the Civil Aeronautics Administration, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Section 514.28 (21 F. R. 6508) is amended to read as follows:

§ 514.28 Position light flashers (air-carrier aircraft)—TSO–C18c—(a) Applicability—(1) Minimum performance standards. Minimum performance standards are hereby established for position light flashers which will be used in civil aircraft of the United States engaged in air carrier operations. New models of position light flashers manufactured for installation in civil air-carrier aircraft on or after the effective date of this section shall meet the standards set forth in SAE Specification AS-211, "Flasher, Position Light," dated November 1, 1948,[1] with the exceptions listed in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) Exceptions. (i) For the purpose of this section, the following shall apply in lieu of section 4.2 of AS211:

The flashing cycle and its frequency shall conform to either (a) or (b) of this subparagraph. A maximum deviation of 5° from the specified periods is permissible.

(a) Red and green forward position lights, top and bottom fuselage lights and white rear position light "ON"	130°
Dark	50°
Red and green forward position lights, top and bottom fuselage lights and red rear position light "ON"	130°
Dark	50°

This cycle shall be repeated at not less than 32.5 nor more than 42.5 times per minute.

(b) Red and green forward position lights and white rear position light "ON"	130°
Dark	50°
Top and bottom fuselage lights and red rear position light "ON"	130°
Dark	50°

This cycle shall be repeated at not less than 65 nor more than 85 times per minute.

(ii) The following shall apply in lieu of the last sentence of section 4.3 of AS211: The flasher contacts shall be adequate for the intended purpose.

(b) Marking. In lieu of the marking requirement of paragraph (c) of § 514.3, the following shall be shown:

(1) Voltage,
(2) Normal motor current—amps, and
(3) Flasher contact capacity—amps.

(c) Data requirements. Six copies each of installation, operating, and maintenance recommendations or instructions shall be furnished the Chief, Aircraft Engineering Division, Civil Aeronautics Administration, Washington 25, D. C., with the statement of conformance.

(Sec. 205, 54 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

[Administrative Order 478]

SPECIAL INDUSTRY COMMITTEE No. 1 FOR AMERICAN SAMOA

APPOINTMENTS TO INVESTIGATE CONDITIONS AND RECOMMEND MINIMUM WAGES; NOTICE OF HEARING

Pursuant to authority under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 201 et seq.) and Reorganization Plan No. 6 of 1950 (5 U. S. C. 611), I hereby appoint, convene, and give notice of the hearing of Industry Committee No. 1 for American Samoa to be composed of the following representatives:

For the public: John D. Stewart, Chairman, Washington, D. C.; Leonard A. Yandall, Pago Pago, American Samoa.

For the employees: Magauli T. Tuitele, Pago Pago, American Samoa; John W. Quimby, San Diego, Calif.

For the employers: Donald D. Doran, Pago Pago, American Samoa; Charles R. Carry, Terminal Island, Calif.

I hereby refer to this industry committee the question of the minimum wage rate or rates to be paid under paragraph 6 (a) (3) of the act to employees in American Samoa who are engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce. The industry committee shall investigate conditions in the industries in American Samoa and the committee, or any authorized subcommittee thereof, shall hear such witnesses and receive such evidence as may be necessary or appropriate to enable the committee to perform its duties and functions under the act.

The committee will meet in executive session to make appropriate decisions concerning its proceedings at 10:00 a. m. on May 3, 1957, and commence its public hearing at 10:00 a. m. on May 6, 1957, in the Legislative Hall, Pago Pago, American Samoa.

In order to reach as rapidly as is economically feasible the objective of the minimum wage of $1.00 an hour prescribed in paragraph (1) of section 6 (a) of the act, the committee will recommend to the Administrator the highest minimum rate or rates of wages which it determines, having due regard to economic and competitive conditions, will not substantially curtail employment in any industry in American Samoa and will not give any industry in American Samoa a competitive advantage over any industry in the United States outside of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and American Samoa. Where the committee finds that a higher minimum wage may be determined for employees engaged in certain activities or in the manufacture of certain products in an industry than may be determined for other employees in that industry, the committee shall recommend such reasonable classifications within that industry as it determines to be necessary for the purpose of fixing for each classification the highest minimum wage rate that can be determined for it, under the principles set forth herein, which will not substantially curtail employment in such classification and will not give a competitive advantage to any group in the industry. No classification shall be made, however, and no minimum wage rate shall be fixed solely on a regional basis or on the basis of age or sex. In determining whether there should be classifications within an industry, in making such classifications, and in determining the minimum wage rates for such classifications, the committee shall consider, among other relevant factors, the following: (1) Competitive conditions as affected by transportation, living, and production costs; (2) wages established for work of like or comparable character by collective labor agreements negotiated between employers and employees by representatives of their own choosing; and (3) wages paid for work of like or comparable character by employers who voluntarily maintain minimum wage standards in the industry.

The Administrator shall prepare an economic report containing such data as he is able to assemble pertinent to the matters referred to the committee. Copies of such economic report may be obtained at the Office of the Governor, Pago Pago, American Samoa, and at the National Office of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., as soon as it is completed and prior to the hearing. The committee will take official notice of the facts stated in such economic report to the extent they are not refuted by evidence received at the hearing.

The procedure of this industry committee will be governed by the provisions of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 511, as revised and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 6, 1956 (21 F. R. 7669 et seq.). Copies of this Part of the regulations will be available at the Office of the Governor in Pago Pago, American Samoa. As a prerequisite to participation as witnesses or parties interested persons shall file nine copies of a prehearing statement at the aforementioned Office of the Governor of American Samoa and two copies at the Office of the Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, Washington, D. C. Each prehearing statement shall contain the data specified in § 511.8 of the regulations and shall be filed not later than April 12, 1957.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of March, 1957.

JAMES P. MITCHELL,
Secretary of Labor.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

[12 CFR Part 220]

[Reg. T]

EXTENSION AND MAINTENANCE OF CREDIT BY BROKERS, DEALERS AND MEMBERS OF NATIONAL SECURITIES EXCHANGES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System is considering a proposed amendment to Part 220 which would somewhat broaden paragraph (f) (2) of § 220.4. That section at present makes special provision for loans which are made for capital purposes to a member firm of a national securities exchange by a corporate affiliate of the member firm. Such corporate affiliates are usually permitted by securities exchanges only when approved by the appropriate committee of the exchange. The proposed amendment to paragraph (f) (2) of § 220.4 would make the provisions of the section applicable to certain additional types of loans for capital purposes, particularly certain such loans between a member firm or member corporation of an exchange and its corporate affiliate.

The proposed amendment would read as follows:

Paragraph (f) (2) of § 220.4 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(2) (i) Make loans, and may maintain loans, (a) to or for any partner of a firm which is a member of a national securities exchange to enable such partner to make a contribution of capital to such firm, or to purchase stock in an affiliated corporation of such firm; or (b) to or for any person who is or will become the holder of stock of a corporation which is a member of a national securities exchange to enable such person to purchase stock in such corporation, or to purchase stock in an affiliated corporation of such corporation; provided the lender as well as the borrower is a partner in such member firm or a stockholder in such member corporation, or the lender is a firm or corporation which is a member of a national securities exchange and the borrower is a partner in such firm or a stockholder in such corporation.

(ii) Make and maintain subordinated loans to another creditor for capital purposes provided

(a) Either the lender or the borrower is a firm or corporation which is a member of a national securities exchange, the other party to the loan is an affiliated corporation of such member firm or corporation, and, in addition to the fact that an appropriate committee of the exchange is satisfied that the loan is not in contravention of any rule of the exchange, the loan has the approval of such committee, or

(b) The lender as well as the borrower is a member of such exchange, the loan has the approval of an appropriate committee of the exchange, and the committee, in addition to being satisfied that the loan is not in contravention of any rule of the exchange is satisfied that the loan is outside the ordinary course of the lender's business, and that, if the borrower's firm or corporation or an affiliated corporation of such firm or corporation does any dealing in securities for its own account, the loan is not for the purpose of increasing the amount of such dealing.

(iii) For the purpose of subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph, the term "affiliated corporation" means a corporation all the common stock of which is owned directly or indirectly by the member firm or general partners and employees of the firm, or by the member corporation or holders of voting stock and employees of the corporation and an appropriate committee of the exchange has approved the member firm's or member corporation's affiliation with such affiliated corporation.

This notice is published pursuant to section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act and section 2 of the rules of procedure of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 CFR 262.2). The proposed changes are authorized under the authority cited at 12 CFR 220.

To aid in the consideration of the foregoing matters, the Board will be glad to receive from interested persons any relevant data, views, or arguments. Although such material may be sent directly to the Board, it is preferable that it be sent to the Federal Reserve Bank of the district which will forward it on to the Board to be considered. All such material should be submitted in writing to be received not later than April 19, 1957.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM, [SEAL] S. R. CARPENTER,
Secretary.

ORDER OPENING LANDS TO MINERAL LOCATION, ENTRY, AND PATENT

MARCH 15, 1957.

1. Pursuant to determinations by the Bureau of Reclamation under the Act of April 23, 1932 (47 Stat. 136; 43 U. S. C. 154), and in accordance with the authority delegated by Document number 43, Arizona, effective May 19, 1955 (20 F. R. 3514–15), it is ordered as follows:

2. Subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, the following described lands shall, commencing at 10:00 a. m., m. s. t., on April 22, 1957, be opened to locations, entry, and patenting under the United States mining laws, subject to the stipulation quoted below, to be executed and acknowledged in favor of the United States by the locators for themselves, their heirs, successors and assigns, and recorded in the County Records and in the United States Land Office at Phoenix, Arizona, before any rights attached thereto:

GILA AND SALT RIVER MERIDIAN

T. 26 N., R. 10 E.,
Sec. 8: E½.

The area described totals 320 acres of public land.

Stipulation:

In carrying on the mining and milling operations contemplated hereunder, locator will, by means of substantial dikes, or other adequate structures, confine all tailings, debris and harmful chemicals in such a manner that the same shall not be carried into the Little Colorado River by storm waters, or otherwise.

There is reserved to the United States, its agents and employees, at all times, free ingress to, passage over and egress from all of the above described lands for the purpose of inspection; there is further reserved to the United States, its successors and assigns the prior right to use any of the lands hereinabove described, to construct, operate, and maintain dams, dikes, reservoirs, canals, wasteways, ditches, telephone and telegraph lines, electric transmission lines, roadways and appurtenant works, including right to take and remove from the lands hereinabove described such construction materials as may be required in the construction of irrigation works, without payment made by the United States, or its successor for such rights. The locator further agrees that the United States, its officers, agents and employees and its successors and assigns, shall not be held liable for any damage to the improvements or workings of the locator resulting from the construction, operation and maintenance of any works of the United States and/or the removal of construction materials from the lands hereinabove described.

3. Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Arizona Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Post Office Box 148, Phoenix, Arizona.

[P. & S. Docket No. 344]

UNION STOCK YARDS COMPANY OF OMAHA (LTD.)

NOTICE OF PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF RATE ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended 7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), an order was issued on January 24, 1957, continuing in effect to and including February 6, 1958, an order issued on February 1, 1955 (14 A. D. 97), which authorized the respondent, Union Stock Yards Company of Omaha (Ltd.), Omaha, Nebraska, to put into effect and assess the current schedule of rates and charges.

By documents filed on February 27 and 28, and March 8, 1957, the respondent petitioned for authority to modify the current schedule of rates and charges by putting into effect, as soon as possible, an increase in the charge for dipping sheep from 10 cents per head with a $10 minimum to 10 cents per head with a $40 minimum. The minimum charge of $40 would be "prorated over all sheep being dipped at same time regardless of ownership."

The modification, if authorized, will produce additional revenue for the respondent, and will increase the cost of marketing sheep in those instances in which the minimum dipping rate applies. It appears, therefore, that this public notice of the filing of the petition and its contents should be given in order that all interested persons may have an opportunity to indicate a desire to be heard in the matter.

All interested persons who desire to be heard in the matter shall notify the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of March, 1957.

Whereas, on November 22, 1955, the Committee isssued a Public Notice (FCC 55M-977) setting forth the purposes and the objectives of said study; and

Whereas, the said study has been deemed by the Commission as necessary to serve and protect the public interest in the wider and more effective use of radio and television broadcasting; and

Whereas, in furtherance of said inquiry the Committee, pursuant to Network Study Order No. 1, has requested data and information relevant and material to said study from various persons, firms, and companies in the broadcasting industry; and

Whereas, most such persons, firms, and companies have cooperated in the making of the study and a substantial amount of information and data so requested of them has been voluntarily submitted to the Committee; and

Whereas, certain persons, firms, and companies have been requested to supply such information and data but have failed to do so; and

Whereas, the Committee has now determined and informed the Commission that in order to carry on and complete said study it will be necessary to take testimony and require the production of documentary evidence;

Now, therefore, It is ordered, Pursuant to section 403 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that an investigatory proceeding be instituted and carried on by the Network Study Committtee concerning the matters and for the purposes set forth in Network Study Committee Order No. 1 and said Public Notice FCG 55M-977;

It is further ordered, Pursuant to the provisions of section 5 (d) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that for the purpose of such inquiry, Chairman George C. McConnaughey, Commissioner Rosel H. Hyde, Commissioner Robert T. Bartley, Commissioner John C. Doerfer, Chief Hearing Examiner James D. Cunningham, and such other employees of the Commission as the Committee may designate, are hereby designated presiding officers of the Commission and each of them, acting individually, is empowered to hold hearings, administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith as authorized by law.

Released: March 21, 1957.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E-6734]

IDAHO POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

MARCH 20, 1957.

Take notice that on March 11, 1957 an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act by Idaho Power Company ("Applicant"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Maine and doing business in the States of Idaho, Oregon and Nevada, with its principal business office at Boise, Idaho, seeking an order authorizing the issuance of unsecured notes aggregating $33,800,000 for short-term borrowings Applicant proposes to make from banks. Applicant proposes to make borrowings, and the renewals thereof, for which authorization is requested during the period from March 1, 1957 to February 28, 1958. Applicant anticipates that said bank loans will be at the current rate applicable in New York City, at the time of borrowings, for commercial bank loans, which interest rate at present is 4 percent. The notes will mature in one year or less from date of issuance. Applicant requests that the authorization include the right to renew such of said short-term notes as expire prior to one year from the date of authorization and that the principal amount of such renewals, if made, either of notes issued under the authorization requested, or of notes issued under the exemptions pursuant to section 204 (e) of the Federal Power Act ($6,200,000) shall not be considered as applying against, or as a reduction of, the aggregate amount ($40,000,000) for which authorization is requested or which may be exempt as hereinabove stated.

Any person desiring to be heard or make any protest with reference to said application should on or before the 10th day of April 1957, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C. a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file and available for public inspection.

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

MARCH 20, 1957.

Take notice that on March 12, 1957 an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission pursuant to section 203 of the Federal Power Act by Virginia Electric and Power Company ("Virginia Company"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Virginia and doing business in the States of Virginia, West Virginia, and North Carolina, with its principal business office at Richmond, Virginia, seeking an order authorizing the purchase and consolidation by Virginia Company of certain physical property and facilities from Roanoke Utilities Company, Incorporated ("Roanoke Company"), a North Carolina corporation doing business in the State of North Carolina with its principal business office at Manteo, North Carolina. The property proposed to be purchased by Virginia Company from Roanoke Company comprises principally of distribution lines, transformers, meters, and appurtenances necessary or used to supply electricity to approximately 800 customers located on Roanoke Island, in Dare County, North Carolina, including the Village of Wanchese and the incorporated Town of Manteo. The consideration for the properties to be acquired is stated in the application to be $200,000 in cash subject to certain adjustments.

Any person desiring to be heard or make any protest with reference to said application should on or before the 10th day of April 1957, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C. a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file and available for public inspection.

COMISION FEDERAL DE ELECTRICIDAD AND CENTRAL POWER AND LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

MARCH 20, 1957.

Take notice that Comision Federal de Electricidad (Comision), a governmental agency of the Republic of Mexico which is successor by order of the Mexican Government to La Junta Federal de Mejoras Materiales (La Junta), another governmental agency of Mexico, in the operation of electric system facilities located at or near Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Republic of Mexico, together with La Junta's facilities and authority for the importation of electric energy from the United States for utilization in that system, with its principal place of business in Nuevo Laredo, Republic of Mexico, on March 5, 1957, filed an application for authorization, pursuant to section 202 (e) of the Federal Power Act, for an increase in the amount and rate of electric energy which La Junta, its predecessor, and Central Power and Light Company (Central) were authorized to export from the United States to Mexico. On March 6, 1957, Central, a Texas corporation, with its principal place of business in Corpus Christi, Texas, joined in the aforesaid application filed by Comision.

By order issued in the above docket February 21, 1952, La Junta and Central were authorized to transmit from a point at Laredo, Webb County, Texas, to a point on the opposite bank of the Rio Grande River at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, a maximum of 15,000,000 kwh of electric energy per year at a rate not to exceed 3,000 kilowatts. Comision, as La Junta's successor, and Central presently seek authorization to increase to 25,000,000 kwh the maximum amount and to 4,500 kilowatts the maximum rate of electric energy to be exported annually to Nuevo Laredo, Mexico.

Applicants state that industrial expansion of the area in Mexico involved has increased requirements for electric energy to the extent that the present authorization to export electric energy granted La Junta and Central in 1952 is inadequate to meet such additional requirements and that Comision does not possess the generating capacity to fulfill them. The application sets forth that Central is able to transmit the additional electric energy at the increased rate without diminishing its capacity to fulfill the demands of its present and prospective customers located in the vicinity of Laredo, Texas, and indicates that all of the energy to be exported in excess of a demand of 2,000 kilowatts will be on an interruptible basis.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the aforesaid application, should on or before the 9th day of April 1957, file a petition or protest with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C. in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.7, 1.8, or 1.10). The application is on file with the Commission and available for public inspection.

[Project No. 2082]

CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR AMENDMENT OF ORDER ISSUING LICENSE

MARCH 20, 1957.

Public notice is hereby given that application has been filed under the Federal Power Act (16 U. S. C. 791a–825r) by The California Oregon Power Company of Medford, Oregon (Applicant), for amendment of the Federal Power Commission's order issued January 28, 1954, as subsequently amended, issuing license for a proposed hydroelectric development at the Big Bend No. 2 site on the Klamath River in Oregon. According to revised plans submitted by the applicant, it now proposes to develop the head at the previously designated Big Bend No. 1 site and Big Bend No. 2 site as a single unit of development to be known as the Big Bend Development. Applicant also requests further amendment of the aforesaid order, as amended, to include a proposed Iron Gate development, and six existing developments. The six existing developments and the two proposed developments on the Link and Klamath Rivers in Klamath County, Oregon, and Siskiyou County, California, are described as follows: (a) Existing East Side Development on Link River consisting of a canal and penstock extending from Link River dam to the powerhouse containing a 4,250-horsepower turbine driving a 3,200-kilowatt generator; (b) Existing West Side Development on Link River consisting of a canal and penstock extending from Link River dam to the powerhouse containing a 1,040-horsepower turbine driving a 600-kilowatt generator; (c) Existing Keno Regulating Dam on Klamath River consisting of a wood-bent structure with earth abutments and control works for maintaining the level of Ewauna Lake and Klamath River between Keno and Klamath Falls; (d) Existing Keno Development consisting of a low diversion dam across Klamath River about one mile below Keno and a short canal extending to two powerhouses containing, respectively, a 600-horsepower turbine driving a 360-kilowatt generator and 695-horsepower turbine driving a 400-kilowatt generator; (e) Existing Copco No. 1 Development on Klamath River about 30 miles below the Keno Development consisting of a concrete gravity arch dam with tainter gates creating a reservoir about 4½ miles long, penstocks, and a powerhouse containing two 18,600-horsepower turbines each driving a 10,000-kilowatt generator, a substation, and appurtenant facilities; (f) Existing Copco No. 2 Development on Klamath River about ¼ mile below the Copco No. 1 Development consisting of a concrete and earth diversion dam, a conduit composed of two tunnels, wood-stave pipe and penstocks leading to the powerhouse containing two 20,000-horsepower turbines each driving a 13,500-kilowatt generator, a substation, and appurtenant facilities; (g) Proposed Big Bend Development on Klamath River to consist of a diversion dam approximately 650 feet long at the previously designated Big Bend No. 1 dam site in the NW¼ section 6, T. 40 S., R. 7 E., Willamette meridian, composed of an earth-fill section, a gated-spillway section, a concrete gravity intake section, and a fish ladder section; a reservoir with normal water surface at elevation 3,793 feet (U. S. G. S. datum) and extending upstream about 3 miles to the tailwater of applicant's existing Keno Development; a conduit about 2¼ miles long, partly steel pipe, partly canal and partly flume, extending to a forebay; a forebay; a tunnel about 1,600 feet long; a surge tank; penstocks about 800 feet long; a powerhouse at the previously designated Big Bend No. 2 powerhouse site in the NW¼ section 13, T. 40 S., R. 6 E., Willamette meridian, containing two turbines each rated at 56,000 horsepower and driving a 40,000-kilowatt generator; transformers; and appurtenant facilities. According to the applicant the reservoir will be so operated as to limit fluctuations of the river below the powerhouse to 9 inches per hour under average weekly conditions; and (h) Proposed Iron Gate Development on Klamath River to consist initially of a reinforced concrete arch dam in the SW¼ section 9, T. 57 N., R. 5 W., Mt. Diablo meridian, constructed to elevation 2,225 feet (U. S. G. S. datum) with valve controlled discharge and creating a reservoir for regulation of the river below the dam. Ultimately, the development is to be completed by increasing the height of the dam and incorporating therein a gated spillway section which will create a reservoir with normal water surface at elevation 2,328 feet (U. S. G. S. datum) and extending upstream about 7 miles to applicant's existing Copco No. 2 Development, and by constructing a short penstock, a powerhouse immediately below the dam containing a single turbine with capacity of about 33,500 horsepower and driving a 25,000-kilowatt generator, a substation adjacent to the powerhouse, and a transmission line extending from the substation to the applicant's existing transmission system at the Copco No. 2 Development. According to the application construction of the initial stage of development is to commence immediately and in both stages of development the reservoir will be so operated as to limit fluctuations of the river below the dam to 3 inches per hour except for conditions beyond the applicant's control.

Protests or petitions to intervene in this proceeding may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure of the Commission (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The last day upon which protests and petitions to intervene may be filed is May 6, 1957. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-3570]

METROPOLITAN EDISON CO. AND GENERAL PUBLIC UTILITIES CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION REGARDING ISSUANCE AND SALE BY SUBSIDIARY TO, AND ACQUISITION BY, PARENT OF SHARES OF ADDITIONAL COMMON STOCK

MARCH 20, 1957.

Notice is hereby given that Metropolitan Edison Company ("Meted"), a public utility company, and its parent General Public Utilities Corporation ("GPU"), a registered holding company, have filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), a joint application. Applicants have designated sections 6 (b), 9 and 10 of the act, and Rule U-50 (a) (3) as applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to the joint application on file at the office of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Meted proposes to issue and sell to GPU, and GPU proposes to acquire, 105,000 additional shares of Meted's authorized but unissued $100 par value common stock for a cash consideration of $10,500,000.

The proceeds received by Meted from the proposed sale of common stock are to be used to reimburse its treasury for expenditures for construction of property additions made prior to January 1, 1957, including the payment of not to exceed $4,500,000 of short-term bank notes outstanding December 31, 1956.

The fees and expenses, including legal fees, to be incurred by GPU in connection with the proposed transactions are estimated at not to exceed $750; and those of Meted are estimated at $33,500, including legal fees of $750, capital stock tax of $21,000, and original issue tax of $11,550.

The applicants state that the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed issue and sale of common stock by Meted; that the order of that commission authorizing such issue and sale of common stock will be supplied by amendment; and that no other State or Federal commission except this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 4, 1957, request in writing that a hearing be held in respect of the joint application, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission orders a hearing in respect thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date the Commission may grant the joint application, as filed or as it may be amended, pursuant to Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules pursuant to Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof, or take such other action as it deems appropriate.

By the Commission.

OLIN REVERE METALS CORP.

ORDER GRANTING EXEMPTION

MARCH 20, 1957.

Olin Revere Metals Corporation ("Metals"), a Delaware corporation, has filed with this Commission an application and amendments thereto pursuant to section 3 (a) (3) (A) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") for an exemption for it as a holding company, and its subsidiary companies as such, from all the provisions of the act, on the basis that Metals is only incidentally a holding company, being primarily engaged or interested in one or more businesses other than the business of a public utility company, and not deriving directly or indirectly any material part of its income from any one or more subsidiary companies, the principal business of which is that of a public utility company.

Due notice of the filing of said exemption application has been given (Holding Company Act Release No. 13395) and no hearing thereon has been ordered by or requested of the Commission. The Commission has examined the statements contained in said exemption application as amended and has considered the full record with respect thereto. It appears to the Commission that the applicable standards of section 3 (a) (3) (A) of the act are satisfied and the Commission finds that the granting of said exemption application will not be detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers.

It is therefore ordered, That Metals, as a holding company, and its subsidiary companies as such, be, and the same hereby are, exempted from the provisions of the act applicable to it as a holding company and its subsidiary companies as such.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective upon issuance.

By the Commission.

WORCESTER COUNTY ELECTRIC CO. AND NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM

ORDER AUTHORIZING PROPOSED RIGHTS OFFERING BY SUBSIDIARY AND PROPOSAL OF PARENT COMPANY TO PURCHASE ALL SHARES UNSUBSCRIBED BY MINORITY STOCKHOLDERS

MARCH 20, 1957.

New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company, and its public-utility subsidiary, Worcester County Electric Company ("Worcester"), have filed a joint application-declaration and an amendment thereto with this Commission pursuant to sections 6 (b) and 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") with respect to the following proposed transactions:

The authorized and outstanding capital stock of Worcester consists of 526,120 common shares (par value $25 per share), of which, as of February 12, 1957, NEES owned 522,533 shares (99.318 percent) and the minority public holders (90 in number) owned 3,587 (0.682 percent). Worcester proposes to increase its common capital stock by the issue and sale, for cash, of 87,686 additional shares, offering such shares to its stockholders at a price of $55 per share on the basis of one new share for each six shares held. Rights to subscribe will be evidenced by full and fractional share warrants, exercisable during a subscription period of 21 days. However, only full shares will be issued. NEES proposes to exercise its rights to subscribe for 87,088 full shares of additional stock to which it will be entitled. The minority public holders will be entitled to subscribe for 597 full shares. NEES also proposes to purchase at the end of the subscription period all unsubscribed shares at the subscription price of $55 per share. The subscription price was determined by Worcester's board of directors after consideration of earnings, dividends, and book value of the Worcester comon stock and other comparable utility company common stocks.

NEES will use treasury funds for its proposed acquisitions. Worcester will apply the proceeds from the sale of the additional common stock, amounting to $4,822,730, to the discharge of a like amount of promissory notes payable to NEES. Worcester and NEES desire to consummate the proposed issue and sale of additional common stock in order to finance permanently a portion of the capitalizable additions to Worcester's plant through the issuance of equity securities.

The Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities has approved the proposed issue and sale of common stock by Worcester. The application-declaration states that no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions and no State commission approval is necessary with respect to the acquisition of securities by NEES.

The expenses to be incurred by Worcester and NEES in connection with the proposed transactions are estimated to aggregate $7,000 and $300, respectively.

Due notice of the filing of the application-declaration having been given (Holding Company Act Release No. 13403, March 4, 1957), in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, and no hearing having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and

The Commission finding in respect of the application-declaration, as amended, that the applicable provisions of the Act and the Rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied, observing no basis for adverse findings or the imposition of terms or conditions, it appearing that the fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions are not unreasonable if they do not exceed the estimates hereinabove stated, and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to grant the application and permit the declaration, as amended, to become effective, forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that the application-declaration, as amended, be, and it hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective, forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

PITTSBURGH RAILWAYS CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION REGARDING PROPOSED ISSUE AND SALE OF PURCHASE MONEY BOND

MARCH 20, 1957.

Pittsburgh Railways Company ("Pittsburgh"), a non-utility subsidiary of Standard Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, has filed an application and amendments thereto pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") concerning the following proposed transactions:

Pittsburgh proposes to issue a 15-year purchase money bond in the principal amount of $280,000 and bearing interest at the rate of 4½ percent per annum. The unpaid balance of the bond may be anticipated, without penalty, on any quarter annual payment date. The bond will be issued to Navarro Corporation, a contractor doing business in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, as part payment for a garage building being constructed by said contractor and needed by Pittsburg for storage, servicing and maintenance of its buses and said bond will be secured by a mortgage on said property. Competitive bidding was observed in awarding the construction contract.

There are no fees or commissions payable on account of the issuance of said bond or mortgage. There are, however, Federal Internal Revenue Documentary Stamps required in the amount of $308 and Pittsburgh has agreed to pay all of the realty transfer taxes involved in the transaction and certain expenses, including attorneys fees, incurred by Navarro Corporation in connection with the transaction estimated not to exceed $12,000. The record is incomplete with respect to said expenses incurred by Navarro Corporation and the fees and expenses of all counsel, including the fees and expenses of counsel for Navarro, and jurisdiction will be reserved with respect thereto.

Subject to certain conditions, the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission has registered the Securities Certificate of Pittsburgh relating to the issuance of said bond and mortgage.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said amended application in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 (Holding Company Act Release No. 13394) and no hearing having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied; and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said amended application be granted forthwith.

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act that said amended application be, and the same hereby is, granted forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and the same hereby is, reserved over the expenses incurred by Navarro Corporation and the fees and expenses of all counsel, including the fees and expenses of counsel for Navarro.

By the Commission.

OHIO EDISON CO.

ORDER APPROVING ACQUISITION OF UTILITY ASSETS

MARCH 20, 1957.

Ohio Edison Company ("Company"), a registered holding company and a public-utility company, has filed an application pursuant to section 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Pursuant to a Sale Agreement dated February 11, 1957, the Company proposes to acquire from the City of Galion, Ohio ("City"), for $2,784 cash, a single-phase 2,400-volt distribution line approximately 1.2 miles long.

The Company presently supplies power at wholesale to City's electric distribution system. The property to be acquired is in close proximity to surrounding rural areas now being served by the Company at retail and will be operated as a part of the Company's integrated system.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said application, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission, and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the application be granted, effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application be, and hereby is, granted, effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

WEST PENN POWER CO. AND WEST PENN ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING SUBSIDIARY TO ISSUE AND SELL ADDITIONAL COMMON STOCK AND AUTHORIZING HOLDING COMPANY TO PURCHASE ITS PRO RATA PART OF SUCH OFFERING; TO PURCHASE ALL SHARES NOT SUBSCRIBED BY PUBLIC STOCKHOLDERS, AND TO PLEDGE ACQUIRED SHARES

MARCH 20, 1957.

The West Penn Electric Company ("Electric"), a registered holding company, and its public-utility subsidiary West Penn Power Company ("Power") have filed a joint application-declaration and an amendment thereto pursuant to sections 6 (b), 10, and 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rule U-44 thereunder, with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Power proposes to issue and sell, through an offering to the holders of its common stock (of which 3,522,480 shares, without par value, are now outstanding), 251,606 additional shares at $49.50 per share, and in this connection to issue transferable warrants to such holders (other than its parent) evidencing their rights to subscribe for the additional shares at the rate of 1 new share for each 14 shares held on the record date. The warrants will be issued on or about March 25, 1957, to holders of record at the close of business on the second full business day prior thereto, and they will expire on or about April 16, 1957. No fractional shares will be issued.

Electric, which owns 3,346,367 shares (approximately 95 percent) of Power's outstanding common stock, proposes to purchase its pro rata part of the additional shares and also all of the additional shares not subscribed by the public stockholders. Electric further proposes to purchase, at a price of 12 cents for each right represented thereby, warrants which are properly assigned and delivered to it at 50 Broad Street, New York 4, New York, before they expire.

Under the terms of the Trust Indenture dated as of September 1, 1949, securing its 3½ percent Sinking Fund Collateral Trust Bonds, Electric has covenanted to maintain the common stock of Power pledged with Chemical Corn Exchange Bank, Trustee, at 94.6 percent of all the issued and outstanding common stock of Power; and, pursuant to this covenant, Electric proposes to pledge approximately 94.6 percent of the additional shares to be issued by Power with said Trustee.

Power proposes to use the proceeds from the sale of the additional common stock, together with treasury cash and the proceeds from a later issue of about $20,000,000 of senior securities, in financing the 1957 and 1958 construction requirements of itself and its subsidiaries, estimated at $61,000,000.

The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, the regulatory commission of the State in which Power is organized and doing business, has approved Power's issuance and sale of the additional common stock as proposed.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said application-declaration (Holding Company Act Release No. 13402), and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the application-declaration, as amended, be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration as amended be, and hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

GOLDFIELD URANIUM, INC., AND NEVA-UTEX URANIUM, INC.

ORDER MODIFYING ORDER OF JULY 9, 1956

MARCH 20, 1957.

In the matter of Goldfield Uranium Inc., (File No. 24SF-1962); Neva-Utex Uranium, Inc., (File No. 24SF-2116).

The Commission on July 9, 1956, entered its order pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, temporarily suspending exemptions under Regulation A for the offerings of Goldfield Uranium Inc. and Neva-Utex Uranium, Inc. on the grounds that the Commission had been advised that Scott W. Hockensmith, a promoter and director of Goldfield Uranium Inc. and a promoter, director and officer of Neva-Utex Uranium, Inc.; and Howard Hockensmith, a promoter, director and officer of both Goldfield Uranium Inc. and Neva-Utex Uranium, Inc., had been convicted of a crime and offense involving the sale of a security; in that said Scott W. Hockensmith and Howard Hockensmith were convicted on April 23, 1956, in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, of violation of section 26104 (a) of the California Corporations Code, which prohibits the issuance or sale of any security in violation of the provisions of Division 1, Title 4 of said California Corporations Code and that the Commission had reasonable cause to believe that the terms and conditions of Regulation A had not been complied with by Neva-Utex Uranium, Inc. in that said Neva-Utex Uranium, Inc had been offering and selling its securities in a jurisdiction not stated in the Notification as a jurisdiction in which it is proposed to offer its securities.

The order of the Commission gave notice that, upon receipt of a written request, the matter would be set down for hearing for the purpose of determining whether the temporary order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent.

It appears from an affidavit filed by Oscar Morissett, the secretary of Goldfield Uranium Inc. accompanied by a certified copy of the Minutes of a Stockholders Meeting of Goldfield Uranium Inc. that (a) Scott W. Hockensmith and Howard Hockensmith were not elected or re-elected as officers or directors of Goldfield Uranium Inc. at a stockholders meeting held on July 23, 1955, and have not since been nor are they now connected in any way with the management of that company, (b) that none of the securities referred to in the filing by Goldfield Uranium Inc. has been sold and (c) that if the order of July 9, 1956 is vacated as to Goldfield Uranium Inc., the offering as originally proposed will be abandoned and the request for exemption withdrawn.

Goldfield Uranium Inc. having requested a modification of the temporary suspension order as to its filing based upon said affidavit and certified copy of the Minutes of the regular Meeting of Stockholders on July 23, 1955;

It is ordered, That the temporary order of suspension heretofore issued on July 9, 1956 be and is hereby modified to eliminate the name of Goldfield Uranium Inc. therefrom.

By the Commission.

TRI-DENT CORP.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

MARCH 20, 1957.

I. The Tri-Dent Corporation, a company incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey on September 18, 1951, with principal offices located at 128 Linden Avenue, Jersey City, N. J., having filed with the Commission on November 6, 1953, a Notification on Form 1-A and Offering Circular, relating to a proposed offering of 300,000 shares of its $0.10 par value common stock at $1.00 per share not to exceed $300,000.00 in the aggregate, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A, promulgated thereunder; and

II. The Commission having been advised that the terms and conditions of said Regulation A have not been complied with in that the issuer has failed to file Form 2-A reports of sales, as required by Rule 224 of Regulation A;

III. It is ordered pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place for said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

SHOE DRESSING; BROOKLYN AND CRANFORD TO ATLANTA

RATES AND CHARGES; FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Appellate Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 23d day of January A. D. 1957.

In the original order in this proceeding, the Commission, Appellate Division 2, upon its own motion, entered upon an investigation concerning rates, and charges, and the rules, regulations and practices affecting such rates and charges, applicable on interstate or foreign commerce, of shoe dressing or blacking from Brooklyn, N. Y. and Cranford, N. J. to Atlanta, Ga., as set forth in schedules of Motor Carrier Traffic Association, Inc., Agent, and Southern Motor Carriers Rate Conference, Agent;

It appearing that the following schedules contain certain rates and charges, and rules, regulations and practices affecting such rates and charges, applying on shoe dressing or blacking from Brooklyn, N. Y. and Cranford, N. J. to Chamblee, Ga.:

Southern Motor Carriers Rate Conference, Agent: In Supplement 56 to MF-I. C. C. No. 804, on page 83 thereof, Indexes 24334 and 24335;

Motor Carrier Traffic Association, Inc., Agent: In Supplement 35 to MF-I. C. C. No. 444, on page 14 thereof, Index 8500; or as the same may be amended or reissued:

It further appearing that upon consideration of the tariff schedules shown in the foregoing, there is reason to institute an investigation to determine whether they result in rates and charges, rules or regulations and practices that are unjust and unreasonable in violation of the Interstate Commerce Act; and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That this investigation be, and it is hereby, broadened, upon the Commission's own motion, into and concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices contained in schedules designated herein, or as the same may be amended or reissued, with a view to making such findings and orders in the premises as the facts and circumstances shall warrant.

It is further ordered, That the investigation in this proceeding shall not be confined to the matters and issues hereinbefore stated as the reason for instituting this investigation, but shall include all matters and issues with respect to the lawfulness of the said rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices under the Interstate Commerce Act.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served on the respondents' attorneys in fact and that further notice of this proceeding be given to the respondents, and that notice be given to the general public by posting a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

And it is further ordered, That this matter be assigned for hearing at a time and place to be hereafter fixed.

By the Commission, Appellate Division 2.

PAPER; CHARLESTON TO SAVANNAH

RATES AND CHARGES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, Acting as an Appellate Division, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of March A. D. 1957.

There being under consideration the matter of rates and charges, and the rules, regulations and practices affecting such rates and charges, applicable on interstate or foreign commerce of wrapping paper, minimum 72,000 pounds, from Charleston, S. C., to Savannah Ga., as set forth in:

Motor Carriers Traffic Association, Inc., Agent; MF-I. C. C. No. 448, Supplement No. 44 thereto, on page 16 thereof, Index 27718; or as the same may be amended or reissued.

It appearing that upon consideration of the tariff schedules there is reason to institute an investigation to determine whether they result in rates and charges, rules or regulations and practices that are unjust and unreasonable in violation of the Interstate Commerce Act; and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted, by the Commission, upon own motion into and concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices contained in said schedules, with a view to making such findings and orders in the premises as the facts and circumstances shall warrant.

It is further ordered, That the investigation in this proceeding shall not be confined to the matters and issues hereinbefore stated as the reason for instituting this investigation, but shall include all matters and issues with respect to the lawfulness of the said rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices under the Interstate Commerce Act.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served on the respondents' attorneys in fact who filed the schedules containing the rates under investigation herein; and that further notice of this proceeding be given to the respondents, and that notice be given to the general public by posting a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

And it is further ordered, That this matter be assigned for hearing at a time and place to be hereafter fixed.

desired and shall be submitted to the Osage Indian Agency on the form "Application to Change Designation of Homestead."

§ 242.53 Order to change designation of homestead. The application of an Osage allottee, or his legal guardian, may be approved by the Secretary of the Interior, or his authorized representative, and an order issued to change designation of homestead, if it is found that the applicant owns an equal area of surplus land. The expense of recording the order shall be borne by the applicant. The order to change designation shall be made on the form "Order to Change Designation of Homestead."

§ 242.54 Exchanges of restrictive lands. Upon written application of the Indians involved, the exchange of restricted lands between adult Indians, and between adult Indians and non-Indians, may be approved by the Secretary of the Interior, or his authorized representative. Title to all lands acquired under this part by an Indian who does not have a certificate of competency shall be taken by deed containing a clause restricting alienation or encumbrance without the consent of the Secretary, or his authorized representative. In case of diffeences in the appaised value of lands under consideration for exchange, the application of an Indian for funds to equalize such differences may be approved to the extent authorized by § 222.8 of this chapter.

§ 242.55 Institution of partition proceedings. (a) Prior authorization should be obtained from the Secretary, or his authorized representative, before the institution of proceedings to partition the lands of deceased Osage allottees in which any interest is held by an Osage Indian not having a certificate of competency. Requests for authority to institute such partition proceedings shall contain a description of the lands involved, the names of the several owners and their respective interests and the reasons for such court action. Authorization may be given for the institution of partition proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction when it appears to the best interest of the Indians involved to do so and the execution of voluntary exchange deeds is impracticable.

(b) When it appears to the best interest of the Indians to do so, the Secretary's, or his authorized representative's, authorization to institute partition proceedings may require that title to the lands be quieted in the partition action in order that the deeds issued pursuant to the proceedings shall convey good and merchantable title to the grantee therein. (See section 6, 37 Stat. 87.)

§ 242.56 Partition records. Upon completion of an action in partition, a copy of the judgment roll showing schedule of costs and owelty moneys having accrued to or from the several parties, together with deeds, or other instruments vesting title on partition, in triplicate, shall be furnished to the Osage Agency. The original allotment number shall follow the legal description on all instruments vesting title. When a grantee is a member of the Osage Tribe who has not received a certificate of competency, deeds or other instruments vesting title shall contain the following clause against alienation:

Subject to the condition that while title to the above-described lands shall remain in the grantee or his Osage Indian heirs or devisees who do not have certificates of competency, the same shall not be alienated or encumbered without approval of the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative.

§ 242.57 Approval of deeds or other instruments vesting title on partition and payment of costs. Upon completion of the partition proceedings in accordance with the law and in conformity with the regulations in this subpart, the Secretary, or his authorized representative, may approve the deeds, or other instruments vesting title on partition, and may disburse from the restricted (accounts) funds of the Indians concerned, such amounts as may be necessary for payment of their share of court costs, attorney fees, and owelty moneys.

§ 242.58 Disposition of proceeds of partition sales. Owelty moneys due members of the Osage Tribe who do not have certificates of competency shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States and placed to the credit of the Indians upon the same conditions as attach to segregated shares of the Osage national fund.

FRED A. SEATON,
Secretary of the Interior.

PART 684—HOOKED RUG INDUSTRY IN PUERTO RICO

PART 687—HOSIERY INDUSTRY IN PUERTO RICO

PART 699—TEXTILE AND TEXTILE PRODUCTS INDUSTRY IN PUERTO RICO

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

On January 5, 1957, pursuant to section 5 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 201 et seq.), the Secretary of Labor by Administrative Order No. 475 (22 F. R. 150) appointed, convened and gave notice of the hearing of Industry Committee No. 28–B for the Textile and Textile Products Industry in Puerto Rico, and Industry Committee No. 28–C for the Hosiery Industry in Puerto Rico. The Committees were directed to recommend the minimum rate or rates to be paid under section 6 (c) of the act to employees in the Textile and Textile Products Industry and in the Hosiery Industry who are engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce.

Subsequent to an investigation and a hearing, conducted pursuant to the notice, the Committees filed with the Administrator a report containing their findings with respect to the matters referred to them. Accordingly, as authorized and required by section 8 of the act and General Order No. 45–A of the Secretary (15 F. R. 3290), (1) the recommendations of these committees are hereby published in the following amendments to the Code of Federal Regulations, and (2) effective April 12, 1957, Part 684 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations is deleted, and Parts 687 and 699 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, are amended to read as follows:

1. Part 687 is amended to read as follows:

Sec.
687.1 Definition of the industry.
687.2 Wage rates.
687.3 Notices.

AUTHORITY: §§ 687.1 to 687.3 issued under sec. 8, 52 Stat. 1064, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 208. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 52 Stat. 1062, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 205.

§ 687.1 Definition of the industry. The hosiery industry in Puerto Rico, to which this part shall apply, is defined as follows: The manufacture and processing of full-fashioned and seamless hosiery, including, among other processes, the knitting, seaming, looping, dyeing, clocking, and all phases of finishing hosiery, but not including the manufacture and processing of yarn or thread.

§ 687.2 Wage rates. (a) Wages at a rate of not less than 65 cents an hour shall be paid under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 by every employer to each of his employees in the hosiery industry in Puerto Rico who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce and who is engaged in the full-fashioned hosiery classification, which is defined as the manufacturing or processing of full-fashioned hosiery, including among other processes the knitting, seaming, dyeing, clocking, and all phases of finishing full-fashioned hosiery.

(b) Wages at a rate of not less than 63 cents an hour shall be paid under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 by every employer to each of his employees in the hosiery industry in Puerto Rico who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce and who is engaged in the seamless hosiery classification, which is defined as the manufacturing or processing of seamless hosiery of all types, including among other processes the knitting, looping, dyeing, clocking, and all phases of finishing seamless hosiery.

§ 687.3 Notices. Every employer subject to the provisions of § 687.2 shall post in a conspicuous place in each department of his establishment where employees subject to the provisions of § 687.2 are working such notices of this part as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, and shall give such other notice as the Administrator may prescribe.

2. Part 699 is amended to read as follows:

Sec.
699.1 Definition of the industry.
699.2 Wage rates.
699.3 Notices.

AUTHORITY: §§ 699.1 to 699.3 issued under sec. 8, 52 Stat. 1064, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 208. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 52 Stat. 1062, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 205.

§ 699.1 Definition of the industry. The textile and textile products industry in Puerto Rico, to which this part shall apply, is defined as follows: The preparation of textile fibers, including the ginning and compressing of cotton; the manufacture of batting, wadding, and filling; the manufacture of yarn, cordage, twine, felt, woven and knitted fabrics, and lace-machine products, from cotton, jute, sisal, coir, maguey, silk, rayon, nylon, wool, or other vegetable, animal, or synthetic fiber, or from mixtures of these fibers; and the manufacture of blankets, textile bags, mattresses, quilts, pillows, hairnets, oilcloth and artificial leather containing a textile base, woven carpets and rugs, and hooked or punched rugs and carpeting: Provided, however, That the definition shall not include the chemical manufacturing of synthetic fiber and such related processing of yarn as is conducted in establishments manufacturing synthetic fiber.

§ 699.2 Wage rates. (a) Wages at a rate of not less than one dollar an hour shall be paid under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 by every employer to each of his employees in the textile and textile products industry who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce and who is engaged in the mattress and pillow classification, which is defined as the manufacture of mattresses and pillows.

(b) Wages at rates not less than the amounts specified in the subparagraphs below shall be paid by every employer to each of his employees engaged in the manufacture of hooked or punched rugs and carpeting in Puerto Rico who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce.

(1) To employees so engaged who perform multiple-needle power-driven machine operations, which are defined as the punching or tufting of rugs and carpeting with multiple-needle machines containing five or more needles, including the operation of the machine, the work of the assistant or helper thereon, and the work of the maintenance employees who set up or repair these machines, wages at the rate of not less than 65 cents per hour shall be paid.

(2) To employees so engaged who perform hand-guided power-driven machine operations, which are defined as the punching or tufting of rugs and carpeting with hand-guided power-driven machines containing less than five needles including the operation of the machine and the work of maintenance employees who set up or repair these machines, wages at the rate of not less than 53 cents per hour shall be paid.

(3) To employees so engaged who perform any other operations in the manufacture of hooked or punched rugs and carpeting except the operations listed in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, wages at the rate of not less than 49 cents per hour shall be paid.

(c) Wages at a rate of not less than 52 cents per hour shall be paid under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 by every employer to each of his employees in the textile and textile products industry in Puerto Rico who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce and who is engaged in the bag cleaning and repairing classification, which is defined as the cleaning, mending and repairing of bags made from burlap, cotton or other textile materials.

(d) Wages at a rate of not less than 56 cents per hour shall be paid under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 by every employer to each of his employees in the textile and textile products industry in Puerto Rico who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce and who is engaged in the general classification, which is defined as the preparation of textile fibers, including the ginning and compressing of cotton; the manufacture of batting, wadding, and filling; the manufacture of yarn, cordage, twine, felt, woven and knitted fabrics and lace-machine products, from cotton, jute, sisal, coir, maguey, silk, rayon, nylon, wool, or other vegetable, animal, or synthetic fiber, or from mixtures of these fibers; and the manufacture of blankets, textile bags (except cleaning and repairing of bags), quilts, hairnets, oilcloth and artificial leather containing a textile base, and woven carpets and rugs: Provided, however, That the definition shall not include the chemical manufacturing of synthetic fiber and such related processing of yarn as is conducted in establishments manufacturing synthetic fiber.

§ 699.3 Notices. Every employer subject to the provisions of § 699.2 shall post in a conspicuous place in each department of his establishment where employees subject to the provisions of § 699.2 are working such notices of this part as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, and shall give such other notice as the Administrator may prescribe.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 21st day of March 1957.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[FCC 57-264]

[Rules Amdt. 3-61]

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

ESTABLISHMENT OF A LICENSE PERIOD FOR TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS LOCATED IN GUAM

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of March 1957.

The Commission has under consideration the desirability of making certain changes in Part 3 of its rules and regulations to include Guam in the schedule setting forth the expiration date for licenses of television broadcast stations.

Section 3.630 sets forth the expiration dates for licenses of television broadcast stations located in the United States, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, Alaska and Hawaii. The list was so arranged that licenses of stations in the same general geographical area would expire at the same time.

The Commission has authorized the construction of a television broadcast station on the Island of Guam, and it is necessary to establish a license period for this station in order that a license may be issued. Guam, a western U. S. possession, is being included in the paragraph of § 3.630 that contains the other western U. S. possessions.

The amendment adopted herein is procedural in nature, and, therefore, prior publication of notice of proposed rule making under the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary.

The amendment adopted herein is issued pursuant to authority contained in sections 4 (i), 303 (r) and 307 (d) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

It is ordered, That, effective March 20, 1957, § 3.630 (a) (16) of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended to read as follows:

(16) For stations located in Washington, Oregon, Alaska, Guam and Hawaii, February 1, 1960.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies secs. 301, 303, 307, 48 Stat. 1081, 1082, 1083; 47 U. S. C. 301, 303, 307)

Released: March 21, 1957.

PART 11—INDUSTRIAL RADIO SERVICES

PART 16—LAND TRANSPORTATION RADIO SERVICES

CONELRAD RADIO ALL CLEAR MESSAGE

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 20th day of March 1957;

The Commission, having before it for consideration the CONELRAD Radio All Clear Message as set forth in Parts 11 and 16 of the Commission's rules and the Commission's order of March 6, 1957 (FCC 57-221), amending the wording of the CONELRAD Radio All Clear Message;

It appearing that a need for the modification of this message was outlined at a White House Conference where it was made clear that the present CONELRAD "All Clear" message is confusing in that it could lead the public to believe a Civil Defense "All Clear" had been issued when in fact radiological hazards might still exist; and

It further appearing that the Commission representatives at this conference agreed to recommend substitute phraseology for the CONELRAD Radio "All Clear" message which would avoid the danger of misunderstanding; and,

It further appearing that since this modification of the CONELRAD "All Clear" message is an editorial and not a substantive change, and therefore, cannot adversely affect any person, notice and public procedure with respect thereto, as prescribed in section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, is unnecessary; now therefore,

It is ordered, Pursuant to sections 303 (f) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that effective June 1, 1957, § 11.705 of the Commission's rules be amended to read as follows:

§ 11.705 Radio All Clear. The CONELRAD Radio All Clear will be initiated only by the Air Division (Defense) Commander or higher military authority and will be disseminated over the same channels as the CONELRAD Radio Alert. Broadcast stations will transmit the CONELRAD Radio All Clear message on normally assigned frequencies as follows:

The CONELRAD operating procedures have been ordered discontinued. All radio stations are authorized to return to normal operation on their regularly assigned frequencies:

I repeat—

The CONELRAD operating procedures have been ordered discontinued. All radio stations are authorized to return to normal operation on their regularly assigned frequencies.

Radio stations and systems licensed in the Industrial Radio Services may resume normal operation when the CONELRAD Radio All Clear message is received unless otherwise restricted by order of the Federal Communications Commission.

It is further ordered, Pursuant to sections 303 (f) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that effective June 1, 1957, § 16.605 of the Commission's rules be amended to read as follows:

§ 16.605 Radio All Clear. The CONELRAD Radio All Clear will be initiated only by the Air Division (Defense) Commander or higher military authority and will be disseminated over the same channels as the CONELRAD Radio Alert. Broadcast stations will transmit the CONELRAD All Clear message on normally assigned frequencies as follows:

The CONELRAD operating procedures have been ordered discontinued. All radio stations are authorized to return to normal operation on their regularly assigned frequencies:

I repeat—

The CONELRAD operating procedures have been ordered discontinued. All radio stations are authorized to return to normal operation on their regularly assigned frequencies.

Radio stations and systems licensed in the Land Transportations Radio Services may resume normal operations when the Radio All Clear message is received, unless otherwise restricted by order of the Federal Communications Commission.

It is further ordered, That the Commission's order of March 6, 1957,[1] effective June 1, 1957, amending the CONELRAD Radio All Clear Message, is superseded by this order, and is, therefore, rescinded.

PART 14—PUBLIC FIXED STATIONS AND STATIONS OF THE MARITIME SERVICES IN ALASKA

DEFINITION OF COMMON CARRIER OR CARRIER

The Commission having under consideration the desirability of making an editorial change in Part 14 of its rules and regulations; and

It appearing, that section 3 (h) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, sets forth a definition of "common carrier" or "carrier", and that it is desirable that such definition be included in Part 14 of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing, that the amendment adopted herein is editorial in nature, and, therefore, prior publication of Notice of Proposed Rule Making under the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary, and the amendment may become effective immediately; and

It further appearing, that the amendment adopted herein is issued pursuant to authority contained in sections 4 (i), 5 (d) (1) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 0.341 (a) of the Commission's Statement of Organization, Delegations of Authority and Other Information;

It is ordered, This 18th day of March, 1957, that effective March 20, 1957, § 14.2 is amended by adding a paragraph (l) as follows:

(l) "Common carrier" or "carrier". "Common carrier" or "carrier" means any person engaged as a common carrier for hire, in interstate or foreign communication by wire or radio or in interstate or foreign radio transmission of energy, except where reference is made to common carriers not subject to the Communications Act of 1934, as amended; but a person engaged in radio broadcasting shall not, insofar as such person is so engaged, be deemed a common carrier.

Released: March 21, 1957.

PART 18—INDUSTRIAL, SCIENTIFIC, AND MEDICAL SERVICE

EFFECTIVE DATE

The Commission having under consideration the desirability of making certain editorial changes in Footnote 1 to § 18.1 of its rules and regulations; and

It appearing that the Amendment adopted herein is editorial in nature, and, therefore, prior publication of notice of proposed rule making under the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary, and the amendments may become effective immediately; and

It further appearing, that the amendment adopted herein is issued pursuant to authority contained in sections 4 (i), (5) (d) (1) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 0.341 (a) of the Commission's statement of organization, delegations of authority and other information.

It is ordered, This 20th day of March 1957, effective March 21, 1957, Footnote 1 to § 18.1 is amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; sec. 5, 66 Stat. 713; 47 U. S. C. 303, 155)

Released: March 21, 1957.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

Footnote 1 to § 18.1 is amended to change certain section references in order to conform to a recently adopted revision of Part 18.

[1] Not filed or published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

As amended Footnote 1 to § 18.1 reads as follows:

[1] The effective date of Part 18 with respect to electric arc welding devices using radio frequency energy is suspended until action is completed in the Docket No. 11467 proceeding with respect to these devices: Provided, That, in the event of interference from electric arc welding devices using radio frequency energy to any authorized radio service, steps to remedy such interference shall promptly be taken (except that, in case of interference to receivers arising from direct intermediate frequency pickup by such receivers of the fundamental frequency emissions of certified electric arc welding equipment using radio frequency energy, this provision with respect to interference shall not apply): And further provided, however, That equipment manufactured after September 1, 1952 shall be subject to the same technical limitations and standards as set forth for industrial heating equipment in §§ 18.101 to 18.108, inclusive, except that such equipment need not be operated within a shielded room or space but in lieu thereof shall be operated with sufficient shielding to limit the radiation to the value prescribed in § 18.102: And further provided, That radio frequency stabilized electric arc welding equipment designed for operation on ISM frequencies may be type approved and operated in accordance with the provisions of § 18.31 (c) of the rules relating to miscellaneous equipment: And further provided, That broad band type of emissions from arc welding equipment shall be measured by an instrument having performance characteristics similar to the "Proposed American Standards Specification for a Radio Noise Meter—0.15 to 25 Megacycles/second" dated March 1950, published by the American Standards Association Committee on Radio Electrical Coordination C63, Quasi-peak values of field strength shall be measured and used in determining compliance with § 18.102. Instruments not having characteristics similar to the above mentioned standards may be used provided suitable correlation factors are used to adjust the field strength readings to values which would be obtained with an instrument having the desired characteristics.

The certification required by § 18.101 may be based upon field strength measurements made by the manufacturer of the equipment at locations other than the one where the equipment is in use provided such certification includes a statement by the operator of the equipment that the equipment covered thereby has been installed and is being operated in conformity to the instructions issued by the manufacturer.

[Rules Amdt. 18-13]

PART 18—INDUSTRIAL, SCIENTIFIC, AND MEDICAL SERVICE

INDUSTRIAL HEATING EQUIPMENT

In the matter of amendment of Part 18 to establish a type acceptance procedure for industrial heating equipment and in general to reorganize the regulations applicable to industrial heating equipment.

1. On July 8, 1955, the Commission issued a notice of proposed rule making to amend Part 18 of the rules concerning industrial heating equipment. It was proposed to (1) revise the certification procedure to clearly specify when measurements made on a prototype may be accepted and when measurements on the industrial heating equipment at its point of operation must be made, (2) strengthen the certification procedure by requiring that each certification for industrial heating equipment be renewed periodically, (3) add a standard for conducted interference along power lines connected to industrial heating equipment, (4) make the microwave frequencies allocated for industrial, scientific, and medical equipment by Part 2 available for industrial heating equipment, (5) add 915 Mc to the frequencies now available for medical diathermy and for miscellaneous equipment, (6) extend the radiation limits now applicable to ISM equipment to certain of the microwave frequencies and (7) rewrite and rearrange the rules in the interest of increased readability and clarity.

2. In general the comments support the rewording and rearrangement of the rules. The comments also support the Commission's proposal that radiation of radio frequency energy from any industrial heating equipment on any frequency below 5775 mc, except ISM frequencies, be suppressed so that the radiated field strength does not exceed 10 microvolts per meter at a distance of one mile or more from the equipment. This requirement is included in the rules set forth below.

3. The Commission proposed two types of certification. The first, designated as "Manufacturer's Certification of FCC Type Acceptance", provided for the issuance of a certificate by the manufacturer to the purchaser of industrial heating equipment. The basis for the certificate were measurements made on a prototype by the manufacturer, such measurements having been reviewed by the Commission and found to be satisfactory evidence of compliance with the requirements of the rules. It was proposed that the Manufacturer's Certification of FCC Type Acceptance be applicable only to industrial heating equipment sold as a completely self contained unit which has been completely assembled at the manufacturer's plant. The second type of certification proposed by the Commission was designated as "Engineers' Certification". It provided for the issuance of a certificate of compliance by an engineer based on measurements made at the installation site of the industrial heating equipment.

4. Comments directed to the two types of certification proposed by the Commission indicate that there are a wide variety of practices involved in the construction of industrial heating equipment. A particularly large segment of equipments are assembled at the operator's plant using component parts supplied by numerous manufacturers. These "composite" equipments may be duplicated in many other plants. The instances where the industrial heater is completely assembled at the manufacturer's plant do not appear to be an appreciable portion of the sum total.

5. In view of these comments, the Commission has reconsidered its proposal for two types of certification and has decided to combine the provisions of both into one requirement. The rules set forth below provide for the certification of industrial heating equipment based on field strength measurements made at the point of use or on the basis of field strength measurements made on a prototype. Should the field strength measurements be made at locations other than where the industrial heating equipment is in use, the person responsible for the operation of the equipment is required to add a signed statement to the certificate attesting that the equipment has been installed in conformity with the manufacturers instructions which are contained in the certificate. It is believed that this requirement for joint responsibility between the certifying engineer and the operator will provide more latitude in the various arrangements that exist between the manufacturers and purchasers of industrial heating equipment. It is also expected that such joint responsibility will adequately insure compliance with the Commission's requirements.

6. Many comments have been received opposing the Commission's proposal that the certificate required for the operation of industrial equipment be renewed at five year intervals. Where inspections are made regularly and a high quality maintenance is provided it is alleged that recertification is not required on a periodic basis. The Commission is persuaded by this argument and is requiring that inspections be made at sufficiently frequent intervals so as to insure that each equipment is installed, maintained and operated in a manner that provides compliance with the provisions of the rules. Until such time that future experience indicates the necessity for such regulations, no attempt will be made to specify the time interval between inspections. The rules set forth below do require that a log be maintained of the inspections made. Recertification is required when the inspecting engineer or the Commission believes that such action is necessary.

7. Regarding the Commission's proposal to limit the radio frequency voltage appearing on the external power conductors connected to industrial heating equipment, the comments indicate that power line filters often contribute very little in reducing the total radiation from the equipment. Rather than apply the power line voltage limitation to all installations of industrial heating equipment the rules set forth below require the use of power line filters only to the extent necessary to reduce the radiation to the limits specified.

8. On December 19, 1956, the Commission by an order nunc pro tunc (Docket 6651) amended §§ 18.11 (a) and 18.21 (a) of the rules to include the frequencies 915, 2450, 5850 and 18,000 Mc as available for the operation of industrial, scientific and medical equipment. A Commission Order of April 25, 1956, in Docket 11550 deleted the allocation of 10,600 Mc as an ISM frequency. Moreover, the Commission has today adopted a Memorandum Opinion and Order in Docket 6651 denying a Petition filed by the Lenkurt Electric Company, Inc. for Reconsideration or Clarification of the December 19, 1956, Order insofar as the frequency 915 Mc was concerned. In view of these actions, the proposal in the subject docket to add certain microwave frequencies to Part 18 has been rendered moot, and, since this is not an allocation proceeding, consideration of any reallocation of these frequencies in this docket would be inappropriate.

9. Attention is invited, however, to the proceeding in Docket 11866 which calls for a preliminary fact finding hearing to review all service allocations above 890 Mc, with the purpose of proposing such changes as may be consistent with microwave and other developments and future use and requirements by the various fixed and mobile services. Comments which have been filed in the instant proceeding and which pertain to including certain microwave frequencies in Part 18 will, in view of the foregoing, be considered in connection with Docket 11866.

10. A further comment suggested that the Commission revise the definition of "harmful interference" appearing in the proposal to the extent of specifying a minimum field strength that non-safety licensed stations must provide in order to be eligible for relief from interference. The definition for the term "harmful interference" is not a new definition proposed for adoption in this proceeding. Rather it is the definition now used internationally (Atlantic City Radio Regulations, 1947, Paragraph 69) and used throughout the Commission's rules which is proposed for incorporation into Part 18 to conform this part with the remainder of the Commission's rules. To define "harmful interference" such as proposed in the mentioned comment would introduce an undesirable administrative complexity in our rules. Furthermore, the Commission is not in a position, on the basis of the record in this proceeding, to make a determination that the public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by adopting the interference philosophy embodied in the proposed definition.

11. Comments were also received recommending that the frequency tolerance of certain ISM bands be increased and other ISM bands be added to those now available for the operation of industrial heating equipment. This has not been done since such frequency allocation matters are not considered to be within the scope of the Commission's proposal.

12. The Commission believes that the public interest will be served by adopting the rules set forth below governing the Industrial, Scientific and Medical Service. Authority for the adoption of the attached rules is contained in section 4 (i), 301 and 303 (f) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

13. In view of the foregoing considerations: It is ordered, That effective April 30, 1957, Part 18 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 303, 48 Stat. 1081, 1082; 47 U. S. C. 301, 303)

Adopted: March 20, 1957.

Released: March 22, 1957.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

Amend Part 18 as follows:

1. Delete: Sections 18.17 and footnote 3; 18.21 through 18.24 inclusive, and footnote 4; 18.32 and footnote 5; 18.83.

2. In § 18.2 add new paragraphs (f), (g) and (h) as follows:

(f) "Industrial, scientific and medical equipment" (ISM Equipment). Devices which use Hertzian waves for industrial, scientific, medical or other purposes including the transfer of energy by radio and which are neither used nor intended to be used for radiocommunication.

(g) "Harmful interference". Any radiation or induction which endangers the functioning of a radio-navigation service or of a safety service, or obstructs, or repeatedly interrupts a radio service operating in accordance with the regulations in Part 2 of this chapter.

(h) "ISM frequency". A frequency assigned by this part for the use of ISM equipment. A specified tolerance is associated with each ISM frequency. (See § 18.6).

3. Add new § 18.6 as follows:

§ 18.6 ISM frequencies and frequency tolerances. The following frequencies are allocated for use by ISM equipment with the tolerance limits specified:

ISM frequency:	Frequency tolerance
13,560 kc	±6.78 kc
27,120 kc	±160.00 kc
40,680 kc	±20.00 kc
915 Mc [1]	±25 Mc
2450 Mc [2]	±50 Mc
5850 Mc [2]	±75 mc
18,000 Mc [2]	±150 Mc

[1] By public notice and order dated December 26, 1946, the Commission announced the availability of this frequency for industrial, scientific and medical purposes. It was expressly stated in the said public notice and order that such use of this frequency would be governed by the conditions set forth in that order and set out as Appendix A hereto rather than Part 18 of the Commission's rules.

[2] By public notice and order dated May 15, 1947, the Commission announced the availability of this frequency for industrial, scientific and medical purposes. It was expressly stated in the said public notice and order that such use of this frequency would be governed by the conditions set forth in the Commission's order of December 26, 1946 and set out as Appendix A hereto rather than Part 18 of the Commission's rules.

4. Add new § 18.8 as follows:

§ 18.8 Interference from ISM equipment. (a) Subject to the exceptions in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section and irrespective of whether the equipment otherwise complies with the rules in this part, the operator of ISM equipment that causes harmful interference to any authorized radio service shall promptly take steps as may be necessary to remedy the interference.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this section shall not apply in the case of interference to an authorized radio station operating on an ISM frequency (including tolerance).

(c) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this section shall not apply in the case of interference to a receiver arising from direct intermediate frequency pickup by the receiver of the fundamental frequency emissions of ISM equipment operating on an ISM frequency (including tolerance) and otherwise complying with the requirements of this part.

5. Add new centerhead "Industrial Heating Equipment" including §§ 18.101 through 18.108 inclusive:

Sec.
18.101 Operation without a license.
18.102 Technical limitations.
18.103 Certification of industrial heating equipment.
18.104 Location of certificate.
18.105 Inspection of industrial heating equipment.
18.106 Renewal of certificate.
18.107 Measurement of field intensity.
18.108 Location of equipment.

§ 18.101 Operation without a license. Industrial heating equipment may be operated without a license: Provided, The design and operation of the equipment complies with the technical limitations in this part for such equipment: And provided further, That the equipment has been certificated pursuant to the requirements of this part.

§ 18.102 Technical limitations. (a) Industrial heating equipment shall be designed and constructed in accordance with good engineering practice with sufficient shielding and filtering to meet the requirements of this part.

(b) Industrial heating equipment may be operated on any frequency except frequencies in the bands 490–510 kc, 2170–2194 kc, and 8354–8374 kc. Equipment operating on an ISM frequency may be operated with unlimited radiation on that frequency. Equipment operated on other frequencies must suppress radiation on the fundamental carrier frequency as well as other frequencies as required by this part.

(c) Industrial heating equipment designed for operation on an ISM frequency shall be adjusted to operate as close to that ISM frequency as practicable.

(d) Radiation of radio frequency energy from any industrial heating equipment on any frequency below 5775 Mc, except ISM frequencies, shall be suppressed so that the radiated field strength does not exceed 10 microvolts per meter at a distance of one mile or more from the equipment.

(e) Radiation of radio frequency energy from any industrial heating equipment on any frequency above 5775 Mc, except ISM frequencies, shall be reduced to the greatest extent practicable.

NOTE: The Commission will establish definite radiation limits for these frequencies as soon as information regarding equipment operating on these frequencies becomes available.

(f) Filtering between the industrial heating equipment and power lines must be provided to the extent necessary to prevent the radiation of energy from power lines on frequencies other than ISM frequencies with a field strength in excess of 10 microvolts per meter at a distance of one mile or more from the industrial heating equipment and at a distance of 50 feet from the power line.

§ 18.103 Certification of industrial heating equipment. (a) The certificate required by this part shall be executed by an engineer skilled in making and interpreting field strength measurements. The Commission may require such engineer to provide proof of his qualifications.

(b) The certificate may be issued on the basis of field strength measurements made at the point of use or on the basis of field strength measurements made on a prototype.

(c) The certificate for equipment measured at the location where the equipment is in use shall contain the following information:

(1) Type and serial number, or other positive identification, of the industrial heating equipment being certificated.

(2) Conditions under which the certificated equipment shall be operated and maintained.

(3) Brief description of the engineering tests and a summary of the measured data upon which the certificate is based.

(4) Date the measurements were made.

(5) A statement certifying that the subject equipment does meet and may reasonably be expected to continue to meet the requirements of this part.

(6) Date of certification.

(7) Signature of certifying engineer.

(8) Name and address of employer of certifying engineer, if any.

(d) The certificate for equipment measured at a location other than where the equipment is in use shall contain the information required by subparagraphs (1) through (8) of paragraph (c) of this section plus the following:

(1) Detailed installation instructions which will insure that the equipment complies with the radiation limitations in this part.

(2) A statement, signed by the person responsible for the operation of the equipment, attesting that the equipment has been installed in conformity with the installation instructions in this certificate.

§ 18.104 Location of certificate. In general the certificate shall be attached to the equipment. Alternatively the certificate may be placed at any location where it will be conveniently available for inspection by authorized representatives of the Commission, provided there is attached to the equipment a notice stating where the certificate is located.

§ 18.105 Inspection of industrial heating equipment. (a) Industrial heating equipment shall be periodically inspected in order to reaffirm the validity of the certificate required by this part.

(b) Inspection shall be made at sufficiently frequent intervals to insure that each industrial heating equipment is installed, maintained, and operated in a manner that provides compliance with the provisions of this part.

(c) A log shall be maintained of the inspections made. The inspecting engineer shall enter a brief note of his findings and shall date and sign each entry.

(d) The log shall be maintained at the same location as the certificate.

(e) The inspecting engineer shall require the equipment to be recertificated pursuant to the requirements of this part, if he determines, as a result of his inspection, that such action is necessary in order to assure compliance with this part.

§ 18.106 Renewal of certificate. (a) The certificate required to be exhibited by this part shall be renewed:

(1) When changes have been made that might increase the radiated interference beyond the limits specified in this part.

(2) When the inspecting engineer has determined that such action is necessary to assure compliance with the requirements of this part.

(3) When required by the Commission because it has reason to believe that operation of the equipment concerned may be inconsistent with the requirements of this part.

(b) The renewal of the certificate shall be based on measurements made at the point of installation.

§ 18.107 Measurement of field strength. Measurements to determine the field strength of radio frequency energy generated by industrial heating equipment shall be made in accordance with standard engineering procedures and shall include the following:

(a) A loop antenna shall be used for measurements on frequencies below 18 Mc, and a doublet antenna shall be used for measurements on frequencies above 30 Mc. Either a loop or doublet antenna shall be used on frequencies between 18 Mc and 30 Mc. Appropriate techniques shall be resorted to for measurements in the microwave region of the spectrum.

(b) Prior to the determination of the maximum field strength at one mile, a sufficient number of measurements shall be made in the vicinity of the industrial heating equipment to enable plotting of the polar radiation pattern and to assure the correct determination of the major lobes. Where conditions permit, these measurements shall be made at intervals of not more than 20 degrees in azimuth directions and at distances not exceeding 1,000 feet from the location of the equipment. The measurements so obtained shall be reduced to equivalent field strength at 1,000 feet.

(c) The field strength measurements for the maximum field strength at one mile shall be made along the radial corresponding to the lobe of maximum radiation as determined from the polar radiation pattern. Sufficient measurements shall be made along radials extending through all lobes which are within 15 db of the apparent maximum lobe, as determined in paragraph (b) of this section to assure that the assumed lobe of greatest field strength is in fact the maximum lobe. If two or more lobes of radiation of approximately the same strength are present, measurements to determine field strength shall be made along the several radials for such lobes. Where possible, field strength measurements shall be made along each radial at intervals of not greater than 500 feet and an average curve drawn for measured field strength in microvolts per meter versus distance in feet. Where necessary, the average curve shall be extended to show the extrapolated field strength at one mile. In these cases where it is impractical to conduct measurements along the radial of maximum radiation a sufficient number of field strength measurements shall be made to clearly indicate the magnitude of the radiation field in the sector containing the lobe of maximum radiation.

(d) Where there is evidence of radiation from power lines, field strength measurements shall be made at not less than three points along the power line located approximately 1 mile from the location of the industrial heating equipment causing such radiation and to include a length of power line not less than 500 feet. One point of measurement shall lie within the 1-mile distance and the others beyond. At each of these points at least three measurements of field strength shall be made along a line normal to the power line and out to a distance from the power line not exceeding 50 feet measured horizontally along the ground from a point directly below the outermost conductor.

(e) The field strengths specified herein refer to the maximum field strengths, regardless of polarization, measured at a height of 12 feet above the immediate terrain or at such lower height at which the field strengths may exceed that at 12 feet. Measurements made at frequencies below 18 Mc may be made at any convenient height.

§ 18.108 Location of equipment. For the purpose of measurements required in order to execute a certification of compliance, the location of the industrial heating equipment may be considered to be the actual physical location of the equipment, or, where several such units are grouped within a circle of 500 feet radius or less, the several units may, at the election of the certifying engineer, be considered as a single unit, located at the center of the smallest enclosing circle. If the certification includes several units treated as one equipment, the distance of one mile at which the maximum permissible radiation is determined shall be reduced by the radius of the smallest circle that encloses the several units.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of February A. D. 1957.

The matter of revision of certain sections contained in our rules and regulations governing the filing and approval of surety bonds, policies of insurance, qualifications as a self-insurer, or other securities and agreements prescribed pursuant to sections 215 and 403 (c) and (d) of the Interstate Commerce Act (49 CFR Parts 174 and 405) and of certain insurance and surety bond forms required to be filed by or in behalf of motor carriers, brokers and freight forwarders pursuant thereto being under consideration, and

It appearing that a notice, dated July 17, 1956, to the effect that certain revisions of the said rules and regulations were to be given consideration, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 22, 1956 (21 F. R. 6303) pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act; and that, no oral hearing concerning the matter under consideration being deemed necessary, after consideration of all written views and arguments received on or before the date specified in such notice, as extended upon request, revision of said rules and regulations is deemed justified and necessary; and that such revision will necessitate the revision of certain of the forms prescribed for filing evidence of insurance or other security with the Commission in conformity with such rules and regulations;

It is ordered, That §§ 174.7 (a) and 405.8 (a) be amended by the addition of the following sentence at the end of each of those two paragraphs: "Surety bonds and certificates of insurance shall specify that coverage thereunder will remain in effect continuously until terminated as herein provided, except that in special or unusual circumstances special permission may be obtained for filing certificates of insurance or surety bonds covering periods of less than twelve months duration."

It is further ordered, That §§ 174.7 (d), 174.8 (b), 405.6 (b) and 405.8 (d) be revised so as to read, and that 174.7 (e) and 405.8 (f) be added, as follows:

§ 174.7 Forms and procedure. • • •

(d) Cancellation notice. Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, surety bonds, certificates of insurance and other securities and agreements shall not be cancelled or withdrawn until after thirty (30) days' notice in writing by the insurance company, surety or sureties, motor carrier, broker or other party thereto, as the case may be, has first been given to the Commission at its office in Washington, D. C., which period of thirty (30) days shall commence to run from the date such notice is actually received at the office of the Commission.

(e) Termination by replacement. Certificates of insurance or surety bonds which have been accepted by the Commission under the rules in this part may be replaced by other certificates of insurance, surety bonds or other security, and the liability of the retiring insurer or surety under such certificates of insurance or surety bonds shall be considered as having terminated as of the effective date of the replacement certificate of insurance, surety bond or other security: Provided, The said replacement certificate, bond or other security meets all of the following conditions:

(1) It must be acceptable to the Commission under the rules and regulations in this part;

(2) It must be accompanied by a letter of authorization, in duplicate, signed by the motor carrier involved or an authorized employee of such motor carrier, authorizing such replacement and verifying the effective date thereof; and

(3) Its effective date must coincide with the effective date specified in the letter of authorization and the said date may not be more than thirty days prior to the date of receipt by the Commission of the letter of authorization and replacement certificate.

§ 174.8 Insurance and surety companies; authorized. • • •

(b) Financial resources. Each insurance and surety company must possess and maintain surplus funds (policyholders' surplus) of not less than $500,000, which minimum will be determined on the basis of the values of assets and liabilities as shown in its financial statements filed with and approved by the insurance department or other insurance regulatory authority of the state of domicile (home state) of such company, except in instances where, in the judgment of the Commission, additional evidence with respect to such values is considered necessary: Provided, however, That this paragraph shall be effective December 31, 1960, as respects insurance and surety companies which are, on June 30, 1957, authorized to file certificates of insurance and surety bonds with the Commission.

§ 405.6 Insurance and surety companies. • • •

(b) Financial resources. Each insurance and surety company must possess and maintain surplus funds (policyholders' surplus) of not less than $500,000, which minimum will be determined on the basis of the values of assets and liabilities as shown in its financial statements filed with and approved by the insurance department or other insurance regulatory authority of the state of domicile (home state) of such company, except in instances where, in the judgment of the Commission, additional evidence with respect to such values is considered necessary: Provided, however, That this paragraph shall be effective December 31, 1960, as respects insurance and surety companies which are, on June 30, 1957, authorized to file certificates of insurance and surety bonds with the Commission.

§ 405.8 Forms and procedure. • • •

(d) Cancellation. Except as provided in paragraph (f) of this section, certificates of insurance, surety bonds and other securities and agreements shall not be cancelled or withdrawn until after 30 days' notice in writing has first been given by the insurance company or companies, surety or sureties, freight forwarder or other party thereto, as the case may be, to the Commission at its office in Washington, D. C., which period of 30 days shall commence to run from the date such notice is actually received at the office of the Commission.

• • • • • •

(f) Termination by replacement. Certificates of insurance or surety bonds which have been accepted by the Commission under the rules in this part may be replaced by other certificates of insurance, surety bonds or other security, and the liability of the retiring insurer or surety under such certificates of insurance or surety bonds shall be considered as having terminated as of the effective date of the replacement certificate of insurance, surety bond or other security: Provided, The said replacement certificate, bond or other security meets all of the following conditions:

(1) It must be acceptable to the Commission under the rules and regulations in this part;

(2) It must be accompanied by a letter of authorization, in duplicate, signed by the freight forwarder involved or an authorized employee of such freight forwarder, authorizing such replacement and verifying the effective date thereof; and

(3) Its effective date must coincide with the effective date specified in the letter of authorization and the said date may not be more than thirty days prior to the date of receipt by the Commission of the letter of authorization and replacement certificate, bond or other security.

It is further ordered, That the orders of August 3, 1936, December 10, 1954, and August 22, 1955, insofar as they apply to the use of Forms BMC 34, BMC 35, BMC

35–A (Revised), BMC 36, BMC 36–A (Revised), BMC 82 (Revised), BMC 83 (Revised) and BMC 91 (§§ 7.34, 7.35, 7.35a (Revised), 7.36, 7.36a (Revised), 7.82 (Revised), 7.83 (Revised) and 7.91) and the orders of October 11, 1944, June 5, 1951, August 22, 1955 and November 14, 1955, insofar as they apply to the use of Forms FF 34, FF 35, FF 35–A (Revised), FF 36, FF 36–A (Revised), FF 43, FF 51 and FF 52 (§ 405.8 Note) be vacated, thus cancelling such forms as of the effective date hereinafter provided;

It is further ordered, That Part 7 be amended as follows:

§ 7.34 B. M. C. 34 (Rev. '57). Motor carrier cargo liability certificate of insurance.

§ 7.35 B. M. C. 35 (Rev. '57). Notice of cancellation motor carrier policies of insurance.

§ 7.35a B. M. C. 35–A (Rev. '57). Notice to rescind cancellation or reinstate motor carrier policy of insurance.

§ 7.36 B. M. C. 36 (Rev. '57). Notice of cancellation motor carrier and broker's surety bonds.

§ 7.36a B. M. C. 36–A (Rev. '57). Notice to rescind cancellation or reinstate motor carrier surety bond.

§ 7.82 B. M. C. 82 (Rev. '57). Motor carrier bodily injury liability and property damage liability surety bond.

§ 7.83 B. M. C. 83 (Rev. '57). Motor common carrier cargo liability surety bond.

§ 7.91 B. M. C. 91 (Rev. '57). Motor carrier automobile bodily injury liability and property damage liability certificate of insurance.

It is further ordered, That Part 405 be amended by deleting from the list of forms in the editorial note to § 405.8 Forms and procedure the following: FF 34, FF 35, FF 35–A (Revised), FF 36, FF 36–A (Revised), FF 43, FF 51 and FF 52; and by substituting in lieu thereof the following:

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS; KOKOMO-MARION, INDIANA

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, Television Broadcast Stations (Kokomo-Marion, Indiana).

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration a petition filed on January 24, 1957, by Indiana Broadcasting Corporation, permittee of television Station WINT in Fort Wayne, Indiana, requesting an amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, Television Broadcast Stations, so as to shift the assignments in Kokomo and Marion, Indiana, as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Delete	Add
Kokomo, Ind.	31	29+
Marion, Ind.	29+	31

3. In support of its request petitioner urges that the proposed amendment would conform to the rules; that it would not adversely affect any existing station; and that it would permit WINT to utilize a site within the City of Fort Wayne.

4. The Commission is of the view that rule making proceedings should be instituted in order that interested parties may submit their views and relevant data.

5. Authority for the adoption of the proposed amendment is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f) and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the proposed amendment should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission on or before April 10, 1957, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendment may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established.

7. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: March 20, 1957.

Released: March 21, 1957.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

[39 CFR Part 131]

POSTAL CHARGES

CUSTOMS CLEARANCE AND DELIVERY FEES

Postal Regulations prescribe a 15-cent fee to be collected from addressees for the service performed by the Post Office in effecting customs clearance and delivery of each parcel post package and small packet received from foreign countries. Also prescribed is a 10-cent customs clearance fee on letters and letter packages submitted for customs inspection upon receipt from foreign countries. It is proposed to eliminate such charges on all items of mail matter found upon examination to be nondutiable.

In lieu of the foregoing fees, it is proposed that a 30-cent charge on parcel post and small packets, and a 10-cent charge on letters, letter packages, and other Postal Union articles, received from other countries be collected only when they are actually subject to duty.

The following is an amendment proposed to be made by the Department to the regulations in Part 131 of Title 39, Code of Federal Regulations, respecting customs clearance and delivery fees.

The regulations relate to a proprietary and foreign affairs function of the Government, and therefore are exempted from the rule making requirements of section 1003 of Title 5, United States Code. However, it is the desire of the Postmaster General to voluntarily observe the rule making requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act in matters of this kind, and to afford patrons of the Postal Service an opportunity to present written views concerning the proposed amendments. Such written views may be submitted to E. George Siedle, Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Transportation, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D. C., at any time prior to May 1, 1957.

Section 131.2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 131.2 Customs clearance and delivery fees. On every dutiable parcel post package and every dutiable small packet delivered to you, you are charged 30 cents. On every dutiable Postal Union article other than a small packet, you are charged 10 cents. These charges are for the service performed by the post office in effecting customs clearance and delivery of the articles or parcels, and are collected together with the customs duty.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR Part 250]

[File No. S7–157]

FINANCIAL CONNECTIONS OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF REGISTERED HOLDING COMPANIES AND SUBSIDIARIES THEREOF

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a formal request to amend § 250.70 (Rule U-70), adopted under section 17 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, governing the connections with financial institutions of officers and directors of registered holding companies and subsidiary companies.

Section 17 (c) of the act prohibits any registered holding company or any subsidiary company thereof from having as an officer or director any "executive officer, partner, appointee or representative of any bank, trust company, investment banker, or banking association or firm" except as permitted by rule and regulation of the Commission "as not adversely affecting the public interest or the interest of investors and consumers." Rule U-70 defines those persons or situations to which the Commission has granted exemption from section 17 (c).

The requested amendment would provide an exemption to registered holding companies which are in the process of transforming to investment companies, by adding a subparagraph (7) to paragraph (a) of the present section so that the amended section would read as follows:

§ 250.70 Exemptions from section 17 (c) of the act—(a) Exempted persons. Subject to paragraph (b) of this section, a registered holding company or subsidiary may have as officers or directors the persons specified below:

* * * * *

(7) Registered holding companies during conversion to investment company. A person who is a director of a "commercial banking institution" as hereafter defined in paragraph (c) (6) of this section: Provided, That such person may act as a director, but not as an officer, of a registered holding company which has no public-utility subsidiaries operating within the United States, only in the period during which such company is in the process of converting into an investment company in compliance with an order of the Commission under section 11 of the act which has become final.

All interested persons are hereby invited to submit views and comments on the proposed revision of the rule. Such views and comments and any request for oral argument in respect thereof should be submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. on or before April 18, 1957. All correspondence in connection with this proposal should refer to the above file number.

By the Commission.

In the above, the areas described total 4,844.87 acres of public land. The above lands are generally accessible by state and county roads. They are situated at elevations ranging generally from 4,000 to 6,000 feet with soils varying from lava ash and silt loam to sandy and gravelly deposits. In some areas rock outcroppings of float rock occur. Vegetation is generally perennial grassland or sagebrush grassland type with some annual weeds. Rainfall in the area is low, varying from nine to twelve inches annually.

No application for these lands will be allowed under the homestead, desert land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public land law, unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable laws, the lands described herein are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections and locations, in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications, selections, and offers will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims, subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the application and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the homestead, desert land and small tract laws by qualified veterans of World War II and, or, the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279 through 284, as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on April 24, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on July 24, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on July 24, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands will be opened to location under the United States mining laws, beginning 10:00 a. m. on July 24, 1957.

Persons claiming veteran's preference rights under paragraph a (2) above must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, P. O. Box 2237, Boise, Idaho.

J. R. PENNY,

CIVIL AERONAUTICS ADMINISTRATION

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

The material appearing in 21 F. R. 7027-7030 of September 19, 1956 is amended as follows:

The purpose of this amendment is to (1) establish in the Office of International Cooperation the Flight Operations and Airworthiness Division and to define the functions of the new Division, (2) reassigning the responsibilities of the Research and Development Coordinator and the Program Planning Office to a new Planning and Development Office, and (3) to provide for the administration and enforcement of Transportation Orders as they apply to the shipment and transportation of goods by air which authority is now contained in Supplement No. 5 to Department Order No. 128 of March 21, 1956. Accordingly, Department Order No. 86 (Amended) of July 1, 1956, is amended as follows.

Subsection (5) of section 6.01 is amended to read as follows:

(5) The Office of International Cooperation plans and recommends coordinated policies and program requirements with respect to the responsibilities of the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics for international aviation; provides for representation by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics in negotiations with other United States agencies, foreign governments, the International Civil Aviation Organization and other international organizations on international aviation matters; provides technical civil aviation assistance in foreign countries; directs the activities of Civil Aeronautics Administration employees assigned abroad under technical assistance programs; arranges for and coordinates the technical aeronautical training of foreign nationals in the United States; directs the Administrator's program for determining and evaluating deficiencies in air navigation aids and aviation services in international aviation and initiating action to eliminate specific deficiencies; provides, in accordance with directives, policies and programs of the Office of Flight Operations and Airworthiness, for the inspection and certification of U. S. air carriers, aircraft, airmen, and air agencies engaged in international and overseas operations, foreign carriers conducting operations to or within U. S. territory, and foreign airmen and aeronautical manufacturers, as required. The Office of International Cooperation has a Technical Assistance Division, an ICAO Division, and a Flight Operations and Airworthiness Division.

Subsection (1) of section 2.02 is changed by deleting "Research and Development Coordinator."

Subsection (4) of section 2.02 is changed by revising "Program Planning Office" to read "Planning and Development Office."

Subsection (2) of section 5.02 is changed by deleting the present paragraph (a) and redesignating paragraph (b) as new paragraph (a).

Subsection (2) of section 7.01 is changed to read as follows:

(2) The Planning and Development Office provides staff assistance to the Office of the Administrator in the development of long-range civil aviation policy and programs, and in the coordination and evaluation of all research and development activities of the agency as follows: (a) Identifies and analyzes basic program policy questions in civil and their relationship to programs and operations of the Civil Aeronautics Administration; conducts studies to provide indices of long-range future trends for use in determining future operational requirements and specific programs, plans, procedures and policies for current needs, and for orderly transition to new developments designed to meet future needs; coordinates the planning activities of the Program Offices to ensure the development of integrated plans for all of the agency's programs; conducts statistical research and economic studies for planning the agency's program; provides for or directs the collection, analysis, and dissemination of all statistical data for determining the needs of civil aviation, the development of appropriate plans for meeting those needs, and the conduct of the Civil Aeronautics Administration's programs; (b) reviews all plans for research and development projects to be conducted by, or under arrangements made by, the Civil Aeronautics Administration; determines the scope, timing, and assignment of research and development projects; coordinates the evaluation of results of research and development projects and of recommendations for their implementation; (c) conducts or coordinates liaison with planning organizations, such as the Air Coordinating Committee and the program planning staffs of other governmental organizations, including the military Departments, concerned with aeronautical problems, policies, and programs, and represents the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics in dealing with research and development organizations of the Military Departments and other agencies both within and outside the Federal government.

Section 3.02 is amended to read as follows:

.02 The Administrator of Civil Aeronautics shall also carry out the power and responsibility vested in and delegated to the Secretary of Commerce under the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, with respect to the administration and enforcement of Transportation Orders as they apply to the shipment and transportation of goods by air and those portions of the defense production program relating to civil aviation not otherwise reserved or assigned.

Effective date: February 15, 1957.

LICENSE No. R-9

1. Subject to the conditions and requirements incorporated herein, the Atomic Energy Commission hereby licenses Aerojet-General Nucleonics, San Ramon, California (hereinafter referred to as "AGN").

a. Pursuant to section 104c of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (hereinafter referred to as "the act"), and Title 10, CFR, Chapter I, Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities," to possess and operate as a utilization facility the nuclear reactor (hereinafter referred to as "the facility") designated below:

b. Pursuant to the act and Title 10, CFR, Chapter I, Part 70, "Special Nuclear Materials Regulations," to receive, possess and use up to 700 grams of contained uranium 235 in uranium oxide (UO_2) as fuel for operation of the facility.

c. Pursuant to the act and Title 10, CFR, Chapter I, Part 30, "Licensing of By-Product Material," to possess, but not to separate from the fuel or target materials such by-product material as may be produced from operation of the reactor.

2. This license applies to the nuclear reactor designated by the applicant as Model AGN-201, Serial No. 102 which is owned by AGN and located at San Ramon, California, and described in the application and documents incorporated therein by reference.

3. This license shall be deemed to contain and be subject to the conditions specified in section 50.54 of Part 50 and section 70.32 of Part 70; is subject to all applicable provisions of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 and rules, regulations and orders of the Atomic Energy Commission now or hereafter in effect, and is subject to any additional conditions specified or incorporated below.

4. The conditions and requirements contained in Appendix "A", attached hereto, are a part of this license.

5. This license is effective as of the date of issuance and shall expire at midnight, February 21, 1977, unless sooner terminated.

Date of issuance: March 14, 1957.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of March 1957.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

H. L. PRICE,
Director,
Division of Civilian Application.

APPENDIX "A"

I. Operating restrictions. a. AGN shall operate the reactor in accordance with the procedures described in its application and documents incorporated therein by reference.

b. AGN shall not by-pass any control mechanism during the operation of the facility.

c. AGN shall not operate the reactor at power levels in excess of 100 milliwatts without previous authorization from the Commission.

II. Records. In addition to those otherwise required under this license, AGN shall keep the following records:

a. Reactor operating records, including power levels.

b. Record of in-pile irradiations.

c. Records showing radioactivity released or discharged into the air or water beyond the effective control of AGN as measured at the point of such release or discharge.

d. Records of emergency reactor scrams, including reasons for emergency shutdowns.

III. Reports. AGN shall make a prompt report to the Commission of any unusual operating incident of the reactor.

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In the matter of the application of New Jersey Exchanges, Inc. (KEC738), Docket No. 11932, File No. 2379-C2-P-56; for a construction permit to establish a new station for two-way communications in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service at Ridgewood, New Jersey.

The Hearing Examiner having under consideration a petition filed March 18, 1957, on behalf of Telephone Secretarial Service, Inc. requesting that the dates for the exchange of exhibits and the introduction of exhibits and the cross-examination of witnesses be extended from March 19, 1957 and March 26, 1957 respectively to March 26, 1957, and April 2, 1957, respectively; and

It appearing that the requested extension is necessary to allow an additional week in which to prepare engineering material, that counsel for the applicant and the Chief, Common Carrier Bureau have consented to the requested continuance and to waive the provisions of § 1.745 of the Commission's rules, that good cause for the requested extension has been shown but the Hearing Examiner's schedule is such that the evidentiary hearing cannot begin prior to April 3, 1957;

It is ordered, This the 19th day of March 1957 that the petition for extension of time is granted and the date for the exchange of exhibits is extended from March 19, 1957, to March 26, 1957, and the date for the introduction of exhibits and the cross-examination of witnesses is extended from March 26, 1957, to April 3, 1957.

[Docket Nos. G-4557, G-10285]

HOPE PRODUCING CO. AND SAM SKLAR

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 21, 1957.

In the matters of Hope Producing Company, Docket No. G-4557; of Sam Sklar, operator, Docket No. G-10285.

Take notice that Hope Producing Company (Hope), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Monroe, Louisiana, filed an application in Docket No. G-4557 for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing it to continue the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce to Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Company for resale, from production in the Ada Field, Webster and Bienville Parishes, Louisiana, as more fully represented in the application filed with the Commission on October 25, 1954, and open to public inspection.

On July 12, 1956, Hope amended its application in Docket No. G-4557 to delete therefrom any request for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing sales of gas to Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Company, insofar as said gas may be attributable to interests assigned to Sam Sklar by certain instruments incorporated by reference and made a part of the application herein.

Sam Sklar, Operator, with his principal place of business in Shreveport, Louisiana, filed on April 19, 1956, an application in Docket No. G–10285, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing him to sell natural gas in interstate commerce to Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Company for resale, from production from the Sam Sklar-Mott Unit No. 1 in the Ada Field, acquired from Hope Producing Company and described herein, all as more fully represented in the application in Docket No. G–10285, which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 30, 1957 at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G. Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, that the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 10, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket No. G–11284]

HOPE NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 21, 1957.

Take notice that Hope Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a West Virginia corporation whose address is Clarksburg, West Virginia, filed on October 24, 1956, an application for permission to abandon facilities, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant seeks permission to abandon two 500-horsepower gas engine compressor units at its Kennedy Compressor Station in Lewis County, West Virginia. This station is used principally to compress locally produced gas for delivery to Hastings Station.

Applicant states that the available volume of gas produced from the area served by the Kennedy Compressor Station has diminished until it is no longer necessary to operate its two 500-horsepower "Rathbun Jones" engine units. These 38-year old machines represent less than 16 percent of the 6,350 total installed horsepower in the compressor station. During the last two years they have been operated only 220¼ hours, or slightly more than one percent of the possible operating time. Repair parts are unavailable for the two compressors.

Applicant claims that no curtailment of service will result from the proposed abandonment of the two compressors. Maintenance and operating expense on them will be eliminated. It is proposed to sell them for scrap to the highest bidder.

This matter should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 19, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 8, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP. ET AL.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

MARCH 21, 1957.

In the matters of Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation, Docket No. G–11448; Vincent & Welch, Inc., et al., Docket No. G–11449.

Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco), a Delaware corporation, with its principal place of business in Houston, Texas, filed an application on November 8, 1956, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of a 4-inch tap on its existing 20-inch Egan-Jennings-Union Oil purchase lateral, Acadia Parish, Louisiana, for the purpose of receiving natural gas from the Grand Coulee Field, Acadia Parish, Louisiana, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Vincent & Welch, Inc., acting Individually and as Operator, a Louisiana corporation with its principal place of business in Lake Charles, Louisiana; Natural Bulk Carriers, Inc., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in New York City, New York; George C. McGhee with a principal place of business in Dallas, Texas; and Howard S. Cole, Jr., with a principal place of business in Houston, Texas, hereinafter referred to as Producer Applicants, filed a joint application on November 8, 1956, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing Producer Applicants to sell natural gas in interstate commerce to Transco for resale, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Transco proposes to construct and operate facilities for the purpose of purchasing from and accepting deliveries of natural gas produced by Producer Applicants in the Grand Coulee Field, Acadia Parish, Louisiana. The contract covering the proposed sale of natural gas, dated August 1, 1956, is for a period of 20 years, with a take or pay for provision based upon the number of wells drilled. The said contract purports to dedicate the certain areas of acreage described in Exhibit A to said contract, and with reference to which each of the Sellers (Producer Applicants) sells to Transco such gas or interest in the gas produced from the leases dedicated therefor, and that each seller is selling individually and not jointly.

Temporary authorizations were issued Transco and Producer Applicants on December 21, 1956, authorizing the requested construction and operation by Transco, and sales by Producer Applicants.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on May 8, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised it will not be necessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 15, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket No. G–11486]

TEXAS GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARNG

MARCH 21, 1957.

Take notice that Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Owensboro, Kentucky, filed, on November 15, 1956, an application as supplemented on December 19, 1956, for permission and approval to abandon facilities, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant seeks to abandon a portion of its 18-inch and 10-inch pipeline system consisting of approximately 40 miles of pipeline together with 12 metering stations and appurtenances all located within Shelby County, Tennessee near Memphis.

Applicant states that the facilities in question were originally built in 1928, 1931 and 1946 and acquired by it from the Memphis Natural Gas Company in 1948, and are presently utilized exclusively for service to the Memphis Light, Gas and Water Division of the City of Memphis, which has agreed to purchase the facilities for use as a part of its distribution system.

Applicant states that since construction of the lines, the area surrounding these facilities has become largely residential in character, and can be readily integrated into Memphis' local distribution system.

Applicant states further that a new meter and regulator station will be constructed by it on the southern boundary of Shelby County on the 18-inch system originating in Louisiana and connected to the system to be sold. This station will be the sole delivery point for the gas to Memphis from the 18-inch system. Texas Gas will maintain an emergency connection with Memphis between the northern terminus of the facilities to be transferred and the existing 10-inch line of Texas Gas at the northern boundary of Shelby County.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 30, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 12, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket Nos. 11563, 11712]

UNION OIL AND GAS CORPORATION OF LOUISIANA ET AL.

ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS FOR HEARING AND DISMISSING PETITION TO INTERVENE

MARCH 21, 1957.

In the matters of Union Oil and Gas Corporation of Louisiana, Docket No. G–11563; H. S. Cole, Jr., et al., Docket No. G–11712.

The Commission, by order issued December 7, 1956, in Docket No. G–11563, provided for hearing concerning the lawfulness of changes in rates and charges proposed by Union Oil and Gas Corporation of Louisiana to its FPC Gas Rate Schedules Nos. 2 and 3, and pending such hearing and decision thereon, suspended and deferred the use of those proposed changes, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 (e) of the Natural Gas Act.

Similarly, by order issued January 9, 1957, in Docket No. G–11712, the Commission provided for hearing concerning the lawfulness of proposed changes in rates and charges tendered for filing by H. S. Cole, Jr., et al., to his FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3, and pending such hearing and decision thereon, suspended and deferred the use of those proposed changes, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 (e) of the Act.

In accordance with the notice issued February 25, 1957, by the Secretary of the Commission, hearing has been scheduled in Docket No. G–11563 commencing April 24, 1957.

On February 28, 1957, petition to intervene in Docket No. G–11563 was filed on behalf of H. S. Cole, Jr., et al. That petition sets forth that the aforementioned rate schedules of Union and Cole relate to sales of natural gas by those parties to Texas Gas Transmission Corporation from their respective working interests in wells and units in the South Lewisburg Field, Acadia Parish, Louisiana. The allegations of that petition further indicate that the proceedings in the above dockets may involve common questions of law or fact.

It is appropriate and in the public interest, therefore, that the proceedings in Docket Nos. G–11563 and G–11712 be consolidated for purposes of hearing. Under such consolidation, the petition to intervene in Docket No. G–11563 filed on behalf of H. S. Cole, Jr., et al., is unnecessary and should be dismissed.

The Commission orders:

(A) The proceedings in Docket Nos. G–11563 and G–11712 hereby are consolidated for purposes of hearing.

(B) A public hearing respecting the matters involved and the issues presented in these consolidated proceedings be held commencing April 24, 1957, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., as heretofore scheduled by the Secretary of the Commission by notice issued February 25, 1957, in Docket No. G–11563.

(C) In view of the consolidation herein ordered, the petition to intervene in Docket No. G–11563, filed on February 28, 1957, on behalf of H. S. Cole, Jr., et al., hereby is dismissed.

(D) Interested State Commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G–12264]

EAST TENNESSEE NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED REVISED TARIFF SHEETS AND PROVIDING FOR HEARING

MARCH 21, 1957.

On February 20, 1957, East Tennessee Natural Gas Company (East Tennessee), tendered for filing Second Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 8, 11, 14, 16, 17, 19, and 20 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, which revisions propose increases in its rates and charges aggregating approximately $578,070, or 8.7 percent, per annum based on sales for the year ending January 31, 1957, as adjusted. The proposed increase is in addition to the increased rates and charges in effect subject to refund under Docket No. G–5470.

East Tennessee states that the proposed increases are due primarily to the recent filing of a proposed rate increase by Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Tennessee), its sole supplier. It requests that the increased rates and charges be permitted to become effective as of March 23, 1957, or, in any event, at a date not later than the date upon which the increased rates and charges of Tennessee would become effective.

The Commission on February 13, 1957 ordered a hearing in Docket No. G–11980 concerning the lawfulness of the increased rates and charges proposed by Tennessee, and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, such proposed rates and charges have been suspended until July 14, 1957, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, and until such further time thereafter as they may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act. East Tennessee's proposed increase is dependent in part upon and can be supported only by relying upon the effectiveness of the revised rates and charges of its supplier, and should therefore be suspended pending determination of said effectiveness.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services contained in East Tennessee's FPC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, as proposed to be amended by Second Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 8, 11, 14, 16, 17, 19, and 20, and that the said proposed tariff sheets and the increased rates and charges contained therein be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's regulations under the Natural Gas Act, including rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held at a time and date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary of this Commission, concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, contained in East Tennessee's FPC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1 as proposed to be amended by Second Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 8, 11, 14, 16, 17, 19, and 20.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, the proposed rates and charges contained in the revised tariff sheets referred to in (A) above hereby are suspended and their use deferred until July 14, 1957, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, and until such further time thereafter as they may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 24D–1785]

TEXAS WESTERN OIL AND URANIUM CO.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

MARCH 21, 1957.

I. Texas Western Oil and Uranium Co. (hereinafter referred to as the "issuer"), 407 Denver National Building, Denver, Colorado, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder, filed with the Commission on June 15, 1955 a notification on Form 1–A and an offering circular, and subsequently filed on amendment thereto, relating to a proposed offering of 5,960,000 shares of its 1¢ par value common stock at 5¢ per share.

II. The Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that the terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that:

A. The issuer has failed to file a report of sales on Form 2–A as required by Rule 224 under Regulation A.

B. The notification and offering circular contain untrue statements of material facts and omit to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, in that:

1. The offering circular fails to disclose the correct address of the issuer as required by Rule 219 (c) (1) of Regulation A.

2. The offering circular states that Floyd Koster and Company, as underwriter, will use its best efforts to sell the issue, whereas said firm is not now acting as underwriter for the issuer with respect to this proposed offering.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A for the aforesaid offering of issuer's common stock be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place of said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

[File No. 68–167]

UNION ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE REGARDING SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

MARCH 21, 1957.

By order dated February 27, 1957 (Holding Company Act Release No. 13399) the Commission prohibited Union Electric Company ("Union"), a registered holding company, and all other persons from soliciting any proxy or other authorization regarding the voting of any security of Union in connection with the annual meeting of Union's stockholders to be held April 20, 1957 except pursuant to a declaration, filed under section 12 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rule U–62 promulgated thereunder, which shall have been permitted by the Commission to become effective.

Union thereafter filed a declaration and amendments thereto in regard to its proposed solicitation of proxies in connection with such meetings and the expenditure of corporate funds in furtherance thereof.

After appropriate notice (Holding Company Act Release No. 13410) a public hearing was held on Union's declaration at which counsel appeared for Union and for the Commission's Division of Corporate Regulation. J. Raymond Dyer, a Union stockholder, was granted leave to participate on behalf of himself and his daughter, Nancy Corinne Dyer, also a Union stockholder.

The Commission, having considered the record herein and the brief filed by the said J. Raymond Dyer, finds that the declaration, as amended, filed by Union would meet the applicable standards of the act if further amended as hereinafter indicated and that due to the exigencies of the situation it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that this order be issued in advance of the issuance and release of the Commission's findings and opinion:

It is ordered, That upon the filing of an appropriate further amendment, Union's declaration shall become effective, such amendment to include:

(a) A reference in the proxy statement to the pending investigations by the Commission to determine whether Union has violated the provisions of section 12 (h) of the act.

(b) A reference in the proxy statement that the Division of Corporate Regulation presented as an issue to be determined at the hearing herein the appropriateness, under the standards of section 12 (e) of the act, of the resolution proposed by J. Raymond Dyer which, if adopted, would authorize the Directors of Union to reimburse expenses of soliciting proxies to any insurgent group of stockholders which is successful in electing a majority of the Board of Union at the next annual meeting and that the Commission did not resolve such issue but reserved jurisdiction with respect thereto.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and hereby is, reserved with respect to the following:

(a) To determine the appropriateness of the allocation proposed by Union of expenses in connection with Union's solicitation of proxies for its annual meeting to be held April 20, 1957.

(b) To determine the appropriateness of the resolution referred to in paragraph (b) above.

(c) To pass upon any additional solicitation material proposed to be used by Union which material shall be filed as a post-effective amendment herein and which material, unless the Commission orders a hearing thereon, may be used for solicitation after five business days have elapsed from the filing thereof or after such shorter period as the Commission may authorize upon good cause shown.

By the Commission.

SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

[Declaration of Disaster Area 126]

TERRITORY OF HAWAII

DECLARATION OF DISASTER AREA

Whereas, it has been reported that beginning on or about March 9, 1957, because of the disastrous effects of tidal waves, damage resulted to residences and business property located in certain areas in the Territory of Hawaii;

Whereas, the Small Business Administration has investigated and has received other reports of investigations of conditions in the areas affected; and

Whereas, after reading and evaluating reports of such conditions, I find that the conditions in such areas constitute a catastrophe within the purview of the Small Business Act of 1953, as amended;

Now, therefore, as Administrator of the Small Business Administration, I hereby determine that:

1. Applications for disaster loans under the provisions of section 207 (b) (1) of the Small Business Act of 1953, as amended, may be received and considered by the Office below indicated from persons or firms whose property situated in the following Districts (including any areas adjacent to the Districts below named) suffered damage or other destruction as a result of the catastrophe above referred to:

Districts: Hanalei and Haena, Island of Kauai; and Waialua, Island of Oahu.

Office: Small Business Administration Branch Office, 440 South Hotel Street, Rooms 1 and 2, Honolulu, Hawaii.

2. A special field office to receive and process such applications will be established on the Island of Kauai.

3. Applications for disaster loans under the authority of this Declaration will not be accepted subsequent to September 30, 1957.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION

[Investigation 15]

TUNG OIL

NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION AND HEARING

Institution of investigation. By direction of the President, in a letter dated March 21, 1957, the United States Tariff Commission, on the 22d day of March 1957, instituted, and hereby gives notice of, an investigation under section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, and Executive Order 7233 of November 23, 1935, for the purpose of determining whether Tung oil is being or is practically certain to be imported into the United States under such conditions and in such quantities as to render or tend to render ineffective, or materially interfere with, the price-support program for tung nuts and tung oil undertaken by the Department of Agriculture, or to reduce substantially the amount of products processed in the United States from domestic tung nuts or tung oil with respect to which such program is being undertaken.

Hearing. A public hearing in connection with this investigation will be held in the Tariff Commission hearing room, Tariff Commission Building, Eighth and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C., beginning at 10 a. m., e. d. s. t., on May 2, 1957. All parties interested will be given opportunity to be present, to produce evidence, and to be heard at such hearing.

Request to appear. Interested parties desiring to appear at the public hearing should notify the Secretary of the Tariff Commission, in writing, at its offices in Washington, D. C., at least 3 days in advance of the date set for the hearing.

Issued: March 22, 1957.

By order of the Commission.

PART 723—CIGAR-FILLER TOBACCO, CIGAR-BINDER TOBACCO, AND CIGAR-FILLER AND BINDER TOBACCO

PROCLAMATION OF RESULTS OF MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDA

Sections 723.805 to 723.807 are added as set forth below and the headnote for Part 723 is amended to read as set forth above.

Sec.

723.805 Basis and purpose.

723.806 Proclamation of the results of the cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco marketing quota referendum for the three-year period beginning October 1, 1957.

723.807 Proclamation of the results of the cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54 and 55) tobacco marketing quota referendum for the three-year period beginning October 1, 1957.

AUTHORITY: §§ 723.805 to 723.807 issued under sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply sec. 312, 52 Stat. 46, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1312.

§ 723.805 Basis and purpose. Sections 723.805, 723.806 and 723.807 are issued to announce the results of the cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco and cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54 and 55) tobacco marketing quota referenda for the three marketing years beginning October 1, 1957. Under the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, the Secretary proclaimed national marketing quotas for cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco and cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54 and 55) tobacco for the 1957-58, 1958-59 and 1959-60 marketing years, and announced the amount of the national marketing quota for cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco and cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54 and 55) tobacco for the 1957-58 marketing year (22 F. R. 367). The Secretary announced (22 F. R. 385) that referenda would be held February 13, 1957, to determine whether cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco producers and cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54 and 55) tobacco producers were in favor of or opposed to marketing quotas for the three marketing years beginning October 1, 1957.

§ 723.806 Proclamation of the results of the cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco marketing quota referendum for the three-year period beginning October 1, 1957. In a referendum of farmers engaged in the production of the 1956 crop of cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco held on February 13, 1957, 1,862 farmers voted. Of those voting, 1,825 or 98.0 percent favored quotas for a period of three years beginning October 1, 1957; 37 or 2.0 percent were opposed to quotas. Therefore, the national marketing quota of 23,200,000 pounds proclaimed January 15, 1957 (22 F. R. 367) for cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco for the 1957-58 marketing year will be in effect for such year and marketing quotas on cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco will be in effect for the three marketing years beginning October 1, 1957.

§ 723.807 Proclamation of the results of the cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54 and 55) tobacco marketing quota referendum for the three-year period beginning October 1, 1957. In a referendum of farmers engaged in the production of the 1956 crop of cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54 and 55) tobacco held February 13, 1957, 3,944 farmers voted. Of those voting, 3,712 or 94.1 percent favored quotas for a period of three years beginning Oc-

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Docket No. AO-222-A8]

PART 921—MILK IN OZARKS MARKETING AREA

ORDER AMENDING ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING HANDLING

§ 921.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order, and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Ozarks marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary, in the public interest, to make this order amending the order, as amended, effective not later than April 1, 1957, so as to reflect current marketing conditions. Any delay beyond April 1, 1957, in the effective date of this order amending the order, as amended, will impair the orderly marketing of milk in the Ozarks marketing area. The changes effected by this order amending the order, as amended, do not require of persons affected, substantial or extensive preparation prior to the effective date. The provisions of said order are well known to handlers.

In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order, as amended, effective April 1, 1957, and that it would be impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this order 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (sec. 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this order amending the order, as amended, which is marketed within the Ozarks marketing area) of more than 50 percent of the milk which is marketed within the said marketing area, refused, or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of the order amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during the determined representative period (January 1957), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Ozarks marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended as set forth below:

1. Amend § 921.7 by deleting the words following the semicolon in (b) "which milk is delivered from the farm to a pool plant or diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant for the account of a handler" and substituting therefor the following: "which milk is (1) delivered from the farm to a pool plant, or (2) diverted during any of the months of February through August, or to the extent of not more than 10 days' production during any of the months of September through January, by a handler from a pool plant to a nonpool plant for the account of a handler."

2. Revise § 921.8 to read as follows:

§ 921.8 Handler. "Handler" means:

(a) Any person in his capacity as the operator of an approved plant or a pool plant;

(b) A cooperative association, with respect to the milk of its member producers which is delivered to the pool plant of another handler in a tank truck owned or operated by or under contract to such cooperative association for the account of such cooperative association (such milk shall be considered as having been received by such cooperative association at the plant to which it is delivered); or

(c) Any cooperative association with respect to the milk from any producer member of such association which is diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant by such cooperative association for its account.

3. Amend § 921.11 to read as follows:

§ 921.11 Pool plant. "Pool plant" means:

(a) An approved plant from which not less than 15 percent of its receipts of producer milk during the month is disposed of as Class I milk in the marketing area to wholesale or retail outlets (including sales through vendors or plant stores);

(b) A supply plant from which a quantity of milk equal to at least 25 percent of its supply of milk from producers and from other pool plants is shipped to an approved plant during any of the months of April, May, or June, or 20 percent in any other month: Provided, That if such plant shall ship 20 percent or more of such supply to an approved plant during each of the months of September, October, November and December, such plant shall be designated as a pool plant during each of the subsequent months through the following August, unless such plant requests nonpool designation by means of written application to the market administrator; or

(c) Any supply plant which ships any milk to an approved plant which is a pool plant in any month during the period from the effective date hereof through August 31, 1957: Provided, That such supply plant shall not be a pool plant for the months of April, May, June, or July, unless such plant makes its milk available to other handlers for distribution as Class I milk in the marketing area. Such milk shall be considered to have been made available if the operator of such plant files with the market administrator on or before the first day of each of the preceding months of August through March a statement offering milk for sale and specifying terms and conditions of sale, including the price or handling charge above the Class I price; such offer to be posted in the market administrator's office.

4. Amend § 921.14 to read as follows:

§ 921.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in:

(a) Receipts during the month in the form of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 921.41 (a), except (1) such products approved by the appropriate health authority for distribution as Class I milk in the marketing area which are received from pool plants, or (2) producer milk; and

(b) Products designated as Class II milk pursuant to § 921.41 (b) (1) from any source (including those from a plant's own production) which are reprocessed or converted to another product in the plant during the month.

5. Amend § 921.15 to read as follows:

§ 921.15 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means a person who operates both a dairy farm(s) and a milk processing or bottling plant at which each of the following conditions is met during the month:

(a) Milk is received from the dairy farm(s) of such person but from no other dairy farm;

(b) Fluid milk products are disposed of on routes or through a plant store to retail or wholesale outlets in the marketing area; and

(c) The butterfat or skim milk disposed of in the form of a product designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 921.41 (a) does not exceed the butterfat or skim milk, respectively, received in the form of milk from the dairy farm(s) of such person and in the form of a product designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 921.41 (a) from pool plants of other handlers.

6. Amend § 921.41 (b) to read as follows:

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat:

(1) Used to produce any product other than those specified as Class I in paragraph (a) of this section;

(2) In inventory of products designated as Class I milk in § 921.41 (a) on hand at the end of the month;

(3) In shrinkage allocated to receipts of producer milk but not in excess of 2 percent of receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, directly from producers (except producer milk diverted in producer cans to a nonpool plant pursuant to § 921.7) and pursuant to § 921.8 (b) from cooperative associations, plus 1.5 percent of receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, transferred in bulk tanks from pool plants of other handlers, less 1.5 percent of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, disposed of in bulk tank lots to the pool plants of other handlers; and

(4) In shrinkage allocated to receipts of other source milk.

7. Amend § 921.42 (b) to read as follows:

(b) Prorate the resulting amounts between (1) the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in the net quantity of milk from producers, from cooperative associations pursuant to § 921.8 (b), and in bulk tanks from pool plants of other handlers, and (2) the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk.

8. Amend § 921.45 to read as follows:

§ 921.45 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and other obvious errors the reports submitted by each handler and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed, the pounds of skim milk used or disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all the water originally associated with such solids.

9. Amend § 921.44 (d) by deleting "50" and substituting therefor "100".

10. Amend § 921.46 (a) by renumbering subparagraphs "(5)", "(6)" and "(7)" as "(6)", "(7)" and "(8)", respectively, and adding a new subparagraph (5) as follows:

(5) Subtract from pounds of skim milk remaining in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of products designated as Class I milk in § 921.41 (a) on hand at the beginning of the month: Provided, That if the pounds of milk in such inventory shall exceed the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II, the balance shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk remaining in Class I.

11. Amend § 921.51 (a) to read as follows:

(a) Class I milk. For each of the months of July through March the Class I price shall be the Class I price announced for such month under Part 903 of this chapter, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis marketing area, minus 27 cents, and for the months of April, May and June the price for Class I milk shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month plus 63 cents: Provided, That 15 cents shall be added to the price for Class I milk at pool plants located in Benton and Washington Counties, Arkansas.

12. Amend § 921.51 (b) (3) to read as follows:

(b) Class II milk. • • •

(3) From the sum of the results arrived at under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph subtract 81 cents.

13. Amend § 921.70 by deleting paragraph (c) and adding new paragraphs (c) and (d) as follows:

(c) Add an amount computed by multiplying the difference between the Class II price for the preceding month and the Class I price for the current month by the hundredweight of producer milk classified as Class II milk (other than as shrinkage) during the preceding month or the hundredweight of milk subtracted from Class I milk pursuant to § 921.46 (a) (5) and the corresponding step of § 921.46 (b), whichever is less; and

(d) Add the amounts computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 921.46 (a) (8) and (b) by the applicable class prices.

14. Amend § 921.80 (a) (2) by deleting the words "pursuant to § 921.89" and substituting therefor the words "pursuant to § 921.87".

15. Amend § 921.84 to read as follows:

§ 921.84 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the twelfth day after the end of each month, each handler shall pay to the market administrator the amount by which the value of the milk received by such handler, as determined pursuant to § 921.70, is greater than the amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of such handler's milk by the uniform price adjusted by the producer butterfat and location differentials: Provided, That to this amount shall be added one-half of one percent of any amount due the market administrator pursuant to this section for each month or any portion thereof that such payment is overdue. Such payment shall be considered to be overdue on the 15th day after the end of the month to which the obligation applies.

16. Amend § 921.85 by changing the last period to a colon and adding the following proviso: "And provided further, That the market administrator may deduct from payments due handlers pursuant to this section any unpaid balance due the market administrator from such handler pursuant to §§ 921.84, 921.86, 921.87 (a) and 921.88."

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of March 1957, to be effective on and after April 1, 1957.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

Subchapter A—Civil Air Regulations

[Supp. 5]

PART 35—FLIGHT ENGINEER CERTIFICATES

POLICIES AND INTERPRETATIONS

This supplement contains the policies and interpretations of the Civil Aeronautics Administration relative to the requirements for flight engineer certificates and the certification procedures therefor. It completely revises all existing rules, policies, and interpretations of the Administrator previously issued pursuant to Part 35.

The following policies and interpretations are hereby adopted:

1. Section 35.6–1 is revised and §§ 35.6–2 through 35.6–4 are added o read:

§ 35.6–1 Practical experience as a flight engineer (CAA interpretations which apply to § 35.6 (c)). The 100 hours of flight experience required by this section must have been gained on aircraft having four or more engines or two-engine aircraft having a flight engineer station—military or civil.

§ 35.6–2 Graduates of approved flight engineer training courses (CAA interpretations which apply to § 35.6 (d)). An applicant for a flight engineer certificate who presents a statement of graduation from an approved flight engineer training course need not meet the eligibility requirements of § 35.6 (a), (b), (c), or (e).

§ 35.6–3 Requirements for approved flight engineer courses (CAA policies which apply to § 35.6 (d)). A flight engineer course of ground and flight instruction adequate for the training of a flight engineer should meet the following minimum standards:

(a) Training course outline and application for approval—(1) Application for approval. The agency or applicant desiring approval of a flight engineer course must submit to the local CAA district office three copies of the course outline, a description of the facilities and equipment to be used, and a list of instructors with their qualifications, together with a letter to the Administrator requesting approval.

(2) Training course outline. (i) It is not mandatory that the training course outline have the subject headings arranged exactly as listed in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph. The general subjects are required items. The subheadings are for guidance and may be varied as required provided all pertinent subjects are covered. Each general subject of the outline shall be broken down in detail showing items to be covered.

(ii) A complete and separate course outline is required for each type of aircraft (Lockheed Constellation, Douglas DC–4, Douglas DC–6, Douglas DC–7, Boeing 377, etc.) for which approval of flight engineer training is requested.

(iii) Additional subjects, such as international law, flight hygiene, radio repair, flight radio operation, flight navigation, or others not closely associated with flight engineering, may not be included in hourly requirements of the approved training outline. If an operator desires to add such subjects to a training course outline, they should be separated from the required flight engineer subjects, and the time devoted thereto should not be applied toward meeting the established time minimums.

(3) Format of training outline. The ground course outline and the flight course outline should be combined in one loose-leaf binder and should include a table of contents divided into two parts; ground course and flight course. Each part of the table of contents must contain a list of the general subjects, together with hours allotted to each subject and the total classroom and flight hours.

(4) Ground course outline. (i) The following general subjects and classroom hours are considered the minimum coverage for the ground training portion of the flight engineer course:

(ii) Theory of Flight and Aerodynamics, Basic Maintenance of Aircraft, and Civil Air Regulations need not apply to any specific type of aircraft. The remaining major headings must apply to the same type aircraft in which the student receives the required minimum hours of flight training.

(5) Flight course outline. (i) The following subjects and flight training hours are considered the minimum coverage for the flight training portion of the flight engineer course:

Subject
Normal Flight Duties and Operation:
Power control.
Power computation.
Temperature control.
Normal engine operation analysis.
Fuel system management.
Cabin pressure control.
Operation of all systems.
Long range operation.
Fuel consumption computation.
Recognition of Malfunctioning and Trouble Shooting:
Analysis of abnormal engine operation.
Analysis of trouble in all systems.
Temporary repairs.
Emergency Flight Duties and Operation:
Engine fire control.
Aircraft fire control.
Smoke control.
Loss of power in each system.
Gear and flap, extension, and retraction.
Propeller feathering and unfeathering.
Runaway propellers.
The minimum flight time shall be 15 hours.

(ii) The flight training curriculum must provide for the minimum of fifteen hours of flight instruction in a specific type of aircraft having four engines or more. If a student is to receive flight training in more than one type aircraft, the flight time in one cannot be applied to the flight time in another for the purpose of obtaining the required minimum.

(iii) The flight training may be given on any flights not engaged in the transportation of passengers for hire. The flight training, except emergency procedures, may also be conducted on any flights when the trainee holds a valid commercial pilot certificate, or both an airframe and powerplant mechanic certificate. In either of the above cases, the trainee must be under the constant and direct supervision of an airman holding a valid flight engineer certificate and designated by the air carrier or operator to conduct such training.

(iv) To obtain credit for flight instruction time, the student must occupy the seat provided for the regular flight engineer on the aircraft being flown and must operate the controls in a manner which will provide experience in the subjects listed in the flight course outline. Student observation of another crew member or another student performing such duties or operations is not considered adequate training.

(v) Only one student may be credited with flight time during any one period of flight. If two or more students are carried on the same flight, each student will be credited with only the flight time he has actually spent at the controls under the supervision of a qualified flight engineer.

(vi) A maximum of ten hours of the required flight training may be obtained in acceptable types of synthetic training devices. To be acceptable, the synthetic training device must closely resemble the flight engineer station and flight deck of the airplane in which the flight training will be given. Such resemblance need not include external similarity between the trainer and the airplane; however, the flight engineer station, controls, and instrumentation should be installed in such a manner that the student will not require extensive familiarization upon entering the actual airplane.

(vii) The instruments must be coupled to the various controls in such a manner that all instruments will respond automatically and normally to adjustment of pertinent controls.

(viii) A method will be provided to control pertinent instruments separately in order to present indications of malfunctioning to the student.

(b) Equipment. (1) Classroom equipment will include graphic displays for each general system of the aircraft and its powerplants.

(2) Aircraft suitable for the flight training, and synthetic training devices if used, must be available to the approved course operator to insure that the flight training may be completed without undue delay. The approved course operator may contract or obtain written agreements with other persons for the use of suitable aircraft and/or synthetic training devices. A copy of the contract or written agreement with another person will be attached to each of the three copies of the course outline submitted for approval. In all cases, the approved course operator is responsible for the nature and quality of instructions given.

(c) Instructors. (1) Sufficient classroom instructors must be available to prevent an excessive ratio of students to instructors.

(2) At least one individual who possesses a valid flight engineer certificate must be available for coordination of ground course instruction.

(3) Individuals who conduct flight training must possess valid flight engineer certificates.

(d) Revision of training course. (1) Requests for revisions to course outline, facilities, and equipment will follow procedures for original approval of the course. Revisions should be submitted in such form that an entire page or pages of the approved outline can be removed and replaced by the revisions.

(2) The list of instructors may be revised at any time without request for approval, provided the minimum requirement of paragraph (c) of this section is maintained.

(e) Credit for previous training and experience. (1) Credit may be granted by an operator to students for previous training and experience which is provable and comparable to portions of the approved curriculum. When granting such credit, the approved course operator should be fully cognizant of the fact that he is responsible for the proficiency of his graduates in accordance with paragraph (g) of this section.

(2) Where advanced credit is allowed, the operator should evaluate the student's previous training and experience in accordance with the normal practices of accredited technical schools. Before credit is given for any ground school subject or portion thereof, the student must pass an appropriate examination given by the operator. The results of the examination, a summary of the experience or training used as a basis for credit allowance, and the hours credited should be incorporated as a part of the student's records.

(f) Student records and reports. Approval of a course will not be continued in effect unless the course operator keeps an accurate record of each student, including a chronological log of all instruction, attendance, subjects covered, credits granted, examinations and examination grades, and unless he prepares and transmits to the Civil Aeronautics Administration not later than January 31 of each year, a report containing the following information:

(1) The names of all students graduated and date of graduation.

(2) The ground course grades of each student.

(3) The flight course grades of each student.

(4) The total ground course hours for each student.

(5) The total flight instruction time for each student.

(6) The total synthetic trainer time for each student.

(7) The names of all students failed or dropped, together with dates, school grades, and reasons for dropping.

(g) Quality of instruction. The quality of instruction should be such that at least eighty percent of the students who apply within ninety days after graduation will be able to qualify on the first attempt for certification as flight engineers.

(h) Statement of graduation. Each student who successfully completes the approved flight engineer course should be given a statement of graduation. An acceptable statement of graduation is:

CIVIL AERONAUTICS ADMINISTRATION,
Washington 25, D. C.

GENTLEMEN: This is to certify that _____
(Name of graduate) on _____ successfully (Date of graduation)
completed a course of training for flight engineers which is approved by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

Signed _____ Title _____
School _____

(i) Discontinuance of approval. Upon a finding by the Administrator that a course operator no longer meets the standards of original approval, the Administrator will notify the operator by letter that the course is no longer approved by the Administrator.

(j) Duration. The authority to operate an approved flight engineer training course will expire twenty-four months after the last day of the month of issuance.

(k) Renewal. Application for renewal of an approved flight engineer training course may be made by letter to the Administrator through the local CAA district office at any time within 60 days prior to the expiration date. Renewal of approval will depend upon the course operator meeting the current conditions for approval and having a satisfactory record as an operator.

§ 35.6–4 Flight time as pilot-in-command (CAA policies which apply to § 35.6 (e)). Flight time as copilot actually performing the duties and functions of a pilot-in-command under the surveillance of the pilot-in-command may be used for the purpose of fulfilling the requirement of § 35.6 (e).

2. Section 35.7–1 is revised to read:

§ 35.7–1 Written examination (CAA policies which apply to § 35.7).—(a) Eligibility to take written examination. The flight engineer written examination will be given to any person who meets the eligibility requirements of §§ 35.2 to 35.6.

(b) The examination. (1) The examination is of the multiple choice type and consists of the seven sections listed below covering the subjects listed in § 35.7 (a) to (f).

(i) Civil Air Regulations.

(ii) Theory of Flight and Aerodynamics.

(iii) Aircraft and Engine Performance.

(iv) Computations.

(v) Basic Meteorology.

(vi) Weight and Balance.

(vii) Basic Maintenance.

(2) The entire written examination will be taken at one session. The time limit is 6 hours except that at the discretion of the CAA inspector administering the examination, additional time may be allowed. An applicant will not be permitted to take the examination unless the remaining hours that the office will be open exceed the time limit of 6 hours. To facilitate solution of problems concerning fuel consumption, horsepower and weight and balance, it is recommended that the applicant provide a navigational type computer and/or a slide rule. Pencils and paper will be furnished by the CAA inspector administering the examination.

(3) A minimum grade of 70 percent is required to pass each section. Subsequent to taking the written examination, the applicant will receive from the Airman Records Branch in Washington a Form ACA–578A which will indicate the grades he received on each section of the written examination.

(c) Substitution of credit. An applicant need not take the written examination on subject on which he has demonstrated satisfactory knowledge by reason of having passed a CAA examination on the particular subjects. The following substitutions are authorized:

(1) An applicant who holds an airline transport pilot certificate, or a valid Form ACA–578A indicating a passing grade on section 1 of the airline transport pilot written examination, need be examined only on sections 1, 3, 4, and 7.

(2) An applicant who holds a commercial pilot certificate, or a valid Form ACA–578A indicating passing grades on sections 3 and 4 of the commercial pilot written examination or a passing grade on the new unsectionalized commercial pilot written examination, need be examined only on sections 1, 3, 4, 6, and 7.

(3) An applicant who holds both an airframe and powerplant mechanic certificate, or valid Form ACA–578A indicating passing grades on all sections of both examinations, need be examined only on sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

3. Section 35.8–1 is revised and § 35.8–2 is added to read:

§ 35.8–1 Aircraft used in flight tests (CAA interpretations which apply to § 35.8). The term "aircraft having four or more engines and incorporating a flight engineer station" includes military aircraft.

§ 35.8–2 Practical examination (CAA policies which apply to § 35.8). (a) The practical examination will not be given on flights engaged in the transportation of passengers for hire.

(b) The applicant must have successfully completed the written examination required by § 35.7 within 24 months prior to taking the practical examination. The 24-month limitation will not apply if the applicant has been continuously employed since taking the written examination in a capacity acceptable as qualifying experience in accordance with this part.

(c) The practical examination will include the applicable items listed on Form ACA–1863A. All the items listed under "emergency operation" may be simulated during flight with the exception of Item 49, Propeller Feathering and Unfeathering, and Item 52, Meto Power Application (missed approach). If it is desired to simulate the emergency procedures (except Items 49 and 52) this may be accomplished in the aircraft by explaining the failure or malfunction to the applicant and having him explain in detail the procedures he would follow. He should also be required to point out each appropriate control and its direction of movement.

4. Section 35.9–1 is revised to read:

§ 35.9–1 Limited flight engineer certificates (CAA policies which apply to § 35.9 (b)). Since the written examination for a limited flight engineer certificate is the same as that given for an unlimited flight engineer certificate, the holder of a limited certificate may have the limitation removed without retaking the written examination. However, he will be required to take the practical examination on an aircraft which meets the requirements of § 35.8.

5. The following sections are added to read:

§ 35.10–1 Application for certificate (CAA policies which apply to § 35.10). The application for a flight engineer certificate will be made on Form ACA–1863A.[1]

§ 35.10–2 Statement of graduation from approved flight engineer course (CAA policies which apply to § 35.10). An applicant who applies as a graduate of a flight engineer course found adequate by the Administrator will present a statement of graduation, signed by an official of the organization conducting the approved course. The statement will be attached to the application and made a part of the airman's record.

§ 35.12–1 Temporary certificates (CAA policies which apply to § 35.12). Upon successful completion of the written and practical examinations, the inspector administering the examination will issue a temporary certificate to the applicant. All permanent certificates are issued by the Washington office within 90 days of the date of issuance of the temporary certificate.

§ 35.14–1 Reexamination of practical test (CAA policies which apply to § 35.14). When the flight test portion of the practical examination has been failed, the 5 hours of additional instruction must be given in flight or in a synthetic trainer which meets the requirements specified in § 35.6–3 (a) (5).

§ 35.14–2 Statements of instruction (CAA policies which apply to § 35.14). An applicant for reexamination will not be required to be reexamined on those sections of the written or practical examination previously accomplished with satisfactory grades. Statements of instruction on subjects previously failed will be accepted only from the following individuals and under the conditions specified.

(a) Certificated flight engineer. All subjects of the written examination, and the practical examination.

(b) Certificated ground instructor. Section 1 of the written examination if rated on Civil Air Regulations, and sections 3 and 7 if rated on aircraft and aircraft engine.

(c) Rated military flight engineer. Sections 2 through 7 of the written examination and the practical examination if the military flight engineer is known to be qualified on the type of aircraft to be used by the applicant.

(d) Operator of an approved flight engineer course. All sections of the written examination and practical examination.

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

EAGLE RIVER, ALASKA

The restricted area alteration appearing hereinafter has been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee Airspace Panel and is adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Since a military function of the United States is involved, compliance with the notice, procedure and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

Part 608 is amended as follows:

1. In § 608.61, the Eagle River, Alaska, area (R–348), amended on October 31, 1951, in 16 F. R. 11066 is redesignated as follows:

Name and location (chart)	Description by geographical coordinates	Designated altitudes	Time of designation	Controlling agency
Eagle River, Alaska Restricted Area (R–348). WAC–Mt. McKinley (118).	"Beginning at latitude 61°27'00", longitude 149°44'00"; thence to latitude 61°16'48", longitude 149°43'30"; thence to latitude 61°17'36", longitude 149°35'36"; thence to latitude 61°22'10", longitude 149°33'48"; thence to latitude 61°24'40", longitude 149°33'48"; thence to latitude 61°25'24", longitude 149°30'00"; thence to latitude 61°29'30", longitude 149°30'00"; thence to point of beginning." PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

KING COLE, LOUISIANA

The restricted area alteration appearing hereinafter has been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Panel and is adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Since a military function of the United States is involved, compliance with the notice, procedure and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

Part 608 is amended as follows:

1. In § 608.26, the King Cole, Louisiana, Temporary Restricted Area, amended on March 5, 1957, in 22 F. R. 1328, is further amended by changing the "Description by Geographical Coordinates" column to read: "Beginning at latitude 30°30'00", longitude 93°30'00"; thence North along longitude 93°30'00" to latitude 31°00'00"; thence East along latitude 31°00'00" to longitude 93°00'00"; thence South along longitude 93°00'00" to U. S. Highway 190 near the town of Reeves, Louisiana; thence West along U. S. Highway 190 to the North Control Zone Extension of Lake Charles; thence around this Control Zone Extension back to latitude 30°30'00", thence West along latitude 30°30'00", to point of beginning".

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

This amendment shall be effective from April 1, 1957 through April 5, 1957.

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

SLEDGE HAMMER, LOUISIANA

The restricted area alteration appearing hereinafter has been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Panel and is adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Since a military function of the United States is involved, compliance with the notice, procedure and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

Part 608 is amended as follows:

1. In § 608.26, the Sledge Hammer, Louisiana, Temporary Restricted Area, amended on March 6, 1957, in 22 F. R. 1378 is further amended by changing the "Effective Date" to read: "May 18, 1957, through May 21, 1957."

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

PART 612—AERONAUTICAL FIXED COMMUNICATIONS

FEES FOR CLASS "B" MESSAGES TRANSMITTED ON NEW YORK-LONDON RADIOTELETYPEWRITER CIRCUIT

This amendment to § 612.3 is promulgated to specifically provide for the acceptance of messages transmitted on the New York-London Radioteletypewriter Circuit and the method for assessing the fees for Class "B" messages sent on this circuit. A proprietary function of the Government is involved. Therefore, compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

1. Section 612.3 is revised by changing the period at the end of the second paragraph to a semicolon and by adding the following: "except that any message received at New York on the London-New York Aeronautical Fixed Telecommunications Network circuit shall be delivered without additional charge at New York, San Francisco, or Miami."

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended, sec. 10, 62 Stat. 453; 49 U. S. C. 425, 1159. Interprets or applies secs. 301, 302, 52 Stat. 985, sec. 606, 56 Stat. 1067; 49 U. S. C. 451, 452, 5 U. S. C. 606)

This amendment shall become effective April 1, 1957.

PART 618—HIGH DENSITY AIR TRAFFIC ZONES AND AIRPORTS

Pursuant to § 60.18 (f) of the Civil Air Regulations (22 F. R. 814 and 22 F. R. 1114) the Civil Aeronautics Board has delegated to the Administrator the authority to designate high density air traffic zones and airports within such zones, at which certain speed and communication requirements shall be applicable. This part is hereby adopted by the Administrator for the designation of such zones and airports. Initially, this part designates the Washington Control Zone as a high density air traffic zone, and the Washington National Airport as a high density airport. At such time as other high density air traffic zones and airports are designated by the Administrator they will be included in this part.

Prior to the issuance of the previous rules respecting the High Density Air Traffic Zone Rules for Washington, D. C. (20 F. R. 4682), extensive conferences and hearings were conducted by the Administrator to afford interested persons an opportunity to express their views and comments respecting such rules and the designation of Washington Control Zone as a High Density Air Traffic Zone. In the interest of safety in air commerce, further notice and public procedure in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest. Therefore, the redesignation of the Washington Control Zone as a High Density Air Traffic Zone, and the designation of the Washington National Airport as a High Density Airport is adopted to become effective on April 15, 1957.

Interested persons desiring to present written views or comments with respect to these designations are requested to submit them to the Director, Office of Flight Operations and Airworthiness, Civil Aeronautics Administration, Washington 25, D. C., on or before April 1, 1957. These designations will be reconsidered in accordance with the views and comments received.

A new Part 618 is added to read as follows:

Subpart A—Introduction

Sec.
618.1 Basis and purpose.
618.2 Definitions.

Subpart B—Designated High Density Air Traffic Zones

618.10 General.

Subpart C—Designated High Density Airports

618.100 General.

AUTHORITY: §§ 618.1 to 618.100 issued under sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551.

SUBPART A—INTRODUCTION

§ 618.1 Basis and purpose. Pursuant to the authority contained in section 601 (c) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended (62 Stat. 1216), the Civil Aeronautics Board adopted § 60.18 (f) of this title (22 F. R. 814 and 22 F. R. 1114), delegating to the Administrator the authority to designate high density air traffic zones and airports at which the speed and communications requirements prescribed in § 60.18 (f) of this title shall apply. This part contains the high density air traffic zones and airports designated by the Administrator.

§ 618.2 Definitions. (a) Unless otherwise specified in this part, all words and phrases used in this part shall have the same meaning as those defined in the Air Traffic Rules of Part 60 of this title.

SUBPART B—DESIGNATED HIGH DENSITY AIR TRAFFIC ZONES

§ 618.10 General. The airspace above the areas described in this subpart, excluding any portion within a prohibited area, are designated as High Density Air Traffic Zones.

Washington, D. C., High Density Air Traffic Zone. All the airspace within the current boundaries of the Washington Control Zone (Part 601 of this chapter) extending upwards from the surface to and including an altitude of 3000 feet above the surface.

SUBPART C—DESIGNATED HIGH DENSITY AIRPORTS

§ 618.100 General. The airports listed in this subpart are designated as High Density Airports.

Washington National Airport, Washington, D. C.

TITLE 25—INDIANS

Chapter I—Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior

PART 130—OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

FLATHEAD INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act of June 11, 1946 (60 Stat. 238), and authority contained in the acts of Congress approved August 1, 1914, May 18, 1916, and March 7, 1928 (38 Stat. 583; 39 Stat. 142), and by virtue of authority delegated by the Secretary of the Interior to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs (Order No. 2508; 14 F. R. 258), and by virtue of the authority delegated by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to the Area Director (Bureau Order No. 551, amendment No. 1; 16 F. R. 5454-5457), notice was given of the intention to modify §§ 130.16 and 130.17 of Title 25, Code of Federal Regulations, dealing with the irrigable lands of the Flathead Indian Irrigation Project, Montana, that are not subject to the jurisdiction of the several irrigation districts. There was published on February 21, 1957, in the daily issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER, notice of intention to modify §§ 130.16 and 130.17 of Title 25, Code of Federal Regulations, as follows:

Interested persons were thereby given opportunity to participate in preparing the modification by submitting data or written arguments within 30 days from the publication of the notice. No objections were submitted. Accordingly, §§ 130.16 and 130.17 are modified as follows:

§ 130.16 Charges, Jocko Division. (a) An annual minimum charge of $2.69 per acre, for the season of 1957 and thereafter until further notice, shall be made against all assessable irrigable land in the Jocko Division that is not included in an Irrigation District organization regardless of whether water is used.

(b) The minimum charge when paid shall be credited on the delivery of the pro rata acre share of the available water up to one and one-half acre feet per acre for the entire assessable area of the farm unit, allotment or tract. Additional water, if available, will be delivered at the rate of one dollar and seventy-nine cents ($1.79) per acre foot or fraction thereof.

§ 130.17 Charges, Mission Valley and Camas Divisions. (a) (1) An annual minimum charge of $3.30 per acre, for the season of 1957 and thereafter until further notice, shall be made against all assessable irrigable land in the Mission Valley Division that is not included in an Irrigation District organization regardless of whether water is used.

(2) The minimum charge when paid shall be credited on the delivery of the pro rata per acre share of the available water up to one and one-half acre feet per acre for the entire assessable area of the farm unit, allotment or tract. Additional water, if available, will be delivered at the rate of two dollars and twenty cents ($2.20) per acre foot or fraction thereof.

(b) (1) An annual minimum charge of $3.20 per acre, for the season of 1957 and thereafter until further notice, shall be made against all assessable irrigable land in the Camas Division that is not included in an Irrigation District organization regardless of whether water is used.

(2) The minimum charge when paid shall be credited on the delivery of the pro rata per acre share of the available water up to one and one-half acre feet per acre for the entire assessable area of the farm unit, allotment or tract. Additional water, if available, will be delivered at the rate of two dollars and thirteen cents ($2.13) per acre foot or fraction thereof.

PART 3—NATIONAL CAPITAL PARKS REGULATIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Paragraph (i) Dangerous weapons of § 3.24 Nuisances; disorderly conduct, is amended to read as follows:

(i) Dangerous weapons. Carrying or possessing, while in any area covered by this part, a gun, air-gun, sling, dart, projectile thrower, knife with blade exceeding three (3") inches in length, or other dangerous instrument or weapon; except that the prohibition with regard to the possession and carrying of bows, arrows, and firearms shall not apply to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal lands above Swain's Lock in the State of Maryland, when such bows are unstrung, the arrows in quivers, and such firearms are unloaded or broken or uncased and the party or parties in possession thereof are crossing canal property to gain access to legal shooting areas on private properties by the most direct and shortest route: Provided, That nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as to prevent the drill or activities of any organized military or semi-military body under an official permit.

2. Paragraph (d) Archery of § 3.15 Athletics is amended to read as follows:

(d) Archery. No bows and arrows shall be permitted in park areas, with the exception stated in § 3.24 (i), except in places designated by order of the Superintendent.

(Sec. 3, 39 Stat. 535, as amended; 16 U. S. C. 3)

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans Administration

PART 13—DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS BENEFITS, CHIEF ATTORNEYS

BENEFITS PAYABLE TO LEGAL CUSTODIAN OR CUSTODIAN-IN-FACT; PAYMENTS TO BONDED OFFICER OF INDIAN RESERVATIONS

In § 13.205 the introductory paragraph immediately preceding paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 13.205 Amount of benefits payable by Veterans Administration to legal custodian or custodian-in-fact; payments to bonded officer of Indian reservations. When a claimant under legal disability is found entitled to any benefit payable by the Veterans Administration, the accrued amount of which at the time of the execution of VA Form VB 2-555, Certificate of Legal Custody, is $700 or less, or the monthly rate of which is $70 or less, or if the finding is in favor of two or more claimants under legal disability and the accrued amount is $1,000 or less, or the combined monthly rates for two claimants amount to $100 or less, for three claimants $130 or less, plus monthly payments of $25 for each additional claimant, and no legal guardian or committee has been appointed, the awards shall be made upon proper finding to the person legally vested with the responsibility or care of such claimant or claimants: Provided, That the best interests of the claimant or claimants will be served thereby and the legal custodian is properly qualified. Discretion is vested in the Chief Attorney to exceed these limitations when the circumstances justify use of all of the accrued and monthly benefits payable for the support and/or education of the beneficiary. The limitations in this introductory paragraph are not to be applied in cases in which additional dependency and indemnity compensation in behalf of helpless children, the special allowance, the educational assistance allowance, or the special training allowance, are payable pursuant to §§ 4.449, 4.485, 21.3052, and 21.3229, respectively.

PART 21—VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION AND EDUCATION

SUBPART B—VETERANS' READJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE ACT OF 1952

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. In § 21.2012 paragraphs (a) and (c) are amended, and subparagraph (1) is added to paragraph (a) as follows:

§ 21.2012 Commencement; time limitations—(a) Initiation of program. The veteran must actually commence the active pursuit of the approved program of education of training not later than his delimiting date, i. e., enroll in and begin the course. A veteran who has timely initiated his program in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph must be in actual pursuit of his program on his delimiting date except where his attendance is interrupted for normal summer vacations, for other reasons established to have been beyond his control, or under conditions deemed by the Veterans Administration to be otherwise excusable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the veteran suspends pursuit of his program prior to his delimiting date under authority of paragraph (b) of this section and the period of suspension extends into and beyond such date, it will be held, without requiring any further showing upon the part of the veteran, that his failure to be in actual pursuit of his program on his delimiting date was for an excusable reason if the entire period of suspension occurring partly before and partly after the delimiting date does not exceed 12 consecutive months in length. If such period of suspension does exceed 12 consecutive months in the aggregate, the case will be subject in all respects to the requirements of the last two sentences of paragraph (b) of this section as to that portion of the suspension extending beyond such 12-month period: Provided, however, That in any event the veteran will be required to resume active pursuit of his program after his delimiting date not later than the date of expiration of the 12 months' aggregate period of suspension or not later than the date as of which the valid reason for continued suspension beyond the aggregate 12 months' period ceases to obtain, as the case may be.

(1) A program to be pursued exclusively by correspondence or which consists of correspondence study followed by residence study will be held to have been initiated (commenced) when the first correspondence lesson has been transmitted to the veteran by the institution.

(c) Programs pursued by correspondence. Enrollment on or before the statutory delimiting date in a program to be pursued exclusively by correspondence study will constitute the initiation of that program only. However, after the applicable delimiting date, a veteran who is pursuing a program exclusively by correspondence study may thereafter change to another program to be pursued exclusively by correspondence, exclusively by residence study, or a combination of correspondence and residence study pursued sequentially, provided all the conditions of § 21.2032 are met.

2. In § 21.2014 paragraph (c) (3) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.2014 Duration of veteran's education or training. • • •

(c) Charges against and exhaustion of entitlement. • • •

(3) Correspondence courses. In the case of any veteran who is pursuing a program of education or training exclusively by correspondence, or by correspondence followed by residence study or by residence followed by correspondence, one-fourth of the elapsed time expended in the pursuit of the correspondence study shall be charged against the veteran's period of entitlement for the correspondence study portion of the veteran's program. Elapsed time for computation purposes will commence to run as of the date the first lesson of the course enrolled for was supplied to the veteran by the enrolling institution and will terminate as of the date the last lesson supplied was serviced by that institution (§ 21.2055 (a) (1)).

3. In § 21.2030 former paragraph (e) is redesignated paragraph (f) and a new paragraph (e) is added as follows:

§ 21.2030 Selection of program. • • •

(e) A program of education may be pursued partly in residence and partly by correspondence for the attainment of a predetermined and identified objective under the following conditions:

(1) The correspondence and residence portions are pursued sequentially; that is, not concurrently.

(2) It is the practice of the institution to permit a student to pursue a part of his course by correspondence in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the attainment of the specified objective.

(3) The total credit established by correspondence does not exceed the maximum for which the institution will grant credit toward the specified objective.

(f) The pursuit of education or training under Public Law 550, 82d Congress, in any educational institution or training establishment located outside the continental limits of the United States, or its possessions, is permitted only if the veteran's program is pursued in an approved institution of higher learning. In the case training is to be, or is being, pursued at an approved institution of higher learning located in a foreign country, the veteran's application will be denied or his pursuit of the program will be discontinued, as the case may be, upon a finding by the Veterans Administration that his enrollment in or the pursuit of such a program is or would be against his best interests or the best interests of the Government of the United States. For the purposes of this paragraph, only institutions of collegiate or university rank giving educational courses leading to recognized degrees, licentiates, or the equivalent, will be approved as institutions of higher learning.

4. In § 21.2052 paragraph (e) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.2052 Rates of education and training allowances. • • •

(e) Correspondence course. The education and training allowance of an eligible veteran for correspondence study pursued exclusively or in sequence with residence study as a program shall be computed on the basis of the established charge which the institution requires nonveterans to pay for the same course or courses. Such allowance shall be paid quarterly on a pro rata basis for the lessons completed by the veteran and serviced by the institution, as certified by the veteran and the institution.

(1) No education and training allowance will be paid for correspondence courses pursued by a veteran concurrently with institutional on-farm, training on the job, or institutional training in residence.

(2) The established charge for a correspondence course shall not be considered to be more than the lowest charge which is customarily paid by a nonveteran-student under any payment plan exclusive of a cash discount arrangement for advance payments.

(3) The training institution offering approved correspondence courses will transmit to the Director, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education Service, Veterans Administration, Washington 25, D. C., a list of all approved courses, and any additions or changes made subsequently thereto, and a certified statement of the established charges to nonveterans for each course. Such statement will list consecutively the lessons in each course, the books, supplies, tools, and equipment to be supplied with each lesson, other pertinent charges, the established practices in detail of servicing a lesson or lessons, and the standards for determining completed lessons, including a statement of the grading policy and methods of determining progress.

(4) Only such charges for books, supplies, tools, and equipment in the same quantity and quality as are necessary and are required to be purchased by nonveterans may be charged to veterans. Only those items furnished directly by the institution to enrollees as a part of the course may be included as a part of the established charges for the course. Where items of equipment are furnished on a rental basis to nonveterans, only the rental charge shall be considered in reporting the established charges for the course. Where books, supplies, tools, and equipment are furnished at the end of the course or after completion of regular lessons and such were not needed for the successful completion of the course of education and training, the charges therefor will not be included in computing the established charges for the course.

(5) In the event an institution desires to change its charges for courses after submittal of a statement of charges and services as set forth in this paragraph, such proposed charges will be promptly reported to the Director, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education Service, Veterans Administration, Washington 25, D. C., together with the effective date applicable to nonveteran-students. Where the Director, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education Service, determines on the basis of the information submitted that it is necessary to revise the education and training allowance for veterans enrolling after the effective date of such changes, the institution and the regional offices will be notified of the change in courses and charges which will affect the computation of the education and training allowance and the effective date thereof. The education and training allowance of an eligible veteran who is already enrolled in such course will continue to be based on established charges and services in effect on the date of his enrollment despite any changes made subsequent thereto.

(6) For the purpose of payment of an education and training allowance, a lesson will be considered as completed by the veteran and serviced by the institution when:

(i) The lesson assignment has been completed by the veteran in accordance with the criteria of the institution and has been submitted to the institution for review, and

(ii) The institution has reviewed and graded the lesson and provided the veteran in writing with its evaluation and comments in accordance with its standards and has recorded the results of such servicing.

(a) Only one servicing of a lesson may be charged to the veteran.

(iii) The books, supplies, tools, and equipment, including complete kits of such items, prescribed throughout the sequence of lessons, and approved as necessary and required for the successful pursuit of the lessons completed and serviced, have been furnished by the school and received by the veteran in the order and manner established by the course as approved.

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[FCC 57-263]

[Rules Amdts. 1-8 and 3-62]

PART 1—PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of March 1957;

The Commission has under consideration the Agreement Between the United States of America and the United Mexican States Concerning Radio Broadcasting in the Standard Broadcast Band, signed by the Government of the United States through its duly authorized representatives on January 29, 1957, subject to ratification, and the existing relationship between the United States and Mexico in the field of standard broadcasting.

The Commission concludes that the grant of applications at this time for assignments which could not be permitted to remain in force under the said Agreement would impede the entry into force and subsequent implementation of the Agreement in the United States and Mexico; that the maintenance of the proper relationship in the field of standard broadcasting between the countries requires that action on assignments which could not be permitted to remain in force under the Agreement should be deferred at this time; and that, therefore, to make such assignments would be contrary to the public interest.

In the light of the above-mentioned considerations, the Commission is amending its present policy with respect to applications involving objectionable interference to Mexican stations of which we have been duly notified, as contained in Part 3 of the Commission's rules in a note under § 3.28 (b), to take into account the existence and status of the United States/Mexican Agreement.

At the same time, appropriate amendments are being made to certain procedural provisions of Part 1 of the rules, which were adopted to take into account the policy enunciated in § 3.28 (b), above, and which presently appear as a footnote to the title to Subpart D of Part 1.

Corresponding editorial changes are also being made in Part 1 and Part 3 of the rules.

The adoption of the policy set forth in the note to § 3.28 (b), as amended, is a foreign affairs function within the meaning of section 4 of the Administrative Procedures Act, and, therefore, prior publication of notice of proposed rule making is unnecessary. The effective implementation of this policy requires that certain procedural provisions of Part 1 of the Commission's rules be amended accordingly.

The amendments adopted herein are issued pursuant to authority contained in sections 4 (i) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

It is ordered, That effective March 20, 1957, Parts 1 and 3 of the Commission's rules are amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Released: March 25, 1957.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

A. Part 1 is amended as follows:

1. Delete footnote designator 1 after the title to Subpart D and delete footnote 1.

2. Add the following new § 1.300 following the title of Subpart D.

§ 1.300 Procedure respecting standard broadcast applications involving other North American countries. (a) The special procedural provisions set forth in paragraphs (b) to (e) of this section with respect to the consideration of applications for standard broadcast station assignments are adopted in order to take into account the policy set out in the note to § 3.28 (b) of this chapter. (That note has reference to consideration by the Commission of applications for standard broadcast station assignments pending action with respect to ratification and entry into force of provisions of (1) the North American Regional Broadcasting Agreement, Washington, 1950, referred to herein as NARBA, (2) the Agreement between the United States of America and the United Mexican States concerning Radio Broadcasting in the Standard Broadcast Band, Mexico, D. F. 1957, referred to herein as the U. S./Mexican Agreement, and (3) the existing relationship in the field of standard broadcasting between the United States and a North American country not signatory to either of these agreements, referred to herein as a non-signatory country.) The procedure set forth in paragraphs (b) to (e) of this section is applicable to all applications before the Commission for standard broadcast station assignments except those already being held in a pending status in connection with Dockets Nos. 6741 and 8333.

(b) Whenever it appears with respect to an application not in hearing status that a grant thereof would be inconsistent with the NARBA or the U. S./Mexican Agreement, or that the operation proposed therein would cause objectionable interference to a station in a non-signatory country, such application shall be placed in the pending file and, except as provided in this section, shall not receive further consideration or action pending modification of the policy set forth in the note to § 3.28 (b) of this chapter. Where it appears that any such application is mutually exclusive with an application or applications, the grant of which would not be inconsistent with these agreements and would not result in objectionable interference to any station in a non-signatory country, such application will be designated for hearing in consolidation with the application or applications with which it is in conflict. In such cases, the question of consistency with the NARBA or the U. S./Mexican Agreement or objectionable interference to stations in a non-signatory country shall be made a matter of issue in the hearing.

(c) (1) Whenever it appears with respect to any application which has been designated for hearing by itself or with other applications in any consolidated proceeding that a grant of the application or each and every one of the applications involved would be inconsistent with the NARBA or the U. S./Mexican Agreement or would result in objectionable interference to a station in a non-signatory country, and where the hearing involved has not been commenced, such application or applications will be removed from the hearing docket and placed in the pending file. Where the hearing involved has commenced such application or applications will be placed in the pending file, but will not be removed from the hearing docket. Such action shall be by order and may be taken by the Commission.

(2) Whenever it appears with respect to one or more, but not all, of the applications in any consolidated proceeding that a grant of such application or applications would be inconsistent with the NARBA or the U. S./Mexican Agreement or would result in objectionable interference with stations in a non-signatory country, and where consistency with the agreements or interference to stations in a non-signatory country is not already a matter at issue in the proceeding, the notice of hearing will be amended to include an appropriate issue, and if the record has been closed it will be reopened for the purpose of taking testimony with respect to such issue. Such action will be taken by the Commission upon its own motion, upon motion of any party to the proceeding or the Chief of the Broadcast Bureau.

(3) In any proceeding in which after the hearing has commenced it becomes necessary to place the applications involved in the pending file or to add, with respect to any application or applications, an issue concerning consistency with the NARBA or the U. S./Mexican Agreement or interference to stations in a non-signatory country, the applicants concerned will, notwithstanding the status of proceeding and the provisions of § 1.365 (a), be afforded a reasonable opportunity to amend for the purpose of achieving consistency with these agreements and eliminating interference to a non-signatory country.

(4) In any proceeding in which there is an issue concerning consistency with the NARBA or the U. S./Mexican Agreement or interference to stations in a non-signatory country, the presiding officer will include in his decision a finding on this issue. However, neither the presiding officer nor the Commission will take this factor into account in arriving at a determination whether the grant of any application in the proceeding would serve the public interest. The presiding officer and the Commission will adhere to the policy outlined below in taking final or intermediate action upon the applications involved in such proceedings.

(i) Applications will be granted where such action would not be inconsistent with the NARBA or the U. S./Mexican Agreement, would not result in interference to a station in a non-signatory country and would otherwise be in the public interest.

(ii) Applications will be denied (a) which are mutually exclusive with an application granted in accordance with subdivision (i) of this subparagraph and (b) where a denial is required for reasons independent of the question whether grant of application would be consistent with the NARBA or the U. S./Mexican Agreement or would result in objectionable interference to a station in a non-signatory country.

(iii) Applications will be placed in the pending file without removal from the hearing docket (a) where a grant would be inconsistent with the NARBA or the U. S./Mexican Agreement or would result in interference to a station in a non-signatory country but would otherwise be in the public interest; and (b) where a denial would be based upon comparative consideration with an application placed in the pending file in accordance with (a) of this subdivision.

(d) Whenever any application is placed in the pending file pursuant to paragraphs (b) or (c) of this section, the applicant concerned will be notified of the Commission's action in the matter. Any interested applicant who believes that an application has been erroneously placed in the pending file, may petition the Commission for a review of its action. Petitions requesting that an application be placed in the pending file will also be entertained. All petitions filed pursuant to this paragraph must be filed in quintuplicate and be accompanied by an affidavit of a qualified radio engineer setting forth the engineering basis for the petition. Upon receipt of a petition filed in accordance with this paragraph, the Commission will review the action to which the petition is directed and provide opportunity for the submission by interested parties of any further data that may be required for full consideration of the matter.

(e) As a matter of general practice, except as provided in the procedure set forth in paragraphs (b) to (d) of this section, applications consistent with the NARBA and the U. S./Mexican Agreement which do not propose operations which would cause interference to stations in a non-signatory country will be considered and acted upon by the Commission in accordance with its established procedure, even though the NARBA or the U. S./Mexican Agreement may not yet have entered into force. In particular cases involving applications consistent with both agreements but in which special considerations of an international nature require that a different procedure be followed, the applicant or applicants involved will be formally advised to that effect.

3. Delete the text of footnote 1 to the title of Subpart G and substitute the following:

[1] See § 1.300.

B. Part 3 is amended as follows:

The note to § 3.28 (b) is amended to read as follows:

NOTE: Pending action with respect to ratification and entry into force of the North American Regional Broadcasting Agreement, Washington, 1950 (referred to herein as NARBA), and the Agreement between the United States of America and the United Mexican States Concerning Radio Broadcasting in Standard Broadcast Band (referred to herein as the U. S./Mexican Agreement) no assignment for a standard broadcast station will be made which would be inconsistent with the terms of these agreements.

On an interim basis while protection by countries not signatory to either of these agreements continues for assignments in the United States, no assignment for a standard broadcast station will be made which would cause objectionable interference to a duly notified station in a North American country which is not signatory to the NARBA or the U. S./Mexican Agreement (i. e., Haiti). For purposes of this paragraph, interference will, in general, be determined in accordance with the engineering standards set forth in the NARBA.

The Haitian stations considered to be duly notified will be those notified and accepted in accordance with past agreements, and those subsequently notified in substantial accordance with the procedures and understandings that have pertained thus far.

Engineering standards now in force domestically differ in some respects from those specified for international purposes. For example, the engineering standards specified for international purposes will be used to determine (1) the extent to which interference might be caused by a proposed station in the United States to a station in another North American country and (2) whether the United States should register an objection to any new or changed assignment notified by another North American country. The domestic standards in effect in the United States will be used to determine the extent to which interference exists or would exist from a foreign station where the value of such interference enters into a calculation (1) of the service to be rendered by a proposed operation in the United States or (2) of the permissible interfering signal from one station in the United States towards another United States station.

In general, an application for standard broadcast station assignment, the grant of which would be consistent with provisions of the NARBA and the U. S./Mexican Agreement and would not cause objectionable interference to a duly notified station in a North American country not signatory to either agreement, will be considered and acted upon by the Commission in accordance with its rules and established procedure for action upon such applications, even though these agreements may not yet have entered into force. However, in particular cases such applications may also present considerations of an international nature which require that a different procedure be followed. In such cases the procedure to be followed will be determined by the Commission in the light of the special considerations involved.

Special provisions of a procedural nature respecting the consideration of applications for standard broadcast station assignments pending action with respect to ratification and entry into force of NARBA and the U. S./Mexican Agreement, and respecting the consideration of applications the grant of which would cause objectionable interference to duly notified station in countries not signatory to either of these agreements are set out in § 1.300 of this chapter.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter F—Alaska Commercial Fisheries

PART 115—SOUTHEASTERN ALASKA AREA SALMON FISHERIES, GENERAL REGULATIONS

BAG LIMIT

Basis and purpose. Because the recently established personal use bag limit for king salmon in Southeastern Alaska is unduly restrictive on certain forms of sport fishing, it has been determined that some relaxation can be permitted.

Therefore, effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, § 115.50 is amended in paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) A bag limit of either: (1) Fifty pounds and one fish, or (2) three fish.

Since immediate action is necessary, notice and public procedure on this amendment are impracticable (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

United States Coast Guard

[46 CFR Parts 30, 38]

[CGFR 57-16]

NAVIGATION AND VESSEL INSPECTION REGULATIONS

PUBLIC HEARING ON PROPOSED CHANGES REGARDING LIQUEFIED INFLAMMABLE GASES

The Merchant Marine Council will hold a public hearing on Tuesday, May 7, 1957, commencing at 9:30 a. m. in Room 4120, Coast Guard Headquarters, 13th and E Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C., for the purpose of receiving comments, views, and data on certain proposed changes in the navigation and vessel inspection regulations as generally described in Items I to XVI, inclusive, which were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated March 7, 1957, 22 F. R. 1433–1439. Requests have been received concerning changes in 46 CFR 30.10–39, 38.05–1, and 38.10–1, dealing with requirements governing the transportation of liquefied inflammable gases. Therefore, an Item XVII has been added to the Agenda which will be considered at the public hearing of the Merchant Marine Council to be held on May 7, 1957.

The proposed changes in 46 CFR 30.10–39, 38.05–1, and 38.10–1 are set forth below under the heading "Item XVII—Liquefied Inflammable Gases." Copies of the proposed changes will be mailed to persons and organizations who have expressed a continued interest in the subject under consideration and have requested that copies be furnished them. Copies of the proposed changes will be also furnished to others so long as they are available and requests should be addressed to the Commandant (CMC), United States Coast Guard, Washington 25, D. C. After the extra copies for distribution are exhausted, copies will be available for reading purposes only in Room 4104, Coast Guard Headquarters, or at the offices of the various Coast Guard District Commanders.

Comments on the proposed regulations set forth below are invited. Each oral or written comment is considered and evaluated. If it is believed the comment, view, or suggestion clarifies or improves the proposed amendment, it is changed accordingly and after adoption by the Commandant the regulation is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Each person who desires to submit written comments, views, or data should submit them so that they will be received prior to April 30, 1957, by the Commandant (CMC), United States Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington, D. C.

ITEM XVII—LIQUEFIED INFLAMMABLE GASES

Since the scope of the regulations in 46 CFR Part 38 has been revised so that the same requirements apply to the transportation of liquefied petroleum gas as to any other liquefied inflammable gas, the need for retaining classes of liquefied inflammable gases no longer exists. It is, therefore, proposed to amend 46 CFR 30.10–39 to read as follows:

§ 30.10–39 Liquefied inflammable gas—TB/ALL. The term "liquefied inflammable gas" means any inflammable gas having a Reid vapor pressure exceeding 40 pounds which has been compressed and liquefied for the purpose of transportation.

As a result of changing the scope of 46 CFR Part 38 these regulations will now govern the transportation of liquefied inflammable gases as defined in the proposed regulation 46 CFR 30.10–39. Since the liquefied inflammable gases other than liquefied petroleum gas usually have a lower vapor pressure than the liquefied petroleum gases, it is proposed to provide less stringent requirements for the carriage of any liquefied inflammable gas other than a liquefied petroleum gas in tanks designed for a lower pressure than that presently specified. It is proposed to provide the same minimum design pressure and minimum plate thickness for tanks containing liquefied inflammable gases as are presently provided in 46 CFR Part 39 when such vessels carry inflammable or combustible liquids having lethal characteristics. To accomplish these changes it is proposed to amend 46 CFR 38.05–1 (b), (c), and (e) to read as follows:

§ 38.05–1 Design and construction—TB/ALL. • • •

(b) Unlagged cargo tanks subject to atmospheric temperatures shall be designed for a pressure not less than the vapor pressure of the gas at 115° F., in pounds per square inch gage, but for not less than 30 pounds per square inch gage.

(c) Where cargo tanks are lagged as required by § 38.05–20, the tanks shall be designed for a pressure of not less than the vapor pressure of the gas at 105° F., in pounds per square inch gage, but for not less than 30 pounds per square inch gage.

(e) The shell and head thickness of cargo tanks shall be not less than 5/16 inch.

The present requirements in 46 CFR 38.10–1 (c) with respect to valves, fittings, and accessories on tanks containing liquefied inflammable gases were initially intended to apply to cargo tanks located below the weather deck of vessels or in hopper type barges. Some vessels have tanks located on deck, in which case the requirements that liquid and vapor connections shall be located near the highest point on the tank above the weather deck have been difficult to meet. In some instances troublesome reach rods have been installed or ladders and walkways had to be provided. It is considered that liquid and vapor connections can be satisfactorily located below the highest point on the tank when the tank is located above the weather deck so that any leakage would immediately vaporize and the vapors cannot drift to a lower level of the vessel where they would create a hazard. It is, therefore, proposed to amend 46 CFR 38.10–1 (c) to read as follows:

§ 38.10–1 Valves, fittings and accessories—TB/ALL. • • •

(c) Each tank shall be provided with the necessary fill and discharge liquid and vapor shut-off valves, safety relief valves, liquid level gaging devices, thermometer well and pressure gage, and shall be provided with suitable access for convenient operation. Connections to tanks installed below the weather deck shall be made to a trunk or dome extending above the weather deck. Tanks installed on hopper barges shall have all pipe connections attached to the top of the tanks. Connections to the tanks shall be protected against mechanical damage and tampering. Other openings in the tanks, except as specifically permitted by this subchapter, are prohibited.

The authority for the regulations regarding the transportation of liquefied inflammable gases is in R. S. 4405, as amended, and 4462, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 375, 416. These regulations interpret or apply R. S. 4417a, as amended, sec. 3, 68 Stat. 675; 46 U. S. C. 391a, 50 U. S. C. 198; E. O. 10402, 17 F. R. 9917, 3 CFR, 1952 Supp.

Dated: March 22, 1957.

[SEAL] J. A. HIRSHFIELD,
Rear Admiral, U. S. Coast Guard,
Acting Commandant.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

BLACKFEET INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, MONTANA

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act of June 11, 1946, 60 Stat. 239, and the acts of Congress, approved August 1, 1914, 38 Stat. 583; May 18, 1916, 39 Stat. 142; and March 7, 1928, 45 Stat. 210; 25 U. S. C. 387, 1940 ed, notice is hereby given of intention to amend §§ 130.130, 130.131 and 130.132 of Title 25 CFR. This amendment to be effective for the irrigation season of 1957, which begins April 1, 1957, and thereafter until further notice.

Interested persons are hereby given fifteen days from date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER to participate in preparing the proposed amendments by submitting their views and data or arguments in writing to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

The proposed amendment is as follows:

§ 130.130 Basic assessment. Pursuant to the acts of Congress approved August 1, 1914, May 18, 1916, and March 7, 1928, 38 Stat. 583; 39 Stat. 142; 45 Stat. 210; 25 U. S. C. 385, 387, the basic rate of assessment of operation and maintenance charges against the irrigable lands to which water can be delivered under the Blackfeet Indian Irrigation Project, Montana, for the season of 1957 and subsequent years until further notice, is hereby fixed at $1.80 per acre for the assessable area under constructed works, water to be delivered on demand based upon an estimated per acre quota of the available supply.

§ 130.131 Excess water assessment. Additional water when available, in excess of 1½ acre feet per acre per annum may be delivered upon request at the rate of $1.00 per acre foot, or fraction thereof.

§ 130.132 Payment. (a) The assessments fixed in § 130.130 shall be due April 1 of each year and shall be payable on or before that date.

(b) The assessments fixed in § 130.131 for excess water shall be paid at the time of request for delivery thereof or previous to the time of delivery.

(c) To all charges assessed against lands in non-Indian ownership and Indian lands under lease to non-Indian lessees which are not paid on or before July 1 of each year there shall be added a penalty of one-half of 1 percent per month or fraction thereof from the due date, April 1, so long as the delinquency continues.

(d) In the event an Indian water user is unable to pay the assessment when due, water may be furnished upon certification by the Superintendent of the reservation that the landowner or his Indian lessee has agreed that the assessment will be paid from the proceeds of the crops or from any other sources of income, or if a written certificate is issued by the Superintendent stating that such Indians are financially unable to pay. In such cases, the unpaid charges shall be entered on the accounts as a first lien against the land without penalty for delinquency.

(e) All payments must be made to the Bureau of Indian Affairs through the Blackfeet Agency, Browning, Montana.

FINDINGS AND DETERMINATIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE CONTINUANCE OF THE AMENDED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 117, as amended, and Order No. 14, as amended (7 CFR Part 914; 21 F. R. 4707), and the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), notice was given in the FEDERAL REGISTER on January 25, 1957 (22 F. R. 500), that a referendum would be conducted among the growers who, during the period November 1, 1955, through October 31, 1956 (which period was determined to be a representative period for purposes of such referendum), had been engaged, in the State of Arizona and that part of the State of California south of the 37th Parallel, in the production of navel oranges for market to determine whether such growers favor continuance of the said amended marketing agreement and order.

Upon the basis of the results of the aforesaid referendum, which was conducted during the period February 11 through February 20, 1957, both dates inclusive, it is hereby found and determined that the continuance of the said amended marketing agreement and order is favored by the requisite majority of such growers.

Dated: March 25, 1957.

MILK IN PUGET SOUND, WASHINGTON, AND INLAND EMPIRE MARKETING AREAS

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND TO ORDERS REGULATING HANDLING

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.) and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a joint public hearing to be held in the Federal Office Building, Room 216, First and Marion Streets, Seattle, Washington, on April 5, 1957, beginning at 10:00 a. m., local time.

Subject and issues involved in the hearing. The public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to economic and emergency conditions which relate to the proposed amendments hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreements heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture, and to the orders, in effect, regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, and Inland Empire marketing areas (7 CFR Parts 925 and 1008 et seq.). The proposed amendments set forth below have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

The following amendments to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, marketing area are proposed by the United Dairymen's Association:

1. Amend §§ 925.51 and 925.52 to substitute the price of 93-score butter at Chicago plus three cents in lieu of the applicable butter quotations for the San Francisco market described therein whenever the latter are not available.

2. Include such provision or provisions as are necessary to provide any other legal and suitable alternative to accomplish the same or similar purposes as proposal No. 1 above.

3. Delete § 925.13 (b) and all references thereto in other provisions of the order.

The following amendments to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Inland Empire marketing area are proposed by the Inland Empire Milk Producers Association and the Spokane Milk Producers Association:

4. Amend §§ 1008.51 and 1008.52 to substitute the price of 93-score butter at Chicago plus three cents in lieu of the applicable butter quotations for the San Francisco market described therein whenever the latter are not available.

5. Add the following as § 1008.54:

§ 1008.54 Use of equivalent prices. If for any reason a price quotation required by this order for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is required.

The following amendment to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, marketing area is proposed by the Dairy Division:

6. Consider the following language in connection with proposal No. 2 above:

§ 925.55 Use of equivalent prices. If for any reason a price quotation required by this order for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is required.

Copies of this notice of hearing, and of the Puget Sound, Washington, order, now in effect, may be obtained from the Market Administrator, 200 Bigelow Building, 4th and Pike Streets, Seattle 1, Washington; or from the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Copies of this notice of hearing, and of the Inland Empire order, now in effect, may be obtained from the Market Administrator, West 933 Third Avenue, Room 212, Spokane 4, Washington; or from the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: March 25, 1957.

MILK IN CENTRAL MISSISSIPPI MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Jackson, Mississippi, January 25, 1957 (22 F. R. 417), upon a proposed tentative marketing agreement and order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Central Mississippi marketing area.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing, and the record thereof, the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on March 7, 1957, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision. Said decision, containing notice of opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 12, 1957 (22 F. R. 1589).

Within the period reserved therefor, interested persons filed exceptions to certain of the findings, conclusions and actions recommended by the Deputy Administrator. In arriving at the findings, conclusions, and regulatory provisions of this decision, each of such exceptions was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto.

To the extent that suggested findings and conclusions proposed by interested persons are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the specific or implied requests to make such findings and reach such conclusions are denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions herein set forth.

The material issues, findings and conclusions of the recommended decision (22 F. R. 1589, Doc. 57–1834) are hereby approved and adopted as the issues, findings and conclusions, and general findings of this decision as if set forth in full herein.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Determination of representative period. The month of January 1957, is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of the attached order, amending the order, regulating the handling of milk in the Central Mississippi marketing area is approved or favored by producers, as defined under the terms of the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and who, during such representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale within the aforesaid marketing area.

Marketing agreement and order, as amended. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Central Mississippi Marketing Area", and "Order Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Central Mississippi Marketing Area", which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered that all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order, as amended, and proposed to be hereby further amended.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of March 1957.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

Order[1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Central Mississippi Marketing Area

§ 987.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Central Mississippi marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

posed to amend 46 CFR 38.10–1 (c) to read as follows:

§ 38.10–1 Valves, fittings and accessories—TB/ALL. • • •

(c) Each tank shall be provided with the necessary fill and discharge liquid and vapor shut-off valves, safety relief valves, liquid level gaging devices, thermometer well and pressure gage, and shall be provided with suitable access for convenient operation. Connections to tanks installed below the weather deck shall be made to a trunk or dome extending above the weather deck. Tanks installed on hopper barges shall have all pipe connections attached to the top of the tanks. Connections to the tanks shall be protected against mechanical damage and tampering. Other openings in the tanks, except as specifically permitted by this subchapter, are prohibited.

The authority for the regulations regarding the transportation of liquefied inflammable gases is in R. S. 4405, as amended, and 4462, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 375, 416. These regulations interpret or apply R. S. 4417a, as amended, sec. 3, 68 Stat. 675; 46 U. S. C. 391a, 50 U. S. C. 198; E. O. 10402, 17 F. R. 9917, 3 CFR, 1952 Supp.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of March 1957.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

Order[1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Central Mississippi Marketing Area

§ 987.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Central Mississippi marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk produced for sale in the said marketing area as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Central Mississippi marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

1. Delete § 987.16 and substitute the following:

§ 987.16 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who operates a dairy farm and a distributing plant which, during the month, received no other source milk (except own production), producer milk, or milk from a pool plant.

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606, Table of Assignments, Television Broadcast Stations (Providence, Rhode Island-New Haven, Connecticut-New Bedford, Massachusetts).

1. Notice is hereby given of rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission issued its report and order last June in the general television allocation proceeding in Docket No. 11532 (13 Pike and Fischer, R. R. 1571-1595), outlining a long-range program designed to improve the television allocation structure. At the same time we considered what action might be taken to improve the opportunities for more effective competition among a greater number of stations in individual communities and areas pending a resolution of the long-range program, and we specified therein the bases on which we would consider channel changes in the interim. In furtherance of this interim program, the Commission initiated a number of rule making proceedings proposing channel changes for various communities. Since March 1, 1957, we have released decisions in some nine of these cases.[1] In one of these cases—the Hartford, Connecticut-Providence, Rhode Island proceeding in Docket No. 11748—we originally proposed to substitute Channel 61 for Channel 3 in Hartford, Connecticut, and to reassign Channel 3 to Providence, Rhode Island, by making certain other changes in assignments. However, upon consideration of all the comments and counterproposals submitted and the numerous factors involved, we determined in our Report and Order (FCC 57-181) released March 1, 1957, that the public interest would best be served by the retention of Channel 3 in Hartford. We believe, however, that, in accordance with the policies adopted by the Commission in the general allocation proceeding and currently being pursued with respect to proposed channel changes, the merits of assigning a third VHF channel to the Providence area by means other than those considered in the Hartford-Providence proceeding should be explored.

3. This objective could be accomplished by shifting Channel 8 from New Haven, Connecticut, to the Providence area and substituting Channel 6 for Channel 8 at New Haven by deleting Channel 6 from New Bedford, Massachusetts. The deletion of Channel 6 from Albany-Schenectady-Troy, New York, would also be required, but we need not consider that change here since the shift of Channel 6 from Albany-Schenectady-Troy to Syracuse, New York, is the subject of the proceeding in Docket No. 11751 (See report and order, FCC 57-178, released March 1, 1957). However, Channel 8 could also be assigned to New Bedford or to Fall River, Massachusetts, as well as to Providence. We are therefore inviting comments on the proposed reassignment of Channel 8 to the hyphenated communities of Providence-Fall River-New Bedford by substituting Channel 6 for Channel 8 in New Haven and deleting Channel 6 from New Bedford. However, in utilizing Channel 8 and Channel 6, as proposed, the transmitters would have to be located so as to meet the minimum spacing and coverage requirements. The changes proposed are as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Providence, R. I., Fall River, Mass., New Bedford, Mass.		8+
New Bedford, Mass.	6+, 28-, 34+	28-, 34+
New Haven, Conn.	8+, 59+	6+, 59+

4. Any interested party who is of the view that the proposed amendments should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission on or before April 29, 1957, a written statement setting for his comments. Comments supporting the proposed amendments may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments in reply to original comments may be filed within 15 days from the last date for filing said original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established.

5. Parties submitting comments in this proceeding are requested to direct their attention to the matters discussed in paragraph 31 of the Commission's report and order in Docket No. 11532. Data indicating television coverage should be filed in accordance with the Commission's notice and order, released November 6, 1956, in Docket Nos. 11532 and 11747, et seq. (FCC 56-1080).

6. Authority for the adoption of the amendments proposed herein is contained in sections 1, 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), (g) and (r), 307 (b) and 316 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act.

7. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the rules, an original and 14 copies of all written comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: March 20, 1957.

Released: March 25, 1957.

NOTICE OF FILING OF PLATS OF SURVEY AND ORDER PROVIDING FOR OPENING OF PUBLIC LANDS

MARCH 22, 1957.

Plats of survey of omitted lands described will be officially filed in the Eastern States Land Office, Washington 25, D. C., effective at 10:00 a. m., on April 30, 1957.

FOURTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, MINNESOTA

T. 56 N., R. 7 W., Lake County,
Sec. 32, lot 6, 1.56 acres;
Sec. 32, lot 7, 0.20 acre;
Sec. 32, lot 8, 0.26 acre;
Sec. 33, lot 1, 0.91 acre.
T. 33 N., R. 19 W., Chisago County,
Sec. 2, lot 10, 0.40 acre.

FIFTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, MINNESOTA

T. 120 N., R. 22 W., Hennepin County,
Sec. 18, lot 6, 1.20 acres.

The lots in T. 56 N., R. 7 W., consist of islands in Lake Superior; the lot in T. 33 N., R. 19 W., is an island in the St. Croix River; and the lot in T. 120 N., R. 22 W., is an island in Diamond Lake.

All of the lots in Secs. 32 and 33, T. 56 N., R. 7 W., were disposed of by the United States by a patent issued on December 5, 1952, on the basis of an adjustment to the survey, and therefore are not subject to entry.

Available information indicates that Lot 10, Sec. 2, T. 33 N., R. 19 W., is situated from 12 to 30 feet above the normal water level of the St. Croix River, has a shallow rock soil, and supports a scattered stand of pine and hardwood timber. Lot 8, Sec. 18, T. 120 N., R. 22 W., is swampy in character, being located from 12 to 18 inches above the normal water level of Diamond Lake. It has a sandy rocky soil, with a vegetation cover of swamp type grasses and trees.

These surveys were made as an administrative measure to provide legal designation and area for islands omitted in the original surveys.

No application may be allowed under the homestead or small tract or any other nonmineral public land laws unless lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merit. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

1. Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

2. All valid applications, under the Homestead and Small Tract Laws, by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on April 30, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on July 30, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

3. All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on July 30, 1957, will be considered filed simultaneously at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

All inquiries relating to the lands should be addressed to the Acting Manager, Eastern States Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

NOTICE OF FILING OF PLATS OF SURVEY AND ORDER PROVIDING FOR OPENING OF PUBLIC LANDS

Plats of survey of omitted lands described below, accepted July 5, 1956, will be officially filed in the Eastern States Land Office, Washington 25, D. C., effective at 10 a. m., on April 30, 1957.

4TH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, MINNESOTA

T. 58 N., R. 24 W., Itasca County,
Sec. 5, lot 11, 0.54 acre, Balsam Lake.
T. 56 N., R. 26 W.,
Sec. 4, lot 8, 0.43 acre, Deer Lake;
Sec. 4, lot 9, 0.96 acre, Deer Lake;
Sec. 5, lot 7, 0.19 acre, Deer Lake;
Sec. 27, lot 7, 9.55 acres, Bass Lake.
T. 57 N., R. 26 W.,
Sec. 34, lot 5, 1.42 acres, Deer Lake;
Sec. 34, lot 6, 1.23 acres, Deer Lake.

5TH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, MINNESOTA

T. 110 N., R. 26 W., Le Sueur County,
Sec. 26, lot 9, 1.98 acres, Emily Lake.

The lots described comprise islands in lakes, the names of which are shown opposite the land description.

Available information indicates that the islands consist chiefly of high, sandy and rocky lands, situated from 4 to 15 feet above the water level of the lakes. They support for the most part, a growth of hardwood and conifer timber and brush. The island in Bass Lake is swampy in character.

These surveys were made as an administrative measure to provide legal designation and area for islands omitted in the original surveys.

No application may be allowed under the homestead or small tract or any other nonmineral public land laws unless lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merit. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

1. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of Foreign Commerce

[Case 225]

WILLIAM KURT SAMUEL WALLERSTEINER ET AL.

ORDER DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES

In the matter of William Kurt Samuel Wallersteiner, Watford Chemical Company, Ltd., 22/32 Copperfield Road, Canal Road, London, E. 3, England; Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., 31 Throgmorton Street, London, E. C. 2, England; Britannia Shipping Company Ltd., Ibex House, Minories, London, E. C. 3, England; The Loyal Trust, Vaduz, Liechtenstein; Standard Chemie, A. G., St. Albangraben 8, Basel, Switzerland; Respondents, Case No. 225.

The respondents, William Kurt Samuel Wallersteiner, Watford Chemical Company, Ltd., The Loyal Trust, Standard Chemie, A. G., Britannia Shipping Company Ltd., and Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., having been charged by the Agent-in-Charge, Investigation Staff, Bureau of Foreign Commerce, Department of Commerce, with violations of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and regulations promulgated thereunder; and

The said respondents all having been duly served with the charging letter and having appeared herein; and

All respondents except Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. having submitted proposals for consent dispositions of the charges, to which proposals the Agent-in-Charge, Investigation Staff, has agreed, this case was referred to the Compliance Commissioner, who held a hearing at which all respondents were represented by counsel.

The Compliance Commissioner, having heard and considered all the evidence submitted in support of the charges and all the evidence and arguments submitted by Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. in opposition thereto and having considered also the consent order proposals submitted on behalf of the respondents other than Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., has transmitted to the undersigned Acting Director, Office of Export Supply, Bureau of Foreign Commerce, Department of Commerce, his written report, including findings of fact and findings that violations have occurred, and his recommendation that (a) the consent proposals be accepted and (b) that respondents be denied export privileges as hereinafter provided, together with which report there have been transmitted also the transcript of testimony at the hearing, all exhibits submitted, the charging letter, answers, consent proposals, and correspondence.

In connection with the consent proposals, as well as the remedial action recommended against Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., the fact that all the respondents have been denied by temporary order all export privileges since May 6, 1955, has been taken into account.

After reviewing and considering the entire record of this case and the Compliance Commissioner's Report and Recommendation, I hereby make the following findings of fact:

1. On or about the 19th day of March 1954, Standard Chemie A. G. entered into an agreement with China-Export Corporation, a purchasing agent for the Communist Chinese, pursuant to which agreement, among other things, Standard Chemie agreed to sell and China-Export agreed to buy 31,000 packages of aureomycin for $241,800.

2. At the time of the making of that contract, Standard Chemie was owned and controlled by respondent William Kurt Samuel Wallersteiner and said William Kurt Samuel Wallersteiner also, at that time, owned and controlled respondents Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., Britannia Shipping Company Ltd., The Loyal Trust, and Watford Chemical Company Ltd.

3. Wallersteiner, for the purpose of having exported from the United States the aureomycin required for said contract, entered into an arrangement with a firm in Yugoslavia whereby that firm would appear to be the ostensible purchaser and ultimate consignee of the aureomycin but would in fact never have anything else but constructive delivery thereof, the actual control always to be retained by a Wallersteiner company or agent to effectuate ultimate delivery to the China-Export Corporation at Gdynia, Poland.

4. Wallersteiner then caused The Loyal Trust to open a letter of credit through the facilities of the Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. with a bank in New York whereby payment would be effected to a New York supplier, who was informed by Anglo-Continental and Watford that the firm in Yugoslavia was the purchaser and ultimate consignee of the 31,000 packages of aureomycin which the firm in New York was supplying. The New York supplier sold the aureomycin to the Wallersteiner group for $46,810.

5. It developed that the firm in Yugoslavia could not permit its name or facilities to be used in the transaction, and Wallersteiner then caused inquiries to be made to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce whether the shipment could be made to a firm in England instead of to the firm in Yugoslavia.

6. At the time that the firm in Yugoslavia became unable to participate in the transaction, the aureomycin had already been exported from the United States and was en route to Rotterdam.

7. Wallersteiner's attorney in the United States informed Wallersteiner and the Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. that the aureomycin could be transshipped legally from Yugoslavia to England. Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. also received a copy of a letter written by the Department of Commerce to Loyal Trust in its care, in which it was stated that "any commodity which has been exported from the United States may be reexported from any destination to any other destination, provided that at the time of reexportation, the commodity may be exported directly from the United States to the new country of destination under certain general license provision."

8. Wallersteiner and The Loyal Trust, with the knowing assistance of Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., thereupon entered into an arrangement with a firm in England, pursuant to which arrangement that firm became the ostensible consignee in England of the said 31,000 packages of aureomycin, but which firm, in fact, acted only as a broker or intermediary for the immediate resale or turnover of said aureomycin to Standard Chemie A. G.

9. The said 31,000 packages of aureomycin, on Wallersteiner's instructions, were then shipped from Rotterdam to England to the order of the firm in England and Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. subsequently received the documents of title therefor.

10. Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. did then turn over said documents of title to Britannia Shipping Company Ltd. for the purpose of having Britannia Shipping Company Ltd. transship the said 31,000 packages of aureomycin to Gdynia, Poland.

11. Britannia Shipping Company Ltd., with knowledge that such transshipment was not lawful under the laws of the United States, did then transship the said 31,000 packages of aureomycin to Gdynia, Poland.

12. Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., upon the instructions of Wallersteiner and Standard Chemie, did then obtain and receive the documents of title covering said shipment from England to Gdynia, Poland, and did thereafter transmit them to an East German bank for the purpose of having the aureomycin delivered to the East German or Communist Chinese purchaser.

13. The respondents Wallersteiner, Watford Chemical Company Ltd., Britannia Shipping Company Ltd., The Loyal Trust, Standard Chemie A. G., and Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. acted in concert for the purpose of accomplishing the transshipment to Gdynia, Poland of the 31,000 packages of aureomycin, originally exported from the United States, with the knowledge that the export control regulations of the United States made unlawful an exportation or transshipment to Gdynia, Poland of goods exported from the United States, without prior permission and authority from the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, and they did engage in the conduct set forth above for the purpose and with the intention of circumventing such regulations.

14. At the time that Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. informed the supplier in the United States that the firm in Yugoslavia was the purchaser, it had knowledge that that firm was not, in fact, the puchaser and ultimate consignee. It also had knowledge, at that time, that Loyal Trust or Oestawa Handelshaus A. G. of Vaduz, Liechtenstein (another Wallersteiner company) was furnishing the funds for and was to receive control of the documents of title.

15. At the time that Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. authorized payment of the purchase price for the said aureomycin to the American exporter, it had knowledge or should have known that the firm in Yugoslavia which had been the ostensible original purchaser thereof, was not, in fact, the real purchaser thereof.

16. At the time that Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. turned over the documents of title to Britannia Shipping Co. Ltd., it knew that the purpose and intention of that firm, in receiving such documents of title, was to forward the aureomycin, which was the subject thereof, to Gdynia, Poland, and it did turn over said documents of title to that firm for that purpose.

17. In order to export the said aureomycin from the United States, the seller's supplier thereof in the United States was required to and did make representations and certifications in a shipper's export declaration to the effect that the firm in Yugoslavia was the ultimate consignee and that Yugoslavia was the place and country of ultimate destination.

18. The said seller's supplier made such representations and certifications on the shipper's export declaration, and also on a bill of lading, in reliance on the communications received by the seller from The Loyal Trust, Watford Chemical Company Ltd., and Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., the seller, in turn, having transmitted to its said supplier the information received by it.

And, the following are my conclusions:

A. That the respondents William Kurt, Samuel Wallersteiner, Watford Chemical Company Ltd., Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., The Loyal Trust, and Standard Chemie A. G. knowingly made false and misleading statements and representations, and concealed material facts, in connection with the submission, issuance, and use of export control documents, and in connection with effecting an exportation from the United States and the reexportation, transshipment and diversion of such exportation, in violation of § 381.5 of the Export Regulations, as then in effect.

B. That the respondents William Kurt Samuel Wallersteiner, Watford Chemical Company Ltd., Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., The Loyal Trust, Standard Chemie A. G., and Britannia Shipping Company Ltd. knowingly disposed of, diverted, transshipped and reexported a commodity to an unauthorized Soviet Bloc destination contrary to prior representations and notification of prohibition against such action in violation of §§ 370.2, 371.4, 371.8, 381.5 (d), and 381.6 of the Export Regulations, as then in effect.

C. That the respondents William Kurt Samuel Wallersteiner, Watford Chemical Company Ltd., The Loyal Trust, and Standard Chemie A. G. bought, received, sold, disposed of, transported, and they with Anglo-Continental financed, and forwarded an exportation from the United States, knowing that with respect to such exportation violations of the Export Control Law and Regulations had occurred, were about to and were intended to occur, in violation of § 381.4 of the Export Regulations, as then in effect.

D. That the respondents William Kurt Samuel Wallersteiner, Watford Chemical Company Ltd., Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., The Loyal Trust, Standard Chemie A. G., and Britannia Shipping Company Ltd. knowingly caused, procured and permitted the doing of acts prohibited by the Export Regulations, in violation of §§ 381.2 and 381.3 of the Export Regulations, as then in effect.

As stated above, all the respondents have been subject to an order which has resulted in the denial of their export privileges since May 6, 1955. This order was an interim order and was issued pending the completion of a related proceeding involving violations similar to that herein involved. All but Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd. submitted consent proposals, the acceptance of which has been recommended by the Compliance Commissioner and their provisions are hereinafter adopted. In recommending the consent proposal submitted on behalf of Britannia Shipping Company Ltd., which proposes that the entire period of denial of export privileges be ineffective during a period of probation or good behavior, the Compliance Commissioner said,

> Brittania Shipping Company Ltd. also has submitted a consent proposal and its position herein differs from that of the Wallersteiner respondents mentioned above in that the present ownership, control, management and staff of Britannia Shipping Company Ltd. are wholly independent of and have no relation whatever to the Wallersteiner interests.
> Britannia Shipping Company Ltd. was owned or controlled, at the time of the happening of the events involved herein, by Wallersteiner. All ownership and control has been transferred to new interests of good repute. There is now no one in a key position in Britannia who is connected with the Wallersteiner interests, and the Investigation Staff appears to be satisfied that remedial action against Britannia be suspended upon condition that it comply in all respects with the order and the export control regulations during the period to which it has consented. That being the case, I see no reason to disapprove that consent proposal.

In finding that violations were committed by Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., which had contended that it did not knowingly participate in the unlawful acts but had acted only in a ministerial capacity as a bank carrying out its customers' instructions, the Compliance Commissioner said,

> The legal situation with which we are here confronted is not whether [one or another officer or other officers] knew what was happening or whether they personally participated. It is rather a question whether what did happen was sufficient to fasten responsibility on Anglo-Continental. In this connection, referring to his argument that neither Hamburg nor Bideaux had knowledge, [Anglo's attorney] agreed, saying, "I recognize that that does not necessarily mean that the bank can escape responsibility because certain officers knew and others did not." Therefore, in finding the bank's responsibility, I do not have to and do not find that either Hamburg or Bideaux had any personal knowledge of the documents or activities.

Now, after careful consideration of the entire record and being of the opinion that the recommendations of the Compliance Commissioner are fair and just and that this order is necessary to achieve effective enforcement of the law: It is hereby ordered:

I. Except as qualified in Part III, Subdivisions (A) and (B) thereof, the respondents, henceforth and for the duration of export controls, hereby are denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in an exportation of any commodity or technical data from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada, whether such exportation has heretofore or hereafter been completed. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing denials of export privileges, participation in an exportation is deemed to include and prohibit participation by any of the respondents, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) as a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application, (b) in the preparation or filing of any export license application or document to be submitted therewith, (c) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control documents, (d) in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, delivering, using, or disposing in any foreign country of any commodities in whole or in part exported or to be exported from the United States, and (e) in financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such exports from the United States.

II. Such denials of export privileges, to the extent that any respondents may be affected thereby, shall extend not only to each of them, but also to any person, firm, corporation, or business organization with which any of them may be now or hereafter related by ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade in which may be involved exports from the United States or services connected therewith.

III. (A) William Kurt Samuel Wallersteiner, Watford Chemical Company Ltd., The Loyal Trust, Standard Chemie A. G., and Anglo-Continental Exchange Ltd., without further order of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, shall have their export privileges restored to them conditionally, on March 11, 1960, the condition for such restoration being that during the period following the date hereof and until March 11, 1960, the said respondents shall comply in all respects with this order and thereafter, so long as export controls shall be in effect, with all requirements of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and all regulations, licenses, and orders issued thereunder.

(B) Anything in Part I hereof to the contrary notwithstanding, the effectiveness of this order denying export privileges to Britannia Shipping Company Ltd. shall be stayed and it shall not be operative as to Britannia Shipping Company Ltd. upon the condition that during three years following the date hereof said Britannia Shipping Company Ltd. and parties related to it shall not knowingly violate any export control law or regulation and, upon the expiration of said three years, if Britannia Shipping Company Ltd. and related parties have not knowingly violated any export control law or regulation, then so much of Part I as refers to Britannia Shipping Company Ltd. shall become null, void and of no further effect.

IV. The privileges so conditionally permitted to the respondents, including Britannia Shipping Company Ltd., under Parts III (A) and III (B) hereof, may be revoked summarily and without notice upon a finding by the Director of the Office of Export Supply, or such other official as may at that time be exercising the duties now exercised by him, that any such respondent at any time hereafter has knowingly failed to comply with the conditions applicable to him or it as set forth in Parts III (A) and III (B) hereof, in which event Part I hereof, insofar as it shall apply to such respondent, shall then be and become effective so long as export controls shall be in effect, without thereby preventing the Bureau of Foreign Commerce from taking such other and further action based on such violation as it shall deem warranted. In the event that such supplemental order is issued, such respondents and related parties as are involved therein shall have the right to appeal therefrom, as provided in the export regulations.

V. No person, firm, corporation, or other business organization, whether in the United States or elsewhere, during any time when any respondent or related party is prohibited under the terms hereof from engaging in any activity within the scope of Part I hereof, shall, without prior disclosure to, and specific authorization from, the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) apply for, obtain, or use any export license, shipper's export declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any such prohibited activity, (b) order, receive, buy, sell, deliver, use, dispose of, finance, transport, forward, or otherwise service or participate in, any exportation from the United States, on behalf of or in any association with such respondent or related party, or (c) do any of the foregoing acts with respect to any exportation in which such respondent or related party may have any interest or obtain any benefit of any kind or nature, direct or indirect.

LEON YOUSSEM

ORDER DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES FOR AN INDEFINITE PERIOD

In the matter of Leon Youssem, 12 Avenue des Arts, Brussels, Belgium, Respondent.

The respondent, Leon Youssem, is the subject of an investigation concerning approximately 200 tons of paraffin wax originally exported from the United States to Belgium and from there allegedly transshipped to Poland without permission from the Department of Commerce; and the Agent in Charge, Investigation Staff, Bureau of Foreign Commerce, has applied for an order denying to said Leon Youssem all export privileges for an indefinite period by reason of his failure and refusal to respond to written interrogatories duly served on him. The application was made pursuant to § 382.15 of the Export Regulations (15 CFR Ch. III, Subch. B) and, in accordance with the practice thereunder, was referred to the Compliance Commissioner of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce who, after considering evidence in support thereof, has recommended that it be granted.

Now, upon receipt of the Compliance Commissioner's recommendation, after reviewing and considering the evidence submitted in support of the application, being of the opinion that there is reasonable ground to believe that the respondent had obtained approximately 200 tons of paraffin wax exported from the United States under general license authorizing its shipment to Belgium and had unauthorizedly diverted and transshipped it to Poland, a destination other than the destination to which it was lawfully shipped, and finding further that interrogatories were duly served on the respondent and that he, without reasonable cause and without adequate explanation, has failed and refused to answer or furnish written information and documents in response to those interrogatories; and, having concluded (a) that this order is reasonable and necessary to protect the public interest and to achieve effective enforcement of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and (b) that it is advisable that persons in the United States and in other parts of the world be informed by publication of this order of the provisions hereafter set forth so that the respondent may be prevented from receiving and transshipping commodities exported from the United States: It is hereby ordered:

(1) All outstanding validated export licenses in which the respondent appears or participates as purchaser, intermediate or ultimate consignee, or otherwise, are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce for cancellation;

(2) The respondent, his successors or assigns, partners, representatives, agents, and employees, are hereby denied all privileges of participating directly or indirectly in any manner, form, or capacity in an exportation of any commodity or technical data from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, participation in an exportation shall include and prohibit said respondent's and such other persons' and firms' participation (a) as a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application; (b) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control document; (c) in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, using, or disposing in any foreign country of any commodities in whole or in part exported from the United States; and (d) in the financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of exports from the United States;

(3) This denial of export privileges shall apply not only to the respondent, but also to any person, firm, corporation, or business organization with which he now or hereafter may be related by ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade involving exports from the United States or services connected therewith;

(4) This order shall remain in effect until the respondent satisfactorily answers or furnishes written information or documents in response to the interrogatories heretofore served on him or gives adequate reason for his failure or refusal to respond, except insofar as this order may be amended or modified hereafter in accordance with the Export Regulations;

(5) No person, firm, corporation, or other business organization, within the United States or elsewhere, and whether or not engaged in trade relating to exports from the United States, shall, without prior disclosure of the facts to, and specific authorization from, the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, directly or indirectly in any manner, form, or capacity (a) apply for, obtain, transfer, or use any license, shipper's export declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any exportation of commodities from the United States, or (b) order, receive, buy, use, dispose of, finance, transport, forward, or otherwise service or participate in an exportation from the United States, or in a reexportation of any commodity exported from the United States, with respect to which any of the persons or companies within the scope of paragraphs (2) and (3) hereof have any interest or participation of any kind or nature, direct or indirect.

(6) A certified copy of this order shall be served on the respondent by registered mail.

(7) In accordance with the provisions of § 382.11 (c) of the Export Regulations, the respondent may move, at any time prior to the cancellation or termination hereof, to vacate or modify this indefinite denial order by filing an appropriate application therefor, supported by evidence, with the Compliance Commissioner and he may request oral hearing thereon, which, if requested, will be held before the Compliance Commissioner at Washington, D. C. at the earliest possible date.

[Appeals Board Docket FC-35; B. F. C. Case 211 A]

ZEMANEK & CO., LTD., AND FRANZ GINTZ

APPEALS BOARD DECISION CONCERNING APPEAL FROM ORDER DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES

In the matter of Zemanek & Co., Ltd., Franz Gintz, Director, 46–47 Chancery Lane, London, W. C. 2, England.

Zemanek & Company, Ltd., and Franz Gintz, its Director, both of London, England, hereinafter referred to as appellants, have appealed from the order denying export privileges issued May 21, 1956, by John C. Borton, Director, Office of Export Supply, Bureau of Foreign Commerce. (21 F. R. 3609, 5/25/56)

The order, in principal part, stemmed from a transshipment of about 500 tons of asbestos exported from the U. S. to Hamburg, West Germany, and in turn transshipped to Czechoslovakia in violation of U. S. Export Regulations.

Appellants chose to have their appeal heard on the record and submitted a comprehensive brief in support thereof.

The record shows that these appellants, during the time they entered into and consummated the transaction involved, already were under a suspension order (18 F. R. 5372) revoking export license privileges for a period of two years for a violation of export control regulations very closely parallel in nature to the actions at issue in this appeal.

The record shows that the asbestos in point was exported from the United States to Hamburg aboard the SS. "Abbedyjk" and was transshipped in bond to a firm in Czechoslovakia.

Also, the record contains a letter (photostat) from a Czechoslovakian company addressed to the Hamburg consignee which states that the Czech company had concluded a purchase and sales contract which obligated the appellants, as a supplier, to deliver asbestos and the Czech company had obligated itself, as a purchaser, to duly make payments to the appellants for this asbestos.

The appellants' arguments do not disturb the above facts.

In the appellants' interest, the Appeals Board carefully questioned counsel for the Bureau of Foreign Commerce at considerable length at the hearing on the record and most carefully examined the appellants' documents in support of their appeal and finds:

1. That the appellants, having received a charging letter, a copy of the Compliance Commissioner's report, of some sixteen pages, and a copy of the order denying export privileges, of over four pages, all dealing in detail with the prior similar type of suspension, which the appellants were under during the time they entered into and completed the subject transaction of this appeal, had foreknowledge that their actions in the subject matter constituted a violation of U. S. export privileges.

2. That the aforesaid actions of these appellants were not only a knowing violation of U. S. export regulations but a knowing violation of the earlier suspension order then in effect.

3. That, in view of the above, there are no extenuating circumstances in this matter that would warrant any other decision than complete support of the order.

Therefore, it is ordered That, The appeal be denied.

FREDERIC W. OLMSTEAD,
Chairman,
Appeals Board.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 10984, 11873; FCC 57-272]

RCA COMMUNICATIONS, INC., AND WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO.

ORDER ASSIGNING PROCEEDINGS FOR CONSOLIDATED PUBLIC HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In the matter of RCA Communications, Inc., v. The Western Union Telegraph Company, Docket No. 10984; lawfulness of certain actions of defendant with respect to handling of certain traffic originating in Canada and destined to points in Asia and Oceania. RCA Communications, Inc., v. The Western Union Telegraph Company, Docket No. 11873; complaint for money damages.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of March 1957;

The Commission having under consideration:

(a) Pleadings in Docket No. 10984, consisting of:

(1) A petition filed on March 24, 1954, by RCA Communications, Inc. (RCAC) wherein it is alleged that The Western Union Telegraph Company (Western Union) has been and is violating section 222 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (act), as well as the "Formula, Pursuant to Section 222 (e) (1) and (2) of the Communications Act, For the Distribution of Out-Bound Traffic Destined to Canada, Handled by The Western Union Telegraph Co. Following Merger With Postal Telegraph, Inc." (Canadian Formula), and the "Formula, Pursuant to Section 222 (e) (1) of the Communications Act, for the Distribution of Outbound International Traffic Handled by The Western Union Telegraph Company following Merger with Postal Telegraph, Inc." (International Formula), introduced as Exhibit 31 and Exhibit 306A, respectively, and approved or prescribed by the Commission in Docket No. 6517, Application for Merger of Western Union and Postal Telegraph (Separate Report of the Commission on Formulas for the Distribution of International Traffic), 10 F. C. C. 184 (1943), by failing to transfer to RCAC certain telegraph traffic destined to Asiatic and Oceanic points which originates in Canada with Canadian National Telegraphs (CNT) and comes into the control of Western Union, and wherein it is requested that the Commission issue a declaratory ruling that Western Union has been acting in violation of the act and the Canadian and International Formulas and is required to transfer to RCAC the aforementioned traffic destined at least to points specified in the petition;

(2) An opposition to the aforementioned petition of RCAC, filed by Western Union on April 26, 1954, wherein it is alleged that the jurisdiction of the Commission is not properly invoked, that RCAC seeks equitable relief and must show it has "clean hands" as a prerequisite to maintaining its action, and wherein it is denied that Western Union has violated or is violating either the Act or the aforementioned Formulas by failing to transfer the traffic at issue to RCAC, and wherein it is requested that the Commission rule that Western Union has not violated the Formulas as alleged and is not required to transfer such traffic to RCAC;

(3) A reply of RCAC to the opposition of Western Union, filed on May 3, 1954, wherein the allegations in the Western Union opposition are denied and wherein the original request for a ruling is reiterated;

(4) A motion for leave to file a supplemental statement calling attention to the decision in Western Union v. United States, 217 F. 2d 579 (1954), filed January 10, 1955, by RCAC, accompanied by such statement; and

(5) An answer to such supplemental statement, filed January 17, 1955, by Western Union;

(b) The pleadings in Docket No. 11873, consisting of:

(1) A formal complaint filed on March 24, 1954, by RCAC incorporating the above-mentioned petition by reference; alleging substantial monetary damage resulting from the Western Union action alleged in the petition; requesting an award of damages; requesting that consideration of the complaint be deferred until a ruling has been made upon the petition, and requesting that Western Union be required to maintain complete records with respect to traffic involved pending settlement of the question of damages;

(2) An answer to the aforementioned complaint of RCAC, filed by Western Union on December 26, 1956, incorporating by reference the above-mentioned opposition of Western Union to the RCAC petition, denying that it acted illegally, and requesting dismissal of the complaint;

It appearing, that, since the claims by RCAC asserted in Docket No. 10984 were considered by the International Formula Committee, as required by section XI of the International Formula, and since Western Union has not complied with the resolution of the International Formula Committee requesting that Western Union resume the handling of the traffic at issue herein as it was handled at the time the International Formula was adopted, the matter is now properly before the Commission;

It further appearing, that, the issuance of a declaratory ruling is a matter within the sound discretion of the Commission and that the pleadings before the Commission in Docket No. 10984 which look toward the eventual recovery of damages for alleged past violations of the Formula, are not proper subjects for the exercise of such discretion;

It further appearing, that, no prejudice will result if the RCAC petition in Docket No. 10984 is treated as a formal complaint, and that the interests of justice and the prompt and speedy dispatch of the Commission's business would be furthered by treating Docket No. 10984 as a formal complaint proceeding;

It further appearing, that, good cause, namely, that the decision considered in the supplemental statement of RCAC was not issued at the time the RCAC initial pleadings were filed, has been shown by RCAC to justify a grant of its motion in Docket No. 10984 to file a supplemental statement, and that Western Union does not oppose the grant of such motion;

It further appearing, that, the pleadings in Docket No. 11873 are not properly the basis for a separate proceeding unrelated to the pleadings in Docket No. 10984, but should be considered in conjunction with such pleadings in one proceeding;

It further appearing, that deferment of consideration of the amount of damages, if any, until after the Commission has ruled on the lawfulness of the Western Union practices at issue will be conducive to the efficient and expeditious disposition of other issues raised in the pleadings;

It further appearing, that, issues are presented by the pleadings in Docket Nos. 10984 and 11873 which should be determined on the basis of a public hearing;

It is ordered, That, the motion of RCAC for leave to file a supplemental statement is hereby granted, and such supplemental statement and the answer thereto of Western Union are accepted for filing;

It is further ordered, That, the RCAC request for a declaratory ruling is denied;

It is further ordered, That the proceedings in Docket Nos. 10984 and 11873 shall be consolidated and that, pursuant to sections 201, 206, 207, 208, 209, and 222 of the act, a public hearing shall be held at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order upon the substantive issues presented by the pleadings therein, as a formal complaint proceeding and without in any way limiting the scope of such hearing on such issues, shall include the following matters:

(a) Whether the Commission may, under the provisions of section 222 of the act, or otherwise, approve or prescribe formula provisions relating to the distribution of such telegraph traffic at issue herein which originates in Canada and transits the continental United States over the facilities of Western Union or any part thereof en route to points without the continental United States and if so, whether the Commission, in fact, did approve or prescribe such provisions;

(b) Whether the Commission may, under the provisions of section 222 of the act, or otherwise, approve or prescribe formula provisions whereby Western Union or any part thereof is required to handle the traffic at issue in such manner that all such traffic actually transits the United States en route to destination and, if so, whether the Commission, in fact, did approve or prescribe such provisions;

(c) Whether the Canadian Formula approved by the Commission pursuant to section 222 of the act requires Western Union to transfer to RCAC such telegraph traffic at issue which transists or is required to transit the continental United States over the facilities of Western Union; and in this connection

(1) Whether the term "Western Union" as used in the second sentence of section 8 of such Formula means the same as the term "consolidated or merged carrier" used in subsections 222 (e) (1) and (2), and defined by subsection 222 (a) (4), of the act, and, if not, what is the difference between the meaning of these two terms and what is the authority for such difference;

(2) Whether the second sentence of section 8 of such Formula means (i) that the pattern for the distribution of transiting traffic as it existed immediately prior to the aforementioned merger was to be frozen and maintained exactly as it existed immediately prior to merger, or (ii) that Western Union was to have the same freedom to make arrangements with other carriers for the distribution of such transiting traffic as it would have had if there had been no merger;

(3) Whether the first sentence of section 8 of such Formula imposes any obligation upon RCAC with respect to traffic that it handles which originates outside the United States and transits the United States to or through Canada, and if so, the nature and extent of such obligation;

(d) Whether the International Formula prescribed by the Commission pursuant to section 222 of the Communications Act requires Western Union or any part thereof to transfer to RCAC such telegraph traffic at issue which transits or is required to transit the continental United States over the facilities of Western Union, and in this connection

(1) Whether section IX of such Formula creates any legal obligations, and in particular

(i) Whether the first paragraph of section I of such Formula (a) limits the scope of such Formula solely to traffic originating in the continental United States and so deprives the provisions of Section IX thereof of legal effect, or (b) refers only to the system of distribution established in sections I through VIII of such Formula;

(ii) Whether the words "It is understood" in section IX indicate such section is intended to be informative rather than mandatory;

(iii) Whether the words "this formula" in section IX refer only to the system of distribution established in sections I through VIII of such Formula, thereby leaving transiting traffic within the scope of the Formula and subject to distribution in accordance with section IX thereof; and if not,

(iv) Whether the clause "this formula does not cover any telegraph traffic originating outside the United States and transiting the United States" in section IX renders the remainder of such section without legal effect; and

(2) If section IX of such Formula creates any legal obligations how shall it be applied, and in particular

(i) Whether the handling of such traffic at issue herein which transits the continental United States constitutes "domestic telegraph operations" within the meaning of sub-section 222 (a) (5), or "international telegraph operations" within the meaning of sub-section 222 (a) (6), of the act,

(ii) Whether the term "consolidated or merged carrier" as used in sub-section 222 (e) (1) and defined by sub-section 222 (a) (4) of the act refers to the corporate entity of Western Union, or to that portion of the corporate entity which is engaged in "domestic telegraph operations" as defined in sub-section 222 (a) (5) of the act, or to something else and if so, to what,

(iii) Whether the term "Merged Company" as used in the Formula means the same as the term "consolidated or merged carrier" used in sub-sections 222 (e) (1) and (2), and defined by sub-section 222 (a) (4) of the act and if not, what is the difference between the meanings of these two terms and what is the authority for such difference,

(iv) Whether the term "Western Union Cables" as used in such Formula means the same as the term "international telegraph operations of any domestic telegraph carrier" as used in sub-section 222 (e) (4) of the act and if not, what is the difference between the meaning of these two terms and what is the authority for such difference, and in this connection

(a) What effect shall be given the divergent definitions of "Merged Company" and "Western Union Cables" set forth in the first unnumbered section and in the last paragraph of section III of such Formula,

(b) Whether that part of Western Union referred to in the pleadings herein as "Western Union Cables" may, for the purposes of sub-section 222 (e) of the act, engage in "domestic telegraph operations" as defined in sub-section 222 (a) (5) of the act, or whether it is restricted to "international telegraph operations" as defined in sub-section 222 (a) (6) of the act;

(v) Whether, if the handling of the traffic at issue which transits the continental United States is found to constitute "international telegraph operations" as defined in sub-section 222 (a) (6) of the act, it is "specifically routed" via "Western Union Cables" within the provisions of section III of the Formula and if so, whether the last provision of section IX of the Formula requires that it be turned over to "Western Union Cables";

(vi) Whether the clause in section IX of such Formula which reads "all such traffic handled by the Merged Company shall be turned over to the international carrier which would have handled the same if the consolidation or merger of Western Union and Postal Telegraph, Inc., had not occurred" means (a) that the pattern for the distribution of transiting traffic, as it existed immediately prior to merger, was to be frozen and maintained exactly as it existed immediately prior to merger, or (b) that Western Union was to have the same freedom to make arrangements with other carriers for the distribution of such transiting traffic as it would have had if there had been no merger;

It is further ordered, That the Hearing Examiner shall close the record herein for the purpose of preparing an initial decision on the issues raised, other than the amount of damages, without taking testimony on, or receiving other evidence with respect to, the amount of damages that may be due the complainant;

It is further ordered, That, should the Commission decide any of the issues raised herein, on which evidence had been received, in favor of the complainant, after the effective date of such determination the record herein shall be reopened on motion of the complainant and the Hearing Examiner herein shall at a time and place to be specified by him hold further hearings solely for the purpose of determining, in the light of the aforementioned Commission determination, the amount of damages, if any, to be awarded to the complainant;

It is further ordered, That, Western Union shall keep and maintain until further order, full and complete records with respect to all messages received from CNT pursuant to the 1915 contract between Western Union and CNT, segregated as to (1) messages which are handled in transit through the continental United States and (2) messages which do not transit the continental United States; and full and complete records of all monies received, retained, and paid out in connection with such messages;

It is further ordered, That, a copy of this order shall be served upon the parties complainant and defendant herein, upon each international telegraph carrier subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission and upon each telegraph carrier entitled to share in international fixed point-to-point telegraph traffic pursuant to any of the Formulas approved or prescribed by the Commission in Application for Merger of Western Union and Postal Telegraph (Separate Report of the Commission on Formulas, etc.) 10 F. C. C. 184, at 197–198 (1943).

It is further ordered, That, each of the persons other than the parties hereto ordered served herein may participate in the proceeding herein by filing a notice of intention to participate within twenty days after the date this order is released.

Released: March 25, 1957.

J. E. WILLIS AND CRAWFORDSVILLE BROADCASTERS, INC.

ORDER AMENDING ISSUES

In re applications of J. E. Willis, Lafayette, Indiana; Docket No. 11763, File No. BP-10253; Crawfordsville Broadcasters, Inc., Crawfordsville, Indiana; Docket No. 11764, File No. BP-10460; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of March 1957;

The Commission having under consideration a petition to enlarge issues filed by J. E. Willis on December 7, 1956; an answer to said petition filed by Crawfordsville Broadcasters, Inc., on December 17, 1956; and a reply to said answer filed by the Broadcast Bureau on December 26, 1956;

It appearing, that, on the basis of the pleadings before us, at the time exhibits were exchanged between the applicants Crawfordsville Broadcasters submitted an exhibit containing what purported to be interview reports with people residing in Crawfordsville, Indiana; and that it was represented that these reports constituted verbatim reports of interviews conducted personally and jointly by two of Crawfordsville Broadcasters' principals, that the interview reports were transcribed from detailed notes which were made of the conversations, and that these reports were prepared for the purpose of showing the need for the service proposed by Crawfordsville Broadcasters;

It further appearing, that petitioner alleges that he interviewed eight of the persons who were the subjects of the aforesaid interview reports; that each of the eight denied in whole or in part the accuracy of the statements attributed to him; that one stated the interview with principals of Crawfordsville Broadcasters never occurred; and that others declared that one of the principals who were represented to have participated in the interview with them was not present;

It further appearing, that petitioner urges that the foregoing allegations warrant inclusion of an issue inquiring into the character qualifications of Crawfordsville Broadcasters; that the Broadcast Bureau concurs in this view; but that Crawfordsville Broadcasters asserts in opposition that the discrepancies heretofore noted were errors which occurred without any intention to mislead or misrepresent, that the questioned documents were either corrected or not offered in evidence, and that, therefore, enlargement of the issues is not justified;

It further appearing, that sufficient facts have been alleged to raise questions concerning the character qualifications of Crawfordsville Broadcasters; that Crawfordsville Broadcasters' opposition does not deny the correctness of the charge of inaccuracies in the interview reports; and, accordingly, that the petition to enlarge should be granted;

It further appearing, that good cause has been shown for the late filing of the instant petition in that the facts alleged did not take place until after expiration of the period for timely filing;

It is ordered, That the petition to enlarge issues filed by J. E. Willis is granted and the issues are enlarged by addition of the following:

To determine the character qualifications of Crawfordsville Broadcasters to be a licensee of the Commission.

Released: March 25, 1957.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-4149]

WARREN PETROLEUM CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 22, 1957.

Take notice that Warren Petroleum Corporation (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with principal place of business in Tulsa, Oklahoma, on May 10, 1956, filed an application pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act for permission on approval to abandon service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to abandon the sale for resale of natural gas in interstate commerce from production of its McCurdy-Moss Lease, located in the Blanconia and South Blanconia Fields, Bee County, Texas, to United Gas Pipe Line Company (United). Applicant states in its application that the wells on the McCurdy-Moss Lease have ceased to produce gas, have been plugged and abandoned and that the lease has been released of record.

Applicant sought authorization to make the afore-mentioned sale to United in an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, filed in Docket No. G-4149 on October 5, 1954. Docket No. G-4149 was consolidated with the consolidated proceeding, In the Matters of Gas Lands Co., et al., Docket Nos. G-2867, et al., for a hearing scheduled for May 16, 1956, by notice of the Secretary duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 2576-77) on April 19, 1956. Prior to the scheduled hearing, Docket No. G-4149 was severed from said consolidated proceeding by notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 3297) on May 18, 1956, and the hearing in Docket No. G-4149 was postponed to a date to be fixed thereafter by further notice. Postponement of the hearing was necessitated by the filing on May 10, 1956, of Applicant's motion to dismiss its application for certificate of public convenience and necessity in Docket No. G-4149, and motion for withdrawal of its Gas Rate Schedule No. 3 with Supplement Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4 thereto.

Subsequently, by a letter from the Secretary dated May 21, 1956, Applicant was notified that its motion to dismiss its certificate application would be treated as a request for authority to abandon service pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act as hereinbefore described. Applicant was further notified by a letter from the Secretary dated June 20, 1956, that its motion for withdrawal of its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3 had been accepted for filing as a notice of cancellation of Rate Schedule No. 3, such cancellation to become effective upon the date of issuance of abandonment authorization in Docket No. G-4149.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 23, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW, Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 9, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the interme diate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

Secretary.

[Docket Nos. G-11532, G-11533]

TEXON GAS, INC. AND DORCHESTER CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS, CONSOLIDATION, AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 22, 1957.

Texon Gas, Inc. (Texon), a Texas corporation, with its principal place of business in Dallas, Texas, filed an application on November 26, 1956, in Docket No. G-11532, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for permission and approval to abandon the service to El Paso Natural Gas Company authorized April 18, 1955, in Docket No. G-4679, as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Dorchester Corporation, a Delaware corporation, with its principal place of business in Dallas, Texas, filed an application on November 26, 1956, in Docket No. G-11533, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, authorizing it to continue the sale and operation of facilities which Texon in Docket No. G-11532 seeks permission and approval to abandon, all as more fully represented in the application on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Texon, as owner and operator of a gasoline plant, purchases and processes gas from the Big Lake Field, Reagan County, Texas, and sells the residue gas therefrom to El Paso Natural Gas Company. Texon proposes to sell its plant and related facilities, and to assign its gas purchase and gas sales agreements associated therewith to Dorchester Corporation, effective as of September 1, 1956.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 18, 1957, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for the parties to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 9, 1957. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket No. G-11568]

TEXAS ILLINOIS NATURAL GAS PIPELINE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 22, 1957.

Take notice that Texas Illinois Natural Gas Pipeline Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation, with its principal office in Chicago, Illinois, filed on December 6, 1956, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing construction and operation of a tap and 1,000 feet of 4-inch lateral line together with a metering and regulating station to supply natural gas to Northern Illinois Gas Company (Northern Illinois) for resale in the Illinois towns of Fairbury, Chatsworth and Forrest, all as more fully represented in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The estimated cost of the proposed facilities is $36,100.

Applicant represents that Northern Illinois Gas Company has been authorized by the Illinois Commerce Commission to construct, operate and maintain distribution facilities in and for the towns above named and to distribute and sell natural gas to the citizens thereof for ultimate consumption under a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued October 9, 1956.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 22, 1957; at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 1-3679]

KROY OILS LTD.

ORDER SUMMARILY SUSPENDING TRADING

MARCH 22, 1957.

In the matter of trading on the American Stock Exchange in the 20¢ par value Capital Stock of Kroy Oils Limited, File No. 1-3679.

I. The 20-cent par value Capital Stock of Kroy Oils Limited, an Alberta corporation (hereinafter called "registrant"), is listed and registered on the American Stock Exchange, a national securities exchange (hereinafter called "the exchange").

II. The Commission on November 2, 1956, issued its order and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (hereinafter called "the act") to determine at a hearing to be held on November 20, 1956, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months, or to withdraw, the registration of the Capital Stock of registrant on the exchange for failure to comply with section 13 of the act and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder, in that the Commission has reason to believe that a current report for the month of May 1956, on Form 8-K, filed by registrant with the Commission was false and misleading in certain respects set forth in said order. On March 14, 1957, the Commission issued its order summarily suspending trading of said securities on the exchange pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the act for the reasons set forth in said order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices for a period of ten days from March 15, 1957, to March 24, 1957, inclusive.

III. On November 7, 1956, counsel representing registrant requested a postponement of the hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act in order to enable him, to prepare for the hearing. Pursuant to this request, the Commission on November 7, 1956, issued its order postponing the date of said hearing to November 26, 1956. Said hearing has commenced but has not yet been concluded by Commission order or decision.

IV. The Commission has reason to believe that the false report filed by registrant as alleged in the order and notice of hearing referred to in paragraph II and the relationship between registrant and Great Sweet Grass Oils Limited, also subject to an order issued concurrently herewith under section 19 (a) (4) of the act, and also subject to an order and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act, which hearing has been consolidated with the hearing referred to in paragraph III, are such as to cause widespread confusion and uncertainty in the market for registrant's shares. Under the circumstances recited in this order, the Commission is of the opinion that it would be impossible for the investing public to reach an informed judgment at this time as to the value of registrant's securities or for trading in such securities to be conducted in an orderly and equitable manner.

V. The Commission being of the opinion that the public interest requires the summary suspension of trading in such security on the exchange and that such action is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors; and

The Commission being of the opinion that such suspension is necessary in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices, with the result that it will be unlawful under section 15 (c) (2) of the act and the Commission's Rule X-15C2-2 thereunder for any broker or dealer to make use of the mails or of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, such security otherwise than on a national securities exchange.

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the act that trading in said securities on the American Stock Exchange be summarily suspended in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices for a period of ten days from March 25, 1957, to April 3, 1957, inclusive.

By the Commission.

GREAT SWEET GRASS OILS LTD.

ORDER SUMMARILY SUSPENDING TRADING

MARCH 22, 1957.

In the matter of trading on the American Stock Exchange in the $1.00 par value Capital Stock of Great Sweet Grass Oils Limited, File No. 1-3827.

I. The $1.00 par value Capital Stock of Great Sweet Grass Oils Limited (hereinafter called "registrant") is listed and registered on the American Stock Exchange, a national securities exchange (hereinafter called "the exchange").

II. The Commission on October 19, 1956, issued its order and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (hereinafter called "the act"), and on October 24, 1956, issued its amended order and notice of hearing under the act to determine at a hearing to be held November 13, 1956, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months, or to withdraw, the registration of the Capital Stock of registrant on the exchange for failure to comply with section 13 of the act and the rules and regulations thereunder, in that the Commission had reason to believe that the reports filed by registrant on Form 8-K and Form 10-K were false and misleading in certain respects set forth in said orders. On October 31, 1956, the Commission issued its second amended order and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act restating the allegations in the original and amended orders and including allegations that the Commission had reason to believe that the registrant's current report on Form 8-K for the month of December, 1955, and amendments thereto, and that registrant's annual report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1955, and amendments thereto, were false and misleading in additional respects set forth in said order. On November 16, 1956, the Comtions in the original and amended orders and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act restating the allegations in the original and amended orders and including allegations that the Commission had reason to believe that the registrant's current report on Form 8-K for the month of August, 1955, was false and misleading in certain respects set forth in said order, and that the Form 8-K report for the month of December, 1955, and the Form 10-K report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1955 were false and misleading in additional respects set forth in said order. On March 14, 1957, the Commission issued its order summarily suspending trading pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the act in said securities on the exchange for the reasons set forth in said order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive and manipulative acts or practices from March 15, 1957, to March 24, 1957, inclusive.

III. On November 7, 1956, counsel representing registrant requested a postponement of the hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act in order to enable him to prepare for the hearing. Pursuant to this request, the Commission on November 7, 1956, issued its order postponing the date of said hearing to November 26, 1956. Said hearing has commenced but has not yet been concluded by Commission order or decision.

IV. The Commission has reason to believe that the false reports filed by registrant as alleged in the orders and notices of hearing referred to in paragraph II and the relationship between registrant and Kroy Oils Limited, also subject to an order issued concurrently herewith under section 19 (a) (4) of the act, and also subject to an order and notice of hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the act, which hearing has been consolidated with the hearing referred to in paragraph III, are such as to cause widespread confusion and uncertainty in the market for registrant's shares. Under the circumstances recited in this order, the Commission is of the opinion that it would be impossible for the investing public to reach an informed judgment at this time as to the value of registrant's securities or for trading in such securities to be conducted in an orderly and equitable manner.

V. The Commission being of the opinion that the public interest requires the summary suspension of trading in such security on the exchange and that such action is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors; and

The Commission being of the opinion that such suspension is necessary in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices, with the result that it will be unlawful under section 15 (c) (2) of the act and the Commission's Rule X-15C2-2 thereunder for any broker or dealer to make use of the mails or of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, such security otherwise than on a national securities exchange.

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the act that trading in said securities on the American Stock Exchange be summarily suspended in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices for a period of 10 days from March 25, 1957, to April 3, 1957, inclusive.

By the Commission.

BRITISH INDUSTRIES CORP.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

MARCH 22, 1957.

I. British Industries Corporation, 164 Duane Street, New York, New York, a corporation incorporated under the laws of New York, filed with the Commission on April 23, 1954, a Notification on Form 1-A relating to a proposed offering of 3,750 shares of 50-cent par value common stock on behalf of Mrs. Kay L. Rockey, Selling Stockholder, to net the offeror $2.00 per share (the market value being 1⅞ bid, 2¼ asked) for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 pursuant to section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable cause to believe that the terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with by the subject issuer in that it has failed to file any Form 2-A reports of sales as required by Rule 224 under Regulation A, and has ignored requests by the Commission's staff for such reports.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given, that any persons having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place of said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

POSTMAN CO.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

MARCH 22, 1957.

I. Viola Rubber, 36 East 61st Street, New York, New York, and Clifford Hayman, 325 West 45th Street, New York, New York, issuers (the issuer to The Postman Company, a limited partnership under the laws of New York on the formation thereof), filed with the Commission on September 3, 1953, a Notification on Form 1-A and an Offering Circular relating to a proposed offering of pre-formation limited partnership interests in an amount not to exceed $25,000 for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 pursuant to section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable cause to believe that the terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with by the subject issuer in that it has failed to file any Form 2-A reports of sales as required by Rule 224 under Regulation A, and has ignored requests by the Commission's staff for such reports.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given, that any persons having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place of said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

AMERICAN NATURAL GAS CO. AND AMERICAN LOUISIANA PIPE LINE CO.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION OVER COUNSEL FEES

MARCH 22, 1957.

By its order issued July 29, 1955 (Holding Company Act Release No. 12953) issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the Commission, among other things, granted an application and permitted to become effective a declaration filed by American Louisiana Pipe Line Company ("American Louisiana"), a subsidiary of American Natural Gas Company, a registered holding company, regarding a proposal by American Louisana to issue and sell an aggregate of $97,500,000 principal amount of bonds, of which $47,000,000 principal amount was issued and sold prior to February 1, 1956. In its order of July 29, 1955, the Commission reserved jurisdiction over the fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed issue and sale of bonds.

Subsequently, by orders issued January 25, 1956 (Holding Company Act Release No. 13902) and May 28, 1956 (Holding Company Act Release No. 13184), the Commission released jurisdiction in respect of certain fees and expenses, including counsel fees through February 29, 1956.

American Louisiana has now filed a supplemental application, stating that all work of counsel in connection with the issue and sale of its bonds has been completed, and requesting that the jurisdiction heretofore reserved be released in respect of the following final counsel fees in connection with the issue and sale of bonds:

	Amount of fee for services subsequent to 2-29-56
Company counsel: Sidley, Austin, Burgess & Smith	$11,500
Local Counsel—various States:
Barnes, Hickam, Pantzer & Boyd	1,550
Sigmund Zamierowski	750
Byron, Sandidge and Holbrook	1,250
Porter, Stanley, Treffinger & Platt	1,200
Canada, Russell, Turner & Alexander	1,250
Wynn, Hafter, Lake & Tindall	1,200
Shotwell & Brown	2,000
Ohmer C. Burnside	700
	9,900
	21,400
Counsel for the bond purchasers: Sullivan & Cromwell	6,000
Total	27,400

It appearing that the above fees are not unreasonable, and the Commission deeming it appropriate to release the jurisdiction heretofore reserved in respect of such counsel fees:

It is ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved in respect of counsel fees in connection with the issue and sale by American Louisiana of $97,500,000 principal amount of bonds, be, and it hereby is, released; and that this order shall become effective, forthwith.

By the Commission.

C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, as amended, and Supplements 1 and 2, Wheat, shall be applicable to the extent indicated in this subpart.

§ 421.1652 Availability—(a) Area and scope. The reseal program will be available in areas in the following States where ASC State committees determine that wheat can be safely stored on farms for the period of the reseal loan and that it will be advantageous to producers and CCC to permit producers to obtain reseal loans: Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Washington, Wisconsin, and Wyoming. This program provides, under certain circumstances, for the extension of 1956-crop farm-storage loans and the making of farm-storage loans on 1956-crop wheat covered by purchase agreements. Neither warehouse-storage loans nor purchase agreements will be available to producers under this program.

(b) Time. (1) The producer who desires to participate in the reseal loan program must file an application for a farm-storage reseal loan with the county committee.

(2) In the case of a farm-storage loan, the producer will be required to apply for extension of his loan before the final date for delivery specified in the delivery instructions issued to him by the county committee.

(3) The producer who signed a purchase agreement on farm-stored wheat is required, under the 1956 Wheat Price Support Program, to notify the county committee not later than March 31, 1957, in the case of wheat stored in any of the States listed in paragraph (a) of this section if he intends to sell the wheat to CCC. If the producer has notified the county committee, on or before March 31, 1957, of his intention to sell the wheat to CCC or to participate in this program, he may obtain a farm-storage loan on the wheat. The loan documents must be executed by the producer on or before the final date for delivery specified in the delivery instructions or, on or before May 31, 1957, if the producer has not requested or received delivery instructions. The loan documents must be presented for disbursement within 15 days after execution. Disbursement of loans will be made to producers by ASC county offices by means of sight drafts drawn on CCC. The drawing of a draft shall constitute disbursement. The producer shall not present the loan documents for disbursement unless the commodity is in existence and in good condition. If the commodity was not in existence and in good condition at the time of disbursement, the total amount disbursed under the loan shall be promptly refunded by the producer. In the event the amount disbursed exceeds the amount authorized under this subpart, the producer shall be personally liable for repayment of the amount of such excess.

(c) Source. A producer desiring to participate in the reseal loan program should make application to the county committee which approved his loan or purchase agreement. Disbursements of loans completed on wheat covered by purchase agreements shall be made to producers by ASC county offices by means of sight drafts drawn on CCC. Any farm-storage loans to be resealed and held by approved lending agencies shall be purchased and transferred to county office custody before the reseal loans are approved.

§ 421.1653 Eligible producer. An eligible producer shall be an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, trust, or other business enterprise, or legal entity, and wherever applicable, a State, political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof, producing wheat in 1956 as landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper, who either completed a farm-storage loan or signed a purchase agreement covering wheat of the 1956 crop.

§ 421.1654 Eligible wheat—(a) Requirements of eligibility. The wheat (1) must meet the requirements set forth in § 421.1638 (a), (b), (c), and (d), and must not grade Tough, Weevily, Ergoty, or Treated and; (2) must be under price support loan or purchase agreement.

(b) Inspection. If a producer makes application to extend his farm-storage loan, or to obtain a farm-storage loan on wheat covered by a purchase agreement, the commodity loan inspector shall inspect the wheat and storage structure, obtain a sample if the wheat and structure appear eligible, and proceed in the regular manner for the inspection of a commodity to be placed under loan.

(c) Determination of quality. Quality determinations shall be made as set forth in § 421.1641.

§ 421.1655 Approved storage. Wheat covered by any loans extended and any new loans completed must be stored in structures which meet the requirements for farm-storage loans as provided in § 421.1606 (a). Consent for storage for any loans extended or new loans completed must be obtained by the producer for the period ending May 31, 1958, if the structure is owned or controlled by someone other than the producer, or if the lease expires prior to May 31, 1958.

§ 421.1656 Approved forms. (a) The approved forms, which together with the provision of this subpart govern the rights and responsibilities of the producer, shall consist of Producer's Note and Supplemental Loan Agreement, Commodity Loan Form A, secured by a Commodity Chattel Mortgage on Commodity Loan Form AA, and such other forms and documents as may be prescribed by CCC. Notes and chattel mortgages must have State and documentary revenue stamps affixed thereto where required by law. Loan documents executed by an administrator, executor or trustee will be acceptable only where legally valid.

(b) Where required by State law, a new producer's note and chattel mortgage shall be completed when a farm-storage loan is extended.

§ 421.1657 Quantity eligible for resealing. (a) The quantity of wheat eligible for reseal on an extended farm-storage loan, will be the quantity shown on the original note and chattel mortgage, less any quantity delivered or redeemed.

(b) A producer may obtain a loan on not in excess of the quantity of wheat specified in the purchase agreement, minus any quantity of the wheat under such purchase agreement (1) which has been previously placed under loan or (2) on which he exercises his option to sell to CCC.

§ 421.1658 Additional service charges. (a) When a farm-storage loan is extended, the producer will not be required to pay an additional service charge.

(b) At the time a farm-storage loan is made to the producer on wheat covered by a purchase agreement, the producer shall pay an additional service charge of ½ cent per bushel on the number of bushels placed under loan, or $1.50, whichever is greater. No refund of service charges will be made except if the amount collected is in excess of the correct amount.

§ 421.1659 Transfer of producer's equity. The producer shall not transfer either his remaining interest in or his right to redeem the wheat mortgaged as security for a loan under this program. A producer who wishes to liquidate all or part of his loan by contracting for the sale of the wheat must obtain written prior approval of the county committee on Commodity Loan Form 12 to remove the wheat from storage when the proceeds of the sale are needed to repay all or any part of the loan. Any such approval shall be subject to the terms and conditions set out in Commodity Loan Form 12, copies of which may be obtained by producers or prospective purchasers at the office of the county committee.

§ 421.1660 Storage and track-loading payments—(a) Storage payment. A reseal storage payment will be made as follows:

(1) Storage payment for full reseal period. A storage payment will be made to the producer on the quantity involved if he (i) redeems the wheat from the loan on or after March 31, 1958, (ii) delivers the wheat to CCC on or after March 31, 1958, or (iii) delivers the wheat to CCC prior to March 31, 1958, pursuant to demand by CCC for repayment of the loan solely for the convenience of CCC if the wheat was not damaged or otherwise impaired due to negligence on the part of the producer. Such storage payment will be computed at the rate of 16 cents per bushel in the States of Arizona, California, Idaho, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, and Washington; 17 cents per bushel in the States of Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Texas, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

(2) Prorated storage payment. (i) A storage payment determined by prorating such yearly rate according to the length of time the quantity of wheat involved was in store after May 31, 1957, will be made to the producer; (a) in the case of loss assumed by CCC under the provisions of the loan program; (b) in the case of wheat redeemed from the loan prior to March 31, 1958, and (c) in the case of wheat delivered to CCC pursuant to its demand and not solely for the convenience of CCC or upon request of the producer and with the approval of CCC, prior to March 31, 1958: Provided, however, That no storage payment will be made where the delivered wheat is damaged or otherwise impaired due to negligence on the part of the producer. The prorated storage payment will be computed at the rate of 0.00053 per bushel a day (but not to exceed 16 cents per bushel) in the States of Arizona, California, Idaho, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, and Washington; 0.00056 per bushel a day (but not to exceed 17 cents per bushel) in the States of Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Texas, Wisconsin, and Wyoming. In the case of losses assumed by CCC, the period for computing the storage payment shall end on the date of the loss; and in the case of redemptions, on the date of repayment.

Wheat, published in 21 F. R. 3997, 4000, 5560, 6743, 8232, 8307, and 22 F. R. 591, shall be applicable to the 1956 Wheat Reseal Loan Program: § 421.1601 Administration; § 421.1608 Liens; § 421.1610 Set-offs; § 421.1611 Interest rate; § 421.1613 Safeguarding the commodity; § 421.1614 Insurance on farm-storage loans; § 421.1615 Loss or damage to the commodity; § 421.1616 Personal liability of the producer; § 421.1617 Release of the commodity under loan; § 421.1620 Foreclosure; § 421.1640 Determination of quantity. Other sections of the 1956

(ii) In no case will any storage payment be made where the producer has made any false representation in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan, or where the wheat has been abandoned or where there has been conversion on the part of the producer.

(b) Track-loading payment. A track-loading payment of 3 cents per bushel will be made to the producer on wheat delivered to CCC in accordance with instructions of the county committee on track at a country point.

§ 421.1661 Maturity and satisfaction. (a) Loans will mature on demand but not later than March 31, 1958. The producer must pay off his loan, plus interest, on or before maturity or deliver the mortgaged wheat in accordance with the instructions of the county committee. Credit will be given at the applicable settlement value according to grade and quality for the total quantity eligible for delivery. Delivery of wheat will be accepted only from bin(s) in which the wheat under reseal is stored. The provisions of § 421.1618 (a), (c), and (d) (2), (3), (4) and (f), and of § 421.1645 (a) (1) shall be applicable thereto: Provided, That, if upon delivery, the wheat is of a quality which does not meet the sanitation requirements (§ 421.1638 (d)) in effect at the time the loan was extended or at the time the loan was made on wheat covered by a purchase agreement, the wheat, in the event it does not meet the requirements of § 421.1638 (d) (1) shall be sold for feed, or for industrial uses other than food and beverages, and, in the event it does not meet the requirements of § 421.1638 (d) (2), shall be sold for seed (in accordance with applicable State seed laws and regulations), fuel, or industrial uses where the end product will not be consumed by man or animals, and in each instance covered by this proviso, the settlement value shall be the same as the sales price: Provided further, That if CCC is unable to sell such commodity for the use specified above, the settlement value shall be the market value, if any, as determined by CCC, as of the date of delivery.

§ 421.1662 Support rates. (a) The support rate for an extended farm-storage loan shall remain the same as for the original loan. The support rate for wheat covered by a purchase agreement placed under a farm-storage loan shall be the support rate established for the wheat in § 421.1643 (d) (2).

(b) Any discounts or premiums established for variation in quality as shown in § 421.1643 (d) (3) shall apply.

Issued this 26th day of March 1957.

AUTHORITY: §§ 434.801 to 434.827, issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070 as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 201, 401, 63 Stat. 1052, 1054; 15 U. S. C. 714c, 7 U. S. C. 1446, 14421.

§ 434.801 Administration. This subpart will be administered by the Sugar Division, CSS, under the general direction and supervision of the Executive Vice President, CCC. In the field the program will be carried out by State and County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation offices (hereinafter called State and county offices) under the supervision of State and County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees (hereinafter called State and county committees) and by CSS commodity offices. Producers interested in participating in the program should contact their county offices, through which the price support documents will be distributed. All documents will be completed and approved by the county offices, which will retain copies thereof. State and county committees and offices and CSS commodity offices do not have authority to modify or waive any of the provisions of this subpart, or any amendments or supplements to this subpart.

§ 434.802 Availability of price support—(a) Method of support. Price support on extracted honey will be made available to producers through loans on such honey stored in approved farm storage, and through purchase agreements.

(b) Area. Farm-storage loans and purchase agreements will be available wherever eligible honey is produced in the continental United States.

(c) Where to apply. Application for price support should be made at the county office of the county in which the producer's place of operation is located or, if producer has more than one place of operation, at the county office of the county in which the honey is stored.

(d) When to apply. Loans and purchase agreements will be available from April 1, 1957 through December 31, 1957, in Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California. In all other States, loans and purchase agreements will be available from July 1, 1957 through December 31, 1957. Applicable documents must be signed by the producer and delivered to the county office not later than December 31, 1957.

(e) Eligible producer. (1) An eligible producer shall be any person, including a partnership, association or corporation, who, in 1957, extracts honey produced by bees owned by him.

(2) Bona fide producer-owned and producer-controlled cooperative marketing associations of honey producers shall be eligible for a loan or purchase agreement on eligible honey received from and produced by members of the association: Provided, That (i) the producer members are bound by contract to deliver their eligible honey to the association free from all liens and encumbrances; (ii) the proceeds of the eligible honey marketed by the association are shared proportionately among the producer members according to the grade and quantity of such honey each delivers to the association; (iii) the association has authority to obtain a loan on the security of the honey and to give a lien thereon as well as authority to sell such honey. Only honey received from producers under such conditions may be delivered to CCC under a loan or purchase agreement. All determinations with respect to whether or not a given organization is a cooperative marketing association of producers pursuant to this section shall be made by or under the direction of the State Committee. The word "producer" as used hereafter shall be deemed to include such cooperative marketing associations of producers.

§ 434.803 Eligible honey. Any honey other than that described in § 434.804 which at the time it is placed under loan or tendered for purchase under a purchase agreement meets the following requirements is eligible for price support.

(a) The honey must be of the 1957 crop, produced and extracted in the continental United States by an eligible producer.

(b) The honey shall be packed in containers of a capacity of not less than 5 gallons nor greater than 70 gallons, and of a style used in normal commercial practice in the honey industry. Five-gallon containers shall be filled with 60 pounds net of honey. Larger containers shall be filled to their rated capacities.

(1) The 5-gallon containers shall be new, clean, sound, uncased and free from appreciable dents and rust. The handle of each container shall be firm and strong enough to permit carrying the filled can. The can closures shall be complete, including the cap liner prescribed for the particular style of can. The threads on both the cap and the can opening shall not be damaged in any way that will prevent a tight seal. Cans which are punctured, or which have been punctured and resealed by soldering, will not be acceptable.

(2) Steel drums shall be new drums, or used drums which have been reconditioned both inside and outside. Steel drums must be clean, and treated to prevent rusting. The drums must be fitted with gaskets which will provide a tight seal when closed.

(3) Other commercial containers, such as wooden barrels or kegs, which are new or which have been reconditioned, are acceptable if sound, clean and leakproof. Such containers must be closed with appropriate leakproof closures.

(c) The beneficial interest in the honey must be in the producer tendering the honey for a loan, or for delivery under a purchase agreement, and must always have been in him, or must have been in him and a former producer whom, before the honey was extracted, he succeeded as owner of the bees producing the honey. In the case of a cooperative marketing association these stipulations as to beneficial interest shall apply to each producer delivering to the association.

(d) The honey must be equal to or better than Grade C of the United States Standards for Grades of Extracted Honey, effective April 16, 1951: Provided, however, That in areas in which the State Committee determines that existing conditions make fermentation of high moisture honey probable during the period of storage, the maximum moisture content allowable may be reduced by such committee from 20 percent to 18.6 percent for any or all floral sources.

(e) Honey offered for a farm-storage loan must have been stored in containers specified in paragraph (b) of this section, for at least 15 days prior to drawing the inspection samples. The containers shall be stacked upright in a manner which will prevent damage to the containers in the stacks, and so arranged that the containers in the stacks are easily accessible for inspection.

§ 434.804 Ineligible honey. Andromeda, Athel, Bitterweed, Broomweed, Cajeput, Carrot, Chinquapin, Dog Fennel, Desert Hollyhock, Gumweed, Mescal, Onion, Prickly Pear, Prune, Queen's Delight, Rabbit Brush, Snowbrush (Ceanothus), Snow-on-the-Mountain, Tarweed, and similar objectionably flavored honeys or objectionably flavored blends of honey as determined by the Director, Sugar Division, CSS, will not be eligible for price support regardless of whether they meet other eligibility requirements.

§ 434.805 Disbursement of loans. Disbursement of loans will be made to producers by county offices by means of sight drafts drawn on CCC or by approved lending agencies under agreement with CCC. No disbursement shall be made later than 15 days after the final date of the availability of loans, unless recommended by the State committee and approved by the Executive Vice President, CCC. Payment in cash, credit to the producer's account, or the drawing of a check or draft, shall constitute disbursement. The producer shall not present the loan documents for disbursement of funds unless the honey is in existence, in approved storage, and in good condition. If the honey was not in existence, in approved storage, or in good condition at the time the producer received the disbursement, the proceeds shall be promptly refunded by the producer.

§ 434.806 Approved lending agencies. An approved lending agency shall be any bank, corporation, partnership, individual or legal entity with which CCC has entered into a lending agency agreement (CCC Form 322 or other form prescribed by CCC).

§ 434.807 Approved storage. Loans will be made only on honey in approved storage. Purchase agreements may be executed without regard to whether the honey is in approved storage.

(a) Farm storage. Approved farm storage shall consist of storage structures located on or off the farm (excluding public warehouses) which are determined by the county office to be so located and so substantially and permanently constructed as to afford safe storage of the honey. In carrying out its responsibility the county office should consider the extent to which the storage structures for honey are clean, dry, weatherproof and can be locked. If such structure is used to house honey other than that which is covered by a single price support loan, a suitable partition shall be used to preserve the identity of the honey covered by each price support loan, and to segregate it from any other honey in the storage structure.

(b) Cooperative storage. Approved storage for cooperative marketing associations shall meet the requirements stated in paragraph (a) of this section. Preservation of the identity of each producer's honey in the lot covered by the mortgage will not be required.

§ 434.808 Applicable forms. The approved forms consist of the loan and purchase agreement forms and such other forms and documents as are specified in this subpart and which, together with the provisions of this subpart, govern the rights and responsibilities of the producer. Note and supplemental loan agreement, chattel mortgages, and purchase agreements, must be dated, signed by the producer, and delivered to the county office on or before the final date of availability of loans or purchase agreements. Note and supplemental loan agreements, and chattel mortgages, must have State and documentary revenue stamps affixed thereto when required by law. Loan and purchase agreement documents executed by an administrator, executor or trustee will be acceptable only if legally valid.

(a) Farm-storage loans. Approved forms shall consist of Commodity Loan Form A, Producer's Note and Supplemental Loan Agreement, secured by Commodity Loan Form AA, Commodity Chattel Mortgage, and such other forms and documents as may be required by CCC. These forms shall also be used for honey stored by cooperative marketing associations of producers in warehouses under their control.

(b) Purchase agreement documents. The purchase agreement forms shall consist of the Purchase Agreement (Commodity Purchase Form 1) and Purchase Agreement Settlement (Commodity Purchase Form 4) signed by the producer and approved by the county office, and such other forms and documents as may be required by CCC.

§ 434.809 Liens. If there are any liens or encumbrances on honey placed under loan or delivered under purchase agreement waivers acceptable to the county committee must be obtained.

§ 434.810 Service charges. Producers shall pay the following service charges on the quantity of honey placed under loan or specified in the purchase agreement. In the case of loans the service charges, except preliminary service charges, shall be collected from the proceeds of the loan at the time the loan is disbursed. In the case of purchase agreements, the service charges shall be collected at the time the purchase agreement is completed. An additional service charge shall be paid on any additional quantity delivered to and accepted by CCC under a loan.

(a) Rates:

Method of price support	Rate (per 100 pounds net)	Minimum charge
	Cents
Farm-storage loan	5	$3.00
Purchase agreement	2½	1.50

(b) State committees are authorized to require prepayment of $3.00 of the service charge on a farm-storage loan at the time the producer applies for the loan.

(c) No refund of service charges will be made.

§ 434.811 Determination of quantity. (a) Determination of quantity of honey in connection with applications for farm-storage loans, shall be computed on the basis of 55 pounds for each 5-gallon can, and of 11 pounds for each gallon of rated capacity for containers larger than 5 gallons.

(b) Determination of quantity at time of acquisition by CCC of honey under loan or purchase agreement shall be made by or under the direction of the State Committee. The quantity determination of honey acquired in 5-gallon cans shall be based upon the number of 5-gallon cans times the average per can net weight of honey rounded to the next lowest whole pound, or 60 pounds per can net weight of honey, whichever is lower. The weight determination of honey acquired in larger containers shall be the actual net weight of the honey.

§ 434.812 Determination of grade and color. (a) Determination of grade and color in connection with applications for farm-storage loans shall be made on the basis of samples drawn by the county office and transmitted prepaid to an office of the Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service. Samples shall be provided by the producer at no cost to CCC. The cost of inspection shall be collected by the county office from the producer for the account of the Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Branch at the time samples are drawn.

(b) Determination of grade and color, at time of acquisition by CCC, of honey under loan or purchase agreement, including the drawing of the samples, shall be by representatives of the Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, AMS. Samples shall be provided by the producer at no cost to CCC. The cost of such sampling, and of grade, and color determination at time of acquisition, shall be paid by CCC.

(c) Table honey shall be so segregated according to color that the color for the lot as a whole is within the tolerances for color variations as outlined in the United States Standards for Grades of Extracted Honey, effective April 16, 1951. If a lot of honey is not segregated so that it can be certified in accordance with the foregoing, the loan, settlement for the loan, or purchase under purchase agreement, shall be made on the basis of the darkest color shown on the inspection certificate.

(d) Table honey should be so segregated from nontable honey that it can be certified for loan, settlement under loan, or purchase agreement, in accordance with the categories outlined in § 434.825. If a lot of honey is not segregated so that it can be given a single classification as either table or nontable honey, the loan, settlement for the loan, or purchase under purchase agreement, shall be made on the basis of nontable honey.

(e) In the case of blends of table and nontable honeys, the loan, setlement under loan, or purchase under purchase agreement, shall be made on the basis of nontable honey. If any blends of honey contain ineligible honey, the lot as a whole shall be considered ineligible.

§ 434.813 Maturity of Loans. Loans mature on demand, but not later than March 31, 1958, in all States.

§ 434.814 Set-offs. If the producer is indebted to CCC on any accrued obligation, or if any installment or installments on any loan made available by CCC on farm-storage facilities or mobile drying equipment are past due, or are payable under the provisions of the note evidencing such loan out of the proceeds of the price support loan or purchase, he must designate CCC or the lending agency holding such note as the payee of the proceeds of the price support purchase or loan to the extent of such indebtedness or installments, but not to exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of loan service charges and amounts due prior lienholders. If the producer is indebted to any other agency of the United States, and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt register, he must designate such agency as the payee of the proceeds as provided in this section. Indebtedness to CCC or to a lending agency, as provided in this section, shall be given first consideration after claims of prior lienholders. Compliance with the provisions of this section shall not constitute a waiver of any right of the producer to contest the justness of the indebtedness involved either by administrative appeal or legal action.

§ 434.815 Interest rate. Loans shall bear interest at the rate of 3½ per centum per annum from the date of disbursement of the loan: Provided, That if there is a default in satisfaction of the loan the amount remaining due on the date of such default (including accrued interest), and any costs incurred by the holder of the note, shall bear interest thereafter at the rate of 6 per centum per annum: Provided, further, That if the producer has made a fraudulent representation in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan, the principal amount of the loan, and any costs incurred by the holder of the note, shall bear interest from the date of disbursement at the rate of 6 per centum per annum.

§ 434.816 Transfer of producer's interest—(a) Farm-storage loans. The producer shall not transfer either his remaining interest in, or his right to redeem, honey mortgaged as security for a farm-storage loan. A producer who wishes to liquidate all or part of his loan by contracting for the sale of the honey, must obtain written prior approval of the county office on Commodity Loan Form 12 to remove the honey from storage when the proceeds of the sale are needed to repay all or any part of the loan. Any such approval shall be subject to the terms and conditions set out in Commodity Loan Form 12, copies of which may be obtained by producers or prospective purchasers at the county office.

(b) Purchase agreements. The producer may not assign his interest in a purchase agreement.

§ 434.817 Safeguarding the honey. The producer obtaining a farm-storage loan is obligated to maintain the storage structure in good repair and to keep the honey in good condition, until the loan is liquidated.

§ 434.818 Insurance. CCC will not require the producer to insure the honey placed under loan; however, if the producer insures such honey and indemnity is paid thereon, such indemnity shall inure to the benefit of CCC to the extent of its interest, after first satisfying the producer's equity in the honey involved in the loss.

§ 434.819 Loss or damage to honey. If the honey is going out of condition, or is in danger of going out of condition, the producer shall notify the county office. The producer is responsible for any loss in quantity or quality of the honey placed under farm-storage loan, except that, subject to the provisions of § 434.818, physical loss or damage occurring after disbursement of the loan funds to the producer, without fault, negligence, or conversion on the part of the producer, resulting solely from external causes other than insect infestation, vermin, rodents, or other animals, will be assumed by CCC to the extent of the settlement value of the quantity of the honey lost, stolen, or destroyed, or to the extent of the damage as determined by CCC, provided the producer has given the county office immediate notice, confirmed in writing, of such loss or damage, and provided there has been no fraudulent representation made by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan. Physical loss or damage occurring prior to disbursement of the loan funds to the producer will not be assumed by CCC. If disbursement of funds is made by sight draft or check, the date of the draft or check shall constitute the date of disbursement of the funds.

§ 434.820 Personal liability of the producer for the honey. The making of any fraudulent representation by the producer in the loan documents, or in obtaining the loan, or the conversion or unlawful disposition of any portion of the honey by him, may render the producer subject to criminal prosecution under Federal law and will render him personally liable for the amount due on the loan and for any resulting expense incurred by any holder of the note.

§ 434.821 Release of the honey under loan. A producer may at any time obtain release of the honey remaining under loan by paying to the holder of the note and supplemental loan agreement, the principal amount thereof, plus charges and accrued interest. All charges in connection with the collection of the note shall be paid by the producer. Upon presentation of the paid note, the county office shall arrange for the release of the chattel mortgage. Partial release of the honey prior to maturity may be arranged with the county office after making payment to the holder of the note for the quantity of the honey released, plus charges and accrued interest. However, in the event the quantity of the honey contained in the storage structure and covered by the chattel mortgage is greater than the quantity with respect to which the amount was computed, application may be made to the county office for release of all or part of such excess without payment on the loan.

§ 434.822 Liquidation of loans and delivery under purchase agreements—(a) Farm-storage loans. The producer is required to pay off his loan on or before maturity, or to deliver the honey in accordance with instructions of the county office. Delivery points for farm-storage loans shall be limited to those recommended by the State committee and approved by the Director, Sugar Division, CSS. If the producer desires to deliver the honey, he should, prior to maturity, give the county office notice in writing of his intention to do so. The producer may, however, pay off his loan and redeem his honey at any time prior to delivery to CCC or removal by CCC. In the event the farm is sold or there is a change of tenancy, the honey under a farm-storage loan may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan, upon prior approval by the county office, or may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan for other reasons upon prior approval of the Executive Vice President of CCC. Settlement will be made at the applicable support rate in effect at the approved point of delivery subject to the provisions of the producer's note and supplemental loan agreement and this subpart, on the basis of the quantity, floral source, color and grade at the time of delivery as determined in accordance with §§ 434.811 (b) and 434.812 (b), (c), (d) and (e). If farm-stored honey is delivered to CCC prior to March 31, 1958, upon request of the producer and with the approval of CCC, the loan settlement shall be reduced at the rate of 1/20 of a cent per pound per month or fraction thereof, from the date delivery is accomplished, or from the final date for delivery shown in the delivery instructions issued by the county office, whichever is earlier, to and including March 31, 1958. Settlement value for honey acquired by CCC which does not meet requirements with respect to grade shall be determined at the support rate for the honey placed under loan less the estimated cost, as determined by CCC, for conditioning such honey to conform to the grade of honey described in the loan documents. The settlement value for honey acquired by CCC which does not meet requirements because of floral source, or which cannot be conditioned to meet grade requirements, shall be the actual market value of such honey, if any, as determined by CCC. The producer shall pay CCC for any deficiency in quantity, floral source, grade or color. Any payment due the producer on settlement may be made by sight draft drawn on CCC by the county office.

(b) Handling small amounts on settlement. If the settlement value of the honey delivered under a farm-storage loan exceeds the amount due on the loan (excluding interest) by more than $3.00, such amount will be paid to the producer on the basis of the settlement documents. To avoid administrative costs of making small payments, if the amount found due the producer in such settlement is $3.00 or less such amount will be paid only upon his request. If the settlement value of the honey is less than the amount due on the loan (excluding interest), the amount of the deficiency, plus interest, shall be paid to CCC, or may be set off against any payment which would otherwise be due to the producer under any agricultural program administered by the Secretary of Agriculture, or any other payments which are due or may become due to the producer from CCC or any other agency of the United States. To avoid administrative costs of handling small accounts a deficiency of $3.00 or less, including interest, may be disregarded unless demand therefor is made by CCC upon the producer.

(c) Purchase agreements. The producer who signs a purchase agreement (Commodity Purchase Form 1) shall not be obligated to sell any quantity of the honey to CCC. However, the quantity stated in the purchase agreement shall be the maximum quantity he may sell to CCC. If the producer who signs a purchase agreement wishes to sell the honey to CCC, he shall have a 30-day period prior to the loan maturity date during which he must notify the county office of his intention to sell. Deliveries shall not be accepted before March 31, 1958, or such earlier date as prescribed by the Executive Vice President, CCC. The producer may be required to retain the honey for a period of 60 days after the loan maturity date, without any cost to CCC. Delivery under purchase agreements shall be made in accordance with instructions issued by the county office. Delivery points for purchase agreements shall be limited to those recommended by the State committee and approved by the Director, Sugar Division, CSS. Honey delivered under a purchase agreement must meet the requirements for eligible honey as set forth in §§ 434.803 and 434.812 (e). Payment for eligible honey delivered to CCC under purchase agreements shall be at the applicable support rate in effect at the approved delivery point, on the basis of the quantity, floral source, color, and grade at the time of delivery as determined in accordance with §§ 434.811 (b) and 434.812 (b), (c), (d), and (e). Such payment will be made to the producer by sight draft drawn on CCC by the county office.

§ 434.823 Foreclosure. If the loan is not satisfied upon maturity, the holder of the note is authorized to remove the honey from storage; and also to sell, assign, transfer, and deliver the honey or documents evidencing title thereto at such time, in such manner, and upon such terms as the holder may determine, at public or private sale, and the holder of the note may become the purchaser of the whole or any part of the honey. Any such disposition may similarly be effected without removing the honey from storage. Any sum due the producer as a result of the sale of the honey, after deducting the amount of the note, interest, and charges, shall be payable only to the producer without right of assignment by him. If honey removed by CCC from storage is sold at less than the amount due on the loan (excluding interest) and the quantity, floral source, grade, or color of the honey as removed is lower than that on which the loan was computed, the producer shall pay to CCC the difference between the amount due on the loan and the higher of the sales proceeds or the settlement value of the honey removed by CCC, plus interest thereon.

§ 434.824 Purchase of notes. County offices will purchase notes evidencing loans from approved lending agencies in accordance with the lending agency agreement. The purchase price to be paid by CCC shall be the principal sums remaining due on such notes, plus an amount computed according to the lending agency agreement to cover interest. Lending agencies are required to submit Commodity Credit Corporation Form 500, or such other form as CCC may prescribe, for all payments received on producers' notes held by them, and are required to remit to CCC a part of the interest collected, computed according to the lending agency agreement. Lending agencies shall submit notes and reports to the ASC county office where the loan documents were approved.

§ 434.825 Charges not to be assumed by CCC. CCC will not pay or assume any insurance charges, storage charges, inspection charges to determine eligibility for a loan, or any handling or processing charges necessary to make the honey meet the grade requirements.

§ 434.826 Support rates. Loans will be made, and honey delivered under purchase agreements will be purchased, at the support rates set forth below:

For States of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico and States west thereof:

	Rate (cents per pound)
1. White and lighter table honey	9.9
2. Extra Light Amber table honey	9.4
3. Nontable and other table honey	7.9

For all States east of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico:

	Rate (cents per pound)
1. White and lighter table honey	10.8
2. Extra Light Amber table honey	10.3
3. Nontable and other table honey	8.8

Loans will be made at the applicable support rate established for the State in which the honey is stored.

(a) "Table honey" means honey having the predominant flavor of not more than two floral sources, and preferably one, which can be readily marketed for table use in all parts of the country. Such honey includes those with the predominant flavors of Alfalfa, Brazil Brush, Catsclaw, Clover, Cotton, Fireweed, Gallberry, Huajillo, Lima Bean, Mesquite, Orange, Raspberry, Sage, Saw Palmetto, Sourwood, Star Thistle, Sweetclover, Tupelo, Vetch, Western Wild Buckwheat, Wild Alfalfa, and similar predominantly mild-flavored honeys, or predominantly mild-flavored blends of honey, as determined by the Director, Sugar Division, CSS.

(b) "Nontable honey" means honey having a predominant flavor of limited national acceptability for table use but considered to be suitable for table use in most areas in which it is produced. Such honeys include those with the predominant flavors of Aster, Avocado, Buckwheat (except Western Wild Buckwheat), Cabbage Palmetto, Dandelion, Eucalyptus, Goldenrod, Heartsease (Smartweed), Horsemint, Mangrove, Manzanita, Mint, Partridge Pea, Rattan Vine, Safflower, Salt Cedar (Tamarix gallica), Spanish Needle, Spikeweed, Ti-ti, Toyon (Christmas Berry), Tulip-Poplar, Wild Cherry, and similarly flavored honeys, or blends of such honeys, as determined by the Director, Sugar Division, CSS.

AUTHORITY: §§ 443.1301 to 443.1322 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 203, 301, 401, 63 Stat. 1053, 1054; 15 U. S. C. 714c, 7 U. S. C. 1447, 1421.

§ 443.1301 Administration. In the field, the program will be administered through Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (hereinafter referred to as "ASC") State and county committees (hereinafter referred to as "State" and "county committees") and the CSS Commodity Office located at Wirth Building, 120 Marais Street, New Orleans 16, Louisiana (hereinafter referred to as "the New Orleans office"). Forms will be distributed through the offices of State and county committees. County committees will determine or cause to be determined the quantity and grade of cottonseed, the amount of the loan, and the value of the cottonseed delivered under the loan. Loan documents will be completed in the county ASC office and copies of such documents will be retained there. All documents will be approved by the county office manager, or other employee of the county office designated by him to act in his behalf. Such designations shall be on file in the county office. County office managers, State and county committees and the New Orleans office do not have authority to modify or waive any of the provisions of this subpart or any amendments thereto.

§ 443.1302 Availability of loans—(a) Area. Farm-storage loans (hereinafter referred to as loans) shall be available on eligible cottonseed stored in approved storage in all cotton producing areas, except that loans will not be made in any area where the appropriate State committee determines that the damage hazard to farm-storage cottonseed would not warrant the making of loans.

(b) Time. Loans shall be available through January 31, 1958. Notes and chattel mortgages must be signed by the producer and delivered or mailed to the county office on or before such date.

(c) Source. Loans will be made available through the offices of county committees. Disbursements on loans will be made to producers through approved lending agencies under agreements with CCC or by ASC county offices by means of sight drafts drawn on CCC in accordance with instructions issued by CSS to the State and county committees. Disbursements on loans will be made not later than February 15, 1958, except where specifically approved by the New Orleans office in each instance. The producer shall not present the loan documents for disbursement unless the cottonseed are in existence and in good condition. If the cottonseed are not in existence and in good condition at the time of disbursement, the proceeds shall be promptly refunded by the producer.

§ 443.1303 Approved lending agencies. An approved lending agency shall be a bank, cooperative marketing association, corporation, partnership, individual, or other legal entity with which CCC has entered into a lending agency agreement (Form CCC-322).

§ 443.1304 Eligible producer. (a) An eligible producer shall be any individual, partnership, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity, or a State or political subdivision thereof or an agency of such State or political subdivision, producing cottonseed in 1957 in the capacity of landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper.

(b) Eligible producers who are members of cooperative marketing associations may act collectively through their associations in obtaining loans in accordance with the provisions of § 443.1322.

§ 443.1305 Eligible cottonseed. Eligible cottonseed shall be cottonseed that meets the following requirements:

(a) The cottonseed must have been produced in the United States in 1957 by an eligible producer.

(b) Such cottonseed must have been produced by the person tendering them for a loan, or by the person who delivered the cottonseed to the cooperative association tendering the cottonseed for a loan, and the beneficial interest in the cottonseed must be in such person and must always have been in him or in him and a former producer whom he succeeded before the cottonseed were harvested. Cottonseed tendered by a cooperative association for a loan must have been produced and delivered to the association by its producer-members. Any person tendering cottonseed for a loan must have the legal right to mortgage the cottonseed as security for the loan.

(c) Cottonseed must be sound and clean and must not contain more than 11 percent moisture.

(d) No warehouse receipts shall be outstanding on the cottonseed.

§ 443.1306 Approved storage. Approved storage shall consist of storage structures located on or off the farm which, as determined by the county office manager, are of such construction as to afford safe storage of cottonseed and afford protection against weather damage, poultry, livestock and rodents, and reasonable protection against fire and theft.

§ 443.1307 Approved forms. (a) The documents named in this section, together with the provisions of this subpart and any supplements or amendments thereto, govern the rights and responsibilities of the producers under this program. Loan documents executed by an administrator, executor or trustee will be acceptable only where valid in law and must be accompanied by documentary evidence of the authority of the person executing such documents. Documents must have State and documentary revenue stamps affixed when required by law.

(b) The following documents must be delivered by the producer in support of every loan: Producer's Note and Supplemental Loan Agreement (Commodity Loan Form A) and Commodity Chattel Mortgage (Commodity Loan Form AA) covering the cottonseed tendered as security for the loan both executed and delivered within the period prescribed in § 443.1302, and such other forms as may be prescribed by CCC.

§ 443.1308 Determination of quantity. The quantity of cottonseed at the time a loan is made shall be determined by actual weight or by an estimate based upon measurements. When the weight of cottonseed to be placed under loan is estimated by measurement, 90 cubic feet of cottonseed shall be considered the equivalent of one ton. The quantity delivered in liquidation of the loan shall be the net weight, which shall be the gross weight of the cottonseed less a deduction for any foreign matter in excess of 1 percent of the gross weight.

§ 443.1309 Liens. The cottonseed must be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances including any claim the ginner may have against the cottonseed for his regular ginning charge. If liens, ginner's claims or encumbrances exist on the cottonseed, proper waivers must be obtained.

§ 443.1310 Service charges. The producer shall pay a service charge of 35 cents per ton on the number of tons placed under a loan, or $3.00, whichever is greater. State committees are authorized to require prepayment of $3.00 of the service charges. No refund of any service charge will be made.

§ 443.1311 Set-offs. (a) If the producer is indebted to CCC on any accrued obligation, or if any installment or installments on any loan made available by CCC on farm-storage facilities or mobile drying equipment are past due or are payable or prepayable, under the provisions of the note evidencing such loan, out of the proceeds of the price support loan, he must designate CCC or the lending agency holding such note as the payee of the proceeds of the loan to the extent of such indebtedness or installments, but not to exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of service charges and amounts due prior lien-holders.

(b) If the producer is indebted to any other agency of the United States and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt register, he must designate such agency as the payee of the proceeds to the extent of such indebtedness, but not to exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of amounts under paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Compliance with the provisions of this section shall not constitute a waiver of any right of the producer to contest the justness of the indebtedness involved either by administrative appeal or by legal action.

§ 443.1312 Interest rate. Loans will bear interest at the rate of 3½ percent per annum from the date of disbursement to the date of repayment except that loans in default or obtained through fraud will bear interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the date of default or the date of disbursement, respectively.

§ 443.1313 Transfer of producer's equity. The right of the producer to transfer either his right to redeem the cottonseed under loan or his remaining interest may be restricted by CCC.

§ 443.1314 Safeguarding of the cottonseed. The producer who places cottonseed under a loan is obligated to maintain the storage structure in good repair, and to keep the cottonseed in good condition.

§ 443.1315 Insurance. CCC will not require the producer to insure the cottonseed placed under a loan; however, if the producer does insure such cottonseed and an indemnity is paid thereon, such indemnity shall inure to the benefit of CCC to the extent of its interest after first satisfying the producer's equity in the cottonseed involved in the loss.

§ 443.1316 Loss or damage to the cottonseed. The producers shall be responsible for the quality and for any loss in quantity of the cottonseed placed under loan, except that, subject to the provisions of § 443.1315, any physical loss or damage other than shrinkage or natural deterioration, occurring after disbursement of the loan funds to the producer, without fault, negligence, or conversion on the part of the producer or any other person having control of the storage structure, and resulting solely from an external cause other than insect infestation or vermin will be assumed by CCC to the extent of the loan plus interest, provided the producer or other person having control of the storage structure has given the county office immediate written notice of such loss or damage, and provided there has been no fraudulent representation made by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan. No physical loss or damage occurring prior to disbursement of the loan funds to the producer will be assumed by CCC. Where disbursement is made by check or draft the date of the check or draft shall constitute the date of disbursement of the funds.

§ 443.1317 Personal liability. The making of any fraudulent representations by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan, or the conversion or unlawful disposition by him of any portion of the cottonseed under loan, shall render the producer subject to criminal prosecution under Federal law and render him personally liable for the amount of the loan and for any resulting expense incurred by any holder of the note.

§ 443.1318 Maturity and liquidation of loans. (a) Settlement of loans, and delivery of the cottonseed covered by chattel mortgage shall be made in accordance with this section. All loans mature on demand but not later than March 1, 1958. If the producer does not repay his loan on or before maturity, the producer shall deliver the mortgaged cottonseed in accordance with instructions issued on behalf of the county committee. The producer may, however, pay off his loan and redeem his cottonseed at any time prior to the delivery of the cottonseed to CCC or removal of the cottonseed by CCC. In the event the farm is sold or there is a change of tenancy, the cottonseed may be delivered by the producer before the maturity date of the loan, after obtaining delivery instructions issued on behalf of the county committee, or may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan for other reasons upon prior approval of the Executive Vice President, CCC. After a complete grade determination by a cottonseed chemist licensed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, credit will be given at the applicable settlement rate, according to grade and/or quality (see § 443.1321), for the total quantity delivered, provided it is the identical cottonseed on which the loan was made.

(b) If the producer is directed to deliver his cottonseed to a point other than the normal delivery point the producer shall be allowed compensation (as determined by CCC) for the additional cost of hauling the cottonseed any distance greater than the distance from the point where the cottonseed are stored by the producer to the normal delivery point.

(c) If the settlement value of the cottonseed delivered under a loan exceeds the amount due on the loan by more than $3.00, such amount will be paid to the producer on the basis of the settlement documents. To avoid administrative costs of making small payments, if the amount found due the producer in such settlement is $3.00 or less, such amount will be paid only upon his request. Payments will be made by sight drafts drawn on CCC by the county office.

(d) If the settlement value of the cottonseed is less than the amount due on the loan (excluding interest), the amount of the deficiency, plus interest, shall be paid to CCC by the producer and may be set off against any payment which would otherwise be due to the producer under any agricultural programs administered by the Secretary of Agriculture or any other payments which are due or may become due to the producer from CCC or any other agency of the United States: Provided, That, to avoid administrative costs of handling small accounts, a deficiency of $3.00 or less, including interest, may be disregarded unless demand therefor is made by CCC upon the producer.

(e) If the loan is not liquidated upon maturity by payment or delivery, the holder of the note may remove the cottonseed and sell them in accordance with the provisions of the chattel mortgage (Commodity Loan Form AA).

§ 443.1319 Release of the cottonseed under loan. A producer may at any time obtain the release of cottonseed remaining under loan by paying to the holder of the note the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest and any charges that may be due. Upon payment of a loan, the county office should be requested to release the mortgage by filing an instrument of release or by executing a marginal release on the county records. Partial release of the cottonseed prior to maturity of the loan may be arranged with the county committee by paying to the holder of the note the amount of the loan, plus charges and accrued interest, represented by the quantity of the cottonseed to be released: Provided, however, No partial release of cottonseed shall include less than the total quantity of cottonseed stored in any single commingled mass unless the appropriate county committee determines that release of a portion of such commingled mass may be made.

§ 443.1320 Purchase of notes. CCC will purchase from approved lending agencies, notes evidencing approved loans which are secured by chattel mortgages. The purchase price to be paid by CCC will be the principal sum remaining due on such notes, plus an amount computed according to the lending agency agreement to cover interest. Lending agencies are required to submit Commodity Credit Corporation Form 500 or such other form as CCC may prescribe for all payments received on producers' notes held by them and are required to remit interest to CCC computed according to the lending agency agreement.

§ 443.1321 Loan and settlement rates—(a) Loan rates. Loans on cottonseed shall be made at the rate of $46.00 per ton of eligible cottonseed as defined in § 443.1305.

(b) Basic settlement rate. The basic settlement rate for "basis grade" (100) cottonseed shall be $46.00 per net ton f. o. b. railroad cars or trucks at delivery points designated by CCC. The settlement rate for cottonseed grading above or below "basis grade" (100) shall be $46.00 per ton plus or minus a percentage of such price equal to the percentage by which the grade of such cottonseed is above or below 100. In the case of "off quality" or "below grade" cottonseed, as defined in the United States Official Standards for Grades of Cottonseed, CCC will sell such cottonseed pursuant to the provisions of the chattel mortgage at the current market price and the settlement rate shall be the market price per ton determined on the basis of such sale.

§ 443.1322 Cooperative marketing associations. (a) Cooperative marketing associations shall be eligible for loans: Provided, That (1) the cottonseed placed under loan are delivered to the association by eligible producers who are members of the association; (2) the association has been granted by such producer-members the legal right to mortgage the cottonseed as security for a loan; (3) the association keeps any cottonseed covered by a chattel mortgage segregated from all cottonseed not covered by the mortgage; and (4) the association undertakes to pay CCC any amounts due it under the provisions of this program at the time of settlement.

(b) Cooperative associations desiring loans may obtain documents from the county office for the county in which the association is located. The loan and settlement rates to cooperative associations will be the same as those to individual producers, and loans with respect to such associations will otherwise be on substantially the same basis as loans with respect to individual producers.

Issued this 26th day of March 1957.

Executive Vice President, Commodity Credit Corporation.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Valencia Orange Reg. 92]

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 922.392 Valencia Orange Regulation 92—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 22, as amended (7 CFR Part 922; 21 F. R. 4392), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Valencia Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on March 21, 1957, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., March 31, 1957, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., February 2, 1958, no handler shall handle any Valencia oranges, grown in District 1 or in District 3, which are of a size smaller than 2.31 inches in diameter, which shall be the largest measurement at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit: Provided, That not to exceed 5 percent, by count, of the oranges contained in any type of container may measure smaller than 2.31 inches in diameter.

(2) As used in this section, "handle," "handler," "District 1," and "District 3" shall have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: March 25, 1957.

[SEAL] FLOYD F. HEDLUND,
Acting Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

Subchapter B—Export Regulations

[8th General Rev. of Export Regs., Amdt. 30]

PART 373—LICENSING POLICIES AND RELATED SPECIAL PROVISIONS

IRON AND STEEL SCRAP

Section 373.40 Iron and steel, paragraph (d) Iron and steel scrap, Schedule B Nos. 601010, 601040, 601050, 601070, and 601090 is amended in the following particulars:

1. Subparagraph (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) Offshore scrap. License applications to export these scrap commodities from an American possession or territory outside the continental United States, including Alaska, shall include the following certification:

I (We) certify that the commodities described in this application originated in (name of United States territory or possession) and will be exported from (name of United States territory or possession).

2. Subparagraph (4) is deleted.

(Sec. 3, 63 Stat. 7, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. 2023. E. O. 9630, 10 F. R. 12245, 3 CFR 1945 Supp., E. O. 9919, 13 F. R. 59, 3 CFR, 1948 Supp.)

This amendment shall become effective as of March 26, 1957.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

Subchapter A—Procedures, Rules of Practice, and Orders

PART 1—GENERAL PROCEDURES

PART 3—RULES OF PRACTICE FOR ADJUDICATIVE PROCEEDINGS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The Commission announces the following changes in Parts 1 and 3 of Chapter I of Title 16. All such changes to be effective 15 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Part 1 is amended in the following respects:

SUBPART E—STIPULATIONS TO CEASE AND DESIST

Section 1.54 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.54 Stipulation. The stipulation shall consist of an agreement as to the facts, including those relating to jurisdiction, and an agreement to cease and desist from the acts or practices deemed to be violative of law. When executed by proposed respondents and satisfactory to the Chief, Division of Stipulations, and Director, Bureau of Consultation, the stipulation is submitted to the Commission for its consideration.

Section 1.55 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.55 Effect of stipulation. When an executed stipulation is approved by the Commission the matter is closed without prejudice to the right of the Commission to reopen if and when warranted by the facts. The agreement does not constitute an admission by the parties that they have engaged in any method, act or practice violative of law, but it shall, if relevant to the issues, be admissible as evidence of the prior use of the acts or practices set forth therein in any later formal proceeding.

Section 1.57 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.57 Compliance. (a) Proposed respondent, within sixty (60) days from the date notice of the approval of such stipulation is received by him, shall file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with such agreement.

SUBPART M—PUBLIC AND CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Section 1.132 (e) is amended to read as follows:

(e) The pleadings, transcript of testimony, exhibits and all documents received in evidence or made a part of the record in adjudicative proceedings, records of hearings in all rule-making proceedings, continuing guaranties filed under the Wool, Fur and Flammable Fabrics Acts and informal agreements to cease and desist after acceptance by the Commission are available at the principal office of the Commission for inspection and copying at reasonable times. Where copies of such materials are desired, § 1.131 (b) applies.

Section 1.134 (d) added to read as follows:

(d) Any officer or employee who is served with a subpoena requiring the production of any documents or records or the disclosure of any information which is designated in § 1.133 as confidential shall promptly advise the Commission of the service of such subpoena, the nature of the documents or information sought, and all relevant facts and circumstances. The Commission will thereupon enter such order or give such instructions as it shall deem advisable. If the officer or employee so served has not received instructions from the Commission prior to the return date of the subpoena, he shall appear in court and respectfully decline to produce the documents or records or to disclose the information called for, basing his refusal upon this rule.

2. Part 3 is amended in the following respects:

SUBPART B—COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS; SERVICE BY COMMISSION; SERVICE BY OTHER PARTIES; TIME

Section 3.4 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Documents other than complaints, orders and other processes of the Commission, the service of which starts the running of prescribed periods of time provided or allowed by any of the rules in this part or by any order of the Commission or a hearing examiner for the performance of some act or the occurrence of some event or development, shall be served in the same manner as complaints, orders and other processes of the Commission, or by certified mail.

SUBPART C—COMPLAINT, ANSWER, DEFAULT, AND MOTIONS; AMENDMENTS AND SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS; PRE-HEARING PROCEDURE; VOLUNTARY INTERVENTION AND AMICUS CURIAE

Section 3.7 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Default. Failure of the respondent to serve answer within the time above provided and failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the hearing examiner, without further notice to respondent, to find the facts to be as alleged in the complaint, to conduct a hearing to determine the form of order, and, thereafter, to enter an initial decision containing such findings, appropriate conclusions and order.

Section 3.8 (e) is added to read as follows:

(e) Rulings on motions for dismissal. When a motion to dismiss a complaint or for other relief is granted with the result that the proceeding before the hearing examiner is terminated, the hearing examiner shall make and file an initial decision in accordance with the provisions of § 3.21. If such a motion is granted as to all charges of the complaint in regard to some, but not all, of the respondents, or is granted as to any part of the charges in regard to any or all of the respondents, the hearing examiner shall enter his ruling on the record and take it into account in his initial decision.

Section 3.11 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.11 Voluntary intervention. (a) Any individual, partnership, unincorporated association, or corporation desiring to intervene in an adjudicative proceeding shall make written application in the form of a motion setting forth the basis therefor. Such application shall have attached to it a certificate showing service thereof upon each party to the proceeding in accordance with the provisions of § 3.4 (b). A similar certificate shall be attached to the answer filed by any party, other than counsel in support of the complaint, showing service of such answer upon the applicant.

(b) The hearing examiner or the Commission may by order permit the intervention to such extent and upon such terms as are provided by law or as otherwise shall be deemed proper.

SUBPART D—DEPOSITIONS; ADMISSIONS; EVIDENCE

Section 3.13 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.13 Admissions as to facts and documents. (a) At any time after answer has been filed, any party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission of the genuineness of any relevant documents described in the request. Copies of the documents shall be delivered with the request unless copies have already been furnished.

SUBPART E—HEARINGS

Section 3.19 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.19 Proposed findings, conclusions, and order. At the close of the reception of evidence in an adjudicative proceeding, or within a reasonable time thereafter fixed by the hearing examiner, any party may file with the Secretary for consideration of the hearing examiner proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order, together with reasons therefor. Such proposals shall be in writing, shall be served upon all parties, and shall contain adequate references to the record and authorities relied on. Upon request by any party, oral argument thereon may be allowed, and such argument shall be included in the official transcript. The record shall show the hearing examiner's ruling on each proposed finding and conclusion, except when his order disposing of the proceeding otherwise unmistakably informs the parties of the action taken by him thereon.

SUBPART F—DECISION AND ORDER

Section 3.25 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Content. Every agreement containing a consent cease and desist order disposing of the proceeding shall include also an admission by all respondent parties thereto of jurisdictional facts, a provision that the complaint may be used in construing the terms of the order; that the said order shall have the same force and effect as if entered after a full hearing and that the said agreement shall not become a part of the official record of the proceeding unless and until it becomes a part of the decision of the Commission; a provision that the entire record on which any cease and desist order may be based shall consist solely of the complaint and the agreement; a waiver of the requirement that the decision must contain a statement of findings of fact and conclusion of law; and a waiver of further procedural steps before the hearing examiner and the Commission, and provision that the order may be altered, modified, or set aside in the manner provided by statute for other orders. The agreement shall also contain a waiver by the respondents of any right to challenge or contest the validity of the order entered in accordance with the agreement, and may contain a statement that the signing of said agreement is for settlement purposes only and does not constitute an admission by respondents that they have violated the law as alleged in the complaint.

SUBPART G—MISCELLANEOUS

Section 3.30 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.30 Requirements as to form and filing of documents other than correspondence—(a) Filing. All documents in proceedings before the Commission shall be addressed to and filed with the Secretary of the Commission.

(b) Title. Documents shall clearly show the docket number and title of the proceeding.

(c) Copies. Twenty copies shall be filed of a notice of intention to appeal and of all other appeal briefs; ten copies of all other documents shall be filed with the exception of reports of compliance under § 3.26 in which case only two copies shall be filed, and notices of appearance under § 3.29 (c) in which case only one copy shall be filed.

(d) Form. (1) Documents (other than briefs filed with the Commission on cases before the Commission for final disposition as noted in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) below, must be printed, typewritten or otherwise processed[1] on good unglazed paper. The paper must not be less than eight (8) inches nor more than eight and one-half (8½) inches by not less than ten and one-half (10½) inches nor more than eleven (11) inches. The left margin must be one and one-half (1½) inches and the right margin one (1) inch. Documents must be bound on the left side. If printed, the type shall be not less than ten (10) point adequately leaded.

(2) Briefs before the Commission other than briefs on interlocutory appeals must be printed on good unglazed paper seven (7) inches by ten (10) inches. The type shall not be less than ten (10) point adequately leaded. Citations and quotations shall not be less than ten (10) point single leaded and footnotes shall not be less than eight (8) point single leaded. The printed line shall not exceed four and three-quarter (4¾) inches in length.

(e) Signature. (1) One copy of each document filed shall be signed by an attorney of record for the party, or, in the case of respondents not represented by counsel, by the respondent himself, or by a partner if a partnership, or by an officer of respondent if it is a corporation or an unincorporated association.

(2) Signing a document constitutes a representation by the signer that he has read it, that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief, the statements made in it are true, and that it is not interposed for delay. If a document is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken as sham and false and the proceeding may go forward as though the document had not been filed.

DISTINCTIVE EMBLEM & UNIFORM CORP. ET AL.

Subpart—Advertising falsely or misleadingly: § 13.15 Business status, advantages, or connections: Government indorsement; producer status of dealer or seller: Manufacturer; § 13.30 Composition of goods: § 13.65 Government approval, action, connection or standards: Standards, specifications, or source; § 13.130 Manufacture or preparation.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Distinctive Emblem & Uniform Corp. et al., East Orange, N. J., Docket 6647, Mar. 1, 1957]

In the Matter of Distinctive Emblem & Uniform Corp., a Corporation, and Seymour S. Hindman and Sidney M. Stern, Individually and as Officers of Said Corporation

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a corporation engaged in East Orange, N. J., in the sale of military uniforms and other military clothing which it purchased from others, with representing falsely through use of flyers, circulars, post cards, brochures, and letter circulated particularly among U. S. Air Force personnel, that it was a manufacturer of military clothing and a Quartermaster-authorized manufacturer of military uniforms and other military clothing for the U. S. Air Force, that it specialized in custom-made military clothing, and that its "Shade No. 193 Air Force Uniforms" were made of fabrics approved by the U. S. Air Force.

Following entry of an agreement containing consent order, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on March 1 the decision of the Commission.

Said order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Distinctive Emblem & Uniform Corp., a corporation, and its officers, and Sidney M. Stern, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and Seymour S. Hindman, individually, and respondents' agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of military clothing in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from representing, directly or indirectly:

1. That the respondent corporation is the manufacturer of the military clothing sold by it;

2. That the respondent corporation is a quartermaster-authorized manufacturer of military clothing or is authorized by any other department or agency of the United States Armed Services to manufacture military clothing, unless such is the fact;

3. That the military clothing offered for sale or sold, or any of it, is custom-made;

4. That the military uniforms, offered for sale or sold, described as Shade 193 Air Force Uniforms, are made of fabrics approved by the United States Air Force or that any other fabric is or has been approved by any of the United States Armed Services, unless such is the fact.

By "Decision of the Commission", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Distinctive Emblem & Uniform Corp., a corporation, and Seymour S. Hindman and Sidney M. Stern, individually and as officers of said corporation, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: March 13, 1957.

By the Commission.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 54328]

PART 16—LIQUIDATION OF DUTIES

DESIGNATION OF PHILIPPINE ISLANDS AS A QUARTERLY RATE COUNTRY

Pursuant to section 522 (c) (1) (B) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended by the Customs Simplification Act of 1956 (31 U. S. C. 372 (c) (1) (B)), the Philippine Islands is hereby designated as a country whose currency shall be subject to conversion for customs purposes in accordance with the applicable law and regulations at the rate first certified by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York for a day within the quarter beginning April 1, 1957, and each quarter thereafter.

The list of countries set forth at the end of paragraph (d) of § 16.4 of the Customs Regulations (19 CFR 16.4 (d)) is amended to include the "Philippine Islands" effective commencing with April 1, 1957.

Notice of the proposed issuance of the foregoing instructions was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 28, 1957 (22 F. R. 1219), pursuant to section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). These instructions shall be effective on the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the delayed effective date requirements of section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act being dispensed with because the instructions relate to action to be taken by customs officers and, although affecting rights of interested persons, do not require any action to be taken by such persons.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Customs

[19 CFR Part 14]

APPRAISEMENT; COAL-TAR PRODUCTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to authority contained in sections 161 and 251 of the Revised Statutes and section 624 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (5 USC 22, 19 U. S. C. 66, 1624), it is proposed to amend § 14.5, Customs Regulations (19 CFR 14.5), relating to appraisement of coal-tar products dutiable under paragraph 27 or 28, Tariff Act of 1930, based on the American selling price of any similar competitive article producer in the United States.

Section 14.5 (n) authorizes the Chief Chemist, Customs Laboratory, New York, New York, to receive from domestic manufacturers samples and specifications of coal-tar products they produce and offer, specifically described as a coal-tar color, dye, stain, color acid, color base, color lake, leuco-compound, or indoxyl or indoxyl compound and, in accordance with § 14.5 (o), compare them with samples of foreign coal-tar products to ascertain for duty purposes whether there is a similar competitive product produced in the United States.

Since under present procedure no list of the domestic products received is issued for distribution to the public, the importer of a coal-tar product normally is without information upon which to form an independent determination of the prospective competitive tariff status of the importation.

It has been decided tentatively to have the U. S. appraiser of merchandise at New York issue, as in the case of the list he issues monthly under § 14.5 (d) of the Customs Regulations naming and giving the competitive or noncompetitive status of imported coal-tar products, a list of the names only of those domestic coal-tar products for which samples and specifications were received, and of those removed from the file, during the preceding month. Such list would be available to the public.

It is intended that other information in respect of the specifications shall continue to be treated as confidential. Furthermore, the names of products already on file would not be made public. Also, provision would be made for a period of 60 days from the date of publication of the change in final form in the FEDERAL REGISTER during which domestic producers could withdraw products from the file under the assurance that the identity of those withdrawn would not be made public.

It is proposed to amend the Customs Regulations as tentatively set forth below:

1. Section 14.5 (n) is amended by inserting new material between the fifth and sixth sentences, as follows: "The Chief Chemist shall advise the appraiser at New York of those products removed from or added to the file. The appraiser shall from time to time issue a list of such products, setting forth the invoices names and, if different, the trade names as they appear under items Nos. 1 and 2 of Schedule A. These lists, which are advisory only, shall be furnished to the Customs Information Exchange for circularization among other appraising officers and the public upon request."

2. The sixth sentence of paragraph (n) is amended by adding the word "Other" before the word "information."

(Sec. 1 (Pars. 27, 28), 46 Stat. 592, 594, as amended; 19 U. S. C. 1001 (Pars. 27, 28))

This notice is published pursuant to section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). Prior to the issuance of the proposed amendment, consideration will be given to relevant views, suggestions, or objections which are submitted in writing to the Commissioner of Customs, Bureau of Customs, Washington 25, D. C., and received not later than 45 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. No hearing will be held.

[SEAL] D. B. STRUBINGER,
Acting Commissioner of Customs.

Approved: March 22, 1957.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

[7 CFR Part 908]

[Docket No. AO-243-A4]

MILK IN CENTRAL ARKANSAS MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Little Rock, Arkansas, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued October 22, 1956 (21 F. R. 8193).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on March 14, 1957, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. Said decision containing notice of opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 19, 1957 (22 F. R. 1750).

Within the period reserved therefor, interested parties filed exceptions to certain findings, conclusions, and regulatory provisions of this decision. Each of such exceptions was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that findings, conclusions and actions decided upon herein are at variance with any of the exceptions, such exceptions are overruled.

To the extent that suggested findings and conclusions proposed by interested persons are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the specific or implied requests to make such findings and reach such conclusions are denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions herein set forth.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, were formulated was conducted at Little Rock, Arkansas, on November 19–21, 1956, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued on October 22, 1956 (21 F. R. 8193).

The material issues of the hearing related to:

1. Area changes:
(a) Extension—Items 1 and 8.
(b) Contraction—Item 17.
2. The producer definition in regard to diverted milk—Item 9.
3. Definition of distributing plant:
(a) To exempt plants with 2,000 gallons or less per day—Item 21.
(b) To exclude all approved plants located in the area—Items 6 and 10.
4. Classification definition: To include in Class II (a) fat "disposal for livestock feed" and (b) "casualty" losses—Items 2 and 3.
5. Allocation of "other source" milk—Item 4.
6. The Class I price—Items 7 and 11.
7. The Class II price—Item 12.
8. Compensatory payments—Items 5, 18, 19 and 20.
9. Plants under other orders—Items 6 and 13.
10. Adjustment for errors—Item 14.
11. Base rules—Items 15 and 16.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on the evidence introduced at the hearing, and the record thereof:

1. The city of Gurdon and the town of Okolona, Arkansas, in Clark county should be removed from the Central Arkansas marketing area and the following counties should be added to the area: Conway, Grant, Hot Spring, Lonoke, Monroe, Pope, and Saline. The elimination of the city of Gurdon and the town of Okolona, in Clark county, was proposed by a partially regulated handler whose plant is located in Texarkana, Texas. The sales of milk from this plant, with the sales of one or two other partially regulated handlers in these communities on the western edge of Clark county which marks the southwestern border of the marketing area, constitute about 85 percent of total sales in these communities, if school milk is excluded. Two pool plant handlers compete in these localities, but the volume of their sales is small and a minor part of the trade. These facts and circumstances justify the removal of the city of Gurdon and the town of Okolona, both in Clark county, Arkansas, from the marketing area.

Producers and a group of handlers proposed addition to the marketing area of the following counties in Central Arkansas: Conway, Grant, Hot Spring, Lonoke, Monroe, Pope, and Saline. Handlers alone proposed the addition of three other counties, Cross, Poinsett, and St. Francis, in eastern Arkansas.

The evidence does not justify the incorporation of the three eastern counties in the marketing area. In these counties one Central Arkansas handler competes with one or two Memphis handlers, who distribute no milk in the present Central Arkansas area. Another handler, who was under the Central Arkansas order at the time of the hearing, but who according to subsequent official releases of the market administrator, has come under the Memphis order, is also a competing distributor in these three counties. Official notice is hereby taken of announcements issued by the market administrator, Federal Order No. 8, for the months November, December 1956; and January, February 1957, listing the names of regulated and partially regulated handlers. He is a large scale distributor in the Central Arkansas area as well as in the Memphis area. A reason for handlers' proposal to consolidate and extend the Central Arkansas marketing area was to bring this handler fully under this order, or at least, to make him subject to the compensatory payment provision of this order on all the milk distributed by him in Central Arkansas trade territory, where he competes with Central Arkansas handlers.

But such grounds do not support the addition of these particular counties to the marketing area. These counties are well to the east of the main trade territory of Central Arkansas handlers. They are also served by Memphis handlers who sell no milk in the present Central Arkansas area. The one Memphis handler who distributes milk in the Central Arkansas area also distributes in these three counties; but his distribution in these counties is through his Memphis area vendor. Memphis handlers would appear to have no price advantage over Central Arkansas handlers that would justify the addition of these three eastern counties to the Central Arkansas area. None was alleged by proponents.

The same may be said with reference to the unpriced or unregulated distribution in these three eastern Arkansas counties. Only one unregulated distributor operates in these counties. His business varies from an estimated two percent of all Class I distribution in St. Francis, to 50 percent in Poinsett. Altogether sales by this distributor in these counties are probably not more than eight or nine percent of his total Class I trade. The bulk of his distribution is in unregulated trade territory. Nevertheless, his stake in the trade of these counties—measured by the proportion of sales in these counties to total sales—appears to be about equal to that of Central Arkansas handlers.

The evidence supports the addition to the area of the seven counties named above, proposed by handlers and producers. These counties lie well within the Central Arkansas Grade A milk trade area. Health and sanitary regulations are identical to those of the present marketing area.

Such enlargement of the area would incorporate in the area additional trade territory now served by two or more major Central Arkansas handlers, and by the partially regulated handler, who was recently under this order but who in December 1956, reverted to his original status under the Memphis order. Two major Central Arkansas handlers distribute milk in each of these counties. The sales by one amount to approximately 15 percent of his total Class I sales, by the other to about 21 percent. Sales by another handler in four of these counties amount to about 12 percent of his total sales. Still another handler distributes seven percent of his Class I sales in two of these counties. Since volume data on sales by counties are not available, how much would be added to area sales by the incorporation of these counties in the area cannot be definitely calculated. But the data of percentage of sales by handlers show that these counties are an important part of the sales area for producer milk; that they are an integral part of the trade territory of major Central Arkansas handlers, and of the large scale distributor in Central Arkansas who presently operates under the Memphis order. In Grant, Hot Spring, Lonoke, and Monroe counties there are no unregulated distributors. There is one unregulated distributor in each of the counties of Conway, Pope, and Saline. In Saline county it is estimated that sales by this distributor are about 10 percent of total sales, in Pope county about 50 percent, and in Conway county about 55 percent. In each case the unregulated distributor has a substantial proportion of his Class I trade in the county—estimated at about a third in one case and 90 percent in the other cases.

One reason, advanced by producers and handlers, for adding these particular counties to the maketing area, is to bring these local distributors under uniform price regulation. These local distributors compete with handlers for milk supply. While they pay producer prices that conform closely to pool plant prices or to prices returned to member producers by the cooperative association, they obviously do not account and pay for their supplies on a class price basis. Their cost of Class I milk may be somewhat less than that of handlers who compete with them. It also appears, in these cases, that the cost of supplies is lessened by the practice of balancing very closely receipts from dairy farmers with sales, and procuring supplementary supply from regulated plants, or directly from the producers' cooperative association. Such practices and circumstances give ground for including them under the uniform price provisions of the order. One of these local distributors went on record in favor of so doing. Another demurred, but not on grounds of possible effects upon his buying prices and competitive position. He was reluctant to become a handler because of the administrative assessment and the necessary record keeping and reporting. Under the circumstances, such objection could hardly be determining.

An additional reason for incorporating in the marketing area more of the trade territory served by the principal Central Arkansas handlers lies in the application of another order provision, § 908.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders. It applies to plants with sales in more than one Federal marketing area. If a distributing plant in this area also sells in another area, under an order with a similar provision, the handler is subject to the order for the area where, during a specified period, his sales are greater. In this determination only the sales actually in the respective areas are considered. Also, the compensatory payment specified in this section of Order No. 8, which is applicable to a distributor in this area who is a handler under Order No. 18, applies only to his sales that are actually in the defined marketing area.

Major Central Arkansas distributors operate extensively outside the present marketing area. Two or three distribute milk from Central Arkansas plants in marketing areas under other orders. One of these, as noted above, was under Order No. 18 when Order No. 8 was issued. In June 1956, this distributor came under Order No. 8. But since January 1, 1957, he has been under Order No. 18. Another Central Arkansas distributor, presently a handler under this order, at times is successful bidder on large military camp contracts in another marketing area for a volume of milk that might exceed his sales in the present area. This handler distributes substantial quantities of milk in several of these counties that are proposed for the area. He supports such extension of the marketing area, in part, for the reason that it would make more secure his existing status under this order.

It therefore appears that the purposes of this order would be served by the inclusion of the seven counties named above in the marketing area. All or a large proportion of the distribution in these counties is by handlers under this order and a handler presently under the Memphis order. While two or three local distributors would become subject to the Central Arkansas order, it does not appear that minimum order prices would be unreasonable for them or that the level of their producer prices would be changed much, if any. Among the regulated distributors in the Central Arkansas trade, it would tend to make minimum buying prices more uniform and thus to enhance the stability of producer prices. The Central Arkansas distributor, who is presently a handler under the Memphis order, has a lower Class I price than he would have if he were operating under the Central Arkansas order. But, for the receipts of local milk that he distributes in the Central Arkansas marketing area he makes a "compensatory payment" to Central Arkansas producers, which is designed to equalize his plant price with that of Central Arkansas handlers. Enlarging this area to include more of his trade territory would not only increase the ratio of his sales in this area to those in the Memphis area—which determines his handler status—but also increase his compensatory payments to Central Arkansas producers when he is a Memphis handler. Likewise such enlargement would tend to reduce the uncertainty of continuing applicability of the minimum price terms of this order to Arkansas handlers who also distribute milk in the areas of other Federal orders.

2. The producer definition should not be amended. The Central Arkansas Milk Producers' Association proposed that the definition of "producer" be amended to permit a cooperative association to divert milk to a nonpool plant in all months of the year. The present definition allows pool plant handlers (including producers' cooperative associations) to divert milk at any time during the months February through August, and on not more than ten days during any other month. The effect of the proposal would be to allow a cooperative association to divert milk at any time during the year, while retaining the ten-day limitation on diverted milk for proprietary handlers during the months September through January.

In support of the proposal, the producers' association contended that the present provision has imposed hardship on several of its members. Three producers who were shipping milk on a route which was converted to bulk tank had not done so when the route was so converted. Consequently, their milk in cans had to be hauled over 100 miles, apparently to another pool plant in order for them to maintain producer status. The association maintained that if it had been permitted to divert milk to a nonpool plant for more than ten days during the period September through January this situation could have been averted.

Under the proposal, the association would not divert the milk of non-members in a similar situation. The stated purpose of the proposal is to protect the producer status of cooperative association members.

The manager of the producers' association testified that proprietary handlers should not be extended year-round diverting privileges because handlers' plants might be loaded unnecessarily with Class II milk, thereby reducing uniform prices to producers.

The present provisions concerning diverted milk were originally included in the order because some milk not needed for Class I use in the area had been diverted from producer farms directly to manufacturing plants. The privilege of diverting such milk to nonpool plants obviates the handling of milk at bottling plants which are not equipped to manufacture reserve supplies. The diverting privilege was limited during the months of low production because reserve supplies during those months normally prevail only on weekends or holidays. Cooperative associations were afforded the same diverting privilege as handlers to enable them to market their members' milk more efficiently, and to keep such milk pooled.

The evidence in the record in support of the proposal was confined to an unusual incident involving a minute segment of the market for a short period of time. It would be very difficult from an administrative standpoint to guard against all situations which may be temporarily disruptive, and at the same time to provide larger safeguards necessary to insure that milk in the Central Arkansas market shall be marketed as efficiently as possible. There is no evidence that the Central Arkansas market treated as a whole, needs any provision for diverting milk on a year-round basis, except as it is already contained in the order. The proposal should not be adopted.

3. The definition of "distributing plant" should not be amended. (a) A handler proposed that a volume limitation be be provided in the distributing plant definition which would exempt from regulation any plant distributing less than 2,000 gallons of milk a day in the marketing area.

The proponent testified that he produces half his volume and purchases the remainder from the Central Arkansas Milk Producers' Association. The handler's primary objection was in having to pay into the producer-settlement fund on his high Class I utilization. His operation includes no Class II utilization. His present distribution amounts to approximately 450 gallons per day, 150 gallons of which are distributed in the marketing area. The proponent stated that construction has just been completed on a plant which will enable him to triple his capacity.

The proposal to include the exemption was supported primarily on the basis that the handler's Class I distribution in the marketing area is much less on a total volume basis than that of "larger" handlers. There is no evidence in the record indicating any economic justification for exempting a handler from regulation simply because the quantity of milk he distributes is less than that of other handlers.

Evidence in the record indicates that the proponent's distribution in the marketing area exceeds 30 percent of his total Class I distribution. Elsewhere herein, it is recommended that the marketing area be extended. If this occurs, it is probable that the proponent's percentage of total distribution would be even more than the present 30 percent. There would be little justification in exempting one handler whose distribution in the marketing area exceeds 30 percent of his total Class I distribution while regulating other handlers whose Class I distribution in the marketing area is 10 percent or more of total Class I sales.

It is concluded that the proposed volume exemption should not be adopted.

(b) Producers and handlers proposed that a distributing plant be regulated by Order No. 8 (Central Arkansas) if it is located within the marketing area. This proposal was submitted in conjunction with another proposal which is discussed later in connection with Issue No. 9.

Proponents supported the proposal on the basis that any plant located in the marketing area is, of necessity, associated with the market. Such plant procures its milk from the same area as do other plants located in the area. In addition, a substantial portion of such plant's Class I sales are logically made within the area.

Specifically, the proposal is intended to regulate by Order No. 8 a plant located at Conway, Arkansas. This plant has had a recent history of having been regulated by Order No. 8 and by Order No. 18 (Memphis). Proponents contend that the regulation of the plant by one order and then by another disrupts marketing conditions for the Central Arkansas area.

The plant referred to has, for the most part been regulated by Order No. 18 on the basis of a larger volume of Class I sales distributed in that marketing area than in the Central Arkansas area. Official notice is taken of the final decision of the Assistant Secretary which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 30, 1956 (21 F. R. 9383) in which it was concluded that in determining the applicability of Order No. 8 to a handler who qualifies under more than one Federal order, such determination should not be made on any basis other than that of identifying the market in which the largest volume of his Class I sales is distributed. No new evidence was introduced which would justify a different conclusion at this time.

The object of Federal milk regulation is to assure that all milk handled within a specified marketing area shall be paid for on the basis of its utilization, and at prices established by the order. The area from which handlers procure milk is not the criterion for regulation.

Proponents emphasized that by reason of a location differential applicable at Conway, Arkansas, when the plant there is regulated by Order No. 18 (Memphis) the operator of that plant enjoys a competitive advantage over handlers regulated by Order No. 8 on Class I sales made outside the marketing area.

But this merely means that competing handlers under different orders may have different minimum buying prices. This would appear to be inevitable, at some plant locations, even though prices at the respective areas are the same, as is the case in this instance. If the areas are correctly defined and location differentials are reasonable, the basis for such differences in plant prices are presumed to be economic. Proponents of this proposal also approached their problem through an area enlargement proposal, which is herein considered as Issue No. 1.

It is concluded that the proposal should not be adopted.

4. The classification provisions of the order should not be changed. Handlers proposed that (a) in disposing of milk for livestock feed, the butterfat and skim portions should be classified as Class II. At the present time, only the skim portion is so classified, (b) transportation and processing losses should be classified as Class II milk.

In support of proposal (a), handlers testified that 99 percent of all milk disposed of for livestock feed originates as returns of buttermilk, flavored milk and homogenized milk. Livestock feed disposition amounts to about one percent of total Class I and Class II disposition for the market. Since the volume of recoverable fat from buttermilk is negligible, returns of homogenized and flavored milk account for the bulk of the butterfat in livestock feed. Butterfat from Grade A Cream-line milk, cream and half-and-half is generally recovered from returned items.

One handler stated that during the past 10 months an average of 1,174 pounds of butterfat monthly was disposed of as livestock feed, with the major quantities disposed of in the months of March, May, June and July 1956. Another handler testified that his firm disposed of an average of 964 pounds of butterfat per month in this manner.

The quantity of butterfat involved, if the proposal were adopted, represents a very small portion of the total Class I and Class II disposition of handlers. It was conceded that any decrease in handlers' cost would be slight. In view of this it is doubtful whether the advantages of adopting the proposed amendment outweigh the advantages of retaining the present language of the order.

The present method of classifying the butterfat and skim components of milk utilized as livestock feed contains incentive for handlers to recover as much as possible of the butterfat in milk disposed of in this manner. Handlers' testimony indicates that this is being done. The present provision influences handlers to adjust their bottling operations as closely as possible to their Class I route sales in order to guard against increasing volumes of route returns. If the proposal were adopted, there would be less incentive to tailor bottling operations with route requirements, since all returns could be disposed of for livestock feed and classified as Class II. There is little economic justification in allowing unlimited disposition of producer milk in this manner. In fact, some safeguard is necessary to discourage it. Present order language contains such safeguard. The order contains a two percent allowance for shrinkage. In cases where plant shrinkage is less than two percent, the butterfat contained in livestock feed is not included in the shrinkage allowable in Class II. Shrinkage, as a percentage of total receipts has declined steadily since the inception of the order, indicating increased efficiency in handlers operations. It is not inconceivable that the gradual reduction in the volume of plant shrinkage for the market, is due to the order provisions safeguarding the classification of producer milk.

It is concluded that the proposal should not be adopted.

In support of (b), handlers stated that processing losses have occurred when milk to be used for buttermilk failed to coagulate because of antibiotics present. It was testified that this situation was avoided after it occurred by testing samples of individual producers' milk before commingling and making buttermilk. The proposal is intended to classify processing losses of this type in Class II whenever they occur. However, there is no justification for assigning producer milk to a lower class whenever handlers fail in processing techniques to prevent losses such as those described.

The record contains no guides as to what might or might not be considered a processing loss. It would, without such guides, encompass all losses, including those due to negligence, accident or mischievous damage. Nor would it be feasible to require the market administrator to decide what constitutes a processing loss, since he undoubtedly would not be present when it occurred.

Handlers also proposed that transportation casualty losses should be priced in the lowest class whenever they occur, subject to prompt notification of the market administrator to allow verification. Some handlers operations are covered by cargo insurance, and some are self-insured. The proposal was mainly supported by a handler who does not carry cargo insurance, stating that the cost is prohibitive.

While it is reasonable for handlers to protect themselves from all manner of business hazards, it is not necessary, as the experienced management of many handlers demonstrates, to provide such protection in the classification provisions of the order. The responsibility for protection against fire, explosion, theft, etc., which may destroy or damage a handler's property may reasonably be expected to be borne by the handler. Likewise, transportation losses, when the property is the handler's, should be considered part of the risk of doing business, and protected accordingly. Producers should not be expected to take a lower classification on any milk involved in such losses.

It is concluded that the proposal should not be adopted.

5. The allocation provisions of the order should not be changed. Handlers proposed that producer milk should not receive preferential classification as Class I over other source receipts, unless producer receipts at pool plants are at least 115 percent of the Class I sales of pool plants. During the course of the hearing, handlers revised the factor to 110 percent.

In support of the proposal, handlers testified that the present allocation provisions are not encouraging producers to meet their supply obligations.

One handler testified that during the month of August 1956, when there was sufficient producer milk on the market to supply Class I sales inside the marketing area, other source receipts were used. Some handlers received other source milk instead of producer milk. At the same time, producer milk was delivered to handlers with Class II utilization. The allocation system washed out all but about 9 percent of the utilization of producer milk in Class II. The handler's chief objection to this situation was that his firm had to pay a compensatory payment on the other source milk which was supplied by the producers' association.

It is noted that the action recommended under Issue 8 (a) should provide appropriate relief for the situation complained of under this issue. Consequently, it is not necessary to amend the allocation provisions of the order.

6. The Class I milk price should not be changed. Producers proposed that the Class I milk price for Central Arkansas be based on the Class I milk price for Memphis, Tennessee (Order No. 18) plus 35 cents, in all months of the year. It was also proposed that in no case shall the Central Arkansas Class I price be less than the Class I milk price for the Ft. Smith market.

A series of producer witnesses testified that the proposed price increase is necessary to counteract declining income from milk production. However, it should be noted that Class I, Class II and uniform prices for Central Arkansas increased during the year 1956. Declining income from dairying, particularly in areas close to the city of Little Rock, Arkansas, appears to be due primarily to increased costs resulting from extremely dry pasture conditions and competition with industrial expansion for available labor. Producer witnesses whose farms are located close to the metropolitan area are operating relatively small herds, and expressed reluctance to use capital reserves to enlarge them in order to take advantage of economies of scale and efficiencies from labor saving equipment.

An official of the Central Arkansas Milk Producers' Association testified that the Class I price for Order No. 8 should be 70 cents over the Class I price of Order No. 18 to attract an adequate supply of milk for Central Arkansas. It was conceded, however, that intermarket relationships should be considered in establishing an appropriate Class I differential for Central Arkansas. Consequently, the association proposed a Class I differential of 35 cents over the Memphis Class I price. This amount represents the cost of transporting milk in packages from a plant in Conway, Arkansas to Memphis, Tennessee. The association contends that the proposed Class I price is not enough to attract an adequate supply of Class I milk for Central Arkansas, but represents a minimum necessary to preserve an alignment of prices (presumably with Memphis), keep present producers supplying the market, and attract new ones.

The producers' association also contends that for the months of March and July, the Central Arkansas Class I differential is out of line with that contained in the Ft. Smith order, which is about 50 cents over Central Arkansas during those two months. Producers maintain that this has a disturbing effect on dairy farmers who live in the same locality and ship milk to the two markets. There could be transfers of producers to the Central Arkansas market during March and July because these months are part of the flush period for the Ft. Smith market. No transfers are made, however, because of the price difference. By raising Central Arkansas price to a level comparable with Ft. Smith, the association (having members shipping to plants regulated under both orders) could divert milk from Ft. Smith to Central Arkansas, or transfer producers permanently to Central Arkansas. So long as the Ft. Smith price is higher than Central Arkansas, the association maintains that it cannot induce its members to transfer. It was estimated that by diverting milk, and by negotiating premiums with handlers, Central Arkansas producer prices have been increased in 1956 by about 49 cents per hundredweight. This has not been enough to achieve the supply needed.

Handlers testified that because of the inter-relationship of the two markets, the Class I prices under the Memphis and Central Arkansas orders should be identical. If the Central Arkansas price is higher than the Memphis price, a plant located at Conway, Arkansas, when regulated by the Memphis order, and obtaining a location differential, could increase its competitive advantage with Central Arkansas regulated handlers, particularly outside the present marketing area. Handlers were primarily concerned with the price alignment with Memphis. Handlers would support a temporary price increase for Central Arkansas, but in the long run the competitive position with Memphis, must be considered.

The Borden Company representative testified that the level of the Class I price is not the complete answer to the shortage of milk in Central Arkansas. The fact is that large volumes of milk have been used to supply Class I sales in the Memphis and Ft. Smith areas. To continue in this manner could increase the Central Arkansas Class I price to an extremely high level, and still not result in adequate supplies for Central Arkansas handlers. The association's proposed Class I price would jeopardize large quantities of Class I sales in eastern Arkansas, and in the Memphis marketing area which are of great value to producers. The Central Arkansas handlers would be at a great disadvantage in competing with the Memphis handler located at Conway, Arkansas, who could procure milk for 63 cents per hundredweight less than Central Arkansas handlers (35 cents increase and 28 cents location differential). It was pointed out that prior to the order, Central Arkansas prices averaged five cents per hundredweight over Memphis. For 10 month of 1956 it averaged seven cents over.

Evidence introduced into the record concerning marketing statistics was necessarily restricted to the period December 1955 through September 1956. This is due to the fact that the order became effective in December 1955. Consequently, there are insufficient data available for comparison to determine what impact the present price level has had on production. Official notice is hereby taken of the market administrator's statistical summaries for October, November and December 1956. These summaries, along with data in the record provide marketing statistics for a full year, plus a comparison of December 1955 with December 1956. In addition, official notice is taken of the market administrator's announcement of the Class I price for January and February 1957, as well as the Class II price for January 1957.

Since the inception of the order, the Class I price for Central Arkansas has been the same as that for Memphis, Tennessee. This price includes whatever supply-demand adjustment is applicable for the Memphis market. As a result of a recent amendment to the Memphis supply-demand adjuster, the Class I price for Central Arkansas increased significantly for the months September, October and November 1956. For December 1956, the Class I price was 25 cents per hundredweight more than in December 1955. For January and February 1957 compared with 1956, the Class I price was 12 and 14 cents more, respectively.

Daily average producer receipts have increased steadily during 1956. In December 1956 daily average producer receipts were 61,000 pounds more than in December 1955. Total numbers of producers, both "part time" and "regular" have increased since December 1955. Present price levels have encouraged increased production per producer, from 412 pounds in December 1955 to 454 pounds in December 1956.

On the other hand, the utilization of producer milk in Class I has declined slightly from 94.9 percent in December 1955 to 92.0 percent in December 1956.

It is recognized that marketing experience under Federal regulation for the Central Arkansas market has been limited insofar as it is possible to analyze the effect of the present Class I price level on production. It is concluded that the present Class I price level insofar as it can be determined, has encouraged the development of needed supplies of producer milk. The Class I price level should not be changed at this time.

In this connection it should be noted that the handler proposal to establish an appropriate supply-demand adjuster for the Central Arkansas market was not supported at the hearing. The Central Arkansas market has had a history during the past year of having one large handler regulated either by the Central Arkansas order, or by the Memphis order. More experience is needed in order to construct an appropriate supply-demand adjuster for Central Arkansas. When adequate data are available an appropriate supply-demand adjuster my be considered and the level of the Class I price reviewed.

7. The seasonal pricing provisions for Class II milk should be amended. The Class II milk price is based on the average paying prices of three Arkansas manufacturing plants during the six months period of February through July. During the remaining six months the price is determined to be the basic formula price for the month, or the average pay price of the three Arkansas plants plus 25 cents, whichever is less. This pricing mechanism results in a lower Class II price during February through July than is applicable during the remaining six months.

Producers proposed that the lower Class II price apply during the months April through June. The effect of the proposal would result in a higher price for Class II milk during the months February, March and July than now prevails during those months.

During February and March, 1956 only small quantities of producer milk were utilized in Class II. The volumes so utilized were manufactured into high value products such as ice cream and cottage cheese. Relatively little milk was manufactured into butter and cheese.

The utilization of producer milk in Class II during 1956 was highest during the months April through July. For the months February and March, the utilization of producer milk in Class II was 4.81 percent and 3.05 percent, respectively. For the months April through July, such utilization ranged from a low of 10 percent to a high of 15 percent.

The experience of the market in 1956 indicates that a limited revision of the seasonal pricing of Class II milk is justified.

While statistics are available for only one year, it is questionable whether the month of July should be designated as a seasonally higher Class II pricing month. In July 1956, for instance, over two million pounds of producer milk were utilized in Class II. This was the largest volume so utilized in any month for the year.

On the other hand, the months of February and March may reasonably be included among the seasonally higher Class II pricing months, since the utilization of Class II in these short production months is relatively low. At the same time, such utilization is primarily for the manufacture of higher valued products.

For 1956, the Central Arkansas Class II price on a yearly average basis compared favorably with those for surrounding Federal order markets. It was higher than three of them, ranging from 8 to 13 cents. At the same time, it was 10 cents lower than two others.

Handlers opposed the proposed amendment on grounds of competition with unregulated plants selling ice cream mix into the Central Arkansas marketing area. One handler opposed the amendment because he expects to expand his Class II ice cream and cottage cheese manufacturing operations on the basis of the present price level. There was no testimony to indicate that handlers have had any difficulty in disposing of reserve milk at any time during 1956.

It is concluded that the months of February and March should be designated higher seasonal Class II pricing months. Such action is consistent with the seasonal pattern of Class II utilization of producer milk in the market. The provisions concerning the Class II butterfat differential should be amended to conform with this conclusion.

8. The compensatory payments provisions of the order should be amended. Handlers proposed that (a) the compensatory payments provisions of the order shall not apply whenever producer receipts at pool plants are less than 115 percent of total Class I sales from pool plants. (During the hearing handlers reduced the factor to 110 percent), (b) the months during which the rate of compensatory payments on other source milk is based on the difference between the prices for Class I and Class II milk be changed, (c) the rate of compensatory payments applicable to nonpool handlers distributing fluid milk products on routes in the marketing area be based on the difference between the Federal order uniform price for the month and the average producer pay price of the nonpool plant, and (d) the rate of compensatory payments in all months of the year be based on the difference between the Class I price and the uniform price.

In support of (a), handlers testified that the allocation provisions of the order do not encourage producers to supply Central Arkansas handlers. Handlers contend that producers have an implied obligation to supply the market with its minimum requirements for milk before handlers are required to pay compensatory payments on other source milk utilized to furnish the Class I requirements of the market.

Handlers testified that during short-production months they have paid premiums for producer milk. At the same time, compensatory payments were charged on other source milk which was needed to supply the Class I needs of the market. The Central Arkansas Milk Producers' Association operates under a "full supply" verbal agreement with handlers. Consequently, the association has imported volumes of other source milk for Central Arkansas handlers when producers were unable to supply sufficient volumes of milk for the Class I needs of the market. When such other source milk originates in areas not Federally regulated, a compensatory payment is charged in computing the handlers' obligation to the Central Arkansas pool.

Producers presented no opposition testimony or recommendation.

During 1956, there were four months during which producer receipts were more than 110 percent of Class I sales. During six of the remaining eight months, producer receipts were less than the Class I requirements of the market. The association has supplied handlers with other source milk whenever producer milk was not available in sufficient volumes to furnish the market with its requirements for Class I milk. Most of these imports of other source milk were from areas regulated by other Federal orders. Consequently, no compensatory payments were charged. Whenever other source milk was obtained from unregulated sources, such payments were charged.

The purpose of the compensatory payments feature of the order is to assure that milk for fluid use, from areas not regulated by a Federal order, shall be procured at not less than the minimum prices established for Central Arkansas; so that handlers who use such unpriced milk will not thereby have cheaper milk than handlers who use only producer milk, and no handler will have any incentive to substitute it for producer milk that is available to him.

Conditions in the Central Arkansas market are such that the association, representing a major portion of the producers supplying milk to regulated handlers, has the obligation under an agreement with handlers to procure for them other source milk when needed. Available marketing statistics indicate that the volume of producer milk available to regulated handlers was less than the requirements for Class I use during a substantial part of 1956. There is indication that the availability of producer milk is improving; but under prevailing supply arrangements there appears to be no need for compensatory payments by handlers on other source milk except when the market supply of producer milk is sufficient for Class I needs plus a minimum reserve. It is concluded that this proposal should be adopted.

In support of (b) and (c) one handler proposed different rates of compensatory payments on other source milk obtained by regulated handlers, and on fluid milk distributed in the marketing area by a nonpool plant. At the present time, the rates are the same.

In connection with (b) the witness testified that the need for the proposal is comparable to that discussed under (a) above. However, there was no specific testimony as to why the rate for pool plants should be any different from that for plants not regulated by a Federal order, and distributing milk in the marketing area.

It is concluded that these proposals should not be adopted. The aspect of these proposals concerning whether the rate of compensatory payments applicable to both types of handlers should be changed is discussed later in section (d).

In support of (d) a number of handlers testified that the present rate is too high during the months February through July. During this period, the rate is the difference between the prices for Class I and Class II milk. In support of their position, proponents contended (1) The distributing plant definition is such that their distribution of Class I milk in the marketing area reflects insignificant competition with regulated handlers; (2) prices paid to producers by unregulated handlers, who have had to pay compensatory payments, have been higher than the Central Arkansas uniform prices during the February through July period.

Milk from unregulated plants is sold as Class I in the Central Arkansas marketing area. It is distributed to consumers on routes operated by fringe area plants. Also, pool plants purchase milk from unregulated plants in bulk to supply their own Class I outlets.

The order contains classified pricing provisions whereby producers who are primarily engaged in furnishing milk for sale in the marketing area are paid for such milk according to its utilization. The pricing provisions of the order cannot be maintained unless the Class I market is safeguarded from the the competition of excess milk from surrounding unregulated areas, and from such areas located considerable distance from Central Arkansas.

Since there is no direct control over the pricing of milk from unregulated plants, the order provides a method of bringing such milk under the classified pricing system without fully regulating the plant from which such milk originated. The compensatory payments provision of the order accomplishes this.

Proponents testified that producer pay prices in the fringe areas are equivalent to or higher than the Central Arkansas uniform prices. However, in the absence of regulation, it is impossible to determine the comparability of the prices quoted with those established by Order No. 8. Producers shipping milk to unregulated plants are normally paid blend prices which may be influenced by different classification schemes, and by vafying charges for services or supplies.

The record shows that milk supplies are invariably larger in Arkansas and in surrounding markets during the months March through July than in the remaining months of the year. The excess or increased production during these months must be marketed largely as manufactured products since Class I sales remain relatively static. The prevailing manufacturing milk prices represent the opportunity cost of such milk during these months. This aspect of the compensatory payments provision of the order was covered in detail in the final decision issued by the Assistant Secretary on October 7, 1955 (20 F. R. 7669).

It is concluded that there is no new evidence to justify changing the rates now provided in the order; but that the month of February should be included with those for which the lower rate applies.

9. Section 908.61 should not be amended. This section provides for determining the applicability of Federal regulation when milk plants qualify under more than one order.

Handlers and producers submitted this proposal as a conforming change in conjunction with their proposal to amend the distributing plant definition (Issue No. 3–b).

Since it was concluded under Issue No. 3 that the definition should not be amended, it is also concluded that this proposal should not be adopted.

10. The provision of the order authorizing plus or minus adjustments for errors made in previous payments made to producers should not be changed. The producers' association proposed that the provision authorizing minus adjustments for errors in previous payments to producers be deleted. The producers' witness testified that the present provision impairs the effectiveness of making audit adjustments for handlers when premiums have been paid. It was contended that the present provision would permit a handler who previously paid a premium to producers to underpay them in a later month. Then, on audit, the apparent overpayment could be applied to a subsequent underpayment. Or, as a result of a so-called overpayment resulting from a premium, a minus adjustment may later be made from checks payable to producers. Proponents contended that adoption of the proposal would prevent these situations from occurring. The purpose it serves is best explained by the use of the word "errors". This could include typographical errors made in preparing checks, arithmetical errors in computing payments, and the use of incorrect pricing data. It is not clear how the payment of a premium could be construed as an error in paying producers, unless pertinent facts are withheld from the market administrator at the time an audit is made. The market administrator should have available to him all the factors handlers use in computing payments to producers. If any confusion or uncertainty exists about an apparent overpayment, it would not be difficult to ascertain the facts.

At the same time, it is recognized that bona-fide errors may be made, requiring minus adjustments in payments to producers. In view of this, there is no justification for limiting the order provision to plus adjustments only.

It is concluded that the provision should not be changed.

11. The base-excess provisions of the order should be amended. Producers proposed that the base transfer provisions be amended (a) to permit partial base transfers, and (b) to provide for the computation of bases for producers when a plant previously regulated by another Federal order becomes regulated by Order No. 8.

In support of (a) the producer representatives testified that: (1) The association now permits its members to transfer partial bases. Presumably this is taken into account when the association rebiends the proceeds from the sale of milk and distributes it to its members. Since the association represents almost all producers on the Central Arkansas market, adoption of the proposal would merely reflect what is now being done in the market; (2) the effect of the proposal would be to increase production for the Central Arkansas market at a time when it is needed, because a new producer could obtain a base by purchase, by borrowing it or by having it given to him; (3) very few producers come on the Central Arkansas market during the heavy production season. The acquisition by them of some base could be no problem as far as the entire market is concerned. However, it is not clear that anything would be gained for the market as a whole by the adoption of this practice even though the association finds it convenient and useful among its members.

If adopted, the proposal would require a great deal more record keeping than is justified by the benefits which may result. It is not feasible to incorporate into the order a plan requiring as much administrative detail as this would.

It is concluded that the proposal should not be adopted.

In support of (b) producers pointed out that handlers in the Central Arkansas area have had large portions of their sales in the Memphis area and in the Ft. Smith area. Consequently, a situation exists wherein milk plants in the Central Arkansas area shift from regulation under one order to regulation under surrounding orders and back again depending on volumes of Class I sales distributed.

Under such conditions, it is reasonable to allow bases under Central Arkansas to be computed for producers shipping to such plants when shifts of this kind occur. The Central Arkansas market administrator could verify producers shipments to such plants during th short production season and compute bases for them under Order No. 8.

It is concluded that the proposal should be adopted.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Determination of representative period. The month of January 1957, is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of the order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Central Arkansas marketing area, in the manner set forth, is approved or favored by producers as defined under the terms of the order, as amended, and hereby proposed to be further amended, and who, during such representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Marketing agreement and order, as amended. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively "Marketing Agreement Regultaing the Handling of Milk in the Central Arkansas Marketing Area," and "Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Central Arkansas Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order, as amended.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of March 1957.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

Order,[1] as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Central Arkansas Marketing Area

§ 908.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon a proposed tentative marketing agreement and order, as amended, and hereby further amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Central Arkansas marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to, persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the order as hereby amended, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expenses, 4 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all butterfat and skim milk contained in (i) producer milk, (ii) other source milk allocated to Class I milk pursuant to § 908.41 (a), or (iii) Class I milk disposed of in the marketing area (except to a pool plant) from a nonpool plant as determined pursuant to § 908.62.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Central Arkansas marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the following terms and conditions:

1. Delete § 908.4 and substitute the following:

§ 908.4 Central Arkansas marketing area. "Central Arkansas marketing area", hereinafter called the "marketing area" means all the territory included within the boundaries of the counties of Clark (except the city of Gurdon and the town of Okolona), Conway, Faulkner, Garland, Grant, Hot Spring, Jefferson, Lonoke, Monroe, Pope, Pulaski, Saline and White, all in the State of Arkansas.

2. In § 908.51 (b) and § 908.52 (b) delete "February" and insert "April".

3. At the end of § 908.70 (b) change the semicolon to a colon, and add the following: "Provided, That such calculation shall not apply if the total receipts of producer milk at all pool plants during the month are not more than 110 percent of the total Class I utilization of such plants for the month."

4. Delete § 908.90 and substitute the following:

§ 908.90 Computation of daily average bases for each producer. Subject to the rules set forth in § 908.91, the daily average base for each producer shall be an amount calculated by dividing the total pounds of milk received from such producer at all pool plants during the period of September through December immediately preceding, by the number of days from the first day of delivery by such producer during such period to the last day of December inclusive or by 90, whichever is more: Provided, That, in the case of producers delivering milk to a plant which first became a pool plant during any of the months of January through July, a daily average base for each such producer shall be calculated pursuant to this section on the basis of his deliveries of milk to such plant during the period September through December immediately preceding: And provided further, That such plant was regulated by another Federal order during that period.

5. Delete § 908.91 (a) and substitute the following:

(a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, the market administrator shall assign a base as calculated pursuant to § 908.90 to each person for whose account producer milk was delivered to pool plants during the months of September through December, or whose deliveries of milk during these months were to a nonpool plant which became a pool plant during the following months of January through July.

6. In § 908.51 (a) delete the phrase "From the effective date hereof through March 1957, the" and insert "The".

7. In § 908.54 (a) delete the month of "February" and insert the month of "March"; and

In § 908.54 (b) delete the month of "January" and insert the month of "February".

[F. R. Doc. 57-2451; Filed, Mar. 28, 1957; 8:53 a. m.]

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

Food and Drug Administration

[21 CFR Part 130]

DRUGS EXEMPTED FROM PRESCRIPTION-DISPENSING REQUIREMENTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is given that the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, in accordance with the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 503 (b) (3), 505 (c), 701 (a); 65 Stat. 649, 52 Stat. 1052, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 353 (b) (3), 355 (c), 371 (a)) and the authority delegated to him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (21 CFR 1956 Supp., 130.101 (b)) hereby offers an opportunity to all interested persons to submit their views in writing to the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER on the proposed amendment set forth below:

It is proposed to amend paragraph (a) of § 130.102 Exemption for certain drugs limited by new-drug applications to prescription sale by adding the following new subparagraph:

(__) Vibesate (a mixture of copolymers of hydroxy-vinyl chloride acetate, sebacic acid, and modified maleic rosin ester) preparations meeting all the following conditions.

(i) The vibesate is prepared and packaged, with or without other drugs, solvents, and propellants, in a form suitable for self-medication by external application to the skin as a spray, and containing no drug limited to prescription sale under the provisions of section 503 (b) (1) of the act.

(ii) The vibesate and all other components of the preparation meet their professed standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity.

(iii) If the preparation is a new drug, an application pursuant to section 505 (b) of the act is effective for it.

(iv) The preparation contains not more than 13 percent by weight of vibesate.

(v) The preparation is labeled with adequate directions for use by external application as a dressing for minor burns, minor cuts, or other minor skin irritations.

(vi) The labeling bears in juxtaposition with the directions for use clear warning statements against:

(a) Use on serious burns and on infected, deep, and puncture wounds unless directed by a physician.

(b) Spraying the preparation near the eyes or other mucous membranes.

(c) Inhaling the preparation.

(d) Use near open flames.

(e) Puncturing the container or throwing the container into fire.

The proposed amendment will remove the drugs mentioned therein from the prescription-dispensing requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 503 (b) (1) (C), 52 Stat. 1052, 65 Stat. 649; 21 U. S. C. 353 (b) (1) (C)). These drugs were previously limited by their new-drug applications to use under professional supervision because the scientific data establishing the toxic potential of the drugs and their intended use showed only that they were safe if used under professional supervision.

Pursuant to the regulations in § 130.101 (b) of this chapter (21 CFR 1956 Supp., 130.101 (b)), petitions have been submitted to remove the prescription restrictions from these drugs. Evidence now available through investigation and marketing experience shows that the drugs can be safely used by the laity in self-medication if they are used in accordance with the proposed labeling. The restriction to prescription sale is no longer necessary for the protection of the public health.

This action in removing the prior restriction limiting these drugs to prescription sale is taken under the authority of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 503 (b) (3), 505 (c), 52 Stat. 1052, 65 Stat. 649; 21 U. S. C. 353 (b) (3), 355 (c)), which provides for and requires the removal of such restrictions if they are not necessary for the protection of the public health.

FLIGHT RECORDERS

NOTICE OF ORAL ARGUMENT

By notice dated November 10, 1955, (Civil Air Regulations Draft Release No. 55-26) published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 16, 1955, (20 F. R. 8500) the Board gave notice that it had under consideration proposed amendments to Parts 4b, 40, 41, and 42 of the Civil Air Regulations with respect to "Flight Recorders." Reference is made to said notice for a full explanation of the purpose and background of the proposed rules. Copies of Draft Release No. 55-26 may be obtained from the Director, Bureau of Safety, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D. C.

The Board having received a request which appears to warrant it, notice is hereby given that oral argument will be heard before the Civil Aeronautics Board on April 17, 1957, at 10:00 a. m. in Room 5042, Department of Commerce Building, Washington, D. C., at which interested persons may be heard with respect to the proposed rules. Those desiring to be heard are requested to inform Mr. Oscar Bakke, Director, Bureau of Safety, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D. C., at least five days in advance of the hearing.

Such oral presentation may be in explanation of, in addition to, or in lieu of written comment submitted pursuant to the previous notice (Draft Release No. 55-26).

[14 CFR Part 296]

[Economic Regs. Draft Release 85]

CLASSIFICATION AND EXEMPTION OF INDIRECT AIR CARRIERS

PROHIBITION OF USE OF SERVICES OF SALES OR CARGO AGENTS AND PRESCRIPTION OF JOINT LOADING PRACTICES

Notice is hereby given that the Civil Aeronautics Board has under consideration a proposed amendment to Part 296 of the Economic Regulations which prohibits air freight forwarders from consigning their shipments to agents of the underlying direct air carrier, defines permissible joint loading practices and limits the previously granted exemptions of all indirect air carriers engaging in such practices to agreements conforming thereto, requires the filing of all joint loading agreements entered into by air freight forwarders and compels that subclass of indirect air carriers to keep records concerning the volume of joint loaded shipments as well as the identity of participating forwarders and the underlying direct air carrier.

The principal features of the proposed regulation are explained in the Explanatory Statement set forth below and the proposed amendment to Part 296 is set forth below.

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule-making through submission of written data, views or arguments pertaining thereto, in quintuplicate, addressed to the Secretary, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D. C. All relevant matter in communications received on or before April 30, 1957, will be considered by the Board before taking final action on the proposed rule.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 1 (2), 407 (d) and 416, 52 Stat. 977, 1004; 49 U. S. C. 401, 491)

Dated: March 26, 1957.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] M. C. MULLIGAN,
Secretary.

Explanatory statement. The presently effective provisions of Part 296 do not purport to regulate the manner in which an air freight forwarder may route consolidated shipments for transportation over the routes of a direct air carrier. Recently, the Board's attention has been drawn to a fairly widespread practice, on the part of air freight forwarders, entailing the routing or handling of such shipments to or through a cargo or sales agent of the underlying direct air carrier. The Board did not contemplate that air freight forwarders would ever have any occasion to utilize the services of such agents. An indirect air carrier is certainly as well qualified to perform for itself all of the services normally rendered to shippers of air freight, on behalf of the underlying direct air carrier, by air cargo or sales agents.

The principal economic function of such agents is to persuade potential shippers to use air transportation and to represent the interests of a particular airline by soliciting customers for its services. However, an indirect air carrier is compelled to utilize the services of a direct air carrier. The specific definitions of the subclassifications of "Air Freight Forwarder" and "Cooperative Shippers Association" contained in § 296.2 (a) and (b) of the Economic Regulations explicitly recognize this circumstance. Furthermore, the basic obligation of an indirect air carrier accepting goods for handling is to promote the interest of the shipper in the expeditious routing and handling of the goods consigned to its care. Thus, it is equally inherent in the nature of the services performed by indirect air carriers that they select the most suitable direct air carrier. Consequently, it appears to be entirely unnecessary in the usual case for an indirect air carrier to route its business through cargo or sales agents of an airline.

Apart from the fact that there does not appear to be any demonstrable need for air freight forwarders to utilize the services of these sales or cargo agents, it appears that this practice tends to impair the maintenance of a sound freight rate structure and affords these indirect air carriers an unwarranted leverage in negotiating contracts for other services performed on their behalf by such agents.

Normally, the dilution of air freight revenues earned by direct air carriers resulting from the payment of commissions to agents is justified by a positive contribution to the development of cargo traffic and the welfare of the particular airline involved made by these agents. The function of a sales or cargo agent acting on behalf of a direct air carrier is to act as the sales and traffic representative of his principal by generating new business and relieving the operating departments of the airline from expenses which would otherwise be directly incurred in soliciting and handling cargo shipments. Where, however, the shipment concerned is consigned by an air freight forwarder, these very services have already been performed in the discharge of the forwarder's own traffic generating functions and common carrier responsibility to the primary shippers.

Viewed in this light, it appears that airlines would be reluctant to authorize such agents to handle shipments generated by air freight forwarders. Nevertheless, the strong competitive pressures inherent in the operation of identical routes by a plurality of direct air carriers often compel the payment of such commissions.

Informal investigations have disclosed the existence of a widespread practice whereby certain direct air carriers are compelled to pay to cargo agents commissions on shipments tendered to them by air freight forwarders as a condition of obtaining the business of the particular freight forwarder. This practice is generally pursued through arrangements where a person closely associated with the air freight forwarder is designated as a sales agent of the direct air carrier. These designations are frequently made by the execution of the direct air carriers standard agency agreement, which provides for payments of a fixed commission to the sales agent based on the traffic obtained by the agent for the direct air carrier. In actual practice, the commissions are frequently computed on the basis of the total volume of shipments directed to the direct air carrier by the forwarder. As a result, the total air freight revenues of direct air carriers are reduced without any corresponding enhancement of such revenues resulting from useful services performed by the cargo or sales agents with respect to this class of traffic.

In addition, this practice is even more objectionable where there are other contractual relations or some privity of interest between the freight forwarder and the cargo or sales agent. In adopting the current revision of Part 296 (ER–209, effective June 12, 1956), the Board specifically found that it would not be in the public interest to permit a forwarder who has accepted a particular shipment for consolidation to subsequently elect to act as the agent of the underlying direct air carrier where consolidation proves impractical. This finding was implemented by the express prohibition contained in § 296.3 (a). To the extent that forwarders can use the privilege of routing business to or through a favored sales or cargo agent, competing with other qualified agents, to obtain direct or indirect benefits, their present freedom to route consolidated shipments to such agents is at variance with the policy underlying this prohibition. In this connection, instances have come to the Board's attention of forwarders handling their shipments through agents who have no other customers or agents who are trucking companies performing pickup and delivery services for the particular forwarder concerned, in order to force the direct carriers to pay commissions to such agents.

Consequently, the proposed rule, as set forth below, conditions the exercise of the exemption privileges granted air freight forwarders by Part 296 upon their adherence to the exclusive practice of routing their freight shipments directly to the airline which is to transport such shipments over the air portion of their total journey and their refraining from using agents of the direct carriers as intermediaries, it being the intent of this prohibition to preclude the payment by direct carriers of any commissions to agents with respect to shipments consigned by forwarders.

American Airlines, Inc., with the concurrence of United Air Lines, Inc., has petitioned the Board for repeal or modification of the joint loading provisions of revised Part 296 insofar as they concern air freight forwarders. This petition vigorously challenges both the wisdom and the legality of the Board's action in exempting such indirect air carriers, pursuant to its authority under sections 1 (2) and 416 (b), from the provisions of sections 403, 404, and 412 of the act. The substance of these objections has previously been twice considered by the Board and found to be lacking in merit. With the single exception of the propriety of granting air freight forwarders such an exemption from the requirements of section 412 of the act with respect to joint loading agreements, the Board hereby reaffirms its prior decisions concerning this matter.

Turning now to the alternative request for specific relief, by way of modification of the present provisions of Part 296, it appears that the petitioners seek a precise definition of permissible joint loading practices and a mandatory requirement for the filing of joint loading agreements and periodic reports. The proposed reports would show, by origin and destination, the amount of freight shipped by each participating indirect air carrier and the identity of the underlying direct air carrier.

There appears to be considerable merit in the suggestion that the nature and scope of permissible joint loading practices be clarified in order to forestall possible misunderstanding and confusion concerning the Board's intent. Accordingly, the attached proposed rule defines the single essential element which the Board believes should be incorporated in all joint loading agreements entered into by air freight forwarders or cooperative shippers associations. Likewise, it also limits the previously granted exemptions of both of these subclasses of indirect air carriers concerning joint loading practices to agreements embodying this essential element. Such exempted joint loading agreements include all agreements between two or more indirect air carriers of the same subclass which provide for the pooling of their traffic for single shipment,[1] in accordance with the filed tariffs of the underlying direct air carrier, in order to obtain the benefit of volume rates.

It also appears that the further suggestion made by the petitioners that all joint loading agreements be publicly filed possesses merit. Such a requirement would aid direct air carriers in soliciting this class of forwarder business and also serve the purpose of notifying other potential participants of the existence of such agreements. Likewise, it appears desirable to repeal the previously granted exemption of air freight forwarders from the requirement of section 412 of the act, that each such agreement be individually reviewed by the Board and either approved or disapproved. Such action is deemed desirable because the Board has not prescribed all permissible terms and conditions of joint loading agreements so that it will be necessary to scrutinize each such agreement in order to determine whether a particular agreement is adverse to the public interest or in violation of the act.

However, the final suggestion of the petitioners that periodic reports be filed by forwarders engaged in joint loading appears to be an unduly burdensome requirement. Petitioners argue that such reports are necessary to apprise the Board of various adverse economic consequences, such as an undue concentration of jointly loaded freight shipments, which they envision. However, the Board has not been persuaded that these alleged evils will materialize or that, in any event, they would constitute any significant threat to either the financial stability or competitive balance of the air transport industry. Furthermore, it is believed that the desired objective can be achieved at substantially less cost and with a reduced administrative burden to both the indirect air carriers and the Board by adopting an appropriate record-keeping requirement. Accordingly, the proposed rule requires each air freight forwarder engaged in joint loading to maintain and preserve, for a period of two years, quarterly records concerning all of its shipments made pursuant to joint loading agreements, the number of such shipments delivered to each direct air carrier and the portion of each such shipment contributed by such participating forwarder.

It is proposed to amend Part 296 of the Economic Regulations (14 CFR Part 296) in the following respects:

1. By adding a new paragraph (c) to § 296.1 to read as follows:

(c) "Joint loading" means an agreement between two or more indirect air carriers, of the same subclassification, which provides for the pooling of consolidated shipments and their delivery to a direct air carrier for transportation as one shipment in accordance with the filed tariff rules of such direct air carrier.

2. By amending the first proviso following paragraph (r) of § 296.11 to read as follows:

Provided, however, That the provisions of sections 403 and 404 shall not be applicable insofar as they would otherwise prohibit any air freight forwarder from engaging in joint loading, of the type defined in § 296.1 (c), with any other air freight forwarder for the pooling of consolidated shipments as one shipment in order to obtain the benefit of volume rates.

3. By amending the provisos following paragraph (l) of § 296.12 to read as follows:

Provided, however, That cooperative shippers associations shall remain subject to the requirements of sections 403 and 404 of the act insofar as they engage in joint loading of a type not defined in § 296.1 (c), with other cooperative shippers associations for the pooling of consolidated shipments as one shipment in order to obtain the benefit of volume rates.

Provided, further, however, That cooperative shippers associations are hereby relieved from the requirements of section 412 of the act insofar as they engage in joint loading, of the type defined in § 296.1 (c), with other cooperative shippers associations for the pooling of consolidated shipments as one shipment in order to obtain the benefit of volume rates.

4. By adding a new § 296.40 to read as follows:

§ 296.40 Prohibition on use of agents of direct air carriers. No air freight forwarder shall tender any consolidated shipment for transportation, wholly or partially by air, to any cargo agent or sales agent of any direct air carrier or to any other intermediary receiving a commission on such shipments from the direct air carrier. Nor shall any air freight forwarder tender any such shipment to the direct air carrier for the account of, or on behalf of, any cargo agent, sales agent, or any other such intermediary. The payment of a commission, by the direct air carrier to such agent or intermediary, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of this prohibition by the air freight forwarder concerned in all proceedings before the Board conducted under the authority of sections 1002 (a), (b) and (c) of the act.

5. By adding a new Subpart H to read as follows:

SUBPART H—RETENTION OF AIR FREIGHT FORWARDER RECORDS

§ 296.70 Records required to be kept by joint loading forwarders. Each air freight forwarder engaged in any form of joint loading shall maintain and preserve, for a period of two years subsequent to the expiration of each calendar quarter during which one or more joint loaded shipments were made, appropriate records showing for each such quarter the following data concerning all such shipments:

(a) The total number of such shipments in which it joined as a participating air freight forwarder and the total poundage of each such shipment.

(b) The identity of all other participating air freight forwarders contributing freight to each such shipment.

(c) The poundage which it contributed to the total poundage of each such shipment.

(d) The total number of such shipments consigned to particular direct air carriers for transportation and the poundage of each such shipment.

(e) The total amount of the charges made by the underlying direct air carrier on each such shipment, for transportation and other services rendered, and the portion of such charges which it paid.

(f) The point of origin and the point of destination of each such shipment.

[F. R. Doc. 57–2446; Filed, Mar. 28, 1957; 8:52 a. m.]

[1] Consequently, the filed tariffs of the direct air carriers will govern all rates, practices and services applicable to such shipments. In this manner, parity of treatment will be established between joint loading forwarders and other shippers.

[Rev. S. O. 562, Taylor's I. C. C. Order 80]

RAILROADS SERVING CERTAIN STATES

DIVERSION OR REROUTING OF TRAFFIC

In the opinion of Charles W. Taylor, Agent, the railroads serving the States of New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska, are unable to transport traffic routed over their lines because of snowstorms; It is ordered, That:

(a) Rerouting traffic. Railroads serving the States of New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska, unable to transport traffic in accordance with shippers' routing because of snowstorms, are hereby authorized to divert such traffic over any available route to expedite the movement, regardless of the routing shown on the waybill. The billing covering all such cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Concurrence of receiving roads to be obtained. The railroads desiring to divert or reroute traffic under this order shall confer with the proper transportation officer of the railroad or railroads to which such traffic is to be diverted or rerouted, and shall receive the concurrence of such other railroads before the rerouting or diversion is ordered.

(c) Notification to shippers. Each carrier rerouting cars in accordance with this order shall notify each shipper at the time each car is rerouted or diverted and shall furnish to such shipper the new routing provided under this order.

(d) Inasmuch as the diversion or rerouting of traffic by said Agent is deemed to be due to carriers' disability, the rates applicable to traffic diverted or rerouted by said Agent shall be the rates which were applicable at the time of shipment on the shipments as originally routed.

(e) In executing the directions of the Commission and of such Agent provided for in this order, the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the divisions of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, those voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; or upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be those hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 9:00 a. m., March 25, 1957.

(g) Expiration date. This order shall expire at 11:59 p. m., April 1, 1957, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended, or annulled.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D. C., March 25, 1957.

Subchapter B—Federal Farm Loan System

PART 10—FEDERAL LAND BANKS GENERALLY

INTEREST RATES ON LOANS MADE THROUGH ASSOCIATIONS

In order to reflect approval which has been given to increased interest rates on loans closed through national farm loan associations by the Federal Land Banks of Baltimore and Wichita, § 10.41 of Title 6 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as amended (21 F. R. 10167; 22 F. R. 133, 653, 1318, 1586), is hereby further amended, effective April 1, 1957, by substituting "5½" for "5" in the line with "Baltimore" therein; and, effective April 2, 1957, by substituting "5" for "4½" in the line with "Wichita" therein.

(Sec. 6, 47 Stat. 14, as amended; 12 U. S. C. 665. Interprets or applies secs. 12 "Second", 17, 39 Stat. 370, 375, as amended; 12 U. S. C. 771 "Second", 831)

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Regs., Amdt. 60-5]

PART 60—AIR TRAFFIC RULES

HIGH ALTITUDE QUADRANTAL RULES

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of March 1957.

Section 60.32 of Part 60 of the Civil Air Regulations currently establishes cruising altitudes appropriate to the direction of flight for the "elsewhere" area and authorizes the Administrator to specify cruising altitudes within control zones and areas. These altitude rules must be observed when flight is being conducted at or above 3,000 feet above the surface under visual flight rules (VFR) on civil airways, and in the "elsewhere" area when visibility is less than 3 miles. Section 60.44 requires aircraft being operated under instrument flight rules (IFR) to be flown at altitudes authorized by air traffic control within controlled airspace; and to be flown at prescribed altitudes appropriate to the direction of flight when in the "elsewhere" area. The purpose of the provisions for VFR cruising altitudes in § 60.32 is to provide aircraft operating in accordance with the altitudes prescribed therein or specified by the Administrator with at least 1,000 feet vertical separation when operating on reciprocal courses and at least 500 feet separation when operating on crossing courses. Likewise, the purpose of the provisions for IFR cruising altitudes in § 60.44 is to provide separation between those aircraft operating in accordance with the altitudes prescribed therein or the assigned altitudes authorized by air traffic control.

It has now been well established, however, that altimeter system errors increase significantly with increases in altitude and air speed. For example, experience has shown that aircraft which take off from a common point with the same altimeter settings may have altimeter readings which differ as much as 1,000 feet upon reaching a common altitude at or above 29,000 feet. In fact, considerably greater differences have been found to be possible theoretically at these altitudes. As a consequence of this increase in altimeter error with increase in altitude, the safety inherent in the current quadrantal altitude rules actually diminishes as altitude is increased, thereby decreasing the margin of safety at the higher altitudes. Although a considerable amount of research and development is presently being done concerning an improved instrument for measuring altitude, it undoubtedly will be some time before the development, manufacture, procurement, and installation of such an instrument is accomplished.

In order to increase this margin of safety, this amendment establishes high altitude quadrantal rules which will apply to all flights conducted in the airspace at 29,000 feet and above, except IFR flights at assigned altitudes. These rules will provide aircraft operating VFR on reciprocal courses with minimum vertical separation of at least 2,000 feet and aircraft operating on crossing courses with at least 1,000 feet.

At 29,000 feet and above the following altitude-direction relationship will apply:

(1) 0° to 89° inclusive—29,000; 33,000; etc.

(2) 90° to 179° inclusive—30,000; 34,000; etc.

(3) 180° to 269° inclusive—31,000; 35,000; etc.

(4) 270° to 359° inclusive—32,000; 36,000; etc.

The 29,000-foot altitude has been selected because of the magnitude of altimeter errors and the increase in the number of high speed aircraft at this altitude and above. This altitude appears appropriate also because of special procedures currently in effect whereby vertical separation of 2,000 feet is provided by air traffic control to all IFR traffic operating above 29,000 feet.

It is recognized, of course, that these quadrantal rules will have some adverse effect on the climb-cruise procedure common to jet operations and will reduce the number of available flight levels in a given direction. Nevertheless, the Board believes that these high altitude quadrantal rules are essential to safety since they will substantially minimize the collision hazard at high altitude created by the inaccuracies of the present-day altimeter and the typically higher speeds of aircraft operating at these altitudes.

In Draft Release No. 56–14, dated June 4, 1956, in which this amendment was proposed and circulated for comment, attention was also directed to a suggested modification to this amendment which would have increased the flight altitudes proposed therein by 500 feet; i. e., 29,500, 33,500, etc. The stated purpose of the proposed modification was to provide some separation between an IFR aircraft at an assigned altitude and a VFR aircraft operated in accordance with the cruising altitudes established pursuant to this amendment. Comment received with respect to the suggested modification was adverse since no significant safety advantage was indicated and the rule would be made unduly complicated. Therefore, this amendment is being adopted without being so modified.

Since the cruising rules in effect in Part 60 will not provide for separation between IFR aircraft at certain assigned altitudes and VFR aircraft operated in accordance with VFR cruising altitude rules, it remains the responsibility of all pilots operating in VFR weather conditions, even while cruising at an assigned altitude authorized by air traffic control, to maintain a vigilant watch so as to observe and avoid other conflicting traffic. In order to alert all pilots to this responsibility, this amendment revises the notes following §§ 60.32 and 60.44. The current note following § 60.44 is being deleted to dispel possible ambiguity as to its relation to the altitudes assigned for IFR flight in controlled areas.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment (21 F. R. 2905), and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 60 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 60, as amended) effective April 30, 1957.

1. By amending § 60.32 to read as follows:

§ 60.32 Cruising altitudes. When an aircraft is operated in level cruising flight at 3,000 feet or more above the surface, it shall be operated in accordance with the following cruising altitudes:

(a) Within control zones and control areas below 29,000 feet. At an odd or even thousand-foot altitude appropriate to the direction of flight as specified by the Administrator.

(b) Elsewhere below 29,000 feet. When the flight visibility is less than 3 miles, at an altitude appropriate to the magnetic course being flown as follows:

(1) 0° to 89° inclusive, at odd thousands (3,000; 5,000; etc.).

(2) 90° to 179° inclusive, at odd thousands plus 500 (3,500; 5,500; etc.).

(3) 180° to 269° inclusive, at even thousands (4,000; 6,000; etc.).

(4) 270° to 359° inclusive, at even thousands plus 500 (4,500; 6,500; etc.).

(c) Everywhere at or above 29,000 feet. At an altitude appropriate to the magnetic course being flown as follows:

(1) 0° to 89° inclusive, at 4,000-foot intervals beginning at 29,000 (29,000; 33,000; etc.).

(2) 90° to 179° inclusive, at 4,000-foot intervals beginning at 30,000 (30,000; 34,000; etc.).

(3) 180° to 269° inclusive, at 4,000-foot intervals beginning at 31,000 (31,000; 35,000; etc.).

(4) 270° to 359° inclusive, at 4,000-foot intervals beginning at 32,000 (32,000; 36,000; etc.).

NOTE: Pilots are advised that the cruising altitude rules do not, in all cases, provide vertical separation from all other aircraft. Pilots operating in VFR weather conditions must maintain a vigilant watch so as to observe and avoid other conflicting traffic, including traffic that may be cruising at an altitude assigned by air traffic control. "Odd and even" thousand-foot altitudes specified by the Administrator for civil airways will be published in the CAA Flight Information Manual, for sale by the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

2. By amending § 60.44 to read as follows:

§ 60.44 Cruising altitudes. When an aircraft is operated in level cruising flight, it shall be operated in accordance with the following cruising altitudes:

(a) Within control areas and control zones. At an altitude assigned by air traffic control.

(b) Elsewhere below 29,000 feet. At an altitude appropriate to the magnetic course being flown as follows:

(1) 0° to 89° inclusive, at odd thousands (1,000; 3,000; etc).

(2) 90° to 179° inclusive, at odd thousands plus 500 (1,500; 3,500; etc.).

(3) 180° to 269° inclusive, at even thousands (2,000; 4,000; etc.).

(4) 270° to 359° inclusive, at even thousands plus 500 (2,500; 4,500; etc.).

(c) Elsewhere at or above 29,000 feet. At an altitude appropriate to the magnetic course being flown as follows:

(1) 0° to 89° inclusive, at 4,000-foot intervals beginning at 29,000 (29,000; 33,000; etc.)

(2) 90° to 179° inclusive, at 4,000-foot intervals beginning at 30,000 (30,000; 34,000; etc.).

(3) 180° to 269° inclusive, at 4,000-foot intervals begining at 31,000 (31,000; 35,000; etc.)

(4) 270° to 359° inclusive, at 4,000-foot intervals beginning at 32,000 (32,000; 36,000; etc.).

NOTE: With respect to paragraph (a) of this section, pilots are advised that altitudes authorized by air traffic control are intended to assure vertical separation only between other known IFR traffic in controlled airspace. During the time an IFR flight is operating in VFR conditions pilots must maintain a vigilant watch so as to observe and avoid other aircraft since, for example, VFR flights may be operating in the same area not subject to air traffic control.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

PROCEDURE ALTERATIONS

The standard instrument approach procedure alterations appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 609 is amended as follows:

NOTE: Where the general classification (LFR, VAR, ADF, ILS, RADAR, or VOR), location, and procedure number (if any) of any procedure in the amendments which follow, are identical with an existing procedure, that procedure is to be substituted for the existing one, as of the effective date given, to the extent that it differs from the existing procedure; where a procedure is cancelled, the existing procedure is revoked; new procedures are to be placed in appropriate alphabetical sequence within the section amended.

1. The low frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.6 are amended to read in part:

LFR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, courses and radials are magnetic. Elevations and altitudes are in feet MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles.

If an instrument approach procedure of the above type is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitudes shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

6. The radar procedures prescribed in § 609.13 are amended to read in part:

RADAR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, courses and radials are magnetic. Elevations and altitudes are in feet MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles.

If a radar instrument approach is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless a different procedure is authorized by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics. This procedure shall be used in conjunction with the applicable provisions of Part 609 of this chapter. Radar service may be terminated at the option of the controller when weather conditions are such that he considers it advisable that the pilot complete his approach by visual reference to the ground. Radar service will be terminated when the aircraft reaches the point where the final approach course crosses the prescribed altitude for the intermediate or final approach segment. From this point, the pilot will be responsible for navigation on course, for obstruction clearance during descent, and for proceeding inbound on final approach at or before descent to the authorized landing minimums, or (B) at pilot's discretion if it appears desirable to discontinue the approach, except when the radar controller may direct otherwise prior to final approach, a missed approach shall be executed as provided below when (A) communication on final approach is lost for more than 5 seconds during a precision approach, or for more than 30 seconds during a surveillance approach; (B) directed by radar controller; (C) visual contact is not established upon descent to authorized landing minimums; or (D) if landing is not accomplished.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 908—MILK IN CENTRAL ARKANSAS MARKETING AREA

ORDER AMENDING ORDER, AS AMENDED

§ 908.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and all of the said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Central Arkansas marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk produced for sale in the said marketing area as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the order as hereby amended, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expenses, four cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding four cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all butterfat and skim milk contained in (i) producer milk, (ii) other source milk allocated to Class I milk pursuant to § 908.41 (a), or (iii) Class I milk disposed of in the marketing area (except to a pool plant) from a nonpool plant as determined pursuant to § 908.62.

(b) Additional findings. (1) It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than April 1, 1957. Any delay beyond that date will seriously threaten the orderly marketing of milk in the Central Arkansas marketing area.

(2) The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The decision containing all amendment provisions of this order was issued by the Assistant Secretary on March 26, 1957. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective April 1, 1957 and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See section 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this order amending the order which is marketed within the Central Arkansas marketing area) of more than 50 percent of the milk which is marketed within the said marketing area, refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of the order amending the order is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order amending the order is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during the determined representative period (January 1957), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Central Arkansas marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order as hereby amended, as follows:

1. Delete § 908.4 and substitute the following:

§ 908.4 Central Arkansas marketing area. "Central Arkansas marketing area", hereinafter called the "marketing area" means all the territory included within the boundaries of the counties of Clark (except the city of Gurdon and the town of Okolona), Conway, Faulkner, Garland, Grant, Hot Spring, Jefferson, Lonoke, Monroe, Pope, Pulaski, Saline and White, all in the State of Arkansas.

2. In §§ 908.51 (b) and 908.52 (b) delete "February" and insert "April".

3. At the end of § 908.70 (b) change the semicolon to a colon, and add the following: "Provided, That such calculation shall not apply if the total receipts of producer milk at pool plants during the month are not more than 110 percent of the total Class I utilization of such plants for the month."

4. Delete § 908.90 and substitute the following:

§ 908.90 Computation of daily average bases for each producer. Subject to the rules set forth in § 908.91, the daily average base for each producer shall be an amount calculated by dividing the total pounds of milk received from such producer at all pool plants during the period of September through December immediately preceding, by the number of days from the first day of delivery by such producer during such period to the last day of December inclusive or by 90, whichever is more: Provided, That, in the case of producers delivering milk to a plant which first became a pool plant during any of the months of January through July, a daily average base for each such producer shall be calculated pursuant to this section on the basis of his deliveries of milk to such plant during the period September through December immediately preceding: And provided further, That such plant was regulated by another part in this chapter during that period.

5. Delete § 908.91 (a) and substitute the following:

(a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, the market administrator shall assign a base as calculated pursuant to § 908.90 to each person for whose account producer milk was delivered to pool plants during the months of September through December, or whose deliveries of milk during these months were to a nonpool plant which became a pool plant during the following months of January through July.

6. In § 908.51 (a) delete the phrase "From the effective date hereof through March 1957, the" and insert "The".

7. In § 908.54 (a) delete the month of "February" and insert the month of "March"; and

In § 908.54 (b) delete the month of "January" and insert the month of "February".

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of March 1957, to be effective on and after April 1, 1957.

[Navel Orange Reg. 112]

PART 914—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 914.412 Navel Orange Regulation 112—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 14, as amended (7 CFR Part 914; 21 F. R. 4707), regulating the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective September 22, 1953, under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Navel Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on March 28, 1957, after giving due notice thereof to consider supply and market conditions for navel oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such navel oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., March 31, 1957, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 7, 1957, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 323,400 cartons;

(ii) District 2: 739,200 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement;

(iv) District 4: Unlimited movement.

(2) All navel oranges handled during the period specified in this section are subject also to all applicable size restrictions which are in effect pursuant to this part during such period.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," "District 4," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order.

AUTHORITY: §§ 930.0 to 930.96 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753 as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c.

§ 930.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk produced for sale in the said marketing area as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(4) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, except a producer-handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, two cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding two cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to butterfat and skim milk contained in (a) receipts of producer milk, (b) other source milk at a pool plant which is allocated to Class I milk, and (c) Class I milk disposed of in the marketing area by a distributing plant, not a pool plant, except a plant at which the milk is subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act; and

(5) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in this order, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order, as amended, effective not later than April 1, 1957. Any delay beyond that date in the effective date of this order amending the order, as amended, will impair the proper operation of the order and will seriously threaten the orderly marketing of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area. The provisions of the said order are well known to handlers, the recommended decision having been issued by the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on January 24, 1957, and the final decision having been issued by the Assistant Secretary of Agriculture on March 7, 1957. Therefore, reasonable time has been afforded persons affected to prepare for its effective date. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order, as amended, effective April 1, 1957, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See section 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping milk covered by this order amending the order, as amended) of more than 50 percent of the milk covered by this order amending the order, as amended, which is marketed within the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, participated in a referendum and who during the determined representative period January 1957, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 930.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C., 601 et seq.).

§ 930.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or such other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary.

§ 930.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 930.4 Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 930.5 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association of producers which the Secretary determines, after application by the association: (a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; (b) to have full authority in the sale of milk of its members and to be engaged in making collective sales or marketing milk or its products for its members; and (c) to have all of its activities under the control of its members.

§ 930.6 Toledo, Ohio, marketing area. "Toledo, Ohio, marketing area", called the "marketing area" means all of the territory within the boundaries of Fulton and Lucas Counties; all of the territory within the boundaries of Wood County north of the northern boundaries of the townships of Milton, Liberty, Portage, and Montgomery, including all of the town of Weston; all of the territory within the townships of Woodville and Madison in Sandusky County, all in the State of Ohio; and in the State of Michigan, all of the territory within the boundaries of Monroe County, except that territory within the boundaries of the townships of Ash, Berlin, Exeter, London, Milan, and Dundee; and all of the territory within the boundaries of the townships of Riga, Ogden, Palmyra, Blissfield, and Deerfield in Lenawee County.

§ 930.7 Distributing plant. "Distributing plant" means a plant where milk is processed or packaged and from which milk is disposed of as Class I milk in the marketing area, either on the premises or to a wholesale or retail stop(s), including sales through vendors.

§ 930.8 Supply plant. "Supply plant" means a milk plant from which milk, skim milk or cream is transferred to a distributing plant(s).

§ 930.9 Pool plant. "Pool plant" means (a) a distributing plant from which more than 10,000 pounds of milk is disposed of in the marketing area during the month and (b) a supply plant during September through December in which shipments of milk, skim milk or cream are made to a plant described pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section on 15 days or more during the month or during any other month on 7 days or more: Provided, That a supply plant, which was not a pool plant during the immediately preceding September through December period, shall not be included in this definition during any month in which no such transfers are allocated from Class I milk pursuant to § 930.46.

§ 930.10 Nonpool plant. "Nonpool plant" means any milk manufacturing, processing or bottling plant other than a pool plant.

§ 930.11 Producer. "Producer" means any person, except a producer-handler, who produces milk and who holds a dairy farm inspection permit issued by the appropriate health authority of the community for which the milk is produced if such community requires such permit for milk for disposition as Class I milk therein, which milk is (a) received at a pool plant or (b) diverted from a pool plant to another pool plant or to a nonpool plant pursuant to the conditions set forth in § 930.12.

§ 930.12 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means only that skim milk and butterfat contained in the milk received at (a) a pool plant directly from producers or (b) diverted for the account of the operator of a pool plant or a cooperative association from a pool plant to another pool plant or to a nonpool plant: Provided, That the milk of a dairy farmer which is diverted at times during any of the months of July through February must be physically received at a pool plant for at least four days during the current month in order to be considered as producer milk during such month. Producer milk diverted shall be deemed to have been received at a pool plant at the same location as the pool plant from which it was diverted.

§ 930.13 Handler. "Handler" means (a) any person who operates a distributing plant or a supply plant and (b) any cooperative association with respect to producer milk diverted by it in accordance with the conditions set forth in § 930.12.

§ 930.14 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who operates a dairy farm and a distributing plant but who receives no milk from other dairy farmers.

§ 930.15 Fluid milk product. "Fluid milk product" means milk, skim milk, buttermilk, milk drinks (plain or flavored), concentrated milk, eggnog, cream, or any mixture in fluid form of skim milk and cream (except storage cream, aerated cream products, ice cream mix, and evaporated or condensed milk).

§ 930.16 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by:

(a) Receipts during the month in the form of fluid milk products, except (1) producer milk, (2) fluid milk products received from other pool plants, and (3) inventory at the beginning of the month; and

(b) Products other than fluid milk products from any source (including those produced at the plant) which are reprocessed, repackaged or converted to another product in the plant during the month.

§ 930.17 Chicago butter price. "Chicago butter price" means the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any range as one price) per pound of 92-score bulk creamery butter, at Chicago, as reported for the month by the Department.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 930.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal by the Secretary.

§ 930.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 930.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 30 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 930.74:

(1) The cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees,

(2) His own compensation, and

(3) All other expenses, except those incurred under § 930.75, necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part and upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Publicly announce, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, within 10 days after the day upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to § 930.30, or (2) payments pursuant to §§ 930.70, 930.74, 930.75, and 930.77;

(g) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(h) Audit records of all handlers to verify the reports and payments required pursuant to the provisions of this part; and

(i) Publicly announce, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the prices determined for each delivery period as follows:

(1) On or before the 5th day after the end of such delivery period, the minimum class prices and the butterfat differential for each class computed pursuant to § 930.50, and § 930.52, and

(2) On or before the 12th day after the end of such delivery period the uniform price computed pursuant to § 930.61 and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 930.72.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

§ 930.30 Monthly reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 5th day after the end of each month, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator, for each of his pool plants in the detail and on the forms prescribed by the market administrator the following:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of producer milk;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by fluid milk products received from other pool plants;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by other source milk;

(d) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by inventories of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning of the month;

(e) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section; and

(f) Such other information with respect to such receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 930.31 Other reports. (a) Each handler, who operates a pool plant, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on the forms prescribed by the market administrator, on or before the 20th day after the end of each month, his producer payroll for the month which shall show (1) the pounds of producer milk received from each producer and the percentages of butterfat contained therein, (2) the amounts and dates of payments to each producer or cooperative association, and (3) the nature and amount of each deduction or charge involved in the payments referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(b) Each producer-handler and each handler who operates a supply or distributing plant, not a pool plant, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

§ 930.32 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain, and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of all of his operations and such facilities as, in the opinion of the market administrator, are necessary to verify reports, or to ascertain the correct information with respect to (a) the receipts and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat received including all milk products received and disposed of in the same form; (b) the weights and tests for butterfat and for other contents of all milk and milk products handled; and (c) payments to producers and cooperative associations.

§ 930.33 Retention of records. All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That, if within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies a handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records until further written notification from the market administrator. The market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 930.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. The skim milk and butterfat which are required to be reported pursuant to § 930.30 shall be classified each month by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of § 930.41 through § 930.46.

§ 930.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in § 930.43 the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of a fluid milk product (except for livestock feed), and (2) not accounted for as Class II milk.

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat accounted for as (1) used to produce a product other than a fluid milk product, (2) inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the end of the month, (3) disposed of for livestock feed, and (4) actual plant shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat allocated to producer milk and other source milk in fluid milk products pursuant to § 930.42 but not in excess of 2 percent of such receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively.

§ 930.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall allocate shrinkage at the handler's pool plant(s) as follows:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, at such plant(s); and

(b) Prorate the resulting amounts between receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk and in other source milk received in the form of a fluid milk product.

§ 930.43 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of by a handler from a pool plant, shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of a fluid milk product to the pool plant of another handler except as:

(1) Utilization in Class II milk is claimed by the operators of both plants in their reports submitted pursuant to § 930.30;

(2) The receiving plant has utilization in Class II of an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat, respectively; and

(3) The classification of the skim milk or butterfat so transferred results in the classification at both plants of the maximum Class I utilization to the producer milk at both plants, if either or both handlers have other source milk during the month;

(b) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted to a nonpool plant in the form of milk, skim milk or cream in bulk to a nonpool plant located less than 250 miles from the City Hall of Toledo, Ohio, by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, unless:

(1) The transferring or diverting handler claims classification as Class II milk in his report submitted pursuant to § 930.30 for the month;

(2) The operator of the nonpool plant maintains books and records showing the receipts and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at such plant which are made available if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification of such mutually indicated utilization; and

(3) An equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was used in products in Class II milk at such non-pool plant.

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in bulk in the form of milk or skim milk or cream to a nonpool plant located 250 miles or more from the City Hall at Toledo, Ohio, by shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator.

(d) For the purposes of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, skim milk and butterfat shall not be deemed to have been "disposed of" to a nonpool plant if merely retained in or transferred between trucks or other vehicles which enter the premises or come within the orbit of such plant in the course of movement elsewhere.

§ 930.44 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat proves to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise;

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 930.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the reports of receipts and utilization for the pool plant(s) of each handler and shall compute the pounds of butterfat and skim milk in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all of the water normally associated with such solids in the form of whole milk.

§ 930.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 930.45, the market administrator shall determine the classification of producer milk received at the pool plant(s) of each handler each month as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk assigned to producer milk pursuant to § 930.41 (b) (4);

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class, in series beginning with Class II milk, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk in fluid milk products received from the pool plants of other handlers according to the classification of such products as determined pursuant to § 930.43 (a);

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class, in series beginning with Class II milk, the pounds of skim milk in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning of the month;

(5) Add to the pounds of skim milk remaining in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and if the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk contained in producer milk, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II.

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure prescribed for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of producer milk remaining in each class computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 930.50 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of §§ 930.52 and 930.53, each handler shall pay not less than the following prices per hundredweight, on the basis of 3.5 percent butterfat content, for producer milk received at his pool plant during the month:

(a) Class I milk price. (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, add to the basic formula price the following amount for the delivery period indicated:

Delivery period:	Amount
April, May, and June	$1.00
February, March, and July	1.25
All others	1.65

(2) The price for Class I milk shall be the amount computed pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph plus or minus a "supply-demand adjustment" computed pursuant to subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of this subparagraph: Provided, That the price shall not be adjusted by the supply-demand adjustment factor until the utilization percentage computed pursuant to subdivision (i) of this subparagraph is equal to or exceeds the standard utilization percentage pursuant to subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph for each of three successive months:

(i) Divide the total receipts of producer milk during the first and second months preceding by the total gross volume of Class I milk (less interhandler transfers) during the same two months, multiply the result by 100, and round to the nearest whole number. The result shall be known as the "utilization percentage".

(ii) Compute a "deviation percentage" by subtracting from the utilization percentage as computed in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, the "standard utilization percentage" shown in this subdivision:

Month for which the price is being computed:	Standard utilization percentage
January	115
February	123
March	129
April	130
May	130
June	137
July	138
August	127
September	116
October	108
November	105
December	106

(iii) Determine the amount of the supply-demand adjustment from the following schedule:

If deviation percentage is:	Supply-demand adjustment is: (cents)
+16 or over	−50
+13 or +14	−40
+10 or +11	−30
+7 or +8	−20
+4 or +5	−10
+2 or −2	0
−4 or −5	+10
−7 or −8	+20
−10 or −11	+30
−13 or −14	+40
−16 or under	+50

When the deviation percentage does not fall within the tabulated brackets the adjustment shall be determined by the adjacent bracket which is the same as or nearest to the bracket used in the previous month.

(b) Class II milk price. The Class II milk price shall be (1) during the months of July through February, the highest of the prices per hundredweight computed pursuant to § 930.51 or subparagraph (2) of this paragraph for the month and (2) during the months of March through June, the average (computed to the nearest tenth of a cent) of the basic or field prices per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following locations for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department on or before the 5th day after the end of the month by the companies listed below:

Company and Location

Pet Milk Co., Delta, Ohio.
Defiance Milk Products Co., Defiance, Ohio.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.

§ 930.51 Basic formula price. The basic formula price per hundredweight (computed to the nearest tenth of a cent) to be used in determining the class prices pursuant to § 930.50 shall be the highest of the prices per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content computed pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) of § 930.50, or to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section.

(a) The average of the basic (or field) prices reported to have been paid or to be paid per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department on or before the 5th day after the end of the month by the companies indicated below:

Companies and Location

Borden Co., Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed as follows:

(1) Multiply by 8.53 the average of the daily prices per pound of cheese at Wisconsin primary markets ("Cheddars," f. o. b. Wisconsin assembling points, cars or truckloads) as reported by the Department during the month;

(2) Add 0.902 times the Chicago butter price; and

(3) Subtract 34.3 cents.

(c) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus values pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the Chicago butter price subtract three cents, and multiply by 4.2; and

(2) From the arithmetical average of the carlot prices per pound for nonfat dry milk (not including that specifically designated animal feed), spray and rolled process, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published by the Department during the month, deduct 5.5 cents, and multiply by 8.2, except that if such agency does not publish such prices f. o. b. manufacturing plants, there shall be used for the purpose of this computation the arithmetical average of the carlot prices thereof delivered at Chicago, Illinois, as published weekly by such agency during the month; and in the latter event the figure "7.5" shall be substituted for "5.5" in the above formula.

§ 930.52 Butterfat differentials to handlers. If the weighted average butterfat test of producer milk which is classified, respectively, in any class of utilization, pursuant to § 930.46, is more or less than 3.5 percent, there shall be added to, or subtracted from, as the case may be, the price for such class of utilization, for each one-tenth of one percent that such weighted average butterfat test is above or below, respectively, 3.5 percent, a butterfat differential (computed to the nearest tenth of a cent), calculated for each class of utilization as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Multiply the Chicago butter price by 0.125;

(b) Class II milk. Multiply the Chicago butter price by 0.120.

§ 930.53 Location differentials to handlers. For that milk which is received from producers at a pool plant located 60 miles or more from the City Hall, Toledo, Ohio, by the shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, and which is transferred to a distributing plant which is a pool plant in the form of a fluid milk product and assigned to Class I pursuant to the proviso of this section, or otherwise classified as Class I milk, the price specified in § 930.50 (a) shall be reduced at the rate set forth in the following schedule according to the location of the pool plant where such milk is received from producers:

Distance from the Toledo City Hall (miles):	Rate per hundredweight (cents)
60 but less than 75	15
75 but less than 90	17
For each additional 15 miles or fraction thereof an additional	2.0

Provided, That for the purpose of calculating such location differentials, fluid milk products which are transferred between pool plants shall be assigned to Class I milk to the extent that the gross Class I utilization at the transferee plant exceeds 95 percent of the receipts of producer milk at such plant, such assignment to transferor plants to be made first to plants at which no location adjustment is applicable and then in sequence according to the location differential applicable at each plant beginning with the plant having the smallest differential.

§ 930.54 Use of equivalent prices. If for any reason a price quotation required by this order for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is required.

HANDLER'S OBLIGATION AND UNIFORM PRICE

§ 930.60 Computation of net obligation for each handler. The value of producer milk received during each month by each handler shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Multiply the pounds of producer milk in each class by the applicable class prices and add together the resulting amounts;

(b) Add an amount computed by multiplying the overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 930.46 (a) (5) and the corresponding step of (b) by the applicable class price;

(c) Add the amount obtained in multiplying the difference between the Class II price for the preceding month and the Class I price for the current month by the hundredweight of producer milk classified in Class II less shrinkage during the preceding month, or the hundredweight of milk subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 930.46 (a) (4) and the corresponding step of (b), whichever is less;

(d) Adjust the resulting amount by the sum of money used in adjusting the uniform price for the previous month to the nearest cent, pursuant to § 930.61 (d); and

(e) Add or subtract, as the case may be, the amount necessary to correct errors in classification for previous delivery periods as disclosed by audit of the market administrator.

§ 930.61 Computation of uniform price. For each month, the market administrator shall compute for each handler a "uniform price" per hundredweight, on the basis of 3.5 percent butterfat content, for producer milk received by such handler as follows:

(a) From the value of milk computed for such handler pursuant to § 930.60, deduct, if the weighted average butterfat test of all producer milk received by him is greater than 3.5 percent, or add, if the weighted average butterfat test of such milk is less than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the total pounds of butterfat represented by the variance of such weighted average butterfat test from 3.5 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 930.72 and multiply by 10;

(b) Add an amount equal to the total location adjustments to be made pursuant to § 930.73;

(c) Divide the resulting value by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by such handler;

(d) The resulting figure, rounded to the nearest cent, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content at a pool plant, located less than 60 miles from the City Hall of Toledo, Ohio.

§ 930.62 Notification. On or before the 12th day after the end of each month, the market administrator shall mail to each handler, at his last known address, a statement showing:

(a) The amount and value of his producer milk in each class;

(b) The uniform price for such handler pursuant to § 930.61 and the butterfat differentials computed pursuant to § 930.72; and

(c) The totals of the amounts to be paid by such handler pursuant to §§ 930.74 and 930.75.

PAYMENTS

§ 930.70 Time and method of final payment. (a) On or before the 15th day after the end of each month, each handler shall pay each producer for milk received from him during such month, an amount computed at not less than such handler's uniform price per hundredweight pursuant to § 930.61, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 930.72 plus or minus adjustments for errors made in previous payments to such producer; and less (1) payment made pursuant to § 930.71, (2) location differential deductions pursuant to § 930.73, (3) marketing service deductions pursuant to § 930.75 and (4) proper deductions authorized by such producer.

§ 930.71 Partial payments. On or before the last day of each month each handler shall pay each producer for milk received from him during the first fifteen days of each month at a rate computed as follows: Provided, That in the event a producer discontinues shipping to the market during the month, such partial payments shall not be made and full payment for all milk received from such producer during the month shall be made pursuant to the provisions of § 930.70

(a) Deduct 75 cents from the uniform price for the preceding month for such handler which is applicable at the pool plant where milk is received from such producer.

(b) Add or subtract any amount by which the Class I price differential for the current month is greater than or less than, respectively, the differential for the preceding month.

(c) Round off the result to the nearest multiple of 10 cents.

§ 930.72 Producer butterfat differential. In making payments pursuant to § 930.70 the uniform price for each handler shall be adjusted for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat content in the milk of each producer above or below 3.5 percent, as the case may be, by a butterfat differential computed as follows: Multiply the Chicago butter price by 0.12 and round to the nearest one-half cent.

§ 930.73 Location differentials to producers. In making payment pursuant to § 930.70 the uniform price pursuant to § 930.61 to be paid for milk which is received from producers at a pool plant located 60 miles or more from the City Hall, Toledo, Ohio, by the shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, shall be reduced at the rate set forth in the following schedule according to the location of the pool plant where such milk is received from producers:

Distance from the Toledo City Hall (miles):	Rate per hundredweight (cents)
60 but less than 75	15.0
75 but less than 90	17.0
For each additional 15 miles or fraction thereof an additional	2.0

§ 930.74 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of expense incurred pursuant to § 930.22 (d), each handler, except a producer-handler, shall pay the market administrator, on or before the 15th day after the end of each month, 2 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe with respect to receipts during the month of (a) producer milk, (b) other source milk at a pool plant, allocated to Class I milk pursuant to § 930.46 and (c) Class I milk disposed of in the marketing area by a distributing plant, not a pool plant.

§ 930.75 Deductions for marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section each handler, in making payments to producers pursuant to § 930.70, with respect to all milk received from each producer (except milk of such handler's own production) at a plant not operated by a cooperative association of which such producer is a member, shall deduct 6 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe; and on or before the 15th day after the end of such month, shall pay such deductions to the market administrator. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator to verify weights, samples, and tests of milk of such producers and to provide such producers with market information, such services to be performed by the market administrator, or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

(b) Each association of producers which is actually performing the services described in paragraph (a) of this section, as determined by the market administrator, may file with a handler a claim for authorized deductions from the payments otherwise due to its producer-members for milk delivered to such handler. In making payments to producers for milk received during the month, each handler shall make deductions in accordance with the association's claim and shall pay the amount deducted, to the association, within 15 days after the end of the month. Such claim shall contain a list of the producers for which such deductions apply, an agreement to indemnify the handler in the making of the deductions, and a certification that the association has an unterminated membership contract with each producer authorizing the claimed deduction.

§ 930.76 Reports to cooperatives. Upon request the market administrator is authorized to report to any cooperative association qualifying under § 930.75 (b) for each month the amount of butterfat shortage or overage in member milk found in any handler's plant, as revealed by the records of the market administrator. For the purpose of this report, the butterfat shortage or overage on member milk shall be determined as the percentage of total butterfat shortage or overage which total receipts of butterfat in member milk is of the total receipts of butterfat in the plant.

§ 930.77 Errors in payments. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts disclose errors resulting in moneys due (a) the market administrator or cooperative associations from such handler, or such handler from the market administrator or cooperative associations pursuant to §§ 930.74 or 930.75, or (b) any producer or cooperative association from such handler pursuant to § 930.70, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any such amount due; and said payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payment set forth in the provision under which such error occurred, following the 5th day after such notice.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 930.80 Plants subject to other Federal orders. The provisions of this part shall not apply to a distributing plant or a supply plant during any month in which the milk at such plant would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless such plant qualified as a pool plant pursuant to § 930.9 and a greater volume of fluid milk products is disposed of from such plant to retail or wholesale outlets and to pool plants in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area than in the marketing area regulated pursuant to such other order during the current month and each of the three months, immediately preceding: Provided, That the operator of a distributing plant or a supply plant which is exempted from the provisions of this order pursuant to this section shall, with respect to the total receipts and utilization or disposition of skim milk and butterfat at the plant, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

§ 930.81 Producer-handlers. Sections 930.50, 930.60, 930.70, 930.74, 930.75, and 930.77 shall not apply to the milk of a producer-handler.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 930.90 Termination of obligations. (a) The obligations of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the month during which the market administrator receives the handler's report of utilization of the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to a cooperative association, the name of such producers or association, or, if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books or records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the month following the month during which such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representative.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or wilful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the month during which the payment (including deduction or setoff by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

§ 930.91 Effective time. The provisions of this part, or of any amendment to this part, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated.

§ 930.92 When suspended or terminated. The Secretary shall, whenever he finds that this part, or any provision thereof, obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, terminate or suspend the operation of this part or any such provision thereof.

§ 930.93 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 930.94 Liquidation. Upon the suspension of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

§ 930.95 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 930.96 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision, and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of March 1957, to be effective on and after April 1, 1957.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.838 Orange Regulation 313—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of all Florida oranges, including Temple oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of all oranges, including Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on March 26, 1957, such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of all oranges, including Temple oranges, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in said amended marketing agreement and order; and terms relating to grade, standard pack, and standard box, as used herein, shall have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos (§§ 51.1140 to 51.1186 of this title).

(2) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 1, 1957, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 15, 1957, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 1 Bronze;

(ii) Any Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(iii) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than 2$^{6}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, which shall be the largest measurement at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of oranges smaller than such minimum diameter shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos (§§ 51.1140 to 51.1186 of this title): Provided, That in determining the percentage of oranges in any lot which are smaller than 2$^{6}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, such percentage shall be based only on those oranges in such lot which are of a size 2$^{13}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and smaller;

(iv) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size larger than 3$^{5}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, which shall be the largest measurement at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of oranges larger than such maximum diameter shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos (§§ 51.1140 to 51.1186 of this title): Provided, That in determining the percentage of oranges in any lot which are larger than 3$^{5}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, such percentage shall be based only on those oranges in such lot which are of a size 3 inches in diameter and larger; or

(v) Any Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than 2$^{5}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, which shall be the largest measurement at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of Temple oranges smaller than such minimum diameter shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances specified in the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos (§§ 51.1140 to 51.1186 of this title).

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.839 Grapefruit Regulation 261—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of all Florida grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of all grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on March 26, 1957, such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such grapefruit; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of all grapefruit, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in said amended marketing agreement and order; and terms relating to grade, standard pack, and standard box, as used herein, shall have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (§§ 51.750 to 51.790 of this title); and the term "mature" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 601.16 Florida Statutes, chapters 26492 and 28090, known as the Florida Citrus Code of 1949, as supplemented by section 601.17 (chapters 25149 and 28090) and also by section 601.18, as amended June 2, 1955 (chapter 29760).

(2) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 1, 1957, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 15, 1957, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any white seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 1 Bronze;

(ii) Any pink seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(iii) Any white seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than 3$^{15}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, measured midway at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of seeded grapefruit smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the revised United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (§§ 51.750 to 51.790 of this title);

(iv) Any pink seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than 3$^{12}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, measured midway at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of pink seeded grapefruit smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the revised United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (§§ 51.750 to 51.790 of this title);

(v) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area I, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 1 Bronze;

(vi) Any pink seedless grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area I, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(vii) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area II, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 1 Bronze: Provided, That not to exceed 40 percent, by count, of such grapefruit may be damaged, but not seriously damaged, by scars;

(viii) Any pink seedless grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area II, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(ix) Any pink seedless grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area II, which are mature and which grade U. S. No. 2 or U. S. No. 2 Bright unless such pink seedless grapefruit (a) are in the same container with pink seedless grapefruit which grade at least U. S. No. 1 Russet and (b) are not in excess of 50 percent, by count, of the number of all pink seedless grapefruit in such container; or (x) Any seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than 3$^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, measured midway at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of seedless grapefruit smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the revised United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (§§ 51.750 to 51.790 of this title).

[Tangerine Reg. 189]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.840 Tangerine Regulation 189—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of Florida tangerines, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of tangerines, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on March 26, 1957, such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such tangerines; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of tangerines, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

[Lemon Reg. 680]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.787 Lemon Regulation 686—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 20 F. R. 8451; 21 F. R. 4393), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on March 27, 1957; such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., March 31, 1957, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 7, 1957, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 6,510 cartons;

(ii) District 2: 239,940 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

AUTHORITY: §§ 967.0 to 967.101 issued under sec. 5, 49 stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c.

§ 967.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that;

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order, as amended, effective not later than April 1, 1957. Any delay beyond April 1, 1957, in the effective date of this order would tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the aforesaid marketing area and would defeat the purpose of the amendment. The amendment action of this order amending the order is known to handlers. The public hearing was held on August 14–15, 1956, and the recommended decision was issued February 6, 1957 (22 F. R. 844). The final decision was issued by the Assistant Secretary on March 15, 1957 (22 F. R. 1844). Reasonable time under the circumstances has been afforded persons affected to prepare for its effective date. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for not delaying the effective date of this order for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (section 4 (c); Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this order, amending the order, as amended, which is marketed within the South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area) of more than 50 percent of the milk which is marketed within said marketing area, refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during the determined representative period (December 1956), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 967.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 967.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or any other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 967.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal Agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions of the United States Department of Agriculture specified herein.

§ 967.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 967.5 Delivery period. "Delivery period" means the calendar month or the total portion thereof during which this order is in effect.

§ 967.6 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative association of producers which the Secretary determines, after application by the association:

(a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; and

(b) To have full authority in the sale of milk of its members and to be engaged in making collective sales or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 967.7 South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area. "South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area", hereinafter called the "marketing area" means all territory within the corporate limits of South Bend, Mishawaka, La Porte, and Michigan City, Indiana.

§ 967.8 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means a milk plant which is approved by the health authorities of any of the following municipalities: South Bend, Mishawaka, La Porte, or Michigan City, Indiana, for the processing and distribution of milk for consumption in fluid form and from which a route is operated wholly or partially within the marketing area.

§ 967.9 Producer. "Producer" means any person, except a producer-handler, who produces milk (other than milk exempt pursuant to § 967.60) which is received at an approved plant, provided such milk is eligible for consumption as milk in fluid form within the marketing area under the approval or certification of one or more of the health authorities referred to in § 967.8. This definition shall include any such person who is regularly classified as a producer but whose milk is caused to be temporarily diverted by a handler from an approved plant to a plant not an approved plant.

§ 967.10 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means milk produced by a producer under the conditions set forth in § 967.9.

§ 967.11 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat received in any form, except in a nonfluid milk product disposed of in the same form as received, from sources other than a producer or a handler who receives milk subject to the pricing provisions of this part.

§ 967.12 Route. "Route" means a delivery (including a sale at a plant store) of any item named in § 967.41 (a) (1) to a wholesale or retail stop other than a milk processing or distributing plant.

§ 967.13 Handler. "Handler" means (a) a person who operates an approved plant or (b) a cooperative association with respect to milk (1) caused by it to be delivered from a producer's farm to an approved plant for the account of such association, or (2) customarily received as producer milk at an approved plant which is diverted by such association for its account to a plant not an approved plant.

§ 967.14 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who operates an approved plant and whose sole source of supply of skim milk and butterfat is from his own production or from his own production and from an approved plant.

§ 967.15 Base, base milk and excess milk—(a) Base. "Base" means a quantity of milk expressed in pounds per day computed pursuant to § 967.63.

(b) Base milk. "Base milk" means a quantity of producer milk received by a handler during each of the months of April, May, June and July which is not in excess of such producer's base multiplied by the number of days such milk was produced.

(c) Excess milk. "Excess milk" means producer milk received by a handler during each of the months of April, May, June and July which is in excess of the base milk received from such producer.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 967.20 Designation. The agency for the administration hereof shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 967.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 967.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 30 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary a bond covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 967.85:

(1) The cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees,

(2) His own compensation, and

(3) All other expenses, except those incurred under § 967.86, necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Publicly announce, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who within 10 days after the day upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to §§ 967.30 to 967.31 or (2) payments pursuant to §§ 967.80 to 967.87;

(g) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(h) Verify all reports and payments of each handler by inspection of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends;

(i) Publicly announce by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the prices determined for each delivery period as follows:

(1) On or before the 7th day after the end of such delivery period, the minimum class prices for skim milk and butterfat pursuant to §§ 967.51 through 967.53;

(2) On or before the 14th day after the end of such delivery period, the uniform price computed pursuant to § 967.71 and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 967.81;

(j) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information; and

(k) On or before April 1 each year notify each producer of the amount of his base, and notify each handler of the amount of the base of each producer delivering milk to any of the handler's plants.

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 967.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 9th day after the end of each delivery period each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(a) The quantities of butterfat and of skim milk contained in all receipts within such delivery period of (1) producer milk, (2) skim milk and butterfat in any form from any other handler, (3) other source milk, and the source thereof, and (4) for the delivery periods of April through July, the total amount of base milk and the total amount of excess milk received from producers;

(b) The utilization of all receipts reported under paragraph (a) of this section; and

(c) Such other information with respect to all receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 967.31 Other reports (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

(b) On or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall submit to the market administrator such handler's producer payroll for the preceding delivery period, which shall show (1) the total pounds of milk received from each producer and the average butterfat test of such milk, (2) the amount of payment to each producer and cooperative association, (3) the nature and amount of any deductions and charges involved in the payments referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, and (4) for the delivery periods of September through December, the number of days on which milk was received from each producer, and for the delivery periods of April through July, for each producer the number of days on which milk was received and the amount of base milk and excess milk.

§ 967.32 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or to his representative during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or to establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization, in whatever form, of all skim milk and butterfat received;

(b) The weights, samples, and tests for butterfat and for other content of all skim milk and butterfat handled;

(c) Payments to producers and cooperative associations; and

(d) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and each milk product on hand at the beginning and at the end of each delivery period.

§ 967.33 Retention of records. All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 967.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat, in any form, received within the delivery period by a handler, in producer milk, in other source milk and from another handler shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 967.41 to 967.46, inclusive.

§ 967.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 967.43 and 967.44, the skim milk and butterfat described in § 967.40 shall be classified by the market administrator on the basis of the following classes:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of (except as provided in paragraph (c) (1) of this section) in the form of milk, skim milk, flavored milk, flavored milk drink, and buttermilk; (2) disposed of as cream (sweet or sour) and as any fluid mixture of cream and milk (or skim milk) containing not less than 6 percent butterfat (but not including ice cream or other frozen dessert mixes disposed of to a commercial processor, or any mixture disposed of in containers or dispensers under pressure for the purpose of dispensing a whipped or aerated product); (3) disposed of in fluid or frozen form as concentrated milk, flavored milk, flavored milk drink not sterilized and not otherwise specified under paragraph (c) of this section, and as eggnog; (4) in shrinkage of receipts of producer milk computed pursuant to § 967.42 which is in excess of 2 percent of such receipts; and (5) not specifically accounted for as any item named in this paragraph or as Class II milk or Class III milk.

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat used to produce cottage cheese.

(c) Class III milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) disposed of in bulk in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, and cream to any manufacturer of candy, soup or bakery products and used in such products; (2) in condensed milk or skim milk (sweetened or unsweetened) disposed of to commercial food processors; (3) disposed of (or used to produce, in the case of ice cream and frozen desserts and mixes (liquid or powdered) for such products, and aerated cream products) as sweetened condensed milk in hermetically sealed cans, evaporated milk, ice cream, ice cream mix, other frozen desserts and mixes, storage cream, butter, cheese and nonfat dry milk; (4) dumped or disposed of for livestock feed as skim milk (including that in whole milk dumped), flavored milk, flavored milk drink and buttermilk; (5) disposed of as a milk product other than any of those specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2) and (3) in paragraph (b), and in paragraphs (c) (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this section; (6) contained in monthly inventory variations; (7) in actual shrinkage of receipts of producer milk computed pursuant to § 967.42 but not in excess of 2 percent of such receipts; and (8) in actual shrinkage of other source milk computed pursuant to § 967.42.

§ 967.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall determine the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk and in other source milk in the following manner:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, for each handler; and

(b) Prorate the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section between that in producer milk and in other source milk.

§ 967.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk, unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat proves to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat classified (except that transferred to a producer-handler) in one class shall be reclassified if used or reused by such handler or by another handler in another class.

§ 967.44 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of by a handler either by transfer or diversion shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted to another handler (except a producer-handler) in the form of any item named in § 967.41 (a) (1), (2), or (3) unless utilization in another class is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 9th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transaction occurred: Provided, That skim milk or butterfat so assigned to a particular class shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in such class in the plant of the transferee handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 967.46, and any excess of such skim milk or butterfat, respectively, shall be assigned to Class I milk;

(b) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted to a producer-handler in the form of any item named in § 967.41 (a) (1), (2) or (3);

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted to a plant not an approved plant in the form of any item named in § 967.41 (a) (1), (2) or (3) unless (1) the transferor handler claims use in another class on the basis of utilization in the unapproved plant in his report submitted to the market administrator pursuant to § 967.30 for the month within which such transaction occurred, (2) the receiver maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which are made available if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification, and (3) in such receiver's plant there actually had been used during such delivery period in the use indicated in such report, not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat derived by him from milk or cream: Provided, That if upon inspection of such receiver's records of such plant, there had not been used in the indicated use an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat so derived, the remaining pounds shall be classified as Class I milk.

§ 967.45 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the delivery period report submitted by each handler and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in each class for such handler.

§ 967.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. The pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, remaining in each class after the following computations shall be the pounds in each class allocated to producer milk;

(a) Subtract, respectively, from the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk which is disposed of as Class I milk in bottles on a route outside the marketing area: Provided, That the health authority having jurisdiction over the plant from which such distribution is made has granted approval for receiving and processing for fluid distribution both approved milk and other source milk in such plant, the handler maintains adequate accounts and records of, and practices complete segregation of, producer milk and other source milk used in his Class I milk operations, and that such other source milk is disposed of on a route on which no producer milk is disposed of as Class I milk;

(b) Subtract, respectively, from the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk (to the extent Class I milk is available) the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk which is (1) received in consumer packages as any item specified in § 967.41 (a) (1), (2) or (3) from a plant where milk is subject to the class price provisions of a Federal marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act for another fluid milk marketing area, and (2) disposed of without repackaging;

(c) Subtract, respectively, from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class (other than the pounds in inventory variations and plant shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat pursuant to § 967.41 (c) (7)) in series beginning with Class III milk, the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk excluding that subtracted pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section;

(d) Subtract, respectively, from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class the pounds of skim milk and butterfat received from other handlers and assigned to such class pursuant to § 967.44; and

(e) Subtract, respectively, from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class in series beginning with Class III milk, the pounds by which such pounds of skim milk and butterfat in all classes exceed, respectively, the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat received in milk from producers.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 967.50 Basic formula price. The basic formula price to be used in computing the prices of Class I milk and Class II milk for the delivery period shall be the higher of the prices computed by the market administrator for the delivery period immediately preceding pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section:

(a) Compute the arithmetical average of the basic (or field) prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid, or to be paid, for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the delivery period at the following plants or places for which prices are reported to the market administrator or to the Department by the companies listed below:

Present operator:	Location
Borden Co.	Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Borden Co.	New London, Wis.
Borden Co.	Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co.	Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Co.	Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co.	Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co.	Belleville, Wis.
Pet Milk Co.	Coopersville, Mich.
Pet Milk Co.	New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co.	Wayland, Mich.
White House Milk Co.	Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co.	West Bend, Wis.

(b) Compute a price per hundredweight by adding together the amounts resulting pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph;

(1) Multiply by 8.2 the weighted average of carlot prices per pound for spray process nonfat dry milk, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding delivery period through the 25th day of the current delivery period by the Department, and from the result thus obtained deduct 64.2 cents;

(2) Multiply by 4.24 the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade AA (93-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department during the delivery period: Provided, That if no price is reported for Grade AA (93-score) butter, the highest of the Grade A (92-score) butter prices for that day shall be used in lieu of the price for Grade AA (93-score) butter, and from the result thus obtained deduct 11 cents.

§ 967.51 Class I milk prices. The minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received and classified as Class I milk for each delivery period shall be computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Add to the basic formula price (3.5 percent milk) the following amount for the delivery period indicated: August, September, October, November and December $1.30; January and February, $1.10; all others $0.90: Provided, That such Class I price differential shall be increased or decreased, respectively, by the supply-demand adjustment computed under Part 941 of this chapter as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area.

(b) Add together the amount computed pursuant to § 967.50 (b) (2) and any amount per hundredweight by which (on a 3.5 percent butterfat basis) the effective basic formula price pursuant to § 967.50 is higher than the price computed pursuant to § 967.50 (b), divide such sum by 0.035, and then add thereto the following amount for the delivery period indicated: August, September, October, November and December, $13.75; all others $12.00: Provided, That such amount for the delivery period indicated shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the amount per hundredweight resulting from the proviso of paragraph (a) of this section divided by 0.035. The resulting amount shall be the price of butterfat in Class I milk.

(c) Subtract from the price computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section the amount computed in paragraph (b) of this section times 0.035, and divide the remainder by 0.965. The resulting amount shall be the price of skim milk in Class I milk.

§ 967.52 Class II milk prices. The minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received and classified as Class II milk for each delivery period shall be computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Add to the basic formula price (3.5 percent milk), the following amount for the delivery period indicated: August, September, October, November, December, January and February, $0.70; all others $0.45.

(b) The amount computed pursuant to § 967.51 (b) shall be the price of butterfat in Class II milk.

(c) Subtract from the price computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section the amount specified in paragraph (b) of this section times 0.035, and divide the remainder by 0.965. The resulting amount shall be the price of skim milk in Class II milk: Provided, That in no event shall the price of skim milk pursuant to this subparagraph be less than the price computed pursuant to § 967.53 (b).

§ 967.53 Class III milk prices. The minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received and classified as Class III milk for each delivery period shall be computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) The price of butterfat in Class III milk shall be the producer butterfat differential computed for such delivery period pursuant to § 967.61 times 1000.

(b) The price of skim milk in Class III milk shall be computed by subtracting the hundredweight price of butterfat computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section times 0.035, from the price determined pursuant to § 967.50 (a), and divide the remainder by 0.965.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 967.60 Exempt milk. Skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I on a route in the marketing area shall not be subject to the provisions of this part if (a) such milk is priced under another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act, and (b) the person making such disposition of milk in the marketing area is subject to regulation under such other marketing agreement or order: Provided, That the handler making such disposition of milk in the marketing area shall at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require, make reports to the market administrator which shall be subject to verification by the market administrator.

§ 967.61 Diverted milk. Producer milk diverted from a handler's plant to an approved plant or to a plant not an approved plant shall be deemed to have been received by the handler for whose account such milk was diverted.

§ 967.62 Producer-handlers. Sections 967.40 to 967.46, 967.50 to 967.53, 967.70 to 967.72, and 967.80 to 967.88 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 967.63 Computation of base. Subject to the conditions set forth in § 967.64, the market administrator shall compute for each of the months of April, May, June and July a base for each producer, as follows:

(a) Divide the total pounds of milk received by a handler from each producer during the months of September, October, November and December immediately preceding, by the number of days such milk was produced (not to be less than 90 days): Provided, That any producer for whom a base has been computed, may, upon written notice to the market administrator postmarked not later than February 15 preceding, relinquish his base and be allotted a base computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Any producer who has not established a base or who elects to relinquish his base pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section shall be assigned a base for each of the months of April, May, June and July computed as follows:

(1) From the total quantity of producer milk received by handlers during the same month of the previous year, subtract the total receipts from producers who did not establish bases or who had relinquished their bases.

(2) Determine the percentage that base milk was of the remaining pounds, and subtract 10.

(3) Multiply the resulting percentage by the total pounds of milk received by a handler from the producer during the applicable month and divide the result by the number of days such milk was produced.

§ 967.64 Base rules. Any base computed pursuant to § 967.63 (a) shall be subject to the following rules:

(a) A base shall be held in the name of the producer and may be transferred only at his option.

(b) The milk to which the transferred base shall apply must be produced on the same farm from which such base was earned, and the transferor must notify the market administrator in writing on or before the last day of the month that such base is to be transferred indicating the name of the transferee, the amount of base transferred, and the effective date of the transfer; and in the event of a producer's death his base may be so transferred upon written notice to the market administrator from any member of the producer's immediate family.

(c) If a producer operates more than one farm he must establish a base with respect to the milk from each farm, and in the event such producer chooses to relinquish the base earned for one farm he must do so for all farms.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 967.70 Computation of value of producer milk. The value of producer milk received during each delivery period by each handler shall be computed by the market administrator by multiplying the pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, allocated to producer milk in each class pursuant to § 967.46, by the applicable class prices, adding together the resulting amounts, and adding the amounts computed as follows: Multiply the pounds of skim milk and butterfat subtracted pursuant to § 967.46 (e) by the respective applicable class prices.

§ 967.71 Computation of uniform price. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute the "uniform price" per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from producers as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 967.70 for all handlers who made the reports pursuant to § 967.30 except those in default in payments required pursuant to § 967.83 for the preceding delivery period;

(b) Subtract, if the weighted average butterfat test of producer milk is greater than 3.5 percent, or add, if such butterfat test is less than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by: Multiplying the amount by which such weighted average butterfat test varies from 3.5 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 967.81, and multiply the resulting amount by the hundredweight of such milk;

(c) Add an amount representing the cash balance on hand in the producer-settlement fund less the amount of unpaid obligations to handlers pursuant to § 967.84 and 967.87;

(d) For the delivery periods of August through March compute the uniform price by dividing the result computed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section by the hundredweight of producer milk included in the computations pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, and subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents for the purpose of retaining a cash balance in the producer-settlement fund to provide against errors in reports and in payments by handlers.

(e) For each of the delivery periods of April through July the market administrator shall compute uniform prices per hundredweight for base milk and for excess milk, each of 3.5 percent butterfat content, received from producers, as follows:

(1) Compute the total value on a 3.5 percent butterfat basis of excess milk included in the computations pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section by multiplying the hundredweight of such excess milk not in excess of the total quantity of Class III milk included in these computations by the price for Class III milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, and multiplying the hundredweight of such excess milk in excess of such Class III milk in series by the price for Class II milk and Class I milk, respectively, of 3.5 percent butterfat content, and adding together the resulting amounts.

(2) Compute the uniform price for excess milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content by dividing the total value of excess milk obtained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph by the total hundredweight of such milk, and adjusting to the nearest cent;

(3) Multiply the hundredweight of excess milk included in the computations pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph by the uniform price for excess milk computed pursuant to said subparagraph (2);

(4) Subtract the value computed pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph from the value computed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section and divide the result by the total hundredweight of base milk included in these computations;

(5) Compute the uniform price for base milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content by subtracting not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the result computed pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph for the purpose of retaining a cash balance in the producer-settlement fund to provide against errors in reports and in payments by handlers.

§ 967.72 Notification to handlers. On or before the 14th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall mail to each handler at his last known address, a statement showing (a) the amount and values of his milk in each class and the totals thereof; (b) the applicable minimum class prices and uniform price; (c) the amount owed by him to or the amount due him from the producer-settlement fund, pursuant to § 967.83 or § 967.84; and (d) the amount to be paid by him pursuant to §§ 967.80, 967.85, 967.86, and 967.87.

PAYMENTS

§ 967.80 Time and method of payment. Each handler shall make payments as follows:

(a) On or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period, to each producer, except producers for whom payment is made to a cooperative association pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, at not less than the uniform price for the delivery periods of August through March and the uniform prices for base milk and excess milk for the delivery periods of April through July calculated pursuant to § 967.71, and adjusted by the producer butterfat differential pursuant to § 967.81, for all milk received from such producer during such delivery period and less payment to such producer made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section: Provided, That if by such date such handler has not received full payment for such delivery period pursuant to § 967.84, he may reduce such payments uniformly per hundredweight for all producers by an amount not in excess of the per hundredweight reduction in payment from the market administrator: And provided further, That such handler shall make such balance of payment to those producers to whom it is due on or before the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following that on which such balance of payment is received from the market administrator.

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, to a cooperative association with respect to milk caused to be delivered from producers' farms to such handler by such association for its account during such delivery period, not less than the value of skim milk and butterfat in such milk computed at the minimum class prices, less payments to such association made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section. For the purpose of determining the classification of skim milk and butterfat in such milk, such skim milk and butterfat shall be ratably apportioned among the quantities of skim milk and butterfat in such handler's Class I milk, Class II milk and Class III milk allocated to producer milk pursuant to § 967.46.

(c) On or before the 4th day after the end of such delivery period each handler shall pay to each producer, or to a cooperative association authorized to collect payment, not less than the amount per hundredweight provided in the schedule set forth in this paragraph, for milk received from such producer or caused to be delivered to such handler by such cooperative association during the first 15 days of such delivery period: Provided, That in the event any producer or cooperative association discontinues shipping to such handler during any delivery period, such partial payments shall not be made and full payment for all milk received from such producer or cooperative association during such delivery period shall be made on or before the 18th day after the end of such delivery period pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section:

When the uniform price or base price for the preceding delivery period is—	The amount of the partial payment shall be—
Under $1.00	$0.00
$1.00 to $1.99	1.00
$2.00 to $2.99	2.00
$3.00 to $3.99	3.00
$4.00 to $4.99	4.00
$5.00 to $5.99	5.00
$6.00 to $6.99	6.00
$7.00 and over	7.00

§ 967.81 Producer butterfat differential. In making payments pursuant to § 967.80 (a) there shall be added to or subtracted from the uniform price, for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat content in such producer milk above or below 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the average of the daily wholesale prices per pound of 92-score butter at Chicago during the delivery period as reported by the Department, by 0.12 and rounding to the nearest tenth of a cent.

§ 967.82 Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit payments made by handlers pursuant to § 967.83 and payments related thereto pursuant to § 967.87 and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to § 967.84 and payments related thereto pursuant to § 967.87.

§ 967.83 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to the market administrator the amount by which the value of producer milk received by such handler during such delivery period pursuant to § 967.70 minus the amount to be paid to a cooperative association pursuant to § 967.80 (b) is greater than the amount to be paid producers pursuant to § 967.80 (a): Provided, That with respect to milk for which a cooperative association receives payment from a handler pursuant to § 967.80 (b), such cooperative association shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period, the amount by which the utilization value of such milk is greater than the value computed at the uniform price pursuant to § 967.71 adjusted by the producer butterfat differential pursuant to § 967.81.

§ 967.84 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler the amount by which the value of producer milk received by such handler during such delivery period pursuant to § 967.70 minus the amount to be paid to a cooperative association pursuant to § 967.80 (b) is less than the amount to be paid producers pursuant to § 967.80 (a), less any unpaid obligation of such handler to the market administrator pursuant to §§ 967.83, 967.85, 967.86 and 967.87: Provided, That with respect to milk for which a cooperative association receives payment from a handler pursuant to § 967.80 (b) the market administrator shall pay to such cooperative association, on or before the 17th day after the end of such delivery period, the amount by which the utilization value of such milk is less than the value computed at the uniform price pursuant to § 967.71 adjusted by the producer butterfat differential pursuant to § 967.81: And provided further, That if the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this section, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly per hundredweight such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available.

§ 967.85 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense incurred pursuant to § 967.22 (d) each handler shall pay the market administrator, on or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period, 4 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe with respect to skim milk and butterfat received within the delivery period, in producer milk (including such handler's own production) and in other source milk (excluding milk which is subject to administrative expense of another Federal order issued pursuant to the act).

§ 967.86 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers pursuant to § 967.80 (a) shall make a deduction of 4 cents per hundredweight of milk, or such lesser deduction as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, with respect to the following:

(1) All milk received from producers (except milk of such handler's own production) at a plant not operated by a cooperative association; and

(2) All milk received at a plant operated by a cooperative association from producers who are not members of such association. Such deductions shall be paid by the handler to the market administrator on or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator for verification of weights, samples and tests of milk received from such producers and in providing for market information to such producers, such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

(b) In the case of each producer (1) who is a member of, or who has given written authorization for the rendering of marketing services and the taking of deduction therefor, to a cooperative association, (2) whose milk is received at a plant not operated by such association, and (3) for whom the Secretary determines that such association is performing the services described in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall deduct, in lieu of the deduction specified under paragraph (a) of this section, from the payments made pursuant to § 967.80 (a) the amount per hundredweight on milk authorized by such producer and shall pay over, on or before the 16th day after the end of such delivery period, such deduction to the association entitled to receive it under this paragraph.

§ 967.87 Adjustments of accounts. (a) Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts discloses errors resulting in moneys due (1) the market administrator from such handler, (2) such handler from the market administrator, or (3) any producer or cooperative association from such handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any such amount due; and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payment set forth in the provision under which such error occurred following the 5th day after such notice.

(b) An unpaid obligation of a handler or of the market administrator shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one percent per month, such interest to accrue on the 1st day of the calendar month next following the due date of such obligation and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter until such obligation is paid.

§ 967.88 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money irrespective of when such obligation arose, except an obligation involved in an action instituted before August 1, 1949, under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or before a court.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this order, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION

§ 967.90 Effective time. The provisions of this part or of any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated.

§ 967.91 Suspension or termination. The Secretary shall, whenever he finds that this part or any provision thereof, obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, terminate or suspend the operation of this part or any such provision thereof.

§ 967.92 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 967.93 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so desired by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 967.100 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 967.101 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision, and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

It is hereby ordered, that the full text of the order be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions contained in this order, as amended, are identical with those published in the final decision on March 20, 1957 (22 F. R. 1844).

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of March 1957, to be effective April 1, 1957.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

[Docket Nos. AO-240-A2 and A3]

PART 985—MILK IN MUSKEGON, MICHIGAN, MARKETING AREA

ORDER AMENDING ORDER

§ 985.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of each of the previously issued amendments thereto, and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), public hearings were held at Muskegon, Michigan, on August 28, 1956, and at Kalamazoo, Michigan, on November 27, 1956, upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Muskegon, Michigan, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in this order, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expenses of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 4 cents per hundredweight or such amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all receipts within the month of milk from producers and other source milk which is classified as Class I milk.

(b) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this order amending the order, as amended) of more than 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this order amending the order, as amended, which is marketed within the said marketing area, refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) This issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during the representative period (December 1956), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Muskegon, Michigan, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, as set forth below:

1. Delete § 985.5 and substitute the following:

§ 985.5 Muskegon, Michigan, marketing area. "Muskegon, Michigan, marketing area" referred to in this part as the "marketing area" means all territory, including but not limited to all municipal corporations within the boundaries of Muskegon County; Ottawa County, except Wright, Tallmadge, Georgetown and Jamestown townships; and Fillmore and Laketown townships in Allegan County; all in the State of Michigan.

2. Delete § 985.6 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 985.6 Pool plant. "Pool plant" means a plant (except one which is exempt pursuant to § 985.101):

(a) From which 20 percent or more of the total milk received at such plant during the month is disposed of in the marketing area as Class I other than to another pool plant;

(b) From which 20 percent or more of the total milk received from dairy farmers at such plant during the month is moved to pool plant(s) as described in paragraph (a) of this section; or

(c) Approved by an appropriate health authority of the marketing area as a supply of milk for fluid consumption and operated by a cooperative association, if 75 percent (50 percent for May and June) or more of the milk delivered during the month by producers who are members of such association is received at the pool plants of other handlers.

3. Delete § 985.53 and substitute the following:

§ 985.53 Handler butterfat differential. There shall be added to or subtracted from, respectively, the prices of milk for each class as computed pursuant to §§ 985.51 and 985.52, for each one-tenth of one percent variation in the average butterfat test of the milk in each class above or below 3.5 percent an amount equal to the average daily wholesale price per pound of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago as reported by the U. S. D. A. during the month multiplied by 0.113 and the result rounded to the nearest one-tenth of a cent.

4. Delete § 985.65 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 985.65 Computation of the base milk price. (a) Multiply the total pounds of excess milk by the excess milk price for the month;

(b) Multiply the total amount of milk to be paid for at the adjusted uniform price by the adjusted uniform price pursuant to § 985.70 (b);

(c) Subtract the total values arrived at in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section from the total 3.5 percent value of all producer milk arrived at in § 985.62;

(d) Divide the resultant value by the total hundredweight of base milk; and

(e) Subtract not less than 6 cents nor more than 7 cents.

(f) The resultant hundredweight price shall be the price of base milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received at pool plants described in § 985.6.

5. Delete § 985.70 (b), (c), (d) and (e) and substitute therefor the following:

(b) A producer who has no base shall be paid until February 1 following the August–December period within which he establishes a base pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section at an adjusted uniform price determined by subtracting from the uniform price computed pursuant to § 985.63 the applicable percentage specified below of the difference between the uniform price and the excess milk price, rounded to the nearest cent:

	Percent
January, February, and March	30
April, May, and June	50
July	15
All other months	5

(c) A producer with a base, by notifying the market administrator that he relinquishes such base, may be paid pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, beginning with the first day of the month in which such notification is received by the market administrator.

(d) When a plant first becomes a pool plant pursuant to § 985.6 bases for producers delivering to such plant may be established on the basis of deliveries of milk to such plant for the preceding August–December period certified by submission of delivery receipts or other evidence satisfactory to the market administrator.

6. Delete § 985.71 (b) (2) and (c) and substitute the following:

(2) Bases may be held jointly and if such joint holding is terminated the base may be divided among the joint holders as specified in writing to the market administrator.

(c) A producer who does not deliver milk to a handler for 45 consecutive days shall forfeit his base except that a producer who suffers the complete loss of his barn as a result of fire or windstorm may retain his base without loss for twelve months.

7. Delete § 985.80 and substitute the following:

§ 985.80 Time and method of payment. On or before the 15th day after the end of each month each handler who received milk from producers or from a cooperative association shall pay for milk received during such month to each producer, or to a cooperative association for milk received from producers for the account of such association, the uniform price adjusted as provided in § 985.70 (b), or the base price for base milk and the excess price for excess milk, adjusted by the butterfat differential pursuant to § 985.81: Provided, That if by such date such handler has not received full payment for such month pursuant to § 985.84 he shall not be deemed to be in violation of this section if he reduces uniformly to all producers and cooperative associations his payments per hundredweight by a total amount not in excess of the reduction in payments due from the market administrator; however, the handler shall make such balance of payment uniformly to those producers to whom it is due on or before the date for making payments pursuant to this section next following that on which such balance of payment is received from the market administrator.

8. Delete § 985.81 and substitute the following:

§ 985.81 Producer butterfat differential. In making payments pursuant to § 985.80, the uniform price, base price and excess price shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat content in the milk received from each producer or a cooperative association above or below 3.5 percent, respectively, by an amount equal to the average daily wholesale price per pound of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago as reported by the U. S. D. A. during the month multiplied by 0.113 and the result rounded to the nearest one-half cent.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of March 1957, to be effective on and after the 1st day of May 1957.

Assistant Secretary.

PART 987—MILK IN CENTRAL MISSISSIPPI MARKETING AREA

ORDER AMENDING ORDER, AS AMENDED

§ 987.0 Findings and determination. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and each of the previously issued amendments thereto, and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act") (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900) a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Central Mississippi marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity price of milk produced for sale in the said marketing area as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order, as amended, effective not later than April 1, 1957. Any delay beyond that date in the effective date of this order would tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the aforesaid marketing area and would defeat the purpose of the amendment. The amendment action of this order amending the order is known to handlers. The public hearing was held on January 25, 1957, and the recommended decision was issued March 7, 1957 (22 F. R. 1589). The final decision was issued by the Assistant Secretary on March 25, 1957. Reasonable time under the circumstances has been afforded persons affected to prepare for its effective date. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for not delaying the effective date of this order for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (section 4 (c); Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this order, amending the order, as amended, which is marketed within the Central Mississippi marketing area) of more than 50 percent of the milk which is marketed within said marketing area, refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during the determined representative period (January 1957), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Central Mississippi marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, as follows:

Delete § 987.16 and substitute the following:

§ 987.16 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who operates a dairy farm and a distributing plant which, during the month, received no other source milk (except own production), producer milk, or milk from a pool plant.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of March to be effective on and after April 1, 1957.

[SEAL] TRUE D. MORSE,
Acting Secretary.

TITLE 13—BUSINESS CREDIT AND ASSISTANCE

Chapter II—Small Business Administration

[Amdt. 1]

PART 103—SMALL BUSINESS SIZE STANDARDS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The Small Business Administration Size Standards Regulation is hereby amended by:

1. Deleting § 103.2 (c) in its entirety and substituting the following in lieu thereof:

(c) "Number of employees," except as SBA otherwise determines in a particular industry or part thereof, means the average employment of any concern and its affiliates based on the number of persons employed during the pay period ending nearest the 15th of the third month in each calendar quarter for the preceding four quarters. If a concern has not been in existence for four full calendar quarters, "Number of employees" means the average employment of such concern and its affiliates during the period such concern has been in existence based on the number of persons employed during the pay period ending nearest the 15th of each month.

2. Deleting § 103.3 (b) in its entirety and substituting the following in lieu thereof:

(b) Status of non-manufacturer. Anyone who submits bids or offers in his own name, but who proposes to furnish a product not manufactured by said bidder or offerer, is deemed to be a small business concern when:

(1) He is a small business concern within the meaning of paragraph (a) of this section, and

(2) He is a regular dealer as defined by the regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Labor (41 CFR Part 201), pursuant to the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act, and

(3) In the case of Government procurement reserved for or involving the preferential treatment of small businesses or one involving equal bids, such non-manufacturer shall, in order to qualify as a small business, furnish in the performance of the contract the products of a small business manufacturer or producer which products are manufactured or produced in the United States or its Territories or possessions.

3. Adding the following sentence at the end of § 103.3 (c): "Whenever a Small Business Certificate is issued, the industry or field of operation of the concern which received such certificates shall be published in Schedule B of this part."

4. Deleting § 103.4 (i) in its entirety and substituting the following in lieu thereof:

(i) Other standards. (1) If a concern is engaged in the production of a number of products or the providing of a variety of services which are classified in different industries, the appropriate standard to be used is that which has been established for the industry or activity in which the concern is primarily engaged.

(2) If no standard for an industry or activity has been set out in this section, a concern seeking a size determination may apply to the Regional or Branch Office of SBA nearest to such concern's principal place of business for such determination.

5. Adding Schedule B as a part of the Small Business Size Standards as follows:

SCHEDULE B—INDUSTRIES AND FIELDS OF OPERATION IN WHICH THE SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION HAS ISSUED SMALL BUSINESS CERTIFICATES PURSUANT TO § 103.3 (c)

Industry or Field of Operation

1. Petroleum Refining
2. Electronics Manufacturing

(Sec. 306, 67 Stat. 234, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 634)

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket 6234]

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

OTARION, INC., AND LELAND E. ROSEMOND

Subpart—Dealing on exclusive and tying basis: § 13.670 Dealing on exclusive and tying basis.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 3, 38 Stat. 731; 15 U. S. C. 14) [Cease and desist order, Otarion, Inc., et al., Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., Docket 6234, Mar. 14, 1957]

In the Matter of Otarion, Inc., a Corporation, Leland E. Rosemond, Individually and as an Officer of Otarion, Inc.

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a large manufacturer of hearing aid instruments and parts and accessories at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., with approximately 120 distributors located throughout the United States, with violating section 3 of the Clayton Act by requiring its distributors not to handle competing products.

Following entry of a consent order, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on March 14 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Otarion, Inc., a corporation, its officers, agents, representatives and employees, and individual respondent Leland E. Rosemond, individually and as an officer of respondent corporation, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of hearing aids or other similar or related products in commerce, as "commerce," is defined in the Clayton Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Selling or making any contract or agreement for sale of any such products on the condition, agreement, or understanding that the purchaser thereof shall not use or deal in, or sell, hearing aids or other similar or related products supplied by any competitor or competitors of respondents;

2. Enforcing or continuing in operation, or effect, any condition, agreement, or understanding in, or in connection with, any existing contract of sale, which condition, agreement, or understanding is to the effect that the purchaser of said products shall not use or deal in hearing aids or other similar or related products supplied by any competitor or competitors of the respondents.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: March 14, 1957.

By the Commission.

[Docket 6221]

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

SIMPLICITY PATTERN CO., INC.

Subpart—Discriminating in price under section 2, Clayton Act, as amended—Furnishing services or facilities for processing, handling, etc., under 2 (e): § 13.830 Furnishing services or facilities.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; sec. 2, 38 Stat. 730, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45, 13) [Cease and desist order, Simplicity Pattern Company, Inc., New York, N. Y., Docket 6221, Mar. 13, 1957]

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging the largest manufacturer of dress patterns in the United States with violating section 2 (e) of the Clayton Act as amended through supplying cabinets and other equipment for displaying and storing the patterns to large customers free of charge while requiring smaller customers to rent or purchase the equipment; and charging violation of the Federal Trade Commission Act by the same and related practices.

After reception of evidence in support of the complaint, respondent filed motion seeking dismissal for failure of proof, and after oral argument the examiner granted dismissal as to Count I.

As to Count II, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist from which counsel for both parties filed cross-appeals. Having heard the matter on briefs and oral argument, the Commission on March 13 rendered its decision denying both appeals and adopting the findings, conclusions, and order contained in the initial decision.

Said order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Simplicity Pattern Company, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of dress patterns in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Clayton Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Contracting to furnish or furnishing to any of respondent's customers counter catalogs, cabinets or other equipment or facilities connected with the handling, sale or offering for sale of respondent's patterns, unless such catalogs, cabinets or other equipment or facilities are available on proportionally equal terms to all customers competing with such favored customers in the sale of respondent's patterns.

It is further ordered, That Count I of the complaint be, and it hereby is, dismissed.

By "Final Order", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent, Simplicity Pattern Company, Inc., shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order contained in the initial decision.

Issued: March 13, 1957.

By the Commission.

JEOPARDY, BANKRUPTCY AND RECEIVERSHIPS

JEOPARDY

§ 301.6851 Statutory provisions; termination of taxable year.

SEC. 6851. Termination of taxable year—(a) Income tax in jeopardy—(1) In general. If the Secretary or his delegate finds that a taxpayer designs quickly to depart from the United States or to remove his property therefrom, or to conceal himself or his property therein, or to do any other act tending to prejudice or to render wholly or partly ineffectual proceedings to collect the income tax for the current or the preceding taxable year unless such proceedings be brought without delay, the Secretary or his delegate shall declare the taxable period for such taxpayer immediately terminated, and shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be given the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax for the taxable period so declared terminated and of the tax for the preceding taxable year or so much of such tax as is unpaid, whether or not the time otherwise allowed by law for filing return and paying the tax has expired; and such taxes shall thereupon become immediately due and payable. In any proceeding in court brought to enforce payment of taxes made due and payable by virtue of the provisions of this section, the finding of the Secretary or his delegate, made as herein provided, whether made after notice to the taxpayer or not, shall be for all purposes presumptive evidence of jeopardy.

(2) Corporation in liquidation. If the Secretary or his delegate finds that the collection of the income tax of a corporation for the current or the preceding taxable year will be jeopardized by the distribution of all or a portion of the assets of such corporation in the liquidation of the whole or any part of its capital stock, the Secretary or his delegate shall declare the taxable period for such taxpayer immediately terminated and shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be given the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax for the taxable period so declared terminated and of the tax for the preceding taxable year or so much of such tax as is unpaid, whether or not the time otherwise allowed by law for filing return and paying the tax has expired; and such taxes shall thereupon become immediately due and payable.

(b) Reopening of taxable period. Notwithstanding the termination of the taxable period of the taxpayer by the Secretary or his delegate, as provided in subsection (a), the Secretary or his delegate may reopen such taxable period each time the taxpayer is found by the Secretary or his delegate to have received income, within the current taxable year, since a termination of the period under subsection (a). A taxable period so terminated by the Secretary or his delegate may be reopened by the taxpayer (other than a nonresident alien) if he files with the Secretary or his delegate a true and accurate return of the items of gross income and of the deductions and credits allowed under this title for such taxable period, together with such other information as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations prescribe. If the taxpayer is a nonresident alien the taxable period so terminated may be reopened by him if he files, or causes to be filed, with the Secretary or his delegate a true and accurate return of his total income derived from all sources within the United States, in the manner prescribed in this title.

(c) Citizens. In the case of a citizen of the United States or of a possession of the United States about to depart from the United States, the Secretary or his delegate may, at his discretion, waive any or all of the requirements placed on the taxpayer by this section.

(d) Departure of alien. No alien shall depart from the United States unless he first procures from the Secretary or his delegate a certificate that he has complied with all the obligations imposed upon him by the income tax laws.

(e) Furnishing of bond where taxable year is closed by the Secretary or his delegate. Payment of taxes shall not be enforced by any proceedings under the provisions of this section prior to the expiration of the time otherwise allowed for paying such taxes if the taxpayer furnishes, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, a bond to insure the timely making of returns with respect to, and payment of, such taxes or any income or excess profits taxes for prior years.

§ 301.6851–1 Termination of taxable year. For regulations under section 6851, see § 1.6851–1 of this chapter.

SEC. 6861. Jeopardy assessments of income, estate, and gift taxes—(a) Authority for making. If the Secretary or his delegate believes that the assessment or collection of a deficiency, as defined in section 6211, will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 6213 (a), immediately assess such deficiency (together with all interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax provided for by law), and notice and demand shall be made by the Secretary or his delegate for the payment thereof.

(b) Deficiency letters. If the jeopardy assessment is made before any notice in respect of the tax to which the jeopardy assessment relates has been mailed under section 6212 (a), then the Secretary or his delegate shall mail a notice under such subsection within 60 days after the making of the assessment.

(c) Amount assessable before decision of Tax Court. The jeopardy assessment may be made in respect of a deficiency greater or less than that notice of which has been mailed to the taxpayer, despite the provisions of section 6212 (c) prohibiting the determination of additional deficiencies, and whether or not the taxpayer has theretofore filed a petition with the Tax Court. The Secretary or his delegate may, at any time before the decision of the Tax Court is rendered, abate such assessment, or any unpaid portion thereof, to the extent that he believes the assessment to be excessive in amount. The Secretary or his delegate shall notify the Tax Court of the amount of such assessment, or abatement, if the petition is filed with the Tax Court before the making of the assessment or is subsequently filed, and the Tax Court shall have jurisdiction to redetermine the entire amount of the deficiency and of all amounts assessed at the same time in connection therewith.

(d) Amount assessable after decision of Tax Court. If the jeopardy assessment is made after the decision of the Tax Court is rendered, such assessment may be made only in respect of the deficiency determined by the Tax Court in its decision.

(e) Expiration of right to assess. A jeopardy assessment may not be made after the decision of the Tax Court has become final or after the taxpayer has filed a petition for review of the decision of the Tax Court.

(f) Collection of unpaid amounts. When the petition has been filed with the Tax Court and when the amount which should have been assessed has been determined by a decision of the Tax Court which has become final, then any unpaid portion, the collection of which has been stayed by bond as provided in section 6863 (b) shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the Secretary or his delegate, and any remaining portion of the assessment shall be abated. If the amount already collected exceeds the amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed, such excess shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer as provided in section 6402, without the filing of claim therefor. If the amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed is greater than the amount actually assessed, then the difference shall be assessed and shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the Secretary or his delegate.

(g) Abatement if jeopardy does not exist. The Secretary or his delegate may abate the jeopardy assessment if he finds that jeopardy does not exist. Such abatement may not be made after a decision of the Tax Court in respect of the deficiency has been rendered or, if no petition is filed with the Tax Court, after the expiration of the period for filing such petition. The period of limitation on the making of assessments and levy or a proceeding in court for collection, in respect of any deficiency, shall be determined as if the jeopardy assessment so abated had not been made, except that the running of such period shall in any event be suspended for the period from the date of such jeopardy assessment until the expiration of the 10th day after the day on which such jeopardy assessment is abated.

(h) Cross references. (1) For the effect of the furnishing of security for payment, see section 6863.

(2) For provision permitting immediate levy in case of jeopardy, see section 6331 (a).

§ 301.6861–1 Jeopardy assessments of income, estate, and gift taxes—(a) Authority for making. If a district director believes that the assessment or collection of a deficiency in income, estate, or gift tax will be jeopardized by delay, he is required to assess such deficiency immediately, together with the interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax provided by law. A jeopardy assessment may be made before or after the mailing of the notice of deficiency provided by section 6212. However, a jeopardy assessment for a taxable year under section 6861 cannot be made after a decision of the Tax Court with respect to such taxable year has become final (see section 7481) or after the taxpayer has filed a petition for review of the decision of the Tax Court with respect to such taxable year. In the case of a deficiency determined by a decision of the Tax Court which has become final or with respect to which the taxpayer has filed a petition for review and has not filed a bond as provided in section 7485, assessment may be made in accordance with the provisions of section 6215, without regard to section 6861.

(b) Amount of jeopardy assessment. If a notice of a deficiency is mailed to the taxpayer before it is discovered that delay would jeopardize the assessment or collection of the tax, a jeopardy assessment may be made in an amount greater or less than that included in the deficiency notice. If a deficiency is assessed on account of jeopardy after the decision of the Tax Court is rendered, the jeopardy assessment may be made only with respect to the deficiency determined by the Tax Court.

(c) Jurisdiction of Tax Court. If the jeopardy assessment is made before the notice in respect of the tax to which the jeopardy assessment relates has been mailed pursuant to section 6212 (a), the district director shall, within 60 days after the making of the assessment, send the taxpayer a notice of deficiency pursuant to such subsection. The taxpayer may file a petition with the Tax Court for a redetermination of the amount of the deficiency within the time prescribed in section 6213 (a). If the petition of the taxpayer is filed with the Tax Court, either before or after the making of the jeopardy assessment, the Commissioner, through his counsel, is required to notify the Tax Court of such assessment or of any abatement thereof, and the Tax Court has jurisdiction to redetermine the amount of the deficiency, together with all other amounts assessed at the same time in connection therewith.

(d) Payment and collection of jeopardy assessment. After a jeopardy assessment has been made, the district director is required to send notice and demand to the taxpayer for the amount of the jeopardy assessment. Regardless of whether the taxpayer has filed a petition with the Tax Court, he is required to make payment of the amount of such assessment (to the extent that it has not been abated) within 10 days after the sending of notice and demand by the district director, unless before the expiration of such 10-day period he files with the district director a bond as provided in section 6863. Section 6331 provides that, if the district director makes a finding that the collection of the tax is in jeopardy, he may make demand for immediate payment of the amount of the jeopardy assessment and, in such case, the taxpayer shall immediately pay such amount or shall immediately file the bond provided in section 6863. If a petition is not filed with the Tax Court within the period prescribed in section 6213 (a), the district director will be so advised, and, if collection of the deficiency has been stayed by the timely filing of a bond as provided in section 6863, he should then give notice and make demand for payment of the amount assessed plus interest. After the Tax Court has rendered its decision and such decision has become final, the district director will be notified of the action taken. He will then send notice and demand for payment of the unpaid portion of the amount determined by the Tax Court, the collection of which has been stayed by the bond. If the amount of the jeopardy assessment is less than the amount determined by the Tax Court, the difference will be assessed and collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the district director. If the amount of the jeopardy assessment is in excess of the amount determined by the Tax Court, the unpaid portion of such excess will be abated. If any part of the excess amount has been paid, it will be credited or refunded to the taxpayer as provided in section 6402, without the filing of claim therefor.

(e) Abatement of excessive assessment. The district director may, at any time before the decision of the Tax Court is rendered, abate such assessment, or any unpaid portion thereof, to the extent that he believes the assessment to be excessive in amount.

(f) Abatement if jeopardy does not exist. (1) The district director may abate a jeopardy assessment in whole or in part, if it is shown to his satisfaction that jeopardy does not exist. An abatement may not be made under this paragraph after a decision of the Tax Court in respect of the deficiency has been rendered or, if no petition is filed with such court, after the expiration of the period for filing such petition.

(2) After abatement of a jeopardy assessment in whole or in part, the district director may proceed to assess and collect a deficiency in the manner authorized by law as if the jeopardy assessment or part thereof so abated had not existed. If a notice of deficiency has been sent to the taxpayer before the abatement of the jeopardy assessment in whole or in part, whether such notice was sent before or after the making of the assessment, such abatement will not affect the validity of the notice or of any proceedings for redetermination based thereon. The period of limitation on the making of assessments and the beginning of levy or a proceeding in court for collection in respect of any deficiency shall be determined as if the jeopardy assessment so abated had not been made, except that the running of such period shall in any event be suspended for the period from the date of such jeopardy assessment until the expiration of the tenth day after the date on which such jeopardy assessment is abated in whole or in part. The provisions of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. On March 18, 1958, 28 days before the last day of the 3-year period of limitations on assessment, a jeopardy assessment is made in respect of a proposed deficiency. On May 2, 1958, before the mailing of the notice of deficiency provided by section 6861 (b), this assessment is abated. By virtue of this subparagraph, the last day of the period of limitations for the making of an assessment is June 9, 1958, that is, the thirty-eighth day after the date of the abatement. If the notice of deficiency provided for in section 6861 (b) had been sent before the abatement, the running of the period of limitations on assessment would have been suspended pursuant to the provisions of section 6503 (a).

(3) Request for abatement of a jeopardy assessment, because jeopardy does not exist, shall be filed with the district director, shall state fully the reasons for the request, and shall be supported by such evidence as will enable the district director to determine that the collection of the deficiency is not in jeopardy. See paragraph (e) of this section with respect to the abatement of jeopardy assessments which are excessive in amount.

§ 301.6862 Statutory provisions; jeopardy assessment of taxes other than income, estate, and gift taxes.

SEC. 6862. Jeopardy assessment of taxes other than income, estate, and gift taxes—(a) Immediate assessment. If the Secretary or his delegate believes that the collection of any tax (other than income tax, estate tax, and gift tax) under any provision of the internal revenue laws will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making return and paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax (together with all interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax provided for by law). Such tax, additions to the tax, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the Secretary or his delegate for the payment thereof.

(b) Immediate levy. For provision permitting immediate levy in case of jeopardy, see section 6331 (a).

§ 301.6862–1 Jeopardy assessment of taxes other than income, estate, and gift taxes. (a) If the district director believes that the collection of any tax (other than income, estate, or gift tax) will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for filing the return or paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax, together with all interest, additional amounts and additions to the tax provided by law. For example, assume that a taxpayer incurs on January 18, 1958, liability for admissions tax imposed by section 4231, that the last day on which return and payment of such tax is required to be made is April 30, 1955, and that on January 18, 1955, the district director determines that collection of such tax would be jeopardized by delay. In such case, the district director shall immediately assess the tax.

(b) The tax, interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax will, upon assessment, become immediately due and payable, and the district director shall, without delay, issue a notice and demand for payment thereof in full. Upon failure or refusal to pay the amount demanded, collection thereof by levy shall be lawful without regard to the 10-day period provided in section 6331 (a). However, the collection of the whole or any part of the amount of the jeopardy assessment may be stayed by timely filing with the district director a bond as provided in section 6863.

SEC. 6863. Stay of collection of jeopardy assessments—(a) Bond to stay collection. When a jeopardy assessment has been made under section 6861 or 6862, the collection of the whole or any amount of such assessment may be stayed by filing with the Secretary or his delegate, within such time as may be fixed by regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, a bond in an amount equal to the amount as to which the stay is desired, conditioned upon the payment of the amount (together with interest thereon) the collection of which is stayed, at the time at which, but for the making of the jeopardy assessment, such amount would be due. Upon the filing of the bond the collection of so much of the amount assessed as is covered by the bond shall be stayed. The taxpayer shall have the right to waive such stay at any time in respect of the whole or any part of the amount covered by the bond, and if as a result of such waiver any part of the amount covered by the bond is paid, then the bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced. If any portion of the jeopardy assessment is abated, the bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced.

(b) Further conditions in case of income, estate, or gift taxes. In the case of taxes subject to the jurisdiction of the Tax Court—

(1) Prior to petition to Tax Court. If the bond is given before the taxpayer has filed his petition under section 6213 (a), the bond shall contain a further condition that if a petition is not filed within the period provided in such section, then the amount, the collection of which is stayed by the bond, will be paid on notice and demand at any time after the expiration of such period, together with interest thereon from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of notice and demand under this paragraph.

(2) Effect of Tax Court decision. The bond shall be conditioned upon the payment of so much of such assessment (collection of which is stayed by the bond) as is not abated by a decision of the Tax Court which has become final. If the Tax Court determines that the amount assessed is greater than the amount which should have been assessed, then when the decision of the Tax Court is rendered the bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced.

(3) Stay of sale of seized property pending Tax Court decision—(A) General rule. Where, notwithstanding the provisions of section 6213 (a), a jeopardy assessment has been made under section 6861 the property seized for the collection of the tax shall not be sold—

(i) if section 6861 (b) is applicable, prior to the issuance of the notice of deficiency and the expiration of the time provided in section 6213 (a) for filing petition with the Tax Court, and

(ii) if petition is filed with the Tax Court (whether before or after the making of such jeopardy assessment under section 6861), prior to the expiration of the period during which the assessment of the deficiency would be prohibited if section 6861 (a) were not applicable.

(B) Exceptions. Such property may be sold if—

(i) the taxpayer consents to the sale,

(ii) the Secretary or his delegate determines that the expenses of conservation and maintenance will greatly reduce the net proceeds, or

(iii) the property is of the type described in section 6336.

(C) Applicability. Subparagraphs (A) and (B) shall be applicable only with respect to a jeopardy assessment made on or after January 1, 1955, and shall apply with respect to taxes imposed by this title and with respect to taxes imposed by the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

§ 301.6863–1 Stay of collection of jeopardy assessments; bond to stay collection—(a) General rule. (1) The collection of a jeopardy assessment of any tax may be stayed by filing with the district director a bond on the form to be furnished by the district director upon request.

(2) The bond may be filed—

(i) At any time before the time collection by levy is authorized under section 6331 (a), or

(ii) After collection by levy is authorized and before levy is made on any property or rights to property, or

(iii) In the discretion of the district director, after any such levy has been made and before the expiration of the period of limitations on collection.

(3) The bond must be in an amount equal to the portion (including interest thereon to the date of payment as calculated by the district director) of the jeopardy assessment collection of which is sought to be stayed. See section 7101 and the regulations thereunder, relating to the form of bond and the sureties thereon. The bond shall be conditioned upon the payment of the amount (together with interest thereon), the collection of which is stayed, at the time at which, but for the making of the jeopardy assessment, such amount would be due.

(4) Upon the filing of a bond in accordance with this section, the collection of so much of the assesment as is covered by the bond will be stayed. The taxpayer may at any time waive the stay of collection of the whole or any part of the amount covered by the bond. If as a result of such waiver any part of the amount covered by the bond is paid, or if any portion of the jeopardy assessment is abated by the district director, then the bond shall at the request of the taxpayer be proportionately reduced.

(b) Additional conditions applicable to income, estate, and gift tax assessments. In the case of a jeopardy assessment of income, estate, or gift tax, the bond must be conditioned upon the payment of so much of the amount included therein as is not abated by a decision of the Tax Court which has become final, together with the interest on such amount. If the Tax Court determines that the amount assessed is greater than the correct amount of the tax, the bond will be proportionately reduced at the request of the taxpayer after the Tax Court renders its decision. If the bond is given before the taxpayer has filed his petition with the Tax Court, it must contain a further condition that if a petition is not filed before the expiration of the period provided in section 6213 (a) for the filing of such petition, the amount stayed by the bond will be paid upon notice and demand at any time after the expiration of such period, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of the notice and demand made after the expiration of the period for filing petition with the Tax Court.

§ 301.6863–2 Collection of jeopardy assessment; stay of sale of seized property pending Tax Court decision—(a) General rule. In the case of a jeopardy assessment made after December 31, 1954, of income, estate, or gift tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or 1939, any property seized for the collection of such assessment shall not (except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section) be sold—

(1) Until the expiration of the period provided in section 6213 (a) within which the taxpayer may file a petition for redetermination with the Tax Court, and

(2) If a petition for redetermination is filed with the Tax Court (whether before or after the making of the jeopardy assessment), until the decision of the Tax Court becomes final, except that a petition for review of the Tax Court decision will not operate as a further stay of the sale of the seized property unless the taxpayer files a bond as provided in section 7485.

(b) Exceptions. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, any property seized may be sold—

(1) If the taxpayer files with the district director a written consent to the sale, or

(2) If the district director determines that the expenses of conservation and maintenance of the property will greatly reduce the net proceeds from the sale of such property, or

(3) If the property is of a type to which section 6336 (relating to sale of perishable goods) is applicable.

§ 301.6864 Statutory provisions; termination of extended period for payment in case of carryback.

SEC. 6864. Termination of extended period for payment in case of carryback. For termination of extensions of time for payment of income tax granted to corporations expecting carrybacks in case of jeopardy, see section 6164 (h).

BANKRUPTCY AND RECEIVERSHIPS

§ 301.6871 (a) Statutory provisions; claims for income, estate, and gift taxes in bankruptcy and receivership proceedings.

SEC. 6871. Claims for income, estate, and gift taxes in bankruptcy and receivership proceedings—(a) Immediate assessment. Upon the adjudication of bankruptcy of any taxpayer in any liquidating proceeding, the approval of a petition of, or against, any taxpayer in any other bankruptcy proceeding, or the appointment of a receiver for any taxpayer in any receivership proceeding before any court of the United States or of any State or Territory or of the District of Columbia, any deficiency (together with all interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax provided by law) determined by the Secretary or his delegate in respect of a tax imposed by subtitle A or B upon such taxpayer shall, despite the restrictions imposed by section 6213 (a) upon assessments, be immediately assessed if such deficiency has not theretofore been assessed in accordance with law.

§ 301.6871 (a)–1 Immediate assessment of claims for income, estate, and gift taxes in bankruptcy and receivership proceedings. (a) Upon the adjudication of bankruptcy of any taxpayer in any liquidating proceeding, or the approval of a petition of, or against, any taxpayer in any other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act, or the appointment of any receiver for any taxpayer in a receivership proceeding before any court of the United States or of any State or Territory or of the District of Columbia, the district director shall immediately assess any deficiency of income, estate, or gift tax (together with all interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax provided by law), determined by him, if such deficiency has not theretofore been assessed in accordance with law. Such assessment shall be made immediately, whether or not a notice of deficiency has been issued, and without regard to the restrictions upon assessments under section 6213.

(b) As used in this section and §§ 301.6871 (a)–2 to 301.6873–1, inclusive, (1) the term "proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act" includes a proceeding under chapters I to VII, inclusive, of the Bankruptcy Act (11 U. S. C. cc. I–VII), or under section 75 or 77, or chapters X to XIII, inclusive, of such act, or any other proceeding under the act; and (2) the term "approval of a petition • • • in any other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act" includes the filing of a petition under section 75 or chapters XI to XIII, inclusive, of the Bankruptcy Act with a court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 301.6871 (a)–2 Collection of assessed taxes in bankruptcy and receivership proceedings. (a) During a proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or a receivership proceeding in either a Federal or State court, generally the assets of the taxpayer are under the control of the court in which such proceeding is pending, and the collection of taxes cannot be made by levying upon such assets. However, any assets which under applicable provisions of law are not under the control of the court may be subject to levy. See paragraph (b) of this section and § 301.6871 (b)–1 with respect to claims for such taxes. See section 6873 with respect to collection of unpaid claims.

(b) District directors should, promptly after ascertaining the existence of any outstanding liability against a taxpayer in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or in any receivership proceeding, and in any event within the time limited by the appropriate provisions of the Bankruptcy Act, or by the appropriate orders of the court in which such proceeding is pending, file proof of claim covering such liability in the court in which such proceeding is pending. Such proof of claim should be filed whether the unpaid taxes involved have been assessed or not, except in cases where the instructions of the Commissioner direct otherwise; for example, where the payment of the taxes is secured by a sufficient bond. At the same time proof of claim is filed with the bankruptcy or receivership court, the district director will send notice and demand for payment to the taxpayer, together with a copy of such proof of claim.

(c) Under sections 3466 and 3467 of the Revised Statutes and section 64 of the Bankruptcy Act, taxes are entitled to the priority over other claims therein specified, and the trustee, receiver, debtor in possession, or other person designated as in control of the assets of the debtor by the court in which the proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or receivership proceeding is pending, may be held personally liable for failure on his part to protect the priority of the Government respecting taxes of which he has notice. Sections 75 (l), 77 (e), 199, 337 (2), 455, and 659 (6) of the Bankruptcy Act (11 U. S. C. 203 (l), 205 (e), 599, 737 (2), 855, and 1059 (6)) also contain provisions with respect to the rights of the United States relative to priority of payment. For the filing of returns by a trustee in bankruptcy or by a receiver, see section 6012 (b) (3) and 28 U. S. C. 960. Bankruptcy courts have jurisdiction under the Bankruptcy Act to determine all disputes regarding the amount and validity of taxes claimed in a proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act. A proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or receivership proceeding does not discharge any portion of a claim of the United States for taxes except in the case of a proceeding under section 77 or chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act. However, the claim may be settled or compromised as in other cases in court.

(d) For the requirement that a receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or other like fiduciary give notice as to his qualification as such, see section 6036 and the regulations thereunder.

§ 301.6871 (b) Statutory provisions; claims for income, estate, and gift taxes in bankruptcy and receivership proceedings.

SEC. 6871. Claims for income, estate, and gift taxes in bankruptcy and receivership proceedings. • • •

(b) Claim filed despite pendency of Tax Court proceedings. In the case of a tax imposed by subtitle A or B claims for the deficiency and such interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax may be presented, for adjudication in accordance with law, to the court before which the bankruptcy or receivership proceeding is pending, despite the pendency of proceedings for the redetermination of the deficiency in pursuance of a petition to the Tax Court; but no petition for any such redetermination shall be filed with the Tax Court after the adjudication of bankruptcy, approval of the petition in any other bankruptcy proceeding, or the appointment of the receiver.

§ 301.6871 (b)–1 Claims for income, estate, and gift taxes in proceedings under the Bankruptcy Act and receivership proceedings; claim filed despite pendency of Tax Court proceedings. (a) If the district director has determined that a deficiency is due in respect of income, estate, or gift tax and the taxpayer has filed a petition with the Tax Court before the adjudication of bankruptcy in any liquidating proceeding or before the approval of a petition in any other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or before the appointment of a receiver, the trustee, receiver, debtor in possession, or other like fiduciary, may, upon his own motion, be made a party to the Tax Court proceeding and thereafter may prosecute the appeal before the Tax Court as to that particular determination. No petition shall be filed with the Tax Court for a redetermination of the deficiency after the adjudication of bankruptcy in a liquidating proceeding or after the approval of a petition in any other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or after the appointment of a receiver.

(b) Even though the determination of a deficiency is pending before the Tax Court for redetermination, proof of claim for the amount of such deficiency may be filed with the court in which the proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or receivership proceeding is pending without awaiting final decision of the Tax Court. In case of a final decision of the Tax Court before the payment or the disallowance of the claim in the proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or receivership proceeding, a copy of the Tax Court's decision may be filed by the district director with the court in which such proceeding is pending.

(c) While a district director is required by section 6871 (a) to make immediate assessment of any deficiency, such assessment is not made as a jeopardy assessment within the meaning of section 6861, and consequently the provisions of that section do not apply to any assessment made under section 6871. Therefore, the notice of deficiency provided in section 6861 (b) will not be mailed. Although such notice will not be issued, a letter will be sent to the taxpayer or to the trustee, receiver, debtor in possession, or other like fiduciary, notifying him in detail how the deficiency was computed, that he may furnish evidence showing wherein the deficiency is incorrect, and that upon request he will be granted a conference by the district director with respect to such deficiency. However, such letter will not provide for such a conference where a petition was filed with the Tax Court before the adjudication of bankruptcy in a liquidating proceeding, before the approval of a petition in any other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act, or before the appointment of a receiver.

§ 301.6872 Statutory provisions; suspension of period on assessment.

SEC. 6872. Suspension of period on assessment. If the regulations issued pursuant to section 6036 require the giving of notice by any fiduciary in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act, or by a receiver in any other court proceeding, to the Secretary or his delegate of his qualification as such, the running of the period of limitations on the making of assessments shall be suspended for the period from the date of the institution of the proceeding to a date 30 days after the date upon which the notice from the receiver or other fiduciary is received by the Secretary or his delegate; but the suspension under this sentence shall in no case be for a period in excess of 2 years.

§ 301.6872–1 Suspension of running of period of limitations on assessment. If any fiduciary in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act (including a trustee, receiver, or debtor in possession) or a receiver in any other court proceeding is required, pursuant to section 6036, to give notice in writing to the district director of his qualification as such, then the running of the period of limitations on assessment shall be suspended from the date the proceeding is instituted to the date such notice is received by the district director, and for an additional 30 days thereafter. However, the suspension under this section of the running of the period of limitation on assessment shall in no case exceed 2 years.

SEC. 6873. Unpaid claims—(a) General rule. Any portion of a claim for taxes allowed in a receivership proceeding or any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act which is unpaid shall be paid by the taxpayer upon notice and demand from the Secretary or his delegate after the termination of such proceeding.

(b) Cross references. (1) For suspension of running of period of limitations on collection, see section 6503 (b).

(2) For extension of time for payment, see section 6161 (c).

§ 301.6873–1 Unpaid claims in bankruptcy or receivership proceedings. (a) If any portion of the claim allowed by the court in a receivership proceeding, or in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act, remains unpaid after the termination of such proceeding, the district director will send notice and demand for payment thereof to the taxpayer. Such unpaid portion with interest as provided in section 6601 may be collected from the taxpayer by levy or proceeding in court within the period of limitation for collection after assessment. For the general rule as to such period of limitation, see section 6502, and for suspensions of the running of the period provided in section 6502, see, for example, section 6503. For suspensions under other provisions of law, see, for example, section 11f of the Bankruptcy Act (11 U. S. C. 29 (f)). Extension of time for the payment of such unpaid amount may be granted in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations as provided in section 6161 (c).

(b) Section 6873 is applicable only where a claim for taxes is allowed in a receivership proceeding or in a proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act. Claims for taxes, interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax may be collectible in equity or under other provisions of law although no claim was allowed in the proceeding because, for example, such items were not included in a proof of claim filed in the proceeding or no proof of claim was filed. Except in the case of a proceeding under section 77 or chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act, a tax or a liability in respect thereof is not discharged by a proceeding under such act, whether or not a claim is filed in such proceeding, and provisions suspending the running of the period of limitation on the collection of taxes are applicable, whether or not a claim is filed in such proceeding.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter VI—Business and Defense Services Administration, Department of Commerce

[BDSA Order M–41, Direction 1 of March 27, 1957]

M–41—METALWORKING MACHINES: DELIVERY

DIR. 1—SCHEDULING OF METALWORKING MACHINES BEARING SPECIFIED URGENCY STANDING NUMBERS

This direction under BDSA Order M–41, as amended February 5, 1954, is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this direction, consultation with industry representatives has been rendered impracticable due to the need for immediate action.

Sec.
1. What this direction does.
2. Scheduling of deliveries by producers of metalworking machines.
3. Effect of this direction on BDSA Order M–41.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 3 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended, sec. 1, Pub. Law 632, 84th Cong., 70 Stat. 406; 50 U. S. C. App. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, as amended, sec. 705, 64 Stat. 816, as amended, sec. 1, Pub. Law 632, 84th Cong., 70 Stat. 406; 50 U. S. C. App. 2071, 2155; E. O. 10480, 18 F. R. 4939; 3 CFR, 1953 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this direction does. This direction establishes a procedure for the scheduling of deliveries of metalworking machines the rated purchase orders for which are identified by urgency standing numbers 1 through 30 on the Numerical Preference List issued on or after March 15, 1957. It is designed to insure that deliveries of metalworking machines thus identified will receive priority over delivery of metalworking machines to service purchasers on rated orders which are not so identified. This direction affects only those producers of metalworking machines who have or receive rated orders identified by urgency standing numbers 1 through 30 on the Numerical Preference List issued on or after March 15, 1957.

SEC. 2. Scheduling of deliveries by producers of metalworking machines. (a) A producer after determining the number of metalworking machines of each size which he is required to deliver on rated orders for any month to service purchasers pursuant to section 3 of BDSA Order M-41 will first schedule for delivery during that month those rated orders for metalworking machines required in that month or sooner which are identified by urgency standing numbers 1 through 30 on the Numerical Preference List, without regard to individual service group quotas but within total service group quotas. The delivery sequence of metalworking machines identified by urgency standing numbers 1 through 30 scheduled for delivery pursuant to this paragraph shall be in accordance with their urgency standing numbers on the Numerical Preference List.

(b) After scheduling the deliveries of each size of metalworking machines as provided in paragraph (a) of this section a producer shall then subtract the number of metalworking machines of that size scheduled for delivery pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section from the total service group quota for that size in order to determine the balances remaining for delivery to service groups. The producer will then schedule for delivery such balances, if any, in accordance with service group quotas for the delivery month, computed as provided in sections 4 and 6 of BDSA Order M-41, except that in computing the total net backlog, and the net backlog of each service group, he shall exclude those rated orders identified by urgency standing numbers 1 through 30.

SEC. 3. Effect of this direction on BDSA Order M-41. Except as herein specifically provided the provisions of BDSA Order M-41 remain in full force and effect.

This direction shall take effect March 27, 1957.

BUSINESS AND DEFENSE SERVICES ADMINISTRATION,
H. B. MCCOY,
Administrator.

PART 203—BRIDGE REGULATIONS

SOUTH FORK OF NEW RIVER, FLORIDA

Pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894 (28 Stat. 362; 33 U. S. C. 499), § 203.446b is hereby prescribed to govern the operation of the State Road Department of Florida bridge (State Road No. 84) across the South Fork of New River, Mile 4.4, near Fort Lauderdale, Florida, as follows:

§ 203.446b South Fork of New River, Fla.; State Road Department of Florida bridge (State Road No. 84) at Mile 4.4, near Fort Lauderdale, Fla. The owner or agency controlling the bridge will not be required to keep a draw tender constantly on duty. An advance notice of at least 24 hours will be required to open the drawspan.

Chapter II—Federal Maritime Board, Maritime Administration, Department of Commerce

[Gen. Order 22, 3d Rev., Amdt. 4, WSA Function Series]

PART 310—MERCHANT MARINE TRAINING

SUBPART A—REGULATIONS AND MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR STATE MARITIME ACADEMIES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Effective as of July 1, 1956, §§ 310.2 (a) (5) (iii), 310.6, 310.7, 310.8 (a), and 310.10 (b), are hereby amended as follows:

§ 310.2 Federal aid and finances—(a) Annual grant and loan of training vessel. • • •

(5) • • •

(iii) Per capita costs for out-of-state students shall be paid by the Maritime Administration, and shall be computed annually by using the cost figures of the State Maritime Academies for the preceding fiscal year. To determine this cost the total average number of state cadets for the preceding fiscal year will be divided into the net operating cost of operating the Academy for such fiscal year that was paid from funds supplied by the State Government. Vouchers, Standard Form 1034, covering per capita costs of such students will be submitted monthly, after the determination of the per capita costs, and shall be accompanied by a list of the cadets who have been nominated.

§ 310.6 Entrance standards. (a) A candidate for admission to a State Maritime Academy or College must be a male citizen of the United States and qualify as a Merchant Marine student, as set forth in Department of the Navy, Bureau of Naval Personnel Recruiting Service Note 199-56, dated August 3, 1956, and after December 31, 1956, as incorporated in the Recruiting Service Manual. Such Merchant Marine student shall also agree in writing to apply, at an appropriate time, prior to graduation, for a commission as Ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve and to accept such commission if tendered: Provided, however, That a waiver of this requirement may be made by the Maritime Administrator, if the physical defects noted in the Navy examination are not such as to disqualify the candidate physically for a license in the Merchant Marine, in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the United States Coast Guard: And provided further, That all Cadets who have been granted a waiver by the Maritime Administrator and who have received the uniform, textbook and subsistence allowance, must agree in writing to apply, at an appropriate time, prior to graduation, for a commission as Ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve and accept the commission of tendered. Students appointed to the State Maritime Academies or College who receive a Federal subsistence and uniform and textbook allowance, shall not be less than 17 years of age and they shall not have reached their 22nd birthday on the year appointed to the State Maritime Academy or College. The State may fix the age limits of students not receiving the subsistence, uniform and textbook allowance. However, the physical and other requirements in the case of these students shall not be less than required by the U. S. Coast Guard for licensing as a Merchant Marine officer.

§ 310.7 Enrollment. To be eligible, a candidate who has qualified under the provisions of § 310.6 for the uniform, textbook and subsistence allowance will be enrolled in the United States Maritime Service. Upon enrollment, he shall be required to take an oath or affirmation of allegiance to the United States of America, and submit to fingerprinting and a copy of form MA-2016 shall be furnished to the Administrator.

§ 310.8 Uniforms, textbooks and subsistence. (a) Each Cadet who has been admitted to a State Maritime Academy or State Maritime College, who has qualified as a Merchant Marine student as set forth in § 310.6 or has been granted a waiver by the Maritime Administrator and has been enrolled in the U. S. Maritime Service, may upon recommendation to the Administrator, by the Superintendent of the Academy or President of the College, be granted a uniform, textbook and subsistence allowance at the rate provided therefor in the applicable appropriation act for each fiscal year, payable monthly. The subsistence allowance will be paid directly to the Cadet concerned or, if approval is granted by the Administrator, to the State Maritime Academy or College upon presentation of a statement, containing the names of the Cadets for whom subsistence has been furnished during that month and such other information as may be required by the Administrator. The uniform and textbook allowances will be paid either directly to the Cadet concerned or, with the approval of the Administrator, to the State Maritime Academy or College upon certification by the Superintendent or President thereof, respectively, that such allowances will be credited to the account of each Cadet. No Cadet will be granted a uniform, textbook, or subsistence allowance for any time during which he is absent without leave for a condition not in line of duty.

§ 310.10 Medical attention and injury claims. • • •

(b) Compensation claims of Cadets. Compensation claims for personal injuries or death sustained by a Cadet enrolled in the Maritime Service in performance of duty shall be forwarded to the Administrator for transmission to the Bureau of Employees' Compensation.

(Sec. 4, 55 Stat. 607; 34 U. S. C. 1123d)

Dated: March 18, 1957.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

PART 33—CENTRAL REGION

SUBPART—UPPER MISSISSIPPI RIVER WILD LIFE AND FISH REFUGE, ILLINOIS, IOWA, MINNESOTA, AND WISCONSIN

HUNTING

Basis and purpose. On the basis of investigations by representatives of the Illinois Department of Conservation, Iowa State Conservation Commission, Minnesota Department of Conservation, Wisconsin Conservation Department, and of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, and after a consideration of the public expressions resulting from meetings which have been held in various cities and towns adjacent to the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge, I have determined that public hunting may be permitted, from time to time, on certain lands of the said refuge without interfering with the primary purpose of the area.

Inasmuch as the following regulation is a modification of the existing restrictions applicable to hunting on the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge that will accomplish more adequately the purposes for which the refuge was established, notice and public procedure thereon are not required (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

Effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, §§ 33.274 and 33.275 are revised to read as follows:

§ 33.274 Hunting permitted. The hunting of upland game birds and game mammals and the hunting of migratory game birds is permitted within the open areas of the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge subject to the following conditions, restrictions, and requirements:

(a) State laws. Any person who hunts within the refuge must comply with all applicable State laws and regulations, and hunting is not permitted at any time when State law or regulation does not allow such hunting.

(b) Hunting licenses and permits. Any person who hunts within the refuge shall be in possession of a valid State hunting license if such license is required, which license shall serve as a Federal permit for hunting on lands of the refuge.

(c) Federal hunting laws. Any person hunting migratory game birds within the open areas of the refuge must comply with the regulations prescribed under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

(d) Hunting season and open areas. During the period commencing on the first day of the migratory waterfowl hunting season until March 1 of each succeeding year, public hunting is permitted on all the lands under the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife except within the closed areas as defined in § 33.275, provided that the hunting of deer with bow and arrow may be permitted in advance of the migratory waterfowl hunting season.

(e) Entry. Entry on and use of the refuge for any purpose are governed by the regulations in Parts 18 and 21 of this chapter, and strict compliance therewith is required. Persons entering the refuge for the purpose of hunting shall follow such routes of travel as may be designated by suitable posting by the refuge officer in charge. Hunters, when entering or leaving a public hunting area, must report to representatives of the bureau or of the State at such checking stations as may be established for the purpose of regulating the hunt.

§ 33.275 Closed areas. The following areas are designated as areas closed to hunting, and all hunting is prohibited thereon except that the hunting of upland game birds and mammals, in compliance with the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of § 33.274, is permitted on such closed areas from the first day after the close of the migratory waterfowl hunting season until the last day of the respective State open season or until March 1, whichever date shall occur first.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 966]

[Docket No. AO–257–A3]

HANDLING OF MILK IN SHREVEPORT, LA., MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS THERETO WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.) and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Shreveport, Louisiana, marketing area.

Interested parties may file written exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the third day after the filing, by the Deputy Administrator of this recommended decision. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. A public hearing, on the record of which the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order amending the order, as amended, were formulated, was held at Shreveport, Louisiana, on February 4–5, 1957, pursuant to notice thereof issued January 24, 1957 (22 F. R. 568). The material issues of record related to:

1. Distributing plant definition—Item 1.
2. Supply plant definition—Item 2.
3. A new definition providing for "associated producer"—Items 3–6, Items 8–12.
4. Class I price—Item 7.
5. Class II price—Item 7.
6. A new provision establishing a "shrink milk price"—Item 7.
7. Computation of daily average base for each producer—Item 13.
8. A new provision for the use of equivalent prices—Item 14.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on Issue No. 3 are based upon evidence received at the hearing and the record thereof. Expedited action is recommended in order to effectuate, at the earliest date, the recommendations contained herein.

Proposals concerning the remaining issues also need to be studied and analyzed in order that the Department may recommend action thereon at a later date.

Therefore, the entire record of this hearing is reserved and shall remain open for future study and analysis in order to take action described above.

3. The order should be amended to provide for the sharing of returns for milk among producers and associated producers. The Northwest Louisiana Pure Milk Producers' Association proposed that the proceeds from each handler's sales of milk should be apportioned equitably among all dairy farmers who supplied milk to Shreveport handlers during the preceding months of September through December. The Association represents a large portion of the dairy farmers who supply milk to handlers regulated by Order No. 66.

One handler testified in opposition to the effect that the proposal, if adopted, could interfere with his quality control program.

The months of September through December are the usual months of lowest production relative to Class I sales in the Shreveport market. Under the proposal, dairy farmers who supplied milk to a handler during the specified period, but whose milk was rejected by such handler during part or all of some later month, would qualify as an "associated producer" for the rejected milk.

Ordinarily, such milk is disposed of by the Association to manufacturing plants at prices nearly equal to the Class II price, less hauling. The producers' association proposed that rejected milk be included in the handler's pool when the market administrator computes the handler's uniform price. The handler would then be required to pay to the market administrator an amount equal to the difference between his adjusted uniform price(s) and the Class II price on the volume of milk designated as "associated producer milk". The market administrator would deposit such payments into a separate fund, and distribute it among associated producers.

The effect of this proposal would be that the handlers' total obligation for milk at class prices would remain unchanged. However, the uniform price payable to those producers whose milk was received at the handler's plant would be reduced.

The reduction in value would be paid to associated producers. If associated producers obtained the order Class II price for rejected milk, the additional payment received from the market administrator would yield a return equal to the handler's uniform price.

During the spring and summer of 1955, about forty producers, all of whom were members of a cooperative association, were cut off the market. After the rejection of such milk, total producer deliveries were about 102 percent of Class I sales at individual plants. The cooperative association was required to remove from the market all milk in excess of that percentage.

During the same period in 1956, while no cooperative members were actually "cut off" the market, the Association had an agreement with handlers whereby it would, after prior notice, market its members' milk off the market. An Association witness testified that handlers do not always give sufficient prior notice to locate best available outlets for excess milk. Because the amount of excess production is small and variable, the Association has not been able to negotiate long-range contracts to dispose of such milk. Consequently, most excess milk must be disposed of on a "spot" shipment basis. At the same time, other source milk for Class II utilization has been brought on the market. Whenever the Association has had to move milk off the Shreveport market, the blend price that the Association pays its members is lower that the uniform prices paid by handlers to nonmembers. Prior to the order, all producers received the same blend prices.

The cooperative association, which represents a large portion of the producers supplying milk to the market, is adversely affected by these practices. Under the order, handlers generally have refused to accept responsibility for pooling any milk not actually used in their own plant. As a result, the cooperative association has become responsible for nearly all the milk disposed of for manufacturing outside the market, since it is obligated to market its members' milk. At the same time, nonmembers, whose milk is accepted by handlers, receive a higher blend price.

These practices are disruptive to orderly marketing of milk. The rejection of milk sometimes has been arbitrary.

The Class I price provisions of the order were established on the basis that producers could rely on a steady market for their fluid milk. This would enable them to amortize the costs incurred in producing Grade A milk for the market. The Class I price would have to be quite high in a few months of the year in order to justify the investment producers made for Grade A production, if marketing practices permit them to share in the Class I utilization of the market for only a short time each year.

It is concluded that the order should be amended to provide for the equalization of Class I sales among regular producers and associated producers supplying each handler regulated by the order.

Only handlers are permitted to divert milk. This may be done during the months April through June. However, the diverting privilege for handlers should apply in all months of the year. This will enable the associated producer provisions to operate fully. It is recognized that if handlers avail themselves of the diverting privilege, there would be no need to utilize the less direct reporting and payment procedures of the associated producer provisions. No proposal was submitted to amend the handler definition to include a cooperative association with respect to diverted milk. Likewise, the producer definition should not be amended to provide for this.

The months September through December are the months of lowest production, relative to Class I sales. During these months, producer receipts have not been sufficient to supply Class I outlets completely. Producer deliveries to handlers during a major portion of these months would be appropriate for determining which producers regularly supply a particular handler.

Producer milk during these months, if later rejected by the handler and sold to a nonfluid milk plant that manufactured Class II products, would qualify as "associated producer milk", and the dairy farmer delivering the milk would qualify as an "associated producer". Milk could be rejected without much prior notice; consequently, such rejected milk should qualify as associated producer milk for the month during which it is first rejected. Thereafter, the shipper should mail to the market administrator an offer to deliver milk to the handler to whom he regularly delivered milk during the qualifying period. The market administrator should send each handler a list of the dairy farmers who submitted offers to deliver milk. The list should be sent to the handler not later than the 5th day of the month for which it applies.

The requirement that the rejected milk be sold to a nonfluid milk plant manufacturing Class II products serves two purposes. It removes the incentive for a producer to deny milk to a handler and to sell it elsewhere for Class I utilization. It also facilitates the movement of milk among regulated handlers, thereby assuring that milk will not unnecessarily be designated as associated producer milk.

The associated producer would have to maintain health department approval. Milk rejected by any duly constituted health authority for sanitary reasons would not qualify as associated producer milk.

The producers' proposal designated the marketing area health authority as the agency responsible for health department approval. The order does not now limit health department Grade A approval to the agency having jurisdiction for the marketing area, and the record contains no evidence supporting a change of this kind. The reference to health department, therefore, should not be changed.

The volume of rejected milk qualifying as associated producer milk should be determined after the end of the month. The first step in this process is that the associated producer notify the market administrator by the 5th day of the month the quantity of milk sold to a nonfluid milk plant during the preceding month, which during such month manufactured Class II products. By the 12th of the month, he should furnish the market administrator with his daily weight slips, pay statements, or other evidence of the quantity sold and the average butterfat test. These quantities will be used by the market administrator, along with the handler's report of receipts and utilization, to compute the handler's uniform price. On or before the 10th day after the end of the month the market administrator should send each handler a notice specifying the amount payable to the market administrator for associated producer milk.

The associated producer milk is included in the handler's blend price computation at the Class II price, since this is the order value attributable to it according to its actual use. The producer location adjustments and producer butterfat differential would be applied to the associated producer milk in exactly the same fashion as if it had been accounted for as producer milk by the handler. The handler's obligation on the associated producer milk would be the difference between its value at the handler's adjusted uniform price(s) and its value at the Class II price. It will be noted that since the associated producer milk is included in the handler's utilization value at the Class II price, and subtracted out of his payments to associated producers at the same Class II price, the handler's total obligation for milk is not changed; only the distribution of the total amount among producers and associated producers is altered.

The handler should be obligated to remit the value of the associated producer milk to the market administrator by the 12th day of the month. These funds will be deposited by the market administrator in a separate account and paid to producers on or before the 15th day of the month. By such date the market administrator will have received from producers actual payment statements or other acceptable evidence of the quantity and butterfat test, and the price received for the milk sold by the producer to a plant which, during the month, manufactured Class II products.

The market administrator will incur as much, if not more, expense in accounting for the associated producer milk as he will in connection with the producer milk. The same rate of assessment should, therefore, be charged on the associated producer milk and it should be paid by the handler to whom the milk is assigned.

It was proposed in the hearing notice that the marketing service charge be levied by the market administrator on this milk to provide for check-testing, information, and similar services, and that the corresponding authorized deductions be allowed on associated producer milk produced by members of cooperative associations. Proponents did not support the proposal at the hearing. Since the milk is actually sold to manufacturing plants not connected with the market, the market administrator has no authorization to enter such plants to perform the specified services. It is concluded, therefore, that the marketing service charge should not be deducted from the payments made for associated producer milk.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feed and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed marketing agreement and order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a proposed marketing agreement and order upon which a hearing has been held.

(d) It is hereby found that the necessary expenses of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to (a) all receipts of milk from producers within the month, including milk of such handler's own production, (b) associated producer milk, (c) any other source milk allocated to Class I, and (d) Class I milk distributed on routes in the marketing area from nonfluid milk plants.

Rulings. Briefs were filed on behalf of interested parties. The proposed findings and conclusions and the arguments contained in these briefs were considered in making the findings and reaching the conclusions in this decision. To the extent that any proposed findings and conclusions in the briefs are at variance with the findings and conclusions of this decision, such proposed findings and conclusions are denied for the reasons set forth in support of the findings and conclusions of this decision on the issue to which the proposed findings and conclusions related.

Recommended marketing agreement and order, as amended. The following amendments to the order, as amended, are recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be identical with those contained in the order, as amended, and as proposed to be further amended:

1. Add new §§ 966.13a and 966.13b as follows:

§ 966.13a Associated producer. "Associated producer" means a person who, with respect to any milk not accepted at a fluid milk plant or diverted from it by a handler in any month, meets all of the following qualifications:

(a) Produces milk in conformity with the sanitation requirements of any duly constituted health authority relating to milk for fluid consumption;

(b) Delivered milk for not less than 60 days during the preceding months of September through December, which milk was received at or diverted from a fluid milk plant; and

(c) Certifies in writing to the market administrator, on or before the first day of any month following the first month in which any of his milk is not accepted at or diverted from a fluid milk plant, that he is ready and willing to deliver his milk to such fluid milk plant, and does so perform in response to appropriate request from the handler through the market administrator.

§ 966.13b Associated producer milk. "Associated producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat sold during the month by associated producers to a nonfluid milk plant(s) which, during such month, utilized skim milk and butterfat in products designated pursuant to § 966.41 (b) (1): Provided, That the sale of such milk by associated producers is reported to and verified by the market administrator pursuant to § 966.32 (c).

2. Amend §§ 966.19 and 966.20 to read as follows:

§ 966.19 Base milk. "Base milk" means producer milk received by a handler and associated producer milk assigned to such handler during the base-operating period, which milk is not in excess of bases computed pursuant to § 966.80.

§ 966.20 Excess milk. "Excess milk" means producer milk received by a handler and associated producer milk assigned to such handler during the base-operating period, which milk is in excess of the base milk received during the month, and shall include all milk received from producers for whom no daily average base can be computed pursuant to § 966.80.

3. Delete § 966.27 (k) and insert the following:

(k) Mail to each handler at his last known address a statement showing for such handler:

(1) On or before the 5th day of the month the names and addresses of associated producers assigned to such handler:

(2) On or before the 12th day after the end of the the month (i) the amount and value of producer milk in each class and the total thereof; (ii) for the months of the base-operating period, the amounts and value of his base and excess milk, respectively; and

(3) On or before the 10th day of the month the quantity and butterfat test of associated producer milk assigned to such handler and the amount in payment thereof to be remitted to the market administrator for payment to associated producers pursuant to § 966.90 (f): Provided, That during the base-operating period such notification shall include the quantity and butterfat test of associated producer milk designated as base and excess milk and the amount thereon to be remitted.

4. Add a new § 966.32 (c) as follows:

(c) Each associated producer shall submit to the market administrator (1) on or before the 3d day of the month, a statement of the quantity and butterfat test of his milk sold during the preceding month to a nonfluid milk plant which during such month utilized skim milk and butterfat in products designated pursuant to § 966.41 (b) (1), and (2) on or before the 12th day of the month, payment statements, weight slips, or other acceptable evidence to verify the quantity and butterfat test of milk sold pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

5. In § 966.71, amend paragraph (a) and add a new paragraph designated (a–1), as follows:

(a) Add to the amount computed pursuant to § 966.70 an amount equal to the volume of associated producer milk assigned to such handler pursuant to § 966.27 (k) (3) multiplied by the Class II price;

(a–1) Add or subtract for each one-tenth of one percent that the average butterfat content of producer milk received by such handler and associated producer milk assigned to such handler is less or more, respectively, than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers determined pursuant to § 966.91 and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk and associated producer milk.

6. Delete the first sentence in § 966.72 and substitute the following: "For each month which is not in the base-operating period, the market administrator shall compute the uniform price for producer milk received by each handler by dividing the aggregate value computed pursuant to § 966.71 by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by, and associated producer milk assigned to, such handler."

7. Add a new § 966.90 (f) as follows:

(f) On or before the 12th day after the end of the month, each handler having associated producer milk shall remit to the market administrator for payment to associated producers an amount computed by multiplying the quantity of associated producer milk assigned to such handler pursuant to § 966.27 (k) (3) by the difference between such handler's uniform price(s) as determined pursuant to §§ 966.72 or 966.73, as applicable, and the Class II price determined pursuant to § 966.51 (b). Such amounts shall be maintained by the market administrator in a separate fund out of which he shall, on or before the 15th day after the end of the month, make appropriate payment to each associated producer, such payments to be verified pursuant to § 966.32 (c) (2).

8. In § 966.92 after the word "producers" insert "and associated producers", and after the word "received" add a comma and insert "or assigned as associated producer milk".

9. At the end of § 966.94 (b) delete the word "and"; at the end of § 966.94 (c) change the period to a comma and add the following: "and (d) associated producer milk."

10. In § 966.12 (b) delete "months of April through June" and insert "month".

Filed at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of March 1957.

Deputy Administrator.

[7 CFR Part 993]

[Docket No. AO–201–A3]

DRIED PRUNES PRODUCED IN CALIFORNIA

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the Old Mint Building, Room 226–A, Fifth Street at Mission Street, San Francisco, California, beginning at 9:30 a. m., P. s. t., April 8, 1957, with respect to proposed amendments to the marketing agreement and order, as amended (7 CFR Part 993), regulating the handling of dried prunes produced in California. These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

The public hearing will be held for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the proposed amendments which are hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modifications thereof.

The following amendments are proposed by the Prune Administrative Committee, the agency administering this program:

1. Amend § 993.10 Handle by deleting the same and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

§ 993.10 Handle. "Handle" means to receive, process, package, repackage, sell, consign, transport, or ship or in any other way to place prunes in the current of commerce (except as a carrier of prunes owned by another person), whatever may be the ultimate destination or end use of the prunes: Provided, That this term shall not include: (a) The selling or delivering of prunes by a producer or dehydrator to a producer, dehydrator, or handler within the State of California; (b) the receiving of prunes by a producer or dehydrator from a producer or dehydrator; and (c) the buying, receiving, selling, or otherwise dealing by a person with prunes which have already been handled within the meaning of this definition by another person, but this exclusion shall be of no effect for the purpose of applying the applicable restrictions of § 993.49 or § 993.50 to the subsequent handling of prunes in the event a handler's prunes are excepted from restrictions in the manner specified in § 993.49 (e) (1) or § 993.50 (c), nor shall this exclusion be of effect in the event that prunes are repackaged within the continental United States into consumer packages insofar as concerns the requirement as to minimum size per pound prescribed in §§ 993.49 (b) (2) and 993.50 (c) and insofar as concerns pack specifications as to size as are prescribed pursuant to § 993.49 (b) (3) or (c), whichever may then be applicable.

2. Renumber present § 993.20 Part and subpart as § 993.21 and insert, immediately prior thereto, a new § 993.20 reading as follows:

§ 993.20 Consumer package. "Consumer package" means any container holding less than 10 pounds of prunes.

3. Amend paragraph (b) of § 993.49 Regulation of the handling of prunes subsequent to their receipt by handlers by deleting the same and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(b) Regulation—(1) Grade. Continuing until such grade regulation is superseded by other grade regulations prescribed by the Secretary, except as otherwise specifically provided, no handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of natural condition prunes or of processed prunes, which fail to meet the applicable minimum standards set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A) for standard prunes or standard processed prunes.

(2) Size. No handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of natural condition prunes or of processed prunes in a consumer package unless the average count of the prunes contained therein is 100 or less per pound. No person shall repackage prunes into consumer packages within the continental United States unless the average count of the prunes packed in each such consumer package is 100 or less per pound.

(3) Establishment of pack specifications as to size. The Secretary shall, upon the recommendation of the committee and/or other available information, prescribe pack specifications for the packing of prunes in consumer packages according to such commercially recognized size categories as may be deemed to be reasonably appropriate, and also such tolerances for use in connection with such size categories as may be deemed to be reasonable and appropriate. Continuing until such pack specifications are superseded by other pack specifications prescribed by the Secretary, no handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of natural condition prunes or of processed prunes in consumer packages unless such prunes are packed in accordance with such specifications as to size. No person shall repackage prunes into consumer packages within the continental United States unless such prunes are packed in accordance with such specifications as to size.

4. Amend paragraph (c) Superseding regulation of said § 993.49 to read as follows:

(c) Superseding regulation. In case the committee should recommend to the Secretary that the minimum standards as to grade and/or the pack specifications as to size, as provided for respectively in subparagraphs (1) and (3) of paragraph (b) of this section, should be superseded by other minimum standards as to grade and/or pack specifications as to size, it shall submit its recommendation to the Secretary, together with the data and information upon which it acted in making such recommendation, and such other information as the Secretary may request. The Secretary, upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the committee and/or other available information, shall issue such superseding regulation if he finds that to do so would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Any such superseding regulation, insofar as it applies to grade, shall not be below the applicable minimum standards for grades of standard prunes or standard processed prunes, as set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A). Any such minimum standards for grades shall provide a maximum tolerance for total defects, and may provide a maximum tolerance for single defects or classes of defects. Any such pack specifications as to size shall provide reasonable and appropriate tolerances for each of the respective size categories. Any superseding regulation issued by the Secretary may subsequently be modified, suspended, or terminated in case he finds that the pertinent facts and circumstances so warrant, and the committee, in submitting any recommendation therefor to the Secretary shall, in each instance, submit to him the information and data on the basis of which such recommendation is made: Provided, That, at all times, the regulation as to grade shall be comparable, so far as practicable, to the then current regulation in effect with respect to the receiving of natural condition prunes by handlers from producers or dehydrators. So long as any superseding regulation is in effect, each handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of natural condition prunes or of processed prunes in conformity therewith. The committee shall promptly give reasonable publicity to producers, dehydrators, and handlers of each recommendation submitted by it to the Secretary and of each superseding regulation issued by the Secretary. Such publicity may be given through newspapers having general circulation in the area or through other channels, but the committee may use any or all of such media. In addition, the committee shall give written notice by registered mail of each superseding regulation issued by the Secretary to all handlers of whom the committee has a record.

5. Amend paragraph (d) Inspection of said § 993.49 to read as follows:

(d) Inspection. (1) Each handler shall, at his own expense, before shipping or otherwise making final disposition of prunes, unless they are specifically excepted in this section, cause an inspection to be made of such prunes to determine whether they meet the minimum size requirement and the then applicable grade standards and pack specifications as to size for standard prunes or standard processed prunes. Each such handler shall not ship or otherwise make final disposition of such prunes for any use (unless they are specifically excepted in this section), if they do not meet such minimum standards or pack specifications. Such handler shall obtain a certificate that such prunes meet the aforementioned minimum grade standards, minimum size requirement, and pack specifications and, in the case of consumer packages, that they are properly labelled as to pack specification, and such handler shall submit such certificate, or cause it to be submitted, together with such other instruments and records as the committee may require, to the committee. Such certificates shall be issued by inspectors of the Dried Fruit Association of California, No. 1 Drumm Street, San Francisco, California. The Secretary may designate another inspection agency in the event the services of the Dried Fruit Association of California prove unsatisfactory. Except as modified in the next succeeding sentence, each consumer package in every shipment or other final disposition of natural condition prunes or processed prunes shall be identified by an appropriate label, seal, stamp, or tag, affixed to such container by the handler under the supervision of the committee or an inspector of the Dried Fruit Association of California, showing the particular pack specification as to the size of the prunes in such package.

(2) Any person who repackages prunes into consumer packages within the continental United States shall, with respect to the minimum size requirement, comply with the inspection and certification requirements of this paragraph, and, with respect to pack specifications as to size, comply with the inspection, certification, and labelling requirements of this paragraph. Provided, That, if such repackaging occurs within the continental United States outside of California, he shall have such repackaged prunes inspected and certified by the Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Branch of the United States Department of Agriculture.

6. Amend paragraph (a) of § 993.50 by deleting the same and, in lieu thereof, inserting the following:

(a) Determination. If, prior to or at any time during a crop year, the Secretary should find that the estimated season average price for prunes for that crop year will be in excess of the price level contemplated by the provisions of section 2 (1) of the act, he shall issue an order in which such finding is set forth, and, in such order, he may provide that, for such crop year or remaining portion thereof, as the case may be, the handling of prunes shall be in accordance with the provisions set forth in this section.

7. Amend paragraph (c) of § 993.50 Regulation of the handling of prunes during any crop year when the estimated season average price is in excess of parity to read as follows:

(c) Disposition of prunes by handlers. In lieu of the requirements set forth in § 993.49, no handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of prunes (regardless of whether natural condition or processed prunes), for human consumption as prunes, which fail to meet the applicable minimum standards as to grade set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A) for natural condition prunes or processed prunes, as the case may be: Provided, That the average count of the prunes in any consumer package shall not exceed 100 per pound. No person shall repackage prunes into consumer packages within the continental United States unless the average count of prunes in each such package is 100 or less per pound. Also, no handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of natural condition prunes or of processed prunes for use in the manufacture of any prune product for human consumption as food, which fail to meet the applicable minimum standards set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A) for natural condition prunes or processed prunes, as the case may be, which relate to the defects of mold, insect infestation, imbedded dirt, and decay. Any handler may ship or otherwise make final disposition of any natural condition prunes or of any processed prunes, as the case may be, for any use other than those referred to in the first and third sentences of this paragraph. Such disposition without regard to quality of prunes shall include, but is not limited to, disposition for animal feed, botanicals, and distillation. Each handler shall, at his own expense, before shipping or otherwise making final disposition of prunes, cause an inspection to be made by the Dried Fruit Association of California to determine whether they meet all applicable grade standards and the minimum size requirement, as set forth in this paragraph, and he shall obtain from that inspection agency a certificate that such prunes meet the aforementioned applicable requirements and submit such certificate, or cause it to be submitted, together with such other instruments and records as the committee may require, to the committee. Any person who repackages prunes into consumer packages within the continental United States shall, with respect to the minimum size requirement prescribed in this paragraph for prunes in consumer packages, comply with the inspection and certification requirements of this paragraph: Provided, That, if such repackaging occurs within the continental United States outside of California, he shall have such repackaged prunes inspected and certified by the Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Branch of the United States Department of Agriculture. Notwithstanding the aforesaid restrictions, any handler may transfer prunes from one plant owned by him to another plant owned by him within the State of California, and any handler may ship prunes from his plant to another handler's plant within the State of California, without having such inspection made and certificate issued. A report of each inter-handler transfer shall be made promptly by the transferring handler to the committee, and the receiving handler shall, before shipping or making final disposition of such prunes, comply with the requirements of this paragraph. The committee is hereby authorized to exercise such supervision as may be reasonably necessary to insure that prunes are disposed of for the respective uses for which they were intended, and that the prunes used for the particular purpose meet the grade and minimum size requirements prescribed in this paragraph.

8. Delete paragraph (d) of § 993.50 and reletter paragraphs (e) and (f) of said section as (d) and (e), respectively.

9. Add a new section, § 993.64, immediately after § 993.63, reading as follows:

§ 993.64 Disposition of unsold surplus tonnage in case of a determination during a crop year that the estimated season average price for prunes for that crop year will exceed parity. In the event the Secretary should find, during a crop year when surplus tonnage withholding requirements have been in effect pursuant to this part, that the estimated season average price for prunes for that crop year will be in excess of the price level contemplated by the provisions of section 2 (1) of the act, he shall issue an order providing for the disposition of the unsold surplus tonnage (standard and substandard) then on hand in such outlets, at such times, and in accordance with such terms and conditions as he may determine to be appropriate in the circumstances. In determining what terms and conditions shall be imposed, the Secretary shall give consideration to recommendations, if any, which may be submitted by the committee.

10. Amend paragraph (c) Use and refund of excess funds from assessments of § 993.81 Assessments to read as follows:

(c) Use and refund of excess funds from assessments. Any money collected as assessments during any crop year and not expended in connection with the respective crop year's operations hereunder may be used and shall be refunded by the committee in accordance with the provisions hereof. Such excess funds may be used by the committee during the period of five months subsequent to such crop year in paying the expenses of the committee incurred in connection with the new crop year. The committee shall, however, from funds on hand, including assessments collected during the new crop year, distribute or otherwise make available, within six months after the beginning of the new crop year, the aforesaid excess, as verified by audit, to each handler who paid more than his pro rata share of the committee's expenses for the previous crop year. Each such handler's share of such excess shall be the difference between the assessments he paid to the committee in connection with its previous year's operations and his pro rata share of such expenses. Any money collected from assessments hereunder and remaining unexpended in the possession of the committee upon the termination hereof shall be distributed in such manner as the Secretary may direct.

11. Make such other changes in the marketing agreement and order as may be necessary to make the entire marketing agreement and order conform with any amendments thereto which may result from this hearing.

12. Amend § 993.34 Voting procedure and verbatim record by changing the seventh sentence thereof to read as follows: "Any recommendation submitted to the Secretary by the committee, pursuant to the requirements of §§ 993.41 through 993.45, §§ 993.48 through 993.50 or §§ 993.59 through 993.63, shall be on the basis of an affirmative vote by at least two-thirds of the members present (in case of fractional numbers, expressed in terms of the next highest whole number): Provided, That at least 11 members vote affirmatively on any such recommendation.

Copies of this notice of hearing may be obtained from the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., W. Allmendinger, Berkeley Marketing Field Office, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Mercantile Building, Room 416, 2082 Center Street, Berkeley 4, California, or the Prune Administrative Committee, No. 2 Pine Street, San Francisco 11, California.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

WORK EXPERIENCE PROGRAM FOR CIVILIAN APPLICATION

Notice is hereby given of the institution of a program to provide specialized work experience at AEC facilities for scientific and engineering employees of private firms and institutions engaging in the pursuit of peaceful applications of atomic energy.

Designed to encourage widespread participation in the development and utilization of atomic energy through on-the-job training, the program affords employees of participating firms the opportunity to become familiar with nuclear processes applicable to specified uses.

Criteria for participation. Work experience assignments in AEC facilities will be arranged upon application of interested firms and institutions subject to the following conditions: (a) The knowledge and training to be derived from a proposed work experience assignment are not reasonably available outside the facilities of the AEC; (b) the individuals proposed for assignment under the program are qualified by training and experience to take full advantage of the opportunity for learning on the job; (c) work assignments can be arranged without undue burden on the other programmatic work of the AEC facility involved; (d) applicants for work experience assignments involving access to Restricted Data or to security areas must hold an AEC Access Permit, and the individuals proposed for assignment must have appropriate security clearance; (e) available assignment opportunities will, generally, except as provided in (f) below, be extended on the basis of date of receipt of application, and in order to maximize the number of firms and institutions that can participate, AEC reserves the right to limit the number of individuals assigned in the work experience program from any one firm or institution and to establish the duration of their assignments; (f) prior consideration may be given to participants planning to engage in particular types of applications deemed by the AEC to be of special importance to the objectives of the civilian application program.

Method of application. Interested firms and institutions may, as appropriate, address inquiries and applications for participation in the work experience program to the AEC Manager of Operations responsible for administration of applicant's access permit; or to the Manager of Operations having jurisdiction of the facility preferred by applicant for work experience purposes. Applications may also be addressed to the Director, Division of Civilian Application, U. S. A. E. C., Washington 25, D. C.

Contents of application. Each letter of application should contain a description of the participant's project or proposal for a civilian application of atomic energy, and should state the qualifications, including technical education and experience, of individuals being proposed for work experience assignments. The letter of application may also state the type and duration of work experience desired and any preference which the applicant may have for a particular AEC facility or location. Applicants who hold access permits should so state in their letter of application, giving the permit number and listing the categories of information made available under the permit.

Cost and expenses. Participation in the program is on a no-fee basis. Salaries, welfare and benefit plan expenses, insurance premiums, transportation and other items related to the trainee are to be borne by the participating firm or institution.

Upon acceptance for participation, final arrangements will be effected by a contract between the private participating organization and the Commission's operating contractor, subject to the approval of the Commission.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of March 1957.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

DAVID F. SHAW,
Acting Deputy General Manager.

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

[Delegation of Authority No. 283]

CHAIRMAN, ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

DISPOSAL OF THE SLICK ROCK HOUSING PROJECT, SLICK ROCK, COLORADO

1. Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the provisions of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, (63 Stat. 377) as amended (hereinafter referred to as "the act"), authority is hereby delegated to the Chairman, Atomic Energy Commission, to dispose of the real property and related personal property comprising the Slick Rock Housing Project, Slick Rock, San Miguel County, Colorado, reported excess by the Atomic Energy Commission on February 6, 1957, by negotiated sale or otherwise, upon such terms as may be advantageous to the United States: Provided, That the consideration for any negotiated disposal shall be not less than the appraised fair market value of the property sold.

2. It has been determined by the General Services Administration that the property covered by this delegation of authority is surplus to the needs of the Federal Government.

3. The authority conferred herein shall be exercised in accordance with the act and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

4. In the case of a negotiated disposal, the Chairman, Atomic Energy Commission, shall submit to the appropriate Committees of Congress an explanatory statement of the type required by section 203e of the act as amended. A copy of each such statement shall be furnished to the General Services Administration.

5. The authority delegated herein may be redelegated to any officer or employee of the Atomic Energy Commission.

This delegation of authority shall remain in effect until May 31, 1958 and shall be effective as of the date hereof.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[Rev. S. O. 562, Taylor's I. C. C. Order 81]

NEW YORK, ONTARIO AND WESTERN RAILWAY CO.

DIVERSION OR REROUTING OF TRAFFIC

In the opinion of Charles W. Taylor, Agent, an emergency exists on the New York, Ontario and Western Railway Company, because of the cessation of operations under an order of the United States District Court.

It is ordered, That:

(a) Rerouting traffic. The New York, Ontario and Western Railway Company, and its connections, are hereby authorized to divert or reroute such traffic over any available route to expedite the movement, regardless of routing shown on the waybill. The billing covering all such cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Concurrence of receiving roads to be obtained: The railroad desiring to divert or reroute traffic under this order shall confer with the proper transportation officer of the railroad or railroads to which such traffic is to be diverted or rerouted, and shall receive the concurrence of such other railroads before the rerouting or diversion is ordered.

(c) Notification to shippers: The carriers rerouting cars in accordance with this order shall notify each shipper at the time each car is rerouted or diverted and shall furnish to such shipper the new routing provided under this order.

(d) Inasmuch as the diversion or rerouting of traffic by said Agent is deemed to be due to carriers' disability, the rates applicable to traffic diverted or rerouted by said Agent shall be the rates which were applicable at the time of shipments on the shipments as originally routed.

(e) In executing the directions of the Commission and of such Agent provided for in this order, the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the divisions of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, those voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; or upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be those hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act.

(f) Effective date: This order shall become effective at 2:00 p. m., March 26, 1957.

(g) Expiration date: This order shall expire at 11:59 p. m., April 26, 1957, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D. C., March 26, 1957.

NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY, AND PENNSYLVANIA

INCREASED COMMUTATION PASSENGER FARES

At a general session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of March A. D. 1957.

The Commission having under consideration requests by numerous interested persons for an investigation of increased interstate commutation passenger fares for distances of 15 miles or over, from, to, and between points in the States of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania established on January 27, 1957, March 10, 1957, and later; and for good cause appearing:

It is ordered, That the Commission, upon its own motion, enter upon an investigation into and concerning the reasonableness, and lawfulness otherwise of such increased interstate commutation passenger fares for distances of 15 miles or over, with a view to determining whether such fares are in violation of any provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act, and of making such findings and entering such order, or orders, and of taking such other action in the premises as may be warranted by the record.

It is further ordered, That The Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, The New Jersey and New York Railroad Company (Horace Banta, Trustee), Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, and Reading Company be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding;

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served upon each of said respondents; that the States of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania be notified of this proceeding by mailing copies of this order to the Governor of each State, and to the Public Service Commission of New York, Albany, N. Y., Department of Public Utilities, Board of Public Utility Commissioners of New Jersey, Trenton, N. J., and Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, Harrisburg, Pa.; and that copies for public inspection be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, and with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

And it is further ordered, That this proceeding be, and it is hereby, assigned for hearing 9:30 a. m. United States Standard Time, April 25, 1957, at the offices of the Board of Public Utility Commissioners of New Jersey, Room 214, Newark Center Building, 1100 Raymond Boulevard, Newark, N. J., before Examiner Oren G. Barber.

By the Commission.

MANILA ELECTRIC CO. AND GENERAL PUBLIC UTILITIES CORP.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

MARCH 25, 1957.

General Public Utilities Corporation ("GPU"), a registered holding company, and its foreign public utility subsidiary, Manila Electric Company ("Manila"), having filed, pursuant to sections 9 (a), 10, 12 (b) and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rule U-45 promulgated thereunder, a joint application-declaration regarding a proposal by GPU to make advances on open account to Manila, from time to time not later than December 31, 1958, in an amount aggregating not in excess of $3,750,000, and subsequently to acquire serial notes or bonds of Manila to evidence such advances; and

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice and the Commission having considered the record and having this day issued its findings and opinion herein, on the basis of such findings and opinion:

It is ordered, That the declaration of GPU regarding its proposal to advance to Manila on open account, from time to time not later than December 31, 1958, amounts not to exceed an aggregate of $3,750,000, be, and it is hereby, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed by Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and it hereby is, reserved with respect to the acquisition by GPU of any serial notes or bonds to be issued hereafter by Manila to evidence the advances herein permitted.

By the Commission.

NIPPON ELECTRIC POWER CO., LTD.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

MARCH 26, 1957.

In the matter of Nippon Electric Power Company, Limited; First Mortgage 6½ percent Gold Bonds, due 1/1/53; File No. 1-3586.

American Stock Exchange has made application, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1(b) promulgated thereunder, to strike the above-named security from listing and registration thereon.

The reasons alleged in the application for striking this security from listing and registration include the following:

There remain outstanding only $68,000 principal amount of these bonds and there have been no transactions therein on the applicant Exchange since July 2, 1956. They are a residue whose holders have not exchanged them for extended maturities pursuant to an offer made by the Government of Japan on November 24, 1952.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before April 10, 1956, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application and other information contained in the official file of the Commission pertaining to the matter.

By the Commission.

EASTERN UTILITIES ASSOCIATES ET AL.

ORDER AUTHORIZING AND RELEASING JURISDICTION WITH RESPECT TO ISSUANCE AND SALE OF COMMON STOCK BY SUBSIDIARIES

MARCH 26, 1957.

In the matter of Eastern Utilities Associates, Blackstone Valley Gas and Electric Company, Brockton Edison Company, Fall River Electric Light Company; File No. 70-3560.

The Commission, by order dated March 12, 1957, authorized the issuance and sale by Eastern Utilities Associates ("EUA"), a registered holding company, pursuant to an underwritten rights offering of 89,322 additional common shares. In said order the Commission reserved jurisdiction over the proposal of EUA to use the proceeds from such sale to purchase its proportionate part of the additional common shares proposed to be issued and sold by its subsidiaries, Blackstone Valley Gas and Electric Company ("Blackstone"), Brockton Edison Company ("Brockton"), and Fall River Electric Light Company ("Fall River"). The record is now complete with respect to such transactions which are summarized below.

Blackstone has outstanding 173,234 shares of common stock of which EUA owns 171,804 shares (99.2 percent). Blackstone proposes to offer to the holders of its common stock 10,828 additional share at $105 per share as fixed by its board of directors. Such shares will be offered on the basis of one new share for each 16 shares presently held and their sale is expected to provide proceeds of $1,132,000 which will be applied to the partial payment of Blackstone's outstanding short-term bank loans. The Public Utility Administrator, Department of Business Regulation, State of Rhode Island, the State commission of the State in which Blackstone is organized and doing business, has expressly authorized the issue and sale of new common stock by Blackstone.

Brockton has outstanding 241,398 shares of common stock of which EUA owns 235,188 shares (97.4 percent). Brockton proposes to offer to the holders of its common stock 18,570 additional shares at $62 per share as fixed by its board of directors. Such shares will be offered on the basis of one new share for each 13 shares presently held and their sale is expected to provide proceeds of $1,146,000 which will be applied to the partial payment of Brockton's outstanding short-term bank loans. The Department of Public Utilities of Massachusetts, the State commission of the State in which Brockton is organized and doing business, has expressly authorized the proposed issue and sale of new common stock by Brockton.

Fall River has outstanding 212,000 shares of common stock of which EUA owns 207,338 shares (97.8 percent). Fall River proposes to offer to the holders of its common stock 13,250 additional shares at $52 per share as fixed by its board of directors. Such shares will be offered on the basis of one new share for each 16 shares presently held and their sale is expected to provide proceeds of $684,000 which will be applied to the partial payment of Fall River's outstanding short-term bank loans. The Department of Public Utilities of Massachusetts, the State commission of the State in which Fall River is organized and doing business, has expressly authorized the proposed issue and sale of new common stock by Fall River.

EUA will purchase its pro rata part of the shares of additional common stock to be issued by Blackstone, Brockton and Fall River as well as any additional shares not subscribed for by other holders. EUA will use the proceeds from its common stock sale and other funds on hand or to be borrowed from banks for this purpose.

In its order of March 12, 1957 the Commission further reserved jurisdiction over all fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with the joint application-declaration filed by EUA and its subsidiaries, and, by amendment, additional information has been filed with respect thereto.

The Commission finding with respect to the fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred in regard to the various proposals that the same are reasonable and for necessary services and that jurisdiction heretofore reserved over said fees and expenses should be released; and the Commission further finding that the applicable provisions of the act and that the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary in respect of the transactions proposed in said joint application-declaration not heretofore authorized by the Commission in its order of March 12, 1957; and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the joint application-declaration, as amended, of EUA and its subsidiaries in so far as it relates to such transactions should be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith and that jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to such transactions should be released;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said joint application-declaration, as amended, to the extent that it relates to proposed transactions not heretofore authorized, be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to (1) all transactions proposed in said joint application-declaration not heretofore authorized by the Commission in its order of March 12, 1957, and (2) all fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with said joint application-declaration, as amended be, and the same hereby is, released.

By the Commission.

COLUMBIA GAS SYSTEM, INC.

ORDER APPROVING ISSUE AND SALE OF COMMON STOCK

MARCH 26, 1957.

The Columbia Gas System, Inc. ("Columbia"), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration and amendments thereto pursuant to section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rule U-50 thereunder, regarding the following proposed transaction:

Columbia proposes to offer 1,675,415 shares of its authorized and unissued common stock without par value ("New Common Stock") to the holders of its outstanding shares of common stock. The offer will give to such stockholders (a) the Primary Subscription Right to subscribe for shares of the New Common Stock on the basis of one share of the New Common Stock for each thirteen shares of common stock held of record as of the close of business on April 3, 1957; and (b) the Additional Subscription Privilege to subscribe for such number of shares of the New Common Stock as are not subscribed for through the exercise of Primary Subscription Rights, subject (in the event of oversubscription) to allocation based on the number of shares subscribed for pursuant to the Primary Subscription Right. Transferable warrants evidencing the Primary Subscription Right and the Additional Subscription Privilege will be issued to the stockholders on or about April 3, 1957. The subscription period will expire at 3:30 p. m. on April 22, 1957.

The price at which the New Common Stock will be offered to stockholders will be determined by Columbia on April 2, 1957, and will be not less than 85 percent of the closing price of the common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on April 1, 1957.

Fractional shares of the New Common Stock will not be issued. Columbia's agent will provide, without cost, facilities for the purchase of Rights (not exceeding 12) necessary to subscribe for one or more additional full shares of the New Common Stock or for the sale of Rights (not exceeding 12) in excess of those necessary to so subscribe.

The offer to stockholders will be underwritten. Pursuant to Rule U-50, Columbia proposes on March 28, 1957, to invite bids for the purchase, at the subscription price, of such shares of the New Common Stock as are not subscribed through the exercise of the Primary Subscription Right and the Additional Subscription Privilege ("Unsubscribed Shares"). The bids will specify the compensation to be paid to the underwriters for their commitments in connection with the purchase of the Unsubscribed Shares.

This is described as the first step in Columbia's 1957 financing program. The net proceeds from the sale of the New Common Stock will be added to the company's general funds and, supplemented by cash to be generated from operations and additional public financing, will be used to make additional investments in subsidiary companies to aid in financing their 1957 construction programs (estimated at approximately $84,000,000) and for other investments.

Columbia estimates its fees and expenses in connection with the proposed transaction as follows:

Filing fee, this Commission	$3,015.75
Printing and engraving	96,000.00
Cravath, Swaine & Moore, legal services	20,000.00
Ralph Davis, engineering services	10,000.00
Arthur Andersen & Co., accounting services	5,500.00
Bankers Trust Company, subscription agent	123,500.00
Transfer agents and registrars	48,750.00
System service company (at cost)	12,000.00
Original issue tax	27,500.00
Listing fees, New York and Pittsburgh stock exchanges	9,475.00
Miscellaneous	3,000.00
Total	358,740.75

Compensation of Shearman & Sterling & Wright, independent counsel to the underwriters, is estimated at $12,500 plus out-of-pocket expenses not exceeding $1,500.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said declaration and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the declaration as amended be permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said declaration as amended be, and hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 and Rule U-50.

By the Commission.

NATIONAL BANKERS LIFE INSURANCE CO.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

MARCH 26, 1957.

I. National Bankers Life Insurance Company ("Issuer"), a Texas corporation, having filed with the Commission on February 28, 1957, a notification on Form 1-A and an offering circular relating to a proposed public offering of 156,960 shares of its $1.00 par value stock at $1.00 a share for an aggregate of $156,960.00, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder; and

II. The Commission having reasonable cause to believe that the terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that:

1. Written offers of securities to which the notification and offering circular relate were made by the Issuer without furnishing the offerees copies of the offering circular as required by Rule 256 (a) (1) of Regulation A;

2. The offering of such securities was commenced prior to the expiration of the waiting period provided for in Rule 255 (a) and as a result the Issuer has received approximately $156,000.00 from purchasers.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261 of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given to National Bankers Life Insurance Company and to any person having any interest in the matter that this order has been entered, that the Commission upon receipt of a written request within thirty days after entry of this order will, within twenty days after the receipt of such request, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether to vacate the order or to enter an order permanently suspending the exemption without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing, that if no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the Commission, the order shall become permanent on the thirtieth day after its entry and shall remain in effect unless or until it is modified or vacated by the Commission, and that notice of the time and place for any hearing will promptly be given to the Commission.

By the Commission.
